Win in Urban Condemnation

Urban League to Head Training Program

Washington, D. C. — The Urban League and the AFL-CIO construction trades unions will start a co-operative program in Baltimore to prepare and train Negro youth for participation in apprenticeship programs, Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz has announced.

Whitney M. Young, Jr., Executive Director of the National Urban League, signed the $46,400 Manpower Development and Training Act contract with Assistant Secretary of Labor Stanley H. Rutenber, who heads the Manpower Administration.

Approximately 300 Baltimore youth will be recruited from the disadvantaged sector of the community by the Baltimore Urban League and the Baltimore Building Trades Council for participation in the educational preparatory program, called LEAP (for Labor Education Advancement Program).

Seeks To Bring Peace In Tampa's Ghetto

...New York, N.Y. — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People mobilized many of its units for duty in strife-torn communities throughout the nation last week, in an effort to calm racial tensions and to bring peace to ghetto areas.

In Tampa, Fla., where three nights of rioting erupted after a white policeman shot and killed a Negro burglary suspect, NAACP State Field Director Marvin Davies and other civil rights leaders toured the Central Avenue riot area and urged teenagers to stay off the streets.

The NAACP and the Commission on Community Relations also recruited some 100 Negro youths to patrol the streets in an attempt to prevent further outbreaks of violence.

NAACP Monthly Meet

Regular monthly meeting of the Des Moines NAACP is Tuesday, June 27, 7:30 p.m. at Wilkie House. John M. Estes, Jr., is president.

Another Graduate From Technical High

Karen Susan Phillips, a Tech High grad, majored in the business field of secretarial work. She enjoys swimming and tennis, and attends St. Paul AME Church.

Karen, who has been residing with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bunkley, 1115 14th street, is a native of Baker's Field, Calif. Before coming to Des Moines, she attended the Catholic School and Baker's Field High. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Phillips of Baker's Field.

Praise To Marshall For Nomination

Washington, D.C.—With the naming the Thurgood Marshall to the Supreme Court, Pres. Johnson has laid to rest two of the major issues which have figured in national presidential campaigns for three decades, the issue of Negro representation in the Cabinet and on the Supreme Court. Latest of these is Thurgood Marshall's nomination.

From New York, Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said: "Thurgood Marshall would give the nation an experienced and able jurist who loves the law."

Rabbi

Arthur Lelyveld, Rabbi and head of the American Jewish Congress said Marshall's appointment to the high court was "not only a tribute to him personally, but a long overdue recognition of the part of the Negro people have played in righting the wrongs of American society and giving force to the ideals of legal and social justice."

Throws Ammonia In Three Youths' Eyes

Lumberton, N.C. — Three members of the NAACP Youth Council in Robeson County have been hospitalized as a result of ammonia thrown into their eyes by a counter-man at a refreshment stand where they had sought to be served.

However, according to Charles A. McLean, North Carolina field director, an enraged counterman opened a bottle of ammonia and hurled its contents into the faces of the youthful demonstrators when they asked for receipts in the belief that they had been overcharged.

Local Peace Leader Attends Conference

Mrs. Glenna Johnson, member of the national board of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom program chairman of the Des Moines Branch, is attending the League's annual meeting in Asilomar, Calif., June 19-24.

There conference delegates explore the relations of people in their struggle for power and peace. Major emphasis is given to the question of U. S. involvement in Vietnam and the urgency of negotiating now for a peaceful settlement of issues.

Mau Maus of Harlem Speak for Violence

New York, N.Y. — A group in Harlem espousing political violence—the Mau Maus—has been granted a forum to air its particular views in a special magazine feature published recently.

Charles Kenyatta, leader of the Harlem Mau Maus, predicts: "By the year 2000 America will have had its bloody revolution."

Control

The Mau Maus, according to Kenyatta, have separed themselves from other Negro organizations, including the Black Muslims, and deplore the Uncle Tom leaders—the Martin Luther Kings and Roy Wilkins—"... who are controlled by millionaires who aren't going to change anything." Also featured in the article is a far-right-wing group from St. Louis called the C.I.C.'s who, like the Mau Maus although for different reasons, believe that guerrilla warfare in the U. S. is inevitable.

Alphi Phi Scholarship To Dartanyan Brown Sun.

Dartanyan Brown was presented Sunday, June 18, with the 1967 Zeta Kappa Lambda Chapter Scholarship Award of Alpha Phi Alpha, Inc., Des Moines, Iowa. The scholarship of $200 was presented to Dart Brown by Dr. Eddie Easley, President, of the local chapter, at the Wilkie House.

Brown was a June graduate of Des Moines North High School, ranking in the top third of his class. He plans to enroll at Drake University this fall majoring in journalism. Brown participated in many school and community activities. He was on the track team, managed the baseball team, lettered in swimming, and received awards as a lifeguard. He also worked on the school paper, the sound and light crew of school theater, and was in the cast of the musical "Bye, Bye Birdie."

He was with the Y.M.C.A. Boy's Chorus and Bell Ringers, and was junior counselor for the Y.M.C.A. Boys Camp at Boone, Iowa for two years.

Shown here are Dart and the president. Brown now works part time at the Register and Tribune Company in the Sports Department.

Following the award presentation, a tea was held honoring Brown and his family: Mrs. Mary Alice Brown, his mother and two brothers, Kevin and Don; his grandmother Mrs. Lettie Thompson, and Miss Adele Thompson, his aunt, both from Fort Dodge, Iowa; and his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hawkins of Des Moines.

Other active members of the fraternity are Dr. Lewis James, Dr. S. J. Williamson, Jr., Everett Mays, Moses Clinton, Paul Danforth, Henry Johnson, Des Moines, and Dr. Rupert Seals of Ames, Iowa.

Muhammad Sentenced To Five Years in Prison

"No comment, no comment," was Muhammad's answer to newsmen who crowded around him after an all-white Houston, Tex. jury convicted him of refusing to be inducted into the armed forces and sentenced the former heavyweight champ to five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

The jury of six men and six women deliberated less than half an hour in a trial in which the defendant, Muhammad Ali, did not go to the stand.

