THE 372D REGIMENT SONG.

O Kaiser William was a mighty man,
He had nothing on your Uncle Sam;
He sent his arms far across the sea,
And told them they had to enter Germany.
Von Hindenburg had a mighty line,
It extended along the river Rhine;
He said his mighty line could not be broke,
But the 372d took it as a joke.
(It takes a trois cent, said xante doize
to make the Germans lay their rifles down.)
For three long years Russia, England
and France
Had tried to put Germany in a trance.
But the Kaiser said he'd lick the world
in time,
But the 372d made him change his mind.
Give them ammunition and gun,
Because they are fast black and never known to run.

MACON, MO., NEWS.
Soldier Dies in France.

It is with sincere regret and deepest sorrow which a host of friends and acquaintances hear of the death of Private Thomas Jackson, the true announcement coming as a great shock to his friends. He was greatly loved by all who knew him. The telegram reads
as follows:

Machine Gun Company,
369th United States Infantry,
American E. F., Nov. 29, 1918.
Mr. George Jackson,
1023 Brooklyn St.,
St. Louis, Mo.

Sir: This is to advise that Private Thomas W. Jackson was killed in action the 29th of September on the campaign
front while attacking German machine gun position. During the action prior Jackson performed his duty as a soldier with the utmost bravery. His family may well be proud of him and take consolation in the fact that he met the most glorious death possible, fighting for his country and for the victory. His company and his country will grieve the loss of a loyal and faithful soldier.

Lewis E. Shaw,
Capt. 369th U. S. Inf., Com. Co.
Private T. Jackson was among the first bunch of boys that left about a year ago last October for the camps
and while overseas wrote many interesting letters back home. He seemed to feel if the time was near he was willing to die a gallant soldier that the shots
and roaring of the cannon would soften any man's heart, if it was God's will that he was ready. Another gold star will shine; honoring the memory.

By you the last game has been played, the last good-bye been said,
and we, whom you have left behind, now mourn our blessed dead. Your laughter and your words of cheer warmed many hearts each day, and we who knew and loved you best will grieve for you always. You can not,
will not be forgotten. You left too much behind of tenderness to ever drive your form from hearts and mind.
You served your country as you served your friends, both brave and true, and now we send across God space our country, our love and tears to you.

Capt. George Thomas passed through last Thursday from Candano on his way to Jefferson City.

Rev. Franklin and wife of Colorado were guests over Sunday of Mrs. Nannie Belle.

Mr. Hagwood attended the May Burton funeral.

On last Monday, Jan. 20, 1919, at 9:40 a. m., Mr. May Burton died at his home after a long spell of sickness. The young man had been sick for about a year or more. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. A. B. Fox at Bethel
A. M. E. church at 2:30 o'clock. Rev.
Fox's theme was Epistle of St. James, 4th chapter and 14th verse and was well carried. Mr. Burton was 38 years, 1 month and 2 days old. He leaves a father, step-mother, half brother in France, James, relatives and friends to mourn his sad demise. He also was a member of the K. of P. lodge. Mr. Burton only waited upon the Lord and was ready when the summons came to claim his own where no sorrow, no pain, no sickness yonder, and was confident until the end came. He will be greatly missed by his friends and family. Rev.
Crews made a very sweet talk in regard to the deceased, and Rev. Underwood read the 23d Psalm. Services were very, very sad.

Mrs. Mary McCann entertained at dinner Sunday, Rev. Underwood and wife, Mrs. Snell and Mrs. Tydings.

Ill., after visiting his mother, Mrs. Cora Harris, and friends. He will also visit

The big snow has all gone and we are now enjoying a healthy supply of mud

spring weather. The robins even chirp around our door.

The epidemic of flu has ceased seem-

his home yesterday.

Prof. S. T. Pettigrew made brief visits this week to Dalton, Salisbury and Paris, Mo., in the interest of his work.

Great is he that starts, but blessed is he that endures to the end. Our wa-men started on their mission to make homes as well as home more happy as well as more efficient. The M. M.'s surprised the home of Rev. and Mrs. G.
D. Saunders Tuesday evening of last week by all appearing as school boys and girls of forty years ago, each carrying a little package of sugar. All enjoyed an old time candy pulling. Some of the boys said they would be sweet for a month. Of course the girls are always sweet.

