Truck Driver Killed in Crash

Calls for Full Investigation of Newark Rebellion

NAACP Will Defend Innocent Riot Victims

Newark, N.J. — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has retained legal counsel to handle police brutality charges stemming from the Newark riots.

Robert L. Carter, NAACP chief counsel, also announced that his office would supply legal aid to at least three Newark Negro business leaders who have accused police and National Guardsmen of "wantonly" spraying bullets into their business because they had sought to protect their business establishments by scrawling "soul brother" on their display windows.

In an earlier development, NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins stated in a telegram to New Jersey Gov. Richard Hughes that remarks made by the Governor during the restructive riot had been "misinterpreted" and were being used "by elements in the white community to arm themselves . . . for an open shooting season on Negroes."

Wilkins deplored the five days of violence which cost 27 lives and millions of dollars in property damage.

Founding Fathers

The NAACP convention in Boston also condemned the riotous destruction of life and property. However, in an emergency resolution passed at a convention plenary session, delegates placed much of the blame for the Northern New Jersey riots on "the city administration for its failure to take corrective action to meet many of the grave social ills of the Negro Community."

"Slum housing conditions in Newark are among the worst of any urban community in the United States. The recent effort of the mayor to appoint an unqualified white man over an exceptionally qualified Negro to a post on the board of education in the face of a unified demand from the Negro community is certainly a contributing cause of the riot," the resolution added. "There must be a rooting out of evils in race relations and a thorough redress of

Weaver, Percy Are In Favor Of Rat Bill

Secretary of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development lashed out at the rejection of appropriations for rent supplements by the House recently.

"Heartless action has once again victimized the poor," said Robert C. Weaver. "This time they defeated a program designed to combat one of the most cruel and unnecessary conditions to the slums. In so doing they denied help to the most helpless of the urban community—children who are the most frequent victims of rat bites and diseases carried by rats."

Weaver told of Senator Charles Percy, junior Republican senator from Illinois who testified before a hearing of the Senate Subcommittee on Housing and Urban Affairs: "In Chicago . . . 40 per cent of . . . 2500 complaints have dealt with this terrible problem of fear of people for the rats, roaches and other things that infest the cities and towns and buildings in them."

Negro Leaders Issue Statement Deploing Mob Violence

Roy Wilkins, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Whitney M. Young, Jr. and A. Philip Randolph have jointed in a statement deploring the rioting that has occurred in a number of communities calling attention to the fact that violence accomplishes nothing and only tends to antagonize some of the people who have theretofore favored the cause of minorities. The statement said in part, "Who is without the necessities of life when the neighborhood stores are destroyed and looted? Who loses wages because of a breakdown in transportation or destruction of the place of employment? Who are the dead, the injured and the imprisoned?"

First Tenn. Mixed Marriage On Record

Nashville, Tenn.—Herman McDaniel, Jr., 29, Negro, and Joyce Prescott, 34, white, were married Friday, July 21, for the first time in Tennessee history since reconstruction.

Minority Pamphlet Has Families From Miss. On Iowa Farm Lands

About three months ago a church-sponsored group placed the first family of a planned group of five Negro families on an Iowa farm, says the July issue of Minority Manpower Digest.

Assisted by the inter-denominational group which meets in Grinnell, the family of seven was able to leave a $2,080 annual income situation in the Mississippi Delta area and come to a Central Iowa farm with a total salary and benefits over $4,800 a year.

A second Mississippi farm family was placed on a farm in the Greater Ft. Dodge area, the Digest goes on. Salary was $325 with a good house, beef, milk, etc. Not all such endeavors are successful. The young wife became so homesick during the first month that this family of three moved back to Mississippi late in June. Despite a shortage of skilled and experienced farm workers in Iowa and the best efforts by co-workers only some families will be able to accomplish the transition.

Pres. Asks Action On U.S. Rebellions

Washington, D.C. (Special) — President Lyndon B. Johnson in a press conference last Tuesday called again for action on "more employment opportunities that are equal, better schools, better recreation areas, better living accommodations, and better housing" as the basic answer to riots.

Questioned on the Newark riot, the President cited the efforts of the Administration to get Congress to support and fund programs to help the cities.

President Johnson indicated that until basic improvements are made that are meaningful to the rank and file in the ghettos disturbances are likely to continue.

"We can't correct it in a day or a year or a decade. But we are trying at this end of the line as best we can—in rent supplements, model cities, poverty, education."

