Son's Diary.

SON'S DIARY.

Can a man be a Christian and be a good soldier? This question has puzzled many men and will continue to puzzle many more, so long as men are called Christians in so far as they live up to the creeds of the existing churches. If only those are to be called Christians, I am convinced that there is no place in the army for Christianity; but if a Christian is a man whose actions are instinct with humility, unselfishness, love and self sacrificing, only the Christian can develop into a good soldier.

No longer is the good soldier the one who drills the best, bullies the men around, and whose only claim to leadership is his vocabulary of "guss" words. Equally so has the time of the Christian, who knows himself to be a Christian because he has lived up to the doctrine of his church, passed.

Just as the war has broken down many of the conventions of society, so will it break down many of the church rituals and ceremonies. In the army there can be no serving of God after the old theory. The whole system of military training tends to break down the existing theories of religion. In a crowded tent, surrounded by so many disinterested men, how can a man assert his religion according to the old theories? The religion of the soldier must be practical. It must consist of more than the repetition of morning prayers, communion, and sermons. The soldiers must be assured of something more than going to heaven when they die. Do not so misunderstand me as to think that the soldiers are near the quick sands of infidelity. They are far above these. Their feet are firmly planted upon the solid rocks of love and service.

There are no persons in the army better liked than men who love their comrades, and go out of their way to bring a canteen of cold water to quench their pal's thirst, or write a letter home for the boys who are so unfortunate as not to be able to write for themselves. And the most hated man in the army is the Chaplain who tries to make the boys think that death will be instant unless they join the Christian band. Very seldom is the Chaplain enough an emulator of Christ to get among the boys, gain their confidence, and give them sound advice about how to bridge the many pitfalls of life.

A bit of reading matter—"Tom—The Letter He Got When He Left His Mother for 'Somewhere in France'"—a good moral lesson, has had more influence upon the boys than the combined efforts of two army Chaplains.

Steeled as the soldier is, not to fear death, makes him live for the present. He is little concerned with what people in the time of the prophets thought, did, or should have done. What he wants to know is, how will Christianity help him to fight his battles, will it enable him to best protect his home, his country, and humanity?

Do You Enjoy Life?

A man in good physical condition is almost certain to enjoy life, while the bilious and dyspeptic are despondent, do not enjoy their meals and feel miserable a good share of the time. This ill feeling is nearly always unnecessary. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to tone up the stomach, improve the digestion and regulate the bowels is all that is needed. Try it.

Had Something on George.

"I've got it all over George Washington in one thing," Harold told his playmate. "How's that?" he was asked. "Well, he couldn't tell a lie and I can."

HON. FRANK SHANKLAND.

