REV. S. M. RILEY, JR.
GOES TO M. E. CONFERENCE

The Rev. S. M. Riley, Jr., pastor of Burns M. E. church will leave Monday to attend the Central West M. E. conference at St. Louis, Missouri. Miss Dorothy Sharon will represent the church as lay delegate and Mrs. Voneal Cropp was elected alternate. At the fourth quarterly conference, Burns asked for the return of Rev. Riley for the third year.

Sunday, annual dollar day, marks the close of the conference year with special services. "Each member is required to give a dollar or more," the pastor said. The Rev. R. M. Shipman, pastor Wesley M. E. church, will deliver the sermon at 3 p. m. and will tell of his recent visit through the South.

In spite of the six weeks of sub-zero weather which curtailed most of the church services and notwithstanding the conference year shortened by one month, the Rev. Riley reports a substantial increase in all departments of the church over 1935.

Lina Basquette Highly 'Insulted'

BILLED WITH NEGRO STARS
MOVIE ACTRESS SUES

New Bedford, Mass., March 27.—Stating that operators of a theatre here had used her picture on a poster advertisement for the "Harlem Folies Bergere" thereby inferring that she was a Negro, Lina Basquette, Pacific Coast stage and screen star, filed a declaration of a suit in the Federal District court, last week.

Miss Basquette had started action against the theatre for $100,000 damages to her name. She claimed that the show as a Negro musical comedy and inasmuch as she was white the publication of her photograph in connection with the colored show caused great damage to her career.

Several months ago, a United States deputy marshal made a service of writ on the theatre operators.

Three Day Celebration to Begin on Saturday, April 4

Tuskegee Institute, Ala., Mar. 27.—Dr. Emmet J. Scott, Secretary of Howard University, Washington, D. C., will deliver the Founder's Day address in connection with the observance of the birthday of Dr. Booker T. Washington, founder and first principal of Tuskegee Institute, it was announced here this week by Dr. F. D. Patterson, president of Tuskegee Institute. The three day celebration will begin Saturday, April 4, and will continue through Monday, April 6.

Dr. Scott was for 18 years private secretary to Dr. Washington. In 1912 he was made secretary of Tuskegee Institute and continued in this capacity until he was called to Howard University in 1919 to serve as secretary-treasurer. Dr. Scott was secretary of the National Negro Business League from 1900 to 1922. In 1909 he was appointed by President William Howard Taft as a member of the American Commission to Liberia.

Seek House Action In Anti-Lynch Bill

N. A. A. C. P. WOULD HAVE DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS FROM JUDICIARY COMMITTEE TO FLOOR

Washington, March 27.—With all progress toward federal anti-lynching legislation blocked in the Senate, supporters of the Costigan-Wagner anti-lynching bill are now seeking action in the House, both as a means to having the House do something on the measure and as a means to breaking the deadlock in the Senate.

The Senate deadlock is in the audit and control committee, where the Van Nuys resolution providing for a senatorial investigation of lynchings in 1935 is being held up awaiting approval of an appropriation of $7500. Senator James F. Byrnes of South Carolina, chairman of the committee, stands like a stone wall against the resolution and has even refused to call a meeting of the committee to consider it.

Thomas A. Ford, the duplicate of the Costigan-Wagner bill, which was introduced in the House by Congressman Thomas A. Ford of California, has been buried in the House judiciary committee for two years. Congressman Hutton W. Summers of Texas is chairman of this committee, and he is reported to have stated in the past few days: "As long as I am chairman of the committee I will never permit an anti-lynching bill to be reported out."

In an effort to get around Chairman Summers, a petition is being circulated among Democratic congressmen in an attempt to get twenty-five signatures. This petition requests the chairman of the Democratic caucus to call a meeting of the caucus for the purpose of considering anti-lynching bills. This request applies to all anti-lynching bills introduced in the House which are identical with the Costigan-Wagner bill. If twenty-five signatures can be secured, it is mandatory upon the chairman of the caucus to call a meeting of the caucus.