Jannie Berinder of Denver, Colo., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Annie Manuel, said, let's play that the world is full of beauty. Let's play that the roses are in bloom. Let's play there is pleasure in duty and light where we thought there was gloom. Let's play that this heart with its sorrow is hidden be joyous and glad. Let's play that we will find on tomorrow the joys that we never have had. We played it until a week's hour and all went home merrily children, girls and boys, happy with their books and toys were the M. M.'s.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Palmer Hayle called some of her friends around her hearthstone and entertained them royally. At five o'clock a three course luncheon of the season's dainties were served. The dining room was decorated with red, white and blue. Plates for all were filled bountifully. Toasts for the guests to the hostess. Mesdames
A. B. Bolden and Dixon of Moberly,
Mo., were honored guests. Home ladies were Mesdames J. Lytle, J. Pasley, D.
Payne, B. Mansfield, G. King, I. Robinson, W. B. Lee and others. On parting all declared the best time they have had this year.

Mrs. S. T. Pettigrew said, what tonic is there in frown? You may go up and I go down, or I go up and you down, who knows the way that either of us is going? Make merry here and laugh, for when we part we may never meet again.
This was another expression of the S.
of K's.

Our pastor, G. D. Saunders, preached as usual one of his soul stirring and heart searching sermons Sunday at 11
a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Text for morning services, go out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come. Subject, one phase of mission work. Twenty children came forward for prayer and were fervently prayed for. Prayer led by Dean Rucker. The result was all the power of prayer manifested by all Christians, who say trust in him and he will never leave us nor forsake us.

Chamberlain's Tablets.

When you are troubled with indigestion or constipation, take Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Indigestion is usually accompanied by constipation and is aggravated by it. Chamberlain's Tablets cause a gentle movement of the bowels, relieving the constipated condition.

Faults.

"Everybody has faults," said Uncle Eben. "De principle difference in folks is whether dey's sorry for 'em or proud of 'em."

A. M. E. SERVICE FLAG AT ALBIA.

(Special to Bystander.)

The Robert Johnson Red Cross Chapter presented the A. M. E. church with a service flag on Jan. 19, and the occasion was one long to be remembered by them.
The colored people responded to the call to enter the war against oppression and for humanity and were glad to do their part toward giving their boys and giving their means for the purpose. They are a part of the great victory and deserve to point with pride to their service flag, which will ever be a testimony of their loyalty to the government. A splendid program was given.
President, Mrs. Wm. Richards.

OTTUMWA BRIEFS.

The tercentenary program for the celebration of little more than half a century of the three hundred years spent in this country by the Negro was given at the Mt. Zion A. M. E. church.
A splendid program was rendered. Dr.

seat was taken.

Moines after a short visit with her sister, Mrs. Homer Ganaway.

A very successful meeting was held at Mt. Zion A. M. E. church by the N.
A. A. C. P. local branch, at which time
Attorney S. Joe Brown of Des Moines was unanimously chosen as the principal speaker for the Lincoln, Douglas and B. T. Washington memorial to be held on Feb. 12.

At a recent meeting of the Ottumwa
Ministerial Association, Dr. B. F. Abner read a paper upon the subject of
"Influence of Christianity Upon the World." So well was this subject handled by Rev. Abner that many of the ministers present suggested that the paper be printed in pamphlet form for the benefit of others. Dr. Frank E.
Day, the pastor of the First M. E.
church, has written a prefaced endorsement for the same.

The Rebecca Sewing Circle of the Mt. Zion A. M. E. church met at the

"Eight years ago when we first moved to Mattoon, I was a great sufferer from indigestion and constipation," writes Mrs. Robert Allison, Mattoon, Ill. "I had frequent headaches and dizzy spells, and there was a feeling like a heavy weight pressing on my stomach and chest all the time. I felt miserable. Every morsel of food distressed me. I could not rest at night and felt tired and worn out all the time.
One bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets cured me and I have since felt like a different person."

world war, will deliver an address upon

tette composed of some of the best female voices of the city, the St. Paul's Orchestra and a chorus of girls from Patriotic League will furnish the music for the occasion.

Pelican's Habits.

The pelican is commendably regular in his habits. The parent birds catch fish, and, after eating their fill, fly to their young, who eat by thrusting their bills down the mother's throat and feasting on the half-digested food.

