Tells of Warm Springs' Refusal to Negro Victim

Dr. Willis J. King of Atlanta, Heard at National Preaching Mission Colored People Gave $250.00 for Support

The Des Moines preaching mission, part of a national enterprise which brought to the city 15 of the world's foremost preachers and religious leaders, will close Wednesday with an address at Shrine auditorium by Dr. E. Stanley Jones, famed Methodist missionary of India.

Dr. Willis J. King, Oxford graduate and president of the Gammon Theological seminary, Atlanta, Ga., was one of the speakers. He addressed several church and civic groups. Dr. King spoke to the student body at North High school Wednesday. He was introduced by J. Braddie Morris, Jr., 12-A student.

WHITE PREACHERS REFUSE TO ACCEPT A NEGRO SPEAKER

Atlanta, Oct. 22—(CNA)—Prominent Negro ministers of this city flatly declined to participate in the activities of the National Preaching Mission when white ministers of the city refused to permit colored ministers to appear at their churches in the course of the mission's campaign to "bring about a spiritual awakening in the United States."

New Business Enterprise Here

ATTY. CHAS. P. HOWARD
HEADS INSURANCE CO.
Atty. Charles P. Howard will be general agent for Iowa Sentinel Hospital Insurance company, a new business enterprise organized with home office in Des Moines.

Agents now employed are Alfred Dudley, Carl Robinson, and Geo. Crank. They will work the Des Moines territory. Many appointments for Negro men and women agents throughout the state will be made.

Howard states that this is the first large insurance company with the courage and fairness enough to not only receive Negro policyholders but to employ Negro agents on an equal basis with all other policyholders and agents. The hospital situation has not been satisfactory as far as Negroes are concerned and this basic cause is the inability to pay.

Mr. Howard assures every policyholder that with this service is the highest grade of hospitalization in the best hospitals will be available to the Negro. "The Sentinel company is a legal mutual reserve with the best endowments of the State Insurance Commission of Iowa. Write for more detailed information or have one of the agents call and explain it to you," he said.

Washington Cops' Laxity Blamed for Negro Deaths

FORTY MURDERED
BY CAPITAL POLICE,

Vagabonds Say 'D.M. Girls Tops'

By Everett Wadsworth
Staff Writer

"I'm moanin', I'm moanin', I'm moanin' for you; Life can't go on like this, Cos I'm just moanin' for you."

Smooth strains of this well known crooning melody floated down the stairs of the Chemical building Friday morning as the Vagabonds, NBC artists, complimented the Bystander staff with a visit, interview and a couple of selections. They were featured at the Food Show at the Shrine auditorium last week and broadcasted daily over radio station KSO.

Robert O'Neal, gymnastic expert; John Jordan, ardent baseball fan and admirer of Dizzy Dean and the Cardinals; Norval Taborn, football star, and Ray Grant, Jr., student and translator of French books, are all '33, '34, '35 and '36 graduates of Vashon high school at St. Louis, Missouri. Neighborhood pals since their grade school days, they joined the Vashon Glee club, where they got their early start. Their first break came three years ago, when Joseph Richardson Jones, NBC representative and promoter of the show, heard them sing over the all-colored station, WIL, in St. Louis, their home town.

According to Jordan, second tenor and manager, they broadcast from the National Broadcasting studio in Chicago eight times weekly, three of them network programs. Spencer Odum of the Ray Nance orchestra, hite club band, arranges some of their numbers. "We do most of our own arranging and we just work the pieces out to suit ourselves," they explained.

Unlike other big time professional groups, these boys are friends and are attached to one another. "We're all brothers and we work together all the time," they declared emphatically. Spencer Elliston, Bystander advertising manager, and about a dozen admirers accompanied the quartet on their visit to the office. "Des Moines is tops with us, and the women are lovely," agreed the boys as one.

Mrs. Mattie Gould GOP Field Worker

Mrs. Tracy Mitchell, director of Colored Women's Activities of the National Republican committee announced the appointment of Mrs. Mattie R. Gould as field worker from the national committee for colored women of Iowa.

Mrs. Gould has also been selected by Mrs. Mary Booye of the national Republican headquarters to act as contact woman for Iowa. Mrs. Gould was recommended by National Committeeman of Iowa, Mrs. Martha McClure. Mrs. Gould left last week for Chicago and other points.

Gibbons' Slayer is Held, Manslaughter

PATROLMAN EARL WILSON,
UNDER HEAVY BOND,
REMAINS ON DUTY

Chicago—First point in her campaign to avenge the death of her son was achieved by a determined mother Friday when a coroner's jury in the county morgue returned a verdict of manslaughter against Policeman Earl Wilson, held in connection with the fatal shooting of Joe Gibbons on October 5th.

