Urban League Report Reveals Rapid Growth

Expansion Shows Wide Interest in NUL

New York, N. Y. — For the National Urban League, 1966 was a year of rapid growth and expansion or services highlighted by the introduction of a number of new programs and the addition of new affiliates all over the country.

In its annual report, released Thursday, Mar. 16, the League sets forth details of three successful new programs launched during the year. The report also points out that a fourth program, while successful in meeting the needs of minority groups in slum areas, is endangered by cut backs in federal anti-poverty funds.

Kennedy

The cover of the Urban League's new annual report contains a statement by the late President Kennedy in 1959: "When written in Chinese, the word 'crisis' is composed of two characters: one represents danger and one represents opportunity." The report goes on to say that we do live in a time of deepening crisis, fraught with danger, but the opportunities are there to make equality a reality and democracy a living truth.

Stronger

The report strongly indicates that the Urban League is more active than ever before in closing the gap which separates Negroes and other minorities from the rest of America. It details a total of 18 active programs and accomplishments, including job placements for 40,000 minority group citizens which added about $160,000,000 to the nation's income.

One of these special projects, ENABLE (Education and Neighborhood Action for Better Living Environment) is now doomed to be sharply curtailed because Congress reduced the anti-poverty funds available for community action programs.

Leader

League President Lindsley F. Kimball said in an introductory statement: "Ours is indeed a great mission—helping to close the racial gap in jobs, in education, in housing, in fact, the gap in fullness of living. In this we serve all America, not just one segment, one area, or one group of people."

Whitney M. Young Jr., League Executive Director said that the League's activities are expanding at a time when the need is greatest. He said: "At a time when the tragic plight of the nation's poor endangers not only the quality of American life, but the very existence of our urban areas, the Urban League must continue to increase its services and its responsibilities."

Rockefeller Fund: $100,000 To NAACP

New York—The Rockefeller Brothers Fund has granted the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People $100,000 over a two-year period to strengthen the executive staff working on programs financed by the organization's tax-exempt Special Contribution Fund, it was announced Monday, Mar. 6, by Roy Wilkins, executive director of the NAACP.

Of the total grant, $60,000 is for use this year, the remainder is allocated to 1968.

The grant is the first from the Rockefeller Brothers Fund.

Named on 33 Member Advisory Committee

Several prominent Negroes were among the newly organized 33-member Citizens Advisory Committee, which will advise the city on long-range municipal goals and solutions to local problems.

They were: Mrs. Marguerite Cothorn, 1249 43rd street, associated with the Council of Social Agencies; Frank Bailey, 2527 Onawa avenue, of the Chesterfield League Improvement League; David R. Pickett, 1120 14th street, president of the Walnut Hills Improvement Association and John Estes, Jr., 944 9th street, of the Estes and Son Funeral home.

Urban

The committee was set up in connection with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, which calls for such a committee in order for the city to revive urban renewal funds.

Government Workers Suspected As Spies

New York—American Negroes employed by the U.S. Government in Africa, regardless of their assignments, are "almost always beclouded" by the suspicion that they are spies, an American Negro journalist reported today.

"In country after country, Negroes have told me that those who are employed . . . in the U.S. Information Service, AID, in embassies or even in the Peace Corps" are suspected on grounds that the U.S. "is using its black citizens to penetrate black Africa for purposes of espionage."

Dr. Fletcher Robinson, a young American Negro physician with the Peace Corps, denied that a "gulf" exists between the Americans and their hosts, but added:

"Though no one ever made me feel they thought I was a CIA agent, in

The Perils of Powell

Bimini, the Bahamas—Adam Clayton Powell preached Sunday to tourists, friends and fishermen here after backing down from a promised trip to Harlem, N.Y., to preach at his church in the Abyssinian Church. He announced that his probable arrest would cause rioting in Harlem, which he did not want to start.

However, in Harlem, many were bewildered and hurt when Powell did not appear. "Adam has copped out on us," some said.

New York

New York, N.Y.—A major unit of the National Council of Churches released a resolution and statement critical of Congressional handling of Adam Clayton Powell, urging Congress to adopt an "impartially enforced" code of ethical conduct for its members.

The resolution said that the procedure used against Powell "has been applied only in case of representatives of unpopular minority groups" and cited the three such cases: Confederates in the 40th Congress, 1867; a Mormon in 1899 and a socialist in 1919.

Woman

New York—Mrs. Lucy Williams has replaced James Meredith in the coming election against Adam.

All schools from Des Moines sent delegates and one act plays to the event held at Indianola High School.

St. Louis, Mo. — The American Service Committee is planning a national conference on the draft, to be held here Apr. 6-8, it was announced Monday, Mar. 20. The conference, to take place on the Washington University campus, is being sponsored by the AFSC in cooperation with the following groups: Fisk University Student Council, the Executive Faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences of St. Louis University, the Faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences of Washington University, and Webster College.

Atlanta, Ga. — The call for political separatism by "black power" advocates is dangerous because it would lead to and justify exclusion of Negroes from the major political parties in this country, according to civil rights leader Alfred Baker Lewis. He said that civil rights groups attempting to establish all-Negro political parties cannot hope to make progress on a state or national level.

