H. Rap Brown Arrested, Released Under Bond 'Promoted on Color Basis' To Academy; Persians Over American Negro

Bond Is Reduced to $15,000; Rap Out

New York — H. Rap Brown, Afro-American leader of the Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee, was arrested Saturday and accused of carrying a .30-caliber semi-automatic rifle from New York to New Orleans Wednesday and in a return flight Friday.

Brown's attorney said that the gun was always in its plastic case, but Asst. U.S. Atty. Stephen E. Kaufmann said Brown had been seen carrying the automatic in Baton Rouge, La., on Thursday and also buying ammunition.

Political

Brown earlier was placed under a staggering $25,000 bond, while his attorney complained that the arrest was entirely political. However, sources say that the steep bond was due to Brown's already having been under indictment at the time of his committed offense. These sources say that the degree of the bond is up to the judge, and that the $25,000 bond was not un-ordinary, saying it is similar to the bond of habitual criminals whose bonds are higher for each offense.

Mr. Brown's offense plus his earlier indictment could send him to prison for up to five years with a $2,000 fine.

Anniversary

Brown was in New York at a news conference at which he announced the leaving to Stokely Carmichael, independent ambassador of S.N.C.C., for Hanoi. Brown called on "all black people" to celebrate Aug. 18 as Black Independence Day. Aug. 18 is the second anniversary of the start of the rebellions in the Watts district of Los Angeles.

While Brown called for Aug. 18 to be a holiday, the New York Amsterdam News mentioned African-American Day to be marked by a parade on Aug. 18, with the theme "A-50-50 chance for all New Yorkers".

He is under indictment in Maryland on charges of arson, rioting and inciting to riot.

Tuesday, however, bond was reduced to $15,000 and Brown's believers soon set up the desired amount.

As he went out, supporters in the court chattered "Black Power, Black Power."

Brown made such comments as "justice being a joke," and "If he's worried about my rifle, wait until I get my atom bomb!"

Gentry To Work With Crime Commission

Nolden Gentry, lawyer, was named to the Iowa Crime Commission last Wednesday by Gov. Harold Hughes.

Gentry will work in the Division of Crime Prevention with Bishop Gordon V. Smith, Dr. Arthur Long and Ross Bilbur.

Sen. Ed Kennedy To Speak To Democrats

Senator Edward M. Kennedy (D-Mass) will address Iowa Democrats at a $25 a plate Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner at Veterans Memorial Auditorium in Des Moines on Saturday, Oct. 7.

Clark Rasmussen, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, made the announcement Friday at a Workshop in the Hotel Fort Des Moines attended by county chairmen and party workers from all over the state.

It will be Kennedy's first official visit to Des Moines, although he made an appearance in Cedar Rapids in 1965. His brothers, Senator Robert Kennedy (D-NY) visited in Des Moines during the 1966 campaign, and the late President, John F. Kennedy, gave a major campaign speech here in 1960.

House Approves Civil Rights Bill Wed.

Washington—A bill increasing Federal penalties for assaults upon Negroes and others exercising their constitutional rights has been passed in the House of Representatives by an overwhelming vote. The bill also makes more specific the grounds for Federal prosecution.

A part of the omnibus civil rights bill, which was defeated by a Senate filibuster in 1966, the section providing protection of civil rights workers, now separated from the overall bill, was passed by the House, Aug. 16, by a vote of 326 to 93.

King George: Master Tailor Sews Up Loan

"King George" Cole, Master Tailor, was a very happy man Friday morning when the Small Business Administration approved his application for a loan. Here Cole, Mrs. Willie S. Glanton, assistant Regional Counsel and Conrad E. Lawlor, Regional Director inspects the $10,000 loan authorization.

Cole, located at 219 4th street, started out in Buffalo, N.Y. in 1932. After arriving in Des Moines in 1946, he tailored at various locations until he moved to the present shop.

Thus far, 19 Economic Opportunity Loans (I and II) have been granted, three to Negroes, including Cole.

The other two were to Ed Morton, owner of Mort's Barber Shop and Willie's Bar-B-Q, in Ottumwa, Ia., owner of which is Willie A. Nesbit.

