Legal Defense Fund Lawyers Sue N. C. Sheriff

Suit for $300,000 For Assault While Wrongfully Detained

New Bern., N.C.—The Legal Defense Fund filed a $300,000.00 damage suit this week against a former sheriff of Pamlico, North Carolina and two of his deputies in behalf of Madeline Pearsall.

Madeline Pearsall is suing the sheriff and his two deputies for severely assaulting and wrongfully detaining her without any justification.

The suit, filed in the U. S. District Court of North Carolina (New Bern Division), states that on November 29, 1966, Robert Whorton, who was then the sheriff of Pamlico County, North Carolina, entered the home of Bertha Wright to see her husband. Unable to find her husband, the sheriff threatened to arrest her but left the house.

Assault

The sheriff allegedly returned shortly thereafter with his two deputies and began to beat and strike Bertha Wright and her women guests including Madeline Pearsall.

According to the complaint, the sheriff and his deputies "severely and savagely injured the plaintiff" with "blackjacks, pistols and rifles."

After assaulting the women, the sheriff and his men left the home without making any attempt to secure medical aid for the injured but returned several days later and arrested them on the grounds of breach of the peace.

"Malice"

According to the attorneys, these above acts were committed "unlawfully, willfully, intentionally and with malice" and were "calculated to deprive the plaintiff" of her rights against unwarranted and arbitrary arrest and assault.

The LDF suit is attempting to recover damages from the defendants for violating the plaintiff's constitutional rights by subjecting her to false arrests, assault and battery.

The suit is asking for the sum of $100,000.00 for special and general damages, and the sum of $200,000.00 for punitive damages.

Entre Nous Party Spot at Knights of Columbus

The first party of the holiday season for the Entre Nous Social and Service Club was a dinner party and dance at the Knights of Columbus

Hall, 24th and Woodland.

Each club member was hostess for twelve guests, who were entertained at individual tables on which set 16 centerpieces of bright Christmas ornaments showing off poinsettias and holiday greens mounted with candles.

Enjoying themselves here are president — Mmes. Elizabeth Thomas, Birdie Thorpe, Grace Wade, Levenia Henderson, Irene Miller, Mary Hardaway, Dorothy Holmes, Martha Parkey, Maude Wells, Marie Kaiser, Geraldine Draffen, Jo Ann Jackson, Agnes Jackson, Lydia Merritt, Ruth Moore and Delores Bailey.

Turkey and dressing, sweet potatoes, green beans, tossed salad, relishes, rolls, punch and the traditional egg nog and holiday cookies were the evening's menu, all prepared by the club girls.

After dinner, the guests danced by candlelight to the soft music of Dudley Black and Band.

On the entertainment committee were: chairman — Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Thorpe, Mrs. Parkey and Mrs. Holmes.

The last club meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Hardaway, 1128 11th street.

Entre Nous will meet again until Feb. 5, with Mrs. Henderson as hostess.

Mrs. Buice Passes In Home Thursday

Funeral services were conducted Saturday, 1:30 p.m., at Corinthian Baptist Church for Mrs. Orea Willie Buice, 67, of 1070 17th street, who passed in her home.

A member of Corinthian Baptist Church, she was in the church choir and Corinthian's financial secretary. Mrs. Buice was grand secretary of the Electra Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star for 22 years. The Bonnie Busche and the L.T. Club were two of the many clubs to which she belonged. She also served as secretary of the Olive Branch Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star.

MRS. BUICE

NAACP

An active community worker, she was a member of the Des Moines NAACP.

Mrs. Buice was a native of Fayette, Mo. She came to Des Moines 65 years ago.

Survivors include her husband, W. C. Buice, her mother—Mrs. Laura Bundy, a brother—Earl Bundy, a niece and a nephew.

A graduate of the old West High School she took courses at Capital City Commercial College. Her first job was with Madame King and Ring in the Shops Building as a seamstress.

She was a former board member of the Central District Association of the Iowa Missionary and Educational Baptist State convention.

Ohio State Board of Education symposium. He spoke on Dec. 14.