Behind the action of the coroner's office, could be seen stark drama, mystery and all the elements which have thus far made the investigation into the death of Gibbons, a former suitor of Marva Trotter-Louis, one of the sensations of the year.

Noted Orator to Tell of Issues Affecting Negroes in Campaign

Chicago, Oct. 20—Speaking under the auspices of the Republican national committee, Col. Roscoe Conkling Simmons, noted orator and exponent of Republican principles of constitutional government, will discuss the issues of the national campaign as they relate directly to colored people, his speeches being broadcast over a nationwide hookup, on Sunday, October 25th, and Sunday, November 1st. The time for both broadcasts will be from 3:30 to 4 p. m. eastern standard time. (KSO at 2:30 C. S. T.)

Col. Simmons is director of the speakers' bureau, colored division, Republican national committee, and is considered one of the best informed men of his day on matters pertaining to the social, economic and political welfare of his people. More than 1,500 requests have been received asking for his services as a speaker.

84 More Office Seekers Pledge

New York, Oct. 22—Eighty-four candidates for congress have signed a pledge sent them by the N. A. A. C. P. to support and work for a federal anti-lynching bill if elected, and to oppose discrimination in the civil service in relief jobs and other employment.

Twenty-four candidates for reelection answered the N. A. A. C. P. letter by citing the fact that they had supported anti-lynching legislation in the past congress and, therefore, would do so in the next congress. This makes a total of 243 candidates definitely on record to date.

Those who signed the N. A. A. C. P. pledge included: Clark, Jorgensen, Peck, Carter, Swanson and Harrington, all of Iowa.

Among those who promised in their own words to support the program: Buresh, Wolf and Gwynne, all of Iowa.

Japan Trains 500 Ethiopian Boys

PROPOSED MARRIAGE OF AFRICAN PRINCE TO JAP GIRL MAY YET BE CULMINATED
Tokyo, Japan—The training of 500 Ethiopian students in the aviation schools of Japan has revived rumors of the marriage of Prince Arya Ababa of Ethiopia to Mademoiselle Masako Kurade of Japan.

This affair, which created an international sensation in the chancelleries of Europe, came to light during the spring of 1934, following a visit to Japan by the handsome and elegant Abyssinian prince, Arya Ababa. The stage was set for this historic union, when pressure from some quarters outside of the two countries concerned brought all nuptial negotiations to a sudden stop.

While Abyssinia was making preparations for the wedding, Italy was shaping her military plans for a fascist conquest of Ethiopia. Thus the objections of Mussolini to union of Japan and Ethiopia through the marriage of Prince Arya Ababa, nephew of Emperor Haile Selassie, to Mademoiselle Masako Kurade, daughter of Viscount Kurade of Japan shattered the international romance.

Crocker YMCA Goes Over Top

The Crocker Street Branch Y. M. C. A. teams, under the direction of F. O. Morrow, commander, was one of the high divisions in the annual Y. M. C. A. finance campaign, with a total of $600, or 25 per cent of the quota oversubscribed, reported at the final luncheon meeting Friday noon.

T. L. Howard captained the team turning in the highest amount. Captains of the other teams were Harrison Gould, A. P. Trotter and George Robinson, Jr. Fourteen workers on the Crocker "Y" teams qualified for membership in the Victory club and will be guests at the "Y" stag to be given on November 4th and will also attend the Victory club banquet the week following. The members of the club are: E. L. Howard, Melvin Carr, A. P. Trotter, Bobbie Hyde, F. O. Morrow, Charles Danforth, W. C. Duce, Otis James, Fred O. Morrow, Harrison Gould, James Allen, Allen Ashby, George Robinson, Jr., and Quentin R. Mease.

Former D. M. Man Is Lauded by Critic

JESSE GRAVES IS PRAISED FOR ACTING

Los Angeles, California—Jesse Graves is slowly but surely making his mark in Hollywood. He hasn't been ballyhooed to the sky, as Clarence Muse, Stepin Fetchit and others, but is slowly taking much of the ground that once belonged to another highly publicized personage, Deacon McDaniel," says Freddie Buford, in a recent syndicated feature published in the Reflector, Negro tabloid paper.

Graves, a former Des Moines policeman who went to Hollywood several years ago, has "made good" in a big way. He has been seen in many leading film productions and has had important parts with outstanding motion picture stars. He is now starring in a film which is to be released soon.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S FAVORITE HOSPITAL BARS CRIPPLED INVALID

New York City, Oct. 20—One of the most shameful examples of racial prejudice and Jim Crowism ever heard of here, and one particularly revolting because the innocent victim is a nine year old colored boy, came to light this week with the arrival on the city of Rev. J. S. Brookens, pastor of the A. M. E. church at Mobile, Ala., whose son, an infantile paralysis victim, was refused admittance to Warm Springs sanitarium in Georgia, where he was taken for treatment.