Lawyers for Muhammad said that the former heavyweight champion was a Black Muslim minister and challenged the reclassification of his 1-A status. They also tried to prove that in Kentucky and Texas, Negroes were "systematically excluded" from draft boards.

Appeal

It has been said that Muhammad's religion, of being a Black Muslim, had much to do with his conviction, since many persons in the United States do not feel that the Black Muslim is a religion and therefore, Muhammad cannot claim to be a minister of it, or can conscientiously object to the war on religious tones.

Dr. King Criticizes Anti-Rights Ruling

Atlanta, Ga. — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, issued the following statement today when the U.S. Supreme Court ruled against him and other Negro leaders who broke an injunction in Birmingham, Ala., in 1963.

"It is tragic indeed that the Supreme Court of our land should uphold the use of the injunction as a crippling device which could very well break the back of the non-violent movement. Historically, this same device was successfully used during the early part of this century to prevent the organization of labor unions and to break strikes."

MUHAMMAD

U.S. Atty. Morton L. Susaman mentioned that Muhammad became a Black Muslim in 1964 and "in my opinion that's where his troubles began." But Muhammad said "My religion is not political in any way." Muhammad's lawyers say they will appeal.

NEWS In A Nutshell

New York—The Ford Foundation today announced grants totaling $956,000 for programs that seek to use the work-study concept to improve education and career opportunities for urban and minority groups. In such programs college students alternate on-campus study with full-time paid employment related to their academic programs.

Washington, D.C. — Lawrence P. Horan, Director of the Western Region, Office of Economic Opportunity, announced in San Francisco Sunday, June 4, that Dr. Norvel L. Smith has been appointed Deputy Director of the Western Region, effective June 12.

Jefferson City, Mo.—Sources say that Doc Lawler, 2nd Ward Democratic Committeeman and Steamfitters Union executive, and his associates have been maneuvering behind the scenes to keep the First Congressional District as it presently is and to allow the eight Negro wards to become a part of it.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Grand Exalted Ruler Hobson R. Reynolds of the Improved, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World, announced last week that the Honorable Lynden Oscar Pindling, Premier of the Bahamas Islands, has been selected to receive the 1967 Lovejoy award.

Memphis, Tenn.—Police said that two 13-year-old girls were arguing over boy friends, when one of the girls knifed the other to death.

Negro Leaders Sign Repeal of "Right to Work", 14 B Law

...New York, N. Y. — Bayard Rustin, Executive Director of the A. Philip Randolph Institute announced the publication of "Right to Work" Laws—A Trap for America's Minorities. The pamphlet lashes out at "Right To Work" Laws as a stratagem to divide the labor movement and to keep Negro at the bottom of the economic ladder.

It contains an introduction advocating the repeal of 14 (B) of the Taft-Hartly Act signed by:

Dorothy Height, President, National Council of Negro Women
Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference

Clarence Mitchell, Director, Washington Bureau, NAACP
A. Philip Randolph, President Emeritus, Negro American Labor Council

Roy Wilkins, Executive Director, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Rustin hailed the publication of our pamphlet as a sign "that despite stresses and strains the major civil rights organizations and the labor movement are willing and able to support each other in the fight for economic justice."

Resume Hearing on City Civil Service

Second public hearing for two men, Mulford Fonza and Walt Williams, who were rejected twice in the last year as firemen from the Civil Service Commission is Tuesday, June 27.

Trotters, Mitchells Given Better Prices by Sheriff's Jury Monday Night

Two families were victorious by sheriff's condemnation jury Monday awarded, respectively, $8,500 and $53,280 by authorization by the Des Moines City Council.

They are A. P. Trotter, owner of property at 934 14th street place and Mrs. Azalla Mitchell for property at 1200 Center Street and 114 Center.

These first triumphs are the beginning, sources say, of 10 other Oakridge properties headed for condemnation juries, and Harold Van Vorhis, attorney for the Oakridge project, said more awards are expected to be announced this week.

Trotter had earlier rejected $7,700 offered by the city and Mrs. Mitchell had refused $37,000 for her property.

Morris and Morris were attorneys for the Mitchells and Trotters. Mr. Morris, Jr. said that it was "evident that the appraisals the city is using is unrealistic when viewed by other people who are better acquainted with property."

Brokers

Persons "better acquainted" on the condemnation jury included real estate and investment brokers.

Property taken on 10th street West to 15th street and from Center Street south to Pleasant streets in the Oakridge area, sources say, will probably be bought for annexation to Methodist Hospital.

Two

Mr. Trotter and Mrs. Mitchell are two of the many citizens who protested earlier this year to the City Council, saying they had not been quoted a fair price for their property.

The Trotters' new home is at 1004 27th street.

NAACP Board Conf. Seeks Funds for Rights Commission

The Iowa State NAACP Conference of Branches held its board meeting Saturday, June 17, at the YMCA, 101 Locust Street.

Robert A. Wright, president, was in charge of the representatives from Waterloo, Sioux City, Fort Madison and Des Moines. Wright was also elected delegate to attend the National Convention in Boston, Mass., July 10-15.

Plans were made for the State Conference to be held in Sioux City in October. The committee on Planning are Charles E. Mims of Sioux City, chairman, Mrs. Warren Nash, Louis A. Galand, Mrs. Guy E. Greene, Mrs. James B. Morris, Sr., Mrs. Paula Swartz, A. P. Trotter and

Named Director To Homemaker Program

Waterloo, Ia. — Announcement of the appointment of Miss Betty Furgerson as director of the Homemaker Home Health Care Program in Black Hawk County, was made recently by George Magee, director of Family Services.

Miss Furgerson will assume her duties July 5, with salary $6,480.

The Homemaker services is a new office of Economic Opportunity project, to staff the director, secretary, bookkeeper, stenographer and four full-time homemakers.

one", favored urban renewal projects, and asked members to co-operate with the city officials to keep the summer a "cool one."

Alert

New York, N. Y. — In a "red alert" message sent June 15 to branches of the NAACP throughout the country, Roy Wilkins outlined proposals to officers of NAACP chapters to meet with "the people who have grievances and plan how the chapter can help them."

Wilkins said: "We want police to maintain law and order, but with their heads, not with their guns."

