Washington, D.C.—Clifford L. Alexander, Jr., was appointed as chairman of the Equal Opportunity Commission by President L. B. Johnson.

Johnson, who swore Alexander in in the East Room of the White House, said: "Some are barred . . . but . . . avenues to achievement remain closed to millions because they are of the 'wrong' color . . . and if I have anything to do about it in this country, we are all going to be equal in seeking a job."

Cleveland Union Woe With Too Few Negroes

Cleveland, Ohio—The Cleveland Plumbing Contractors Association last week announced that the Plumbers Union Local 55 has only one black American apprentice in the 1700 member program. Group Asks Race Name Changed: Not Colored

New York — The Phelps-Stokes Fund recently sponsored a three-day dialogue between Africans and Afro-Americans at Holly Knoll, Capahosic, Va. and called it "Conversation With Africa."

This kind of conference is a necessary first step to nationalized development of ties between Africans and black Americans.

Race Name

The conference agreed that white domination has imposed an European legacy on both groups. It found the terms "Negro" and "Colored" as names no longer acceptable. Said a participant: "Free men name themselves—dogs and slaves are named by their masters."

A similar sum is being raised as a reward for the arrest and conviction of the slayer of four-year-old Tonia Blanding who was killed in her home by rifle fire from outside.

Buffalo, N.Y.—A nationwide automatic transmissions repair firm has picked a Negro developed and operated project to screen applicants for the company's new training program.

Youth's Car Slams Into Right Side of Auto; Five Are Injured by Crash

For the third time in as many weeks a Des Moines man has been fatally injured while in a vehicle. Killed early Saturday morning was John M. Wilcots of 3520 27th street, and five other persons were hurt when the car in which Wilcots was riding was hit by another at Keo and Crocker street.

Driver of the 1965 Pontiac which held Wilcots was 32-year-old Samuel Bradley, 966 26th street, who said that he had turned left for Crocker when the right rear side of his car was hit by an auto driven by 17-year-old Darrell D. Cropp, of 687 28th street. Bradley said he thought Cropp's car was going at a high rate of speed, although accident investigator Warren Martin said that no charges as yet have been filed.

Passengers

Also injured in the 2 a.m. crash were Delores Williams, 28, of 834 16th street, rider with Mr. Bradley, and is in fair condition at Broadlawn Polk County Hospital; John I. Jackson, 30, of 1108 17th street, treated at Broadlawn for cuts and released; George L. Banks, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Banks, of 919 24th street and Edward V. Frazier III of 2717 Center street. Banks and Frazier were with Cropp, who was not injured.

Witnesses who later viewed the cars said they had been demolished, as did Martin. Mr. Wilcots, a member of Local 450 of the United Auto Workers Union, was an employee at John Deere Des Moines Works as a drill operator. A graduate of Des Moines Technical High in 1955, he had served four years in the Air Force.

Services were Wednesday at Corinthian Baptist Church, Rev. James A. Harris officiating, with burial at Glendale Cemetery. In charge were Fowler and Son Funeral Home.

Witness Tells Horror Of Slayings of Detroit Boys; Police Charged

Detroit, Mich.—Two Detroit policemen were charged Monday in the slaying of two Negro teenagers in a motel during Detroit's rebellion.

In a story from the Detroit News, that newspaper said it had located a witness who had seen two of three Negroes killed by a National Guard officer. He said that he was in his room on the second floor when two "white girls banged on my door". Robert Green, 26, was quoted as saying he let them in and told them to sit on the bed and put their hands on top of their heads. He then turned the light on and sat in the same position when the police ran into the room, fired a shot into the closet, another into the bathroom. They "herded me and the girls downstairs. There were five others—all Negroes—lined up against the wall there."

Beating

"The police just walked up and down the line and beat us. They even beat the two girls . . . I saw the National Guard officer kill two of the boys. One of them was already dead when they brought me downstairs."

Cold Blooded

Green, according to the Detroit News, called it "cold blooded murder" and said "white members of the group 'Screamed racial oaths at us.'"