Rev. Brookens declared that "although Negroes have contributed at least $250,000 toward the support and expansion of the infantile paralysis sanitarium, one of President Roosevelt's principal personal interests, he could not get his son admitted for treatment and was told by officials that Negroes were never admitted to that institution."

The minister said the lad was stricken with the dread disease five years ago, and knowing that the president was also a victim of the malady, expected some consideration for his son, but after repeated attempts to get treatment, has had to admit failure. He is now in New York seeking a means to provide an operation and treatment which will effect a cure for his son.

About two years ago Dr. Brookens wrote the president, asking for help, but received no reply, he said. In Chicago, he learned that Mrs. Roosevelt was visiting the World Fair, but was unsuccessful in his attempts to see her.

Her secretary passed the buck to E. R. Armitage, field agent of the County and state candidates will be present. Entertainment and refreshments will be provided and everybody is welcome. Attorney Melvin J. Carl is chairman.

Communist Leader Talks on Vacant Lot

FORD SPEAKS IN LOS ANGELES DESPITE BAN

Los Angeles, Oct. 22—(CNA)—Barred from the East Side auditorium here, James W. Ford, Negro Communist vice presidential candidate, spoke to more than 4,000 persons in nearby vacant lots on his visit to this city.

The contract for the hall was broken by the owners due to police pressure, but the Communist party quickly arranged to hold the Ford rally in vacant lots across the street.

The Communist nominee also addressed an enthusiastic meetings of more than 2,000 students at the University of California at Sather Gate, in front of the main entrance to the grounds of the university, which is located in Berkeley.

Federal division of rehabilitation in Illinois, who advised Dr. Brookens to see a Mr. Brower in the state capital building in Atlanta, Ga. When Mr. Brower failed to reply, Dr. Brookens wrote to Harold L. Ickes, secretary of interior, who, in turn, suggested he write to Robert C. Weaver, advisor on Negro affairs of the department of the interior. Mr. Weaver did reply, but said that no provisions were made for Negro children suffering from infantile paralysis, and there the government's interest in the matter ended, Dr. Brookens said.

WIFE OF PRESIDENT'S VALET CAMPAIGNING

Wife of Irvin H. McDuffie, valet of President Roosevelt, who addressed the New Deal Crusaders at Springfield, Ill., on October 15, Mrs. McDuffie electrified the audience with many thrilling allusions to the White House official family.

Club Chooses

'36 Sweetheart

"Sweetheart, Sweetheart, Sweetheart, We will love you forever," runs the lyrics of an old song which has been adopted by the Hallie Q. Brown club, junior federated club, as they chose their "sweetheart" for the ensuing year at a past meeting.

Their sweetheart was chosen upon a basis of sportsmanship, personality and character. The boy receiving this honor will be the guest of honor at all the club's parties and will be present at all social functions of the organization. Their "Sweetheart" is Harold Morrow, who will be presented at the after party of the East-North football game Friday. A sweetheart will be an annual event to be held at each North and East football game.

Walda Goes Round & Round

By Dorothy Wheeler

Listen my children and you shall hear of last week's column that disappeared—The column was written, as it always is, but in the rush and absence of the main cog the column was lost. If you must know what was in it—part of it went like this . . . The celebrities that were in the city last week were marvelous—Oscar DePriest's son, Stanton, stopped over while passing through with all his 6 feet and the Vagabonds, radio artists supreme, were featured at the Food Show—And all of 'em were a great bunch of gents including Mr. DePriest

—And if you have marveled at T. Avant saying, "Oh yeah-h-h-h-h, you should have heard John Jordan and Bob O'Neil of the Vagabonds saying it—All they needed was a stoogie (Gay H. or yers trulle) to say "Mama, here are these men again."

Orchids to all the contestants who participated in the talent show, for putting on such an excellent performance, also one to Clarice Stewart for so ably assisting our scribe . . . Just happened to think how much swing those Swing Brothers do have and what a splendefereous dance outfit Dorothy T. Heath has—That my little chickadees is just part of last week's gossip sheet—Now for this week's with the old sports scribe doing the honors—

Hallowe'en Mask Dance to Feature

RED PERKINS' RAMBLERS

AT BILLIKEN OCTOBER 30

Despite the homecoming at Iowa City on Saturday, which took much of the "gelt" of local football fans and entertainment seekers, a large crowd turned out to hear Anna Mae Winburn, alluring young maestro, and her band Monday at the Billiken night club. The exotic Omaha girl presented her usual good floor show and several clever rhythm acts.