Small Dogs Quickest to Learn.

The best kind of dogs to train to perform tricks are the smaller ones, such as terriers, poodles, spaniels, collies, and dachshunds. The poodle is the cleverest of all.

TAKE NO ADVANTAGE OF FOE

Feudists in Italy and South America
Display Sense of Chivalry That Is Remarkable.

Before one can truly realize the terrible depravity to which human nature can occasionally descend one has to obtain just an inkling into that horror of horrors known by the name "ven-detta." The misery, the suffering, the fear sometimes engendered by these awful feuds it is impossible to paint
in language too denunciatory, observes
a writer in London Answers.

A gentleman not long returned from South America described the other day
the end of a vendetta he once had the misfortune to witness in the Boca (lowest quarter) of Buenos Aires. The antagonists had their knives strapped to their hands so that the weapons could not possibly drop from their fingers, however badly injured they became.
Before the police had separated them
one of the luckless combatants had received no less than 17 wounds. On being examined it was discovered that this individual had a loaded revolver
in his belt.

"Whyever did you not use your firearm?" asked the prefect of police.

"No; it was a fight with knives," explained the other, with a gasp, and the next moment he sank unconscious to the ground.

In Naples, where warning of a ven-detta is almost invariably given in private, a member of the Camorra is sometimes called in to settle a dispute, and in this way occasionally what might otherwise have been a brutal feud ends in the chink of glasses at a sumptuous banquet. If a Camorrist meets his death at the hands of a foe
it becomes the bounden duty of some other member of the Camorra to avenge it, notice being almost invariably given to the relatives of the deceased that it is absolutely unnecessary for them to take any steps in the matter whatever.

In Naples, curiously enough, the sympathy of the people is much more with the murderer in these cases than with the victim, judging that if he had had no grievance the former would never have bared his blade; and it is quite surprising how far people are prepared to go in order to protect him from the police.

It is an unwritten law among the hot-blooded races among whom the vendetta still exists that, in an open street fight, no adversary must be assailed with a knife until he has had time to unclasp his own.

Not the least extraordinary feature of several of the vendettas is the refusal on the part of its dying victims to disclose the name of those who have mortally wounded them.

WHAT A FRENCH GENERAL THINKS OF THE NEGRO SOLDIER.

I am going to send you the speech which General Gaybet spoke to us on his last visit. I know you will appreciate it as I do. Although we have had hard times we have had easy times as well. This speech was given on the 15th day of December, 1918, 157th Division Staff, General Order No. 245. The speech:

On the 12th of December the 371st and 372nd Inf. were replaced at the disposal of the American command.

It is not without the profound emotion I come in the name of the 157th Division, I, and in my own personal name, to say farewell to our valorous comrades of battle. During seven months we have lived as brothers in arms, sharing the same works, the same feeling, the same dangers. Side by side we have participated in the great Champagne battle, which was crowned with prodigious victory. The 157th division will never forget the irresistible dash, the heroic push of the colored American regiment on the Crete des Observatores; and in the plains of Mothois, the most formidable defense, the best organized machine gun nests, the most smashing artillery barrage could not stop them, those elite regiments crossed all of it with superb disdain of death, and thanks to their courageous devotion, the Red Hand Division driving nine days of hard struggle, always held the lead in historical advance of the Fourth Army. Officers, non-commissioned officers and soldiers of the 371st and 372nd

Infantry, I respectfully salute your glorious dead, and I bow before your banner which on the side of the flag of the 333rd Regiment Infantry, conducted us to victory.

Dear friends from America, after you have crossed the ocean anew forget not the Red Hand Division our fine fraternity the arm has been soaked in blood of the brave. These lives will be indissoluble. Keep a loyal memory of your general, who is so proudly to have commanded you, and remember that his recognition and effectiveness are acquired for always.

General Gaybet,
Commanding the 157th Div.

The Bloody Hand Division has avenged its dead by clutching the boche by the throat and making them call for mercy.

I know you will enjoy this speech and keep it. Having nothing else to do, I thought I would write mother a long letter as this is Christmas eve. I do hope that you and Mr. Winn will enjoy this day.

UNCLE SAM'S MAIL POUCH

Sexey, France, Dec. 8, 1918.

Sunday, 9 o'clock p. m.

To Miss Bessie Ewing.

