U.S. Civil Rights Director Speaks to Waterloo

City's Problems In Education Not Fault of School

Waterloo — Dr. David K. Cohen, Director, Race and Education Project, of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, spoke at a luncheon here recently.

Dr. Cohen said that misconceptions and misunderstandings were not the reason why schools were segregated, but they were in some measure responsible for the slow pace of school desegregation.

Misconceptions which Dr. Cohen mentioned were that the process of education took place only between individual teachers and students, that desegregation can't work and that the major need was to improve education.

He chose Syracuse, N.Y., as an example, whose Negro population is two or three times as large as Waterloo's. One of the "best compensatory program that the country ever has seen was designed to improve achievement as the racially isolated predominantly Negro schools."

Dr. Cohen, however said that after two years, the Negro-dominated school children had not improved, "show the pattern of increasing deficiency of increasing underachievement."

Better

Then some Negro students were "absorbed in a couple of formerly all-white schools, and within eight months, while the special Syracuse school children's reading level had gained half as much in eight months, while the other group had gained nine and one-half months' reading skill."

Ronald J. James, Director of the Waterloo Commission on Human Rights said that Cohen's remarks were in the thrust of proving that Waterloo had no technological barriers to solving its schools' de facto segregation problems.

Warns Riots Should Not Block Rights

Washington, D.C. — Secretary Robert C. Weaver of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Monday, Aug. 7, warned that riots must not be allowed to block progress toward civil rights.

"There is a great danger," he told the National Association of Real Estate Brokers in San Francisco, "that in this emotional climate, we may be diverted from the fundamental efforts to rebuild and recreate our urban areas."

He added: "If we are diverted from the efforts that would eradicate the tensions, the tragedy will not be for black or white, rich or poor, central city or suburb, but a tragedy for the entire nation."

Reaping

"These eruptions represent the harvest we are reaping today from failures of many generations," he said, and he observed: "The tragic lesson of this unhappy summer, and the past few unhappy summers, is not that we have a new condition before us, but that we have old conditions that have not yet been sufficiently realized."

He cited recent Congressional decisions that "cut deeply" into the Model Cities Program, "wiped out our hopes" for expanding the Rent Supplement Program, and rejected a Rat Extermination Program without even a vote.

One Billion Dollar Suit From Newark's Searching Of Homes

Plainfield, N.J.—According to the New York Amsterdam News, a suit for $1 billion has been filed here by Afro-Americans whose homes were ransacked by the National Guard and police looking for weapons and snipers.

Named in the suit are Gov. Hughes, Mayor Addonizio, the head of the National Guard units and the chief of police.

Ku Klux Klan Said To Have More Marching

Washington, D.C. — The "sheet brother" or Ku Klux Klan, estimated at 55,000 before the Newark rebellion, has been said to be growing at an "alarming rate", not only in the South, but in northern states as well.

Work With State Dept. In Europe; Larry Welch

A Des Moines resident has been appointed to the Department of State's Foreign Service in Washington, D.C.

He is Larry T. Welch, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Welch, Sr., of 1258 10th street, Welch, an East High graduate, and a former Marine, has taken the job with the Department of State in the nation's capital. He left Wednesday, Aug. 16 to receive two months of training as a communications and records clerk in Washington, and then proceed to the Hague, Netherlands for two years work in the American Embassy in Europe.

Welch will be transferred every two years to a different country. After his first two year tenure, he may return to the States for an extended vacation.

NAACP Has Protested Welfare Payment Cut

New York — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has sharply criticized the House Ways and Means Committee for adoption of a provision calling for reduction of Federal welfare payments to states which do not reduce the number of families on relief.

Roy Wilkins, executive director, said Aug. 11 to Committee Chairman Wilbur Mills, Majority Leader Carl Albert, Minority Leader Gerald Ford and HEW Secretary John W. Gardner, NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins warned that adoption by Congress of the reduction provision "will bolster the appeal of those who now counsel destruction of a society which employs heartless tactics against a segment of the population."

Black Activists Urged To Ally With The Liberal White

Chicago, Ill. — A group of 16 national and local-community civil rights leaders, including many identified with the black power movement, Thursday urged black activists to ally with "progressive" whites in the political arena by attending the National Conference for New Politics convention here Labor Day Weekend.

