OFFICIAL PROGRAM $1.00

Tackle some Gusto.

© 1973 Jos. Schlitz Brewing Co., Milwaukee and the world.

Our game plan: take to the air, get in the other teams' territory, then touchdown!

Frontier covers Big 8 territory like a Cyclone center covers the ball.

We touchdown where your team does—or close enough to get you there for the kick-off. Denver, Lincoln, Kansas City, St. Louis, Fayetteville. Frontier flies to more than 100 cities to accommodate a lot of fans. Get a group of 10 or more together and take advantage of special discounts—20% to 30% off Standard Fare—the larger the group, the greater the savings. Your travel agent is the quarterback who can plan every detail of your trip.

SAM HAMILTON IS CY'S FAVORITE

Sam Hamilton, a man honored in many ways by Iowa State University, is Cy's Favorite Alum for 1973.

A letterman who competed in football and track, Hamilton is honored today by the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the Iowa State Alumni Association for his leadership in bringing into reality the new football stadium.

Cy's Favorite Alum is an honor bestowed upon Iowa Staters who have shown outstanding devotion to the university and especially to the athletic department.

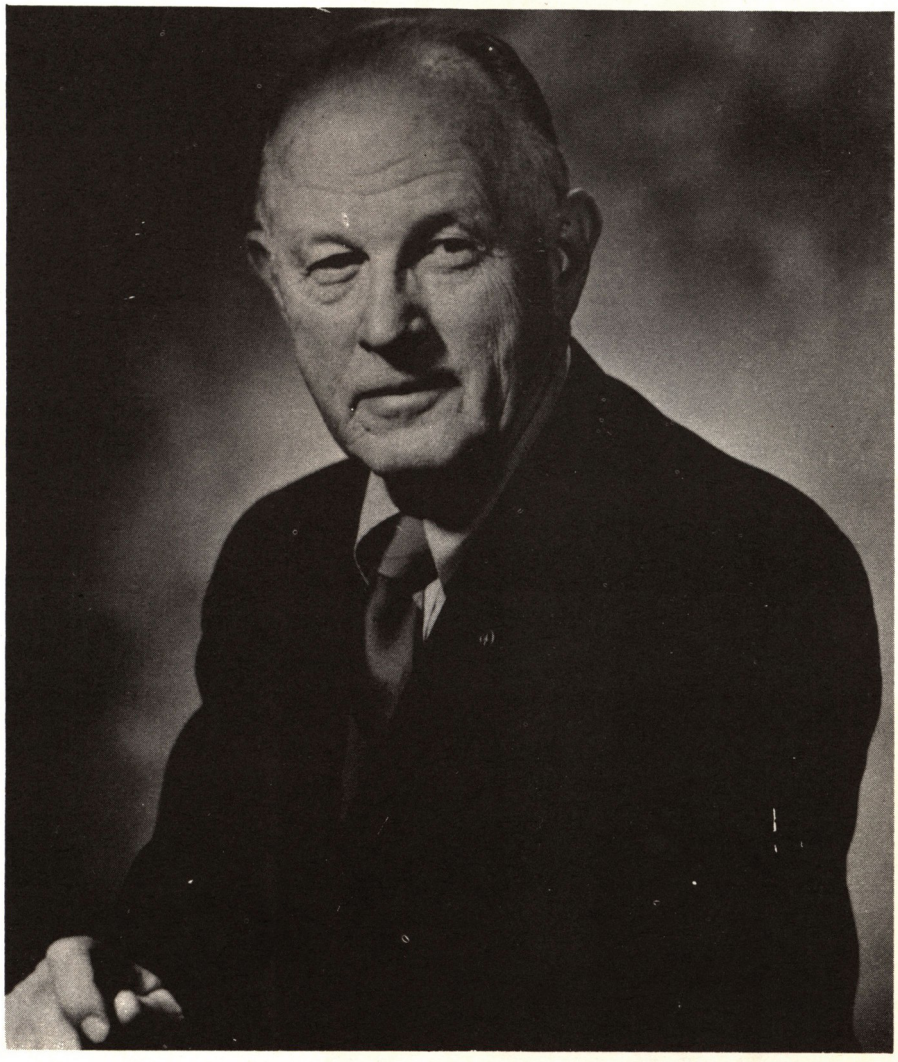
Hamilton, a 1929 Civil Engineering graduate, has devoted many hours, many long trips from his home in Chicago and now in Austin, Texas, to the end that his alma mater might have the advantages of his knowledge, wisdom and leadership.

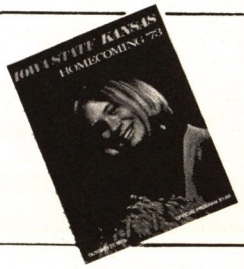
As head of the Design-Construct Committee for the Iowa State Foundation's drive for the new stadium, he has played a most prominent part in developing the concept of the new stadium. He is currently chairman of the Iowa State Foundation's executive committee and has also served as that body's president.

