President Challenges All Persons to Help Nation Master Race Problems

Dixmoor, Ill. — Racial rioting, which has switched scene with each succeeding weekend, last Sunday and Monday sprang up in this small suburb of Chicago.

The first night, Sunday, about 50 persons, mostly Negroes were injured and property damages ranged high, as police battled a mob that centered around the Foremost Liquor store, which was damaged by fire bombs. In the aftermath, glass, bricks and other debris littered the streets. Bullets kicked up dust in front of feet of law enforcement officers, but no one was hit.

2nd Night

On the second night, the liquor store again was the focal point for the disturbance and police moved in to disperse a crowd of some 100 Negroes. However, most of the injured, though none seriously, were whites who were stoned in their cars. Police chased away a group of white youths who came near the parking lot, adjacent to the liquor store, and arrested 12 of them.

Clergymen

Civil rights workers, in an impassioned plea, failed to persuade Negro crowds to disperse. The speakers, representatives of the Congress of Racial Equality, had talked to the crowds after they refused to go home at the demand of police. About 40 clergymen—white, Negro, Protestant, Catholic and Jew

Washington, D.C.—In a strongly worded speech, President Lyndon B. Johnson called upon all responsible thinking Americans to help solve the racial problems in America.

Addressing the 450 members of the Citizens Committee for Community Relations that will help implement the new civil rights law, President Johnson said it is time for "some frank speaking" on the nation's racial problems and time to agree that Americans should not "let our prejudices make paupers of us all."

Fate of Nation

Mr. Johnson continued, "It's time to make it clear that the fate of the nation will not be decided, 'by street rioters and night riders.'"

And he said it was time to "cease this cynical guessing of who will be helped—who will be hurt—by disorders and disobedience and disrespect for the decency of our society."

Sport

"All will be hurt—none will be helped—if responsible citizens sit on the sidelines regarding the stability of our society as a spectator sport," he said.

"The question before our nation is not how whites will vote—or Negroes will vote—next November. The question is how we shall work together and succeed together for the next 100 Novembers to come.

"Americans, he said, can master the racial problem 'ore we can leave it to master us.'"

Elks Plan Unique Events at Mammoth Convention in Fla.

Philadelphia, Pa.—The tenth anniversary of the historic 1954 U. S. Supreme Court decision, ordering desegregation of the nation's public schools, will be observed with special emphasis this month at the annual convention of one of the world's largest fraternal organizations, the Improved, Benevolent, Protective Order of Elks of the World. Federal Judge Thurgood Marshall will be featured speaker.

The mammoth convention led by Hobson R. Reynolds, G.E.R., is scheduled for Aug. 21-31 inclusive, in Miami, Fla. The anniversary program will be a special feature, under the direction of the Elks Department of Education, headed by long-time Grand Commissioner of Education, Lt. George W. Lee, of Memphis, Tenn.

3-Way Program

Commissioner Lee's Department has planned a three-way program including an Education Department Banquet, a baccalaureate sermon for some 500 members of the Education Department's Cap and Gown Clubs, and the "Commencement Address" by Judge Marshall, reviewing and evaluating the Division of '54, regarded widely as the first major battle in the current Negro Revolution in the United States.

Banquet

A mammoth banquet will be one of the main features of the Elks Education Department's program at the Elks Convention to be held Saturday, Aug. 22nd.

Featured speakers at the banquet will be Dr. Richard V. Moore, president of Bethune-Cookman College, and Mrs. Nettie B. Smith, Grand Daughter Ruler of the Elks.

Contest

The banquet will honor winners of the King and Queen Contest, a nationally conducted event to raise money for scholarship aid to students. The persons in a given area who raise the largest amount over a

State Fair Opens Friday

It's nighttime, funtime, leisuretime at the Iowa State Fair in Des Moines. Time to see the grandstand shows, as the fair gets underway Friday, Aug. 21.

This year fair goers may see two shows: The Iowa State Fair Palace, a fair-produced galaxy of lively entertainment, Sunday through Wednesday nights, Aug. 23-26; and Hubert Castle's 3-ring International Circus, Thursday through Saturday nights, Aug. 27-29.

Starting in the gloaming for four nights, the Palace resembles the television revue of the same name, the quick patter of Nip Nelson, names from show business, will be names form show business, music, dancing, fun.

