Former Willkie Director Named to Comm. Chest

Mrs. Humphrey New Career Director; At Willkie '62-65

Cincinnati, Ohio — Mrs. Helen B. Humphrey, former executive director of Willkie House (1962-65) director of Health and Welfare Services of the Urban League of Greater Cincinnati since July, 1965, has been named director of Careers in Social Work, an agency of the Community Chest.

Announcement of Mrs. Humphrey's appointment came Dec. 13, from Mrs. William H. Hopple, Jr., Careers in Social Work president, following a luncheon board meeting. Appointment of Mrs. Humphrey as director of the social agency becomes effective Jan. 1.

Mrs. Humphrey brings to her new post more than 20 years experience in social work, including 15 years service in Ohio. Her nine years in Cincinnati programs have included a wide variety of duties in five of the Queen City's leading social, health and welfare agencies.

Prior to her past year's work as director of the Health and Welfare Services of the Urban League of Greater Cincinnati, she served as psychiatric worker at Rollman Receiving Hospital, September, 1956, September, 1957. She joined the staff of the Hamilton County Welfare Department as caseworker in the Children's Services Division in May, 1953, and was promoted to casework Supervisor, serving in that capacity until she left the Welfare Department in August, 1956.

From September, 1943, June, 1952, Mrs. Humphrey was associated with the Young Women's Christian Association at the Lincoln Heights branch, progressing from Y-Teen director, program director and then to executive director.

Six years work at settlement and neighborhood houses in Cleveland took Mrs. Humphrey first to Friendly Inn Settlement, June, 1945 — July 1946, as playground worker and head teacher of the Emergency Day Care Center, and, a decade later, to Garden Valley Neighborhood House as neighborhood worker and group work supervisor. She remained at the latter post for five years.

Education

A native of Georgia, Mrs. Humphrey was reared and educated in Atlanta. She received her Bachelor of Arts Degree from Spelman College and her Master's Degree in social work from Atlanta University School of Social Work. She has also done graduate work at Western Reserve University in Cleveland.

Professional memberships include the National Association of Social Workers and the Academy of Certified Social Workers.

Her husband, William Humphrey, is a teacher at the Children's Unit at Longview Hospital. Daughter, Adrienne, is a ninth grade honor student at Shroder Junior High School. The family residence is at 6144 Webbland Place, Pleasant Ridge.

Bottoms to Vote Selves Out of City if HUD Won't Help

The Southeast Bottoms, a slum section of town, has been passed over in the federal program, "Demonstration Cities", and the people there don't like it.

Southeast spokesman said at the City Council meeting that if they are left out of the plan, they might secede: Frank Bailey, resident of the Chesterfield neighborhood Center in that area, said that he didn't wish to threaten, but the action of the city Council members in selecting the Walnut Hill-Forest Hills land left the Southeast Bottom dwellers no alternative.

Councilmen James Callison and Wallace Buss favored postponing action for more study by the committee.

"There are three . . . areas, in the city," said Craig Sawyer, referring to the bottoms, the Walnut Hills-Forest Hills and the Logan School area on the east side.

Supporting the Bottoms demand to be included was the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People when it delivered its statement Tuesday night at Willkie House.

At a previous Council meeting Mayor George Whitmer said he did not agree with the committee report recommending Walnut-Forest Hills area, saying "The heart of the problem . . . is the Southeast Bottoms, and has been for 30-40 years."

The reason for avoiding the Bottoms is that HUD (the office of Housing and Urban Development) said that area would require "massive physical revamping."

of fighting poverty and ending racial segregation in America?

Bayard Rustin, Negro rights leader and architect of the multi-billion dollar plan, discussed the question with leaders of the National Women's Division of the American Jewish Congress on Wednesday, Dec. 14, at Stephen Wise Congress House.

The meeting launched a discussion of the "Budget" by chapter committees of the Women's Division in cities across the country.

Mrs. David Smith, chairman of the Law and Social Action Committee, and Mrs. Howard Levine, chairman of the Community Interrelations Committee of the American Jewish Congress National Women's Division, will lead the discussion.

In a joint statement, the two American Jewish Congress women's leaders declared:

"In Judaism, aid to the poor is not a charitable act but a social obligation. We regard such aid as an act of justice and due the recipient as a matter of right by virtue of his common humanity with the giver."

He was policeman four years, and began his new duties Dec. 19.

King Book: Where Do We Go from Here?

Atlanta, Ga. — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. begun a two-month sabbatical to write a new book.

Dr. King, who will write it out of the country, said he decided to write the new book because he found in recent national travels that "there is an uneasy feeling in the civil rights movement that we may have lost our sense of direction."

In the new book, tentatively entitled "WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?", Dr. King plans to evaluate progress already made toward justice and equality, and to analyze "the resurgence of the so-called white backlash, implications of the 'Black Power' slogan, and the need for the Federal Government to re-order priorities for the nation. Our traditional allies are now in search of new purpose and meaning, and I hope the book will help in this quest."

During Dr. King's absence, SCLS will be guided by Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, Vice President At-Large and Financial Secretary-Treasurer, and Rev. Andrew Young, Executive Director.

Life Sentence for 19-year-old Negro

Conn. — After being convicted of first degree murder, Thomas Lee Penn was sentenced to life in prison with no recommendation for mercy.

Thomas, who said he didn't know why he shot six persons he said he had killed, would be eligible for parole in 15 years under the sentence. He still faces trial on five other murder charges.

Penn was convicted of the fatal shooting last May 9 of 16-year-old Cynthia Johnson. Penn said he met the girl, also Negro, on a Richmond street that night, took her into a nearby wooded area at gunpoint and shot her nine times.

