Injured last Saturday at Harding road and University avenue in a two car collision was Mary Anna Williams, of 1012 S.E. Allen street.

Miss Williams, 41, had been driving west on University when her car slammed into the one driven by John B. Schoondyke, 23, 1414 19th street. He declined hospital treatment for a bump on his head.

No charges have been filed in the accident, which caused $1800 damages.

W. Hastie Speaks on Negro Militant In NY

Rochester, N.Y. — "Strife and discord endangered by racism . . . will continue to disfigure our society and to embarrass our efforts to solve other problems until we deal effectively with bitter discontent and sense of frustration," Judge William H. Hastie of the U.S. Court of Appeals said Thursday, Apr. 13, at the University of Rochester.

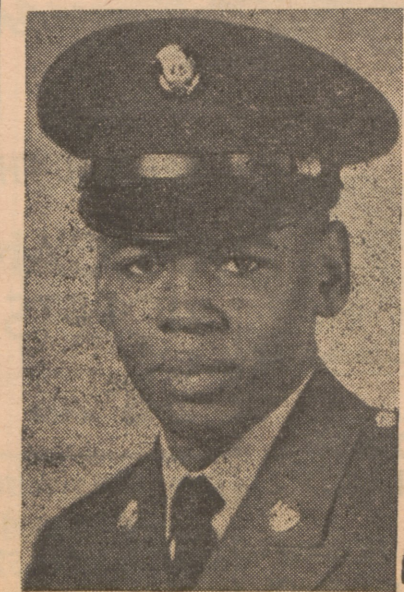

Judge Hastie spoke at the sixth of the University's Frederick Douglas Sesquicentennial Lectures commemorating the 150th anniversary of the birth of Frederick Douglas.

Speaking on "The Negro Militant," Hastie said it is "simply wishful thinking to yearn for any considerable period of calm in which to work out means for enabling the Negro to fully enjoy the benefits and opportunities and the acceptance which the majority of our citizenry enjoy as normal incidents of their American heritage."

Cpl. Davis Returns To States; Has Reunion

Cpl. George Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Madison, returned home Tuesday after a twelve month tour in Viet Nam.

After five days of visiting with friends and relatives, Cpl. Davis and his mother flew to Belmar, N.J. for a reunion with his brother and sister, Gilbert, and Mrs. Audrey Thorne.

It was the first time Mrs. Madison and her children had been together in three years.

Mrs. Madison and her two sons have returned to Des Moines and Cpl. Davis will complete the remainder of his leave time before going on to Ft. Hood Tex.

Goodwill Custom Public Upholstery

Non-profit Goodwill Industries will begin immediately doing custom upholstery work for the public, it was announced by Director Cecil W. Wills.

The rehabilitation organization will discontinue receiving contributions of upholstered furniture in need of repair.

NAACP Meet Tuesday

The Des Moines branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will meet Tuesday, Apr. 25, 7:30 p.m. at Willkie House, 900 17th street.

All board members will be notified by telephone.

President is John Estes, jr. and membership chairman is Louis C. Riffe.

Two members of the Rosa L. Gragg Club unintentionally omitted from last week's list of club members were Thelma Calderon and Ruby Spencer. This club has one hundred percent membership.

Dr. Stanley Griffin Will Be Paid for Welfare Patients Treated

A Des Moines osteopath has been reinstated by the Iowa State Board of Social Welfare.

He is Dr. Stanley Griffin, who was suspended June 26, 1965, from working in the welfare program because of "failure to comply with rules and regulations."

Dr. Griffin's reinstatement came after he agreed to dismiss a county lawsuit. The suit called for the state board permanently enjoined from withholding payments to him for treating welfare patients.

Probe Housing Bias, Installation Site

Chicago, Ill. — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has requested that the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy investigate charges of racial discrimination in housing in Wheaton, Ill., site of a proposed multimillion dollar atomic energy plant.

Syd Finley, quad-state field director of the NAACP and Dr. Fred Crockett, president of the Illinois NAACP State Conference, said they were "extremely concerned about the issue of fair housing opportunities" in Wheaton.

White Child Not Used To Poor and Negro

New York — A noted educator charged Tuesday that schoolchildren in America's affluent suburbs are learning little about people different from themselves.

Dr. Alice Miel, Professor of Education and Chairman of the Department of Curriculum at Teachers College, Columbia University, found that the average child "does not know and never has known a Negro his own age," that it is "highly unusual" for him to know someone economically underprivileged, and that he is "confused" about religious differences and even his own religion.

Which Spectator Sport Best? Baseball or Riot?

Baseball again will have a competitor this summer.

