Carl T. Rowan Says Black Power Hoax

Negro Middle Class Needs Power, Help Of White America

Carl T. Rowan, award-winning reporter formerly for the Minneapolis Tribune, last week spoke at a convocation at Drake University.

Rowan said the reaction of many white persons to Stokely Carmichael's defiance of the draft and his slogan to "black power" have been "harmful to the civil rights movement."

In a national Negro magazine, Rowan said, "I am as proud as the next Negro. I want to see black men holding every legitimate power they can seize in our society. But I recognize the old 'separate but equal' argument when I hear it."

Hoax

Rowan termed the "black power" movement "a hoax" that had "divided Negroes, alienated whites and confused everybody."

Mr. Rowan was with the Minneapolis Tribune for 13 years before President John F. Kennedy named him deputy assistant secretary of state for public affairs in 1961. Two years later, he was appointed ambassador to Finland.

Middle Class

"To gain freedom," Rowan continues in the article, "the Negro in Lowndes County desperately needs the sympathy, the help, of Negroes everywhere, most of all that much-abused Negro middle class that has some money. He needs the power of the Justice department . . . he will need the pressures that can be exerted by a large segment of white America."

Rowan has written four books, two of which were cited by the American Library Association as the "best books of the year," and was recipient of the Sigma Delta Chi award three times. In 1953 the Chamber of Commerce named him one of the ten outstanding young men of the year.

Suit Filed to Federal Ala. Nursing Home

Birmingham, Ala. — Lawyers for Legal Defense Fund have filed a suit, the first of its kind, in the U.S. District Court enjoining the Ketona County Nursing Home from continuing their discriminatory practices against Negro patients residing in the area.

The nursing home, a non-profit charitable organization, is owned and financed by Jefferson County for the purpose of providing a place for "all citizens of Jefferson County to receive rest, recuperation, rehabilitation and medical services."

Plaintiff attorneys pointed out that Negro residents in Jefferson County also qualify to obtain medical and hospitalization attention as provided by the defendant nursing home without discrimination on the basis of race and color.

Funds

The Fund lawyers further charged the defendant nursing home with receiving substantial funds from the U.S. Government for welfare administration, public assistance, and vocational administration as payment for services rendered recipients.

Nursing homes that receive funds through federally aided programs, such as Medicare or state welfare programs, are covered by Title VI

J. Rupert Picott To Accept in NSA

Washington, D. C. — J. Rupert Picott, executive secretary of the Virginia Teachers Association, has accepted a position as national field representative with the National Education Association.

Announcement of Picott's appointment was made here Thursday, Nov. 3, by Allan M. West, NEA Assistant Executive Secretary for Field Operations and Urban Services. The appointment is effective Jan. 1.

Business Workshop For Insurance Co.

Atlanta, Ga. — 75 top executives of Negro owned life insurance companies began three days of workshops here Wednesday, around the new business concept of "Management by Objectives." They were welcomed to Atlanta by Mayor Ivan Allen, James L. Bentley, Jr., Georgia Insurance Commissioner, and E. M. Martin, 1st vice president-secretary of Atlanta Life Insurance Co. and a founder of the National Insurance Association.

Responsibility

Wardell C. Croft, president of Wright Mutual Insurance Co., Detroit, chairman of the conference said, the discussions will help decision makers maximize the management function. The concept which is sweeping the business world includes using primary and derived data to establish objectives, department of department unit by unit within companies. The process permits pinpointing responsibility and ready review of performances. Croft and L. R. Taylor, actuary, Mammoth Life & Accident Insurance Co., Louisville, collaborated on the program.

Negro-owned

A panel headed by Dr. Harding B. Young, chairman of the Business Department, Atlanta University, opened the sessions Wednesday and discussed communications and motivation in management and presented a review and forecast for Negro owned insurance companies. The meeting was scheduled to continue through Friday, with workshops on companies.

Tailor's Nightmare Is Pants For Little

New York, N.Y. — Aside from a matching set of bowlegs, Syracuse star Floyd Little looks like an All America candidate on the football field, but the body that makes him a highly efficient halfback is also a tailor's nightmare.