EOL I is an expanded version of SBA's Economic Opportunity Assistance program, begun in 1964; EOL II is a new program assisting persons who have suffered from lack of opportunity and, as a result have not had the chance to compete in business on equal terms.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Washington, D.C. — The National City Bank of Cleveland has become the first member of that city's banking community to join Plans for Progress, the national voluntary equal employment opportunity program of American business. National City Bank employs 1,300 persons in its operations in the Cleveland area.

Tuskegee Institute, Ala. — Assistant secretary in the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Dr. Edward W. Brice, has been elected President of the 10,000 member Tuskegee Institute National Alumni Association.

New Orleans, La. — Winners of the 1967 national scholarship program, Young America Speaks and Acts, were announced by Mrs. Glenn C. White, 1966-67 national president of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars. First place award, $1,000 scholarship and gold medal, was presented to 18-year-old Rickie Vance Hay, Miles City, Mont., at the 54th annual national convention here.

New York — Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, has reiterated the NAACP position against anti-Semitism in light of statements on Jews and Israeli-Arab relations recently attributed to the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

Charlotte, N.C. — Harry Golden, Jewish writer, has left the Student Non-violent Co-ordinating Committee after he charged it with anti-Semitism, pro-Soviet, pro-Arab and racist line. He coupled them with the American Nazis and KKK.

Flint Mayor Out; Disgusted Over Housing Reject

Flint, Mich. — In the wake of this city's racial intensity, Mayor Floyd McCree, declaring he didn't "want to live a lie any longer," resigned last Monday after the City Commission voted down an open housing ordinance.

He said he wanted to be mayor of all the people, but he didn't "pretend that this is the way it is."

McCree, 44, had been long an advocate of open housing for all persons in Flint, 22 per cent of which is Negro. He had been America's highest-ranking Negro municipal official when the Commission appointed him by a 5-4 vote.

Conference

The Negro churchmen, a group of some 400 leaders, largely clergy, from 12 denominations across the nation, also announced plans to hold a conference with key Congressional leaders later in August at which Negro experts in urban development will join them in discussing the kind of massive development plans they believe are essential.

Newburgh, N.Y. — West Point is under attack on charges of racial discrimination.

The Newburgh NAACP Branch, in letters to President Lyndon B. Johnson, Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara, Senators Jacob Javits and Robert F. Kennedy, and Congressman John Dow of New York's 27th Congressional District, has leveled charges of discrimination at the historic military academy, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's alma mater.

Color Standard

Stating that West Point "continues to hire, promote and make military assignments on the basis of race and color," the branch claims that the United States Military Academy Band has never had a Negro member in its 150-year history. Ironically, the USMA has been able to find a "qualified" Persian (Iranian) bandsman and the Newburgh NAACP, after pointing out that less than 1 per cent of the U.S. population is Iranian, volunteered to contact Florida A and M and other Negro colleges to help them find Negro recruits.

By-passed

West Point press releases boast that "1.9 per cent of 17.6 per cent of 2400" employees are Negro white collar workers. The alert NAACP Newburgh Branch translates this to reveal that West Point employs "7 and 1/2 Negro clericals (that's less than 8!)." They further charge that although Negroes comprise 47 per cent of the custodial and cadet supply branch of the Tactical Department, they are consistently bypassed at promotion time.

"West Point was set up to reflect a cross-section of the entire United States of America. It is regrettable," Newburgh concludes, "that our oldest national military institution . . . is failing to properly represent the 11 per cent Negro population in the United States."

The letter, dated July 26, was made public here last week.

Youths Have Been on Time; OYO Will Close

As the summer project of Operation Youth Opportunity comes to an end, plans are in progress for a fall and winter OYO program, says Mrs. Kate Goldman, president of the Community Improvement, Inc.

Mrs. Goldman Monday said that letters were sent out late last week for possible job openings and this morning there were at least 25 openings ready. The fall program will strive to employ some 200-250 youths (from marginal income families) with an average salary of $50 a week.

The success of OYO was evaluated by Mrs. Goldman when she recently took a tour of the various places where the young people worked. After talking with supervisors, she said that these persons in charge were the key in the program.

In reply to criticism leveled at the fall program which might cause teenagers to quit school to work, Mrs. Goldman said that after-school jobs would help the young people "to stay in school by helping them with expenses" that the parents would not be able to give.