Living Christmas Swallows Bulb

"So far, so good," was the relieved reply from Mrs. Geraldine Butts, in connection with her grandson's swallowing portions of a Christmas ornament last Friday morning.

Two-year-old Shawn Butts, son of Mrs. Marilyn Smith, of 1412 De Wolf street was given emergency treatment at Broadlawn Polk County Hospital.

Marilyn had come over to her mother's home to help with housework, since Mrs. Butts is incapacitated with a broken ankle.

"One of the ornaments (from the aluminum tree) had fallen and broken and he picked it up. One of the little girls said, 'Maybe he thought it was an apple.'"

Shawn suffered a small cut on his lip, and doctors have posted Mrs. Smith to watch for ornament particles in his stools.

"But so far, so good," said Mrs. Butts.

Churchmen Elected: Boston NAACP Board

Boston. — Kenneth I. Guscott, president of the Boston NAACP Branch, reports the election of four leading churchmen, by overwhelming majorities, to the branch's board of directors.

They are Richard Cardinal Cushing, Archbishop, Boston; Rt. Rev. Anson Phelps Stokes, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts; Rabbi Roland Gittelsohn of Temple Israel and Rev. Gilbert Caldwell, leader of the Union Methodist Church in Boston. Both Cardinal Cushing and Rabbi Gittelsohn are life members of the NAACP.

Says third term Guscott: "We plan an intensification of the program we have begun for job and educational opportunities, and for the total involvement of the Negro in the life of Boston."

Victory for 3rd Missionary Baptist Ch., Davenport

Davenport, Ia. — District Judge Clay LeGrand of Scott County District Court handed down a sweeping decision in favor of Rev. T. Spencer Patton, Jr. and the present membership of the Third Missionary Baptist Church of Davenport.

Rev. Patton's attorney and the attorney for the present members of the Third Missionary Baptist Church, Henry T. McKnight of Des Moines, successfully argued to the Court that the Third Missionary Baptist Church of Davenport, was an independent congregational type of polity, self governing and having no superior directing power and the court had no jurisdiction over or concern with the internal or ecclesiastical affairs of the Baptist Church including the right to restore Deacons and Trustees to their position when they had been removed by vote of the majority of the membership.

Removal

This present controversy came about due to the fact that on June 26, 1965 by a majority vote of 149 members of the Third Missionary Baptist Church, the Rev. T. Spencer Patton, Jr. was retained as Pastor

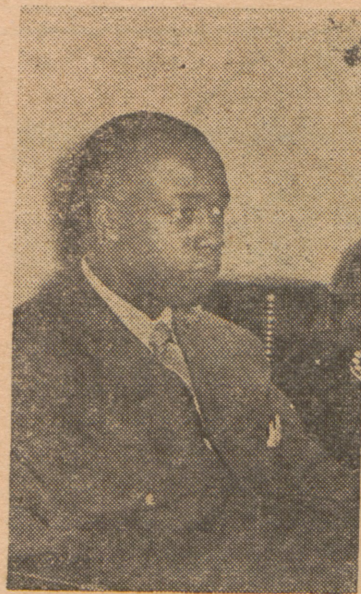

New York, N.Y. — Dr. Jerome H. Holland, president of Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va., has been elected to the board of the Eberstadt Fund, Inc. Elected a trustee of Cornell University in 1965, where he earned his Bachelor's and Master's degrees, the educator is the first Negro to join the governing board of an Ivy League institution.

Washington, D. C. — The "slave-name" Negro will be replaced with the term "Afro-American" to describe the black population of America, if a conference of the American Federation of Teachers are swayed. Keith Baird, a Barbados-born language teacher introduced the resolution at the federation's national meeting.

Cleveland, Miss. — Students from Beloit College have been teaching adults and tutoring Negro children. In Hattiesburg, white students from Mississippi Southern University are crediting a remedial education program. But in Edwards, the Ku Klux Klan advertised a "bring the family" last month — the fourth KKK rally held recently in that area.

New York, N. Y. — The nation's 3.3 million United Presbyterians have been urged during the next year to help the denomination divest itself of all racial segregation in congregations, judicatories, boards and agencies.

5" Boning Knife Weapon Punctures Spleen, Heart; Wife Held for Murder

William Badgett, 52, of 840 16th street, is dead from stab wounds in the back and shoulder. Charged in the slaying is his wife, Phyllis, 34.

Marine Clayburn Is Combat Graduate

Camp Pendleton, Calif. — Marine Private Larry J. Clayburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Clayburne of 524 Grandview, has completed four weeks of individual combat training at this Marine Corps Base.

During his more than 200 hours of training, he learned about weapons and combat techniques from combat who has been accused of killing her husband with a 10" butcher knife about 2 a.m. Monday, after a celebration of his birthday Sunday, Dec. 18.

According to reports, Mrs. Badgett called police from a neighbor's phone and reportedly told officers that she'd stabbed her husband.

Arriving police found Badgett in the livingroom on the floor, dead from stab wounds, which had ticked his heart, liver and spleen.

He was taken to Broadlawn Polk County Hospital.

According to police the knife was discovered under a bedroom bed.

Detective Robert Weichman explained that the Badgetts, who have been married 11 years, according to Mrs. Badgett, had been making festivities with friends and had returned home not long before the death occurred.

According to reports, the argument had been going for some time.

Mrs. Badgett was arraigned Monday under an open charge of first degree murder without bond, and Municipal Judge Ray Harrison has scheduled the preliminary hearing for 1:30 p.m. Dec. 27.

Funeral services for Mr. Badgett were 10 a.m. Thursday at Fowler and Son Funeral Home.

Born in Clinton, Mo., he had lived in Des Moines 19 years.

Burial was at Laurel Hill Cemetery.