Little's disproportionate measurements are listed this way: "The shirt collar is a 17½, the suit jacket a 46, the waist, 31, and he needs a 34 pair of pants to get over his hips."

His massive, but relatively short 5'10" body, presents its sartorial problems. According to Floyd, "The last suit I bought, they had to alter the pants three times to get it right."

of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

The defendant nursing home is charged in the suit for maintaining "separate buildings," administering separate treatment for Negro and white patients suffering from the same ailment, and employing Negro nurses, clerks, and technical personnel only in buildings reserved for Negro patients.

Ford's Theater to Be Restored in '67

Ford's Theater in Washington, where President Lincoln was assassinated, will be reopened just as it was the fatal night, on the 102nd anniversary of the death, April 14, 1967, announced George J. Olszewski, historian of the National Capital Region.

The restoration will be complete in every detail, including the furniture and furnishings in the Lincoln box. The Star Saloon, where the White House guard supposed to be on duty outside the box was drinking, is also being restored. It is next door to the theater. Tickets to the theater, where plays like "She Stoops to Conquer" and "The Rivals" will be presented, will be facsimiles of those used on the night of the assassination.

The remodeled theater will have installed at stage-right and left the trap doors used by John Wilkes Booth to cross under the stage during the performance. The front of the Lincoln box will include replicas of the Washington portrait and the American flag, which tripped Booth as he jumped to the stage.

The Lincoln museum will be in the basement of the theater, with recordings of Lincoln's major addresses to be heard there.

Parent Control Has Halted Vandalism

Waterloo, Ia. — Parents have acted to patrol after-game activities, to make sure there will be no repeat of the Oct. 28 vandalism.

The group, which includes both Negro and white parents, call themselves the "Voluntary Parents Organization", all of whom live on Waterloo's east side and have children attending East High.

Last Friday night East Waterloo played West Waterloo in the city's annual "big game" and the parents were determined to halt damage by hoodlums.

There were no incidents.

Job Corps Graduate Averages $1.71 Hr.

Washington, D.C. — A study of graduates coming from the anti-poverty agency's Job Corps indicates the youngsters are being placed in jobs paying a national average of $1.71 an hour.

The largest number — about 21 per cent — are employed in structural and bench-work.

The report from the Office of Economic Opportunity which runs the Job Corps, represents statistical data compiled on 4,432 men and women graduates of corps centers around the country as of Sept. 12.

Of the total number of placements, 3,109 went to work, 894 entered the armed forces and 429 continued their schooling.

Among other bequests in Mrs. Wolfe's will was a $200 gift to the Aurora, Ill., branch NAACP.

Mrs. Wimberly will address a public meeting at Bethel A.M.E. Church in Council Bluffs, Nov. 13, at 3 p.m.

Hughes, Miller, Franklin Chosen; Brooke First Negro Senator Since 1881

According to unofficial returns, Polk County Democrats were the majority of Tuesday's general election but the margins of victory were cut, as over 850,000 Iowa voters went to the polls.

Governor Harold E. Hughes has been elected for this third term of office over William G. Murray, Democrat and economics professor, and Republican Senator Jack Miller, ran well ahead of opponent E. B. Smith, who conceded before complete returns were in.

Hughes, favored over Murray brought in 445,038 of the popular state votes and Miller swept all 99

Iowa Counties for his return to the Senate.

Housing

For the second time since 1961, the Des Moines Low Rent Housing Plan has been defeated, losing by over 7,000 votes.

In early returns of the Des Moines precincts, it ran ahead but lost ground as later precincts poured in. With 70 precincts in, it was 1000 votes behind.

The proposal called for construction for 600 federally-backed units, to rent up to 200 units of existing housing and to rehabilitate up to 50 units.

Housing would have built in the form of apartments, with high-rise for the elderly and two-story garden apartments for families. Rents would have been based on ability to pay, generally averaging about $45 a month. Families, to be eligible, would have had incomes of about $70 a week or less.

"The realtors of Des Moines feel government-owned shelter is not the American way," said Robert Huston, real estate agent and opponent of the housing proposal.