Sources feel that many young people will not go to school if they feel that their clothing is not in style with other children.

On Time

"Less than one-tenth of one per cent have been delinquent on their jobs," Mrs. Goldman said. And surprisingly enough, "They've been on time."

The president said that for the first time, all programs, such as Manpower, Merit Employers Council, Neighborhood Youth Corps, are working together for the betterment of individuals.

blue lemons

by a. tate

With so much confusion about the word "hunkie", blue lemons thought it would bring around the history of another colorful American word.

Way back in America a group of citizens from Africa were brought here. Interprising colonists, unsure of which appellation to give to them, gathered at a meeting in the town square to decide the issue.

"Afro" was mentioned as a starter, but since the peasants were from that continent, the colonists didn't wish to insult Africa. Especially since the peasants were now in America.

The gentlemen also tried Indian, but since Columbus had made it big with that discovery, the colonists wanted to be more imaginative. Into the meeting strode one of the better thinkers of the township, who suggested the name be derived from the French language.

History of Name

With his aid, they agreed that "noire" meant black and "garcon" meant boy, a perfect example of the average peasant, who was brown and about 30 years old. They decided to call the newcomers "noir garcon", pronounced "nwar-gar-soan," too long, so they shortened it to nwar-gar. That sounded too foreign, almost as cocky as "Afro", therefore the w and r were taken out, and an i put in to make—ni-gar, or with the help of a gentleman whose cigar kept getting in the way of his speech—nigar.

In experimenting with the new-found name, they brought in Alumbé Machuco, or Chief Machuco, as he was called by his fellow peasants. Think I'll call you nigar, would you like that?—What does it mean?—Black boy.—But I'm dark brown and 30 years old.—No, you are a nwar-gar-soan, you hear?—My good but silly friend, are you some kind of a nut?

Blue lemons, my friend. A taste of the soul juice to Mrs. Charles Curd from Michigan. Thank you. Glad you enjoyed it.

The Soul Brothers were almost dead ringers for Booker T. Saturday night at the K of C. And James Davis, that cat didn't sit out a dance, he's like a willow whip, I'm sure.

Otis Redding was selected as the world's no. one male vocalist by readers of Melody Maker mag, British publication. He ousted ole man Memphis—Elvis Presley.

Albert King—"Born Under a Bad Sign"—sang The Very Thought of You as if he were sitting out on the steps by himself in the dusk, making a song for the one he would go out and riot for. He takes his time on his new album, same name as the single, feeling you out. It's for the older blue lemons readers.

A second tour included visits to Atlanta Negro business and the six Negro colleges located in Atlanta—Spelman, Morehouse, Clarke, Morris Brown, Atlanta University and Interdenominational Theologians College. This tour ended at the beautiful new Negro owned Paschal's Motor Hotel.

Ball

Also included on the convention agenda was a tea given by the Beauticians Volunteer Core, a Get-Acquainted party held at the home of Mrs. Gladys Hardy and a Garden party at the exclusive showplace home of the Haugerbrooks.

The final social event was the Grand Ball given by the Theta Nu Sigma Sorority. The "Miss Institute" contestants from each state coupled with State Presidents for the Grand Presidents March.

Lively Discussion With "Young Am."

by eleanor E. tate

The Young Americans, who are appearing with Tennessee Ernie Ford at the Iowa State Fair, have two kooky members: Shon Vaughn (her full name is Vrzanova Delong, she says) and Ken Prymus, 21 year-old student at Long Beach State.

Miss Vaughn, an exhilarating young woman from Pasadena and Ken, were constantly but jokingly at each other's throat as they discussed their career in the 30-member tour group.

Third Negro member, Ralph Pettiford, 19, of Los Angeles, was absent from the conversation, which got merrier as the morning progressed.

Miss Vaughn was accused of being homesick, to which she agreed. She said that she missed watching television here, which goes off about 12:30 p.m. "She'd like to watch it twenty-four hours a day," said Prymus. But Miss Vaughn defended her amusement with: If there were good programs and movies on, she would watch them.

Burbank

The Young Americans return to Burbank, Calif., Sept. 6, and while out there will tape a Danny Thomas special. Prymus leaves the Young Americans this fall to sing with "The Kids Next Door," sequel to the younger group.