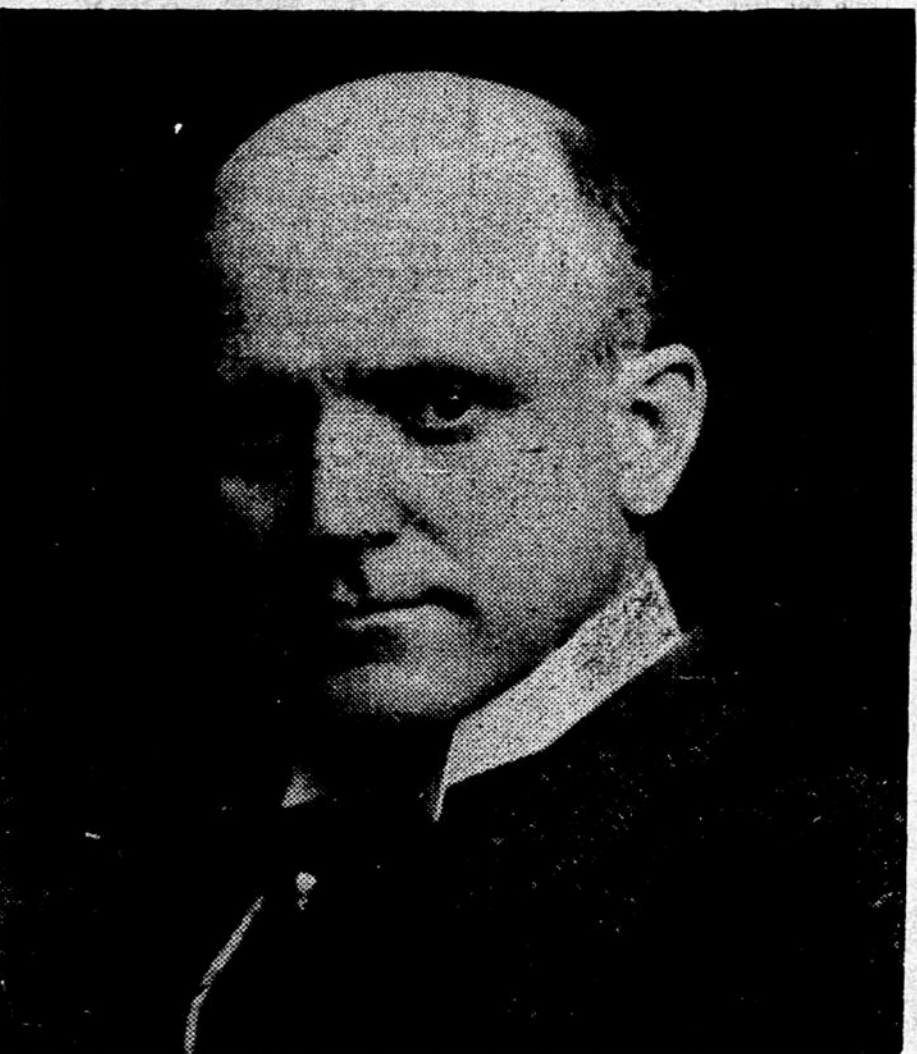

The above cut is that of our old friend and one of the best known attorneys of this county, Frank Shankland. He is a self-made man and has by his honest dealings and fair play won for himself a state-wide reputation. He has served Polk County two terms in the House of Representatives and now wishes to be promoted to the Senate, hence his name is appearing as candidate for State Senator from Polk County.

Mr. Shankland is a graduate of the Drake University School of Law and was the only member of the Iowa legislature to become prominent by always working for the best interest of the common masses.

It was largely through Mr. Shankland's influence we were able to defeat the famous Jim Crow bill that was introduced in the Iowa Legislature a few years ago and the Colored people of the state feel greatly indebted to Mr. Shankland in taking the initiative and his many friends who supported his position.

As a member of Polk County, I feel that the Colored People of this county could select no better Representative than Mr. Shankland so far as their interest is concerned.

JAMES B. WEAVER FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

The above cut is a true likeness of Hon. Jas. B. Weaver, present member of the assembly from Polk County, who is the candidate for his second term, subject to the Republican primaries. Mr. Weaver is the son of General James B. Weaver, who was well known in Iowa. He was born in Bloomfield, Iowa, Aug. 19th, 1861, and attended the public schools and graduated from the State University at Iowa City in 1882 and entered the law office of Baneroff & Gatch and has practiced in this city ever since.

He is active in the public movements and is a true friend of the Colored race, having inherited this from his famous father, General Weaver. There was no question in the legislature two years ago that concerned the rights of any people but what Mr. Weaver would be found making a fight for their fair play, and his many friends solicit your support, as no doubt he is entitled to the unanimous vote of the Colored people.

The daughters of the Golden Shield Tabernacle gave a very unique reception on Friday evening, May 3rd, at the Tabernacle hall, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Harris. The hall was beautifully decorated with pink and white. Large palms and vases of flowers were placed around the hall, which added to its beauty. The bride wore pink silk dress trimmed in mull and carried a large bouquet of flowers. The groom wore a tuxedo in the usual costume. The bride and groom were remembered by the name of Miss Nellie E. Parks.

Mr. David C. Harris and Miss Nellie E. Parks were united in marriage on April 4th at the home of Mrs. M. M. Brewton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. Woolrich, in the presence of a few friends.

What to Give.