My dear Mothers: I should have written sooner, but have been kept busy hiking and preparing to see you all. I told you in my last letter that we were soon to be on our way. We left Pont a Mousson the 5th, hiked about 37 kilometers and am rather tired this a. m. We arrived at Maron after 20 hours hike, where we were to entrain for port of embarkation, found our transportation hadn't arrived as yet. So we are stationed here awaiting our cars. I really expected to have been much further on my way by this time, but have gained a lot of patience by my last year's work. I am real well and happy, and that you will spend a very happy Christmas. May yet be able to be with you for the holidays as I had hoped, and I'm sure I shall miss you all very much, but am almost positive that I will be with you within six or seven weeks.

The bunch is well and the same fine boys you knew so well in Dodge, and they will be glad to be home again. So often we find the time to wander back to Dodge and review the days spent there. Those were the real days after all. I told you about Lt. Jones being in the hospital, and he was getting along fine the last letter the captain had. I gave your message to the captain, who was very pleased to have you remember him, and in return he wishes to be remembered and thanks you for your very kind message.

Brother is well, all save a little cold, and is jolly and gay as ever. He certainly enjoys his funny papers as much as I do my Defender. The whole bunch reads them and finds so much to interest them. I am sending you one of our commendations in orders our last battle, one for each of my mothers, and if mother wants the paper to have it to print she may do so, but be sure to keep copy. It was a fearful battle, but we were right there "Johnny on the spot," every man doing his part. When I'm home again I shall have lots to tell you about our stay in France and I'm sure that you'll agree with me when I report.

Can't say just where we will land or to what camp we will be sent, but we're all hoping that it will be Dodge, our home. The weather has been real warm, but showers occasionally. This afternoon there is a religious and athletic meeting with a band concert, and a bunch of the boys are going. The band has improved wonderfully since coming here and I shall be glad when we can be together again enjoying the concerts, etc.

Well, I must close, sincerely hoping this may find you quite well and that you all may spend a very happy Christmas and a bright New Year's.

Always with lots of love and best wishes, I am your little son, with oodles of hugs and kisses, and love to Mr. Joe. Lovingly, Eugene.

Dec. 29.

Dear Mother Ewing: Have written you since this was wrote. But will send it anyway. With kisses, from son, Eugene.

PARIS, MO.

Mrs. Lucinda Combs is poorly. Mrs. Kate Moore will leave this week for Kansas City.

Mr. Frank Coleman of Peoria, Ill., is visiting Mr. Elliott Kipper.

Mrs. Nancy Shobia left for St. Louis, Mo. She will make St. Louis her home. Her daughter, Mrs. Berno Lasley, is making St. Louis her home.

Mrs. Kate Beauchamp, who has been on the sick list, is up again.

Miss Omar Baggett had a serious sick spell and had to call Dr. Smith. She is a great deal better now.

Rev. Madison of Louisiana preached a splendid sermon at the Second Baptist church last Sunday.

Miss Emma Moore was in Moberly, Mo., shopping last week.

The Methodist ladies and the Baptist ladies gave Rev. Meadows a donation. He was down to Mrs. Lizzie King's house and they sent for him. He was certainly surprised and he could not sleep good that night for thinking about the donation.

Miss Alberta Hayden has been real sick the last few days.

Mrs. Kate Beauchamp and Mrs. Belle Johnson are going into the chicken business next spring. Prof. S. T. Pettigrew has been here and he made a splendid talk on agriculture and chicken raising and cooking. Miss Daisy Kipper is president of the cooking club at the Paris school house. They are doing splendid work.

Mr. Tom Brown and family have moved in Mrs. Kate Moore's house.

Mr. Willie Wilson will leave soon for Milwaukee, Wis.

Mrs. Celia Lewis came home from Marshall, Mo., but she returned the next day. Her son-in-law, Prof. Kenner, is no better.

Miss Jessie Vaughn and Miss Eliza Patton are in St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. Nason and Miss Minnie Moss were married a few days ago. Mr. Nason is a fine Christian gentleman and is from St. Louis, Mo. Miss Minnie Moss is a fine young lady and a fine Christian lady. We hated to lose her to the St. Louis man. Our young men at home don't seem to care for marrying, so you see by that it causes our girls to marry some man away from home. Wake up, men.

At any time you have any news please report it to me. Claudie House.