"It's exciting, once you've made a record," said Frederick Harris, as he sat talking with me in the office. "Rod Keith, with the Preview Record Company in Hollywood sings 'The Eternal Flame', (written in memory of President Kennedy). There are 250,000 records made up, so it's been selling quite a while."

Frederick, a tall, slightly built man laid his hands on his knees in satisfaction when he mentioned the check and statement he receives every so often.

"We had a demonstration record sent out to recording companies, sung by Walter Henderson. We changed it for him to sing as a religious version."

He furthered his visit by explaining his future plans. "I've got another religious number I'm working on with Tony Parrish in New York. I'm not too swift with arrangements, so I work with him."

"What God Means to Me" is the name. It's going to be a beautiful song, something that we need. There are too many other songs."

"When did you first start writing?"

"Since I was sixteen. I also liked to sing."

"How long ago was that?" His answer was a laugh. "Quite a while ago. After I came home from the service, I felt better when I wrote rather than to sing. I have written a play similar to 'A Raisin in the Sun.' (Which by the way, will be shown on CBS national television, but not in Des Moines. Naturally.)"

"And I wrote a book from the song 'Which Road is Mine?'"

Mr. Harris' Christmas poem appears on page six.

Church of God Fight Flares Up in Texas

Houston, Tex. — The fight by Bishop Ozro T. Jones, Sr., supposedly ousted senior bishop of Church of God in Christ, flared again Friday when nine members of the church's executive board were served restraint orders by the sheriff of Harris County, Tex., as they walked from a plane in Houston.

According to Bishop R. E. Ranger, the bishop of Southeast Texas, Church of God in Christ, the bishops of the executive board had come to Houston to take away his authority and to appoint another bishop in his place. This was part of the same movement by the executive board started in Memphis at the 59th Annual Convocation in November. According to Bishop Ranger, all action on the part of the executive board was stymied in Houston and the nine bishops never came to his meeting. They met at another church in Houston which has no jurisdiction.

Injunctions

The members of the executive board injunctions by the sheriff were Bishops, A. E. McEwen, S. M. Crouch; J. O. Patterson and two other bishops, Memphis; L. H. Ford, Chicago; J. S. Bailey, Detroit; Bishop John White of New Orleans disappeared from the group and could not be found to accept the injunction. Bishop Ranger had applied for the restraining order against these Bishops in order to protect his duties in Southeast Texas. He was in Philadelphia last week to lend support to Bishop Ozro T. Jones, Sr., during a mammoth rally of support for Bishop Jones.

The situation has two court sites, Memphis and Houston, in which authority of the executive board is being challenged by Bishop Jones and followers.

Man Topics

Negro Anti-Semitism Blocks Jewish Friendship

New York, N.Y. — "Black power and Negro anti-Semitism present the most fateful domestic Jewish issue in American history and suggest the possible need to relocate perhaps tens of thousands of Jewish families now making their living in Negro ghettos," said Judd L. Teller in a national Jewish magazine.

Teller makes the point that Jewish communities in the large American cities must "seek and develop opportunities for accommodation with black power and certainly avoid any collision with it."

"Major Jewish organizations became engaged in the Negro struggle immediately after World War II, even before the Negro community itself had begun to stir," he declares. . . . "The Negro certainly overrated the political power Jews have to share, yet, unless some accommodation is achieved between the Negro and Jewish communities, the two will remain on a collision course."

Powerful

Both the Bible and Christian Scriptures have had a "powerful impact on the American Negro. By analogizing his plight with Hebrew bondage in Egypt he hacked out for himself a niche in the white man's history alongside the Jews. . . . Some Negroes assert their equality in the white man's religion, and the means by which some aspirant demagogues hope to subject the Negro Establishment. . . . Anti-Semitism remains the insoluble Christian bond between the Klan and Negro extremism."

Dr. Teller, in the article, also deals with "secular anti-Semitism among the Negro—that of the Black Muslim and their ilk. . . . Foreclosing on Jewish concern for the Negro Revolution would only the myth that the Jew is the enemy. Jewish support must not be diminished, "but it must not be of an aggressive kind that would suggest our intrusion and taking sides in the Negro movement." At the same time, attacks and innuendoes from the Negro radical wing should not be left "unreduplicated and unchallenged."

Eliminate Slumlord

"The Jewish slumlord as a class (there are exceptions) is in another category. As a rule, he was not stranded in the ghetto, but has mulcted enough from the run-down properties to be able to remove himself now without real hardship. The Jewish community should force his removal by barring him from all office, national and local, in Jewish life."

Remember Record '62 11 Inch Blizzard Here

With Dec. 21-22 the fifth anniversary of the Des Moines area's pre-Christmas 'blizzard, the Civil Defense Section of the Department of Philip Randolph Institute as a means Public Instruction reminds school people and others that natural disasters such as blizzards occurs well as man-made disasters. Accordingly the CD staff has made available to schools and related organizations a six page set of tips on "Blizzard Survival."

During that 24-hour period five years ago, Des Moines and an 11-inch snowfall, which was blown into blizzard proportions by north winds that gusted to 30 miles an hour.

Protection

Any kind of paper is good for insulation from the cold if blankets are not available. Dometights should be turned on at night, and windows should be opened only on the side away from the wind.

In summarizing pre-cautions for motorists stuck in snow or stalled in a blizzard, the Civil Defense Education consultants advise: Do not panic, Beware of over-exertion, Stay in vehicle and keep dry and Make provision for a supply of fresh air.

Dorothy Height Speaks to Women Of Nat. Council

Washington, D. C. — Three Mary McLeod Bethune Awards were presented by the National Council of Negro Women at a special banquet on Monday, Dec. 19, at the Hotel Plaza in New York, to spur the organization's nationwide Life Membership Campaign.