Congressman Arthur W. Mitchell of Illinois, the only Negro member in Congress, refused to sign the request for the caucus, giving various reasons, among them that he did not agree with the procedure and that his bill was not among those which the caucus was asked to consider.

Negro Lecturer In Closing Week

DR. GEORGE E. HAYNES

ADDRESSES CIVIC FORUM
(Special to the Bystander)

Sioux City, Iowa.—Dr. G. E. Haynes, of New York, executive secretary race relations department of the Council of Churches in America, who is a resident forum leader in Des Moines, addressed 150 outstanding white and colored citizens at the Sioux City Civic forum at the Martin Hotel ballroom, Sunday. The one hour lecture on "Land and People in Southern Cotton Belt", was followed by questions and discussions.

Membership Limited

This forum which is limited to membership only has engaged prominent leaders and lecturers of the nation for their program series. "The problems of the southern cotton belt, growing out of 8 or 9 million people under the cotton plantation system get little attention from the government. The present condition of drudgery and toll on most of the cotton lands is hardly sufficient for even a fair living," the speaker said.

Dr. Haynes described the proposed plans of land settlement and the Farm Congress, which will bring funds from Homes Corporation bill now before the federal government to enable these people to buy, on long time payment, farm homes of their own and to provide credit to finance their crops where necessary.

Mt. Zion Baptist Church

At the morning services of the Mt. Zion Baptist church, of which the Rev. G. A. Burke is pastor, Dr. Haynes was principal speaker. He was entertained at breakfast by Dr. Algard, Unitarian minister, one of the form sponsors; at lunch at the smart Hotel Martin by E. W. Sterling, forum secretary, and at dinner at the Patty Brown cafe by Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Dodson, eminent Negro physician.

Returning to Des Moines early Monday morning Dr. Haynes addressed the student body of the Grand View college at 10 o'clock. He concluded the final forum series this week on "Peoples and Lands in South Africa and Southern U. S. Compared." He will leave for New York Saturday night.

Emperor Selassie Safe Back Home

ADDIS ABABA IN GAY MOOD OVER SUCCESS

Addis Ababa, March 27.—The Ethiopian capital was in festive mood today when word came of the reassuring report of Emperor Haile Selassie's safety came hard on the heel news of a sweeping victory over the Italian troops on the northern front of Amba Alaji.

The Emperor mapped out the offensive and himself led the warriors to swift, smashing assaults that stunned the Italians and disorganized their operations in the northern sector. This was the first time since the war has begun that the Negus took actual command of his troops.

For two weeks government officials at Addis Ababa were visibly worried over the unusually long silence kept by the Emperor and the scanty news that crept from the field headquarters giving little or no information as to his whereabouts.

Though it was suspected that mechanical difficulties obstructed the transmission of news to the capital and that owing to increased activities of Italian spies who abound everywhere it would have been incredulous to convey strategic details, yet many of the authorities were frankly disturbed.

Mrs. W. S. Conkling Qualified Candidate

MRS. WILBUR S. CONKLING

"The citizens of Des Moines will make no mistake when they elect Mrs. Wilbur S. Conkling finance commissioner on March 30 for she is a woman of sterling character, thoroughly qualified, and interested in all the people as demonstrated in her service both in character building organizations and in the state auditor's office."

In her final appeal to her many friends and supporters she desires to thank them for the fine tribute paid her at the primaries and urges that they carry the same enthusiasm and work into the final election.

Mrs. Conkling is a lifelong resident of Des Moines. She owns and lives in her own home at 1003 Pennsylvania Ave. She was graduated from East High school, and later taught school at Bryant school. She is a member of the Church of Christ and of the P. E. O. She is a former member of the Des Moines Women's Club, the City Federation of Women's Clubs, and Y. W. C. A. No Color Line as Pittsburgh Battles Typhoid Infection

SERUM RUSHED BY PLANES TO FLOODED AREA

Negro Business Districts Are Hard Hit by Raging Waters

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 27 (Special)—Recovering slowly from the worst disaster in its history, Pittsburgh is taking drastic steps this week to curb what threatens to be an outbreak of typhoid fever, the gravest threat to health and safety since the floods swept the city last Wednesday and Thursday.