Iowa Lakes Best Bet For Weekend Anglers

Recent heavy rainfall over most of the State has caused flood conditions that have slowed stream angling, the State Conservation Commission said today. Reports from most lakes indicate that angling is good at the following spots: Bullhead fishing is red hot in the Dickinson County Lakes, also at Storm Lake, Black Hawk and Clear Lake; Walleye and crappies good in Spirit, Okoboji and Clear Lake; Catfishing is reported good at Black Hawk, Clear Lake and DeSoto Bend lakes.

A match, a Fuse, and Grey Powder Are All It Takes To Maim Or Kill Your Child

Here is the result of fireworks. Douglas Ewing, 647 27th street, suffered forehead and forearm wounds after he lit a cherry bomb in his bedroom Friday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ewing.

Doug is one of the many youngsters who will be injured this summer by using fireworks or being the object of having one thrown at him.

The City Code defines fireworks as any combustible or explosive composition. The National Fire Protection Association reports there were 400 incidents reported in 1966, with 5 persons killed, 486 injured. Unsupervised amateur rockets caused an additional 2 deaths and 50 injuries.

Don't let your child become one of 1967's statistics on fireworks.

Pharmaceutical Board To Work on Restricting Cough Syrup Kick Sale

by E. TATE

According to the Iowa Pharmaceutical Association, and Dr. Julius Conner, City Health Director, there has been a marked increase in the use by teenagers and (young Negro) adults in the improper use of exempt narcotics.

"To many people, not fully recognizing the dangers to health, seek release from the pressures of today's society through the abusive use of drugs as a crutch," the Association said. "This abuse includes the various types of codeine containing cough syrups on sale in many drugstores."

Parents

Lt. Scott Crowley, of the Des Moines Police Department's vice bureau, commenting on the rising situation, said there was only one way to combat this illegal use by (1), urging parents who realize their children are using these cough syrups, to find out where they are purchasing it and (2), tell the pharmacist there that their child is not to receive it.

In regard to exempt narcotics, the Iowa Pharmaceutical Association went on, the Iowa Uniform Narcotic law does have certain limitations governing the sale or distribution, to be only dispensed over the counter or on a prescription in a pharmacy recorded in an exempt narcotic book to show the quantity and kind sold, name and address, (which may be a pseudo), date of sale and signature of purchaser and pharmacist.

No Limit

Lt. Crowley said there was no age or purchase limit on the sale and therefore depends on the professional judgement of the pharmacist. However, the ethics of various pharmacists may be less than moral, since many pharmacists are aware that they are selling certain codeine and alcoholic containing syrups for the sole purpose of addiction and know they're violating the code. They know, he said, the teenager is not buying the substance for medical purposes, and is therefore, contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Robert Gibbs, executive secretary of the IPA, has announced that board has discussed the excessive sales of such drugs, including the possibility and feasibility of requesting a Rx for exempt narcotics, limiting the quantity that can be dispensed and other limitations.

In the meanwhile, perhaps your child is at the pharmacist's right now.