With his selection as Cy's Favorite Alum, Hamilton has now been signally honored four times by Iowa State. He was presented the Alumni Recognition Medal in 1965, the Alumni Merit award in 1967, and in 1970 was awarded the Marston Medal award in recognition of outstanding achievements in engineering.

Hamilton, who retired as senior vice-president of finance and treasurer of the Chicago Bridge and Iron Company in 1971, managed much of the planning for the Iowa State Cultural Center as president of the foundation.

Sam is married to Louise Moen, a 1930 Home Economics graduate of Iowa State, and they have three fine sons.





Cover Story

Sue Kaldor is today's cover girl. Sue is a resident of Ames, Iowa, and has been active in campus affairs. She is a Pom Pon Girl and a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She is a senior in science journalism.

CYCLONE Coaching Staff

Earle Bruce - a disciplined, dedicated coach who likes to attack at all times. A highly successful high school coach in Ohio, Bruce spent six years on the Ohio State staff. He was the head coach at Tampa a year ago and brought the Spartans through to 10-2 season that included a Tangerine Bowl victory.

Marv Braden - defensive coordinator. Coached at Missouri, Parsons, Northeast Missouri, and the U. S. International University - all with distinction - before joining forces with Bruce.

Jim Weaver - offensive coordinator. Coached six years at his alma mater - Penn State - where his lines were instrumental in the great success of the Nittany Lions.

Tom Backhus - coaches offensive guards and centers. Three letter gridder at Ohio State. Coached with Bruce at Tampa.

Joe Bugel - coaches defensive tackles. Coached four years each at his alma mater - Western Kentucky - and at the Naval Academy.

Ray Greene - coaches the receivers. Veteran of the staff at Iowa State, coached in Akron high schools, also at Miami before coming to Iowa State in 1969.

Randy Hart - freshman coach. Holds football, wrestling letters from Ohio State. Coached with Earle Bruce at Tampa.

Keith Kephart - heads Cyclone football recruiting. Coached in Illinois high schools, came to Cyclones in 1970. Coached frosh one year.

Charlie Lyle - coaches defensive backfield. Football, baseball letterman at Tampa. Coached there two years after career in Florida high school coaching circles.

Jim Shreve - coaches offensive backs. Football, basketball letterman at Syracuse. Coached at Moravian, Lehigh, George Washington before returning to develop great Syracuse backs.

Bob Tucker - coaches defensive ends. Football letterman at Wooster college. Coached at Massillon high and Wichita State before joining his old high school coach, Earle Bruce.

CARDINAL and GOLD Scholarship Program

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY

Department of Intercollegiate Athletics

THE CARDINAL AND GOLD SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Hundreds of student-athletes have had their education at Iowa State University financed through contributions of Cyclone Club members. More and more, the success of major college athletic programs is dependent upon the financial support of alumni and friends. The Iowa State University Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is proud to honor the individuals and firms on these pages who have contributed one or more $1,000 GOLD Full Scholarships or $500 for a CARDINAL Half Scholarship.

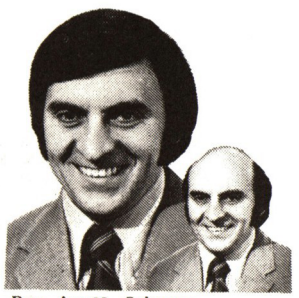
Jeff Age 23 College Student
"I wanted to do something about my thinning hair, but I didn't want the fakey toupee look. Mr. Executive's Endura Bond made my hair look and feel natural."



Don Age 33 Salesman
"I look and feel 10 years younger. Thanks to Mr. Executive I have that confidence I need in my business and social life. Once you see yourself with a full head of hair, you'll know what I am talking about."

Gary Age 26 Construction Worker
"Mr. Executive's Endura Bond is everything they say it is. My biggest surprise was the reaction of my friends. I received nothing but compliments and comments that I should've done it sooner."

Telecommunicative Arts

Lynda Weigel came to Iowa State University four years ago to major in Telecommunicative Arts. In June of 1971 she went to WOI-TV studios to apply for a job with Dorcas Speer, Program Resource Specialist. The job she wanted, doing interviews and newscasting, wasn't open, but Dorcas told her that a camera job might be open, and encouraged her to apply for it. Lynda was skeptical and not very enthusiastic, knowing that camera operators traditionally were men. But she did apply for the job and was employed as the first woman camera operator in WOI-TV history. Lynda currently takes her turn operating one of the two Norelco color cameras for the 10:00 p.m. News, for "One-to-One," a live interview program on Monday nights, and for "Dimension 5" on Tuesday nights. Occasionally Lynda "mans" a camera for "Magic Window," for educational segments videotaped for use in Iowa State University classes, and for the videotaping of commercials.