Victims were Aubrey Pollard, 19;

Davenport NAACP After Rep. Schwengel on Voting

Davenport, Ia.—The Davenport Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in a letter criticized Congressman Fred Schwengel.

The branch wrote on Aug. 4 that they noted that Schwengel asked for a special congressional Committee to investigate the causes for the recent riots, pointing out that the request was made the day after President Johnson named a Committee Riot, and eight days after his "no" vote on rat legislation.

Rent

They said that "both actions followed a few weeks after your vote against rent supplement program. It is well established that slum housing conditions, garbage, rats and related sanitation problems are factors contributing to the unrest in our cities."

The Branch suggested that the Congressman ask for a Congressional investigation of local governmental agencies that "demonstrated a disregard for the laws that govern them" and "fail to take advantage of the Health and Welfare Services available to them."

Codes

Also sent to Schwengel were various Codes of Iowa on public health, in which they pinpointed specifications in inspection requested by residents, and those living in multiple dwellings.

That city's NAACP has been active in the long struggle to rid various portions of the city's rat population. In an earlier letter sent to John H. Jebens, Mayor, the branch said "The fact that many preschool children . . . identify cats and squirrels as rats is a sad commentary on our environmental sanitation program."

L.A. Mayor Supports King's Job Proposal

Los Angeles, Calif.—Mayor Sam Yorty Thursday, Aug. 3, said he has written the Rev. Martin Luther King indicating support for King's proposal to have "a great Negro employment agency to find work for the Negroes who are willing to work and who are out of work."

Yorty said the Negro employment agency "should attempt to find Negroes jobs in the places where they are accustomed to living to they will not have to migrate to unfamiliar environments."

Finds Anti-Poverty Funds Used To Finance Race Hatred School

Washington, D.C.—The chairman of the Nashville, Tenn., poverty program said Tuesday that poverty funds are paying the rent for four employees of a school that reportedly teaches Negro children to hate whites.

Protection

Fred Brooks, head of S.N.C.C. in Nashville and director of the school, stated in a television interview: "We teach kids to protect themselves. If the white man puts his hands on him, kill him before the guy gets to you. Simple as the picture of Malcolm X."

Further Checking

Meanwhile, Captain Sorace and Nashville police have engaged in a further documentation of the status of the payroll with the names of Brooks and Miss Felder, OEO-financed supplies that went to the school, and the fact that four young women employees of the school have had a telephone and their rent paid for by the federal OEO funds channeled into Nashville.

force," referring to 17 Negroes who faced a hearing in Queens Criminal Court Wednesday.

"That's Black Power. If they go on trial and they are the only black people in the courtroom, you know what kind of justice they are going to get."

Examples Shown Prove Negro Officials Ignored

Chicago, Ill.—Negro elected officials from eleven states including A. June Franklin (Dem. Polk Co.), met at the University of Chicago to come to grips with meeting their responsibility concerning the cause of the recent economic riots throughout the United States and the lack of Negro public officials' participation in the decision making process of the political power structure of both political parties in this Country.

MRS. FRANKLIN

Mrs. Franklin cited cases in which a Negro official had been treated discourteously—State Representative James Del Rio of Michigan, who had been out on the streets trying to quiet the masses; he spent the night in jail; and Sen. Mervyn M. Dymally, of the California State Legislature who had been treated roughly by police during the Watts rebellion, having not even been consulted.

She also said that in general Negro representatives were not included in policy-making conferences, or consulted, citing Gov. Hughes' trips around the state, seeing various environments in which Negroes lived. "We could have told him," she said.

Conference dates are Friday, Sept. 29-Oct. 1.

National

Thus, the National Conference of Negro Elected Officials from all levels of Government will hold a three-day conference at the University of Chicago during the last week-end in September to discuss and come to grips with the problems the Negro faces in America and try to find an avenue by which the Negro can participate in the total economic and political life of this Country.