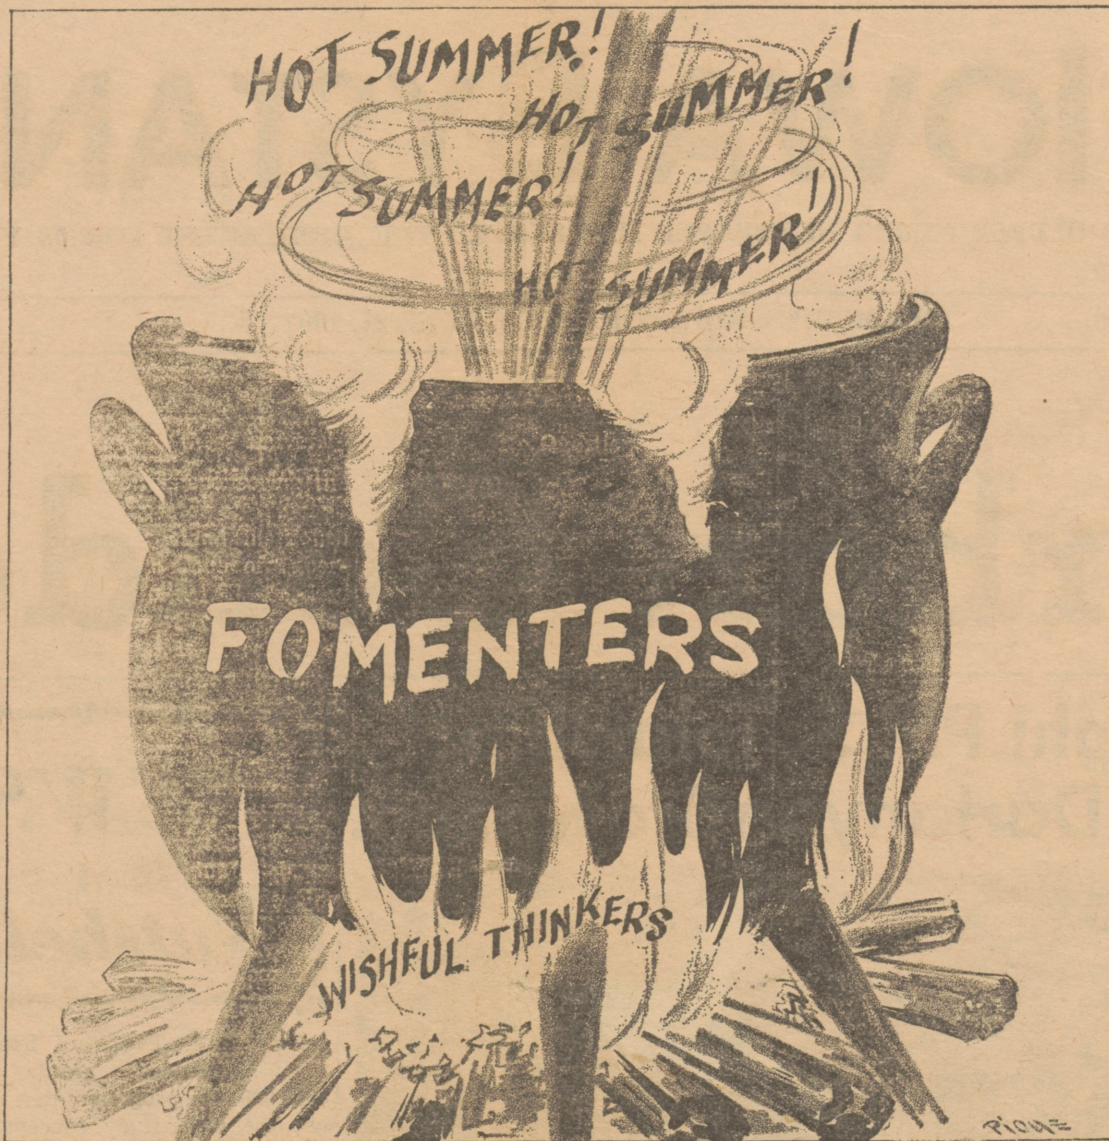

George Mason Rites Held Last Saturday

Last rites for George H. Mason, 91, of 1183 14th street, were 10 a.m. last Saturday at Hammitt and Robinson Funeral Home, with burial in Glendale Cemetery.

Mr. Mason was a member of St. Paul AME, the Odd Fellows Lodge and North Star No. 2. He had been a custodian at Grocers Wholesale Company, born at Mt. Pleasant, Ia., and lived in Des Moines 65 years.

He died of a heart ailment Wednesday, June 14 at Taylor Nursing Home. Survivors include sons Prof. Bernard L. Mason, Washington, D.C., and Dr. Julien Mason, Des Moines; daughter Georgine Mason, Des Moines, and two grandchildren.

BUT LAW AND ORDER MUST PREVAIL !

While City Asks for More Recreation for Teens, Parts of US Are Rioting

City leaders are grappling with the summer's problem which is harassing cities all over the country—how to keep this summer a cool one.

For a start, suggestions have been made to keep the city's swimming pools open until midnight on the last three weekends in July, but John M. Estes, president of the City Branch National Association for the Advancement of Colored People rejected this proposal.

"We figure that they should be opened sooner than July to show the public that the city can afford recreation."

Estes said that there should be diversified recreation, such as night basketball, tennis, taking youngsters on tours outside the city, perhaps to Chicago to see professional baseball games and more dances.

The city council, at Monday night's meeting, did suggest some of these ideas.

Estes did not approve of having firemen and/or policemen on the grounds of the parks, as they tended to aggravate young persons. He said that persons known to the neighborhoods and accepted by young people in that area should supervise the parks.

He was asked if last year's Good Park disturbance might have any bearing on the city Council's suggestions, and he agreed that it probably did.

The long, hot summer some civil rights leaders have anticipated, perhaps too fervently has erupted last week in California, Michigan, Ohio, Georgia, Illinois and Florida. Here is a capsule of some of the latest happenings:

Maywood, Ill. — Young persons smashed store display windows here, causing scores of policemen from four of Chicago's western suburbs to pour into the Maywood park last week. There were no injuries or looting.

Los Angeles, Calif. — About 100 police officers were called to assist city firemen last Monday night when Negroes began pelting the firefighters with rocks and bottles at the site of a spectacular fire in South-Central Los Angeles.

Officers said most of the estimated 500 persons dispersed without incident, but four men were arrested and booked on a variety of charges. No injuries were reported.

Atlanta, Ga. — Violence erupted Monday night in a racially tense Negro neighborhood.

Crowds of rock-throwing Negroes poured into the streets after attending a meeting at a church where "black power" leader Stokely Carmichael, arrested Sunday night in the troubled neighborhood.

Police responded by firing shotguns and pistols into the air and rushed in reinforcement, including an armored truck.

One man was killed Tuesday night in Alabama's Dixie-hills section from rioting residents.

Under The Stars Con.

The second concert of the annual "Music Under the Stars" series by the Des Moines Municipal Band will be next Sunday, June 25th at the west Statehouse grounds beginning at 8 p.m. Featured as guest vocalist will be John Whaley, director of vocal music at Lincoln High School, and flute soloist, James Stansbury. Also appearing will be "The Swing Wing", a band within the band with the big stage band sound. The 45 piece professional band is conducted by Robert Bagley. Dick Eaton is master of ceremonies. The concert will be broadcast (live) on KRNT radio.

B'nai B'rith Study Refute Statements On Negro Attitudes

New York, N.Y.—Findings of a scientific study of Negro attitudes, reported today, sharply refute widespread "sensational statements" on Negro anti-Semitism, hatred of whites in general, resistance to the draft, and support of the black nationalist Muslims.

Prejudice

The study, part of a five-year research project on prejudice conducted by the University of California Survey Research Center under a grant from the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, revealed that:

A—Within civil rights groups and the Negro population at large, the "more militant a Negro is, the less likely he is to be anti-white."

No To Muslims

B—Conventional civil rights groups and leaders enjoy overwhelming popularity; only one Negro in 25 offered moderately consistent support for the Muslims.

C—Nearly 90% of Negroes queried indicated a willingness to fight for the U.S.

D—Less than one third are strongly anti-white, and in general, Negroes are much less anti-white than whites are anti-Negro.

They say James Brown will be at the Rosenblatt Stadium, July 2, 8 p.m. VIP—$6, general admission $4, advance $3.50, students $2, children under 12, half price. In case of rain, the show will be at Civic Auditorium. If you seniors had graduated next month, you could make it for $2. Well. At Omaha.

It's fable time my friends. There was this fox named Harvey, who wanted to hold a dance in the woods, featuring the 4 Bottoms, so he put posters all around in the woods. But then someone called up the wise Old Owl and told him to tell Harvey to take the posters down out of their neighborhood or else all kinds of trouble would take place. So the Wise Old Owl got with the fox and told him what was happening. Not to be outdone, Harv grabbed his posters and held his dance in the farmer's pasture, the 4 Bottoms sang, the farmer and his cows were around, and Harv had more fun there in the wide open spaces than he would have had in the crowded woods. And everything was groovy. Adieu.

Someone write to me in twenty-five words or less why they would like to have Carla Thomas's new record "Stop Thief" and I'll give it to them. Deadline is June 27. Best answer wins. Write in care of Blue Lemons, 221 Locust, D.M.