"When I first started working at WOI-TV, I found a little anti-feminine prejudice from some of the others on the production staff. But they soon learned that I could handle my job as well as any of the men," Lynda said.

Lynda flew to New York City this past summer to see what the field of broadcasting had to offer a girl from the Midwest. She found that the large television studios, as well as the smaller production companies, are very eager to hire competent women. Lynda decided to accept a production position with Madcap Productions in New York when she graduates this spring.

The Telecommunicative Arts major has also been active in the theatrical productions of the ISU Theatre and ACTORS, the Ames Community Theatre organization. Telecommunicative Arts is one of four options open to students in the Department of Speech. The others are Theatre, Speech Correction, and Public Address.

About the University of KANSAS

The University of Kansas serves some 20,000 resident students at its main campus of more than 700 acres in Lawrence and at the KU Medical Center in Kansas City, Kan. Through correspondence and extension class divisions many more are enrolled in part-time study.

Twelve schools with more than 70 teaching departments comprise the University. The schools are: Graduate, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Business, Education, Engineering, Fine Arts, Journalism, Law, Medicine, Pharmacy, Architecture and Urban Design and the School of Social Work.

KU opened its doors in September, 1866, to 29 men and 26 women, making it only the third state university accepting the principle of co-education. The act organizing the University was passed by the legislature of 1864, but not until the following year—with the Civil War ended—was $20,000 raised for a building. The money came chiefly from Quantrill relief funds which had been sent to Lawrence.

The home selected for the University was Mount Oread, a ridge several miles long between two valleys carved out of geologic time by the Kaw and Wakarusa rivers. A group of New Englanders gave Mount Oread its name, likening it to the site of Oread Institute in Massachusetts, which occupied a similar commanding view of its town.

The University of Kansas is one of six state institutions of higher education governed by the State Board of Regents, a nine-member board appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the State Senate.

The first man to occupy the position of Chancellor was the Rev. R. W. Oliver, but the first Chancellor in the sense of the president of the faculty was General John Fraser. When he was elected in 1867 enrollment was 105 students.

Dr. Archie Dykes, KU's 13th chancellor, became head of the University July 1, 1973. He succeeded Raymond Nichols, longtime KU vice-chancellor and executive executive secretary, who served nearly a year folowing the resignation of Dr. Laurence Chalmers.

IOWA ROAD BUILDERS'

CYCLONE SCOUTING REPORT

You are never going to guess what Kansas will do when it gets in a tight spot. The strong arm of David Jaynes will flash and the fleet Bruce Adams will run under the ball and haul it in for the yardage the Jayhawks will need. That is the script.

There will be changes, you can be sure, for Delvin Williams has come on to become one of the finest running backs in the Big Eight.

Basically the Kansas team, under Don Fambrough, will run from what the coaches call pro-sets. They will split their backs and stack them in the I. In any case the running threat is Williams. When Jaynes passes he has two outstanding receivers. Adams has been mentioned. His sidekick is Emmett Edwards. Both are equally good when it comes to hauling in the ball. Adams, with more experience, has been the favorite target. Edwards is just as dangerous and cannot be neglected by the Cyclone secondary.

Defensively the Jayhawks prefer a 50 defense. In the fans' language that means a five man front with a pair of linebackers, and a four-man secondary. The rover in that four-man alignment may be moving into the line at times and will generally try to face the power of the Cyclone attack.

Kansas is big, as big as any team the Cyclones are likely to face this year. With that size, there is enough speed and mobility to cope with any foe on the schedule.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

This is the council which plans and supervises the policies for the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics at Iowa State University.

Iowa State University Department of Intercollegiate Athletics Recognizes With Appreciation the following Iowa Automobile Dealers

Twenty-three Iowa automobile dealers are playing a big part in promoting the Iowa State sports program this year. These fans—and they are rabid backers of all forms of athletic activity—provide the use of automobiles to the department throughout the year. Their program permits Iowa State to make more efficient use of its funds. The department of intercollegiate athletics is deeply grateful to these sports-minded boosters.

Own a piece of the turf . . In ISU's new stadium!

You can help cover the playing field in Iowa State's beautiful new stadium with all-weather AstroTurf — and "own" a piece of the turf in the process.

About 10,000 square yards of AstroTurf are needed to cover the Cyclones' new field, at a purchase-and-installation cost of about $25 per square yard.

Send us your contribution for one square yard of AstroTurf, and we'll send you a handsome certificate of appreciation, inscribed with your name and suitable for hanging on your den or office wall, to show that you own a piece of the turf in the Cyclones' new stadium.

The first 1,000 contributors also will receive an actual 3-by-5-inch piece of the same AstroTurf that will cover the Cyclones' new field — a perfect souvenir or desktop conversation piece for any Iowa State football fan.

So, hurry. The new stadium is scheduled to be completed next fall. Please make your check payable to the ISU Alumni Achievement Fund and designate your gift for "Turf."