Wilkins told school superintendents and state board of education members from a 14-state area that "unless we launch a crash program addressed to the growing and consistent inequities in our northern public school system, we will continue to have riotous outbreaks."

He called for more Federal funds and better use of existing funds to implement such a program.

Church of God Wins In Texas Court Spat

Houston Tex.—Judge Warren P. Cunningham ruled in favor of members of the Executive Board on the Churches of God in Christ, following a hearing in the Harris County District Court here recently, on an application for a temporary injunction filed by Bishop R. E. Ranger, of the Southeast District of Texas.

The decision by Judge Cunningham is regarded by the Executive Board members as a key victory in the group's fight with a church faction representing Bishop O. T. Jones, of Philadelphia, who was ousted as Senior Bishop of the Church at the annual COGIC convention in Memphis last November.

Ranger, who was removed from the State Bishop's Board at the same time, is a supporter of Bishop Jones in the factional fight.

Bishop Jones, in defiance of the Board's ruling, held what he called a nationwide rally of support in Philadelphia and reported that "a dozen bishops and 300 ministers" of the COGIC attended.

Six Months in Job Corps: 'This is What I Want to Do'

Eleanora Tate

What is it like to be in the Job Corps? Well, Patricia Long can tell you about it.

Patricia, 16, of 937 16th street, has been enrolled in the Charleston, W. Va., women's Job Corp since June 7, specializing in electronics assembling.

What made her leave Valley High School?

"Oh, I just tired of going," she said. "I'd go to school and say I was really going to try to do something, but I still wouldn't make the grade."

After Patricia left school, she scouted around, trying to find a job. For a while she did—doing babysitting, washing dishes. But she couldn't get a decent, well-paying job because employers refused to accept a girl without a high school education and satisfying qualifications.

"A girl friend, a student at Drake, suggested I join Job Corp."

Patricia explained that at first she wasn't too "keen" on the idea, but she got in touch with Mrs. Watson, associated with the regional women's job corp, made out an application and then didn't hear from the organization for nearly a year.

Complicated

The Electronic assembling sounds as if it would need many years of intensive study, but Patricia laughed at this: "To be honest, it was the shortest course, taking 4-5 months."

All you do more or less is take wires and wrap a circuit. You can end up working in an airport, helping with planes, or with television and radios. What they're training us for now is work under a microscope. The only hard thing for me was figuring the color code and reading the resistors.

Miss Long isn't missing out on education. Calls for both academic and mechanical skills are from 8:15-4:30 p.m. In February she will take a GEDT test—high school equivalency test.

So. Theater Gets Rockefeller Grant

New Orleans, La.—Stanley Taylor, administrative director for the Free Southern Theater and Thomas C. Dent, Chairman of the theater's Board of Directors, revealed that the Rockefeller Foundation awarded the Free Southern Theater a grant of $62,500.

Taylor says the grant will cover a three-year period beginning Jan. 1. During the first year, $27,500 will be given to the FST, $20,000 the second year and $15,000 the third and final year.

Last season, the Free Southern Theater was awarded a $14,800 grant by the Rockefeller Foundation. This last Rockefeller grant is the largest single grant that the Free Southern Theater has received to date.

Plays by writers such as Douglas Turner Ward, Alice Childress, Langston Hughes, Bertholt Brecht and Samuel Beckett have been staged. Dent, who also conducts the FST writers workshop, says the FST plans to continue to offer new playwrights the chance to be seen by FST audiences and is currently searching for new materials.

$800 Damage to Ford and Plymouth; Discharged Man is Prime Case Suspect

Two cars were totally demolished in a fire late Sunday night after a man called their owner, threatening to expose her business.

The Rev. Orzella Roberson, director of the Friendship City at 925 9th street, said that a man she had discharged from the mission had called her several times before the fire, saying, "I'll bring you down. I'll make a public issue of this. I intend to expose you in the eyes of the public."

"We can't say who did it, but the police and I are pretty sure who it is. They have a man on suspect, the one I discharged, a 56 year old man, on misconduct from the mission."