Mr. Editor, please tell me in your paper what Mme. C. J. Walker's house cost in New York.

Prof. T. B. Burris will leave for Detroit, Mich., after the close of school.

Mr. Andy Lewis has been suffering with his back. He hurt his back in lifting a piano.

Miss Eunice Maupin, who has been in Quincy, Ill., for over six months, is doing fine in taking music lessons. She is paying 50c a sheet now.

You had better send your children to school, parents, for the white folks will close the door sure if you don't send them. Some people have gone so far as to say that education was tomfoolery and that they had more sense than some educated Negroes, and they can't write their names, and yet make such remarks as that. Some are young men to just leave home for a 30 or 60 days visit. If you don't know something you are a blowed up dude. Sure you are a back number nowadays if you haven't got some kind of an education.

Tunes for Tanks.

Probably no more unique donation has ever been made for the amusement of soldiers than one of $50 recently given by a charitably disposed lady for gramophone records to equip a tank.

Other donations which have come to light from time to time have not lacked an element of the picturesque, as, for instance, the supplying of a hospital in Paris which was filled with African troops with 700 fans. They were so appreciated during the summer months that the hospital appealed for more. Not long ago a French officer issued an appeal for games for his men. In one regiment in which most of the soldiers were fathers of families the preference was for bowling. The trench does not make a bad alley.

Gentle Germans Quite Insulted.

Mr. E. J. Riggs writes this short but pointed letter to the New York Sun about German squealing: "On reading in the Sun that German newspapers are indignant because American soldiers are using shotguns, I was reminded of a 'card shark' in Leadville in '79. He had held out a big hand for a killing and had it stuck in the top of his boot. Finally he got his bank roll into a big pot and reached for his holdout to switch in, but found it gone. 'Hold on!' he yelled; 'I ain't going to play in this game—there's cheating going on.'"

Looking Far Ahead.

A wife, whose husband is on active service, recently presented him with a bouncing baby boy. She wrote to ask him when he should get leave, and also when the war would be over. His reply was as follows:

"Dear Lucy—I don't know when I shall get leave or when the war will be over, but if the baby should be called up before I get leave, give him a parcel to bring out to me.—Your loving husband, Bill."—London Tit-Bits.

Giving Rooster Its Due.

On my way to the railroad station with Victor, with whose parents I was spending my vacation, I remarked that he had lovely hair. Whereupon he said: "Yes, but our rooster has a better comb than I have hair."—Chicago Tribune.

Stomach Trouble Cured.

If you have any trouble with your stomach, you should take Chamberlain's Tablets. Mr. J. P. Klotz of Edina, Mo., says: "I have used a great many different medicines for stomach trouble, but find Chamberlain's Tablets more beneficial than any other remedy I ever used."

A Question.

Said the near cynic: "Judging from the time some of the young blood of this town arrive home in the morning, it's hard to tell whether to call them night owls or larks."

A large number of women of the city responded to the invitation of the ladies of the Charles Young Auxiliary to hear the lecture given by Dr. J. Alvin Jefferson on "Social Diseases" at the Red Cross rooms in the Army Y. M. C. A. last Tuesday afternoon, and in compliance with requests from various other organizations Mrs. S. Joe Brown, who arranged the meeting, is planning to have a series of others in the near future.

CAMP MOTHERS ENTERTAIN MISS GUY.

On Thursday afternoon at the residence of Atty and Mrs. S. Joe Brown, the Colored Camp Mothers of Des Moines entertained in honor of Miss Ursula Guy, director of girls' activities under the War Camp Community Service, who left Friday morning to enter a new field of labor. After an hour of music and conversation a dainty repast was served by Mrs. W. H. Hubbard and Mrs. G. G. Nichols, and the guest of honor was presented with a gold mounted silver salt and pepper set, souvenirs of Ft. Des Moines and Camp Dodge.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mrs. W. H. Lowry, head chaperone at Army Club No. 2, entertained her assistant Army Club chaperones and a few others Tuesday evening at her cozy home, 1608 Carpenter Ave., in honor of Miss Ursula A. Guy, director of the girls' activities under the War Camp Community Service, and with whom Mrs. Lowry has been closely associated in working among the girls of the community. Cards were the diversion of the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served. After the guests had been served came the surprise of the evening, which was the announcement of Miss Guy's engagement to Dr. Curby Curd of Philadelphia, the wedding to take place Feb. 26.