Mrs. Mermon Walker Poses for Painting on Display in Des Moines

A familiar Des Moines resident's picture is hanging in the lobby of the Ft. Des Moines Hotel.

The portrait is that of Mrs. Mermon Walker, of 310 Indiana, one of several portraits there. Mrs. Walker posed in the spring for the members of the Associated Artists of Iowa at the Des Moines Art Center.

Artist of the painting is Mrs. C. Chaney Rosenbaum, who said she intended for the painting to be of a "person with spirit." Name is "Waiting for Church."

Displayed

Earlier this spring Mrs. Walker's depiction was displayed at the Grace Methodist Church Show.

"Waiting for Church" has been at Ft. Des Moines for about three weeks, one of several paintings by the AAI to be displayed around the city.

Another painting of Mrs. Walker will be exhibited at this year's Iowa State Fair.

Broker Asks Money From Each Family To Buy Shares In Corps.

Newark, N.J. — "The American Negro must lift himself up by his purse straps if he would attain meaningful participation in American life," declared Norman L. McGhee investment Broker and panelist at National Conference on Black Power held here this week.

According to McGhee's plan, each of the eight million Negro families in the nation would be urged to set aside thirty cents from their daily earnings and provide for the investment of a minimum of $100 each year in acquiring shares in the principal industrial and financial corporations of the nation. This would provide some $800 million each year for this purpose.

Dr. Nabrit to Retire as Howard University Head

Washington, D.C. — Howard University President James Marion Nabrit, Jr. July 10 announced his pending retirement as head of the nation's largest predominantly Negro

The Atlanta-born educator and constitutional lawyer has served as president of Howard since July 1, 1960. He joined the faculty of the Howard School of Law in 1936.

Dr. Nabrit, who leaves on a month-long tour of seven South American countries later this week, said he will spend his future years traveling and writing.

NEWS In A Nutshell

New York — For the fourth consecutive year the F. W. Woolworth Co., supplemented its regular contribution to the United Negro College Fund. The company made a regular contribution of $5,000 and a supplemental gift of $2,000. It was the 22nd consecutive year Woolworth has supported UNCF with an annual gift.

New York N.Y. — The Rev. Bruce Hilton, former director of Interpretation of the National Council of Churches' Delta Ministry, has been named director of the National Council of Churches. Hilton assumes his new post Aug. 1.

New York, N.Y. — The United Negro College Fund today distributed $2 million to its member colleges and universities, it was announced by Dr. Stephen J. Wright, the Fund's president. The money will be used to help construct campus buildings and renovate obsolete structures.

Washington, D.C. — How much and what kind of housing does your community need? Local Officials, planners and others are concerned with their local housing supply will fine standards to help them evaluate community housing needs in Urban Housing Market Analysis, a booklet just published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Northwestern Bell Plans Fluor Cables

Northwestern Bell has begun work placing underground telephone cable along Fluor Drive. Loy Brooks, district manager for the company, announced that the project will involve the placement of about 14,000 feet of conduit. The conduit will carry a total of 21,000 feet of underground cable the length of the expressway with a lateral section to the Airport.

Maury Wills Unhappy At Shift To Third?

New York — Former National League All-Star shortstop Maury Wills of the Pittsburgh Pirates has given indications that he is unhappy at his shift to third base with the Bucs, according to an interview appearing in the current issue of Sport Magazine.

The interviewer, sportswriter Jerome Holtzman, asked Wills if he thought his new teammate, Gene Alley, was the best defensive shortstop in the league last season.

"I was a shortstop last year," answered Wills. "Why should you ask a question like that?"

Don't Bug

When Holtzman suggested that Wills might still be playing shortstop if he had been traded to another team, Wills answered curtly: "Don't bug me like that!"

Concerning his adjustment to third, the former Dodger star explained the difference between the positions. "The ball comes off the bat quicker," says Maury. "It's your initial movement that's important. You don't have to be fast, but you must be quick."

Ricocheting Vehicle Hits Three Parked Cars Then Flips Over on Own Top

A Des Moines father of seven was killed Sunday morning after the truck he was driving collided into several parked cars.

Fatally injured was Robert B. Ewing, 45, of 647 27th street, whose dump truck went out of control about 2:43 a.m. at 16th and Center sts., ran into a parked car and skidded broad-ways.

Police said the truck then hit a car, swerved across the street and slammed into another parked car, pushing it into the rear of yet another car.

Ewing's truck then tilted over and landed on its top.

He was taken to Broadlawn Polk County Hospital and approximately five hours later died.