Yes, like baseball, the spring training for this summer's probable racial strife has started. Recently Lincoln University, Jefferson City, Tennessee A and M and Fisk University, Nashville, burst out in clashes between students and police.

In Cleveland, violence and looting erupted Sunday night in the Hough area, the scene of rioting last summer.

Police said rock throwing and window smashing began near the scene of a carnival, a fight between a Negro and a white man; and three stores were looted by vandals.

In Omaha, young people were arrested in outbreaks of window smashing and vandalism. The mayor issued statements against the situation.

Guard

Washington, D.C. — National Guard officials anticipate such disturbances in Chicago, Cleveland, which has started warming up already, Philadelphia, Los Angeles, pennant leader, but not followed far behind by Chicago, San Francisco and San Diego and in Tennessee, rockie rioters.

Last year the Guard was called out in eight different instances, involving 90,000 National Guardsmen.

Leaders

A number of Negro leaders have forecast violence in the streets as the days warm; just as sports casters have made predictions on the pennant race.

It will be interesting to see who is the most accurate.

Peace Group Speaker Dwells on Home Troubles

Among the speakers at Saturday's anti-Viet Nam demonstration here at the Statehouse was James Dunn, director of the South Side East Project House.

Dunn, in an interview, commented on U.S. policy: "I feel that (colored) people enlist to escape the situation of being colored. It's not so much freedom (in the military), but plight from the ghetto." He said that America's political system which was on the way to wholesale prohibition from individuals making up their own minds.

He mentioned the Johnson administration as instigating the myth that were the "haves", with freedom and fine things and, in Viet Nam, protected the "have-nots", unaware that not everyone is free and has fine things in this country.

King

On Rev. King's involvement in the war, he asserted that the public feels that the black man was not supposed to talk on other than on the race problem, like poor people, who aren't supposed to say anything except about poverty.

Only a handful of Negroes were at Saturday's demonstration, he said.

Draft

"Have you heard of the phrase 'the frontline is Souville'?" he asked, in reference to disproportionate Negroes drafted. He said percentages were approximately 30 percent of Negroes involved in frontline action.

"The Negro has been so dehumanized, he is struggling for recognition.

He's got to be the best in football, track, the Army."

Dunn said that people should have a right not to believe in killing and quoted Muhammed Ali (who is to be inducted Apr. 28): if the champion felt that his going to Viet Nam would free the 22 million black people in this country, he wouldn't have to be drafted, he'd enlist.

Dunn has served two years in the Army, 1958-9.

Sherman Antitrust Applied To Cieny

Cincinnati, Ohio — Discriminatory practices of the 1800-member Akron Area Board of Realtors were attacked Monday in the Sixth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals by attorneys of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF).

First

In the first suit of its kind to reach the appeals court level, LDF lawyers asked that the Board be "permanently enjoined and restrained because its members are operating in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Antitrust Act and the Clayton Antitrust Act."

Charges

The Realtors were charged with: Refusing their services to Negroes desirous of living in areas the Realtors have delineated as "white" neighborhoods and quoting prices to Negroes far greater than those quoted to prospective white purchasers or renters of the same property.

New Brunswick, N.J. — Jackie D. Robinson of Pell City, Ala., on Dec. 17, 1965, Jackie saved the life of six-year-old Sidney B. Bedford of Ragland, Alabama, whose clothing caught on fire as she was playing in her gackyard. For this heroic action, Jackie was presented the Medal of Merit by the National Court of Honor, Boy Scouts of America.

New York — The Ford Foundation announced a series of grants to improve career opportunities for persons from minority groups. They included: an effort in New York City to help Negroes qualify for apprenticeship openings in the skilled trades.

Washington, D.C. — The nonwhite employment rate was 7.4 percent in March. This was up slightly from the average for the first three months of the year but down from 9.2 percent a year earlier and from nearly 13 percent in 1961. Highest unemployment was among teenagers.

Detroit, Mich. — Chambers and Gil Anderson, who are the first Negroes to drive in the economy run, and incidentally are the first editor-writers of Negro newspapers to participate in the annual gasmileage test. Chambers, 29, is auto editor of the New York Amsterdam News. His co-driver, Anderson, also 29, is a free-lance auto writer for the Westchester Observer, Mt. Vernon, N.Y.

Washington, D.C. — The contribution of Negro artists to American culture was dramatized in Washington this week when the famed "Hagar" sculpture was presented to the Fredrick Douglas Institute of Negro Art and History by Delta Theta Sorority. One of the best known works of Miss Edmonia Lewis, recognized by art historians as the first Negro American sculptor. "Hagar" was created in Rome in 1875.