GUY-POLLARD PARTY.

Mesdames Audra Alexander and Coleen Jones entertained about sixty guests at a party at the Army Club Monday evening, January 27, in honor of Miss Ursula A. Guy, who has been Director of the Girls Activities of the War Camp Community Service and Patriotic League and who is leaving the city, and Miss Ruth Pollard of Chicago, sister of Dr. and Mrs. Dobson, who has been visiting in the city. The evening was spent in cards and dancing, after which delicious refreshments were served. Mr. Branam Hyde and Mrs. Anna Harris were winners of the first prizes. Miss Adah Hyde was winner of the booby. Beautiful Madeira handkerchiefs were given as guest prizes. Miss Helen Alexander presided at the punch bowl during the dancing. The hall was beautifully decorated in green and white and from the happy expressions on the guests' faces showed that they all enjoyed themselves. Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Jones are both excellent hostesses and deserve great credit for the beautiful party of Monday evening. They were assisted by the Misses Hazelle Shaw and Mary Ellen McCree.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Sunday, Jan. 26, Atty. Evans spoke at the Army Y. M. C. A., telling of his work in Italy and France and the work done by the Y. M. C. A. over seas for the boys. This was the first talk that we have had on the Y. M. C. A. work for the overseas. It was indeed a treat to those who heard him, especially at this time when there is so much criticism on the Y. M. C. A. I am quite sure that those who heard him were satisfied that the Y. M. C. A. did its duty for the boys overseas, and the only regret is that we could not have done more. Atty. Evans expressed a willingness to repeat the address in the future.

Monday, Jan. 27, the men's bible class held their regular weekly meeting with a good attendance. After the lesson, which is from eight to nine, from nine to ten, which is the social hour, the boys spent the time playing checkers and three guardmen and other amusements. At ten all left the room with a hearty good night. The coming together of these boys is having the effect of welding them together as friends. The boys were glad to welcome Mr. Clarence Evans as a new member. Each night some one joins. All the churches have agreed to allow them to hold a service. The class is preparing a program to be rendered at each of the churches in the city.

The week Feb. 11-17 will be father and son week. It is hoped that each father will give this week in companionship with his boy, that you may know him in his home life, school, play and church life. Sunday the 16th the father is asked not to send his boy to church and Sunday school, but be his companion for the day. You will never be able to tell the good you will do the boy. Monday evening the 17th the boys are asked to bring their fathers to the bible class. At this time the boys will serve refreshments. Edward Ross, Sec.

Feb. 9 Mr. Grant McPherrin will speak at the Army Y. M. C. A. Subject, "Assets and Liabilities." Come out and hear him. This lecture has been given several times and it has always taken well. Don't fail to hear him.

Quick Cure for Croup.

Watch for the first symptom, hoarseness, and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at once. It is prompt and effective.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Before using this preparation for a cough or cold you may wish to know what it has done for others. Mrs. O. Cook, Macon, Ill., writes, "I have found it gives the quickest relief of any cough remedy I have ever used." Mrs. James A. Knott, Chillicothe, Mo., says "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cannot be beat for coughs and colds." H. J. Moore, Oval, Pa., says "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on several occasions when I was suffering with a settled cold upon the chest and it has always brought about a cure."

Willing to Be Taught.

"Diarist" of the Westminster Gazette says he had been hearing much lately of the Americans in France and the impression made by them upon the British there. "Without giving offense to anybody," he remarks, "I hope I may say that British admiration of them has gone far beyond the limits that were considered likely to be reached, and that they have become strong favorites. But there is one point in particular which seems to have impressed every officer who talks to me on the subject. They all quite expected to find the Americans fine men physically, with plenty of intelligence and their full share of courage and dash and endurance; but they agree that they have been surprised to note the eagerness of the new allies to seek advice. 'I have been at this game for years,' is, I am told, the usual formula; 'but we are fresh at it. Tell us what you know.' It is an admirable frame of mind," adds "Diarist," "and one that promises rapid progress on the part of the willing students."—Christian Science Monitor.

In Defense of Her Flag.