And would anyone like a towel used by Sam and Dave? More about this later.

Stevie Wonder's "I was Born to Love Her" is my song. I really feel him . . . "Society's Child"—who is she really singing about? How many guys (think about this) in this day and age are called "boy"? And the Animals—"She was brown and I was pretty green". Oh, ain't we integrated today? And the Fifth Dimension, we sing in there, too, about three of us. Really, no joke, try the other side of "Up Up and Away." Even go so far as to try their album. They have a pretty good sound, considering they're out of California . . . Roy Head was here at Vet's Auditorium . . . Everything is Funky Broadway, sweets.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Salmonella food poisoning, or salmonellosis, was all but unknown in this country a generation ago. Today it is being called a major health problem by authorities on contagious diseases. Nobody knows how many cases occur in the United States each year, but official estimates have ranged from 350,000 to two million.

Salmonella poisoning is caused by a germ of the same name, which thrives in places where food is being processed under poor sanitary conditions. The disease often breaks out in flash epidemics, and is usually traceable to animal feed or animal products, from which source it finds its way via the dinner table into man's digestive tract.

Processing

Dr. Alexander Langmuir, of the National Communicable Disease Center, has attributed the spread of the disease in recent decades to the development of mass food processing. Normal enforcement of pure food laws might well have been sufficient to keep it under control, except for one major difficulty: such laws until recently applied only to food products made for human consumption.

Banned

Recently, however, the Food and Drug Administration has specifically banned the presence of salmonella in processed animal feeds. This should go a long way toward reversing the tide of the disease; just how far it will go is a matter for hopeful speculation on the part of the public health experts.

Chief symptoms of salmonella poisoning include nausea, cramps, severe diarrhea, sometimes chills and fever. Though not usually fatal, the disease is particularly hazardous to the elderly; epidemics have caused many deaths in homes for the aged. Young children too are highly susceptible. If symptoms turn up in severe form, a doctor should be consulted without delay.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Can your hair be damaged from brushing, alone?

All hair becomes damaged from exposure to sun and natural elements. Certain greasy compounds and many chemicals, improperly used, also take their toll...not to mention simple attempts at beautifying the hair with any brush not made of natural bristles. The results are brittleness, breakage, dry and dull looking hair.

Your professional beautician knows how artificial bristles actually brush away a great deal of the "lubricants" of the hair that give it body, lustre and protection. And trained beauticians claim that nothing beats Clairol® condition* Beauty Pack Treatment for overcoming brittleness, dryness and breakage... leaving hair lively and easy to manage. condition* is an easy-to-work-with creme which can even be applied during a chemical straightening retouch to prevent drying of hair that has been previously relaxed. condition* is the ultimate in repairing deep-down damage. And, when time is a factor for their customers, hairdressers turn to new Clairol® Hair Dew*—the lotion conditioner that penetrates so fast many think of it as an instant conditioner. When applied regularly by your beautician, Clairol Hair Dew adds body, softens and gives a glowing new look to your hair that many friends will notice and admire.

Damage can come from using brushes with artificial bristles. But damage to every woman's hair comes from so many other causes that all human hair (including wigs) needs to be revitalized periodically. Visit your professional beautician and ask this expert to check the condition of your hair.

Only your professional beautician knows the answer for sure.

IT TOOK ME OVER THREE WEEKS to find out that Leola Hubbard and John Everett Davis had married! Rose and Leon Jones, daughter and son-in-law of the newly weds stood with the couple. We wish Leola and John Everett all of the happiness in the world!

CAN'T RESIST ADDING these news bits: Or did you already know that Rose (Mrs. Leon Jones) is attending the University of Kansas, Wichita, Kans., preparatory to becoming an anesthesiologist. The second note is that Mr. Hardiman, Leola's father, has just retired from government service! Many good things are happening in this family, wouldn't you say?

MARY BRUBAKER STARTS HER OWN TELEVISION SHOW THIS WEEK, replacing Mary Jane Chinn! Add this achievement to the fact that she is an accomplished actress and director. She spent the past year taking courses at Drake and teaching junior and high school students creative dramatics at Woodland Opportunity Center. We'll be in your audience, Mary.

THELMA CLARK'S SON, W. THEODORE DUNCAN and his family visiting here from Denver, Colo., brings to mind that Thelma maneuvered her two children into government work thus making her's a family of government employees: upon high school graduation each was prodded into taking civil service examinations. Today, Ted, having completed military service, is supervisory audit technician with the Air Force Accounting and Finance Center, Denver, Colo.—all Air Force finance transactions are funneled into this Denver Office. He supervises an authorized strength of 10 auditors. His sister, Delores Duncan Frelot, is secretary to the Veterans Administration Chief of Outpatient Clinic located in downtown Los Angeles, Calif. Thelma, you may know, is a clerk-typist in our VA Loan and Guaranty Office and in May won an incentive award on a suggestion concerning the processing of G.I. loans. It was a cash award! Let's not forget that this family's Rock of Gibraltar Loyatus Clark (Thelma's husband) is a 22 years' of service cabinet maker with the Independent School District at West Technical High School!

Young Man Chosen To Younker Advisory Board; Rick Ramsey

Rick Ramsey has been chosen as a member of the 1967-68 Younkers Advisory Board, and is one of two boys and two girls chosen from each high school in the Des Moines Area.

Rick was nominated by his school, North, to serve as a fashion and good grooming liaison between Younkers and his friends at school.

The Boards have been in existence some years, but this is the first time a Negro boy or girl has been selected. After being chosen, Rick will work in a department of the store on Saturdays and also help with special promotions.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ramsey, 801 Boyd street, he will be a senior next year, and at North has played football, basketball, baseball and track.

Slate Prince Hall Convention In Ohio

Chicago, Ill. — More than 20,000 persons will converge on Cleveland Aug. 20 for the week-long 74th annual convention of the Prince Hall Shriners, second largest group within U.S. masonry.

Roscoe C. Washington, imperial potentate of the Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, announced recently that he and other Shrine officials already have been in Cleveland, working out convention details.