Memphis, Tenn. — The Silver Star for gallantry in action in Vietnam was awarded posthumously to Army Sergeant First Class Lorenzo Clark in ceremonies held at Defense Depot, last week. Accepting for her husband, the nation's third highest military award was Mrs. Roberta Clark of 1022 North Seventh St., Apt. 6. Mrs. Clark is expecting their sixth child next month.

Chicago, Ill. — Irwin Culpepper has been awarded the first annual scholarship established by the Hilton Hotels Corporation in the food production management program at Morris Brown College in Atlanta, Ga. Culpepper, a sophomore from Scottsdale, Ga., was judged the outstanding student in the program. The Harris Brown program is the first school of restaurant management in a predominantly Negro college.

Hazelhurst, Miss. — Civil rights leaders here have vowed to continue last week's boycott of all-Negro parish high school until their demand for the ouster of Negro principle A. J. Dillon is approved. The school boycott, which started Mar. 15, resulted in the withdrawal by parents of some 1,600 of the 2,000 students from the school.

Mo. Demonstrators Gaining Sentiment

St. Louis, Mo. — Eight persons were jailed last week in demonstrations for jobs.

Public sentiment is rising for the eight, who received sentences ranging up to one year.

In an article in the St. Louis Argus, a survey taken shows that most persons interviewed were "outraged, indignant, confused over the severity of the sentencing. There was almost unanimous consent that the demonstrators had done no one physical harm, were not guilty of any criminal action or intent and that the sentences were in need of review."

Ask Davenport to Stamp Out Advancing Slums; Says 'Accept Housing Bill'

Davenport, Ia. — In an effort to develop support for the fair housing ordinance it has submitted to the city's Human Relations Commission, Davenport's Catholic Interracial Council has circularized all the ministers and priests of Davenport, CIC officials announced Monday, Mar. 20.

The CIC housing committee met with the Human Relations Commission, Monday, Mar. 13, and strongly urged that the commission accept a model fair housing ordinance for consideration and eventual presentation to the city council.

The Commission voted to consider the proposed ordinance. In its communication to the Davenport clergy, the CIC requested support of the move to enact a city fair housing ordinance and recommended some public manifestation of such support.

Positive

CIC is also addressing similar communications to labor and industry and to civic and fraternal groups, identifying the presentation of the ordinance at "a positive step, long overdue, to assist the resolution of housing problems of minority groups."

"We have reason to believe," Charles W. Toney, CIC president, stated, "that much of the apprehension previously associated with such an ordinance request has lessened."

Ghetto

Aside from the more obvious human rights issue, the CIC president noted, the legislation of fair housing will stop the spread of the ghetto, eliminate de facto school segregation on the secondary level, and improve employment possibilities for area industries where members of minorities are concerned.

Effect

It should have the further good effect, he stated, of strengthening the stand of those realtors and home owners who wish to sell and rent without regard to conditions of race, creed, color or national origin.

"Since 1964 when CIC first submitted such an ordinance to the Davenport City Council, many leaders of area industries have discovered that it is very difficult to hire technically skilled members of minority groups if, as has been the case, such minorities cannot purchase or rent housing where they choose," Toney stated.

Roy Wilkins, Armstrong Rubber Officials Discuss Company Hiring Practices

West Haven, Conn. — Roy Wilkins and other representatives of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People met here Friday, Mar. 10, with top officials of the Armstrong Rubber Company to discuss hiring policies at the Natchez, Miss., plant which employed slain civil rights worker Wharlest Jackson.

Jackson, 36-year-old father of five, was killed Feb. 27 when a bomb attached to his pickup truck exploded while he was driving home from his job at the Natchez Armstrong plant. Jackson was a former treasurer of the Natchez NAACP Branch.

K K K

Jackson had just been upgraded at the plant to the job of mixer, one not held before by a Negro.

Negroes claim the Ku Klux Klan members allegedly employed by the Armstrong Company were responsible.

Wilkins, executive director of the NAACP, who met with F. L. Dwyer, Lee Stewart, and James Walsh; president, senior executive vice president, and vice president respectively of the Armstrong plant's West Haven, Conn., headquarters said:

"We do not insist that their screening process be tightened. We are definitely asking them not to hire people affiliated with organizations that preach hate and murder," Mr. Wilkins added. "There certainly ought to be company regulations against the hiring of persons who practice hate and use violence."

"George Benson's Cookbook." Okay. Some guy trying to beat out Betty Crocker, right?

Wrong. George Benson, jazz guitarist, composer and rhythm-and-blues singer. Columbia Records has recently released the first album by this sweetmeat.

Just his first, and it sounds so good to the ears. It's not that stomp'n' good lovin' kind of music, but the sophis-type of the bad bass and a little bit of organ. George gets good with it and even sings a little, "All of Me."

He knows what he's doin'. He should; his heroes were the sounds of Hank Garland, Wes Montgomery and Gant Green.

In 1962 he sat in with Jack McDuff's band ("The Brother, of course"). He gained valuable experience with that group, which toured every top club in the United States and appeared also in Sweden.

"Benson's Rider," a take off from CC Rider, is better than any rock n roll group could put out.

Coo-pub

Now don't get all excited and go and buy a bunch of Jr. Walker and the All-Stars 45's of "Pucker Up Buttercup," because if you look back about a year or so you'll find it on some of his old albums. So relax. It's not new, except to the antiquated radio waves around.