Committed

"There are whites who are still committed to the struggle for freedom and justice. We feel that political alliances, without compromising one's political or organized integrity, are necessary and crucial at this point," said a letter signed by CORE chief Floyd McKissick, Georgia legislator Julian Bond, Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party leader Fannie Lou Hamer, Chicago Freedom Movement head Al Raby and 12 others.

Reluctant

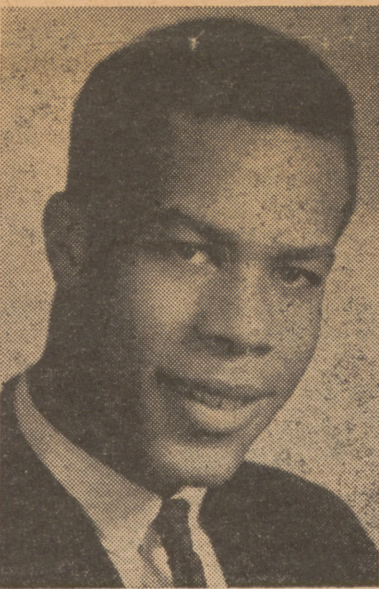

"We understand the reluctance of many to involve themselves in the political arena, especially in alliance with whites. But if we are to continue the unity and spirit begun at the Newark Black Power Conference, we must begin to use every form available to us," it said.

The letter was sent to several thousand Negro organization members, including participants at the recent Newark, N.J. Black Power Conference.

Glanton In Hawaii Urges Elimination of Bonding

Honolulu, Hawaii — "Jailing of citizens accused of crimes because they may not satisfy the demands of a private bondsman is one of the greatest sources of injustice in the American system of justice."

This was the criticism leveled at the bail bonding business by Municipal Court Judge Luther T. Glanton Jr., of Des Moines, at the annual convention of the American Bar Association.

A panelist in the American Bar Traffic seminar, Judge Glanton told his colleagues that too many corrupts make a routine practice of requiring bail bonds with little regard for whether the accused, without substantial risk, could be released to his lawyer, some other responsible person, or upon his own recognition.

Innocent

He said the system often seems to work for the profit of the bonds-

man without regard for the consequences to the hapless prisoner facing a stay in jail.

"An innocent person who is put on bond while he awaits trial is in effect regardless of his innocence. The offensiveness of this practice is multiplied when thoughtless magistrates and judges impose stiff bails for the profit of those in the bonding business," he stated.

At The Ia. State Fair

What do you know about the Iowa State Fair? "It's a place where people go to see how other people work, play and live," is the description of State Fair Board Secretary Kenneth E. Fulk. Curiosity, would you say?

Washington, D.C. — In recent testimony given before the Senate Subcommittee on housing and Urban Affairs, Dr. Nathan Wright, author of the book, Black Power and Urban Unrest, and organizer and chairman of the Newark "Black Power" Conference, praised the Percy Housing Bill, as "a wholly creative beginning toward home ownership for ghetto residents."

Washington, D.C. — President Lyndon B. Johnson announced Monday the nomination of William C. Gardner, eminent Washington lawyer, as associate judge of D.C. Court of General Sessions. This appointment marks the eighth Negro lawyer appointed by the President to a judgeship in the District of Columbia.

Washington, D.C. — Last Thursday, Republican Congressional leaders warned the Administration that its Blue-Ribbon Panel was not enough to end urban unrest in the nation's cities. Republican Representatives: George Bush of Texas, William A. Steiger of Wisconsin and William O. Colver of Kentucky proposed the creation of a Neighborhood Action Crusade—that would give local government immediate powers to help relieve tension in the cities.

Riverhead Town, N.Y. — An interracial romance between 31-year-old prostitute and 72-year-old duck farmer came to a violent end last week when the farmer's son shot both of them to death. Warner's farm came under fire after he closed the duck farm and converted the coops to dwellings for migrant workers. A total of 34 fires at the farm took the lives of six tenants before it closed.

Manhattan, N.Y. — Nathaniel J. Sims has been named assistant manager of the Chase Manhattan Bank branch. Sims joined the bank in 1953.