Washington said that the shrine believes firmly in civil rights for all—but also believes that all social problems must be pressed constantly and systematically to satisfactory solutions through court procedures. Paul L. Wording, Sr., is illustrious potentate of El Hasa Temple, No. 28, the most temple for the Cleveland convention.

THE ANKENY FLYING CLUB headed by Ben Sorenson, owner-operator of Sorenson's Health Studio Spa, and Harold Engquist, owner-operator of The Breeze House, is the talk of the town! The club now has fifty members, is opened 7 days a week! Even in Sunday's steady drizzle and occasional downpours, the guys were there. I had the pleasure of meeting the three instructors, Joe Wohlwend, Jerry Torrance and Bob Miller. Fred Thompson was wheeling a small plane about, rain or no rain! Met Herman Hildreth and Denis McMahon, who was about as happy as a man can be—just bought his first plane the day before. It was a J-4 Piper Cub. Dennis, employed at Massey Ferguson, is the Club's most ardent promoter, I would say. The Club is located at Ankeny Air Field, just North of John Deere Farm Implement Company, at NW 6th Street and 94th Avenue.

WEATHER REPORT: One agency's traveler says that at his Hampton hotel he listened to the sounds of the tornado—a freight train way up high and moving ever so fast. In one of our earlier storms he was again on the road—saw a funnel touch down and the resulting flying debris. Next saw the funnel lift suddenly and drift away in the clouds Beautiful and yet so fearsome?

Nuptials For Leola Hubbard And J. Davis

Leola Hubbard and John E. Davis were married in a simple ceremony at home, 1130 11th Street on Sunday, May 28. The vows were solemnized at 4 p.m. by Rev. James Shopshire, of Burns Methodist Church. Out of town guests were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Hardiman, Sr. of Kansas City, Kan.; and his daughter, Mrs. Leon S. Jones, Jr. of Wichita, Kan.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ayers and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly P. Dixon at the home of the latter, 2618 Woodland.

The bride is employed as a secretary by the City of Des Moines Commission on Human Rights and the groom is with the Federal Government, General Services Administration, as an electronic technician in heating and air conditioning.

Among those who entertained the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Perry W. Hooks; Ms. Richard Williams and Mrs. Carroll DeVan with a paper shower, and a dinner party by co-workers at Rocky's White Shutters Inn.

Wesley Children To Spend Vacation With Grandparents Here

Andria, 6, Joseph, 9, and Dirk, 5, Wesley, of Belmar, New Jersey, are here to spend their vacation with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Madison, 1323 DeWolf street. The children were also invited to dinner at their grandfather's home, George Davis, Sr. They are the children of Mrs. Audrey Thorne, Belmar, N.J.

Attend Practical Nurses Convention

Mrs. Clara Wade, of 1036 17th street and Mrs. Kizzie Strothers, of 815 E. 17th street, attended the Seventeenth annual convention for Licensed Practical Nurses at Sioux City, Ia.

Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Strothers both were delegates from the Des Moines Unit.

Key note speaker was Mrs. Faye Daye of Tulsa, Okla. Mrs. Daye is president of the National Federation of Licensed Practical Nurses. Mrs. Vena Davis is president of the Des Moines Unit, Mrs. Wade is treasurer and Mrs. Strothers is membership chairman.

The 1968 convention will be held in Des Moines.

S. Brown Children Finish Schooling

Sam Brown, Jr., is home from Baltimore, Md., where he attended Morgan State College where he was appointed Judge of the Student Court of the Student Government. Sam is a member of the ROTC and a member of the soccer team there.

Sam's plans are to be a neurosurgeon.

Sister, Jo Ella graduated from East High this year, where she was on the drill team, Girls Club, was a nurse's helper and Big Sister. She was on the Pan Cake Day committee, also.

Jo Ella recently was honored at a dinner and was given a gift with several other graduates at Bethel AME Churches Sunday School. She will attend Grandview College Summer classes, and hopes to be a teacher.

They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brown, 1618 Lyon street.

Louisianans Visitors With Son And Family

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Patton, of Grambling, La., arrived Sunday, June 11, to visit with their son, Louis Patton and family, of 1118 12th street.

While here, they have been entertained by their son and by their niece, Esther Richard Kelly, of 936 18th street, formerly of Grambling.

Conclude Trip From Chicago, Cleveland

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Johnson, of 1112 14th street, returned home after spending visiting with his sister, Mrs. Virginia Jackson, of Chicago, Ill., and nephew Richard Culbertson, of Cleveland, Ohio. The Johnsons left the city June 4.

Mrs. Jackson returned with the Johnsons, stopping to spend some time with cousins, Mrs. Gertrude Craig, and Helen Banks, of Los Angeles, Calif., and later, she and Mr. Johnson traveled to Gravity, Ia., their hometown.

While here, Mrs. Jackson also saw her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson.

Jack and Jill Regional Meet is Hailed Success

One-hundred thirty delegates from 10 chapters in six states Sunday closed a highly successful three-day 14th annual Teenage conference of the Central Region of Jack and Jill of America, Inc., at Holiday Inn North. Presiding over the business sessions was Charles W. Morgan II of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Opening

The Des Moines chapter was in charge of the opening session with greetings being brought by David Lewis, President; Mrs. Lela Turner, regional director from Topeka, Kans., and Mayor George Whitmer. A comedy skit was presented by the MIMES of Des Moines Roosevelt, of which Stanlie James is a member. Nearly 100 delegates who arrived early the day before the convention were entertained at a Pepsi party and record hop at Willkie House.

Talent

Friday evening a talent show was held with Herbie Cawthorne, serving as master of ceremonies. The winning chapter, Topeka, Kans., was presented a huge traveling trophy for an interpretative dance by the Des Moines chapter. Runnersup were a tap dancing group from Oklahoma City, Okla., second place and a ballet presentation by Marsha McLaurian from Wichita, Kans. Dinner Speaker was Ames Bowman, co-ordinator of federal projects in Des Moines schools. A record hop followed the talent show.

Workshop

Three panelists, Ray DePudt, North High coach, Claudia Thomas, Bishop college (Dallas, Tex.) student and Everett Mays, Jr., Iowa Des Moines National Bank teller, led a highly inspirational workshop session on Friday afternoon, on the subject, "Body, Mind and Spirit." Preceding the workshop Everett Mays, Sr., Assistant personnel officer at Northwestern Bell, presented his film and talk on the "Road Ahead."