The only time, according to Miss Vaughn and Richard, they had felt uneasy was during a tour through the South, since Miss Vaughn was used to talking "to everyone, including the boys" and apparently some persons down there didn't take kindly to this. All three youngsters were cautioned to "watch their step."

Five Hours

Five hours of rehearsal is a great deal of work, but this is exactly

Miss Vaughn, a personable and very happy Californian, is a Senior in high school who plans to enter the nursing profession. She wants something to fall back on "when my voice gives out."

But have no qualms, Miss Vaughn or Mr. Prymus of the Young Americans: you'll be singing for a long, long time.

Effective Neighborhood aides were effective in heading off possible confrontations, thus earning from the mayor the commendation "The Community Action program here . . . was in a great degree responsible for a calmness and sensibility throughout the Negro Community some days ago (July 28) when most of the white community panicked because of rumors of riot."

Open Air Services Nearly Concluded

Bishop E. A. Tindrell's open air services are coming to an end, and he feels they are a success.

The services, which are held on Friday evening, 6:30 p.m. and concluded inside at New Jerusalem Church of God in Christ, 1198 14th street, will stop the weekend of Labor Day.

"What we were trying to do was to reach the unchurched," said Bishop Tindrell. "And I feel we have had a tangible result."

The services consist of scripture lessons and the general message. "We ad lib quite a bit."

The services at the lot on 13th and University, will begin again next spring.

New Church Of God In Christ Church Opens

About one hundred persons attended opening services of the Church of God in Christ No. 4, at 640 S.E. 28th street.

Pastor is the Elder J. Cook, who will be in charge of morning services at 11:30 a.m. each Sunday. Sunday school is at 9 a.m., Young People's Willing Workers at 6:30 p.m. and evening services at 8 p.m.

Prayer meetings are each Tuesday, 7 p.m., with services also on Thursday and Friday, 8 p.m.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Human lives are precious—not least among them your own. With minds and bankrolls attuned to the approach of another holiday weekend, the note of caution may sound dreadfully offkey. But those Monday morning reports of surf and swimming mishaps underline a simple truth that everybody knows and many forget: care and common sense in the right place at the right time can cut the drowning hazard by a big margin.

Cramps

It isn't what you do, but what you don't, that matters the most. Don't go in swimming alone; even a champ can be defeated by sudden cramps. Don't go in at all if you're overheated, tired, or recently fed. Don't dive unless you know for certain that the water is sufficiently deep and free of dangerous obstacles. Don't show off to yourself or your friends by zipping out beyond your depth.

V-Tettes, Another New Singing Group

Another young singing group who have seemed to be around for about five years are the V-Tettes, composed of 16-year-old Patricia Atkins, Marilyn Hill, also 16, and 17-year-old sister, Pauletta, all students at North High School. They made the crowd gather around Saturday night at the Knights of Columbus Hall, in an opportunity dance windup.

The V-Tettes have performed around the city, singing such songs, as Hypnotize and Any Girl in Love. They have also sung around the state, and have hopes of making a record in the near future.

The V-Tettes, all members of St. Paul A.M.E. Church, are backed up by the Soul Brothers, another swinging group on the Des Moines scene.

Nowadays it costs so much for wine, women and song that there's very little left over for luxuries.

You know what a dime is? A dollar with all the taxes taken out . . .

Someone told our friend he has a good profile, and he's been living sideways ever since . . .

Childhood is that wonderful time when all you have to do to lose weight is just bathe . . .

The meek may inherit the earth, but they probably won't find a place to park!

It's worth your while to park near Williams Pharmacy, 1103 University Avenue, Phone 243-1253 where you'll find top quality toothbrushes and toothpaste for the whole family.

depth. Don't forget that undertow; it can work quicker than your arms and legs.

So much for your own life expectancy. What about your neighbor's? (Yes, of course you're interested!) Where drowning or near drowning is a possibility it's a good idea to be up to date on artificial respiration.

Mouth

The most effective method, authorities agree, is mouth-to-mouth breathing. Clear the victim's mouth of debris, and place him on his back. Then push or pull his jaw so it juts outward, to keep the tongue from falling back and closing the air passages. Next, pinch his nostrils shut, place your mouth over his mouth, and breathe hard at the rate of about one breath every five seconds. If you prefer it, a loosely woven cloth can be placed between mouths without materially affecting the passage of air.