Rev. Roberson gave this account: "We had had services and it was a little after 12 p.m. My husband heard the horn of the station wagon. He thought it was stuck, so he went to the back (to the garage) to correct the horn when he saw fire engines coming up the street. There was a police car in the driveway."

The cars, both donations from various Friendship sponsors, were a 1957 Ford and a 1963 Plymouth.

Neither car had insurance. Estimate of damages was put at $800.

Although Rev. Roberson didn't turn in the fire alarm nor call the first police car, she did call for additional help.

"I don't know who turned in the alarm, but no one called us to let us know of the fire. If the gas tanks had exploded the house would have caught on fire."

Fireman Captain Anthony DeFino, investigating the case, said that the alarm came by way of the police dispatcher.

"The cars were completely gutted," he said. "All of the interior is burned—not much can be salvaged."

"This incident," said Rev. Roberson, "has changed the format of our program. We have closed the doors to transients (country wanderers) and open them only to parolees, since transients are the only ones who give us trouble."

CHICAGO — Making its debut in the field of curriculum research, the 126,000 member American Federation of Teachers, AFT-CIO has published a new and exciting research study entitled "The Negro in Modern American History Textbooks."

Written by Irving Sloan, a Scarsdale, N.Y. teacher, under an AFT research grant, the study reviews the thirteen best-selling textbooks used in many of our junior and senior high schools. It answers the question "Are publishers of American secondary school texts being candid when they report that their approaches to the American Negro have changed in the past year?"

Said Mr. Sloan upon publication of the study: "For the most part, authors and pub-

Tax Questions and Answers

Q—I reached age 65 this year and will retire in December. What effect will this have on my 1966 tax return?

A—Your retirement should have little effect on your 1966 tax return as you were a wage earner for most, if not all, of the year.

You may benefit from the provisions for those 65 and over, however. Anyone reaching his 65th birthday by the last day of the tax year is considered 65 for the entire year. This means you will be entitled to an additional $600 exemption on your return. Your medical and dental expenses will not have to be reduced by 3 percent of adjusted gross income as they are for taxpayers under 65.

Q—My mother was ill last year and I had to pay for a practical nurse to come in and take care of her. Since my mother is my dependent, is the nursing cost deductible?

A—The amount you pay for nursing services will be deductible in the situation you describe. However, if the nurse also performed household duties, that part of her pay would not be a deductible medical expense.

If your mother is 65 or over, the deductible nursing expense is fully deductible and not subject to the 3 percent adjusted income deduction.

Q—I have a small dry cleaning plant. When do I have to get W-2's to my employees?

A—The law requires employers to issue them by January 31. Many employers try to get them to employees as soon as possible after January 1 so they may file tax returns early.

Q—When will I get my 1966 tax forms?

A—The 1966 income tax forms will be mailed the last week of December so taxpayers will receive them early in January. Forms will also be available at IRS offices after the first of the year.

Q—Our son worked at the post office last summer. He is a full-time student, so will we lose our exemption for him because of the money he earned?

A—Since he is a full-time student, you will not lose your exemption for him if you continue to provide over half of his support.

Your son's earnings will be taxable and he must file a return if his income was $600 or more. A return should also be filed to obtain a refund for income tax withheld if his earnings were under $600.

Q—I just got paid for some part-time work I did at home. If I don't cash the check this year do I have to declare it with this year's income?

A—Income is taxable in the year it is received or is made available to you. Your check is taxable the year you get it even if you don't cash it until the following year. The same applies to interest credited to a savings account. Interest credited to an account December 31 is taxable that year even though you didn't have it entered in your passbook until January.

New Rape Case in Miss. Jurors Discriminated

New York, N.Y.—Asserting that the systematic exclusion of Negroes and women from juries in Mississippi courts prevents a fair trial, the American Civil Liberties Union today urged the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit to order a retrial in a federal district court for a Mississippi Negro convicted of raping a white woman.