Services

Services were held for him today (Thursday) at New Jerusalem Church of God in Christ, with Bishop op E. A. Tindrell officiating. Burial was in Glendale Cemetery.

Born in 1922 in Boone, Ia., home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ewing, Robert had lived here over twenty years. He was a pressroom operator at Western Tool and Stamping, was a veteran of World War II and attended Drake University.

Survivors

Survivors include his wife, Mary; two daughters, Stacy and Mrs. Dwayne Evans; five sons, Robert, Jr., James, John, Douglas and Dennis, all of Des Moines; a sister, Mrs. Evelyn De Patton of the city; four brothers, Edward, Jr., of Anchorage, Alaska, Curtis C. of Minneapolis, Paul S. of Detroit, and Jon B. of Washington, D. C.; grandfather, Harry H. Shepherd of Des Moines; and two grandchildren.

This is the second time within six months that tragedy had hit the Ewing family. Son Douglas was injured by a cherry bomb after he lit it in his bedroom.

Davenport Citizens Tell Mayor to Help with Rats

Davenport — The Davenport Branch NAACP last week asked Mayor John H. Jebens to lend support to the "Rat Extermination Act of 1967."

In a letter, the NAACP wrote that "many in the city are not aware of the acute rat problem that plagues a substantial portion of Davenporters. Certainly it is true that the poor and the minorities are the citizen groups most knowledgeable about the enormity of the rat problem."

"The fact that many preschool children from the older areas of the city identify cats and squirrels as rats is a sad commentary on our environmental sanitation program."

2300 At Annual Meet

Boston, Mass. — According to Miss Lucille Black, NAACP secretary for membership, an incomplete count showed more than 2,300 registered delegates, alternates and observers, from 50 states, and two from El Salvador, attended the sessions.

Cincinnati was unanimously chosen as the site for the Association's convention in 1970. The Association holds next year's meeting in Atlantic City, N.J., followed by the 1969 meeting in Jackson, Miss.

Atom Smasher Site Is Damned By NAACP

Boston, Mass. — The 60-member Board of Directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People charged here, Wednesday, July 12 that "the most shocking example of wanton disregard for human rights in recent months is the decision to place the Atom Smasher at Weston, Illinois," even though the State of Illinois has steadfastly refused to pass fair housing legislation, the multi-million dollar facility is being approved for Weston, the NAACP Board said in a resolution passed here during their 58th Annual Convention.

Problems
"Winter in the poorer houses will create a number of problems, not the least of which is an increase in the rat population. The excavation of the existing sewers as part of the new sewer rehabilitation program will turn many more rats to the streets and households . . ."

Copies were also sent to Dr. J. H. Sunderbruch, Davenport Sanitary Engineer and Rex Mathews, Davenport Public Works Director.

The letter also said "Our membership asked that the executive board . . . meet with you, Dr. Sunderbruch and Rex Mathews to discuss ways in which the rat extermination program can be accelerated . . ."

Urges Honorable Peace In Viet Nam Fight

Boston—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, in its 58th annual convention here, called for "a peaceful and honorable" determination of the United States involvement in the Southeast Asia crisis.

The resolution, the first NAACP statement dealing directly with the war in Viet Nam, urged "the Administration to continue to re-examine and pursue with vigor all avenues which will lead to a just and honorable peace."

Judge Glanton to Participate In American Bar Association Annual Meeting in Honolulu

Judge Luther T. Glanton will be a panelist on "Bail Bond in Criminal

Aug. 5. In his speech, he says "Justice of citizens accused of crimes because they may not satisfy the demands of a private bondsman is one of the greatest . . . injustices in the American system of justice . . ."

Test

"It seems that the proper test of whether bond should be granted or refused is whether it is probable that the defendant will appear to take his trial." He listed four measures.

The annual meeting will draw 30,000 delegates who will hold sessions on insurance, probate law, trial judgment, bankruptcy, international law, among others.

U. S. in Thores of Racial Demonstrations Around Country; Troops on Hand

Pontiac, Mich.—Two Negroes were killed Tuesday, 17-year-old Alfred Taylor and 25-year-old Bobby Reeves in racial rebellions here. Taylor was shot to death by State Rep. Arthur J. Law, Pontiac Democrat, who ripped his 12-gauge shotgun at six black Americans after they threw a trash can through his food market's window.

Maryland

Cambridge, Md.—The Second Ward was sealed off here, an area which had held rebellions in two square blocks. Two persons were wounded. At the largest "violence" of the disturbance over nine hundred Negroes were in the streets.