Red Perkins and his Dixie Ramblers of Omaha will return once again to swing it Friday, October 13, for a colorful Halloween masked dance. Prizes will be given by T. L. (Speck) Howard, manager, for the best costume, funniest masquerade and most original makeup. "A gay time is promised for all."

secretary; Mrs. Frances Patterson, treasurer; Mrs. William Scott, critic and reporter. The next meeting will be with Mrs. William M. Scott. Well Baby Clinic

The East Side Well Baby Clinic is still in existence and has no intention of closing, as has been rumored. The attendance last week was twenty-nine babies. Every mother is asked to bring her baby to the clinic on Friday from 1 p. m. to 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Esther Nichols of 915 Twenty-third street has just returned from Knoxville, Ohio, where she was called by the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Anna Bradford. Miss Georgia Bradford, her niece, accompanied her back to make Des Moines her future home.

The Deluxe club met with Thelma Duncan and Lucille Brooks as hostesses on Thursday. The club met last Thursday, October 15th, with Dolores Bailey and Deamour Terrill as hostesses.

The Three Purpose club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Melvin Carr, 1315 Ascension. The evening was spent in rehearsal for their second annual show, to be given November 12th at the Jewish Community Center.

The Epicurean club met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Lorene White. Miss Dorothy Skipper was voted into the club. It will meet next week with Miss Audrey Edwards.

The Iota Phi Lambda sorority will meet at the Y. W. C. A. on Sunday at 4 p. m.

The Junior Federation of Girls met at the Community Center on Tuesday evening.

The Top Hatters club met Sunday at the home of Stanley Beverly. Several called meetings were held Wednesday evening at the homes of Leslie Henry, Juanita Owens and Joe Lane. The next meeting will be held Sunday at the home of Louis Fulton.

Mrs. Palice Carrington of Austin, Texas, is visiting her son, Jack, in the city for two weeks en route to New York, where she will visit another son.

—And if you have marveled at T. Avant saying, "Oh yeah-h-h-h-h, you should have heard John Jordan and Bob O'Neil of the Vagabonds saying it—All they needed was a stoogie (Gay H. or yers trulle) to say "Mama, here are these men again."

WALDA.

I promised to expose a lot of well guarded secrets in this broadcast, but the boys loaded up their heavy artillery and threatened to declare an open season on Ashlys if I got too far out of line, so I won't tell a thing.

I certainly won't tell that Quentin Mease has a good tenor voice, and a saxophone. He likes to pretend he is leading an orchestra when he hears it over the radio. And he can identify most of the big bands by hearing them play. Some chap—Did you know that Archie Greenlee is doing all right by Archie. It's a long way from Valley Junction to Highland Park, but Archie doesn't seem to mind. Ask Donna Graham—Don't say I told you this, but Al Thomas told me he couldn't dance—a football hero and no dance. "You gotta be a football hero."

WILLIAMS OF THE BUCK FILING

USED BY OUR GOVERNMENT

I wouldn't mention this for the world, but Chet Williamson has a delightful habit of insisting that he is not going to a party or dance. Then bam! he shows up. Probably wants to see if he will be missed.—Now I never told you this but, ask Tommy Avant and Chet Simms where they got their candy they brought back from Centerville.—And what they did with it.—Now why do you suppose Virgil Mann looks at the femmes' pictures in the Pittsburg Courier and sighs, "I wish they would move here."—You mustn't repeat that Eddie Eaves is trying hard to hang a nickname on me—"A. M. & N."—I heard that Walda is a girl of widely varying moods . . . Looks like she sent her heart to the Windy City with the VAGABONDS.—That heart has certainly traveled around some, Ohio, Arkansas Illinois—Where next, Walda? . . . Now don't say I started the report that Louis Fulton isn't wasting any time mourning about his now Southern Rose.—But he will make a big fuss if you tease him about where he is—Can you believe that Arnold Wiley keeps his whiskers cut off since he has become a college man.—R. O. T. C. rules . . . He was home Saturday nite—You'd think that some one would present an orchid to the Crocker team in the Y drive. The boys went over the top a day ahead of schedule. . . Nice work, boys—Don't tell a soul that Bill Ashby, Chet Williamson and Frank Mathews viewed the pro football game last Sunday from a very undignified position—Was it a tree, fence or what, boys? I took a solemn vow not to tell how tough Bobby Hyde was at those noon dinners at the Central Y last week—I said I never would tell, but I have never seen Everett Newcomb with the same girl two consecutive times—and his brother Earl apparently keeps all his girls hidden—

Imagine my surprise when they told me that Harold Robinson is rooming with my old roomie at Arkansas State College—Leonard Brown is the other occupant of the room—Incidentally, Steve, is the best guy on the campus—

Now why do you suppose Napoleon Morrow manages to keep out of my path?—I'll catch him some day— I haven't told you a thing about anyone—and if you tell this don't mention my name.