Miss Dorothy I. Height, President of the National Council of Negro Women, announced Monday, Dec. 12, that the awards — which perpetuate the memory of the organization's founder, were presented to Mrs. Arthur J. Goldberg, distinguished citizen volunteer and wife of the United States U. N. permanent representative Arthur Goldberg; A. Philip Randolph, Vice President AFL-CIO and creator of the "Freedom Budget" and Walter P. Reuther, President of the United Automobile Workers and Chairman of the Citizens Crusade Against Poverty.

The banquet was a high point in the Life Membership Campaign, headed by Miss Lena Horne, noted entertainer, and Mrs. Samuel Zales, prominent communal leader of New York and Stamford, Connecticut, a member of the National Board of Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America.

Delinquency

Mrs. Zales said that by Dec. 19, her committee expected to have close to 500 new Life Members enrolled in the National Council of Negro Women. This, she said, yielded some $50,000 toward a special fund to advance the council's programs in education, civil rights, housing as well as an energetic effort against juvenile delinquency.

In a special statement, Miss Height declared: "The National Council of Negro Women seeks to enroll at least 5,000 Life Members throughout the United States in the next two years."

"The American woman has a vital role to play in the fight for freedom in America, whether she be black or white. That role can be translated into concrete achievements through participation in the programs of the National Council of Negro Women."

Racial Practices Of Nursing Homes Studied by NAACP

New York. — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is conducting a nationwide survey of racial practices of nursing home serving Medicare patients.

These homes will be subject to the provisions of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 beginning Jan. 1. Under this title Federal funds may be withheld from facilities which exclude, segregate or otherwise discriminate against persons because of their race, religion or national origin. Gloster B. Current, NAACP director of branches and field administration, has dispatched questionnaires to the Association's more than 1,600 local units in 50 states seeking information on practices of nursing homes within their respective areas. The branches, youth councils and college chapters have been asked to appoint a special committee to conduct the survey.

The results of the survey are to be returned to the NNACP Washington Bureau for appropriate action.

Job and Training

Kermit L. Dunahoo
Manpower Council

Manpower Development and Training (MDTA) programs are available for unemployed and underemployed persons who are out of school. Various types of occupational training include: ON-THE-JOB, INSTITUTIONAL or class room, COUPLED or a combination of classroom instruction and actual work experience on the job, and BASIC EDUCATION courses to teach the basic skills for a particular job. Weekly training allowances vary with the type of program. This article is concerned with institutional training, and the other types of MDTA training shall be discussed later. Des Moines' Comprehensive Vocational Training Facility located at 2403 Bell Avenue, is equipped with up-to-date tools, equipment, and machinery, and is "designed to provide exposure to, and intensive training in a multi-occupational setting."

Some of the MDTA institutional courses are limited to youths (aged 16-22); some to adults (over 22); while others are for both youths and adults. The programs — which average about 28-30 weeks in length — are open to people of all races, as guaranteed by the fact that the federal government provides funds for the training. Above all, the applicant must show an interest and a need, in vocational training. Preference in the adult programs in generally given to heads of families, and in youth programs to school dropouts or to high school graduates who are low achievers. Preference in all program is given to the socially, economically, and physically handicapped.

A good source of up-to-date information about up-coming MDTA courses is Training Opportunities, a bulletin published weekly by the Des Moines offices of Iowa State Employment Service and Youth Opportunity Center. Copies of Training Opportunities are sent throughout the State to such facilities as the various local Employment Service offices, EOE neighborhood centers, human rights commissions and NAACP branches.

The latest bulletin (dated Dec. 13) lists the following MDTA courses as being available in Des Moines: Auto-body Repairman; Building Maintenance Man; Business Machine Repairman; Clerk-Typist; Food Service Occupations; Machine Operator; Meat Cutter; Office Occupations; Radio-Television Service and Repair; Sales Occupations; Service Station Mechanic; Shoe Repairman; and Welder (Combination).

MDTA courses available in some other Iowa cities include: Davenport: Auto-body repairman, machine operator; Ottumwa: Programmer; Sioux City: Machine operator; and Waterloo: Auto-body repairman, Machine operator.

For specific information about starting times and training allowances for the various classes, contact the local Employment Service Offices or the Youth Opportunity Center.

Dr. Jackson Defends Jew,
Replies to Russian Bapt.

Seattle, Wash. — Speaking before an enthusiastic audience in the People's Institutional Baptist Church, Dec. 7, Dr. J. H. Jackson, president of the National Baptist Convention, said: "The United States of America is not perfect; many unsolved problems still remain, but this Nation has the resources with which to solve them all. She has the Federal Constitution, the supreme law of the land, which is dedicated to the freedom of all America. She has a laden philosophy of freedom which ascribes equal opportunity to every citizen of this Republic, and has the blessings in fertile soil and economic plenty that insure food enough for all of her children, and she has dedicated and patriotic citizens in all races."

Judeo

In pointing to the connections of the Judeo-Christian Religion, the speaker said: "This Nation has also the moral and spiritual dynamism that can set the evil captive free and redeem our society from class prejudice, hatred and discrimination."

Dr. Jackson closed his address by telling his audience about a letter which he had received from the Evangelical Baptist of Russia. The Russian Baptist seemed to have gotten some satisfaction from the protests made by some U.S.A. citizens against the present policies of the United States in Viet Nam. Dr. Jackson was not duped by the Russian letter, and yet he did not turn a deaf ear to the faintest cry for peace. Dr. Jackson handed the Reverend E. S. Brazill a copy of the letter which he had drafted as a reply to the letter from the Russian Baptist. The letter contained six proposals which Dr. Jackson felt would make a positive contribution to peace, not only in Viet Nam, but in the world.