I got nothin' against Jr. Walker. He's my pard, but don't let anyone pull your leg, whether it's a hit here or all over the country. Get the album instead. And save your money. The album is the one with all the hits on it.

Columbia Records is coming on strong with Peaches and Herb, Aretha Franklin and all those sweetmeats. Keep it up and maybe they can sponsor a Negro radio station here in ole d.m. What a swinging gig that would be!

Inez and Charlie Foxx ("Mockingbird," remember) have a new release "Tight Rope" and "Baby, Take It All;" the Five Steps—"Danger, She's a Stranger;" Roscoe Robinson, "A Thousand Rivers;" Bobby Hebb ("Sunny") "Ohh LaLa;" Ruby Winters, "Make Love to Me" and "In the Middle of a Heartache;" Chuck Jackson and Maxine Brown "Hold On, I'm Coming;" The Shirelles, "Don't Go Home;" B. B. King, "The Jungle;" Little Milton, "Feel So Sad;" Lowell Fulson "Tramp" and "Make A Little Love;" Junior Parker, "Man or Mouse."

at 9:37 a.m. Thursday and was greeted at the Hotel by a delegation from the Union. She was taken to the Holiday Inn in Waterloo and after coffee refreshments she made her speech. Her speech was on Civil Rights. She was taken to lunch by several members from Ottumwa, Des Moines and Kansas City.

After lunch Mrs. Franklin made a tour of Census Tract 18 in Waterloo the Negro ghetto where most of the Negroes are forced to live.

Debate

Mrs. Franklin is presently gathering information of the housing conditions in all of our Urban Cities in the State of Iowa, to be used as arguments on the floor when the Fair Housing Bill comes up for debate. After her tour around Waterloo Mrs. Franklin was taken to the local Union Hall where she was introduced to the Officers of the local Union in Waterloo. After that she was taken by a delegation to the airport and returned home.

Another bill which is of importance to Polk County was to levy a maximum of one mill for maintenance of a Juvenile Home. Another bill was with reference to Polk County was to increase by one mill the amount for the revenue for the maintenance of the Broadlawns Polk County hospital. For several years the hospital has been operating on the one mill emergency as set out in the code. However this is not enough with the raising cost and the cost of the increased wages of the employees, and the increased wages of the nurses, this one mill is necessary for the maintenance at

From A Mother's View: "Oh, We Suffer, too"

"We suffer, too, we go through every missed basket, and every foul." Sounds like one basketball player to another, doesn't it? Well, it isn't, quite; it's the mother of a basketball player talking.

And she has every right to talk, because her son is Larry Baker, all state football end, and hero of the 1966-67 Boys State Basketball Tournament held at Veteran's Auditorium last week, where Cedar Rapids Jefferson's J-Hawks sweated and eked out a victory over Ames' Little Cyclones, 72-71.

"We've tried to go to every game that Larry is in, every since he played in seventh grade. I don't think we've missed a single game," said Mrs. Baker at Veteran's, as she waited for her son to emerge from the locker room.

Wharlet

It was Friday afternoon, and the J-Hawks had just beaten a very aggressive Dubuque Wharlet team.

"Our boys really deserve this tournament. They've worked hard and long all season."

And just how long had they worked?

"Larry practices at school from 7:45 a.m. - 8:30 a.m., then after school he's at it until about 5 p.m. When he comes home, he tries to study. His all-around schedule is very hard, very tight. Once he just finished a football game in time to start in the basketball season the next week."

Asa T. Spaulding Douglass' Life Is Challenging To Us

Rochester, N.Y.—"Frederick Douglass was the man he was because of his drives, commitment, integrity, courage, wisdom, interest in his fellowman, and the responses he made to the challenges he met," Asa T. Spaulding, president of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Co., told a University of Rochester audience Thursday, Mar. 16.

Spaulding, who rose from office boy to president of the multi-million-dollar insurance company, gave the fifth lecture in the University's three-month Frederick Douglass Sesquicentennial series.

In his talk prepared for delivery last night, Spaulding said, "It has been man's response to challenge that has fixed his place in history and advance our civilization. It has taken him from savagery to civilization; from ignorance to knowledge; from a cave to a palace; from poverty to wealth; from disease to health; and from slavery to freedom."

Six Children Die in Fire Started By Stove

Newsport, Va. — Six children, the oldest only 10, died in a fire Sunday night.

Police said the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Selmon P. Watford, were visiting a neighbor when the fire began, about midnight, apparently from a cook stove. When they returned they found the house in flames.

The bodies of Carrie Delores, 10, Albert Ray, 9, Wallace Lee, 6, Horace Edward, 5, Selmon Jr., 4, William Colefield, 3, were found in the hallway.

Jim Nance is the other super-boy on the Cedar Rapids team.

He was asked what he did in his spare time: "Watch television mostly."

Larry and Jim's college plans are indefinite. They've applied to various colleges but haven't gotten answers yet.

An all-around athlete, Larry's summers are filled to capacity. He participates in a physical fitness program for gymnastics, which keeps him physically fit for the strenuous fall and spring sessions at school.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker, it was found, drove back and forth for each game Larry played during the tournament. When asked if that wasn't a little too hard, they merely replied, "It was worth it."