Nelson, who has emceed other fair shows, is an amusing personality on his own. His impressions of the famous catch their foibles, show marked sensitivity, make it easy for the audience to identify the original. Just back from a smashing success at the New York World's Fair, the Des Moines Accordion Symphony Orchestra will stop off long enough to entertain the home folks. The young people are artists with "Malagueana", "Twelfth Street Rag" and "Five Feet Two", then add warmth and verve with their flying fingers to greater music.

Something cheerful and chipper out of California, the Rhythm Masters are mostly for the teen fans. The lads, one of the fastest-paced young groups about today, find broad jumps, high jumps, sprints and dashes a rousing aid to their musical nuances.

If it's a musical instrument, the Brownings have it, play it in a whirlwind performance of sexes, trumpets, cornets, trombones, drums, cymbals, the noisier the better. The Gene Brownings, parents and eight children, believe in togetherness, for they have whipped up a fabulous

Second Rock Throwing Incident Quelled by Police on Center St.

Police were called to quell an unruly crowd of nearly 100 persons last Wednesday, Aug. 12, that had congregated in the 10th and Crocker streets area.

The incident followed reports by two policemen, Patrolman Eugene Battani and Ernest Weatherington, that their police car was pelted with bricks and debris. No arrests were made but Earl Hamilton, operator of the Hot Rod Club, 901 10th street, was warned by police officials that such disturbances will not be tolerated.

Battani and Weatherington said they were on a routine patrol of Center street, when a barrage of bricks, broken cement, beer cans and rubble from the adjoining lot fell around them and the police car. Seven police cars answered their radioed call for help.

Negro Democrats to Stress Support for Mississippi's New Party on Convention Eve

New York, N. Y.—This week on the eve of the Democratic Party convention A. Philip Randolph and Richard Parrish, national officers of the Negro American Labor Council hailed the Freedom Democratic Party and Freedom School Movement in Mississippi as related political instruments of significant historical importance. They pledged the Negro American Labor Council to all out support of the Freedom Democratic Party in the forthcoming showdown in Atlantic City.

Rally

Last Friday night at a Council of Federated Organizations rally in Jackson, Miss., less than 100 miles from Meridian where a memorial service for James Cheney was being held, Randolph said "Four freedom fighters: Medgar Evers, Michael Schwerner, Andrew Goodman, and James Chaney lie deep underground with only a crest of roses between them and their creator because they not only believed but they insisted that he Negro have the right to vote."

Burning Issue

He noted that "the burning issue facing the Democratic Party was whether it would dare to permit under the guise of full election a lily white delegation from Mississippi to represent 45 percent of the population of the state who are Negroes while at the same time denying the vote to more than 90% of the eligible Negro voter."

Randolph indicated that he and Mr. Parrish along with others would attend the Democratic Party convention to back up the efforts of the Freedom Democratic Party delegates to be seated.

Hello again!

We are back at our post after a week of restful vacationing from our duties. We especially wish to thank most of you who usually phone in news, for refraining from calling us. It indicates you are very diligent readers of the Bystander news. There were a few who had not seen the announcements or else had forgotten, who called us, but thank goodness, they numbered less than a half dozen. Many of our callers thought we were going out of town on a trip. No we didn't; we enjoyed one of 'stay-at-home' safaris. Believe me, it was like an island of quiet and rest in a tumultuous year.

Like most of you it is time to gird ourselves and get back in harness for our nine-month grind. It's state fair time and school maintenance staffs and teachers are preparing to welcome millions of youngsters the nation over back to their desks and studies. And of course that means P.T.A. for many mothers, and resuming club or organizational activities that had adjourned for the summer months.

But, as we told one friend, it has been a relaxing summer for yours truly. It was what we needed, and we got it. Consequently, we are ready for another year, so we think, anyway.

We talked to one mother who regaled us with her experiences this summer. Seems she took a car load of youngsters, of various races, to swim at Avon lake on several occasions. She was especially amused at the stares the group received from other lake swimmers.

Among late summer vacationers are Judge and Mrs. Luther T. Glanton, Jr. and son, who are spending some time in Washington, D. C. As soon as they return they will be hosts to visiting officials from Sierre Leone, Africa; they were requested to do so by the U. S. State department. Consequently, Mrs. Glanton had to accomplish not only pre-vacation plans for the family trip but also plans for their African guests, before she left.