REV. AND MRS. HENDERSON DAVIS, new pastor and wife team at St. Paul A.M.E. Church are a fine addition to Des Moines' religious leaders. I hope that they like us very much, too.

MRS. LENA L. SMITH and I have been girl friends since I was about seven years old! I couldn't vacation without a pre-holiday festivity with her so we made it Noah's Ark. Mrs. Smith is so petite and looked very, very pretty. The evening was in every sense a festivity. As we drove home and I listened to her humming, I felt very fortunate to have a friend so dear!

MRS. HOBIE BOOKER had these comments from Evelyn and Robert Phillips, her sister and brother-in-law, recently from France and now living in San Francisco, Calif. I hope our next move will be back home (Des Moines) for good, though I do like it here! I can look out the window and see The Golden Gate Bridge. San Francisco is more like a European City. I've met several people from France — as have Bob and Punchy (Robert, Jr.). Corky (the family dog) is having a ball! Everyone has a dog and Corky has made friends with them all. He has even had a fight.

REV. BERT FOX has a magnificent voice. He sings with such ease and so beautifully. Singing is to him a great personal pleasure. He doesn't need the audience — he is happy just singing. The thought again occurs to me — I hope some day to own several albums of "Songs by Rev. Bert Fox".

CONTRASTS? BUNNIE BARNEX, an antique dealer, was arranging various display items when suddenly she called out to a friend "Helen, don't forget to pick up my wig. The shop said it would be ready tonight". I thought "A head, filled with visions of wigs, crowned by the latest in wigs".

INTO THE LAKE INSIDE REST-HAVEN CEMETERY toppled a three year old girl. It was summer and she had wandered lakeside. She soon became enraptured with the reflections she saw there: her own bright image, the sky, the sun, her very own tiny world! To the rescue came her mother — who, jumping into the water grasped the little one as she came to the top the second time. Having placed the child ashore, the mother then found herself in need of rescuing! Her feet were stuck in the mud! Nearby there was a badly crippled old man, who placed himself upon the ground at the lake edge and reaching out grasped the mother's hands and helped her get out! This episode thus adding to the lake's reflections which is where our story began.

99 DAYS FOR $99 read a Greyhound Bus Station sign. It really fascinates me. 99 days quickly reduced are three months. This is a long period to a working person so how much territory can be covered and enjoyed in three months? Anyway I'm still toying with thought in terms of Chicago, New York, Washington, D.C., Los Angeles and San Francisco or to just Mexico! (Stop-overs are permitted at any time enroute.) Where would you like to go? Now back to reality — I had $14.99 so here I am in Minneapolis, Minn.

LUCILE SPRIGGS, former social worker with the VA promises me a visit to her agency and to a few other places of interest. Best of all, I shall hear of her last spring's visit to Greece. DR. JOYCE PERRIN, former Chief of the VA's psychiatric clinic sent me a Christmas note as usual. Should she ever forget me I'd be disappointed! Along with all other activities in her busy life, she has written two or more books just recently.

MRS. DONALD MARSH, the former Rose Guy of Waterloo, and a brief resident of Des Moines, took time out from homemaking for a brief phone visit and to welcome me back to Minneapolis. (We always have great fun.) The good Doctor was Christmas shopping. Fourteen months old David talked with me. It was ecstatic being the chosen one — this was the first time he's been willing to talk over the phone. While Dr. Marsh pursues his study of radiology, Rose, a social worker, devotes her time to David, some club work, and to reading.

AARON BROOKS SIDNER, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Sidner, and my grandson, arrived 12:15 p.m., Dec. 13, weighing 7 lbs. 1 oz., and measuring 20 inches. Noting his tremendous appetite, I said "he's like his grandmother, loves to eat". Objected his mother "No, he eats leisurely. Not as though it were his last supper!"

CHRISTMAS SEALS: The modern type was created in 1907 by Emily P. Bissell of Wilmington, Del. She was author of the idea, drew the design and had them printed. Her first sale brought $3,000.

Doric Lodge Elects '67 Officers Thursday

Doric Lodge No. 30, F. and A.M., held its annual election of officers on Thursday, Dec. 15, at the Fraternal Temple Building, 11th and Center streets.

Following officers were installed: Charles E. Watkins, worshipful Master (re-elected); Robert Wilson, Senior Warden; James P. Mitchell, Jr., Junior Warden; Frank Hogan, Treasurer; Curtis J. Jackson, Secretary.

The appointive officers will be named by W. M. Watkins at a later date.

Festivities at the Holiday Inn: Three Purpose Club for 66

The THREE PURPOSE CLUB entertained at a cocktail party at Holiday Inn Sunday, Dec. 18, from 5-9 p.m.

The party, which combined the club's 35th anniversary and Christmas cheer, held many surprises in the form of accumulation and elimination dances, rose and lemon games and cards.

Two tables were laden with hor d'oeuvres where guest could serve themselves.

Winning a prize in the elimination game was Mrs. Felice Rhoades, and William Sharp won in the men's division.

Mrs. Gail Adams received a box of candy in the rose and lemon game, while Mrs. George Robinson won in bridge.

Two other card sharks, Paul Wilson and Mrs. Grace Wade, got top honors in whist.

President is Mrs. Mussette Perkins.

Radio Repairman, TV, Begin Training

The Television Servicemen's Association of Iowa, will arrange 45 trainees for instruction as T.V. and radio repair and service men for up to 32 weeks.

Taylor F. Custer, regional director of the Department's Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training, said in Kansas City, Mo., that the average on-the-job trainee returns the Government's investment in his training within two years. It is paid in the form of income taxes on his increased earnings.