Peg Bates Wins Honor Day Rotary Award

Greenville, S.C.—A lot of folks up north hadn't heard of a beautiful and quiet little southern city, named Fountain Inn, until last week when a northern man who has made good—Clayton (Peg Leg) Bates—received the town's Rotary Club's Honor Day award.

It was the return of the hometown boy made-good kind of saga, and during the impressive ceremonies, Peg Leg reminisced over his happy childhood, received a coveted plaque, and later cut a few capers just to show his townspeople that, although sixty years young, he could still dance at a fast and entertaining pace.

During the annual Honor Day luncheon sponsored by the Fountain Inn Rotary Club, Bates shared the group's tribute with three other equally distinguished men. The other honorees were Dr. I. N. Patterson who had been a missionary and educator in Nigeria for 42 years and is presently visiting professor at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest, N.C.; Robert H. Yeargin, successful and youthful president of Yeargin Construction Company; and N. C. State Representative Charles G. Garrett.

Rustin Fires Back At Soviet Bubnov

New York—Bayard Rustin, Negro rights leader, has accused the First Secretary of the Soviet Embassy in Washington of "dogmatic denials" and "evasion" of the "stubborn facts" of anti-Jewish discrimination in the U.S.S.R., it was disclosed Sunday, Mar. 19.

The charge was contained in an exchange of correspondence between Rustin, chairman of the Ad Hoc Commission on the Rights of Soviet Jews, and Igor D. Bubnov, second-ranking member of the Soviet Embassy in Washington.

Report

Last Dec. 5, Rustin sent to Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin a copy of a report by the Ad Hoc Commission based on documentary and analytic studies and testimony given at a public hearing earlier in the year on Jewish conditions in the U.S.S.R.

"I am aware," Mr. Rustin said, "that it is impossible in Mississippi, Georgia or Alabama to find some Negroes who would defend the system of segregation. But the fact that they are Negroes does not obscure the injustice, nor can it be the means for discrediting the effort to do away with racism in the United States."

Police Blotter

Memphis, Tenn. — "I'm ready to give up," said a voice to police, so they went to a home and arrested a 19 year old girl who confessed she had shot and seriously wounded a young man. She told police the shooting was the result of a lover's quarrel. She said the man threatened to leave her.

Des Moines—A North High School football and track star has been acquitted of a charge of disturbing the peace and quiet, after being charged Feb. 26 with stopping his car in the path of two teenage girls. The boy and two other boys, said the girls, grabbed them and forced them over to the car. Other testimony indicated that the girls had flagged the boys down.

St. Louis, Mo.—A policeman was shot and killed by his wife last week after she cut in on a telephone conversation her husband and another woman. The wife seized a .38 caliber belonging to her husband and shot him in the face.

Des Moines — Robert Burke, of 1432 Maple street, earlier fined for speeding on newly opened segments of the freeway, will get his money back, because speed-limit ordinances have not been established. Burke, fined $17, was charged with driving 67 miles in a 50 mile zone.

King, Taylor Defend Model Cities Project

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., defended the Administration's Model Cities Program and urged the business community, labor and people of goodwill everywhere to work to make sure that Congress appropriates the full $400 million dollars authorized for the program this year. He also urged vigorous support of the President's Fair Housing Legislation.

Prototype

Dr. King spoke at a rally launching citizen participation in Washington's unique Shaw Urban Renewal, where primarily Negro citizens are working to renew their community on a prototype of the Model Cities concept. The program calls for the coordination and concentration of all available federal resources in housing construction, job training, health, education and welfare services in an assault upon "physical decay and human despair" that will involve citizens of the area at every stage of the process from initial planning through final execution.

Job and Training

by

Darlene O. Cooper Iowa Civil Rights Commission SHORTHAND REPORTING

In the United States today, there are only 11,000 shorthand reporters, 2/5 or 4,400 are women. Recording history as a shorthand reporter lends itself to many opportunities in a challenging field. Court reporters and free lance reporters can earn from $5,000 a year to $18,000 a year depending on their volume of business and their desire to earn money.

The old method of recording is through the use of "shorthand"—a series of handwritten slashes, curves and dots. The newer method is by machine similar to a small typewriter with single letters representing words.

To qualify as a shorthand reporter, you must engage in an intensive 18 to 24 month program beyond high school. Not only must you be able to write a minimum of 200 words per minute, you must be able to transcribe your notes quickly, have a large vocabulary, good grammar, spelling, and very excellent ears for hearing.

Official court reporters enjoy the same benefits as individuals working in offices. Court reporters enjoy their holidays, sick leave, group insurance, retirement plan and a 40 hour week.

As the need for more accurate records in government and business grows, there will also be a greater demand for shorthand reporters. For more information about this challenging career, write The Nation Shorthand Reporting Association, 25 West Main Street, Madison, Wisconsin. Locally you can contact the American Institute of Business (A.I.B.), 10th and Grand, Des Moines, Iowa.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Frostbite may sound like an innocuous little nip, but it can be a lot more serious than that. Literally it means the freezing of a part of the body. When that happens it takes caution and a certain amount of knowhow to prevent permanent serious damage.

People most likely to incur frostbite are those who suffer poor circulation, including the elderly, the ailing and the overtired. Ears, nose, cheeks, fingers and toes are particularly vulnerable.