..New York, N.Y. — Mayor John Lindsay says he is "overjoyed" with the trend toward Afro-American ownership in Harlem and the community is beginning to see what is being done. He had attended a store opening in Harlem with Afro-American's ownership.

Sixteen Candidates To County Offices; Try For State Rep., Sheriff

Jackson, Miss. — The NAACP's concentration on voter registration in Mississippi paid off handsomely in the Democratic primaries which resulted in the election of at least 16 Negro candidates to county offices throughout the state and assured an additional 21 an opportunity to win in run-off elections.

Sustained efforts of the NAACP, under leadership of Aaron Henry, state president, and Charles Evers, state field director, contributed substantially to a ten-fold expansion of the Mississippi Negro vote from 20,000 in 1963 to some 200,000 this year.

Ross Swamped

The return of the Negro to an effective electoral role in the state overshadowed the gubernatorial and other statewide contests. In elections, Aug. 8, former Gov. Ross R. Barnett was swamped in his attempted comeback. Mr. Barnett had the endorsement of James Meredith whom he had sought to keep out of the University of Mississippi in 1962. Byron de la Beckwith, under indictment for the 1963 murder of Medgar Evers, was eliminated as a candidate for lieutenant governor.

Justice

The 16 successful Negro candidates were elected to such county offices as justice of the peace, constable, county supervisor, chancery court clerk, and county coroner. Last November a Negro was elected to a county board of education. Thus 17 Negroes will be holding elective office, the first in the state since the Reconstruction era.

Among offices for which Negroes will be candidates in run-off elections, Aug. 29, are sheriff, superintendent of education, circuit clerk and state representative.

Some 50 Negro candidates filed for various county offices in the primary election on Aug. 8.

Governor Sympathizes With Problem of Disorder

Friday, Aug. 11, Gov. Harold E. Hughes addressed the mayors, aldermen and city officials in the regular meeting of Large Cities.

The meeting, with special emphasis on riots and civil disorder, was held at Hotel Ft. Des Moines, where Hughes said that the officials met here to discuss the civil disorders that are sweeping the country, the means of preventing them, controlling them and correcting the conditions that produce them.

Unrest

He said he was sure that there was no person in the room who believed that the civil unrest that has swept many of the cities of the nation did not pose a threat for our cities as well . . . the plain fact is that the problem isn't going to "go away" unless we take constructive action to change the conditions of Negro life that are at the heart of the protest.

Hughes said that he did not anticipate serious trouble in Iowa, but "we would be derelict in our duty at this point if we were not prepared for any eventuality."

But he said that he had "unshakeable faith in the belief that the overwhelming majority of our people are decent, responsible, law-abiding, fair-minded and humane." Hughes said that "we can't go on walking on eggshells, delicately bypassing the ugly realities . . ."

Black

He referred to his controversial statement last week about employing Negroes—"The urgent need to provide jobs for Negro citizens. . . I felt it was crucial to get the point across that whatever our rationalizations are, there is color discrimination in employment, and we need to lean over backwards to make up for the century of denying Negro citizens equal opportunity in employment."

The Governor, in mentioning the employment problem in Iowa, said "that after a man 25-30 years old has been to that employment office so many times, if he wasn't black in the first place, he would be by now."

Present

Present at the meeting were Perry Hooks of the Des Moines Human Rights Commission, James Thomas of the Civil Rights Commission, Frank B. Robinson, Jr., of the Manpower Council and Cecil Reed, of the Equal Employment Security Commission.

Insurance Co. Sets Two Scholarships

Watson Powell, Jr., president of American Republic Insurance Co., has announced two four-year scholarships to Drake University, with specifications that one student be white and the other non-white.

The scholarships are open to financially needy high school grads, capable of successful college performance and interested in preparing for a career in business. Applicants may be male or female. Scholarship recipients for the fall semester at Drake will be selected from applicants received prior to Aug. 31.

Tuition

The scholarship will provide full tuition, fees and books, and each winner will receive on-the-job work experience at American Republic's national headquarters in the city.

Screening committeemen include Charles Taylor, claim examiner of the insurance company, and board members to select the scholars-hips include Kenneth Whitney, North High school teacher and track coach.