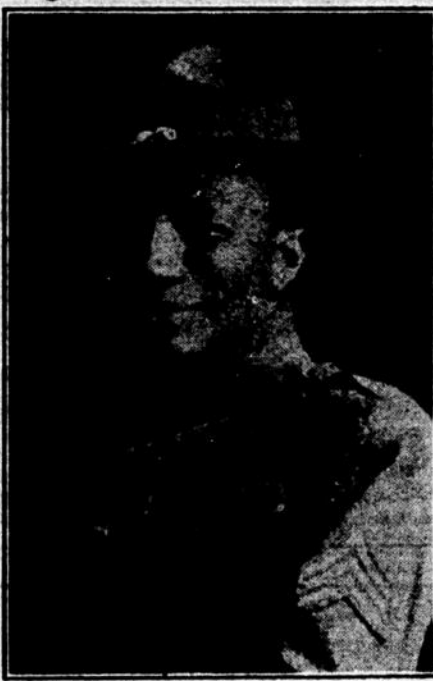

"Give to your enemies forgiveness, to your opponent tolerance, to your friend your heart, to your child a good example, to your parents deference, and to everybody sunshine."—Selected.

HON. WILLIAM S. ALLEN. Candidate for Secretary of State.

The name of Hon. William S. Allen, present Secretary of State, is presented for re-nomination for the same office at the primaries June 3rd. Mr. Allen is a man of broad interests, good, strong, painstaking and careful of his office, and because of these facts he has operated this great office on a very economical basis.

He is an active republican worker and has been a member of the state legislature, having been in both the house and senate, and stands upon his record in public life to win your support and assistance in the coming primaries.

W. S. Allen has been and is a friend of the Colored race and has always been found willing to grant to any class of people equal justice. He has made a splendid state officer and there is no doubt if he is supported and nominated that he will be the better able to do even more for the State of Iowa. His friends solicit your support.

ADDISON M. PARKER.

Hon. Senator Parker is a Candidate for His Second Term as Senator From the 30th District, Which Is Polk County, Subject to Coming Primaries.

Senator Parker is a Des Moines boy, having spent most of his time here, having graduated from the East Des Moines High School and of the Law department of Drake University. He is a bright lawyer and capable young man and is a good friend of the Colored race and stands on his past record in the legislature. His many friends are working for his nomination and ask your support in his behalf.

On April 26 the C. G. M. Sir Edward Roberson of Marshalltown, came to our city and set up Silver Leaf Temple No. 586, composed of twenty-one members. Sir Lewis Kipper, C. M., and Sir Charles Wilson, C. S. After the installation a dainty luncheon was served.

What They May Claim.

Pennsylvania claims to contain the Hercules of the nation as well as the Vulcan. New York will no doubt put in a claim as the Midas of the land, Washington as the Jupiter, Boston as the Minerva, and Oskaloosa, Iowa, as the Venus. And Chicago, with ten changes of weather at each performance, will put in its claim as the Mercury.

Some Strategy.

ALLIED FOOD SHIPMENTS REACH LARGE TOTAL.

A general idea of the quantity of food sent to European allies by the United States from July 1, 1914, to January 1, 1918, is given by figures just announced by the U. S. Food Administration. In that period the United States has furnished complete yearly rations for 57,100,983 people. In addition there was enough extra protein to supply this portion of the diet for 22,194,570 additional men.

The total export of wheat and wheat flour to the three principal allies is equivalent to about 384,000,000 bushels. Pork exports for the 3 1/2 years amounted to almost 2,000,000,000 pounds. Exports of fresh beef totaled 443,484,400 pounds. The amount of food exported to Russia is negligible compared with that sent to the western allies.

Great Wheat Stocks Isolated.

It's the shortage in ships that is putting the Allies and the United States on wheat rations. Great stocks of wheat are isolated in India, and Australia. At great sacrifice in ship space and use the Allies are forced to secure some wheat from Argentina.

On January 1, Australia had stored 100,000,000 bushels of wheat that was ready for export—but there were no ships. Then came the new crop with an exportable surplus of 80,000,000 bushels. Now Australia has approximately 180,000,000 bushels waiting for ships.

India, at the same time, had 70,000,000 bushels of wheat stored for export. During April 50,000,000 bushels more out of the new crop will be added to the pile.

Argentina closed the last shipping season with 11,000,000 bushels of wheat left in the stock available for export. The new crop will add 135,000,000 to the left over.

It is not a problem that the wheat does not exist in the world—it is entirely a problem of shipping, which has thrown on America the obligation of dividing our stock with the Allies.

The True and the False.

The president of a bank, when asked by a young clerk how he could distinguish the counterfeit bills from the good, said: "Get familiar with the good bills, and you will recognize the bad bills at sight." Here is a vast volume of general wisdom summed up in a single sentence.—Christian Herald.