Rights, Peace Merge Tactical Mistake NAACP Board Asserts

New York — After careful consideration and full debate, the Board of Directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has adopted a resolution calling the attempt to merge the civil right and peace movements a "serious tactical mistake."

Portions of the statement read "To attempt to merge the civil rights movement with the peace movement, is, in our judgment, a serious tactical mistake. It will serve the cause neither of civil rights nor of peace.

"The NAACP knows that civil rights battles have to be fought and won on their own merits, irrespective of the state of war or peace in the world. For nearly 60 years, under nine national administrations, in periods of depression and of prosperity, through two World Wars, the Korean War and now into the War in Vietnam, the NAACP has consistently and uncompromisingly stuck to the job for which it was organized."

Wright, Estes, Morris Turned Down on Civil Service Commission

The Des Moines apprenticeship program and Civil Service Commission department have been the center of controversies recently, and they are growing, as Negroes speak their minds.

The Plumbers Union, the bricklayers union, the fire department, all three have one thing in common: they are all white. All, however, have been brought to the community's attention.

Three Labor Department investigators from Washington, D.C., were in Des Moines last week reviewing the apprentice selections, including the plumbers, and some sources feel the investigation is the first step in a crackdown on discriminatory apprentice selections.

The crackdown was announced last month in Washington.

Chosen

Last week a white Civil Service Commission member was chosen. In protest seventeen leading Negroes signed a letter written to the City Council, charging the founding fathers with overlooking three qualified Negroes.

The Negroes, in the letter, took the council to task for failure to "demonstrate a realistic and sincere sensitivity to the . . . problems now confronting the non-white citizens of Des Moines."

Those the Council turned down were John Estes, Jr., Des Moines branch NAACP, president, with recommendation that a lawyer would be desired. The names of Robert A. Wright, state NAACP president and James B. Morris, Jr. were submitted.

Statement

In their letter, the signers charged "The mayor's statement that a Negro of high qualification has been considered for the commission, but was disqualified due to his failure to meet requirements of residence, was an affront to qualified Negroes and does a discredit to the community."

Receives Purple Heart For Spouse

A Des Moines woman received a Purple Heart for her husband killed in Viet Nam.

She is Mrs. Dorothy Onley, wife of Sgt. Charles Onley, who was mistaken for a hostile force and fatally injured.

Mrs. Onley was the mother of five children at the time of her husband's death. They reside at 1331 Norton Avenue.

SGT. ONLEY

Mississippi Woman Defense: Illegally Held; Biased Jury

A former Mississippi resident is being held in Polk County jail as a fugitive from justice.

She is Lola Mae White, formerly of Cleveland, Miss. Miss White says she should not be held for return to Cleveland because her indictment by a grand jury in the Mississippi town was all white, even though Negroes make up 40 per cent of Cleveland's population.

Murder

In Cleveland, she was charged on assault with intent to commit murder, but she said the charge was "illegal", and has been illegally detained here since Apr. 7 for extradition to Mississippi.

Witness

Miss White had been a witness to the Harold Wright-Alvin Manuel shooting, at her residence 1310 10th street earlier this year.

Walnut Hill News

On Tuesday, Mar. 11, the Jolly Jills of Walnut Hill enjoyed patio flower arrangement demonstrations by Mrs. Gwendolyn Simple, a florist. Lucky numbers were drawn and bouquets given as prizes.

Refreshments were served to the fourteen attending the meeting.

Persons fifty or over will be interested in joining the Jolly Jills, who meet on Tuesday, 2 p.m.

GED testing will be given at the Center Monday, Apr. 23 and Wednesday, Apr. 26, 7 p.m. For more information, call 288-2149.

Natchez Slaying Rouses Residents; No Verdict

Natchez, Miss. — Charles Evers, state field director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, led several hundred Negroes to the county courthouse, to protest the release of a white man accused of the wanton slaying of an elderly Negro.

The crowd of Negro demonstrators gathered at the courthouse Apr. 11 after a jury failed to reach a verdict in the murder trial of James L. Jones, 52, the first of three whites to stand trial for the murder of Ben Chester White, 65, a farmhand whose body was pulled out of a creek here last June.

Ku Klux Klan and members of the "Cottonmouth Moccasin Gang" killed Mr. White to divert attention from James Meredith's ill-fated 1966 march through Mississippi, according ing to a statement read by Sheriff Odell Anders to Circuit Judge James Toerry while the jury was out of the room.

Hermit

White, who had never taken part in civil rights activities, not even registering to vote, was killed on June 10, shortly after Meredith was wounded from ambush by a white man as he began his march from Memphis to Jackson, Miss.