Ottumwa Pastor Visits Detroit; "Touching"

Detroit, Mich. — "It was touching, sad. Most touching was Detroit, with some of the fires still smoldering," said the Rev. Joseph Gaines, who recently returned from a tour of the country's cities which had been involved with massive rebellions. He visited Gary, Ind., Detroit, Newark, New York, and Washington, D.C.

Gaines left Des Moines Aug. 8, enroute to Hampton, Va., to deliver installation services for his brother, the Rev. Seymour Gaines.

He said of Detroit, that he heard many sides of the causes of the rebellion, but in general the persons with whom he talked felt it had been organized, since one rumor said that a certain leader could have stopped the arson and looting within five minutes if the order had come (from New York).

Church

The Ottumwa pastor said that many of the factors which exist in Detroit are also in Des Moines, but he did not specify, and also related some of the many tales which had sifted down: the Rev. C. R. Franklin, pastor of the large denomination in Detroit, had written "soul" on the side of his church, and it was spared, but after he went on the air to plead with rioters, he heard that his church would be bombed. Said Gaines, a number of devoted members stayed within the church as arsonists tossed firebombs through the windows. As soon as this was done, they tossed them back out. And the church escaped serious damage.

Another was that after a looter had stolen seven television sets, he lined them up in front of the store and went back for more. When he returned someone had taken three of them.

T.V. Chained

In this tale robbers removed liquor from many bars to give to firemen. And the story of the television set which was chained inside the store. No one was able to steal it.

According to Rev. Gaines, those persons arrested had been sent to Bell Island to spend their time. He said he stayed within the torn city two and one half days before going on.

future needs of the Des Moines School System.

"The costs of education are mounting nationally and I am aware of local burden on our taxpayers. If elected, I will conscientiously take a hard look at financial requests and at the same time work to provide equal educational opportunities for all the children of Des Moines."

Her husband is a children's doctor and blood specialist. The Spevaks have three sons, ages 13, 15, and 18. The two younger ones attend public school and the older one is 1967 Roosevelt graduate and will attend Colorado College in the fall.

King Tries For Viet Peace By Referendum

Atlanta, Ga. — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., recently announced a nationwide campaign "to give Americans an opportunity to vote on the Vietnam war — through the time honored institution of initiative by referendum."

The campaign, supported by the organization, Vietnam Summer, seeks to place anti-war referenda on initiative petitions on local and state ballots across the nation this fall and next spring. Projects are already under way in more than a dozen localities.

Cease Fire

Dr. King noted that last year in Dearborn, Mich., a referendum calling for "an immediate cease fire and withdrawal of American troops from Vietnam" received 40 per cent of the vote.

Other cities where initiative campaigns are beginning are Detroit, Ann Arbor, Mich., Newton, Mass. and Evanston, Ill.

Unemployment Falls Among Non-whites

Washington, D.C. — The unemployment rate among nonwhites dropped markedly in July at total U.S. employment pushed to an all-time high of 76.2 million, the Bureau of Labor Statistics has reported.

The nonwhite jobless rate fell to 7.2 percent from 7.8 percent in June. The rate for nonwhite workers had climbed from 7.0 to 7.7 percent between the first and second quarters of this year.

High

Despite the drop, the nonwhite unemployment rate remained about twice as high as the white rate, as it has for the past 13 years. The white rate registered 3.5 in July.

Muscatine: City With No Negro Riot Problem

By Eleanora Tate

There are, according to the 1960 Census, 168 Negroes and 20,840 whites in Muscatine, Ia. There are, according to Mrs. Evelyn L. Schauland, alderman and kindergarten teacher, no Negro clerks, salesmen, city council officials, or Negro teachers.

She said that there had once been one such rarity, but as rumor goes, the parents had not liked her, had been very vicious to the young woman. After a year, she left.

Mrs. Schauland was present at the Large Cities Meeting Friday, and one of her private wishes was to get Negro parents to come to the P. T. A. "But do you think that white people will accept them?"

"I don't know, I'll have to see," she pondered.

She said, in line to the theme of the meeting: civil disorder—that Negroes in Muscatine were not the problem. "We have good Negroes there," and she named some of the families, but added that a while back there had been a Southern Negro family who had been "bad. One of the girls even had an illegitimate child." Muscatine's problems were with the Mexicans, Indians and Puerto Ricans, Mrs. Schauland explained.