Faul, Republican Candidate for State Senator, Well Qualified for Post

George M. Faul, Republican candidate for state senator, has an outstanding record in civic and fraternal circles. A former commander of Argonne post, American Legion, he has received wide recognition as a worker in community service affairs. Faul has an established reputation for fairness in matters of race and creed. He advocates a broad program of community welfare. Among other things, he is advocating a reallocation of tax money so that all state revenue will be equitably divided among all public agencies including the public schools. He also favors a sound old age pension law, with elimination of the pension lien on homesteads. He has also expressed himself in favor of a reasonable homestead exemption.

SHERIFF KEELING STANDS ON HIS RECORD FOR RE-ELECTION

Sheriff C. F. Keeling, announced this week that he, "will stand on his record in office for re-election Nov. 3, 1936."

In citing the efficiency and economy of his administration, Sheriff Keeling says that his carefully selected and experienced deputies, working under second to none in the mid-west, for combatment and curtailment of crime in Polk County, Lucius Ashby is a regular in this department.

Identification Bureau
Besides its extensive use in furnishing evidence in Polk county courts, the bureau has been used widely by neighboring counties for specialized criminal identification work.

Recently the Sheriff's office has been highly praised by J. Edgar Hoover of the U. S. department of Justice, ranking Polk County fourth in the nation for freedom from major crime.

Machine Guns
During his term the Sheriff has been instrumental through the board of supervisors in equipping his office with the latest type arsenal including machine guns, high-powered rifles, and modern tear gas equipment. All his men have been thoroughly trained in the use of this equipment.

Faced with a heavy increase in business the Sheriff has curtailed expenditures to a minimum. The last report of the State Auditor's examination credited the Sheriff's office with perfect accuracy in his bookkeeping, as well as efficient distribution of his funds.

Highways
Sheriff Keeling proposes continued advancement of safety to motorists on the highways and is sponsoring a program for installation of a two-way radio hook-up for his officers with Des Moines police.

The departments in the Sheriff's office including criminal and civil deputies, jail turnkeys and bailiffs have been combined to give the public efficient and courteous service and they will so remain, Sheriff Keeling assures.

12 WOMEN NAMED STATE DIRECTORS IN DEMOCRATIC DRIVE

NEW YORK, October 21 (D.N.C.)—Twelve women have been named directors of women's work in eight states by the State directors of the Democratic drive among Negroes, according to announcement by Mrs. Crystal Bird Fauset, director of Women's activities in the Eastern States, with offices at the Biltmore Hotel.

The women directors are working in close cooperation with the regular state state directors in each state, according to Mrs. Fauset, and are also cooperating with the New York office of the general director of women's activities.

ATTY. CARL BURKMAN HAS DONE REAL PUBLIC SERVICE

Since Carl A. Burkman, Polk County attorney, took office on January 2nd of 1935, thirty-five cases, mostly criminal, have been appealed from the District or Municipal court to the Supreme court of Iowa for final decision and thirty of these cases were successful.

In five of the cases the Supreme Court reversed the lower courts and mathematically this would make his office eighty-three per cent victorious in Supreme Court cases alone, besides the tremendous number of successful civil and criminal cases which never have been appealed to the Supreme Court. Four of the above named thirty-five cases were First Degree Murder cases which were successfully prosecuted.

"With the high success of Mr. Burkman's office we very cheerfully recommend that the voters of Polk County, Iowa, again go to the polls on Tuesday, November 3rd, and again show their approval by an unanimous election of Carl A. Burkman for the office of County Attorney."

MINISTER WHO PRAYED AT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION SPEAKS FOR ROOSEVELT

Rev. M. L. Shepard who prayed at the Democratic National Convention at Philadelphia, says he is "working day and night for the re-election of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, because I am convinced that his re-election is paramount to sustaining the significant gain that has been achieved under his Administration toward a more humane, social and economic hour."

I am further convinced that the Negro has an unusual stake in this election because of the unparalleled benefits that have accrued to our racial group under the New Deal program." Rev. Sheppard is a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature, and is director of the Eastern Regional Headquarters of the Negro Democratic Campaign Committee of Pennsylvania with offices at 511 South Broad street, Philadelphia.