One of the warning signs of frostbite is a stinging pain; this is apt to disappear and give way to numbness. Sometimes there is no pain at all; the part just feels intensely cold and numb. A visual sign is a light skin flush, which changes to white or greyish-yellow as frostbite develops. This may be followed by the appearance of blisters.

Do not rub a frostbitten part either with the hand or with snow. Experience has shown that rubbing increases the danger of gangrene (tissue destruction). Instead of rubbing, the affected part can be covered with a warm hand.

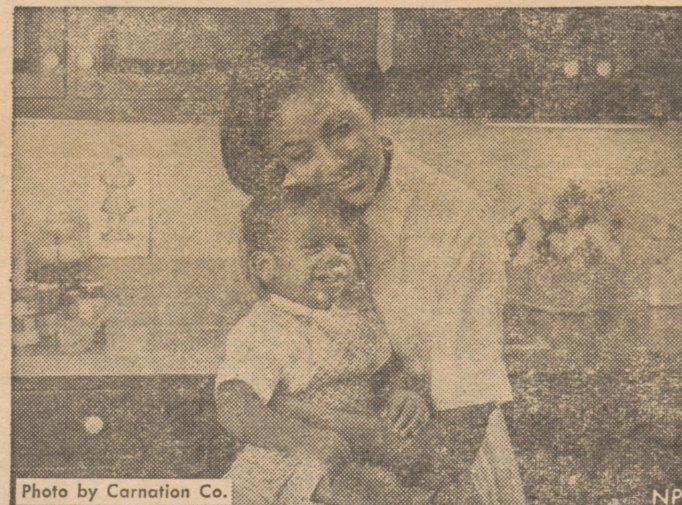

The patient should be brought indoors as soon as possible and given a warm drink. If fingers or toes are frostbitten, they should be immersed in water at body temperature—90 to 100 degrees—but no hotter! Other affected parts, such as ears, facial or body areas, should be swathed gently in warm blankets. The frozen part should be handled with the greatest care to avoid tissue damage. Avoid use of heat lamps, hot water bottles, and direct exposure to intense heat. Any blisters should be left undisturbed. If numbness or skin discoloration persists after warming, a doctor should be consulted.

Your Christmas Seal association, concerned with problems of general health including tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases, suggests extra wrapup precautions against frostbite when winter winds are blustery and the mercury is low.

Family Dessert

Most babies will take puddings at lunch or supper anytime after their sixth month. The nutritious dessert can be especially important to babies who have begun to lose an interest in milk as a drink. This often happens when infants are about a year old.

Nutritionists at Carnation Company, a leader in infant feeding for more than thirty-five years, suggest serving delicious Apricot Pudding. The tasty dessert appeals to grownups as well as babies, so make enough for everyone. It's made with eggs, strained apricots with tapioca and evaporated milk.

Recommended for infant feeding by pediatricians, Carnation's evaporated milk is the safest, most nourishing form of milk for babies and growing children. It contains twice the protein and minerals of fresh milk, and vitamin D has been added. An economical product, evaporated milk is easier to digest and less likely to cause allergy.

APRICOT PUDDING

(Makes 4 servings)

2 eggs
1 jar (4½ ounces) strained apricots with tapioca
¼ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup (small can) undiluted evaporated milk
½ cup water
½ teaspoon vanilla
Nutmeg (optional)

Slightly beat eggs with apricots; stir in sugar, salt, evaporated milk, water and vanilla. Pour into individual custard cups; sprinkle with nutmeg, if desired. Place cups in pan of hot water and bake in 350° (moderate) oven 45 to 55 minutes or until knife inserted in center comes out clean; cool and then chill.

MISS CLINTON

Easter

By El Scott,
The Louisiana Weekly

The name Easter originates from the pagan Anglo-Saxons goddess of spring, Eostre, and when they became Christians and celebrated our Easter, which always comes in the spring, they kept the old name which became modern Easter.

It is not known when the annual commemoration of this event began, but it must have been at a very early period of Christianity. It is known, however, that the first Christians made every Sunday their special day of religious observance because it was the day on which Christ rose from the dead.

Eggs

The eating of eggs on this day is said to have come down from the pagan usage of the egg as a symbol of fertility; in Christian adaption it was made a symbol of the Resurrection since the chicken emerges by itself from the tomb of the egg shell. The rolling of eggs on lawns, a traditional ceremony at the Presidential White House is said to symbolize the rolling back of the stone from the sepulchre.

Painting

Candy and chocolate eggs are a modern invention to please the children, as are the confectioner's Easter bunnies. The painting of Easter eggs is really an art in some of the eastern European countries. The girls of the family spend the long evenings of Lent working with special paints and brushes to execute the intricate and often symbolic designs that decorate these gift eggs of Easter.

DYEING EGGS

The Egyptians, in the fifth century before Christ, were probably the first to begin dyeing eggs, and the earliest color used was red, derived from lichen. Later on more colors were added such as yellow from laurel leaves and green and blue from indigo. Other sources of color included roots, berries, herbs, seeds and flowers as well as pieces of dyed cloth.

All activity ceased until the last of his program. We will be with you next time, too, Pastor!

CHOIR DIRECTOR CAROLYN CLINTON and her group are to be commended for their splendid organization, their fine singing, and the contribution they are making to their Church and to the community as young Christians.