Making their annual trip to Wichita Falls, Tex., were Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Spates and daughter of 1244 13th street. The week before they left we noted newspaper reported temperatures there as high as 113 degrees. We hope it was cooler during their vacation. The event is an annual family reunion held in the home of Mr. Spates parents. Fortunately, for visitors from cooler climates, the hosts have a lovely air-conditioned home.

Have you ever been curiously struck by co-incidence? Or perhaps dug up coincidental facts from history? The following is such accumulated by members of the John Fitzgerald Kennedy Democratic club of which Mr. Joseph W. Wimberly, is president. The following was submitted to the Bystander by the club: "Both of our presidents, Abraham Lincoln and John F. Kennedy, were concerned with the civil rights issues. Lincoln was elected in 1860 and Kennedy in 1960. Both Lincoln and Kennedy were slain on Friday and in the presence of their wives. Both were shot from behind and in the head.

"Their successors, both named Johnson, were southern democrats and both had served in the senate. Andrew Johnson was born 1808 and Lyndon B. Johnson in 1908.

"Both assassins were southerners favoring unpopular ideas. John Wilkes Booth was born 1839, Lee Harvey Oswald, in 1939.

"Both President's wives lost children through death while in the White House. Lincoln's secretary was named Kennedy. Kennedy's secretary was named Lincoln.

"Lincoln's Kennedy advised him not to go to the theatre and Kennedy's Lincoln advised him not to go to Dallas!

"Coincidence?????"

The Rufus Spates Return from Texas

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Spates and daughter, Peggy Marie, of 1244 13th street, returned Monday from a week's vacation in Wichita Falls, Tex., where they were the house guests of Mr. Spates' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albie Spates.

Other visitors in the Texas home were another son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spates and four children of Seattle, Wash., and daughter, Mrs. Robert Harden and three children of Texarkana, Tex.

The Moses Clintons Return from 9-Day Trip to Yellowstone

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Clinton and son, Jerome, of 1530 Maple street, recently returned home after a 9-day trip to Yellowstone National Park.

They took pictures of Old Faithful, the Teton Mountain ranges, and toured Sulphur Springs, Laramie, Cody and Cheyenne, Wyo. Mrs. Clinton was also able to add to her rock collection with several trips to rock shops.

NO FUTURE IN MOB VIOLENCE

One blessing enjoyed by Negroes in northern cities is that they can have their wrongs redressed in an orderly fashion. Thus there is no need to violate one law to redress another.

Examine the reported underlying causes of most of the racial flare ups in recent weeks in the North and it points to some one thing which served as a spark to set in motion lawlessness. It gave hoodlums a chance to vent their feelings against an individual, a business or a group wholly unjustified by the facts.

Just what can be accomplished by throwing bricks and rocks at police cars, breaking windows of business establishments or attacking innocent people who, in many instances, are unaware of what's going on, is hard to understand.

It's true that many reason that some Negroes have been and are being treated in this manner in the South and they are taking it out on another but the fact remains that most of the progress Negroes have made has come by orderly procedure. Lawlessness gets them nowhere.

The people who do these things are not the substantial law abiding citizens, but their cause is hurt by the hoodlums just the same.

ARROGANT USE OF
HIGH PRESTIGE

California has a United States senator who, while he lived in that state several years ago, has voted in Virginia. In most states with voter qualifications one must be a resident of the state for 6 months as is the law in Iowa.

Now, Bobby Kennedy, the attorney general, is talking of making the race for United States senator from New York. Mr. Kennedy does not live in New York nor has he voted there. But overriding the law, as did Salinger he hopes to place his great prestige on the line even though Mayor Wagner and other political leaders are cool to it.

The senate is the judge of the qualifications of its members. The vote to seat Salinger was strictly along party lines which indicates that the Democrats wished to hang on to the big majority while the Republicans wished to add to their strength.

It seems rather crude that a fellow can walk in over state leaders and run for office in a state of which he has sworn that he was not a resident. If the qualifications set by a state mean anything, they should be followed. It sets a bad precedent to obey some laws and ignore others.