Red Cross

State trucks, Red Cross automobiles and airplanes, have to date delivered typhoid vaccine for more than 100,000 persons in and around Pittsburgh. There was no color line shown when the doctors and nurses began inoculating the flood victims.

It has been estimated that more than 100 lives have been taken by the flood waters, but the actual count will not be known for at least another week. The total number said to have been driven from their homes to emergency camps on snow and rain pelted hills, or in civic buildings has mounted to more than 75,000. The economic loss reaches somewhere like a half billion dollars.

Newspaper Affected

Negro business houses were hard hit by the flood water. In all but a few cases the water ruined the general stock in the stores. There was little activity along Wiley avenue, that main thoroughfare among Negroes. The Pittsburgh Courier, a weekly publication, was unable to go to press with its late edition.

Fifth, Senator Allen's friendly attitude is vouched for by Des Moines Negroes who have known him for more than forty years, including some who have lived in his home. We feel that their word should have more weight than a recommendation from ministers, the majority of whom have lived in the city just long enough to have voted in one city election or of others who are candidates for appointments in the Mayor's department, regardless of who is elected Mayor.
Yours for Joe H. Allen for Mayor,
S. JOE BROWN.

First, in view of these facts, we are convinced that this last minute "bread and butter" appeal from this "Elliott for Mayor Committee," is merely a smoke screen, to hide from your view the fact that Rev. Second, we seriously doubt that a white man who was born in a Jim-Crow state and who voted to prohibit Negroes and whites, who so desired, from living together in lawful wedlock in Iowa, would appoint a Negro in a department in which no Negroes are now employed and in which most of his associates will be white women.

Fourth, the position of Mayor carries with it the general supervision of all five departments of the City Government.

First, in view of these facts, we are convinced that this last minute "bread and butter" appeal from this "Elliott for Mayor Committee," is merely a smoke screen, to hide from your view the fact that Rev. Elliott is a native of Kentucky; and that while a member of the Iowa Legislature, voted to bring Jim-Crow laws into Iowa; while Senator Allen, who comes from an old Iowa Quaker family, led the vote which killed the first Jim-Crow bill ever introduced in the Iowa Legislature.

Second, we seriously doubt that a white man who was born in a Jim-Crow state and who voted to prohibit Negroes and whites, who so desired, from living together in lawful wedlock in Iowa, would appoint a Negro in a department in which no Negroes are now employed and in which most of his associates will be white women.

Lookin' Em Over

OWENS MAKES AUSPICIOUS RETURN TO CINDERS

After burning plenty of midnight oil to satisfy the profs, Jesse Owens regained his eligibility status, and promptly hied himself to the Butler Relays at Indianapolis to lead a fast field in the 60-yard dash, 60-yard low hurdles, and hurl his bronze body through the ozone for the prize winning broad jump. Although the time and distance in these events do not compare with the existing records he has set, Owens hereby served notice that he will be on hand to accept whatever laurel wreaths to be presented over in Hitlerland next August.

Any of you dear readers who have radios with sufficient power to pull in station WLW in the afternoon, may hear Jesse Owens speak from 5:30 to 5:45 P. M., Sunday, March 29 over these facilities. The subject of Owens' talk has not been released at this time, but it will probably consist of advice to youth.