HAPPINESS IS SERVING? A friend writes of her position as Job Corps Resident Advisor—"After all these years I finally have a position which makes me feel that this is where I belong. It isn't a chore and a problem to get there. I feel that I am really contributing!" She advises girls 16-22 years old and works 4 p.m.-12 midnight shift.

ODESSA BOOKER again shared news of Evelyn, Bob and Punchy Phillips in San Francisco: WALTER AND WILLETTA CARTER have been married 25 years and had a big anniversary party which Evelyn and Bob attended. They, too, celebrated their 18th anniversary recently.

EVELYN is learning to make ceramics! Evelyn, like the rest of his gang here, is now driving!

MRS. LUCILE SKIPPER was the subject of Evelyn's next inquiry? We are happy to report that Mrs. Skipper is still as dainty as a doll and still a fine songstress!

RICHARD HUNT — remember him? Always a friendly person, Richard never fails to stay in touch by sending friends Holiday Greetings.

MARK TWAIN, upon reaching 70, decided that he was old enough to do as he pleased; he ordered 14 white suits and a hundred white ties, and for the rest of his life wore nothing but white from head to foot. He even had a white dress suit.

EASTER EGGS TAKE A STAND

Like Humpty Dumpty, an Easter egg without proper support will have a great fall and even you may not be able to put the pieces back together again.

But why take a chance on breaking or cracking a beautifully dyed and decorated Easter egg that you have created yourself. There are so many attractive and ingenious egg stands that you can buy or make.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Can your hair be damaged from brushing, alone?

All hair becomes damaged from exposure to sun and natural elements. Certain greasy compounds and many chemicals, improperly used, also take their toll...not to mention simple attempts at beautifying the hair with any brush not made of natural bristles. The results are brittleness, breakage, dry and dull looking hair.

Your professional beautician knows how artificial bristles actually brush away a great deal of the "lubricants" of the hair that give it body, lustre and protection. And trained beauticians claim that nothing beats Clairol® condition* Beauty Pack Treatment for overcoming brittleness, dryness and breakage... leaving hair lively and easy to manage. condition* is an easy-to-work-with creme which can even be applied during a chemical straightening retouch to prevent drying of hair that has been previously relaxed. condition* is the ultimate in repairing deep-down damage. And, when time is a factor for their customers, hairdressers turn to new Clairol® Hair Dew*—the lotion conditioner that penetrates so fast many think of it as an instant conditioner. When applied regularly by your beautician, Clairol Hair Dew adds body, softens and gives a glowing new look to your hair that many friends will notice and admire.

Damage can come from using brushes with artificial bristles. But damage to every woman's hair comes from so many other causes that all human hair (including wigs) needs to be revitalized periodically. Visit your professional beautician and ask this expert to check the condition of your hair.

Only your professional beautician knows the answer for sure.

BUNNIES ON PARADE

EASTER TIME so often means party time, especially for the youngsters. And, of course, a party always means a cake—a very special cake such as the one pictured here. The children will love the deep golden yellow layers, so generously covered with chocolate frosting and gayly decorated with cunning marshmallow bunnies. And best of all it can be cut to serve 16 hungry kiddies! Here's how: With a sharp pointed knife cut an inside circle of about 3 1/2 inches. Then from around this circle cut cake in about 2-inch wedge pieces—you should be able to get 12 wedges. Then cut the inner circle into 4 pieces. Fun to make—and downy tender to eat—is this special Easter cake!

EASTER BUNNY CAKE

1 package Swans Down Yellow Cake Mix
Chocolate Wonder Frosting

Prepare cake mix according to package directions, baking in two round 8-inch layer pans which have been lined on bottoms with paper. When cool, frost with Chocolate Wonder Frosting. Place marshmallow bunnies around top of cake and letter "Happy Easter" in center of cake.

Chocolate Wonder Frosting. Combine 2 packages (6 ounces) cream cheese with 1/4 cup milk and blend. Add 4 cups sifted confectioners' sugar, 1 cup at a time, blending after each addition. Add 4 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted, and 1/2 teaspoon salt and beat until smooth. (Add additional milk, if necessary.) Makes enough frosting to cover tops and sides of two 8-inch layers (generously).

HUMAN BEINGS OPERATE
ABOUT THE SAME

When riots were following civil rights demonstrations in several cities, people became disgusted because the participants had ceased to fight for civil rights and were committing crimes against the public.

Responsible civil rights leaders deplored this conduct. The Bystander did at every opportunity. That conduct lost the civil rights movement a lot of friends and stalled the upward trend of the program.

At the same time, we reminded the public that other groups such as labor and farmers, had ignored their leaders on occasions and committed crimes against the public. An example of this was the packing house workers' strike in Harlan, Iowa, a few months ago when a lot of people were beaten up and/or driven from town because they did not care to join the strike.

Several years ago, the National Farmers' Organization conducted a withholding milk campaign in order to force up prices. Many people were beaten up, property was destroyed and some were killed because they did not care to go along with the withholding action.

Today, the National Farmers' Organization has a milk withholding campaign in progress. Reports of destruction of property, beating people and destroying milk have come in already.

Fairminded people will agree that farmers have a right to withhold their milk from the market if they chose but they don't have the right to beat up people and destroy their property because they don't wish to go along with the program.

Too many scream when foolish people violate the law on the pretense that their civil rights are being denied but say nothing when farmers and labor groups employ the same tactics against those who tend to stand in the way of their program.