MINIMUM WAGE GOES TO $1.40, FEB. '67

When the Federal minimum wage for employees goes to $1.40 an hour Feb. 1, 1967, many workers will be entitled to a minimum of $1 an hour, Harold R. Treiber, supervisor of the city department's Wage-Hour Division office, pointed out.

A new leaflet lists employees of laundry and dry cleaning enterprises, construction enterprises not previously covered, hospitals, nursing homes and most schools as among those where the $1 minimum will be applicable in February.

Also included are employees of other enterprises whose gross volume exceeds half a million dollars annually. This included hotel, motel and restaurant enterprises.

Most of the newly-covered workers also will be entitled to time-and-a-half for overtime after 44 hours per workweek, except for the farm workers, where no over-time provisions apply.

55 More Police In Suit Against PBA

New York. — Fifty-five more New York City Negro policemen, members of the Guardians, have signed petitions to join as plaintiffs in the New York Supreme Court case charging illegal use of the funds of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association of which they are also members.

Their motion to intervene was filed in Court Dec. 14 by attorneys of the National Association for the Colored People.

The Court will hear arguments Dec. 23 on the PBA's motion to dismiss the original petition.

On Nov. 4, shortly before the referendum on the police civilian complaint review board, attorneys for the NAACP obtained a "show case" order from Supreme Court Judge Edward R. Dudley on behalf of two officials of the Guardians. (The

New Year's Party is Planned: Hernandos

The Los Hernandos Club held its annual election meeting with Artie Wyatt.

Newly elected officers are: president — Mary Hawkins; vice-president — Miss Wyatt; secretary — Karen Hawkins; treasurer — Vera Watkins; social chairman — Trudy Holt.

The annual Christmas party was held with Hawkins, 1148 8th street. Secret pals exchanged Christmas gifts, and refreshments were served.

The annual New Year's party will be given by Misses K. Hawkins and Paula Duncan.

Next meeting will be at Miss Duncan's 1417 27th street.

Mrs. Clyde Morris Is Party Hostess

Mrs. Clyde (Jeanne) Morris, superintendent of the St. Paul A.M.E. Church Sunday school, will be hostess at the annual Christmas party for the Sunday school staff, Thursday Dec. 29, at her home, 1046 17th street.

Games, gift exchange and a buffet supper will make up the evening entertainment. Mrs. Morris says this is the way of thanking her co-workers for their cooperation through the year.

During the worship service in the Sunday school Christmas morning, the fourth candle will be lighted in the Advent wreath.

Yuletide Pudding

'Steamed puddings come with the holidays. This cranberry pudding is one that is both easy to prepare and delicious with fruit flavor.

A handsome dessert to grace your holiday buffet table is steamed pudding. It's as easy as making a cake. Whole cranberry sauce is used to flavor today's pudding, thus eliminating preparation of fruits.

Four batter into a large mold or eight individual molds, covering lightly. Individual molds need only be steamed for 45 minutes. Steamed puddings can be made a day or two ahead, left right in the mold, and re-steamed for service. Top with hard sauce or whipped cream.

Because steamed puddings keep well, they are an excellent choice for the small family. They are a wise choice from the point of good nutrition, too, since enriched flour provides generous amounts of B-vitamins and food iron. Cranberries, eggs and nuts add extra food values.

You'll find steamed puddings add delightful variety as luncheon desserts. Try this menu: eggs goldenrod or Welsh rabbit on enriched toast, crisp lettuce salad, and steamed pudding, with hot coffee.

STEAMED CRANBERRY PUDDING

2 cups sifted enriched flour
2 teaspoons soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
1/4 cup sugar

1/4 cup molasses
2 eggs
1/2 cup water
1 cup whole cranberry sauce
1/2 cup chopped walnuts

Sift together flour, soda and salt. Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add molasses and eggs and beat thoroughly. Combine water and cranberry sauce. Add flour mixture to creamed mixture alternately with water and cranberries. Stir in nuts. Pour into greased one and one-half quart mold. Cover, or tie a double layer of waxed paper securely over top of mold. Steam one hour and 15 minutes. Unmold. Serve with whipped cream or hard sauce. Makes one pudding.

SOCIAL CHANGES

APPEAR IN ADOPTIONS

During the Korean conflict when many youngsters became homeless, many white American families adopted Korean youngsters. Later they began adopting Viet Namese children and other Asians in order to provide homes for these homeless youngsters.

However, it has not been a practice for white families to adopt Negro babies, not because some did not wish to but because they feared the ill will of their neighbors which they thought would be more pronounced than if they adopted Asians.

Last Sunday The Des Moines Register carried a story of a couple at LeMars College in Decorah. Dr. and Mrs. Philip Reitan who had adopted a Negro girl and the general acceptance by the people of the community. Fortunately there people brushed aside all the clichés of inter-marriage and social acceptance, keeping in mind that a home for an adoptable child was the important consideration. He is head of the department of biology.

Today, mixed social affairs are more prevalent because people are meeting more on the same level and their desires and passions are more free to express themselves wherever they please.

Years ago, contacts were carried on between the races after darkness fell. It was more prevalent than dignified marriages are today. Not that there is less desire but white women have the courage to do so which the white men don't.

Of course, much of the opposition to the Negro's advancement is the fear of social equality. But as time goes on that fear will be less and opposition to the company an individual keeps will be left to the person himself unmolested by fake fears of race mixing as it should.

Professor and Mrs. Philip Reitan of Decorah should be congratulated for doing a service to the child and the country, generally. We hope for the best results as the youngster grows up.

UNION LABOR BLOCKS NEGRO ADVANCEMENT

Led by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Negroes are forming labor unions in San Francisco where the AFL-CIO unions have opposed their membership.