The civil liberties group is representing Richard Bass, a Negro who was convicted of rape and sentenced to death in December, 1964 by the Circuit Court of Warren County, Mississippi. Because Warren County systematically excludes Negroes from juries, the Mississippi Supreme Court reversed the conviction on Feb. 7, 1966 and ordered a new trial. The state Supreme Court had found that for 1963 and 1964 a total of 35 or 40 Negroes, 2 1/2% of the prospective jurors, were called for jury service in a county where the Negro male population over 21 was 42%.

Removal

On March 14 Bass was reindicted by a grand jury in the same Warren County court. He sought to quash the indictment, alleging that not only Negroes but women too continued to be excluded from the jury. But the trial court denied Bass' motion.

The ACLU brief argues that Bass "should be allowed to remove his pending criminal trial to the federal courts" because Mississippi voting and jury statutes discriminate against Negroes. Although the jury statute does not seem to discriminate by race—every male citizen over 21 who is a "qualified elector" is a competent juror, the brief contends—"it enshrines by reference . . . the evil purposes of Mississippi's voting statutes, themselves unconstitutional in their intent and effect of discrimination against Negroes."

Enrollment

Jurors must first be electors, and the Mississippi voting statutes prevent Negro "enrollment upon the rolls of qualified electors," the Union brief notes. "The mere fact that the Mississippi jury statute makes no mention of race is of no moment and without legal substance," asserts the ACLU brief. "The law will not permit one to do indirectly what he cannot do directly. To hold otherwise would be to exalt from over substance."

Service is as important as the product you buy.

Save money by making sure . . . before you buy . . . that reliable repair service is available locally.

Six rules of buying a product that will need maintenance or repair:

1. Expect good sales service. If you don't get it you're likely to have trouble when you need repairs.
2. A guarantee is only as good as the organization behind it. Read it carefully.
3. Think of the product in terms of need for maintenance and availability of parts and service.
4. A good product name is essential but not enough if facilities for service are lacking.
5. Utility companies may be able to tell you where to obtain good service.
6. A dealer with adequate service facilities may have to charge a slightly higher price for the product.

You save in the long run with those who have facilities for good service.

ENROUTE TO MINNEAPOLIS: Oklahoma State University's recently retired Professor of Chemistry sat across from me. A three-way conversation—that of the two of us and of the driver—finally settled on my query as to how far back had the freeway idea begun. The driver said about '58 during President Eisenhower's administration. The professor's question was whether or not engineers planned with economy in mind or expert engineering irrespective of economy? This question was prompted by the idea that established, fairly direct highways have been discarded for new ones criss-crossing vast farmlands at what appeared to be unnecessary costs. Several examples were given. We did not claim to be qualified debaters of the subject but vehemently exercised our freedom of speech! Abandoning this topic the professor and driver next discussed retirement pay. This topic too near the subject of one's job was strictly not to my liking. At the moment I felt joyously jobless. (Vacationing, remember?) I remained politely silent. Until the professor spoke of government workers! Their high pay! Their not so hard work! Their splendid retirement, etc! Finally, it was my turn whether or not I was willing to remain a part of the trio. I described the efficient operations I knew about. Granted that undoubtedly some perhaps fitted her description of not much to do. BUT ours was a tightly run ship.

Just prior to her leaving, the professor's thoughts returned to campus life. When serving as counselor of pre-medical and pre-dental students would ask why a student had chosen a particular career. Most often the reply would be "to do something for humanity". Turning to me she declared emphatically that "serving humanity is the thing!" She mentioned as an example a custodian's service: the comfort, cleanliness, and smoothly running operations of an establishment. Not to mention the skill and technical abilities required in the accomplishing of this. This too is serving humanity! In some instances she sensed that the student rather than seeking a way to do something for humanity, sought prestige and wealth. She summarized her view to be "There are many ways to help humanity and that a doctor, a minister and teacher are of equal importance: a doctor is for the body, a minister for the soul, and a teacher for the mind! What is a man to do without a trained mind to guide him?"

A CROSS-COUNTRY TRUCKER immediately took the seat abandoned by my chemist. He was a mere 19!