How the union jack was ably defended by an Irishwoman in the streets of Paris on July 4 is amusingly told: "Outside one of the biggest drapery shops of Paris two ladies handled a union jack which lay on a great pile of flags for sale and remarked in French on its cheapness. The salesman, unskilled in accents, was rash enough to explain the low price by saying that 'the union jack wasn't in season.' He received in reply the most eloquent discourse attainable by an indignant Irishwoman of unblemished loyalty; and an Irish brogue speaking French is an engine of war before which the most intrepid must quail. There is one Frenchman who will never again suggest that there is a close season in union jacks."

A New Fuel.

Because of the fuel shortage that is facing the United States and Canada a new fuel is to be introduced known as "carbocoal." A plant is being erected in Virginia for the production of this substance which is a by-product. Its use has been tested by the United States navy and two railroads, which pronounce it a valuable smokeless fuel. By a new process bituminous coal is treated in such a manner as to recover greater quantities of such valuable by-products as tar, oil, sulphate of ammonia and valuable oils. From the residue is made the smokeless fuel "carbocoal" in the form of briquettes.

Camels as War Animals.

The importance of camels in transporting war supplies across the deserts has officially been recognized by the sultan of Egypt. Special medals were conferred recently upon native members of the camel corps for war service at exercises at which the presentations were made by the sultan.

THE BYSTANDER

COUNCIL BLUFFS NEWS.

There has been great work by the power of God, through the pastor and the great lady evangelist, Mrs. Hattie C. Talley of the Chicago conference. The Lord is giving a great outpouring of his Spirit, and old Council Bluffs is being stirred up as never before. Twenty-one were added to the church last week. People are being converted who have had their names on the church records for eleven years. During this great meeting we have had one marriage in the person of Miss Mary P. Pofon and Mr. Chas. W. Medden, who united in marriage on Wednesday evening at the close of the evening service.

This revival has already proven the greatest ever held in Council Bluffs. The house is crowded every night. There is not standing room in the building at 7 o'clock, colored and white have the house crowded. The elder, J. H. Ferribee, will hold his second quarterly conference at Bethel A. M. E. church, 16th street and Ave. A, Sunday, Feb. 2.

The Rev. Mrs. E. B. Manley is visiting in the city and attending meeting. All the sick people are working in the revival meetings at this time.

The church is sparing no pains in supporting Rev. Rhonene in his great evangelistic campaign. The church gave a great surprise party after services Monday night to Rev. and Mrs. Rhonene and God gave two converts to the church.

The church and friends gave Brother and Sister E. V. Robertson, 2425 5th Ave., a surprise party on Mr. Robertson's birthday. He was 66 years old Jan. 25.

Rev. I. M. Page preached a great sermon at Bethel A. M. E. church Sunday morning with a full house.

Rev. J. P. Jackson is ill at this writing. He was confined to his home on Sunday, but there was service at his church just the same. Rev. Jackson is the pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church. We are glad to say that the good work is still moving onward in the name of God. The good women of the church raised in the rally yesterday $169. We are glad to say that we are working on the church every day, and by the help of God we will be able to complete our church in a short time.

SPECIAL FROM MONMOUTH.

After being under a heavy ban on account of the flu, we are glad to enjoy the busy pursuits of a moving community. All churches, schools, lodges and social functions are again on the move.

While there were many cases of flu among our people, fortunately there were no deaths.

Many of our soldier boys are returning from camp.

Rev. Harris of Duquoin, Ill., held a two weeks meeting at Calvary Baptist church. The church was much revived.

The Presiding Elders Club of St. James A. M. E. church gave a chicken pie supper last Thursday evening. A neat sum was realized.

The funeral of Mrs. Beatrice Bell, who died Jan. 20 at Indianapolis, Ind., was held Saturday afternoon from the home of her sister, Mrs. Janie Ford. The services were in charge of Rev. J. L. Whorton. Music was furnished by A. M. E. choir.

MEMORIAL FOR SAMUEL SKINNER

Members of St. James A. M. E. Church, Monmouth, Ill., Honored Deceased Soldier Member.

Memorial services for Private Samuel Skinner, Co. E, 366th Infantry, who fell at the battle of Sedan on November 10, were held last evening at the St. James A. M. E. church, of which the soldier was a member.

