Father Groppi Asks Funds Withheld

Marches Continue As Mayor Speaks

Milwaukee, Wis.—Members of the Milwaukee NAACP Youth Council are continuing their month-old nightly marches for open housing in this city.

All efforts of advocates of violence to participate in the demonstrations have been consistently rejected by the young people under guidance of the Rev. James E. Groppi, the Roman Catholic priest, who is advisor to the youth council. On a network television program, Father Groppi indicated that the youth council would accept outsiders only on condition that they adhere to peaceful activity.

Turned Down

Four times the Milwaukee Board of Aldermen has turned down Alderman Vel R. Phillips' bill for an open housing ordinance. A fifth test is scheduled for an October meeting of the board.

Meanwhile, Father Groppi, testifying before the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders in Washington, D.C., called for the withholding of Federal funds from Milwaukee and other cities which continue to sustain segregation and other discrimination in housing, education and employment.

Economic Disability Forces Negro To Work

Washington—More than 2 million Americans who want full-time jobs are working only part-time. A disproportionate share of Negroes are working part-time involuntarily.

These are major conclusions of a special labor force report published in the September issue of the Department of Labor's Monthly Labor Review, based on 1966 findings.

"In 1966," the article says, "an average of 2 million employed persons were working part-time, for economic reasons beyond their control."

Problem

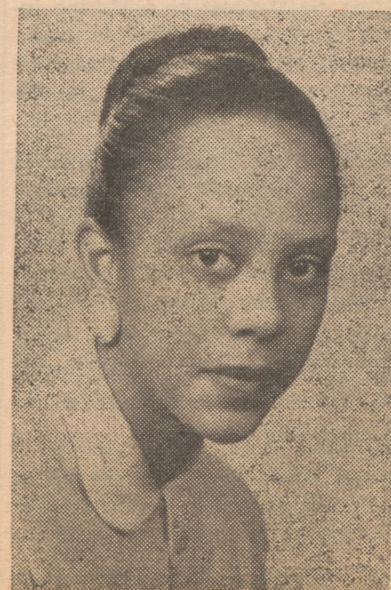

About a third were drawing adequate pay or were moving into a full-time employment, but many others, youngsters, married women and married men, face severe problems.

Thirty-one percent of those working part-time involuntarily were married men and 12 percent were separated, divorced or widowed women, many of whom headed families.

Announce Vacancy In Human Rights Comm.

The Des Moines Human Rights Commission has announced that a job vacancy exists in their Commission.

Perry Hooks, executive director, said that opening is available for a Human Relations Specialist, whose salary would run from $6,107 to $7,778 a year. The specialist would perform responsible, educational, investigative, conciliatory and public relations work in promoting human relations programs, and to assist in all phases of intergroup relations work and to do related work as required.

College

The position calls for someone with any combination equivalent to graduation from college in sociology, psychology or a related field, and one year of experience in social work, public information, intergroup relations or a closely related field.

The vacancy appeared when Samuel Stampely was named housing specialist from his former job of human relations specialist.

Louis Armstrong III Second Annual

Reno, Nev.—Louis Armstrong has been attacked with pneumonia here. The trumpet player known the world over had to cancel an engagement due to his illness.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Washington, D.C.—Religion and race workers, along with persons involved in urban church work, are meeting Sept. 27-30 for a "Workers' Conference on Church and Urban Tensions." Among speakers expected are the Rev. Andrew Young of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and Dr. Nathan Wright.

Clarksdale, Miss.—Charging that segregation and other forms of discrimination continue throughout the public and private sectors of community life in Coahoma County, of which Clarksdale is the seat, the local branch of the NAACP has resumed picketing of City Hall, the Bell Telephone Company, Sears Roebuck and several local stores.

Washington—Inadequate finances, discrimination and poor schooling seriously hinder Negro college students from pursuing graduate education.

The major findings of the report found that more than half of all graduates coming out of Negro colleges say lack of finances prevents them from entering graduate or professional schools and low family income, poorly-educated parents and broken homes are among the major barriers Negro youths must overcome to obtain a college education.

Washington, D.C.—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Robert A. Wallace Tuesday told bankers they must take "positive action" to hire Negroes in order to keep deposits of Federal money. Speaking before the American Bankers Association Convention in New York, Mr. Wallace blamed the fact that there are not many Negroes employed by banks on "following the same old recruitment practices which have become a matter of habit over a period of many years."

Cambridge, Md. — H. Rap Brown, released on $10,000 bond for transporting a gun across state lines, is under fire again. A city attorney said he has sworn out a warrant for Brown's arrest.

Washington, D.C.—Church officials from Newark, New York, and Detroit presented discussions to the national staff of the United Presbyterian Board of National Missions this month, in a session on "Black Power and Our Mission." Major presentation in the program was by the Rev. Calvin B. Marshall, pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal Church in Peekskill, New York. The Rev. Dr. Gayraud S. Wilmore, Jr., executive director of CORAR, served as moderator of the panel of speakers, which also included the Rev. Ulysses B. Blakeley of Newark and the Rev. George D. Colman of Detroit.

Newark, N.J. — Willie Wright, president of the United Afro American Association, playwright Lerol Jones and Charles Kenyatta of the Harlem Mau Maus, urged Negroes to pack the Essex County courthouse as they went on trial for inciting to riot during Newark's rebellion.