Lawrence Redrick and George Robinson of Drake, and George Skinner of Iowa U. copped some valuable points for their schools in the quarantary meet over at Iowa City last Saturday. Redrick stretched his elongated frame through space for the best jump of his career in taking first place in the broad jump with a mark of 23 feet 1 inch, but had to be content with third place in the high jump, his specialty. Skinner anchored the fast Hawkeye mile relay team to victory, and also added a fourth place in the 70 yard dash to his evening's work. G. Warren Pemberton did his bit as a member of the winning 88 yard team and nosed out Skinner for third in the "70".

BASKETBALL

Some hard fought battles have been waged local hardwood courts during the past week, as another cage season is about to pass into history. Two of our teams, the Raiders and the Comets met disaster in tournaments they entered last week. The Raiders met their Waterloo in the semi-finals of the Gold Medal tourney on the South Side Community floor. After disposing of two opponents in the first round and the quarter-finals by top-heavy scores, the Raiders could not find the hoop and were drubbed by Standard eBarings 49 to 77 to drop out of the meet. The Comets drew last year's class A champions in their second round engagement in the city junior tournament and lost a torrid 24 to 23 game to the Upsets. The Comets held a 13 to 4 advantage at one stage of the game and were the victims of over confidence.

The Erl-kings doubled the score on the Valley Junction De Molay to continue their string of victories, winning 44 to 22 in Wednesday night's feature game. The Comets nosed out the Flying Aces to maintain their lead in the intermediate league by the close count of 8 to 7. The Raiders humiliated the Spiders in a replayed game 32 to 16.

Corinthian Baptist threw a scare into the Raiders in Friday evenings feature game before losing 20 to 30. St. Paul A. M. E. kept pace with the Raiders for the league lead by pulling the Burns M. E. in the third game 26 Spiders. The "Y" Stars ran away with through to a 25 to 23 victory over the to 10.

GIANTS EYE PAIGE

CHAMPION PITCHER

Chicago—The Chicago American Giants started bidding in earnest for the services of the great Satchel Paige this week, according to H. G. Hall, owner of the Giants.

In the meantime the local management is carefully laying its plans for a banner season on the 39th street lot. Mule Suttles, Willie Wells, Jack Marshall and others are already in town and rarin' to go.

Alex Radcliffe, hard-hitting third baseman with the Giants for several years, was reported traded to Cum Posey's Homestead Grays for Binder, an infielder, formerly with Nashville, an unnamed pitcher in a story released from Pittsburgh.

G. C. CAMPBELL, SON OF FARM LEADER, DIES, SUNDAY

Ithaca, N. Y., March 27—George Carver Campbell, 22, son of T. M. Campbell, noted agricultural leader, died suddenly in the Cornell infirmary here March 19, while undergoing an operation for acute appendicitis. Named for the great Negro scientist, young Carver displayed interest in agriculture.

He was graduated from Tuskegee Institute in May, 1935, with the B.S. degree in Agricultural Economics and was studying at Cornell for his master's.

Campbell was a member of the Tuskegee Choir, and at Cornell had recently successfully passed an audition for the radio. At Tuskegee, he was also a member of the football and track teams.

AMBASSADORS SHOW TO BE "TOPS" THIS YEAR

The Ambassadors show, to be given soon is swinging in full bloom.

With Crews and Holmes doing their stuff

The show is bound to be plenty "tough".

Don't get me wrong, when I say "tough", I mean the show has everything. And everything it has got with plenty new novelty acts and some of the perennial standbys whom we just can't do without.

Finest there will be that elongated, terpsichorean Slim Davis with his pal "Blue" putting on their act. The Wee Sisters, who got their start at the Iowa Bystander's Talent Week show, The Harlem Hot Shots, with Jig-time of Station KSO, The Crews Kids, Kelly Dixon, that suave dancer of all the latest steps will be teamed with his newest partner, Sylvia DeVan, the snake-hipping sensation of past shows, and other new dance combinations such as Hall and Williams, ballroom dancers deluxe, Taylor and Harris, and Hall, Taylor and Boone, will be there "trucking" on to town with the other participants in the show. Altogether this show promises to be the "tops" of many years past, present and future.