Garage

Another special question for the Des Moines voters—an $850,000 bond issue for a new city service center—was approved, according to unofficial returns. It was the third time a service center bond issue had been put to the voters.

Franklin

A. June Franklin, only Polk County Negro Democrat running for the House of Representatives, is among the eleven candidates. Other Negro candidate, Rose Johnson, has been eliminated, polling 34,456 votes.

Mrs. Franklin, Democrat, brought in 39,211 votes.

Victory

In a nation-wide survey, Republicans seemed to have scored a so-called victory over the Democrats, winning 45 seats in the House, gaining unexpected governorships and having a net gain in the Senate.

Cecil Reed, Republican, of Cedar Rapids, was elected to the Iowa house of Representatives. Mrs. Betty Jean Ferguson, Democrat, of Black Hawk County, was defeated.

Brooke Wins

Key Republican in the election was Edward W. Brooke, Massachusetts state attorney general, winning over former governor Endicott Peabody.

BROOKE

Although it was feared that white backlash would have major influence on voters, Brooke won, 426,830-317,341. He will become the first Negro in the U.S. Senate since 1881, and the top Republican vote-getter in that state.

While Brooke's race was not an issue in the campaign and Peabody has been an outspoken advocate of civil rights, a Brooke defeat would have been interpreted as evidence of white backlash.

Surprisingly, the fact that Brooke has a white wife did not hamper the campaign.

Brooke, termed an "Uncle Tom" by some Negroes, has never been considered a leader in the civil rights movement.

But backlash did play its part, not only in the south, but also in the north and west.

Illinois

Paul Douglas, Illinois incumbent senator who was supported by south-side Chicago and low-income whites, lost to Charles Percy, due to Douglas' steadfast favoring of open-occupancy legislation, key factor in his defeat.

On Chicago's South Side, longtime incumbent Democrat William L. Dawson, 84, leader of the House

Mrs. Wimberly Named State Membership Chm.

MRS. WIMBERLY

New York — Gloster B. Current, Director of Branches and Field Administration of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, has appointed Mrs. Joseph Wimberly, of Des Moines, as State membership chairman for Iowa.

Mrs. Wimberly said that there are twelve branches in Iowa, but only one branch has not only reached its quota but exceeded it by 85 per cent. That branch is Ottumwa, of which Leahy Crayton is president.

Recognition

"I feel that the Branch NAACP deserves better recognition of its worth than is exhibited by the leadership and workers. Since 1909 the NAACP has been in the force front working, in education, for the right of every child to equal and unsegregated training, in job opportunity,

 "The most difficult . . . I just returned from a round the world tour, July 7, we started out, going to London, Germany, to the Middle East and on through India, to Hong Kong and Tokyo, then back to the U.S. via Los Angeles.
 "We had three days of rehearsal . . . we picked up four more kids to compliment the New Generation.

I had nine shots before I left, but I had to have them over, as my personal doctor had not signed my immunization card. It's always proper to accept perhaps a roadside banana or a drink, but the wrong thing could make you very sick. We can't afford to cancel a performance because of an illness.

Q: What is the reaction from a backwards country? Is the audience as enthusiastic or more so than a so-called sophisticated one?

"I wouldn't call them backwards, and I know that you really don't think so, either. I don't find their reaction in foreign countries any different than one in the U.S. They are all enthusiastic in their own ways.

"I'd compare them to a-a-campus audience."

"Thank you very much, Mr. Mathis."

 You don't know who Uncle Willie is?

Uncle Willie sings. He dances. He pantomimes. He tells jokes.

Ronald Reagan, Republican conservative, was victor over incumbent Democrat Pat Brown, who termed Reagan's campaign as appealing to the "fears of men and the subtle white backlash."

Back in Iowa second term seeker Lawrence Sealise, Democrat, was upset by Republican Richard Turner, who won 384,262.

Kate Goldman, Republican senate bidder, was defeated for the four-year term by M. S. Denman, incumbent George O'Malley and Bill Reichardt.