As to her job, she was asked if she ever mentioned any of America's Negro leaders. Oh yes, was her prompt answer, "George Washington Carver, on his birthday."

Leaders

Martin Luther King, Whitney Young, Booker T. Washington?

No, she replied. But she did used to read "Little Black Sambo" to the children, who loved it so. "But they made us stop doing it. And I think it was horrible. Little Black Sambo was such a dear character."

She said that she and her husband employed Negroes, or "had Negro ladies working for us. And we love them, and they love us." So Muscatine has no problem.

Screen for Nursery

A FOLDING screen is mighty handy to have in the nursery, where it can be used to keep drafts off the crib and as a shield against light, noise and activity.

Like the one in the illustration, the screen may be made in the home workshop and neatly decorated by means of decalcomanias or stencils. Panels without the nursery characters may be finished with blackboard slating material, so the pre-school child will have a place to draw.

Materials for this simple device may be obtained in any lumber yard—1 by 2-inch lumber for the framing and crossbars, Masonite

Tempered Duolux, a durable hardboard that's smooth on both sides, and the hardware. The panels, after being cut to size, are inserted in grooves which have been cut in the framing with a power saw.

The stick-on pictures are available at paint and hardware stores, which are sources also for stencils used in hand-painted work. Major paint companies make slate surfacing material, which simply is brushed on the Masonite Duolux with a brush after the panel has been prepared with two coats of clear sealer.

Stax '67 Sound Of The Year; King and Queen; Otis, Carla

Here they are, my friends—the albums that you and you alone have been waiting for. The Stax-Volt Revue albums, recorded in March, live in London and in Paris, with Otis Redding, Sam and Dave, Carla Thomas, the Mar-keys, Eddie Floyd and Booker T.

In V. 1 Booker gets bad with Green Onions, Mar-keys with Philly Dog, Floyd—his famous Knock on Wood. Sam and Dave, when something is wrong with my Baby and Hold On, Sweetheart, I'm Comin'.

The He and She of it all, the King and Queen of the Soul Call—Carla and Otis. He sings Shake. She sings Yesterday and B-a-b-y. But you got to feel the Philly-dogness of it to move.

Wait. Vol. 2—in Paris—Mr. Fl. with Something you got and But It's alright; Mr. S. and D.—Soothe me, and you got me hummin' (Remember when this was played at the Tops dance?) She—I got my mojo working, Let me be good to you (on the flipside of Hers and His "Knock on Wood").

He sings the one that send them up and down your spine—Try a Little Tenderness, and they luv it, they luv it so much they ain't never luv'd anything any more.

Wait

Wait. Take cover for the next blue lemon hailstorm—Otis Redding Live in Europe—we don't need any United Nations ambassador, we got He and She. Gets bad with Respect, Can't Turn you loose, Shake (old Sam Cooke hit), Satisfaction (puts that other group who sang it to shame), and again Try a Little Tenderness.

Wait. Albert King, Born under a bad Sign, is his theme. He's a Mississippi man—remember When I Lost my Baby and The Very Thought of You?

Confused about the MG'S and the Mar-Keys? asked Deanie Parker. Well, she set me straight last week when she knocked me over with the Stax-Volt Revue pt. 1 and 2 and the rest of the rthym and blue specials that I'm so happy about. Booker T. has got to have his "Green Onions" again, and then he adds a little Red Beans and Rice, after which he settles for a quiet game of Tic-Tac-Toe. By now it's evening, so he says, let's Hip Hug-Her, but the Mar-Keys got to go a little further with Philly Dog, and then they Grab this Thing. My oh my.

Free Album

Did you know what happened Last Night, by the Mar-Keys, an earlier hit? Well, it was Gimme some Lovin'—Booker T. Then he's gotta get saddily with Booker Loo. You right, baby, it's an Outrage, Booker T.

Not quite new on the scene, but probably to D.M., is William Bell (You Don't Miss Your Water, Til the well runs dry.) As a single and also on his album he has a bad, baad (like brother Rap) hit called Eloise (Hang onin There). His album is The Soul of Bell.