UNFORTUNATE CLOSING OF IOWA PACKING CO.

The Iowa Packing Company, a division of Swift & Co. and one of Des Moines' larger employers of labor, has announced that it is quitting business in June.

The closing comes as a blow to the whole community and particularly to many people who have put in many years at the plant and are at the age when modern industry doesn't take them as beginners.

The company announcement stated that it had been losing money several years capped by a terrific year in 1966.

To some, this closing is not a big surprise as departments have been shifted from the plant to other places in recent years greatly because newer methods, which Des Moines does not have, enable them to produce those products cheaper.

It seems ridiculous that this plant, located in the heart of pork and beef production, must close because it cannot make money. Apparently it has not kept pace with modern methods of production which have enabled surrounding plants to survive.

With a bad situation going on for years, it looks as if the employers and employees might have gotten together and worked out some plan to save the plant. It has been done in some cities. Maybe, if each had given a little, something could have been worked out.

The company has planned to ease the shock by some transfers, early retirements and severance pay. But this will do little for the fellow who has his roots here including a lot of obligations with no pay check such as he had coming when the were made

ILLINOIS ATHLETICS

The faculty representatives and officers of the Big Ten athletic conference have forced the resignation of the football, basketball and assistant baseball coach at the University of Illinois after threatening to kick the school out of the conference if this was not done.

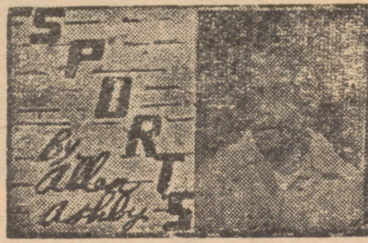

The difficulty grew out of the existence of a slush fund which was being used to subsidize athletics.

The decision was a drastic move coming up the first time charges had been made. It is not like a school which had been warned of the violation before.

True, others have been doing some of the same things but have not been caught. We are inclined to feel that the punishment was too severe, almost wrecking the careers of some men who had spent their best years in the business.

Of course rules are made to govern and those who break them stand the chance of being punished. Maybe there is more to the story than the public knows. Upon this we cannot judge. But with what is before the public, the committee action was too severe.

Is there anybody who is interested in basketball and doesn't know about that final high school meet game last Saturday?

We were talking to a night sports writer Friday night before the game. The fellow refused to concede JEFFERSON HIGH anything over AMES. He argued that they were kids, not pros. The Jefferson boys had just won the game they considered their toughest. Well, the guy welled, they would probably go flat against Ames, who with nothing to lose would start shooting at every chance. And if they hit as they did against NORTH HIGH, the CEDAR RAPIDS bunch could look for trouble in bunches. And you know that writer couldn't have done any better if he had planned it that way. That Jeff came back had to be one of the finest in the tournament's history and LARRY BAKER proved under pressure that he is one of IOWA'S finest high school players with JIM NANCE not far behind. Oh well, it is over now, but we never saw a more effective game finish.

College

Meanwhile, the colleges are having it out at each other in the meets. Southern ILLINOIS gave Jos Frazier a chance to really show off. The big fellow did as his team won the meet.

The national champions, TEXAS WESTERN, didn't figure to be back in the finals. They lost a couple of good ones from last year's team and had a time building a good record.

Alcindor

But LEW ALCINDOR is waiting to show how he does it and the fans out east are waiting to see if the guy can carry his team into a national title. They don't realize that they have had a very good team around the seven foot fellow.

And here at home we had a track meet that folks forgot about. Among the winners was NORTH'S JIM KIRBY up for his last year at NORTH. This should be a good one.

We have watched with interest as the University of ILLINOIS lost some fine athletes and three top coaches because someone was giving the boys some pocket change. Now we wonder if there couldn't be some way arranged for our athletes to get that little extra help he needs at times. We don't know. A set amount for pocket money or such. But a lot of athletes in college are sons of poor families, especially some of the Negroes. Financial help from home is out of the question. And a fellow playing any of the major sports doesn't have time to work. So if he needs an extra ten or twenty dollars for a real emergency, where can he get it? Steal.

Poor

You say the boy is getting a fine education for his athletic ability. Fine, but if he needs a pair of shoes or a pair of pants, the chances are he will look awfully funny running around without them until he graduates. The guy needs those things right then. Now surely with all the money taken in in football and basketball, there must be some way to help a deserving lad who maybe needs on the price of a few necessities without tearing down the whole athletic structure.

Muhammed Ali Bout: Which Is Harder?
Fighting Zora Folley or Beating Draft?

New York — Time has run out for Aram Clayton Powell. Now it seems that time is also running out for Muhammed Ali, doomed, almost, to do his time in the armed forces.

The champ has been seeking exemption from the draft on the grounds that he is a Black Muslim minister and also that the Louisville draft board has no Negroes serving on it. However, spokesmen for the board says it has one.

From his talk, however, the undefeated showman for the "Ali shuffle" planned to make Wednesday's fight with 34-year-old Zora Folley at Madison Square Garden a dazzling show.

Contenders

While kidding Folley, heavyweight contenders Joe Frazier, George Chuvalo and Ernie Terrell, and young Buster Mathis, Muhammed said he may not be fighting again for from one-three years.