COLORED STUDENT ADMITTED TO NIGHT LAW SCHOOL OF UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 15—Calvin Douglass, 1916 North Fremont avenue, this city, has just been admitted as a student to the night class, first year of the University of Maryland law school. The report that a colored student had been admitted was verified by the dean of the law school. Young Douglass is the second Negro student to be admitted to the university law school in its history.

THE IOWA BYSTANDER

FRED RISSER IN RACE FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY
Fred Risser, Democratic candidate for county attorney, has been a resident of Polk county since 1910. He graduated from West High and Drake law school and was admitted to the Iowa bar in 1932. Risser became pardon attorney under Gov. Herring for two years, but resigned to enter a law firm with Robert Jackson in the Trenchout building.

Mr. Risser has been Democratic chairman, judicial committeeman and member of East Side Business Men's club, Plymouth Congregational church. He stands for impartial justice, safe and sane driving and believes that a county attorney should give his full time to the taxpayers and stop outside practice.

Donald Gaines Murray was admitted in September, 1935, to the reguversity to admit him and the decision was later affirmed by the Maryland court of appeals.

DEFINITELY UNAMERICAN

Several weeks ago the Communist candidate for president, Earl Browder, was scheduled to make an address in Terre Haute, Indiana. The chief of police announced that Mr. Browder would not speak in that city as long as he was chief of police. When he appeared in the city for the occasion, the threat was carried out.

What is becoming of America when free speech is denied to even a Communist?

The Bystander holds no brief for the Communist party—neither does it agree with most of its principles or the method by which it hopes to accomplish its purpose. But the Bystander is opposed to any effort to prevent free discussion of political issues.

Later Mr. Browder returned to Terre Haute and although he spoke he did so amid a barrage of eggs, cat calls and jeers.

Nobody was forced to go to this meeting. On the other hand Browder or any other human being is entitled to be treated civilly as long as they conduct themselves properly. America cannot thrive on such conduct.

AT IT AGAIN

The city council and Des Moines labor leaders are still trying to find some means of paying the prevailing wage scale for labor on several bridge projects in process of construction in and around Des Moines.

This week a proposal was being considered whereby skilled workers were to be paid the prevailing scale and the unskilled the "security" wage for the balance of the work; workers to be taken from union lists.

No more ridiculous proposal could have been made and the members of the city council should refuse to consider it.

In short the proposal takes care of the skilled—the organized—worker but leaves the unskilled—the unorganized—worker to lose the advantage. It is the common mistake which labor leaders too often make.

But more ridiculous is the fact that the money being spent on these jobs is from relief funds—pure and simple. The very fellow who is in need most would be sacrificed. And yet this taxpayers' money is paid by unskilled as well as skilled labor.

The Bystander never writes an editorial on the labor question without realizing that it is at variance with some of its good friends, many of whom belong to unions who play fair with all groups. However this proposal is one of the most ridiculous that has been advanced and without take it is safe to say that they are knowing what position the council will blind to fair play for ALL the unfortunate if the proposal is considered seriously.

WHY THE NEGRO SHOULD SUPPORT THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

All the argument New Dealers give for voting the Democratic ticket is "Roosevelt has fed me." They never stop to think that the slaveholders not only fed their slaves but they also gave them shelter, clothing, medical care and in some instances a church in which to worship.

But in spite of all these free hand-outs the North, which was and is synonymous with the Republican party, gave the lives of thousands of young men that Negroes might be a free people in the fullest sense of the term: free to vote, to be educated, to be secure in the enjoyment of their life and property—in short to enjoy every right and privilege guaranteed to every other American citizen.

Experience has shown that Negroes, living in Democratic territory, have accumulated property and over night had it destroyed and they themselves driven from their homes often because they dared to protect their families; that they have been tried and convicted illegally without redress, segregated and discriminated against, lynched and burned all because prejudiced officials knew that they would never be forced to account at the ballot box, it follows that Negroes are not free in Democratic territory.

The Republican party not only has and will aid the Negroes in securing food and clothing but it will also protect him in the enjoyment of these things. This is freedom; this is democracy. After all what is a home if one lives in constant fear of its enjoyment? None.

The Democratic theory is and always has been "The American Negro has a right to vote and a right to be a citizen." The Republican party stands for complete economic, political and personal freedom; it practices these things. They are the best reasons why Negroes should support the G.O.P.

What Others Say

Dear Mr. Morris:

This letter is written in a most friendly spirit, and is not in any sense to be taken as a personal criticism. However, as a subscriber to the BYSTANDER, perhaps it may be in order for me to state that your editorial which appeared today in regard to the proposed organization of the steel workers has aroused my interest to the point where I should like to express my opinion in that direction.