Saturday afternoon the delegates were taken to Younkers tearoom for a special Fashion show. That evening the banquet was held with Tony Morrow presiding. Judge Luther T. Glanton was guest speaker and received a standing ovation from the delegates when he finished speaking.

Fruit filled cookies are a natural in the lunch box whether it travels to school or to work, and these Sugar Plum Bars are sure to draw applause from the lunch box set. They're easy to make, economical, they travel well in the lunch box, and keep well in the cookie jar. Brown sugar, rolled oats, and Good Luck margarine are the base of the mixture which surrounds the delicious Sugar Plum filling.

SUGAR PLUM FILLING
1 1/2 cups Good Luck margarine
1 cup sifted light brown sugar, firmly packed
1 1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
1/2 cup orange juice
3 tablespoons lemon juice

Let margarine soften in mixing bowl at room temperature. Add brown sugar gradually, creaming well after each addition. Sift flour with soda and salt; add gradually to first mixture, mixing well. Add oats and mix well. Press half of mixture firmly into a greased pan, 13" x 9 1/2" x 2". Spread Sugar Plum Filling on top, then cover with remaining oat mixture, patting down gently with spatula. Bake in hot oven (400°F.) 30 to 35 minutes, or until lightly browned. When cool, cut into bars, about 1 1/4" x 8", and remove from pan. Makes 2 1/2 dozen bars.

Mix all ingredients in saucepan and cook over low heat about 20 minutes, or until thickened, stirring constantly. Cool. Makes 3 1/2 cups.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Should every woman be a blonde?

Blonde hair is beautiful for those women whose natural coloring it flatters. But not everyone should be a blonde.

Expert beauticians know that complexion and hair color must complement each other to glamorize and bring out all the natural beauty that was meant to be. They also know that very coarse and dark hair often is resistant to drastic color changes. However, there's no doubt about slightly lighter hair adding excitement to a woman's appearance. And hairdressers know there is no better product to add a whole new appeal to every woman's look than Miss Clairol® haircoloring—extra rich Creme Formula or new extra easy Shampoo Formula.

Both Miss Clairol products lighten and color at once, combining vibrant new color with the natural pigment of the hair. So even those shades that look blonde on white hair (as shown on most color selection charts) give a variety of flattering red-to-golden brown shades on women whose hair was black to begin with.

Beauty salons are equipped to answer questions and help with hair color selection. Depend on your hairdresser to have the professional skills and the total family of fine Clairol products to make every woman's experience with haircoloring completely personal and glamorous. Should you be a blonde? If you don't really know, ask your expert hairdresser.

COURT ACTION, NOT
BEGGING, COUNTS

When the highway commission started buying property for the freeway and the city began purchasing property for the urban renewal, property owners complained that the prices offered were unfair and too low. In most cases, the assessment for these purposes were lower than the value fixed for taxation.

Numerous meetings with officials brought no change and as a result many homeowners have sold their properties for less than fair value.

In the beginning, the Bystander urged property owners to band together, hire counsel and contest these values in court. This advice was not followed. All the complaints and objections went for naught.

Recently, a few property owners have contested the values placed by urban renewal officials. In each case, condemnation juries have made higher awards.

The law provides remedies for parties who are aggrieved by what the state does to a citizen and condemnation is provided in such cases. It may take a little extra time but the results generally justify it.

RIOTS HURT PEOPLE,
THEIR COMMUNITY

A rash of race riots is recurring in larger cities that are embarrassing to the communities and those people who are trying to better relations between the races.

These riots are the most useless projects that could be thought up as a means of advancing the cause of freedom and equality in America.

Marches were evolved to demonstrate to the powers that be that conditions were not as desired. However, they have gotten out of hand and are a source of embarrassment to those who originated them. For instead of simply marching the participants resort to burning, looting and destruction of other people's property.

True, labor unions, farmers and other organized groups march and riot if anyone attempts to break their strike. They are better organized and the public comes to terms before too much damage is done.

The Bystander feels that communities hurt themselves by bringing trouble makers in to tell their side of the story, and trouble erupts generally. This and other examples of lawlessness have hurt the cause of civil rights and raised in the minds of too many people that they do not have to obey the law.

Fortunately, there are some sane organizations and many levelheaded people who recognize the campaign of trouble against the rights of free men but who refuse to be deterred from their fight for justice and democracy.

ONLY A BETTER MAN CAN TAKE CLAY'S TITLE

Bill Russell, manager of the Boston Celtics basketball team writes an interesting article in Sports Illustrated Magazine concerning a recent meeting of several top notch Negro athletes with Cassius Clay.

Most people had an idea that the meeting was designed to convince Clay that he should go in the army. Russell said this was not true. On the other hand, they attempted to discover the sincerity of his position and his willingness to take the consequences of his acts. They were satisfied he meant what he said.

Russell criticized those who propose to strip Clay of his title because he refused to submit to the draft. With this farinformed most people must agree. Boxing commissions did not give Clay his title. He won it and only a better boxer can dethrone him.

Girl Basketball

Rochester, Ill. — Twentieth Century Attractions are desirous to obtain female basketball players for the Harlem Queens, basketball team.

They prefer girls 17 through 25 with past experience in basketball and a desire to play. Girls should be of good morale character.

Fellows tell us that the really big news of the week was the 9.1 hundred run by Nebraska's Charley Green in the national Collegiate track meet. But, we figure what the heck, that is just a continuation of old news. Green, Jimmy Hines have been breaking the sprint marks all spring and summer. It's news when one of them doesn't run a good race. What really got us was the terrific times that didn't even place. A 45 flat quarter doesn't even qualify. And for years the world's record was 47.2. A guy who runs the hundred in 9.6 might as well stay home for all he would see would be the backs of about five other guys ahead of him. Oh well, why keep it up.