The Honorable Percy Sutton, Borough President of Manhattan and California State Senator, Mervyn M. Dymally, were chosen Co-chairmen and Mrs. Franklin was chosen Secretary of the National Conference.

The Negro officials feel they should ban together as a forum to exchange ideas and to express all points of view on all levels of government as it affects the Negro. They also feel that heretofore, they have had no voice or have never been an intricate part of their respective parties except at election time.

This is not a third force in politics, but their goal will be to attract more Negroes into politics at all levels of government stressing the power of the vote.

Brooke

The tentative agenda includes addresses by the Honorable Edward Brooke, U.S. Senator, and Dr. Hope Franklin. Also participation by Congressmen, Diggs and Conyers of Michigan and Hawkins of California. Included will be workshops on police and local problems, elections, governmental programs, Negro Economic problems, welfare and employment, etc.

All Negro elected officials of Iowa, should contact Representative Franklin for further details of this conference.

Within the theme of the convention, "Delta Women Confront the Future—The Promise and the Potential," delegates will hear experts and hold discussions on education, foreign policy, employment and training problems, improving the status of women, practical politics and community organization.

Speakers will include The Honorable Sir John Carter, Ambassador to the U.S. from Guyana and Clarence L. Jones, first Negro elected to a seat on the New York Stock Exchange; Dr. Dorothy M. Brown, a physician who is the only Negro and woman member of the Tennessee

House of Representatives.

Other convention highlights include a special preview of the film, "To Sir With Love," and presentation (post humously) of the Mary Church Terrell Award to Philippa Schuyler.

Freeman, Commissioner, U.S. Civil Rights Commission; Dr. Samuel Westfield, Deputy Assistant Secretary for African Affairs, Department of State; Giles Kelly, Bureau of Public Affairs, Department of State; Eugene Rowan, Administrative Director, Plans for Progress; Samuel Jackson, Commissioner, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission; Miss Dorothy Height (a member of Delta), President, National Council of Negro Women.

At Iowa State Fair

A tiny log cabin church, also serving other denominations and as court house and school, is being reproduced as a permanent addition to Iowa State Fair's Heritage Village. A cross street is to be marked Washington Square, to conform to the original site.

Dubuque Methodists in 1834 built "in good plain style" that first church in Iowa at an "estimated" cost of $255.

Features of Heritage Village, at the east end of the Grand Concourse, are the totem pole, Indian village, block house, Pioneer Hall, containing an increasing display of early Iowans and, now, the church and soddy.

Mrs. Mack Carson, 964 Twenty-third St., long time employee in the fairgrounds Administration Building, will represent Charlotte Morgan, a Negro member of the Dubuque Church.

Daily services are from 11-11:12 a.m.

Iowa State Fair patrons will have their first chance to view the International Motor Contest Association's regional late model division at the Fairgrounds on Sunday night, Aug. 20.

It was a shock to us all about Neal Williams, those of us who had either gone to school at some time with him, as I did, or knew him through his widely known sports feats.

Those with whom I talked agreed that he was one of the most courteous young men around, don't let anyone tell you different. You didn't find him fighting teachers in school or running up against law—Neal had more on the ball than lots of guys his age. There aren't many Negro youths in town who have run for school office and won—president of his junior and senior high student councils, on the All-City sports team and numerous other feats.

Leadership

He left a mark on Callanan and Tech and I'm sure he was popular at the University of Iowa, where he planned to be a history teacher. But he would have gone further than that.

As far as I could tell, Neal contained several leadership qualities that generally is lacking among a lot of kids these days, and it is very, very unfortunate that his potential was knocked into oblivion by a Honda and a city sign post. But we won't forget you, Neal.

Stax

From Stax: Slim Jenkins' Place/Groovin', by Booker T. Slim Jenkins, I think, is records above the flip side. In fact, the Stax-Volt Revue album starts out with it. Glad to Do it/Double Up, C. L. Blast; I'll gladly take you back/Loving Material, the Chameles.