A Question.

Said the near cynic: "Judging from the time some of the young blood of this town arrive home in the morning, it's hard to tell whether to call them night owls or larks."

EDITORIALS

EDITOR'S OBSERVATIONS.

A three days business trip in a few of our neighboring towns revealed the fact that the Negro Race of the North are fast entering into the business and industrial life of the country.

Chariton, the county seat of Lucas County, has about 2,200 population, of which there are about 80 colored people. Though few in number, they are doing well. Mr. Geo. D. Newman is one of the oldest citizens of this town and is an expressman. Mr. Martin is another substantial man. Mr. Jackson still runs the lunch room and has a large trade. He is making good money. He also owns some valuable property. Mr. Ray White is one of the new settlers here and is working for the Rock Island Railroad. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris own valuable property on South 15th St. G. W. McKee works for the C. B. & Q. Co. and is doing nicely. Mr. H. Martin lives on Osceola Ave. and is farming this year. Mr. Spears is doing well. There are two families of Spears here.

Our next stop for a few hours was in Albia, but since we have a regular correspondent, who is one of the most proficient, I will not give observations from that town.

After leaving Albia we next stopped for a short while in Buxton. Buxton is making a new interest again and there is plenty of work for every one at good wages, so everybody is happy and making money. I dare not say they are saving any as that is up to them.

Mr. Wm. Bailey, dubbed as the Mayor, is justice of the Peace, and is the sole agent for the Des Moines and Chicago daily papers and several weekly papers.

The schools have finished this year's course and had their commencement just before I reached there on Thursday night at the Y. M. C. A. There are three school buildings here. Two have all colored teachers and one with white teachers. They held their commencement exercises together. The central school is the largest one with colored teachers, has as its principal Miss Georgia Blackburn of Des Moines. Her assistants are Miss Gertrude Lucas of Bedford, Iowa, Miss Lola Heart of Muscatine, Iowa, and Miss Grace Harris of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. The 11th Street school has Mrs. W. H. London of Buxton as principal, assisted by Miss Mayne Findly of Buxton.

The Company store has more colored employees at present than for several years. The names of the clerks are as follows: The regular clerks are Gussie Mardis, Susie Roberts, Emma Smith, E. Bruce and Walter Blaney, who have all worked for several years at the store. Mr. E. Bruce is head of the Soda Fountain and the following are employed under him: Misses Bessie Tate, Lucile Hawkins, Odessa Brooks, and Mr. Jas. Busby, formerly of Michigan. The extra help on Saturdays and busy days are Marie Johnson, Zelma Tate and Malinda Washington.

The colored people in business here are enjoying good trade and are doing well. Mr. E. A. London is one of the most successful business men here. He also has a business in Des Moines.

The Church work is up to the average. The Y. M. C. A. is doing good work with Mr. E. A. Mills as Secretary. He has accepted the position as agent for the Bystander, therefore we feel sure we will have news from Buxton hereafter.

I desire to announce that I am a candidate for nomination for a second term as State Senator from Polk County, subject to the republican primaries June 3, 1918. ADDISON M. PARKER.

WOMEN AND THE LIBERTY LOAN

By MARION LUCE.

American women are protected from the hardships of the trenches by the courage of the American men. It will never be necessary to recruit an American Battalion of Death—but in the other two branches of war service women can and must take their places.

Women are taking men's places in the workshop, the office, even in the fields. Wherever there is work to do, American women will do it. No other nation has given its women so much—none other deserves so much from them.

Women can invest in Liberty bonds. Women can curtail waste and stimulate thrift, and invest in more Liberty bonds.

When women save money to invest in Liberty bonds, they serve doubly, for they release all the labor and the materials that would have been used in manufacturing the things they didn't buy, at the same time aiding their government in continuing America's holy war.

Women Must Save and Work.

Women, stand beside our fighting boys in spirit! Keep up the morale of our army by unflinching courage and heroic devotion at home. The Third Liberty loan points your duty—the third nation-wide call to universal service—the third sword sharpened for victory in the forge of freedom.

America must win—it does not fail—it is America, the unconquered, that calls.