Says Clarence Mitchell, head of the Washington Branch of the NAACP, "labor leaders armed with their constitutions have advocated civil rights for Negroes but the local unions have not followed through." And this in spite of the fact that Negroes have voted with labor at elections year in and year out.

San Francisco is only an example of what is true in many cities. It prevails in Des Moines. Most skilled work must be done by union labor according to city practices. When the Negro is not included in these unions, he is excluded from these jobs.

It is unfortunate that Negro labor must organize separate locals to get recognition as union men and to work on union jobs. A few years ago, Negro bricklayers worked on jobs in Des Moines because they came to town with union cards — often segregated unions.

Union labor should recognize that they have been able to elect "their candidates" to public office because Negroes voted with them. They have not been willing to reciprocate. Negroes have become tired of feeding on the crumbs while the fellows they helped put on top have used their position to keep them down.

We prefer to go along with integrated unions if they shoot square. If not, we support the program which will get results.

NO PEACE AT

CHRISTMAS TIME

Christmas in 1966 is upon us. It is unique in our part of the country for lack of the snow and ice which we come to expect at this season of the year.

The times find most Americans prosperous; the clouds of war hang over the country as we experience a jovial attitude among people generally.

While a short truce in Viet Nam is welcome to everyone, unless extended to a general armistice. America is in for months of heartaches. Most people in the war zone have lived with wars for many years leaving them little time to develop their country and educate their people to cope with world affairs today.

So as we celebrate the birth of the Prince of Peace, we find ourselves, like the men of old, settling their difference by killing each other rather than by peaceful negotiations between enlightened people.

OLDTIMERS SPOT

We are still bringing up to date guys who think Negroes just began to star in athletics a couple of days ago. We argue that whenever Negroes have had a chance to compete whether it was fifty years ago or today, he has been an outstanding athlete. There are just more of them in competition today.

You can go back to around 1912. The man to run a hundred yard in 9.6 was a Negro, Howard P. Drew. We think he was a distant cousin of John Drew who starred for North High in football and track in 1917-18. Drew is the two-light to his career came to DRAKE, a thirty-year-old man. He was still fast enough to win the hundred and twenty in the then Big Ten open meet against the best in the Midwest. The guy became a close friend of our older brother and we used to hang around. We recall the man saying he could have got a nine-four or maybe a nine-three but people refused to believe their watches.

You want a distance runner? Well, Earl Johnson of the Pittsburgh Steel was the 1914 AAU champion at three and five miles.

Hurles? Well, this Drew guy set a record for low hurdles that stood until around 1917 or 18.

Football? We remember a little, 150 pound halfback named Fritz Pollard of Brown University who was called by the late Walter Camp the greatest runner in football and Jim Brown and Gayl Sayles hadn't even been born yet, or for that matter their dads hadn't or if they had, were probably tiny tots. On that same All-America team that was the only one that really counted there was a great big Negro end who looked rough enough to go bear hunting with his bare fists. The guy was Paul Robeson who later fell into ill grace by embracing Communist ideas and moved to Russia for a while. The fellow was also an outstanding basketball player at Rutgers and pitched on the baseball team. 'Tis said that he threw aspirin tablets for baseballs. Oh yes, these guys made the All America teams of 1914.

Most of you know the story of Negro boxers, but maybe you don't know that the first American heavyweight champion back on the 1890's was Negro Tom Mollenox. We hope we spelled it right. They robbed the fellow of a fight in England that was called the world's heavyweight title bout. It took a couple of spectators with handy mallets to help flatten him. And so the Englishman "won."

So now maybe you are convinced that Negroes have always been good at whatever they got a chance to play in real competition.

And this baseball thing. There used to be a winter league on the Pacific Coast and just about all the major league players went out there and played. Along came those Negroes under the name of the ELIT GIANTS and won the thing by such a big margin that club owners refused to let their major league stars be embarrassed and kept them out of the league which folded. If you wanted to read about the games in that league you had to get a California paper because that news never hit any papers, past the Rocky Mountains.

Next week we come back to the present.

AARON, MAYS, CASH HIT EVERY LEAGUE PARK

New York — Hank Aaron, Willie Mays and Norm Cash were the only major-leaguers to homer in every league park last season, according to an article in the current issue of SPORT Magazine.

Weekend Traveler: Leave Home Secure

Many of you will be out of town this weekend, so here are some things to remember before you leave home, as related by Polk County Sheriff, Wilbur T. Hildreth.

Be sure every door and window is securely locked. The best kind of lock, the Sheriff commented, is a solid bolt that can't be sprung with a knife blade or similar tool.

Leave a light burning in the interior of the house, one that can be seen from different sides of the house if possible.

Don't close the shades, drapes or blinds. They could conceal the movements of a burglar or hide a fire until it is too late to save the home.

Stop milk and newspaper deliveries. An accumulation on the porch is a sure sign to a burglar that the coast is clear.

Ask a friend in the neighborhood to check your house daily, put all deliveries inside, check the heat level and be sure everything is all right.

If you should discover that your house has been broken into, leave everything the way you find it, and immediately contact your local police department, or outside of town, call the Sheriff's Office, Criminal Investigation Division.

Hildreth said, "Drive safely, enjoy your trip and have a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year."

Youth Corps Starts In Iowa, 250 Jobs

A new Neighborhood Youth Corps project will provide 250 job opportunities for young people 16-21, announced Labor Secretary Wirtz.

At Ottumwa the Wapello, Davis, Van Buren Economic Development Association is sponsor of a project that will provide jobs now for up to 125 in-school young people, furnishing job opportunities next summer for another 125.

The young workers will be assigned to jobs in schools and other public or private non-profit agencies to perform tasks which though needed, would not otherwise be done.