Across the South

Florida elected the state's first Republican governor since Reconstruction days, Claude R. Kirk, Jr., who made a direct appeal for segregationist votes by declaring that he would veto laws proposed to eliminate racial discrimination in Florida housing.

Lester G. Maddox, segregationist, lost in early return to segregationist Howard H. Callaway, Republican.

Former Gov. Ellis Arnall, in the election due to Negroes' write-in campaign, was low in the voting.

Republican Spiro T. Agnew defeated Democrat George Mahoney to win the Maryland governorship.

Mahoney, who stressed the slogan "Your home is your Castle—Protect it," was endorsed by both the Ku Klux Klan and the National States Rights Party.

Negro voters went 94 per cent Republican in that race.

Powell Is Guilty; Arrested Anytime

Adam Clayton Powell (Dem. N.Y.) has been found guilty by a Supreme Court last Friday on two counts of criminal contempt and ordered that he serve 30 days in jail.

However, he could receive up to 150 days in jail and a fine of $1,250 for the criminal contempt charges. If he fails to appear for sentencing, Justice Matthew W. Levy could issue a warrant for his arrest on criminal contempt of court charges, a warrant that could be served on Powell at anytime and anywhere.

First District, Fred Schwengel, Republican; Second District, Robert M. L. Johnson; Fourth District, John Kyl, R.; Sixth District, Wiley Mayne, R.; and Seventh District, William J. Comments

These veterans of World War I had comments to make concerning veteran's Day and the world situation since the Day's origin:

William Brooks, 2830 14th street: I don't the world has gotten any worse.

Floyd Bailey, 1244 17th street, PFC and ambulance driver: Everyone should celebrate. Men are losing their lives, but no one really cares. Years ago people celebrated, banks and stores closed and there were parades. Now there is no time for respect anymore.

Insincerity

Matthew Johnson, 1331 McCormick, sergeant major: I seem to find a general insincerity rolling all through the world. Mankind seems to be more selfish, in pursuit of money. There has been a great change through 50 years, an age of confusion.

James L. McGuire, 1101 11th street: War is war, disrespectful of date. In WWI, the Slogan was "We fight for Democracy." I was a First Sergeant in the Infantry, an all Negro regiment, part of the Illinois National Guard. From the colonel down, all officers were Negro. And I'm every proud of it.

Religious Statements Are Issued Across the North

New York, N.Y. — Negro Church leaders from all parts of America held an assembly of historic proportions at the Statue of Liberty Thursday, Nov. 3, to denounce racism in American society and to call upon voters across the nation to repudiate "backlash" candidates.

The assembly was convened by the National Committee of Negro Churchmen whose membership includes Negro bishops and leaders of nearly all denominations. Coordinator and principal spokesman of the assembly was the Rev. Dr. Benjamin F. Payton, executive director, Commission on Religion and Race of the National Council of Churches.

Moral Issues

Dr. Payton explained that the Statue of Liberty location for the assembly and its timing so near James B. Morris, 955 17th street, lieutenant—Here in Des Moines are J. L. McGuire, of the 8th Illinois regiment, J. W. Mitchel, W. T. Johnson and William Brooks, of the 92nd division and a few others with whom I served in France. We are among the fortunate who survived—fortunate that we can still meet and reminisce over those awful days in 1918. We thought it was the last war but they continue to crop up.

Election Day was chosen to dramatically "highlight the critical moral issues which confront the American people in the elections . . . issues symbolized in the Statue of Liberty." He said that this was the first major assembly of Negroes ever held at the famous "Mother of Exiles" statue.

Preceding the assembly, the Negro churchmen gathered at another New York historic landmark, Trinity Church, where they donned clerical gowns for the procession down Broadway to Battery Park. Two chartered boats carried the delegates and the press to the Statue of Liberty.

Chicago, Ill. — Religions leaders representing some 10 million American Negroes across the United States last Thursday adopted a manifesto condemning the term "black power" and calling for a more active participation by Negro church leaders in the struggle for civil rights.

Attending a Summit Conference of Negro Religious Leaders on the Present Crisis in the Civil Rights Struggle, the 250 representatives unanimously adopted the manifesto outlining several steps which must be taken if, in their terms, "the civil rights struggle is to succeed in the future."