Women, it is said, spend nine-tenths of all the money that is spent. Let every woman scrutinize her family budget. She must do the major part in taking her family's share of Liberty bonds. Upon the women of America must rest, in a large measure, success of the Third Liberty loan.

To the American Mother.

A boy, yours or your neighbor's, lies shivering in the trenches "over there." Wet, cold, weary, or worse yet, on the stretches of No Man's Land, wounded, alone, dying. You cannot bear for him one agony; you cannot give him life, health or happiness. But if all America does her duty you can give to every American lad who goes over the top the glory of hope—the reasonable certainty of victory—the emulation of knowing that he does not die in vain—that America has risen as one to make the world fit for life, fit for home, fit for freedom.

Invest in Liberty bonds now. Subscribe until it hurts. Take what you can outright, and take on the installment plan as many as you can stagger under.

Remember—it's no longer "do your bit," but do your all. Hold fast for victory!

Uncle Sam's Note.

When the government sells bonds, it takes no money out of the country. What it does is to ask the farmer, the manufacturer and the laborer to sell their products on time and it gives an interest-bearing note in advance, until you and those other producers can make the supplies to conduct the war. The war department can't shoot houses and lots and grain at the Germans. It asks the producers to grant it the credit first and then get busy and make the supplies it needs, and when your government has on its hands the biggest war the world ever knew, there is no time for trifling. Invest in bonds and see Uncle Sam and yourself through.

Bonds Are the Farmer's Friend. Every farmer should purchase Liberty bonds. By doing so he lends his government money to provide a merchant marine to carry his produce to the four corners of the world.

THE BOY IN KHAKI

By K. C. B.

I saw a mother.
And her brown clad boy.
And heard her sob.
And "Goodby, son."
And saw him.
Kiss her tears away.
And go.

And hours passed.
And in the darkness.
Of my room.
I lay.
And all the pictures.
That the day had drawn.
Came back.
And she was there.
And he was there.

And then a picture.
From across the sea.
Was painted.
On my shadow wall.
And he was there.
And all about him.
There were shadow men.
But nowhere.
Could I find the face.
Nor find the form.
Of her.

And then.
And wounded men.
Looked up at it.
And raised their arms.
And smiled.
And he was there.
And as I gazed.

Upon the cross.
I saw Her face.
And so it was.
That in the darkness.
Of my room.
It came to me.
That Red Cross work.
Across the sea.
Was mother's work.
In other hands.
And done for her.

And then sleep came.
And came a dream.
And cheering throng.
And boys came home.
And he was there.
And she was there.
And once again.
I heard her sob.
And saw him.
Kiss her tears away.

And in their wake.
On that glad day.
A Red Cross waved.
As it had waved.
And followed him.
Down in the valley.
And come back again.

HELP INCREASE OUR EXPORT FOOD STOCKS

CITY and country more war gardens are needed this year than ever before. Patriotism prompted 2,000,000 Americans to plant gardens last year, according to estimates of the United States Department of Agriculture. Transportation facilities of the nation will be strained this year hauling munitions of war and foods for the Allies. The surplus food created by home gardens will help in the railroad problem. And the nation will eat less of the goods we must export—wheat, meat, fats and sugar. Every boy and girl that helps with the garden is helping win the war. Leaflets of instruction in garden making may be secured from the Department of Agriculture at Washington, upon request, without charge.

And Baby Ruth was laid away to rest at Glendale to await the coming of father and mother and her grandparents.

CHURCH NEWS.

St. Paul A. M. E.

Sunday, May 5, marked the Third Quarterly Communion services of this conference year. P. E. Farabee preached at the morning and evening services, which were a source of inspiration to all who heard him. Rev. Woodfork of the M. E. preached the communion sermon at 3 p. m., which was greatly enjoyed by the number present.

This closes one of the best and most eventful quarters in the history of old St. Paul, from a spiritual and financial point of view. A living monument to the glory of God. Let the faithful communicants gird up their loins and do greater service in the next three months. Let the church boards—Trustee, Steward, Stewardess, Class leaders; and the departments—Sunday School, Missionary, Allen C. E. League; the auxiliaries—Sewing Circle, St. Paul Aid, Church Aid, S. L. B. Club, Alter Guild, Mothers' Council, and St. Paul choir (last but not least), work and pray for the new St. Paul, that your joys may be larger at the close of the fourth quarter.