Police Blotter

San Francisco, Calif. — Because of one woman's jealous anger one man was shot and another smashed in the face with a beer bottle, ending the night at a local tavern. The fight was fired up by the common-law wife of one of the victims. She got upset at his attention paid to another woman in the bar.

According to Inspectors, Miss Phillips, the wife, became enraged and walked towards the door, but when she reached her "husband" she splattered a beer bottle, glass and all, in

Alcindor Named To All-America Team

New York, — Seven-foot one-inch sophomore Lew Alcindor of U.C.L.A., who opened his college varsity basketball career by scoring 56 points against U.S.C., has been named to SPORT Magazine's 1966-67 Preview All-America team by a panel of professional basketball scouts, reveals Sport Magazine. Also named to the squad are senior backcourt stars Jim Walker (6-4) of Providence and Pat Riley (6-4) of Kentucky, and junior front-liners Elvin Hayes (6-9) of Houston and Wes Unseld (6-8) of Louisville.

The panel of pro-scouts made their selection on the basis of skills and attributes exhibited by the top college players that should enable them to succeed in the pro game, as well as for their achievements as collegians.

"Alcindor is big and strong, can jump, shoot, defend, and has good hands," says Knickerbocker talent hunter Red Holzman. "He should be able to compete with the Chamberlains, Russells, Thurmonds and Bellamys right now." Pistons' scout Denis Butcher calls Houston's Elvin Hayes an outstanding prospect with all the physical tools to play forward as a pro, despite the fact that he is a college center.

Unseld

Louisville's Unseld draws similar praise from Pepper Wilson of the Royals, who says, "Unseld could play forward right now in pro ranks."

Jim Walker earns the plaudits of all-time NBA great Bob Cousy, now coaching at Boston College. "Jim Walker is the closest thing to Oscar Robertson that I've ever seen in college," says Cousy.

Pat Riley of Kentucky earns the final place on All-America team for his reactions to pressure. "Riley may not be the best shooter in the country, or the best driver, or the best passer, but when the money's on the line, he takes over and gets the job done," concludes Jerry Colangelo of the Bulls.

his face. A member of the party, standing nearby, was shot in the right leg during the melee.

Police questioned patrons of the bar as to who fired the gun, but no one knew anything.

After stealing many pairs of panties from Robinson Wholesale Co., Nov. 23, Mrs. Betty Ann Perry, of 1602 11th street, was fined $100 or 30 days in jail by Judge Ray Harrison Tuesday on a count of petty larceny.

Robert Eugene Taylor, 19, of 1322 11th street, was fined $300 or 30 days in jail by Municipal Judge Ray Harrison for driving while his license was suspended.

CHRISTMAS

C—For the Courage he gave men fighting Viet Nam afar, and the knowledge to go forward.
H—For a warm Home, in which to live.
R—For the Rights of man are his to give.
I—For the Innocence of a new born babe.

S—That no man of God should be a Slave.
T—For Togetherness of all mankind within his graces.
M—Is for the Many different colors of all his races.
A—Let it be for Always, may forever his blessings ring.
S—For the Children for thee they sing.

To take Christ out of Christmas, it's impossible to do
For the word "Christmas" is Jesus in another form.
As pure as the babe in Bethlehem. He was born.

Tax Questions and Answers

Q — My employer has promised me a cash bonus this Christmas. Will it be taxable?

A — Yes, it will be taxable and your employer will withhold taxes on it.

Q — Will the IRS issue state sales tax tables this year?

A — Yes, state sales tax tables will be part of the 1040 instruction booklet. They may be used as a guide for taxpayers who itemize deductions.

The instructions will also have a table on gasoline tax deductions to make it easier for taxpayers to arrive at a proper deduction for this tax. This is the first time such a table has been prepared on gasoline taxes.

Q — I just sold some stock I inherited from my father. How do I determine my profit or loss and whether it was long-term or short-term?

A — Use the fair market value of the stock at the date of the decent's death as the basis for determining whether you had a gain or loss. If you received more for the stock than its value when you acquired it, for example, then you have a capital gain to report.

If you sold the stock more than six months after your father's death then the gain or loss will be considered long term. Six months or less, will make the transaction a short-term one for tax purposes.

Q — I recently made a payment on back taxes and now I get another bill for the same tax. What's the reason for this?

A — Payments frequently come into our offices that cannot be identified. For this reason all checks for tax payments should have Social Security numbers on them. This will identify the payment with your account.

It also is helpful if you include the notice of payment due when paying such a bill.

Q — I'm just starting a business. What should I know about Federal taxes?

A — The Revenue Service has a "Mr. Businessman's Kit" which can be obtained from local IRS offices. The IRS also has publication called "Tax Guide for Small Business," which should be extremely helpful to you. It may be obtained at a cost of 50c by writing to your IRS District Office or the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402.

Q — I'm taking a job overseas in January. What do I do about my 1966 return?

I've never seen a Christmas Since I began to grow To have poor Santa in my house Without any snow.

I can't even see a reindeer Nor even his sled Because the road for him Is exceedingly bad.

I feel so sorry for him That he should have to fly For it makes me so sad I just want to cry.

Oh God, please give me Snow a foot deep So Santa could slide in My house while I'm asleep.

For when I wake up And I open my eyes Then I'll be happier And a bit more wise.

He'll slide through the Air, with deer and sled For then I'll be happy When I go back to bed!

—Dave Griger

A — For taxpayers who are traveling or living abroad on April 15 there is an automatic filing extension until June 15. Interest at the rate of 6% a year is charged, however, on taxes unpaid during the two-month period after April 15.

Before you leave to go overseas, be sure to pick up a copy of IRS publication No. 54, "Tax Guide for U. S. Citizens Abroad." Send a post card to your district director asking for this free booklet.