If results don't appear immediately, don't give up. Many lives have been saved by persistent effort. Keep trying until breath returns, or until death has been pronounced by a doctor or is evident beyond doubt.

FINDING OUT LATE
BUT WELCOME

It is agreeably interesting that during these turbulent days of racial strife, a lot of people who heretofore had no particular occasion or were not especially interested have come to understand some of the problems Negroes face in every day life.

Of course, civil rights groups have been complaining for years about some of these injustices. In fact, there are so many that resources were not available to tackle them all.

Recently, some objectors to military service have complained that there were no Negroes on the draft boards and thus are illegal. Without a frontal attack by civil rights groups, the defense department has moved to correct the situation.

Here in Iowa, we have had some boards that included Negroes. The late A. A. Alexander was chairman of draft board No. 1 during World War II and Cedar Rapids has had a member. The Iowa State draft organization is moving to correct that situation in Iowa having done so because of prodding from the national organization.

Gov. Hughes has visited a number of Iowa towns seeking first hand information concerning discrimination against Negroes by employment agencies, business and industry. Naturally, he found what he suspected and more, discrimination against women, both of which are illegal.

These problems are not new to minorities. They did not commence just recently but constitute a pattern of operation which has left Negroes unemployed or in the lower round of jobs for years.

It is encouraging that business, industry and government are moving to correct some of these injustices. Their help is welcome by all including the civil rights advocates, white and black, who have labored in the field for years and laid ground work for a fuller participation in citizenship by minorities.

DON'T KILL A GOOD MEASURE TO CORRECT ABUSES

The lower house of Congress has had before it the health, education and welfare measure which includes aid to dependent children. Considerable heat was generated during debate with southerners complaining that the program was being abused: that the money was not being spent wisely, that it helped make lazy people and that it encourages bearing children out of wedlock. The vote was 400 to 3. The measure goes to the senate for further consideration.

Many of the charges leveled at Aid to Dependent Children are true. But they don't outweigh the benefits most of these children receive which otherwise they would not get.

Rather Congress is to blame for many of the conditions of which members complain because has failed to provide safeguards that would do away with many of these objections. The program is policed but very little and consequently irresponsible recipients abuse it.

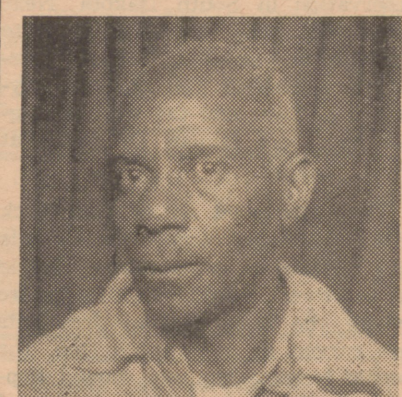

Roy Wilkins has sent a telegram to Congress expressing serious objections to the bill. And it is done because experience has shown that in some areas, Negro families do not receive the benefits at all or that they were so meager that the grants did very little.

This is born out well in the administration of the agriculture acts. Recently, Nick Kotz of the Des Moines Register made a tour of the areas and found that the Negro was left entirely out of the conduct of the program (it is in the hands of local committees) and got very little of it has failed to provide safeguards subsidies such as white farmers received.

Secretary of Agriculture Freeman toured the same areas also. But he was so hedged by powerful members of Congress from that area that he got but a slight inkling of the Negro farmers' complaint only after he was practically forced to give them a short audience.

Few laws providing benefits to any group go without some bad administration. The thing to do is correct them. But in so doing the corrective measures must not be allowed to freeze out the good features. And this is just what this overwhelming vote in the house amounted to.

The Sports Today

With Allen Ashby

We were real glad that golfer Charlie Sifford finally won a major tournament. The guy has been shooting some very good golf lately, in fact, all season, but the other fellows have just shot better, too. Still he has cashed in just about all the meets he has played in this year.

We watched the golf meets on television. Although we are not a golf lover or even a fan, we find ourselves rooting for the cigar chomping guy who always seems so alone on the course.