DANGEROUS, LIMITING
SUPREME COURT

Congress has before it a bill pending which would limit the jurisdiction of the U.S. Supreme Court in matters pertaining to reapportionment of the legislatures in the respective states. Recently, the court ruled that both houses of state legislatures should be based on population where in most cases the basis is one population and the other on area.

Sparsely populated areas oppose this ruling because heretofore the area division has enabled them to control legislatures even though they had less population.

Interestingly enough, the sponsors are the same people who have fought bitterly against liberal decisions by the court headed by the school segregation case.

A compromise measure has been worked out by Senators Mansfield and Dirksen, majority and minority leaders of their respective parties in the senate, but liberal senators are opposing it to the extent that they favor a filibuster to halt it.

Many thoughtful able lawyers over the country oppose the measure, one calling it almost child's play. Here, the senators wish to shackle the court by a simple act of Congress. If they get away with this, the same group will be attempting to limit the jurisdiction of the court in other fields—and some foolish Congress may.

The judiciary must be kept independent from other branches of the government if our systems of checks and balances is to remain intact.

We just finished one big squabble about whether Jimmy Brown, full-back for the Cleveland Browns, does or does not block, when along comes another discussion. This time it revolves around Alvin Dark, manager of the San Francisco Giants. Dark is supposed to have said uncomplimentary things about the ability of the non-white ball players on his baseball club. We have heard several people say they believed the man made the remarks that were attributed to him.

We talked about the hassle and thought it out. We are inclined to give the manager the benefit of the doubt. Some say they believe the man is guilty because he is from the south. But that is guilt by association. A thing most of us don't want.

But we can't believe Dark would say anything bad about the mental alertness of non-white ballplayers when his most mentally alert player is Willie Mays.

Mis-Quoted

We know from painful experience how one's remarks can be turned around by reporters and come out as something one never ever thought about. Let alone said! Our guess would be that the manager may have said something about the mental alertness of one player who happened not to be white. Some writer probably got in to the tail end of the discussion and came up with the scoop.

Other Reason

Now there are other reasons why we think as we do. The Giants' first job is to win a pennant if he can and he wouldn't care if he won it with a team of Chinamen. Five thousand to $10,000 world's Series check can kill a lot of race prejudices. We also believe that the stories about Dark being probably on the way out could be true. But we also think Dark knew when the season started that he was expected to win a pennant. The Giant front office apparently believed they have the best ball club in the league and if this man can't win with it, then somebody else should be given the chance. That is our guess as to why the Giants may have a new manager and not because of any other reason.

Tennis

The guy who won the state men's singles title last year, Lance Lumsden, became the first non white player to reach the final round of the Missouri Valley tennis meet in the men's singles. We didn't think the guy was playing his best tennis at Cedar Rapids last month when he lost in the semi-finals rounds of the singles.

DEAR EDITOR:

I was born in a Republican family. My ancestors were Republicans back to the time of Abraham Lincoln. I am proud of my Republican ancestors because they did much for the Colored Race. Two of my father's uncles fought in the Union Army. One of them gave his life that the Colored People might be free. My mothers' ancestors did not take part in war because they were Quakers, but they taught against Slavery and worked in the "Underground Railroad."

I believe that the darkest day in the history of the "Grand Old Party" was the day that Barry Goldwater was nominated for U. S. President. I would like to give Barry Goldwater to the Democrats in exchange for Robert Kennedy, and I believe most of the Southern Democrats would be glad to make the trade.

DEAR EDITOR:

die—
No feuds of faith, no spleen of race,
No darkly brooding fear should try
Beneath our flag to find a place.
Lo! every people here has sent
Its sons to answer freedom's call:
Their lifeblood is the strong cement
That builds and binds the nation's wall.

This is the land where hate should die—
Though dear to me my faith and shrine,
I serve my country well when I
Respect beliefs that are not mine.
He little loves his land who'd cast
Upon his neighbor's word a doubt,
Or cite the wrongs of ages past
From present right to bar him out.
This is the land where hate should die—

This is the land where strife should cease,
Where foul, suspicious fear should fly
Before our flag to light and peace.
Then let us purge from poisoned thought

That service to the State we give,
And so be worthy as we ought
Of this great Land in which we live!