Commenting before it broke out was H. Rapp Brown, who was wounded. Brown is national chairman of the Student non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee. Brown said "It's time for Cambridge to explode, baby. Black folks build America and if America don't come around, we're going to burn America down."

FBI men are now on the hunt for the young man.

legitimate grievances."

Unemployment

Meanwhile, Mrs. Irene H. Smith, president of the New Jersey state conference of the NAACP, and Miss Sally G. Carroll, Newark NAACP Branch president, charged at a news conference here that the riots were caused by unemployment, underdevelopment, poor housing, educational and recreational facilities, and continued refusal of public officials to listen to complaints from the Negro community.

During the crowded news conference, NAACP tri-state field director Phillip Savage told reporters the NAACP is helping two college professors to prepare an independent study of "Newark, What Happened Here and Why."

The NAACP officials also announced plans to launch a fund-raising drive to provide "food and clothing for destitute families" caught in the riot.

Participants in the conference included NAACP branch presidents George Rice, Montclair; Joe Benson, Patterson; Spurgeon Cameron, Plainfield; Rev. James G. Garlie, Elizabeth; and Dr. Luther Roberts, a member of the executive board of the Plainfield Branch.

A second meeting of the North Jersey NAACP branch leaders has been scheduled for July 29 at the Military Park Hotel to "develop strategy to give more attention to problems now being ignored."

Detroit, Mich.—Tension still hovers this ravaged city after blacks and whites shot, looted and killed in the wee hours of Wednesday morning. At least 27 are dead. Estimates of the damage can only be approximate.

Rochester, N.Y.—Two are dead and three are wounded here after police say black Americans stoned a public works Department truck that was watering a street to prevent auto drag racing. Negroes stoned dozens of automobiles and trucks, threw rocks through windows of businesses and hurled molotov cocktails.

New York, N.Y.—Even Puerto Ricans are getting into the spirit of things. Since early Sunday two have died, with more than 1000 policemen used to dispell the rebellion.

Toledo, Ohio—50 arrests were made here Monday night and early Tuesday after young Negroes used attacks similar to Viet Nam fighting methods.

Questions and Answers

Q—My son graduated from high school in June and has started work. If he stays home with us can we still claim him as a dependent?

A—Generally, you may not claim as a dependent anyone who earns $600 or more during the year. However, the earnings test does not apply to your child if he is under 17 years of age or is a full-time student during any part of five calendar months of the year.

You must, of course, meet the other dependency tests. This includes the requirement that you provide more than half his total support for the entire year.

Q—If I take a course in shorthand as my boss wants me to, will that be deductible? He hasn't said he would pay for it.

ber of guests at their regular meeting last Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Yvonne Stinson, whose birthday was honored, received a number of lovely gifts. Guests of the Royalites were Mr. and Mrs. N. P. King of Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Elsie Drew, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rideout, Clyde White, DeEdwin White, Howard Nelson, and Ed Williams; also Mr. Brown, husband of the hostess. The afternoon was spent playing Rummy Royal after which a lovely buffet lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Geraldine Brown.

Mrs. Mary Baker and daughters, Janice and Laura Lee, also, nephews Albert and Nathan Morgan, left last Thursday for Chicago, Ill., where they will be the guests of Mrs. Baker's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hayden.

The Sashettes had a card party Saturday night, July 22, at the home of Mrs. Elmyra Benhart, 712 Remick. Food and refreshments were served. Mrs. Juanita Newman is president.

The St. John A.M.E. Church Choir Picnic was Sunday, July 23, at Danforth Park.

A—If your employer expressly requires you take the course to retain your present position then the cost would be a deductible expense. Even if the course is not required by your employer the cost would still be deductible if it is necessary to improve or maintain the skills needed for your job.

Books, supplies, laboratory fees and tuition fees are covered if the course qualifies.

Q—We had to sacrifice some of our furniture for practically nothing when we moved. Can we deduct this loss?

A—NO. The law does not allow losses on the sale of personal property to be deductible.

Q—I've got asthma and the doctor says I should air condition our house. Can I deduct the costs as a medical expense?

A—If the air conditioning is recommended by a physician for the treatment of a specific condition or illness and the air conditioning is installed primarily for this reason, it is an allowable medical expense. However, only the excess of the cost over the increase in value of your house resulting from the installation of the air conditioning is an allowable expense.

To avoid any question about this expense, be sure to obtain a statement from your doctor explaining why he recommends air conditioning for you.