Time

Then we read somewhere that while he isn't exactly discriminated against the rules of appearing at a meet and time scheduled are applied to Gifford to the very letter, but as we get it, are not as strict on the other players. But it is to his credit that the fellow keeps swinging away, year after year and we would guess he makes just about a living out of the game, although this has to be his big year.

Hope he gets another title.

Hot Sept.

When we said the two league pennant races were close, we must have been thinking about the race for second place in the National League. Four games separate the second place team from the sixth place club as we write this. And in the American League six games is the spread between the top team and the sixth place position. September could be a red hot month.

The guy who talks for the Cubs says inexperience has hurt them. Well, he could be right. Maybe next year.

And with these red hot pennant races, five thousand people watched an exhibition football game last Monday night in St. Louis. And that season ain't even started yet.

Hoover Hot?

Back to our local situation again. From what we read in the papers, this new Hoover High will really hurt Roosevelt. Maybe in a few years they could be the big power in city football. Now do you suppose the city champions will automatically qualify for the next state meets in various tournaments or will they have to play them their way through?

Conyers Presents Bill
For Better Life to SCIC

Atlanta, Ga. — An omnibus bill costing $30 billion annually "to provide every American adequate employment, housing and education on a truly non-discriminatory basis," was presented last night to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference convention. Congressman John Conyers, Jr. (Dem-Michigan) described his proposed Full Opportunity Act of 1967, to be introduced in the House of Representatives next week, as "an attempt to realistically deal with the three most serious ghetto problems—jobs, housing and education."

The bill "also includes enforceable nation wide programs to eliminate once and for all racial discrimination in employment, housing, education and the administration of justice, both in the North and the South," said Conyers.

and the Rev. Anderson, assistant pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church of Cedar Rapids, Ia., who also brought the message. Rev. Perkins invoked the throne of Grace, choirs sang.

There was one added to the membership roll.

Open and shut

Opened the door of the house so early on this morning, took a walk to the lake, dove in, and for myself a beautiful swim, and cool and moist trotted back, but came upon a delicate nest of lark, or finch, of bunting or tanager, a shy bird of the morning. Stopped over it—filigreed and tender it was, old gold straws and silk thistledown, a creation striking me tender and mute—but did not see its creator or hear its song, picked a handful or varied flowers meant to be set on the kitchen table, with doors still open, bird songs pelting in, the cat peered out, children and wife remained as silent as night, still in sleep, reminding me it was a Saturday morning. Put water soundlessly in a vase, ruffled the flowers, and then shut the door to sit and think of mornings.

Appreciates IBS

I value the Iowa Bystander . . . I like the pictures with captions that tell about the accomplishments of great men and women who lived before us. I am sure the high school graduates and their parents appreciate the publicity you give them at graduating time. One likes to know about friends that one does not see too often.

Jail Won't Destroy
Ali's Boxing Career

New York — Trainer Angelo Dundee thinks even jail will not destroy Muhammad Ali's great boxing career, and he says he hopes he'll be able to train him again when the heavyweight is able to get back in the ring. He covers his experience with Ali from the Patterson fight to the present and he makes his predictions for the future.

Youth

Dundee feels that neither jail nor the psychological effects of the trials Muhammad Ali is going through will prevent a future comeback. Ali, he says, is still a year away from physical maturity—"he'll be 6'4" and 220 in fighting shape when he's grown up"—and "he would work out in a telephone booth if he had to" to keep in shape.

Old Head Boxer

"He's capable of fighting well until he's 35 years old, anyway," Dundee claims. "That would give him a good five years, under the worst circumstances, and maybe eight more if he doesn't get too hard a rap. He would come out of jail still the best fighter in the world because he's too young to lose the speed and reflexes that make him one of a kind."

Burlingtonian Is Cited For Work In Little League Play

Burlington, Ia. — Hubert Ross was cited by the Burlington Hawk-eye News as being one of the hard workers with the Little, Pony and Colt baseball leagues.

According to the Hawk-eye, Ross had a quite a background on which to draw his experience—back in the mid-40's Ross was a semi-pro pitcher in California, which paid $700 a month.

He had a chance to sign a pro contract with the Yankees in 1946, but passed it up "because the Negro had a hard way to go in pro baseball in those days."