The manifesto, read by Bishop

Honor Winstons in Ottumwa

Ottumwa, Ia. — What is the Rivera? It is a "family recreation center," community size, where kids gather to play pool, read books, buy snacks. Located at 401 S. E. Second street, it is just a block down the hill from Ottumwa High School. Most of its customers are high school-age boys and girls, white and Negro, although some of junior high-age patronize it, too.

Roy and Marguerite Winston, widely respected here, make the place unique. Their two sons, Roy Jr., and Jerry, fist broached the subject of a "family recreation center."

The first reaction of Roy Sr., was that it wouldn't work.

The sons insisted, however, along with the Rev. John J. Martin, a Catholic priest who has spent hundreds of hours, put up some of his own money in the attempt to make the riveria go.

The Winston family is shown visiting with a very good friend, Father Martin. From left are Roy and Marguerite, and their sons Roy Jr., and Jerry. The boys help out when they are not at their jobs.

"When I go to bed at night," Marguerite said, "I feel good because perhaps I have helped one or two young people during the day. I hope so, anyway."

White Allies Still Needed for Movement

Joseph Gomez, presiding bishop of the Fourth Episcopal District, A.M.E. Church, Cleveland, Ohio, had been prepared by a drafting committee of nine Negro church leaders.

Underlying the manifesto and the entire spirit of the conference was an appeal for a return to law and order in the civil rights struggle.

Cleveland, Ohio — Bishop William R. Willkes of Third Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, in support of the call to the nation for moral integrity on racial issues last Wednesday issued the following statement:

The Church asserts that the Negro is seeking equality of citizenship and opportunity within the framework of the American system of law and order.

Job and Training

LARRY HARRIS
 Community Worker Youth Opp.
 Conclusion

Young men assigned to these centers are being trained for jobs for which there are demands for workers now and for the predictable future. Vocational training programs vary from center to center with some centers featuring training for particular occupational specialties such as automobile repair work or data processing machine operation. Some of these programs include on-the-job training in local community businesses.

Enrollees are being trained for jobs, data processing machine operators, data processing machine operators, accounting clerks, automotive repairman, cooks, waiters, hospital orderlies, farm equipment operators, and for numerous other jobs responsive to labor market demands.

The Urban Centers for women each accommodate an average of 250-300. Yes, the white liberals at times, have not done all that we would want them to do, but where would Negroes be in this country were it not for those who have been willing to sacrifice for our freedom? "No. We in the NAACP are not going to read white liberals out of our organization. We need them both on the National Board and in our branches."

Herbert Hill, NAACP director for labor program, was scheduled to speak at the closing mass meeting, Nov. 6, on the marginal position of Negro employees in the Southwest.

300 enrollees, and are located in or near urban areas and, like men centers, are operated under contracts with business organizations, universities, and educational, vocational training and work experience programs. In these centers are included training in family responsibility, how to establish a stable home, budget management and fundamentals of good grooming and good health.

The vocational program for women includes training for employment in these and other areas: business and clerical occupations, household services, food preparation, health services, clothing services, graphic arts, recreation, and various electronics technician occupations.

A young man or woman may spend anywhere from a few months to two years in the Job Corps. The Job Corps will pay the cost of one visit home a year. The Job Corps is entirely voluntary and anyone can leave at anytime. If he stays in the Job Corps and completes his training, he will be better able to get a job, return to school or join the Armed Services.

Step up to Job Corps — you are eligible for the Job Corps if you are 16 — 21 years old and have been out of school and cannot find a job. For more information, come in to see us at Youth Opportunity Center, 300 Court Avenue, or give us a call at 288-4806.

Representing China was Mrs. Lillian Watson, who served chicken, rice, miniature rolls and tea. Miss Shirley Allen brought out pizza and pepsi for Italy. She was dressed in a low-cut, gold fully flaired dress and a bandana.

Tea and crumpets were from Miss Edna Porter, England.