From Nick Zale: Drifters, Ain't it the Truth; Laura Lee, Dirty Man; Manhattens, When We're made as one; You are the man, Inez and Charlie Fox; Everybody needs Love, Gladys Knight and the Pips; Worried Dream, B. B. King; C. C. Rider, Chuck Jackson; Funky Whistler, Bill Doggett; Syl Johnson, Come on sock it to me.

I heard a record come here by James Brown been out so long I'm sure it was on the second way around. Now really. And (Washed Ashore is on the top ten in New York, to show you how long that has been out.

Shame!

You know, though, some of you should have been shot for coming to Veteran's Aud. last Tuesday the way you were dressed. You know better than that; probably you'd been barefooted, too, if you thought you could get away with it.

Mable John—wait you dog — reminds me of the lead singer of the Raylets—she's a belter, one of those mamas from way back. Listen to her, but don't fight her.

According to Billboard, on the rhythm and blues survey, Anthony and the Imperials, Supremes, Aretha Franklin and Nancy Wilson were favorites. On the campus favorites between the Beatles and some other group were the Fifth Dimensions—my yellow Ballons—two girls, four boys, I think. They're mighty clean, if you go for that kind. Next week: about the word hunkie, and other good things to eat.

EDWARD BERNARD MORRIS has just returned from Viet Nam. He is the son of Mrs. Alma Morris and Guy E. Morris, Jr. You're good news, Bernard!

GARY ELLISTON, I am told, is just back from Viet Nam. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliston. We welcome you back, Gary!

THE LEO SUBOTNIKS leave us soon for Brookings, South Dakota, where Dr. Subotnik will head South Dakota State University's Department of Psychology. He is currently with Veterans Administration here. Lenore, you all know as a long-time Willkie House Board member and public speaker on numerous occasions. They have two daughters, Maxine and Jessica. We regret losing this family. Their continued community efforts on many fronts and the beautiful friendship they extended to all shall be a great loss.

JOANNA CARTER home for the weekend visit was stunning in her "Twiggy" hair style! Joanna is enrolled at Omaha's Women's Job Corps Center, you'll recall. The daughter of Mrs. Mary Carter, Joanna is a serious lass when it comes to her career! Continued good luck, Joanna!

CAROL BETHEL left for St. Louis, Mo., to visit Jill Young whom she met at our Jack and Jill Convention. Jill was her houseguest and now it is turnabout for the two girls!

LOIS WALDEN is driving a '66 green Mustang and looking oh so fine! She's a cool tan with reddish brown hair, remember?

MAEHENRI EWING is so aglow over her recent trip to Toronto, Ontario, Canada, that she would gladly move there! Not quite believing this enthusiasm, I checked it out with Mary Hooks—the two had shared this visit there. I found matching enthusiasm. Their rich experience is worth the telling: Mary Hooks corroborated Maehenri's version to the last detail—gave it added emphasis. She says "Well we were really surprised to find Toronto so large—two million! It is spotlessly clean. All of its buildings have the newest architectural features, extremely modern. The people are friendly—an over all friendliness—this extends to the restaurants and business establishments. I felt that we were accepted as just people. It was an experience which I had never, never had before—being truly accepted. No one stared at you! You were just another person! Then there are these people we met—two wonderful Canadian families! We were there just a few days—already we have established wonderful friendships with these two families. They had us out to a cookout dinner! Even prepared a birthday cake for my son. Now they knew of his birthday only about two days prior to the time we were out there! We considered this the greatest! Our children have heard from their children and we have received correspondence—the latest came today stating that would be to visit us in April! The Ewings and our family will share these new friends." Well, folks, 'life can be beautiful' when fully shared. This story reads as it should. Acceptance is so warming. We did not actually experience these girls' Toronto vacation, but sharing the deep pleasure they derived is incapable in their telling of it! Agree?