MOVE CAREFULLY
IN OFFERING SUPPORT

It was announced over the news services that the heads of Negro rights groups were supporting Representative Powell against those members of Congress who are seeking to deny the Harlem Democrat his seat.

We are not so sure this is true. Leaders of rights groups have restrained from criticizing each other and rightly so. So are members of Congress reticent about criticizing each other. And for the reasons it will be difficult to block Powell.

Undoubtedly, some of those who support Powell do so feeling that he has been dealt with harshly simply because of his race. Some do because other members have been and are doing some of the things that Powell is being investigated about.

However, we can not excuse Negro mobs in the streets because white mobs have led the way in lawlessness; neither can race. Some do so because other members of Congress have been guilty of the same things.

But Powell's situation goes beyond his alleged misdeeds in Congress. He cannot go back to the people who elected him and otherwise serve them as their elected official because he is in contempt of court. This is not the conduct a good citizen should follow.

So, in supporting friends for their misdeeds, it is easy to get into the category of approving their actions.

FIGHTING LAWS
FOR CONVENIENCE

Democrat governors at their annual conference brooding over their heavy losses in the November election, set upon President Johnson and some of his policies as the cause. Later, some met with the President at his Texas ranch and talked the matter over further.

A survey of Iowa legislators show that some of them are resentful of dictation from Washington citing the requirement of statewide auto inspection to determine the amount of road funds that will be allotted to Iowa.

Peculiar to say, many of these people have been receiving government subsidies for years. These programs have certain requirements which must be met in order to participate in the program and they have not objected.

Naturally the big howl comes from southern governors who are mad because they are being required to obey the law. These same people complain about lawlessness among Negroes when they themselves, including Iowa for that matter, have violated civil rights laws since they were enacted. In fact, the southern governors are using the northern governors to help pull their chestnuts out of the fire.

Republicans should not permit themselves to be sucked in on such a deal for the fight on Johnson in this instance is against civil rights.

All Aliens Report
For January Check

Grove K. Callison of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service stated that the period within which aliens must report their addresses is almost at hand.

The month of January has been set for the address reporting period. All aliens in the United States, with few exceptions, must report their addresses to the Government during that period.

Callison said that forms with which to make the report will be available at all post offices and offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service during the month of January, and urges all aliens to comply with the reporting requirements, as willful failure to do so may lead to serious consequences.

Where do you start guessing about the year that is nearly over? What was the biggest thrill, the biggest disappointment and the best of any contest we saw?

Well now, let's see. We were pleased at KEN WHITNEY'S part on the ROOSEVELT HIGH cage team and watched his progress with interest. There was the presence of several NEGROES major wrestling meets around the country. And a lot of them won major titles. There was MOHAMMAMED ALI'S talk as ever but it was a different view. But still winning.

We never could forget the way the NEGRO schools took over the college sections of the DRAKE RELAYS. The other teams might as well have stayed home. Then there was the usual collection of high class NEGROES in the other races.

But we would have to list as our biggest thrill the winning of the NCAA basketball meet by WEST TEXAS with an all NEGRO outfit against KENTUCKY team that had been virtually conceded the crown. The papers were full of stories about the magic of KENTUCKY COACH RUPP and next to nothing about the other guys who won and sent everybody hunting to find out where that school is located.

We missed the HOTTENTOT'S softball club, but just about every NEGRO who wanted to play softball played with some other club and it made for a better league and better relocations all around.

Perhaps our biggest disappointment came when another Arthur Ash was held out of the quarter final Davis cup matches for the second straight year and the UNITED STATES lost again, failing to reach the finals.

The WORLD SERIES certainly caught everyone by surprise, of course. Just about everybody we knew was sure BALTIMORE would win the series. We were glad FRANK ROBINSON hit all the pitching in both leagues equally well and was the outstanding player in the series.