During the demonstration at the courthouse, Mr. Evers charged that Klansmen had sat on the Jones jury. He urged Negroes not to resort to violence because they could not "shoot it out" with whites. Mr. Evers' brother, Medgar, who he succeeded in his present post, was slain by a racist's bullets in Jackson, Miss., in 1963.

Jazz Box

by a. tate

See, you missed out again. If you had sold your pop bottles and gone out to buy the Peaches and Herb album you would have had "Close your eyes" before anyone else. (except me). You could have sat back and looked ugly. Well, coo pub.

Lou Rawls knew what he was talking about in Dead End Street. That hawk comes winging his way, you know he's coming. We had the hawk Sunday night and all day Monday. He was out there singing the blues.

Brenton Woods, new to the scene, has all kinds of appeal when he sings "Oogum Boogum Song". As our songs go, don't let the title stop you. The beat is there and sounding very sweet for a first round. Since you are aware of d.m.'s speed, it will be here within the next year. You've heard of "as the crow flies"? This town is the only place in history where the bird flies faster than record releases.

Don't be surprised if Sam and Dave's Something Wrong with my baby gets here next week. But, of course, if she was that bad off, she'd be dead by now! It was on an album put out about January.

The R and B Chart—No. 1 on down — Aretha Franklin's Never Loved a Man; Jimmy Mack, Martha and her sweetmeats; Bernadette, Four Tops; Sweet Soul Music, Arthur Conley (Fabulous Flippers—crack time!); When Something is Wrong with my baby, Sam and Dave (very sharp); Nothing takes the place of you, Toussaint McCall Trio; Hunter gets captured by the game, Marvel-ettes; Love is here, Supremes; Dry your eyes, Brenda and the Tabulations; The whole world is a stage, Fantastice 4; Love I saw was just a mirage, Smokey Robinson. No. 18 is Why not tonight, Jimmy Hughes;

Book: Anyplace But Here

Jim Beckworth, "Pap" Singleton, Marcus Garvey, Ada Menken probably do not mean so much to you because they are not listed in America's textbooks.

But "Anyplace But Here," by Arna Bontemps and Jack Conroy (Hill and Wang Publishers) take this job in hand by explaining the contributions of some twenty personalities in easy, almost folk-like conversation.

Beckworth, black America's first Indian fighter (and bigamist and lover), ranged West after fleeing St. Louis in 1813 and in his travels Jim encountered Blackfeet Indians, two of whose daughters he married, but within a few days left both.

Chief

He boasted kin to the Crow nation (to keep his scalp), in fact the son of the leading brave and before his death, ended up a chief.

Little known was the $100 contribution given by John Deer, Moline Ill., manufacturer, to migrant, starving Negroes brought in by Benjamin (Pap) Singleton, who claimed he had led over 80,000 Negroes from the South and called himself the "Moses of the Colored Exodus". Pap's conviction was that "black and white were like oil and water and could never mix successfully." Such colonies spotted Kansas, albeit most of those arriving were homeless, moneyless and starving. Kansas, charitable at first, soon could not provide for the thousands.

Said the Chicago "Inter-Ocean": A man dying with yellow fever might infect his neighbor, but a frozen nigger is only out of the way.

Another "exodus" underway were those passing for white, as did Adah Menken, whose fantastic life included several marriages and rumored romances and stage presentations.

Colored Day

Few calendars pay homage to Colored American's Day, Aug. 25, a take off from the World's Columbian Exposition, May, 1893, gathering such well knowns as Frederick Douglass, Paul Lawrence Dunbar and Ida B. Wells, journalist and crusader.

Bontemps and Conroy also remind readers that race riots are not a product of the 1960's. As early as 1919, in a Chicago park, clashes developed between police and black white gangs. After the melee, rumor set the total hurt as high as five hundred. On June 20, 1943, Detroit,

Police Blotter

Waterloo, Ia. — Mel Eddie Edwards, 52, and Albert P. Green, 51, of Kansas City, Mo., are being held in lieu of $10,000 after they were arrested about 10 a.m. last Thursday. They had been seen tampering with parking meters in the 400 block of 5th street.

Norman Blagburn, 70, of 1501 University avenue pleaded innocent to assault with intent to commit murder. He was released on $2000 bond. Shot in the abdomen by Blagburn was Ronald Felder, Jan. 14.

Sentenced to five years in Ft. Madison's State penitentiary was Cecil Stanley King, 35, for enticing a 17 year old girl for prostitution. Violating the Iowa Liquor Control Act (selling whiskey without a permit) was dismissed by Judge Waldo F. Wheeler.