CORRINE ADAMS' Kitty Cat Adams has just delivered another litter—first there were nine—now there are six. Guess what? She already had seven in the household from an earlier batch of kittens and now six more? It took me approximately five minutes to actually believe that Corrine now has 13 kittens! Don't rush forward. Just proceed quietly forward and ask for yours. Okay?

Favorite French Toast

French toast fried to a golden brown and served with sirup has become an American breakfast custom. As summertime accompaniment, garnish glazed pear halves with strawberries.

At an average cost of a penny a slice, bakers' enriched white bread is one of the best food buys.

It combines low cost with high nutrition, since it is an excellent source of three essential B-vitamins needed for vitality and health, and food iron for blood-building.

Toast is a "must" on the breakfast menu, but it can be varied in countless ways. French toast is delicious and quick to prepare, and has the added advantage of making use of bread which has become a little dry. Dip slices in an egg-and-milk mixture, then fry to a golden brown on both sides. Some homemakers like to sprinkle it with powdered sugar and serve it with jelly. Others prefer a topping of sirup or honey. Either way, your family will like French toast. Sausage and bacon are excellent accompaniments, as are glazed pineapple, peaches, apricots and pears.

French toast may be served for luncheon or supper dish, too, especially in sandwich form. Use such fillings as peanut butter, jelly or cream cheese. Cut sandwiches in half, then dip in egg-milk mixture and fry slowly on both sides. Serve with tossed salad and coffee.

FRENCH TOAST

8 slices enriched bread
1/2 cup milk
2 eggs, beaten
1/4 teaspoon salt

Dip slices of bread in milk, egg and salt mixture. Fry on well greased griddle or in frying pan. Serve hot with sirup. Makes 4 servings.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Can your hair be damaged from brushing, alone?

All hair becomes damaged from exposure to sun and natural elements. Certain greasy compounds and many chemicals, improperly used, also take their toll...not to mention simple attempts at beautifying the hair with any brush not made of natural bristles. The results are brittleness, breakage, dry and dull looking hair.

Your professional beautician knows how artificial bristles actually brush away a great deal of the "lubricants" of the hair that give it body, lustre and protection. And trained beauticians claim that nothing beats Clairol® condition* Beauty Pack Treatment for overcoming brittleness, dryness and breakage... leaving hair lively and easy to manage. condition* is an easy-to-work-with creme which can even be applied during a chemical straightening retouch to prevent drying of hair that has been previously relaxed. condition* is the ultimate in repairing deep-down damage. And, when time is a factor for their customers, hairdressers turn to new Clairol® Hair Dew*—the lotion conditioner that penetrates so fast many think of it as an instant conditioner. When applied regularly by your beautician, Clairol Hair Dew adds body, softens and gives a glowing new look to your hair that many friends will notice and admire.

Damage can come from using brushes with artificial bristles. But damage to every woman's hair comes from so many other causes that all human hair (including wigs) needs to be revitalized periodically. Visit your professional beautician and ask this expert to check the condition of your hair.

POLITICS IN RIOTS
ADD NO SOLUTION

Now that the riot situation has cooled a bit in the thickly populated areas, public officials and the public generally are breathing a sigh of relief hoping that no such will invade their area again.

Politics seem to enter everything that goes and riots make no exception. Public officials are accusing each other of failing to act promptly or in a manner which contributed to the fury of the riots or their continuance.

It seems natural that politicians utilize every turn of events to enhance their prestige with the voters. And it is for this reason that the public must not allow these long range debates to interfere in any way with cleaning up the mess we have allowed to be pushed on the various communities and to take steps to see that they don't happen again.

BEWARE OF SOME GOVERNMENT CHANGES

Since the legislature authorized the cities to make some changes in their system of government, petitions have been circulated by two groups seeking an election to make a change in the council-manager system we have here.

One petition has been circulated and has been presented to the council seeking a council ward system. Here, each councilman would run for a particular job including the mayor. The council might have a manager if it so desires.

Another petition is being circulated which seems to be sponsored by the Democrats and labor unions. The new law permits the city to be divided into wards from which one councilman would be elected along with two at large and the mayor seeking a particular office.