Q—I'm a student and am banking my summer earnings. The bank wants my tax account number. What is that?

A—This is your Social Security number. The law requires financial institutions to ask the depositor for his number and to use it when reporting to IRS the interest payments on all savings accounts earning $10 or more during the calendar year.

ON SPECIAL EXECUTION

District Court of Polk County, Iowa
STATE OF IOWA, ss.
Polk County
The Farmers and Mechanics Savings Bank of Minneapolis
VERSUS
Larry Lee Lynch and Carolyn Kay Lynch husband and wife; Mello A. Tonini, Polk County, Iowa
BY VIRTUE OF A SPECIAL EXECUTION TO ME DIRECTED, issued by the Clerk of the District Court of Polk County, Iowa, in favor of The Farmers and Mechanics Savings Bank of Minneapolis, and against In Rem, on a judgment rendered by said court on the 11th day of July A. D. 1967, wherein it was ordered, adjudged and decreed that the following described property be sold to satisfy said judgment to-wit:

The South Seventy-two and Seventy-seven Hundredths (S 72.77) feet of the North One Hundred Forty-four and Seventy-seven Hundredths (N 144.77) feet of the West One-half (W 1/2) of Lot One (1), (Known as Tallmadge's Subdivision) in the Sub-Division of the South One-half (S 1/2) of the Northeast Quarter (NE 1/4) of Section Fifteen (15), Township Seventy-eight (78) North, Range Twenty-four (24), West of the 5th P.M., of the City of Des Moines, Iowa, and in and forming a part of the City of Des Moines, Iowa.

NOW, THEREFORE, public notice is hereby given that unless the said defendants appear at my office in Des Moines, on or before the 25th day of August A.D. 1967, at ten o'clock A.M. of said day, at which time said above described property is hereby advertised to be sold, and pay off the amount of said debt, with interest and costs, I will sell said property, or sufficient thereof to satisfy said debt, with interest and costs, at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the east front door of the Court House, in Des Moines, Iowa, for cash in hand to pay off said debt.

JERRY TOMLINSON, Ph.D., a Drake University psychologist, was discussed the other evening. "He is brilliant and not boring. He is not impressed with himself. He doesn't talk about his family; doesn't talk about himself. Just talks about his subject! Four of his current 15 member class (meets 10:50 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.) waited one year to get into the class and are enjoying every minute of it!" This is given verbatim, folks!

Dr. Tomlinson, is a quad-chiz a construct? Was told to ask you, Sir! ANDERSON J. OWENS, a prominent Chicago, Ill. realtor, accompanied by his wife and son, "A.J.," are visiting in Des Moines this week. "Owens," as he is called by his friends, formerly operated Chicago's Golden Dolphin, one of Chicago's first go-go clubs. It sits on an acre of land, is three stories high. He knows our Atty. George Crank, who, he says, is legal counselor for the Dearborn Real Estate Board. Mrs. Owens, a former teacher, is an Illinois tax examiner—has to do with alcohol and tobacco taxes! The Owenss, while here, are houseguests of Mr. Owens' brother, and his family, the Franklin Owens, Sr.

EVER DREAMED that your dad owned a night club and you were allowed to just be around? "A.J." Owens doesn't bother with dreaming. With him this was a reality at the Golden Dolphin. Among the leading entertainers he has met are Lionel Hampton, Duke Ellington, Quincy Jones, The Ramsey Lewis Trio and naturally the local talent. "A.J." is a quarterback on De LaSalle High VELMA (VEE) AND LOWELL COOPER house not only their own brood but a gold fish, a 3 month old alligator, and a 2 month old piranha, named Tony, and three turtles bearing the lone name, Touche! Tony's teeth are so sharp that they can "easily tear apart even large animals with leathery hides, such as crocodiles", I read in her World Book; this menagerie, plus the kids, plus Project Head Start's publication, Tele Hope. Each agency sponsoring a Head Start Program has a column: Travelers Aid, all of Des Moines Opportunity Centers, every Head Start Class is represented; there are Wanted, Thank You, and Kiddies columns, an Editorial Page, a Vee Says column, and an occasional Exclusive. What else? Goodness! This is enough!

MR. AND MRS. J. B. MORRIS, SR. "are superb dancers" said one. And this I have been told again and now again. "They glide like they have magnets in their feet!" was the added comment.

HEALTH FOR ALL

If long-term illness strikes, its physical effects may or may not be painful to bear. But the chronically ill are often faced with another kind of ordeal, as painful in its way as the physical: while work is impossible, where is the money to come from?