All of these albums are by Stax Records, Stax '67, the Sounds of the Year. And Don't forget it. If you can't get them here, try Stan's or try Stax, 926 E. McLemore, Memphis. Tell 'em I sent you.

Boring Thin Material
AMERICAN BUILDER, leading magazine for builders, recently disclosed a fool-proof method of boring holes in thin material. Simply place a block of wood on each side, holding the blocks together with a "C" clamp and then boring through the blocks. This method provides a clean, smooth cut with no ravel or splinters.

HEALTH FOR ALL

TB in the United States a dead letter? If so, it's the liveliest dead letter you ever saw. The annual number of new cases reported still approaches 50,000, with 8,000 deaths.

Adults are now the chief victims of tuberculosis, but a considerable number of children still do get the disease each year. When TB strikes an infant or a young child, it often develops very rapidly and becomes a serious threat to life. Vigilance, in other words, is the watchword for parents and pediatricians.

Doctors recommend a tuberculin test for every infant by the age of one. If TB infection is found, drug treatment is usually effective in preventing active disease or in curing it if it has already developed. If the test proves negative, it should be repeated every six months until the age of three. From then on, the tuberculin test should form part of an annual medical checkup.

A positive TB test should be followed promptly by a chest X-ray to find out whether there is active disease. Because most infections in children are acquired from adults, the parents and other adult associates of every infected child should be tuberculin tested and, if necessary, X-rayed and treated.

All persons who regularly come in close contact with children, such as teachers and other school personnel, baby sitters, and child nurses, should be tuberculin tested annually to find out whether they have TB infection. These measures are recommended by the U.S. Public Health Service, the National Tuberculosis Association, and your local Christmas Seal organization. If the infection of children with the TB germ can be prevented, a long step will have been accomplished toward abolishing the disease.

Super Summer Supper

Isn't it wonderful to be able to serve a quick-easy meal these hot humid nights. Especially one that is balanced, nutritious and as delicious as this Crabmeat Rice Salad. Made with packaged pre-cooked rice it requires no real "cooking" at all — good news which means you're out of the kitchen in no time at all.

Serve this hearty, flavorful salad meal to your family tonight. They'll love it, and you'll make it again and again.

Crabmeat Rice Salad
¾ cup packaged pre-cooked rice
¼ teaspoon salt
¾ cup boiling water
1 cup mayonnaise
1½ tablespoons diced pimiento
1½ teaspoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 cup (6- to 7-ounce can) crab meat, drained and flaked
1½ cups diced celery
1½ cups cooked peas
Add packaged pre-cooked rice and ¼ teaspoon salt to boiling water in saucepan. Mix just to moisten all rice. Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 13 minutes. Then uncover and let cool to room temperature.
About 1 hour before serving, combine mayonnaise, pimiento, lemon juice, 1 teaspoon salt, and the pepper, mixing well. Combine crab meat, celery, and peas in a bowl. Stir in the mayonnaise mixture. Then add the rice and mix lightly with a fork. Chill. Serve on crisp lettuce. Makes 5 or 6 servings.

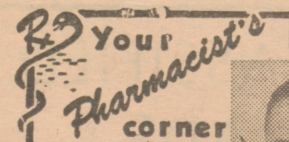

Is peroxide needed to color unwanted gray hair?

Hair care and beauty experts know that the first traces of gray hair—and even slight fading of natural color after chemical relaxing—can dull a woman's appearance and make her look older than she feels. While most women hate these premature aging effects, many are hesitant about using permanent peroxide haircoloring which may change the natural hair color while coloring gray.

Professionally-trained hairdressers know the importance of their customers' preferences when unwanted gray becomes a problem. These experts also know that Clairol created semi-permanent Loving Care® hair color lotion without peroxide... to color only the gray without changing the natural shade. They also find Loving Care blends back color faded by chemical processing. Because of its mildness, Loving Care maintains healthy looking hair and lasts through a month of shampoos. Whatever a woman's reason for wanting Loving Care for her hair, she is always wise to consult a professional beautician. Hairdressers are equipped with a family of fine Clairol products and the training to promise each patron the loveliest and most personalized haircoloring effects every time she visits her salon. If you dislike gray, and want no peroxide, why not ask your beautician to glamorize it with Loving Care?