The football season was a JIM DANDY. We never saw a team as rough as EAST WAERLOO. JEFFERSON OF CEDAR RAPIDS disputed the TROJANS' claim to the top high school spot but JEFFERSON better be glad they didn't play those guys. Our local season ended up as usual with ROOSEVELT giving a jinx over EAST and winning the city series. A rare thing here was that there were at least four NEGRO backs good enough to be all city: WHITNEY of ROOSEVELT, JOCK JOHNSON and DALE MCGUIRE of EAST, WILLIE HERNON of TECH and LOUIS RAMEY of NORTH. There was this guy HUMPHREY of DOWLING who could have made it in another year but 1966. We watched IOWA struggle to get off the ground and passed a fine DRAKE team with an eight-two record. The HAWKEYES gave presence of being a tough outfit on another year. We shall wait and see.

There were a lot more things happening. For instance, we were not a bit satisfied with our role in the HILLTOP OPEN TENNIS MEET.

You Can Make
Meringue Cookies

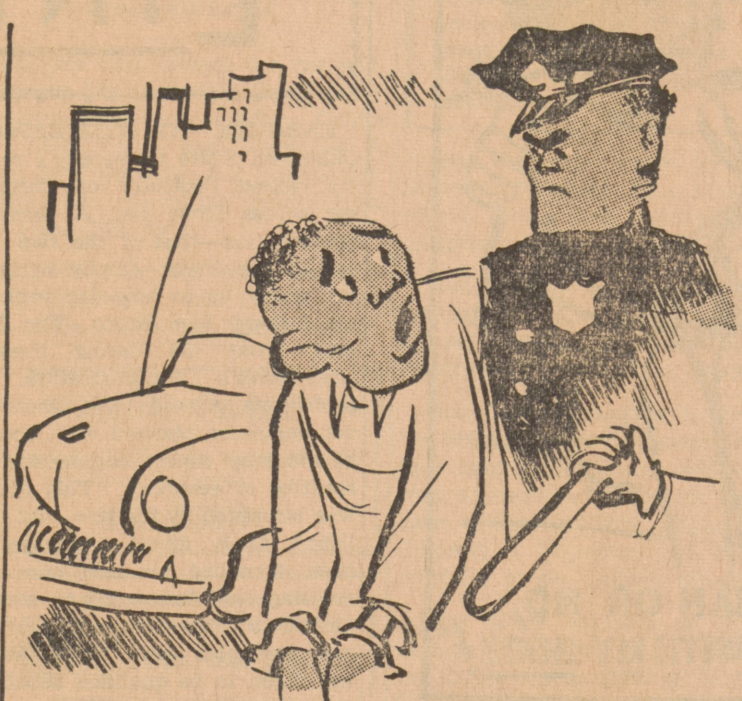

By Betty Barclay

"MAKE 'EM Yourself!" You can. These glamorous meringue cookies that you used to have to buy from a fancy bakery, you can now make yourself in less than half an hour! Three dozen of them, too, enough to serve with elegance at an evening card party.

1 cup chocolate chips; 3 egg whites; 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar; 1/4 cup saltine cracker crumbs; 1/4 cup chopped pecans; 1 teaspoon vanilla. Melt chocolate over hot water. Cool. Beat egg whites until stiff. Add sugar gradually, beating after each addition until blended. Then fold in cracker crumbs, nuts, vanilla, and melted chips. Drop from teaspoon on lightly greased baking sheet and spread slightly. Bake in moderate oven, (375°F.) about 10 minutes. Makes about 3 dozen 2-inch cookies. Store in tightly covered container.

Pheasant Season
Will Close Jan. 2

Iowa sportsmen are reminded of the pheasant, Hungarian partridge and squirrel season closings on Jan. 2, 1967. The closing of the mink and muskrat seasons state wide and on all State Game Management areas and Federal Wildlife Refuges for trappers is Dec. 31.

Hunters afield searching for game are reminded by the Commission that bag and possession limits for pheasant, Hungarian partridge and squirrel are three and six, two and four, and six and twelve respectively.

Yuletide Pudding

Steamed puddings come with the holidays. This cranberry pudding is one that is both easy to prepare and delicious with fruit flavor.

A handsome dessert to grace your holiday buffet table is steamed pudding. It's as easy as making a cake. Whole cranberry sauce is used to flavor today's pudding, thus eliminating preparation of fruits.