Negro voters will recognize in these organizations, groups which have given their young people absolutely fair and impartial consideration in their program. If elected to office she will carry it to that fair and impartial consideration of all that has characterized her public life. She believes that Negroes are entitled to fair representation in our government and will be guided by this principle in the administration of the office.

A vote for her is a vote for a woman of whom all Des Moines may be proud.

Walda Goes Round & Round

By "You Don't Know Who, Do You?"
Dorothy Wheels

They're in again—I mean guest columnists. This time it is none other than my old pal, Windsor Hyde, dishing dirt on every one. As was stated before, all fan mail is greatly appreciated.

Yors,

Walda.

Being as it is still the old month of March, the wind is blowing high and dirt is flowing thru the sky. Again and again the column rambles on—Jitters—telegrams—letters—postcards—more telegrams—long distance phone calls. G. W. pacing the floor—wringing his hands and waiting for his daily call from D. W. What about June, G. W.? I must not forget George has won his "D." My, what a man!

As time flies on "Pap John" Lomas is just finding out that he is in love with a little miss on Seventeenth street. Watch your heart, "Pap." Just wondering why J. H. was seen spying on Ascension street early Saturday morn. It seems as if the Joe Danforth has been neglecting his duties on Seventeenth and has been running home every Sunday night by the East Side! Look out, Gay and Joe!

Say, I went into Trotter's the other day. They have really got a pretty place, and very popular, too. Sitting there, I overheard the one and only Marshall E. Wilson wishing for the flowers to bloom so he could give some to "the sweetest girl in the world."

Speaking of spring, well it's here, and "Ole Moe" Wilson is probably out this very minute gathering them, but who are they going to? What does that "E" mean?

While walking to school with my pal, F. O., Jr., the other morning, I noticed a broken finger sandwiched between two boards. Now I'm looking for the guy with the black eye. Were you in Oskaloosa again Sunday, Fred? Chet Simms, well known quarter miles, has lost his first race. J. S., who won the race, has cut in on some more of his territory. Flash! According to the latest report, Guy Smith, the guy who never misses a column, was seen riding around with A. W. Sad, but true! Flash! Flash! Flash! The Great Weston is loose. Be careful, Bruce. They still tell me Harold Carr has too many irons in the fire and is watched day and night. What do you say, friend?

Overheard in Trotter's the other night that George Edmunds had not been treating Tommy Avant right since they returned from the movies. You wouldn't do that to Tom, would you, George? Ole Oscar (Luther) Glass (note the middle name), better known as Public Enemy No. 1, gave G. M. a stiff neck. As time rolls on, Melvin Madison is attempting a great comeback, so "Scales" Burris, my thing, and "Pap John, the heel-rocking rascal," must take a back seat. It seems Bob Brooks has competition on Eleventh street, but knows nothing of it. Look out! Ware, he might find it out.

Was out to watch the boys practice track the other night and noticed E. E. and O. T. L. racing for first place on Fremont. Don't push, boys.

Oscar, you better watch the corner of Seventeenth and E. University, because W. Pemberton, the greatest star since Binga Disma, is running for an introduction. But you could pole vault.

When Fred swung down from the bus Sunday eve, he saw A. (Grandpop) Wiley. Could Arnold have been coming from Ames? But she is in Arkansas, Arnold.

Being that the wind has died down and dirt stopped flying, I'll be seeing you in short aprons and roomy overalls. "Hi Stuff."

Robert Nelson Windsor Hyde. Because this little old town of Des Moines doesn't have to be worried about floods, we can still go on in our old conservative way without any cause for excitement. The younger set were all up in the air this past week preparing for the apron and overall skiffle given by those Wee Sisters and Dora McKay, while the older bunch is looking forward to the dance April 6th, when that syn-copating orchestra from Texas will be swinging at the Pla-Lan.