Miss Paula Rose Perkins, of 3501 27th street was found innocent by Judge Missildine of running a red light Dec. 18. She was fined $10 by Judge Grund.

Arraigned Saturday before Municipal Judge Harry Grund on illegal possession of narcotic drugs was Nedion Townsell, 34, of 1138 12th street. He was released on $2000 bond pending trial Apr. 28. Confiscated at his home was several hypodermic syringes and "addict kits."

Girl don't care, Gene Chandler. Pucker up by Junie Boy is no. 19. (Remember, this is R and B). No. 21 is Kansas City, James Brown; Feel so bad, Little Milton; the Jungle, B. B. King; Why (Am I treated so bad) Cannonball Adderly.

From Stan's—Otis Redding, I love you more than words can say; Carla Thomas, Unchanging Love/When Tomorrow Comes. It's a change of pace to her. Pamela Brown and the Blue Bells, Always something to remind me. That's the second round for that song.

a white and Negro fought on a bridge, and bloodying fights raged through the night, most of its victims innocent persons.

Prejudiced

However, Bontemps and Conroy grow prejudiced in presenting a fair picture in the 1966 Chicago and 1965 Watts revolts in which the rioters were just a bunch of carefree "teen-agers" who just happened to have gotten tipsy, had nothing to do. There are overly heavy tones against whites, who may or may not have been the chief instigators in both cases.

However this point is the only factor which shadowed an otherwise, informative book for everyone's library.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Noise too loud and long-lasting can cause nervous fatigue, damage the digestive system, increase allergic sensitivity, and lower the threshold of susceptibility to migraine attacks or other forms of psychosomatic illness.

That's the none too cheerful prospect for an increasingly noisy society as outlined by Dr. Lee E. Farr of the University of Texas in a recent report. In addition, many experts on hearing have pointed out that sustained high levels of sound can seriously impair the hearing function.

Can anything be done about the rising noise pattern? Actually some things are being done, but so far mainly on a voluntary and haphazard basis. Some airports have set maximum sound standards for jet takeoffs, but nobody yet has an answer to the sonic boom which sooner or later is likely to become a universal problem. There are devices to muffle the sound of motor vehicles, construction apparatus, and other public noise producers; but they require a cash outlay to buy and install.

Some cities have made gestures toward noise control, but few have progressed beyond the gesture stage. A bill looking toward Federal action, introduced in Congress last year by Rep. Theodore Kufnerman of New York, died of neglect. The Congressman has reintroduced it and says he will keep plugging away. Meanwhile the noise level escalates, ears become numbed, and in the words of Dr. Farr, "manifestations of psychic stress" abound. As with water contamination, air pollution, hazardous motor vehicles, and other menaces to public health and comfort, not much of consequence is likely to get done until another kind of noise is heard—a public outcry widespread and sustained enough to compel corrective action.

BOWLER DELORES DAVIS IS ANOTHER "FIRST"! Her Tuesday night 614 series made up of individual scores of 178, 200 and 246, rolled at Capitol Lanes will enable her to join the States 600 Club—an enviable position. We congratulate you, Delores!

HUBERT AND EVELYN McCATHEN will be a big loss to Des Moines' younger socialites—especially to the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity—as Hubert leaves for the Army. He was a corrective therapist at Veterans Administration Hospital and Evelyn an elementary school teacher here. They are graduates of Jackson State College, Jackson, Miss., their hometown. Their parents and Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCathen and Mrs. and Mrs. Guy Lee Ross.

MRS. WILLIAM SPIVEY (Bea) Saturday night's Mamas vs. Pappas Basketball Game at Julia B. Mayer Center was a fun for all affair. This Forrest Hill Parents' Group has set a pace hard to equal.

The rough and tumble game I could follow, but darn if I could figure why Mary Lou Cook persisted in floor scrubbing during game time. Later learned she was Water Boy (or Girl?)! But the little folks busily weaving around her, kept her pitcher upside down—hence the floods and mop routine. Sam Cook and John Donovan as referees were my complete undoing! Many times managing to look serious in that melee! Don McKenzie plays like an attorney practicing law—out to win at any cost! (Like bear-like snatching.) His performance was a one-man show! A riot! And Dr. Charlie Knox? If my neck were broken, I'd manage to run the other way! "The Boss" should be quite proud.

CORLOS GLOVER, 16, Ankeny High School Junior, is a real chic chick. She is an excellent seamstress, tailored her steel-blue, orlon knit, double breasted Easter coat. Corlos is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elder Glover.