The first proposal harks back to the old ward system which, of course, has some good features. But the proponents are the group which not only defeated low cost housing in Des Moines but also conducted a campaign with vulgarity by people imported here who were past masters at it, that anything they favor must be looked upon with suspicion. For this reason we oppose it.

The second proposal has merit in that it offers better representation by all areas of the city which we don't have today. We would favor this proposal.

Present and proposed systems of government tend to discourage voters from going to the polls. Our school elections have been typical examples of poor turnouts at the polls. The city elections are moving further to that direction.

These periodic elections help the public know more about their government and tend to keep public officials on their toes for when men vote they watch.

HOW GOOD INTENTIONS
CAN GO WRONG

Testifying before a Senate Judiciary Committee, Captain John Sorace of Nashville, Tenn., swore that anti-poverty funds were being used on a project in his city that taught hate of white people by Negro youngsters.

The testimony was denied by the head of the anti-poverty program in Nashville, the Rev. J. Paschal Davis. However, upon close investigation, Rev. Davis found that Nashville Metropolitan Action Committee had been expending funds to maintain its operation.

This has constituted an embarrassment to the anti-poverty leaders. However, it does point out how such sprawling operations can get out of hand without the knowledge of the people at the top.

But the amazing part of this disclosure is its timing. Undoubtedly, the police department knew or should have known all along what was going on but made no effort to communicate this information to those who permitted the conditions to exist. It demonstrates poor cooperation between the leading forces of the city.

The school is headed by Fred Brooks, head of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

Well, our Nineteenth Hilltop tennis meet came and went in spite of the elements. The weather couldn't have acted more capriciously at any time than it did Saturday and Sunday. Saturday's morning games were rained out so the meet was moved to the new Des Moines Racket Club indoors. So a couple of us guys got out to Birdland and worked on a couple of the courts. You guessed it. Just as we got the things playable, it rained again, this time for keeps. But we managed to move along, by sending some matches out to Waveland and using the Good Park courts, down to where we could see our way out. So it happened again Sunday morning. Again we had to move to the Racket Club in order to get to the finals. By noon the courts at the park were in shape again so we went to it out there.

Just as we got down to where another hour and a half would put us through, bingo, came the rains again. So we quit until Monday. Then, as all the gear was packed and put away, the sun came out and dried off the courts again, but it was too late to do anything about it. So we finished things Monday evening, and we all thought it was a very successful meet. The players cooperated splendidly, and with the barest minimum of friction, and that is what makes any meet go off.

Pal Henry

Then, too, the fact that we had a pretty good committee in on most of the decisions helped a lot. Wonder why that wasn't tried sooner? Of course, the old standbys, Chet Williamson, Esther Myers, Cecil Brewton and the rest were always on the ball. But a young newcomer named Henry really got in there and worked like a veteran. The guy deserves special mention because he took off from work without pay to serve two days, and that makes us think he may be one of the people we are thinking about when we talk of dedicated folks.

Then the boys at the R and T must have read our column last week. This meet was covered the way we always thought it should have been covered. There was a fellow out there from the first shot until the last ball went over the net Monday night. We got some real good pictures in the morning papers, and our reporter got a byline for his Monday story. So no matter what happens from now on, we can never say again that the Register ignored us. The meet last year had more people in it, but this one was the best covered meet in a 11 the nineteen years.

What Happened

Most all of you who are interested in tennis know by now who won what. There were not too many Negroes in the field of over 150 players. The Morrow boys, Harold and Mark, reached the semifinal rounds in their divisions. Mrs. Lena Walden who makes the trip here each year from California, didn't do too well. Then she teamed up with Mrs. Myers and they nearly reached the finals in the women's doubles. Carried the finalists to three sets before bowing out. Then the Walden lady got into the mixed doubles with Ralph Whitehead and nearly reached the finals in that, too. Got licked in the semis again. Mrs. Myers teamed up with Cecil Brewton, and they had tough luck in their mixed doubles. Cecil and Royal Madison of Chicago won a match in the men's doubles, but went out in their next match.