C. EDWIN MOORE

ASKS SUPPORT OF
VOTERS ON MONDAY

Monday will be the last chance for Negro voters of Des Moines to put C. Edwin Moore, assistant county attorney, on the municipal bench; one who is a firm advocate of civil rights laws and absolutely free from prejudice.

A graduate of East High and Drake, Moore has made an enviable record before the bar. "I will endeavor to judge all cases cautiously, impartially and charitably to all," he states.

MRS. ROSA E. CUNNINGHAM

PROMISES ELECTION UPSET

Supporters of Mrs. Rosa E. Cunningham, candidate for election to the position of parks commissioner, predict an upset in the returns of March 30th, and are looking forward to a surprise vote that will reverse the lead of E. Lee Keyser in the primary, piling up an overwhelming victory for Mrs. Cunningham.

Despite rumors that she was quitting the race, Mrs. Cunningham has carried on a most active program of speaking engagements and public appearances this week, and activities among her cohorts have doubled.

VOTE MONDAY

Des Moines will go to the polls Monday to elect their city officers. Much has been written and said about such candidates. Intelligent people have pretty well decided for whom they will cast their ballot. Others will wait to be led or told. The Bystander is interested that every man and woman exercises his franchise for not only it is a privilege all good citizens should use, but also each has a say as to who shall spend his tax money during the next two years.

The biggest campaign in recent years in Des Moines was fought over the Klu Klux Klan in 1926. Nobody fought harder than The Bystander to beat them and we won. They are no longer the issue and Negroes must not allow themselves to be worked into a frenzy about that while the other fellow gets all the jobs and the money too. At the time the membership roll of the Klan was made public in which was included men in public life who have and are some of our best friends. True they made a mistake then and we condemned them for it. However we don't expect to carry the complaint indefinitely if amends are made.

Other racial groups are fighting to win material advancement. Negroes must do likewise. But as long as we allow ourselves to be blinded by smoke screens the other fellow will get the jobs and we the victories over the Klan.

Get out Monday and vote for men and measures—not simply empty sentiment.

A GRAND COOKING SCHOOL

The third annual cooking school sponsored by The Bystander went over with marked success. It brought to Des Moines an educational affair which is bound to be felt and in the keeping with better homes more economically kept and yet in modern fashion.

The large crowds in attendance at each session was indicative of interest. The Bystander is anxious that that interest continues—interest that can be made manifest in three ways: first by practicing the lessons learned; second, by supporting the merchants whose patronage helped to make it possible; third, by supporting The Bystander.

The show could not have been a success without the support of the friends who come and The Bystander appreciates that fine spirit which boosted the attendance.

NEGRO HEALTH WEEK

MARCH 23-APRIL 5

The National Negro Health movement will observe its twenty-second annual celebration from March 29th to April 5th. The National Negro Health Week was organized at Tuskegee Institute by Booker T. Washington, the late founder of Tuskegee Institute.

"I have several hundred feet of movie reel pictures on babies which I will be glad to show to any club or organization, if they desire to have me do so," Dr. J. Alvin Jefferson, physician and surgeon, and director of the Negro clinic work, stated.

Clubs, churches and Y. M.'s and Y. W.'s will take an active part in this work. Movie pictures will be shown at Maple Street Baptist church, E. Sixteenth and Maple streets, Sunday night, March 29th, in connection with the Welfare Baby Clinics.

James F. Byrnes, Chairman of Audit Committee, Refused to Consider

Investigation Funds

Washington, March 20—The resolution of the senate judiciary committee authorizing a senate investigation of lynching of last year is being buried in the committee on audit and control by Senator James F. Byrnes of South Carolina, chairman of the committee. Senator Byrnes is adamant in his refusal to consider appropriating $7,500 for this investigation, and even refuses to call a meeting of the committee.

There is considerable speculation in Washington over Senator Byrnes' action, because he is known to be the spokesman for the white house in the senate. Whether he is acting because he is a South Carolinian or up on instructions is not known.