Pour batter into a large mold or eight individual molds, covering tightly. Individual molds need only be steamed for 45 minutes. Steamed puddings can be made a day or two ahead, left right in the mold, and re-steamed for service. Top with hard sauce or whipped cream.

Because steamed puddings keep well, they are an excellent choice for the small family. They are a wise choice from the point of good nutrition, too, since enriched flour provides generous amounts of B-vitamins and food iron. Cranberries, eggs and nuts add extra food values.

You'll find steamed puddings add delightful variety as luncheon desserts. Try this menu: eggs goldenrod or Welsh rabbit on enriched toast, crisp lettuce salad, and steamed pudding, with hot coffee.

STEAMED CRANBERRY PUDDING

2 cups sifted enriched flour
2 teaspoons soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
1/4 cup sugar

Sift together flour, soda and salt. Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add molasses and eggs and beat thoroughly. Combine water and cranberry sauce. Add flour mixture to creamed mixture alternately with water and cranberries. Stir

1/4 cup molasses
1/2 egg
1/2 cup water
1 cup whole cranberry sauce
1/4 cup chopped walnuts

In nuts. Pour into greased one and one-half quart mold. Cover, or tie a double layer of waxed paper securely over top of mold. Steam one hour and 15 minutes. Unmold. Serve with whipped cream or hard sauce. Makes one pudding.

Equality

When Children enter any school
In this land of the free
And find the doors are closed to them
Is this Democracy?
Our constitution does not say
That all men should be white,
But given to each equality
As every citizen's right.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Trying to ignore New Year resolutions is like trying to ignore the weather. It's still there. Comes the dawn of a brand new year, everybody does some stocktaking and decides to do a little better next time around.

What about good health resolutions? Everybody in his right mind wants to keep well. So here's a one-minute refresher course.

SAFETY AT HOME — Accidents are the greatest single health hazard in the American home. What does it profit a man if he observes all the health rules, falls off the kitchen ladder, and breaks his neck? So tighten those ladder bolts. Banish those used razor blades. Fix that loose cellar step. Check your wiring insulation; make sure it hasn't any exposed spots.

SAFETY IN NUTRITION — Keep your guard up against illness and disease by observing the basic rules of good nutrition. Don't slight any of the "fundamental four" food groups: (1) milk and milk products;

(2) meat, poultry, fish and eggs; (3) green and yellow vegetables and fruits; (4) bread—whole grain if possible—and cereals.

DRUG SAFETY — Get rid of no-longer-needed drugs and medicines. Be sure all drugs in your cabinet are clearly labeled. Don't take medicine in the dark, or without consulting the label. Keep drugs out of children's reach.

HIGHWAY SAFETY — It isn't enough just to have a seat belt. Use it regularly. Shoulder harness is important too. Don't drive if you've been drinking. Don't compete with aggressive types.

GENERAL SAFETY — When you have your annual medical checkup (that's one resolution you really should make), be sure it includes a tuberculin test or a chest x-ray. And another "must" resolution: If you haven't responded to the Christmas Seal appeal, do it now—it isn't too late!

To the Editor:

On Dec. 9, Gov. Harold Hughes gave a timely warning of the dangers of Hitlerism and similar extremists. Important too was his pledge that his administration and the Iowa Democrats would continue working for better education, conservation and their "other great goals." As the Governor said, there should be no room for bigotry in the Democratic party. Nor should there be any room for racism in the Republican party!

Members of the Iowa Civil Rights Commission and the latest platforms of both the Democratic and the Republican parties of Iowa have supported an effective fair housing law. And since the filibuster in the U. S. Senate torpedoed the 1966 Civil Rights Act, the initiative in human relations is once more with the States.

Careful and prompt legislative action should result in a meaningful open housing law for Iowa in the next session of the general Assembly.

Discriminatory housing patterns are not in our free market tradition. They lead, moreover, to difficult social problems, school segregation and blight. And they diminish human dignity.

All of the citizens of Iowa should meet the challenge of the situation and struggle to overcome this barrier to progress.