Kathy and Cheryl McGee and Toni Jewett were the Marnettes pride and joy as they consented to be drafted into the Mamas and Pappas' Game! As rough as the next, too!

VIOLET, VIOLA AND RONNIE AUSTIN AND CRYSTAL BURRELL of Mason City are a part of a song and dance group rehearsing for a summer appearance here. They are auditioning for State Fair Talent Scouts in MC. Mrs. James Austin, their mother, is steering the group. Let's watch for their appearance.

MIRIAM MCKEEVER was exceptional as always in her Sunday night Community Playhouse appearance in The Glass Menagerie! Terry R. Griffin and Joyce Englehart were very believable brother and sister. Charles D. Stinard, Jr. was a treasure as family friend!

ELIZABETH WERBLOSKY, well-known dance instructor, was so very lovely in a Japanese silk suit on Sunday evening at Community Playhouse. It seems a relative brought her "a wisp" of this silk and after much thought she designed red black collar and cuffs to augment her silk supply. To have forseen "mini skirts" and the like, she said, would have rendered all the careful designing unnecessary. As I see it, Elizabeth is so wee, she is a "mini" person!

Farm Outing Enjoyed By Columnist, White

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Link of Maxwell, Ia., entertained Des Moines guests recently in an all day farm outing made all the more enjoyable by a delicious potluck dinner. Mrs. Link is Nancy Samcoe, the artist. Larry Link is a social worker and writer.

The Link's a-day-on-the-farm gift to their friends was a gesture made preparatory to their return to city living. Their home was a beautiful, two-story farm house furnished with antiques. Many of Mrs. Link's best-known paintings lined the walls.

Pets

Family pets were the envy of everyone. They included Queen, the horse, who happily rode all who chose to seek a ride, then "Fancy That", her colt; Squealer and Napoleon, the pigs. (Napoleon was bottle fed.); Mary, the pet lamb along with nine others; Pumpernickel, the dog—called Pumper; a mother goat, Mitch, who has reared two sets of goats. Then there are three sate: Tallulah was adopted when the Links first married and was brought with them from New York; the others were Junior and Hong Kong, both males.

Anticipating their very young guests, the Links had prepared kites—two red, two white and one yellow with long white tails! (Secretly, I wished for one!) Among the many guests were Messrs. and Mmes. John Isom, Del Nett, Kenton Viers, Peyton Glass, Wendell Beeman, Richard Brudwood, Bruce Atkins and children, Irvin White, Dr. and Mrs. Jerry Tomlinson, Dimitar Krustev, Dr. Ruth McGinnis, Mrs. Cynthia Turner and daughters, Edward Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kirk, and Mrs. John E. Johnson.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Can your hair be damaged from brushing, alone?

All hair becomes damaged from exposure to sun and natural elements. Certain greasy compounds and many chemicals, improperly used, also take their toll...not to mention simple attempts at beautifying the hair with any brush not made of natural bristles. The results are brittleness, breakage, dry and dull looking hair.

Your professional beautician knows how artificial bristles actually brush away a great deal of the "lubricants" of the hair that give it body, lustre and protection. And trained beauticians claim that nothing beats Clairol® condition® Beauty Pack Treatment for overcoming brittleness, dryness and breakage... leaving hair lively and easy to manage. condition® is an easy-to-work-with creme which can even be applied during a chemical straightening retouch to prevent drying of hair that has been previously relaxed. condition® is the ultimate in repairing deep-damage. And, when time is a factor for their customers, hairdressers turn to new Clairol® Hair Dew®—the lotion conditioner that penetrates so fast many think of it as an instant conditioner. When applied regularly by your beautician, Clairol Hair Dew adds body, softens and gives a glowing new look to your hair that many friends will notice and admire.

Damage can come from using brushes with artificial bristles. But damage to every woman's hair comes from so many other causes that all human hair (including wigs) needs to be revitalized periodically. Visit your professional beautician and ask this expert to check the condition of your hair.

Only your professional beautician knows the answer for sure.

SURPRISING STAND ON HOUSING MEASURE

Before the legislature convened in January, many predicted that a housing bill would make little progress because of the presence of a large contingent of small town and rural members. It was felt that they had little or no contact with the program.

The senate passed the measure by a solid majority and the house committee to which it was referred the reported it out by a substantial majority, in fact with no opposing votes.

The Iowa poll, a local sampling organization, reported its results Sunday of a poll which showed that a majority of the people in Iowa opposed the housing bill. These results did not seem to dampen the sentiments in the house committee.

It often happens that many people oppose a position behind closed doors but do the reverse when the matter is out in the open. This is well demonstrated in the vote Governor Wallace of Alabama received in some northern states in 1964.