Senator Frederick Van Nuys of Indiana, author of the resolution for a senate investigation, plans next week to bring additional pressure on the committee for action on the appropriation. The appropriation is regarded by all informed persons as being far too small for an adequate investigation of lynchings, but apparently Chairman Byrnes does not want even the small amount of $7,500 appropriated.

WORLD'S ASSOCIATION HONORS HENRY ALLEN BOYD

New York City—(Special)—World-wide recognition was given to Henry Allen Boyd at Nashville, Tenn., here last week when the program committee of the World's Sunday School association placed his name on their program to preside at one session of the association, which holds its twelfth convention in Oslo, Norway, in July.

The Rev. Mr. Boyd has already been issued his credentials as a delegate. He was elected by the National Baptist Convention of America in its session held in Washington, D. C., last September, to represent the constituency of their convention which the president and statistician claim is a little over three millions.

RAILROAD CHANGES JIM CROW CAR AFTER PROTEST

New York, March 20—Jim Crow car on a Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific train running between Little Rock and Oklahoma City has been altered after vigorous complaint from N. A. A. C. P., that colored women and white colored men were forced to use the same lavatory.

The N. A. A. C. P. advises colored women that they have a legal right to bring suit against railroads for such accommodations and that it will

IS CANCER ON THE DECLINE

The increasing death rate from cancer and the low percentage of early diagnosis and cure makes it a disease of first importance to the public and the physician. The public should seek more reliable information and advice about the disease. The medical profession has inquired into its responsibility to the public regarding cancer and has organized its resources for a more determined and effective attack against this dreaded disease. Since 1927 cancer has occupied second place as a cause of death in the registration area of the United States.

D. R. T.—My wife can't get along very well with me. What do you think is the trouble? We have been married three years.

Ans.—You and your wife seem to be in a strain for money, and she doesn't expect you to buy her expensive gifts now like you did when you had the money to buy them. Cut down on your extravagance so she won't have to worry so much about unpaid bills, and you can get along with her.

B. T.—I have been under the impression that the man I am interested in is married. Is he really?

Ans.—Ridiculous. This man who came home with you from the party would have made plenty of trouble if he were really married. You seem to have aroused his interest more than a little.

H. T. L.—What can I do now to make my boy friend love me?

Ans.—You have already done everything in your power to make your boy friend love you and be true to you, but he wants to play around with other women. Don't be a fool and ruin your reputation by continuing to run after him.

F. D.—Do you think it all right for me and my brother to quit school?

Ans.—I should say not. Good looking clothes aren't important to you now. You should think about getting an education now and you'll not only be able to buy nice clothes in the future, but you can afford many of the luxuries you aren't accustomed to.

G. T. F.—Is there any way I can break this habit I have?

Ans.—Certainly there is. Nervousness is what causes you to dig in your ear with a hairpin continuously. If you'll realize the danger of this act, it won't take you long to overcome this habit.

E. A. Elliott for MAYOR

E. A. Elliott, candidate for mayor, asks your vote on the basis of the following platform:

1. Work out a budget based on the actual needs of the city and insist on the city living within its income.

2. Eliminate waste and needless expenditures, thus putting the city government on a business basis.

3. I would use every ounce of influence I have to the end that taxes be reduced instead of raised.

4. I believe in a decent and living wage for labor.

5. I will diligently work to secure our fair portion of all federal funds, at the same time not burdening our taxpayers.

6. I will encourage mills and factories to make Des Moines their home instead of locating in Newton or other towns, thus furnishing employment to labor; realizing the labor problem is to put the people best solution for the relief and to work at a decent wage.

7. I will cooperate with all law enforcing agencies to clean up Des Moines where it needs it.

8. I will cooperate with the other members of the council and the citizens of Des Moines in securing for the people the very best possible utility rates.

9. I will give courteous treatment and time-of-day hearing to every citizen of Des Moines, regardless of his color, his religion or the size of his pocketbook.