Nowadays there is, happily an answer to that question. It's an answer which, if not complete, is nevertheless substantial. It can make the difference between deep gloom and comforting reassurance when chronic illness looms.

Disabled

Although the fact isn't as widely known as it should be, people who are disabled for a year or longer through mental or physical impairment—whether caused by accident or illness—are eligible for social security benefits regardless of age. Payment of benefits begins after six full months of disability, if the patient can show reasonable evidence (a doctor's statement, for example) that the impairment will last for at least a year.

To be eligible for benefits, the person must be unable to do not merely his own kind of work but any work that his age, education and experience might qualify him for. In most cases, he would need to have social security work credits for at least five of the ten years before disability began.

Entitled

Age has nothing to do with it. If the person qualifies, he is entitled to the same benefits as are normally Reunion After 12 Yrs.

Harry R. Parker, his wife, Ora Lee and daughter, Collette, of Los Angeles, Calif., arrived in the city recently to happily visit his parents, friends, and other relatives after an absence of twelve years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Parker of 1326 DeWolf street had not seen their son since he enlisted in the U.S. Navy when he was 16. After receiving an honorable discharge, he married and settled in California.

While here, he enjoyed seeing his oldest and youngest sisters, Mrs. Betty McAliley, 1414 Goddard Court and Loulyn.

A family picnic in honor of Harry was held in the backyard of his parents' home, with over 78 relatives present. Those from out of town were his uncle, Mack Lyles, of Studentville, Ohio; cousin, Claudette Brooks, Rantoul, Ill., who had been visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Lawrence at the time of Harry's arrival; Mrs. Elaine Brooks, and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Saunderson, of Ottumwa.

Many courtesies were shown the California family as Mr. Parker renewed acquaintances.

Also entertained with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parker was Dorothy Watts, of Rockford, Ill., an overnight guest, who planned to take back home her mother, Mrs. Maire Miller.

The Parkers motored back to Los Angeles, arriving July 17.

Ideal Snack

Prune Oat Bread and Cottage Cheese

"You never outgrow your need for cereal and milk." This is the theme of the Fourth Annual Spring Cereal and Milk Festival sponsored jointly by the Cereal Institute and the American Dairy Association to promote the food value of cereal and milk.

Is the cereal and milk serving a nutritional bargain? Yes, an average serving of cereal and milk costs less than five cents. The cereal and milk serving provides top-quality protein, quickly available food energy, essential B-complex vitamins, and important minerals.

The use of cereal and milk need not be limited to breakfast. A bowl of cereal and milk makes an inexpensive, readily digestible snack. Prune Oat Bread with cottage cheese is another way to include the nutritious goodness of cereal and milk in the daily diet.

Prune Oat Bread
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 cup sugar
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups coarsely ground ready-to-eat oat cereal*
1 1/2 cups buttermilk or sour milk
2 tablespoons melted fat
1 cup diced, drained cooked prunes
1/2 cup chopped nuts

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, soda, and salt. Add ready-to-eat oat cereal and mix thoroughly. Combine buttermilk with slightly cooled fat. (To make sweet milk sour, add 1 tablespoon of vinegar to 1 1/2 cups of sweet milk.) Add to flour mixture with prunes and nuts, stirring just enough to moisten the dry ingredients. (Batter should be lumpy.) Put into well-greased loaf pan, 9 x 5 x 3 inches. Place extra halves of prunes and whole nut meats on top. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 1 hour, or until done. Turn out on rack to cool. Yield: 1 loaf.

*Three cups of ready-to-eat oat cereal (about) makes 1 1/2 cups of coarsely ground cereal. If grinder does not have a coarse plate, crush cereal with bottom of metal measuring cup. Do not use a rolling pin—the crumbs obtained are too fine.

Is peroxide needed to color unwanted gray hair?

Hair care and beauty experts know that the first traces of gray hair—even slight fading of natural color after chemical relaxing—can dull a woman's appearance and make her look older than she feels. While most women hate these premature aging effects, many are hesitant about using permanent peroxide haircoloring which may change the natural hair color while coloring gray.

Professionally-trained hairdressers know the importance of their customers' preferences when unwanted gray becomes a problem. These experts also know that Clairol created semi-permanent Loving Care® hair color lotion without peroxide... to color only the gray without changing the natural shade. They also find Loving Care blends back color faded by chemical processing. Because of its mildness, Loving Care maintains healthy looking hair and lasts through a month of shampoos.