KWDM'S SATURDAY 7:30-9 P.M. PROGRAMS open like this: "The Negro people of America have made a very significant contribution to the world's reservoir of fine music and tonight we present ingreat variety the music of those musicians who are universally recognized as among the finest in America and the world". This is the message of George W. Webber, KWDM's President and Manager. He adds that "the music is all the way from Leontyne Price to jazz. In addition we use many more Negro musicians in early all programs". There's no need to wish you the best. Mr. Webber has given it!

ACTORS' LAB of the Des Moines Community Playhouse is precisely this—a place to learn acting, directing, writing and all phases of stage techniques. Neither talent nor background are required—just an interest in learning. Experienced performers attended the planned presentations and share their knowledge and counsel at weekly sessions. The Lab is under the direction of Miriam and Larry McKeever, instructors, and Ted Kehoe, as you know, is Playhouse director.

JOAN WALKER IN TOWN for the summer was seen on stage at Actors' Lab in the title role of Miss Julie. A Vassar student, Joan is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Walker and sister of Jean, a Drake University music student.

MOST IMPORTANTLY! The Des Moines Community Playhouse has begun its annual membership drive for the eight 1967-68 productions. As the song from Fantasticks goes "Try to remember . . ."

WARREN SWANSON and his three buddies were an exciting foursome this week in a fabulous Toronto (wasn't it?) fooling the world with their hot off the press Estes Park, Colo., newspaper (?) proclaiming Warren the Winner of $10,000.00! Fun? They made typing seem most boring!

The Emotions: New Group On The Scene

There are probably many young people who have heard an amazing young group at the Julia B. Mayer Center and Willkie House without knowing their name. All they want to do is listen and dance to the beat.

You know now. Their name is the Emotions, with lead singers Cookie Martin and Clifton Slaughter, Bernie Fogal on lead guitar, Tom Trovas on rhythm guitar, Stevie Way on drums and Tom Schoonover on electric piano, with Michael Cannon substituting.

Record

History of Song

The Emotions got together in July when Fogal, a student at Drake University, scouted around for a band. Then scouring some young men, kept his eye out for a singer, who eventually became Miss Martin.

BREAKFAST IN THE BACK YARD

Sunday's the day for a "picnic morning" breakfast in your back yard. This is one of the easiest picnics to hostess, so invite some friends and neighbors to join you.

The "picnic morning" menu features toast, a favorite stand-by every morning, but for this breakfast it's toasted over a charcoal fire and there's a variety of unusual spreads to complement the flavor. Scrambled eggs are cooked on the outdoor grill, too. Have a large pitcher of fruit juice and some fresh fruit to eat out of hand, while the food is cooking.

For outdoor cooking, whether making coffee or scrambling eggs, use the same good utensils used on the kitchen range. Too many outdoor chefs use old, discarded, pots and pans for cooking over charcoal and the results are most disappointing. There's a little can be done to regulate the temperature of charcoal and so it becomes most important to rely on good utensils for best results. Use an aluminum skillet to cook the eggs; aluminum will distribute the heat evenly so the eggs cook properly without burning in spots. To keep cooking utensils from getting black over a charcoal fire, rub the outside of the pan with a mild bar soap to cover all of the surfaces. Non-stick coated interiors on aluminum utensils eliminate scrubbing and scouring food remnants. After the cooking is over they are easily cleaned in hot, soapy water.

Preparation is minimal for the breakfast picnic; the menu is simply a combination of tried and true favorites with the emphasis on flavor. Here are some suggestions:

WHIPPED CINNAMON BUTTER FOR TOAST

1 (8-ounce) carton whipped butter 1/4 teaspoons cinnamon
1/2 cup verifine sugar 12 slices bakers bread, toasted

Remove butter from carton and stir in sugar and cinnamon. Return to carton to store and serve. Spread on hot toast. Makes enough spread for 12 slices of toast.

MARMALADE BACON SPREAD

4 slices bacon 1/2 cup orange marmalade
1/2 cup butter, softened
Dice bacon and cook until crisp. Drain on paper towel. Beat softened butter and orange marmalade together. Fold in bacon. Pack into 1 pint lidded paper container. Makes 1 1/4 cups.