Date of his Army induction is Apr. 11.

But the champ isn't telling whether he'll go into the Army or jail.

When asked by reporters how it was possible to be the heavyweight boxing champion of the world and to also be a conscientious objector, he said: "You can't compare boxing with war. You don't go out to kill in boxing."

Fight

That's what Muhammed didn't do Wednesday when he went against Folley, but he almost did. It took 7 rounds to do it, but again Muhammed emerged by a knock-out.

Nance, Baker Up, Over
Ames; J-Hawks-72-71

Cedar Rapids decided that the boys state basketball tournament didn't have enough excitement, so they decided to add a touch of suspense to it.

The J-Hawks, with a 23-1 record, who hadn't lost to an Iowa team all season, were 15 points behind the No. 6 ranked school in the state, the Ames Little Cyclones.

People were wondering what had happened? Would this be the upset of the tourney?

But lo and behold, the J-Hawks tried their press as a last effort and the technique worked. Like clockwork, it seemed, the lead was out as fouls and the pressing defense took its toll.

A shot by Larry Baker tied it up, 65-65 to the end of regulation play, and the overtime shooting turned the tide, 72-71.

High scorer for Jeff was Larry Baker, with 31 and Larry Lawrence with 20. Jim Nance made 6.

Tax Questions and Answers

Q—I just started working here this month but won't move my family until school end and so have been commuting weekends. Can I take a deduction for either my living costs here or my transportation expenses home?

A—Your home for tax purposes is your place of employment. Unless your assignment here is temporary and you will return to your former place of employment, your travel and living expenses will not be deductible.

Drop a postcard to your district director if you want more information on this subject. Ask for Publication 463, "Travel, Entertainment and Gift Expenses." It's free.

Q—I am legally separated from my husband. Does that mean I am taxed single person rates?

A—Yes, unless you qualify as a head of a household. Check page 3 of the 1040 instruction booklet for details on this provision of the law.

Q—Do you have to file your 1966 return before you can apply for additional withholding allowances?

A—Yes. The additional allowances are based on the lesser of your actual itemized deductions for 1966 or your estimate of what these deductions will be this year.

Use Schedule A (Form-W4) to apply for these allowances. This is the first year this provision of the law on graduated withholding is applicable.

Q—Our son was married in December. Does this mean we will lose our exemption for him since he otherwise qualified as our dependent?

A—As long as your son meets the other dependency requirements, you do not lose your exemption for him unless he files a joint return with his wife.

Q—Is there any situation where legal fees would be deductible when they are for personal rather than business reasons?

A—Legal fees are generally not deductible unless they are incurred as a business expense or in the production of income. If you sell a home or other property, legal fees may be included as a cost of the sale. They may include his legal fees in the cost basis of the property.

Q—How do you handle child support payments for tax purposes? Are they deductible and do you include them when figuring out if more than half the child's support has been provided?

A—Child support payments are not deductible and do not have to be declared as income by the re-

To The Editor

There are those who are frightened by the "Model Cities" idea. Actually none of us know much about it, but some have felt this is another program to uproot them from their homes. It is not. This program could mean new streets, street lighting, adequate schools, and equipment, beautification of the area, and possibility of branches of various businesses moving into the area, which would take up the slack in unemployment, as those in the area would have priority to these jobs, if they have the qualifications.

The "Demonstration City" also known as "Model Cities" is designed

Firearm Casualties
Increase In Iowa

Iowa's hunters were not as careful with their firearms last year as they were during 1965, according to the 1966 Firearm Accident Report issued by the State Conservation Commission's Hunter Safety Officer, Charles Olson. He said 140 firearm accidents were reported last year.

The payments should be included when determining which parent is entitled to claim the child as a dependent.

Q—I lost a tree to a snowstorm we had this January (1967). Can I deduct this on my 1966 return?

to rebuild or revitalize large slums, and blighted areas, to expand job and income opportunities, reduce dependence on welfare payments, improve educational facilities and programs, combat delinquency, enhance recreational and cultural opportunities.

In general it improves living conditions for people who live in these areas. This program is not designed to take away the homes of the residents, but to allow them a chance to revamp their own home if need be, at a low interest rate. However, this is in the planning stage and nothing has been settled as yet. There are to be fifty cities throughout the United States, which will be used as examples, and studies made as to its worth.

Easter Message:
Plea of a Sinner

Oh God in Heaven, hear my pleas,
Help make my soul, what you wish
it to be:
Pure White and sin free,
My body straight and stout
As a lone pine tree.
For ean's it seems, I've been a sinner,
Lived a life of misery.

Today at last I've awakened,
The fruits of righteousness partaken.
Still I need you, and I always will,
So just God, answer my plea, help make of me
What you wish me to be:
My soul pure white and sin free.
Leo St. John

God's Love

God's love is everywhere
You feel it in the air.
His beauty you behold,
The story must be told
Of Jesus' love for you,
What it will do for you.
Our God gave us life,
And our food to survive
God gave us air to breath,
Then His word to believe.
For to know God is love
And love comes from above.
As we lift our minds
Up to the higher realms
We see God everywhere
For He comes through the air.
Yes, He made the flowers,
He sent forth the showers.
He made the breezes to blow
And He sent forth the snow.
He made the birds to sing.
And we know everything
Was made by God above,
To manifest His love.