Whatever a woman's reason for wanting Loving Care for her hair, she is always wise to consult a professional beautician. Hairdressers are equipped with a family of fine Clairol products and the training to promise each patron the loveliest and most personalized haircoloring effects every time she visits her salon. If you dislike gray, and want no peroxide, why not ask your beautician to glamorize it with Loving Care?

IF IT TAKES THE ARMY,
ENFORCE THE LAW

One speaker at the recent Black Power conference said President Johnson would lose the Negro vote if he called federal the Negro vote if he called federal Michigan. This, of course, is ridiculous for anyone who opposes the President on this basis is foolish.

After all, the President is the chief executive officer of the nation and as such has the responsibility of enforcing the law, of protecting the lives and property of all citizens. The primary responsibility to maintain law and order rests with local officials, but once the situation gets beyond their control, they have a duty to seek help from higher authority.

When President Eisenhower sent federal troops to enforce the law in Arkansas and President Kennedy did the same to enforce the law in Alabama, there were those who, even some who are calling for federal troops in riot torn areas, oppose these acts of law and order enforcement. But the action was necessary. IT IS NECESSARY NOW.

The most unfortunate part of these riots is the criminal acts displayed by burning, looting and otherwise destroying property of innocent people. The perpetrators, with the excuse of civil rights and freedom, do things here that they won't do otherwise.

There are many versions of why of these riots. None is all the case, nor will any panacea cure them all.

The Bystander believes that enforcement officers should see that every participant they can apprehend be punished. And their release should not be a bargaining condition for cessation of the riots.

Of course, here again we find a similar situation in the recent strike in New York. A condition for the settlement of the strike was that all who were in jail as a result of "riots" and violation of injunctions should be released.

If we treated all people alike, without invoking numerous exceptions, it would be a little easier to make everybody know that all men are created equal.

FINALLY, AFTER MORE THAN FORTY YEARS

It appears that after a lapse of forty years, Des Moines is to have a Negro fireman. (There have been only two since the turn of the century). This did not come by the orderly process of examination but after a bitter fight with one civil service commission after another.

With the advent of civil service commissions, the public had been led to expect that a candidate would be allowed full opportunity to pass the tests and if he succeeded a job would be forthcoming.

This system has worked well in most areas, national and state. It has accounted for large numbers of Negroes on the federal payroll. Local political pulls and road blocks have, in some instances, kept Negroes from passing and getting appointed or promoted.

The Bystander has known several members of the Des Moines Commission, some of whom admitted that pressure (we omit the source) has kept Negroes from passing, from being promoted. Thus, the commission succumbed to outside influence—one thing they were set up to avoid.

This job has been the work of many individuals and organizations culminating in the selection of a good subject and placing all the efforts and know how into operation by the State Civil Rights and the Des Moines Human Rights Commission.

However, the job is not finished for apparently the selection of Fonza was a compromise to let the commission off the hook and to keep their records secret. The job must not rest with Fonza but Williams too if he has or has not qualified.

Fonza has a great responsibility on his shoulders. There are those who hope he won't make the grade. There are some who hope he does and will help in the process. The men in the fire department are on the spot. Fonza need not be an Uncle Tom but should do his job well, carry his responsibility and conduct himself as just another American citizen.

The annual football game between the college all stars and the pro champions is here. The thing started back in the thirties and has really been a big thing. Capacity crowds of one hundred thousand were common. But in, say, the last ten years, the crowds have fallen off to around sixty-five and seventy thousand. Part of this is that the pros with better organizations and probably more team spirit nearly always win. Then the people see most of the stars on television now and it isn't a big thing.

Glamour

But if you have ever sat in one of those crowds at the games and caught the spirit and seen the glamour that can't be shown on the screen, you will see why the game has lasted.

When the thing first started, there weren't too many Negroes on the All-Star team. But now the rosters of both clubs will contain a whole host of Negroes. We think the first Negroes to play were from UCLA. There may have been someone before them but we can't recall any. Would one give the college boys a chance against the league boys? They have speed, size and ability. If the coaches can instill that intangible thing called pride into them, the stars could win. We would still like to be there.

Tennis

Next week starts the annual Hilltop Open Tennis Meet. A fellow was saying the other day that we had so many good players that it was about time the meet took its place as one of the big ones in the state. Certainly it is one of the oldest ones. If we counted all the Hilltop Meets, including the colored ones, we would be in about over thirty meets. There may be older ones around Iowa, but not too many.