Not Pushed

This could well be the year for a 9 second hundred. And we can recall when one of the world's best sprinters said that he didn't think the human legs could stand to be pushed past a speed that would beat a 9.4 hundred. And the man really meant it. Then there was this California University track coach who sat down and made up a list of what he thought would be the limit of speeds people could run various distances and also the limit in field marks. Well, none of these limits in any event would qualify in a meet of any importance today. Of course we think that most of the old timers were so outstanding in their fields that nobody pushed them or they might have made better marks. Now there are so many good men in all forms of competition that one doesn't dare loaf or he will finish dead last in what might be a decent tie or a good mark.

This world is no place for the guy who wants to set a leisurely pace and hopes to get anywhere. The word is, go, go, go. And don't take time to look back.

By the time you read this, Cassius Clay may have had his day in court. Either he will have to go to the service or be jailed or he will be free to preach as he claims he's really interested in. If the guy is freed, what happens? Does the WBA give back his heavyweight crown, or do they go ahead with the elimination tournament to decide a successor?

Four of the fellows who have been named to battle for the scraps have been beaten soundly by Clay, yet each one has a good chance to emerge the winner. Then how can the winner be called champ on without making a real farce of the boxing image the WBA is so concerned about—as a reason given for lifting the title from the holder?

Not Much

We are not so sure the bouts will draw too many people. The television rights may make some money, but that might be all. One fellow has said that he thought that if Clay is convicted and has to go to jail, that he could lose his crown when he got out. This fellow argues that the fantastic defense of the man is based on speed and perfect timing. A couple of years in jail with no boxing to speak of would destroy that superb timing. And without that Clay would be just another boxer. The argument makes some sense. The people who handled Joe Louis knew that their man had to box often in real competition to keep his razor edge. Gym workouts would not do. So there came into being the well known bum of the month setup. And when Louis retired and finally got back into the ring again, he wasn't even a show of the old Brown Bomber.

AFL Completes 29-Game Pre-Season
Schedule; Includes NFL Team Games

New York, N.Y. — American Football League teams have completed a record 29-game pre-season schedule that stretches over six weekends and includes 16 games with National Football League clubs, AFL President Milt Woodard announced today.

The Largest and longest pre-season show in AFL history—18 games were played last year — gets underway Saturday night, July 29, when Miami and Denver meet in Akron, Ohio. The games will be the first for the AFL in the state of Ohio, where the new Cincinnati franchise will begin operations in 1968.

The Broncos, under new Coach Lou Saban, also will be in action in the first pre-season game in professional football history between AFL and NFL teams, meeting th Detroit Lions at the University of Denver, Saturday night, Aug. 5.

Full show

That same weekend the other seven AFL teams roll into action for the first time. The Boston Patriots meet the New York Jets at Bridgeport, Conn., Friday night before the full weekend program with a four-game Saturday night show that includes, besides the Denver-Detroit match-up, Buffalo vs. Miami at Memphis, Tenn., Kansas City at Houston and San Diego at Oakland.

Each AFL team will meet at least one NFL rival. San Diego's Chargers meet three NFL opponents—Detroit, Los Angeles and Pittsburgh—while Houston, New York and Oakland play only one each. The other teams meet two NFL clubs.

First

While the Denver-Miami game will bring AFL football to Ohio for the first time, Cincinnati also will get its first on-site look with an inter-league game between the New York Jets and the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles Saturday night, Aug. 19.

In three other inter-league games intra-state rivalries will be started with San Diego meeting Los Angeles, Sunday afternoon, Aug. 27, Houston taking on Dallas, Saturday night, Sept. 2, and Oakland meeting San Francisco, Sunday afternoon, Sept. 3.

Bob Lee Into NAIA
Baseball Fame Hall

Southern University's Bob Lee has been inducted into the NAIA Baseball Hall of Fame.

A veteran of 33 years of coaching baseball, basketball, golf, and football, Lee, along with Wayne Causey, Chicago White Sox infielder and Cincinnati Reds manager Dave Bristol, were inducted in ceremonies at St. Joseph, Mo., last Sunday night. "It's just hard to believe that this is happening to me," said Lee, bordering on choking up in an obvious show of emotion when he learned of the coveted honor.

Police Blotter

Chicago, Ill. — Dick Gregory again found himself the object of controversy when he pleaded guilty to violating park curfews and was fined $100. He challenged the 11 p.m. curfew and lost.

Lloyd U. Robinson, 1326 18th street, held in Polk County Jail in lieu of $20,000 bonds, pleaded innocent to breaking and entering charges and of being a habitual criminal. He was accused of breaking into Mills Radio and Television May 3, taking four television sets and a radio.

Convicted by Polk County District Court was Charles Junior Christopher, 23, of 1330 10th street of robbing the Mars Service Station of about $85 Apr. 25.

Donna Marie Vaughn, 23, of 1268 Stewart st., was fined a total of $65 Monday by Municipal Judge Luther T. Glanton, Jr., on several traffic charges.

She was fined $25 each on two charges of driving without a license, $5 for speeding and $10 for failure to appear on time to answer the tickets issued on the traffic charges.

The things not done

Some things have not been done, though Spring demands that due process of thought be given them:
a thrasher rattles a drift of leftover leaves caught in the corner of the yard. I cannot bring myself to undo the plenteous dandelions, remembering their charity in February

when the eye celebrated that first tuft of yellow.
Chives thrive, and garlic heads, and cowslip rings its pink cowbells inside an abandoned wheel.

Untidy, I tell myself, and write a poem.
Your yard is pretty, chirps the child next door, gazing wistfully from a clean-shaven lawn.
Indeed? Tut-tut! I am befuddled by her.
Something awry has brought me bells and birds and a big-eyed benediction from a child:
the world grows up in peace, and thus it blooms . . .

Mets Baseball Wives
As Fashion Models

Flushing, N.Y.—The wives of the New York Mets baseball players—including Mmes. Tom Reynolds and Cleon Jones—will be at the annual Dubonet Food and Fashion Show luncheon in the Diamond Club where the ladies will become high fashion models for that day for the benefit of the Doctors' Wives' Auxiliary of Flushing Hospital and Medical Center.

This will mark the third year that the Mets' wives, known familiarly as "The Bench Warmers," will participate in this annual fund-raising event. The proceeds from this year's luncheon will go towards the purchase of equipment for indigent patients at the Flushing Hospital and Medical Center.