Madison met the guy he lost to in the veterans finals last year in an earlier round this year and went down in three sets. He says he is getting tired of losing to the same guy all the time. But, Royal, this

Where Muhammed Got Gift of Gab; Trainer Tells

New York. — There is no question about whether or not Muhammad Ali can take punishment, according to Sports Illustrated this week. He can, better than anyone trainer Angelo Dundee has ever seen.

Belly

Dundee reports on his association with the champ from the time Ali was a young amateur in Louisville seeking out the good fighters to talk to, learning from every one of them as he continued to do in all of his fights as he grew and progressed. He tells of the round-about methods he had to use to teach Ali who could not take direct instruction. No rules worked, however, with the problem of stomach exercises: he didn't like them and didn't do them until after the fight with Miteff. After those body blows "he got on the table to strengthen his belly," Dundee reports.

Once, in Los Vegas in 1961, he was on a sports program with the wrestler, Gorgeous George, who talked wildly about what he was going to do in the ring. Clay got a kick out of it, then went to see the wrestling match and was impressed by the great turnout. He decided the big-mouth act might work for him, too, and after that, says Dundee, "the more he did it the bigger the show he put on."

Chinned

On the subject of Muhammad Ali's ability to take punishment, Dundee says that he wishes he could show the experts who doubt it movies of a fight with Alex Miteff and one with Sonny Banks. Miteff "like to have cut him in two" with a body punch and Banks, who was 6-2 and 210, "caught Cassius flush on the chin with a left hand and down he went, with his eyes crossed. It was a perfect punch thrown by a great puncher," says Dundee, "and I thought, now he's had it. He had a dull, glassy look going down but he hit the canvas, his eyes cleared and he bounced up again full of fight. It was fantastic. I never saw better recuperative power in any fighter. He kicked the hell out of Banks the rest of that round—the second, I think. Then he burned him down to the ground in the fourth . . . I don't know anyone ever got hit harder and came back faster and meaner."

Questions and Answers About Taxes

Q—I disagree with what your agent proposes as a result of my audit. Is there any way I can have someone else review the case without making a court case out of it? The amount involved is only several hundred dollars.

A—You should inform the examining agent that you do not agree. You take a lot of beating and has beaten a lot of good men time and time again.

Oh, yes, Henry played in the men's doubles with Dr. Johnson, and they had trouble in their match.

Missing from the sidelines with her basket of sandwiches, her gallon of iced soft drinks and her caustic comments about people's age was Kizzie Strothers who was in the hospital, but managed to make it out Monday. Hope you can make the whole meet next year, Kizzie. Tom M. Collum remembered that he used to play junior tennis against the late Harold Holt, and the McCollum family donated a three foot high men's singles trophy to be used as a traveling trophy in memory of Harold. The thing says right on it The Harold Holt Memorial trophy. Things like this keep us old fellows in the game. A wonderful gesture.

Houston, Tex. — The men below
ousted heavyweight champion Mu-elimination tournament Saturday—

Ernie Terrell, Thad Spencer, Jimmy
Ellis and Leotis Martin.

Ernie Terrell, also a rhythm and

cross. Terrell was downed momentarily.

Penalized

The Former World Boxing Associ-points for low blows in the tenth round, however.

Martin's troubles were worse than Terrell—the fight was stopped in the early minutes of the ninth round after a cut slashed by Ellis in the third round began to stream blood badly.

Ellis and Spencer go to the semi-

of the Karl Mildennert-Oscar Bona-

Q—I plan to sell some property I inherited from my grandmother.
How do I tell whether I have any profit to report?

A—The basis to use is the fair market value at the time you inherited it. If you obtain more than this value when you sell, then you will have to report the difference as income. Don't forget, however, that you may deduct expenses you have in connection with the sale to determine whether you have a gain