One

But do you know we have had only one Negro finalist in the Men's Singles in all those years? Seventeen of them. Pacle Williams made it against Harold McCullam and lost. We have had one doubles finalist in the Men's doubles. Those fellows from Kansas City also lost. We have done better in the Women's doubles, although we have never had an all Negro winning team yet. Thanks to the lady who's cleaned up our share of women's single titles and Mrs. Lean Walden helped gather a couple of mixed doubles wins.

Royal Madison goes up a veterans singles title and several people question his age, forgetting how healthy a forty first year-old man can get around.

Oh well, we shall see what happens this year.

New Jerusalem Baby
Contest This Sun.

The 1967 New Jerusalem Baby of the Year will conclude with a special program this Sunday at 6 p.m.

Ernie Ladd: Big Man on The Houston Gridiron

Kerrville, Tex.—Ernie Ladd, mammoth Houston Oilers lineman who played his college football at Grambling, will probably remember 1966 as the year he became just another professional gragger, which can be compared roughly with reducing Mt. Everest to rubble.

Ernie played well at times, even brilliantly at times, like in the second New York game. There were, unfortunately, other games in which smaller men of inferior strength and ability sawed away at his legs and caused the flailing Gulliver to crash to earth. The man who had been four times all-AFL failed to make even the second team.

Enjoys Work

Ernie is a prideful behemoth who likes his work. When the Oilers obtained him after he played out his option at San Diego, he was expected to be the leader of a refurbished front four which was potentially the equal of any in the league.

"He was the Big Daddy," said Don Klosterman, who was instrumental in signing him originally for a San Diego, "but he didn't play like the Big Daddy. He played like the Little Sisters of the Poor."

"Ernie never got himself mentally prepared to play," Klosterman added. "He understands now what Wally Lemm wants and expects of him. I think it is a tribute to Wally and his staff that Ernie came to camp early."

The Oilers were engaged in something that closely resembled a scrimmage, except tackling wasn't allowed. You could hear Ladd's resonant voice from time to time entreating the offense to throw a little business his way.

Johnny Brunson, the super-swift running back, took a handoff and searched vainly for an escape route up the middle. As he slammed into the line, you could hear Ladd, bedeviled by a pair of double-teaming blockers, greet Brunson with, "Come on in here boy." The play gained nothing.

Weight

A writer literally ran into him in the dressing room the other day. "What you weigh, man," a rookie asked.

"I'm 287," Ladd announced proudly. "You should've seen me this time last year when I was 316."

The writer wondered why Ernie had decided to come in at a lighter weight. Ladd, turning facetious, answered in a falsetto voice tinged with an accent somewhere between Scottish and English:

"Because I am an auld mon, and when one gets ancient he shouldn't carry about so much weight."

Ernie turned off the humor as quickly as he turned it on, and his penetrating eyes took on a hard look. "I'll never play at 300 again. I'll never see 290 again. I will play this season somewhere between 275 and 280."

Teamates Convince
Willard's Return

New York — Teamates John Brodie, Dave Parke and Clark Miller were behind 49er fullback Ken Willard's decision to return to San Francisco for another season and not to quit pro football reveals an article in the current issue of Sport Magazine.

Willard, who threatened to quit if he were not traded to Baltimore or Washington for the 1967 season, had given as his reason for the ultimatum that he wanted to be near his off-season home in Richmond, Va., during the grid campaign.

Disaffection

However, the article reveals that the real reason for his disaffection with San Francisco was the team's mental approach to the game.

According to the article, quarterback Brodie had had a hunch that this was the real reason behind Willard's actions, so he got veterans Parks and Willard to travel cross-country with him for the expressed purpose of convincing the big fullback that things would be different in 1967.

Thought For Today

A lie has a forked tongue like a snake, but, unlike a reptile, it has legs.
Frank Dickson.

How Lucky You Are?

You complain about
Life's daily routine, but you don't realize how lucky you are.

Think about the war, now being fought in Viet Nam afar.

Brother, you don't know, how lucky you are.

Children running naked, hungry all along, with nothing in store.

Sickness, cancer and diseases of the heart. Death, mental disorders and such.

Are others' problems, you they never touch.

Blindness, race prosecution, jealousy and hate. Don't let these things become

Your fate. Think of that, what's important, for you to have your health,

This alone is the key to your wealth.

Don't you walk around, with that ole frown.

Smile and enjoy your life, it doesn't really go awfully far.

Then stop, look around, how

Lucky you are?