As a firm believer in trade-unionism for both white and colored workers with hand and brain, I have greatly regretted certain editorial pronouncements in the Bystander. It is true that you did not say the Bystander was opposed to the unionization of steel workers, but you did make unfavorable comment on the fact that the New Deal Governor of Pennsylvania had promised relief to all workers in the event of a strike in the steel industry. How on earth these helpless workers and their families could hold out against their heartless exploiters in the face of sure starvation is more than I can understand. The workers would be beaten before they began.

Another point, if you believe in the legal and moral right of workers to conduct peaceful strikes against insupportable working conditions, should not the temporary unemployment of the strikers, which is a direct result of the strike, be regarded as a bona fide unemployment, and as such entitled to relief?

I am deeply sensible of the many faults inherent in trade unionism; it is far from ideal, and much crusading work remains to be done and is being done. However, it is the only available weapon against exploitation of the white and colored workers. Needless to say, I am with you heart and soul in your condemnation of racial discrimination as practiced by most of the trade-unions. However, present trends are favorable and encouraging in this connection, and no surer way can be found to impede the movement than a campaign by Negroes against trade-unionism as such. The cartoon which appeared in a recent issue of the Bystander, entitled "You Can Lead a Horse to Water—But You Can't Make Him Drink," could not possibly be interpreted as other than a hostile sentiment toward trade-unionism as such. There were no racial implications in that cartoon.

I am not seeking to impose my personal political and economic beliefs upon my Negro friends—but I feel that the CRISIS is at last on the right track in stressing trade-union participation for the Negro—also more intensive study of economic and social patterns in harmony with the changing scene. The Negro might do well to follow the leadership of such magnificent thinkers as Mr. Randolph, president of the Pullman porters union; Frank Crosswaite, and the other enlightened Negroes who write for the CRISIS, rather than the dubious leadership of wealthy white people, both Republican and erstwhile Democratic, whose sole wish is to keep down their income taxes and corporation surtax taxes. What has the Negro to gain by pulling such chestnuts out of the fire?

It is disheartening to any real friend of the Negro to read of Mr. Wilson's eulogies of the U. S. Supreme Court. The Supreme Court of the United States has held constitutional every important nullification of the civil rights of Negroes and has declared unconstitutional every major legislation for the amelioration of condi-

POLIOMYELITIS (Infantile Paralysis)

This is an acute infectious disease which causes an inflammatory degenerative condition of the brain and spinal cord. It occurs in epidemics, and by preference in children, adults not being immune. It is most frequently observed in August and September, the germ that causes it is not definitely known.

Attempts at immunization have not proven successful, consequently individuals with the disease must be kept strictly isolated. The early symptoms are "cold in the head," cough, general malaise, severe headache, vomiting is frequent with diarrhea but later changing to constipation, later the patient becomes very restless with a reluctance to lower the chin, pain in back, neck and worst in the limbs, later paralysis of limbs and sometimes the muscles of respiration. Convalescence is slow and prolonged even running into years. Active treatment consists of the use of convalescent serum, which is the blood-serum of individuals who have recovered from an attack of the disease. Later physiotherapy (use of water, light, etc.) treatment and orthopedic surgery (bone muscle and tendon operations) have proven to be very beneficial.

Children developing some of the above symptoms should be seen by a physician at an early date as the serum is of little benefit if the patient has been ill very long.

The only exception to this rule has been in the confirmation by the Supreme Court of mere paper rights which are in their very nature unenforceable. As an example, we find this court upholding the right of the Negro to act as a juror (Bailey vs. Alabama, 219 U. S. 219). As a practical man and an attorney, you know this right cannot be enforced to any extent inconvenient to white people in the south. The Supreme Court, on the other hand, has consistently thwarted every attempt by legislative bodies to place real civil rights and voting power in the hands of the Negro.

I am sure that as an attorney you have the matter well in mind, but the following is rather interesting:

The Fourteenth amendment has never been interpreted by the Supreme Court as applying to the very purpose for which it was enacted (i. e. the protection of the civil rights of Negroes). It has, on the other hand, been consistently used as authority for holding progressive labor legislation invalid.

The Supreme Court has held Federal laws prohibiting discrimination in inns, railroads, etc., unconstitutional (109 U. S. 3); also federal anti-lynching law (106 U. S. 629); Prohibition against Negro disfranchisement (92 U. S. 214); Federal protection of Negro voters against violence (190 U. S. 127).

On the other hand, we find the Supreme Court holding as constitutional the odious grandfather laws, poll-taxes and literacy tests—although every fair-minded person knows that the legislative intent in framing such laws was class discrimination of the most flagrant sort.