Miss Phyllis Williams was Mexico as she set out chili and tequila, (composed of soft drinks, of course). She wore a white shawl, multi-colored full skirt, a flowered blouse and burgandy stockings.

Frenchmen

Aaron Carter, Jr. and Steven Stegall were Frenchmen who invited guests to grape juice and French bread. They had on black berets and suits and wore long sideburns.

DRAKE UNIVERSITY'S INAU-GURAL CONCERT is undoubtedly "one of the current year's most significant College performances". Each segment of the Concert was quite unbelievably beautiful, so very rich! Though the program was dedicated to Dr. Paul F. Sharp's inauguration, I still felt "imagine merely turning a door knob, finding one's seat and enjoying an evening filled to overflowing with such music. And right here at home."

THE WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE FOR PEACE AND FREEDOM presented Mrs. Sybil Cookson, a member of the Executive Committee of the British Section of the WILPF, in a talk and presentation. Y.W.C.A. Chairman Glenna Johnson, one of the U.S. delegates to the WILPF's Fiftieth Anniversary celebrated in 1965 in Prague, Holland, met Mrs. Cookson there and convinced her that Des Moines should be a stop in her cross-country U.S. trip. Did you know that the WILPF was founded by Jane Addams and won her the Nobel Peace Prize? Mrs. Lenore Subotnik shared this additional bit of information . . .

Mention was made of our JIM DUNN and his promising community service. The WILPF's October Meeting was held at Jim's home that they might head about his PROJECT HOUSE and its SOUTHEAST BOTTOMS PROGRAM. The occasion of Mrs. Cookson's program was made more interesting when at dinner, I was invited to share a table with Mrs. Alice Brown, and three others including Dr. Lee Kleiss, Professor of Chemistry, Simpson College. Later visiting with Dr. Kleiss I asked if I might mention her in my column: she said "yes" but supplied this meager but pertinent portion. Your home? "I have never lived any place longer than four years! (Confidentially, the charming lady is from Germany.) Your major interests outside of chemistry? "Life of peace". Friends, this leaves one doing a bit of real thinking! She actually has done much work for peace . . . MRS. INA ALLEN, MRS. CARMEN STONE AND MRS. LUVENIA JONES, food servers at the Y.W.C.A. Cafeteria offer some of the best food to be had anywhere — and give one service with a smile.

MR. AND MRS. JOE WYATT recently moved to 1027 27 street; Dr. Cynthia Vaughn (Mrs. Tommie) and her seven week old son, Terrance Robert Vaughn, moved to Detroit, Mich.; Dr. Delores Love, son, Rodney, and daughter, Rhonda, moved to San Jose, Calif. — all this within two months. This story is hard to top! . . . Incidentally, I'm sure you read where Tommie Vaughn, a Detroit Lion, injured his left leg in Sunday's game with the Chicago Bears.

HERE WE GO! "What is the sweetest smelling rose of all the roses? The Negroes." A son recalling his father's anecdotes gave me this one . . . Alicia Hartzell — who formerly resided in Old Mexico, declares American meats "too old — all but rotten! In Mexico slaughtering begins at midnight, the meat is hung allowing the blood to drip, and at 8:00 a.m. market deliveries begin. When the meat is bought it is nicely red and moist — instead of water oozing from the meat, as when we buy it here there's that nice fresh blood. It is delicious!" When she first came to the U.S., she had four great wishes: nice, crisp apples, so juicy that when bitten, juice would run into mouth; next celery — so crisp that there would be sounds of crunching as she crushed it between her teeth; then there would be cottage cheese — nice, fresh and creamy; last? Homogenized milk!

BANK OPERATED BY NEGROES and for Negroes was a saving bank of the Grand Fountain of the United Order of True Reformers. This was a special order founded by William W. Browne. It was incorporated in 1881 at Richmond, Va. It was chartered in March, 1888 and opened April 3, 1889 with a paid up capital in the sum of $4,000. The first day's receipts totaled $1,268.69. It is said that the Freedmen's Bank was run by whites and was not a Negro bank, simply operated for Negroes. (Information taken from New England Magazine Vol. 32, 1905.)