A large number of the church members and friends of the local soldier were present to pay their last respects to the dead hero who cheerfully took up his duties with the American army on April 30, 1918. During the evening a special memorial program was given, consisting of addresses by members of the church who were personally acquainted with the deceased soldier, and musical numbers by the choir. The program of the evening follows:

"America"—Audience.
Prayer—Rev. J. L. Whorton.
"Nearer, My God, to Thee"—Choir.
Scripture reading.
"It Is Well With My Soul"—Choir.
Sketch of the Life of Private Samuel Skinner—Miss Brown.
Address by Pastor—Rev. J. L. Whorton.
Address—Rev. Lindell.
"Onward, Christian Soldiers"—Choir.
Reading, "A Mother's Goodbye"—Mrs. Alice Murphy.

Memorial to Private Samuel Skinner—Mrs. Emma Peoples.
"Star Spangled Banner"—Audience.
Replacing the Blue Star with a Star

of Gold—Mrs. Samuel Skinner.

A Tribute—Rev. Mr. Webster of Galesburg.

The church has a service flag containing 13 blue stars and one gold star, which exemplifies the splendid spirit in which the members of the church answered the call to defend liberty and justice in the great world war.

PILGRIM REST CHURCH.

One of Keokuk's greatest revivals is nearing a close at Pilgrim Rest church, which is pastored by that splendid pulpit orator, Rev. J. Sterling Moore and his excellent wife, who know no defeat in any undertaking. That plain speaking, deep thing, truly convincing man of God, Rev. Dr. R. H. C. Snyder of St. Louis, preached every night for over two weeks so ably that the good sermons heard by the hundreds who sat in the pews will long live after he has passed off the stage of action. Both junior and seniors choirs acquitted themselves splendidly and the song and praise services held prior to the regular services were greatly appreciated and helpful. Among the various sermons preached were "The Prodigal Son," "The Handwriting on the Wall," "Gospel," "Put on the Whole Armor," "The Business Side of Religious Life." After the doctrinal sermon Sunday afternoon seventeen were baptized. Forty were added to the church.

The members and friends seemingly vied with each other in helping to make the meetings a success in attendance and along other lines. Two splendid entertainments with the public and membership collections took care of the financial side. Contributions and Ye Old Time Surprise Pound Parties helped much. Dr. McDaniel of Chicago graced the congregation with a splendid after service talk on Thursday evening. The closing banquet by the choir was great. Dr. Snyder was presented $50. He with Mrs. Selby Johnson of this city and Mrs. Jno. Bailey of Argyle, Iowa, were guests of honor. Able speeches were made by Deacon Smith in behalf of the choir, Dr. T. H. Phillips in behalf of the citizens, Rev. Moore along general lines. The guests of honor responded.

SMILE NEVER OUT OF PLACE

If One Thinks It Can Be, Here is a Little List to Be Used as a Guide.

Get a smile in your voice, an exchange suggests.

When you talk over the telephone. When your wife tells you what you ought to have done and you try to explain why you didn't.

When your little boy asks you for something and you have to refuse.

When a confused woman with a scrambled mind is buying at your counter and doesn't know what she wants.

When you're selling tickets at the railway window and an irritating purchaser is asking forty-nine useless questions.

When you tell the waiter to hurry along with the food, as you have an engagement.

When you call up the grocer and tell him that the things you ordered two hours ago haven't come yet, and here it is about dinner time.

When you're a policeman and tell an automobilist that he can't park there, but must go over to the other side of the street.

When you're an usher in a theater and ask somebody to rise so that some other people may pass.

When you take your husband out into the next room and ask him why he brought those men to dinner without letting you know, so you could have prepared for them.

When you inform the young man that while you cannot love him as he asks, yet you will be a sister to him.

When you tell Willie and the neighbor boys not to rehearse the battle of the Somme on the front porch.

When you tell the bore, "Don't go. Here is your hat."

When you're busy and worried and somebody asks you foolish question No. 98.

When you meet an old friend unexpectedly.

When the hired girl tells you she is sorry, but the roast is burnt.

When the pup has gone off with your overshoe, or your young son has made ink marks all over an important paper on your desk, or you can't find your hat although you are positive you hung it right there, or the missus is not ready and you have barely time now to get to the show if you would see the first act, or you have to tell your clerk the same thing the tenth time, or you have done a fine act with the best of intentions and find you're in the wrong and everybody blames you for it.

Smile when you say it. You'd just as well. And don't you forget the telephone.

There's a Difference.