In the words of Frank J. Goodnow, Eaton Professor of Administrative Law at Columbia University: "Criticism of the Supreme Court is no novel thing in our history. It has been attacked bitterly by Lincoln, Jefferson and Jackson. . . . It is by no means improbable that this severe, persistent and continuous criticism of the court has been one of the influences which have brought it about that the court has been even reasonably responsive to public opinion."

Let Negroes not forget that the second time in its history that the United States Supreme Court set aside legislation was in the Dred Scott decision. The first time, of course, was in Marbury vs. Madison, when it arrogated this power unto itself, in direct opposition to the framers of the Constitution. Surely no more cynical pronouncement than the Dred Scott decision was ever rendered by a court.

You are quite right in cautioning the Negroes that they should consider their voting power from the standpoint of good strategy, but I cannot see how it can be good strategy to vote for a party whose fundamental slogan is a boost for the Supreme Court. It is like thanking someone for kicking you, and can gain in response only the contempt merited by such an attitude. Least of all will it be appreci-

D. B. B.—Has my BIBLE been STOLEN? Will I get it back again?

Ans.: I can easily sympathize with you over the loss of your BIBLE. However . . . don't feel too bad about losing this good book, because ANYONE WHO WOULD STEAL A BIBLE CERTAINLY NEEDS ONE. You should feel that you have rendered a service to some wayward soul by leaving it where such a person could find it. Truly, they needed to read this book and will no doubt benefit by so doing. It would be a wonderful thing if all Lost Souls could be redeemed for the price of a Bible.

W. M.—Will the young lady I am in love with marry me, or will she choose someone else after she finds out about my poor dancing and my scarcity of clothes?

Ans.: She would not mind the poor dancing . . . but how can you expect the young lady to marry you when you CANNOT PROVIDE FOR HER PROPERLY? If you cannot provide decent clothes for yourself . . . you certainly cannot afford to buy clothes for a wife. My advice is to forget about marriage until you are able to provide a decent living for your future wife.

H. T.—Is my husband true to me or is he slipping around with other women?

Ans.: You do your husband an injustice by believing that he is interested in other women. Your husband is deeply in love with you and with little encouragement on your part he would make A MODEL HUSBAND.

E. M. S.—Should I continue school until I finish college or should I marry the young man who wants to marry me?

Ans.: Don't marry . . . you are making such wonderful progress in your school work it would be a pity to give up now. Your friend cares for you deeply but his future is very uncertain and you never know when you may be called on to make your own way in the world and . . . it would be much easier to do this with a COLLEGE EDUCATION AND SOME BUSINESS TRAINING.

Mrs. M. R. W.—There is a bad woman living in calling reach from me and my husband and my husband like to talk with her every chance he gets. Is there anything between them or not?

Ans.: Nothing is between your husband and this Bad Woman. This bad woman is really not bad, but one who is something of an outcast because of some mistake she made in her past life. The woman is lonesome and enjoys talking with her husband or anyone else. More of her neighbors should talk with her and try to help her.

P. B.—Please tell me what AILS me? I have been under the care of a

MEN LOVE
PEPPY GIRLS
You can become peppy
this easy way

If you are happy and peppy and full of fun, you will take your place. If you are lively, they will invite you to dances and parties.

BUT, if you are cross and listless and always tired out, men won't be interested in you. Men don't like "quint" girls. Men go to parties to enjoy themselves. They want girls who are full of pep.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND helps you pep and energize. For over sixty years girls and women have been taking this famous old medicine to pep them up . . . to help give them strength, energy, sparkle. Notice the girls and women about them. They are happy, they are peppy. If they are honest, many of them will give the credit to LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. You should give LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND a try. Girls with pep are more attractive to men.

Polk County Republican Central Committee
Des Moines, Iowa

Do you know that in this era of wild government extravagances and spending under the New Dealers who rule the state and nation your present Republican County officers conducted the business of Polk County, during the last fiscal year ending December 31, 1935, approximately Forty-seven Thousand ($47,000.00) Dollars (exclusive of relief expenditures) less than the amount budgeted to them, and in so doing saved the taxpayers of Polk County that amount of money?

Do you desire a continuance of efficiency, courtesy and economy in the conduct of your governmental affairs? If you do, then vote the Republican ticket and elect the following:

It's no simple matter upholding a reputation such as ours—that of being Des Moines' favorite cleaner. Every article, having been cleaned and pressed, must go through the most minute inspection to see that all rips are sewed up and all buttons are replaced. But that's the way we got our reputation and that's the way we're going to keep it.