Colored Women Club In Force 70 Years

The National Association of Colored Women's Clubs — the nation's oldest women's organization — "has been a leading force in promoting the welfare of the Negro woman and her family" throughout its 70-year history, says Ebony magazine in its November issue.

Big Joke

Years ago, men used to joke about women's clubs being nothing more than an excuse for the girls to "meet and eat" while trading latest gossip. How far they were from the truth can easily be measured through the influence now wielded by the super-club that grew out of them, the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, Inc.

Achievements

Some of the achievements of NACWC affiliates are participation in Head Start programs, setting up clinics to explain Social Security and Medicare programs and staff workshops on health, economics, housing and education.

They are found on state boards of regents and boards of public instruction, while collectively they sponsor spelling bees, award scholarships and seek ways of providing supplemental help to improve the education of Negro children.

SHAME ON DES MOINES

Des Moines voters have again turned down a bid to authorize construction of federally financed low cost housing. It is a repeat of the 1961 election and constituted a blow to the intelligence of the community.

The opposition, led by the real estate and building interest, conducted one of those low brow campaigns, importing in the community in 1961 and in 1966, peddlers of hate, chicanery and ignorance. They played upon the shortsightedness and prejudice of the unsuspecting, the very people, who at every opportunity, block the admission of Negroes to labor unions and opportunities for jobs and promotion at every turn of events.

The leaders of the middle class, the laboring people, endorsed the project but they seem to have had little influence getting their members to go along.

During the campaign it was easy to detect the rooster, sly threads of hate and distrust coming from some of our so called leading citizens, many of whom go to church on Sunday embracing their neighbors as their brothers' keepers, but step out of the door practicing just the opposite.

Des Moines is sometimes called a progressive city, sometimes a town above the average in human relations. But when sinister interests can defeat progressive, forward meaning ideas, like low cost housing, then its good name falls behind par.

REPUBLICANS GAIN

IN TUESDAY'S ELECTION

As the votes were counted in the Tuesday election, electing and returning Republicans to office over the country, it became easy to detect the features which produced the results.

In 1964, Senator Goldwater carried many good candidates down to defeat simply because they were on the ticket.

Many are dissatisfied with some government programs which squander the public's money.

Many voted against Democrats because during their national administration, Negroes have engaged in mob violence and other types of lawlessness which, in addition to hurting themselves, lost a lot of friends.

Unfortunately, the Negro's struggle for human rights has produced strong opposition from segregationists and shaken a lot of people who take a passive position on human rights.

The re-election of Gov. Rockefeller in New York and Gov. Romney in Michigan along with the unprecedented election of a Negro to the United States Senate, Edward Brooke of Massachusetts—the first since the turn of the century—are lights of encouragement to the liberal wing of the Republican party.

Naturally, we must accept the verdict of the electorate whether good or bad. It is the democratic process. Those who voted did their duty and if their vote was not good, there is always another time.

The election produced a more workable balance between the parties in Congress and in the legislatures, out of which will come better and more responsible laws.

Rights Comm. Not As Effective; Slow

Mims Case

Iowa Civil Rights Commission Director James Thomas replied to a statement by S. Sgt. Wallace Mims, a Negro airman who said he has been unable since June, 1965, to find a mobile home court space for his mobile home in Des Moines.

Mims said he had one meeting with commission representatives more than a year ago "and that's the last I've heard of them."

Non-Strong

The Commission had been told Thursday it "was not as strong as it could have been" in its findings in the Raymond Driver investigation.

Robert A. Wright, state president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (N.A.A.C.P.), said the commission "should have found that there was in fact discrimination" in the apprentice selection policies of the Plumbers Union.

The rights commission, after a six-week probe, found the resignation "resulted in large part" from Driver's statements about the union, but said it could not determine whether Driver was forced out.

Closed

An attorney for Mims asked the commission last February to consider the Mims case closed.

Thomas, who was appointed director in February, said he has since invited Mims to file a complaint "if he is still applying (for trailer space) and getting the runaround."