MUSHROOM SCRAMBLED EGGS

1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup 8 eggs, slightly beaten
2 tablespoons butter

Stir soup until smooth in a large bowl. Blend in the slightly beaten eggs. In an aluminum skillet, melt butter; pour in egg mixture. Stir eggs occasionally during cooking. Cook on charcoal grill until eggs are firm and set. Serves 4 to 6.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Can your hair be damaged from brushing, alone?

All hair becomes damaged from exposure to sun and natural elements. Certain greasy compounds and many chemicals, improperly used, also take their toll...not to mention simple attempts at beautifying the hair with any brush not made of natural bristles. The results are brittleness, breakage, dry and dull looking hair.

Your professional beautician knows how artificial bristles actually brush away a great deal of the "lubricants" of the hair that give it body, lustre and protection. And trained beauticians claim that nothing beats Clairol® condition® Beauty Pack Treatment for overcoming brittleness, dryness and breakage... leaving hair lively and easy to manage. condition® is an easy-to-work-with creme which can even be applied during a chemical straightening retouch to prevent drying of hair that has been previously relaxed. condition® is the ultimate in repairing deep-down damage. And, when time is a factor for their customers, hairdressers turn to new Clairol® Hair Dew®—the lotion conditioner that penetrates so fast many think of it as an instant conditioner. When applied regularly by your beautician, Clairol Hair Dew adds body, softens and gives a glowing new look to your hair that many friends will notice and admire.

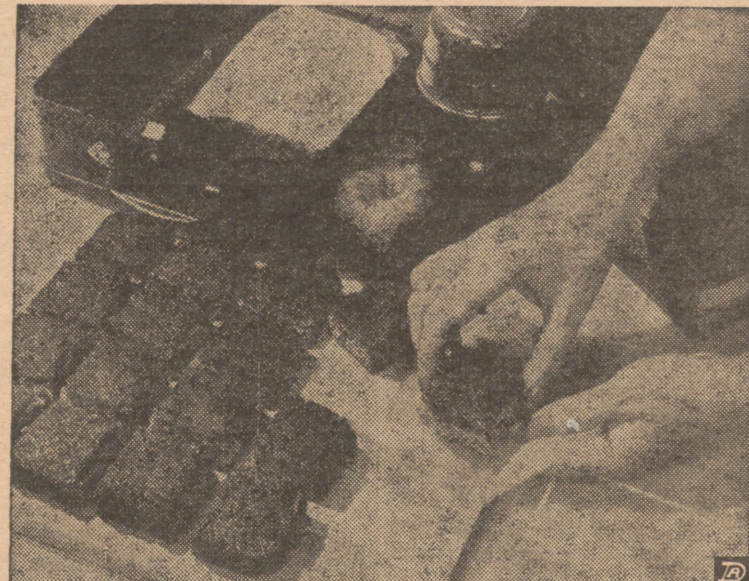

Damage can come from using brushes with artificial bristles. But damage to every woman's hair comes from so many other causes that all human hair (including wigs) needs to be revitalized periodically. Visit your professional beautician and ask this expert to check the condition of your hair.

Only your professional beautician knows the answer for sure.

SCHOOL BELL'S RINGING!

And here is a wonderfully good dessert for your child prodigy's lunch box. Easy to make, easy to pack . . . and so easy to eat! The old-time combination of molasses and coconut is a perennial favorite for old and young—have squares of this confection ready with tall glasses of milk for TV snacks. Have seconds ready, too! Offer a plate of coconut squares, with a cup of tea, to your afternoon guests or your bridge partners . . . you'll find the recipe versatile and popular.

CHEWY COCONUT SQUARES

1 cup sifted cake flour 1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon soda 1/2 cup molasses
1/2 teaspoon salt 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
3 tablespoons butter 1 cup shredded coconut

Sift flour once, measure, add soda, and salt, and sift again. Melt butter in saucepan. Remove from heat and add sugar, molasses, and vanilla, blending well. Add egg whites, stirring only enough to blend. Add flour mixture all at once and mix well. Fold in coconut. Turn into an 8x8x2-inch pan which has been lined with waxed paper and then greased. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) 40 minutes, or until done. Remove from pan and tear off paper. When cold, cut in squares. Makes 16 squares.