We predict that the house will pass the bill and, maybe in conference, the requirement that a $500 bond be posted when a complaint is filed will be eliminated.

LETS NOT ALLOW
WILD IDEAS TO PREVAIL

Donald R. Smith, the maverick student, who in spite of his long hair, wearing no stockings and vowing to bring Iowa State University "kicking and screaming into the Twentieth Century", was elected President of the student body. He quit school because he felt unable to carry out his program.

It is difficult to understand how a quack like he (he is a brilliant student) could so influence the students that they would elect him as their leader.

Ames is a fine school with a fine reputation. It has graduated thousands of fine men and women who have made names for themselves in their respective fields. They did not go without socks, were not shabbily dressed or wore their hair like cavemen. They followed and respected the rules of the university which had been made by men and women of education and experience.

Maybe he could lead, but what? Certainly his ideas of running a school have not met with success anywhere else but have been allowed to die as the proponents learn some sense.

It is difficult for the officials to deal with these rabble-rousers fearing that the discontent among others over minor matters would encourage them to join up with these troublemakers.

The school needs no Donald R. Smiths to shape its course of action.

NO HELP TO CIVIL RIGHTS EFFORTS HERE

Last week, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. suggested that the civil rights movement and the opponents of the war in Viet Nam join forces.

This suggestion brought a strong rejoinder from such outstanding men as Dr. Ralph Bunche and Roy Wilkins. They were careful to accord Dr. King praise for the fine work he has done in the civil rights movement, refused to criticize him but emphasized that this position was not for the best interest of the civil rights movement.

Like Dr. Bunche and Mr. Wilkins, we do not agree with Dr. King. His position tends to cut sand from under the feet of our foreign policy and alienates some support among friends.

Unfortunately, we are in this war and must get out somehow, the honorable way. It needs the help of all of its citizens none of whom expect to be rewarded by the enemy. Certainly President Johnson deserves our support in this conflict for he has stuck by human rights when the chips were down.

Gradually, the chaff in the civil rights movement are being shaken off which, we hope, will ensure to the substantial good of the people.

This has to be a big month for sports until football season rolls around again.

The daily papers are beginning to come up with stories about who will appear at the Drake Relays a couple of Saturdays from this writing. The baseball season is off and running and the favorites in the national League are having a hard time getting started. But so are the defending champs, the Dodgers who have yet to win a game.

The world champion Orioles are off to a good start and may be hard to catch although Minnesota could possibly do it.

Valley Relays

We missed the Valley Relays and kept intact our record of never having seen one and yet with the fellows who were out there we should have been. East High's Jock Johnson hurdle, Tech's Vern Hawkins broad jump victor and the star of the meet, North's Jim Kirby who ran so far ahead of the boys they couldn't even yell at him.

This guy gives North another one of those tough sprint relay teams such as the record broken of the forties and early fifties. Every so often the Polar Bears come up with one because of a red hot anchor man.

Clay-Patterson

Oh yes, the Clay-Patterson fight was called off because the Governor of Nevada said Patterson didn't have a chance. Now why don't they cancel the bouts in Nevada between the customers and the slot machine and gambling tables? The poor sucker (we mean customer) hasn't as

Orioles, Pirates, Runaway Pennant
Choices in Sport Magazine Poll

New York — The Baltimore Orioles will be runaway pennant winners in the American League race and the Pittsburgh Pirates are heavy favorites in the National League, according to an exclusive poll of more than 500 major-leaguers appearing in the current issue of SPORT magazine.

Twins

Picked to fill out the first division behind the Orioles in the American League are the Minnesota Twins. Detroit Tigers, Chicago White Sox and Cleveland Indians, followed in order by the California Angels, Kansas City Athletics, New York Yankees, Boston Red Sox and Washington Senators.

Giants

In the National League, the contenders behind the pirates, according to the player poll, will be the San Francisco Giants, Atlanta Braves, Philadelphia Phillies and Cincinnati Reds. The 1966 pennant-winning Los Angeles Dodgers, without retired Sandy Koufax and traded Maury Wills, are expected to drop to sixth in the standings, trailed by the St. Louis Cardinals, Houston Astros, New York Mets and Chicago Cubs.

Oliva

In polling for top individual performances by American Leaguers, the Orioles' Frank Robinson was chosen as the probable Most Valuable Player and Home-Run Leader, Twins' Tony Oliva and Jim Kaat as Leading Hitter and Leading Pitcher, respectively, and the Red Sox' Reggie Smith as the Outstanding Rookie.