The funeral of Mother Elizabeth Gardner was held from the church Sunday at 1:30 p. m., Rev. S. L. Birt in charge. Thus closes the last chapter of a faithful Christian life. Mother Gardner united with the A. M. E. Church in the state of Missouri fifty years ago. She was among the first to pay on the new St. Paul. The subscription book shows $4.55 to her credit.

Auntie Carter, who passed from the stage of this present life last quarter and who was cared for by Mrs. Adam Dixon in her declining years, is missed from her accustomed seat. These two elderly women's simple, child-like faith will ever be cherished by those who frequented the class room. "Peace to their ashes and felicity to their soul." Rev. Birt is taking a much needed rest at Excelsior Springs, Mo., this week and will be in charge of the pulpit Sunday (D. V.).

The captains of the Rally Clubs are requested to keep tag on all your workers. If they are not working, encourage them by planning for their success.

The Sunday School will give a bazaar and musical Tuesday evening at the skating rink. Beautiful and useful home made articles on sale. Cafeteria service. Public invited. Bro. C. B. Woods, chairman.

The choir will give a box social at the parsonage Monday evening. Public invited.

May Day Fete at the home of Mrs. Alex Griffin, Walker St. Dainty aprons and caps on sale. The S. L. B. in charge. Remember the date, Friday.

The subscribers are asked to make regular payments on the building fund. The pay roll of the workmen must be met. The pastor is anxious to have the indebtedness lifted, if possible, during his administration, so that St. Paul may not spend long years wrestling with a heavy indebtedness. This calls for a united effort on the part of every member. Keep at it.

S. L. Birt, Pastor.

Biliousness and Constipation.

"For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, purify the stomach, liver and blood, helping the system to do its work naturally."—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

J. Alvin Jefferson, M. D.

We feel that we owe an apology to the readers of this column, because we have allowed several weeks to elapse between the last issue and the present one.

During the last few weeks, it has been a physical impossibility to edit this column and at the same time do justice to the sick that has been under our care. We hope in the future that we shall be able to find time to keep this column at least half way up to date.

During the last few weeks there has been a large amount of respiratory diseases; such as acute nasal catarrh, acute laryngitis, acute bronchitis, broncho and lobar pneumonia, pleurisy and tuberculosis. There have also been thousands of cases of la grippe.

We have been unable to explain satisfactorily to the laity just why such an epidemic has been made possible. To my mind the cause is evident. We feel quite sure that there is a discoverable cause for every case of sickness that the physicians have been called upon to treat.

Large amount of it has been due to faulty housing conditions. Some homes do not get a thorough ventilation from November to March. Fresh air is indispensable. Why should we strive so diligently to keep it out of our bedrooms? If you have not been accustomed to sleeping with your windows open 365 nights in the year, try it. The old superstition that night air is dangerous, has had its bottom kicked out of it for a number of years. Night air is no more dangerous than day air. The same elements constitute both of them.

Sleeping in unventilated rooms lowers one's vitality. You arise next morning feeling like one who has been on a drunk. Why? Because you have been inhaling over and again the exhaled air from the lungs and pores of the skin.

There are some people who say they cannot sleep without a light. This is also bad practice. The light helps to consume what oxygen there is in the room and gives out carbon monoxide, a poisonous gas.

One of the worst practices we find among hundreds of people, especially men folks, is the habit of sleeping in their underwear. If you ask why they do this, some will give one reason and some another. Here are some of the reasons that we have received: (1) "I am too tired to change at night;" (2) another says, "I will catch cold by changing;" (3) another says, "When I get up next morning my room is cold and I get chilled while dressing." Not one of these excuses possess a grain of logic.

We are at a loss to assign any reason for such an unhygienic habit. We would not like to say that it was a case of laziness.

Dear reader, have you stopped to think what a large amount of poisonous material is stored up in your underclothes during the day? At night you should strip yourself of every garment worn during the day and put on a clean night gown or night shirt as the case may be, and those underclothes should be thoroughly aired or ventilated by the next morning.

Style has claimed thousands of victims. Thousands of people dress to look attractive instead of dressing to be comfortable. Style makes business good for the doctor and undertaker.

For a burn or a scald apply Chamberlain's Salve. It will allay the pain almost instantly and quickly heal the injured parts.