This had to be a black weekend. You all know what happened to IOWA U. at MICHIGAN STATE. Well, the HAWKS did score again and if they can get their supply back together, just might take OHIO STATE. MICHIGAN STATE wasn't trying to run up a score, but how do you keep a score down when your record and three stringers come to play. Your opponents came to get tired and scoring becomes easy!

DRAKE tackled the MARINES and finished second. But the BULLDOGS have a fine record, to date, 6-2.

Our WARRIORS got beat and now face OMAHA in a playoff in the latter's back yard. They just got out by the skin of their teeth last time up there. Could have trouble this time.

And here at home ROOSEVELT'S KEN WHITNEY scuttled the city scoring race once and for all by scoring four touchdowns in the RIDERS game with AMES. We might suspect the RIDERS planned it so that if anybody scored it would be WHITNEY. The big thing we noted was the difference between ROOSEVELT team and the other city teams is that all the fellows seem to like each other. At EAST, TECH and NORTH, it seems to be to us that about the only times the players are together is on the playing field. After the game, each group goes its separate ways, so it seems to an outsider.

The ROOSEVELT KIDS know they are disliked by the rest of the schools and that welds them together into a determined bunch. The old rallying against the world has been replaced by ROOSEVELT against the city and it makes those boys have great team spirit. There they made few mistakes, such as fumbles and big penalties.

Now while we are about it, we have to record that fine DOWLING team also had a few NEGROES on the rosters. MIKE GARRISON, ARTHUR BAGBY, and a little runner named HUMPHREY were the guys who played most of the time. In another year without all the KIRBYS, JOHNSONS and WHITNEYS, HUMPHREY would have been the talk of the town. The guy takes off as if he were late for lunch, and really scrambles. Ask ROOSEVELT. They never did get over the shock of that opening kickoff return against them.

Well, our DAVIS CUP did it again. Kept another Ash out of the singles because the other guy might be hot just now and blew three out of four singles matches. Normally when a team wins the doubles and splits the first two singles matches, it is in. But not our guys. This is the second time the team managed to have done this to ASH. Last year he went down to AUSTRALIA and won just about every title in sight. Now we don't even believe in second guessing, but isn't it about time our DAVIS CUP team captains put a premium on consistency, rather than a hot streak?

Reconsider Bid, Roy Wilkins Asks Eagles

New York — Efforts to reach a settlement of the dispute between the Milwaukee NAACP youth council and the Milwaukee chapter of the Fraternal Order of Eagles failed when D. D. Billings, FOE grand worthy president, refused to meet with any NAACP delegation including representatives of the youth council.

Such a meeting was planned for Oct. 19 in New York City at the suggestion of Dr. Nathan P. Feinsinger, University of Wisconsin law professor, who served as mediator in this endeavor.

between the organizations. The NAACP youth council had conducted a series of demonstrations against public officials holding membership in the Eagles because of the organization's policy of excluding Negroes.

Back in Milwaukee, Oct. 20, the youth representatives released a statement reviewing the issue and saying that now "it is logical that the Eagles take the next step." Citing the preamble to the Eagles constitution to the effect that the organization's purposes are "to inculcate the principles of liberty, truth, justice and equality," the young people expressed confidence "that if the members of the FOE follow these tenets, a solution to our mutual problems can be found in short order. We are prepared to cooperate wholeheartedly in every way possible in this endeavor."

None Other, but My Mother—For Mom

For years and years, she's Worked, like no other— Who none other, then my mother— I can remember back real far, and she's Still my shining star. She washed and scrubbed and kept me clean Even when I to her was mean. I talked back, when I shouldn't, I even Ran away— But never long would I stay

I've seen the snow deep, when I was small, I stood by the window and watched her fall. But up again she'd try to make a day's living and I would cry— I'm a man full grown, but I'll Never forget— All her live, her tears and sweat Now she's older and starting to slow down— Ah—but she still gets around. She washes and irons for people some wealthy. I wonder if they're as healthy—

As the one to me—who's like no other None other, but my Mother. I use to say so very long ago I'll take care of you—when you're old. But I look around to see, she's still watches after me. I'll make one promise before life's through— To make some of her dreams come true.