Weekend Boxing Brings
Victory to D.M.; Woes
To Muhammed, Griffith

Des Moines' boxers proved their skill Saturday in Cedar Rapids when all returned victorious from the state AAU Boxing Tournament.

Winners

In the 139 pound novelty class was champ Ron Lewis who defeated Burlington's Dave Heplen by a technical knockout. In the 112 pound open class, Donald Avant over Ed Marshall of Pella; 125 pound Walter Knox took care of Colfax's Ed Onn; at 156 Army champ Walter Williams beat out Pat Boyd of Cedar Rapids; and Glenn Sellers knocked out Craig McCormick of Burlington in the second round.

Only incident was the fans' own fistfight broken up by police. Coach Mel Barbar of the Jewish Community of a chance as did Patterson. A lot of boys are saying the champ will go right to the front lines when the Armed Forces get him. But don't bet on it.

Boxers

A bunch of boxers went to Cedar Rapids and came back wearing jackets that said they were champions of something or other. We saw Don Avant and Walter Williams with their jackets on. Maybe those kids could be tough if they had some competition.

And while we think about it, Mark Haines in Doyers' number four tennis singles for North High.

Clark Yeager is still trying to organize that old baseball players division. A few of the guys we talked to agreed until we told them it would cost money to front and no rain checks. We may get things in front yet.

Awards

Awards to the boys were red and white jackets and trophies.

It had previously been announced the winners would go to the national meet in St. Paul, but the boys will be unable to face tougher competition, due to lack of transportation funds.

All of the winners are Golden Gloves.

Coach Barbar said this Saturday's victory was the first in six years for Des Moines.

Muhammed

Chicago, Ill.—It is most unfortunate that Muhammed Ali cannot be as elated as the AAU boys from Des Moines, for next week he is to be inducted into the Armed Forces.

Muhammed, turned down by the U.S. Supreme Court to stay out of the Army, said, however, he would take any punishment rather than become a fighting soldier.

"I will stand up for my religious beliefs even if it means I am put in jail for 50 years, or am stood up in front of machine guns."

Muhammed's lawyers had contended the 25 year old champ was a Black Muslim minister and should be exempted.

Other comments by Muhammed were words to this effect: If I thought I could free the 22 million black people in this country, I wouldn't have to be drafted. I would enlist.

Griffith

New York—Emile Griffith's middleweight crown was snatched from him Monday as Nino Benvenuti won the world championship in an unanimous fifteen round decision.

Benvenuti was said to have out-punched and outsped Griffith who had won eight straight title bouts in the welter and middle classes.

Griffith was downed in the second round by Benvenuti's right. Emile got up at four but had to take the compulsory eight count. The former champ came out of the fight with lumps under both eyes, his left eye almost closed.

Marks on Benvenuti included a cut nose after the ninth round. Although he wore a patch on the nose, he was spattered with blood down the stretch.

Drake Relays Draw Track Stars

From East, West, South Universities

Slated

The Drake Relays are coming down to the wire, and this year's meet promises to bring in some of the most dazzling track thus far. Charles Green, of Omaha, will run a special 100-meter dash. Green has tied the 60-yard indoor mark with Bob Hayes, now football player. Greene clocked :05.9 and has won Drake's 100-yard crown in 1965 and 1966.

It's not known if Clyde Duncan and his Texas Southern teammates will be here, but chances are promising. The 440 yard relay TSU team are undefeated. Members are James Hines, Lee Smith, Bobby Evans and Duncan.

At Grambling, La., TSU matched the world 440-yard relay record of 39.6 seconds last Saturday.

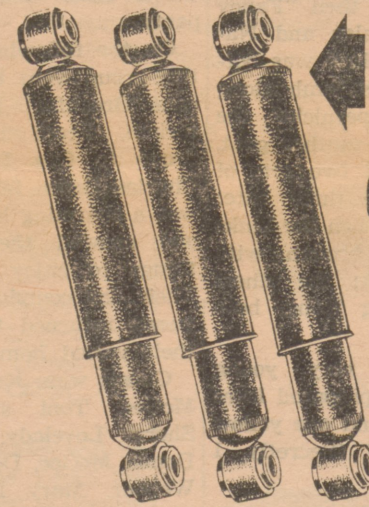

Also slated are Grambling, Southern Illinois (with Oscar Moore, sensational U.S. Olympics champ who became the first native-born American to win the two mile at Drake since 1957) and New Mexico, with Rene Matison, :09.4 sprinter who prepped at Gary, Ind. The Lobos have won 60 dual, triangular and quadrangular meets in the years since Coach Hugh Hackett took charge.