Mayor Henry Maier Hits at Father Groppi; James Thomas, Ia. Bishop Speak

The League of Iowa Municipalities' annual Conference ended with more sessions on Civil Rights and its insolent brother, disorder, than some sources feel have ever been projected before.

With the League theme "Crisis for Concerned Communities", Iowa's award winning Know Your Neighbor panel presented personal stories by six housewives: one Catholic, one Negro (Mrs. Arlene Morris); a Jew, An Anglo Saxon Protestant and a Japanese American.

Sands

Dr. Sidney Sands, Chief of Psychiatric Services at Broadlawns Polk County Hospital, analyzed prejudice—a study in paradox: "The white-robed Klansmen wearing robes of Christ on their way to a lynching—they are sane. The same businessmen who let violence come on television would winch at the sight of a bare breast." He said the paradox of who is sane, or insane came in when prejudice deprived a person of self-respect, frustration of feeling, of living on the earth. He said that frustration expressed itself in many forms: political corruption, extremism and violence.

No Miracle

"As secretary (Robert) Weaver has said, no one should lie to the people and tell them there are instant miracles. The solution to these ancient problems needs dedicated hard work by everyone."

The Milwaukee Mairer sharply lashed out at Father James Groppi, who has led countless housing marches with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in their efforts to secure a fair city housing ordinance.

"Groppi decided to march, and the curfew was put on. The little worker was hurt because he couldn't get to work, and Groppi knew it would arouse tensions."

The 49-year-old mayor then moved to the new left and right politics—"the white extremist on the one hand and the black power extremists on the other make up only .000001 per cent of the population," he yelled.

Maier later said that in his plans to strengthen the state housing law, all classes of housing would be affected, although he did not say whether the law would contain fines to strengthen the law.

"You would never know that this city has outstanding anti-poverty

Cleveland Smiley Jr. Now Sears 1st Div. Manager

28-year-old Cleveland M. Smiley, Jr., has become Sears Roebuck and Company's first Negro Division Manager at Merle Hay Plaza.

Smiley will be in charge of the boys wear department, ordering merchandise and transportation of it to its proper floor, personnel and advertising.

Smiley worked his way up to his present position from handyman in April of 1962, when he became Sears first Negro salesman in 1963. This led to his present position.

Smiley attended city college in California before moving to Des Moines.

He and his wife, Patricia Swink Smiley, and three children, Trasi, 6; Cleve, Jr., 4; and Karla, 1, reside at 1255 10th street.

Waterloo Youngsters Disrupt Dairy Congress

Waterloo, Ia.—A four night disturbance here ended in a rock-throwing incident at the National Dairy Cattle Congress Monday.

Sources say that about 25-30 youths were arrested following weekend trouble at various football games, and rock throwing at the Congress when persons leaving the show were pelted by Negro teens.

Annual

The Dairy Congress is an annual affair which one and all attend, these sources say, similar to a county fair. Police Lt. James Gunderson said that some of the youths caught were 13-16 years old and others 16-18.

The Dairy Congress is located outside of the Negro neighborhoods. One of the persons arrested was a 23-year-old youth who was described as being "awfully idle" for a number of days.

shal's Office and the Iowa Farm Safety Council in conjunction with local and state safety groups.

At a pre-determined signal, the operation will call for families in all 99 counties to evacuate their homes on signal according to exit plans made in advance.

Edited and with commentary by Gilbert Osofsky, the book is titled "The Burden of Race." It will be published by Harper and Row on Oct. 11.

The documents included in the book range from Cotton Mather's advice to the slaveholders, excerpts from John McCone's analysis of the Watts riot, the famous Morganthau report and Stokely Carmichael on "black power."

James Thomas, executive director of the State Civil Rights Commission, spoke on the "Two-way Street."

Highlighting the conference was Mayor Henry Maier of Milwaukee, Wis., whose city has been bent double

N.Y. Court Turns Down Plea To Halt Philly NAACP Branches

New York—The temporary injunction restraining the NAACP from establishing multiple branches in the city of Philadelphia has been dissolved by order of Judge Joseph A. Brust of the New York State Supreme Court, First Department.

Under this ruling, published Sept. 22, the NAACP is free to proceed with implementation of its multiple branch program in Philadelphia. Cecil B. Moore, president of the former citywide Philadelphia branch, sought to prevent implementation in Philadelphia of a plan adopted by the NAACP in 1965 to establish local units on a neighborhood basis in large cities.

Failure

Failing to secure a permanent injunction in Philadelphia, Mr. Moore filed suit in New York City, site of the Association's national office, last June. A temporary order was issued by the Court on July 7 enjoining the NAACP from "establishing other branches in Philadelphia . . . until

D. Rusk's Daughter Marries D.C. Negro

Palo Alto, Calif.—Peggy Rusk and Guy Smith, students at Stanford University, Palo Alto, were married in a quiet ceremony Thursday.

Such marriages do not ordinarily merit national coverage unless they are of national importance, as this was, for two reasons, since Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Secretary of State Dean Rusk, and that the marriage came as a surprise to the rest of the nation.

Negro

The other feature which gathered attention is that Guy is a Negro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Smith, of Washington, D. C. Guy's father has worked at the Pentagon in a $10,927 a year job. His mother has been a teacher and counselor in Washington's public schools since 1934.

A hearing is accorded the Philadelphia chapter . . . in accordance with the constitution of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People."

Southern School Is Sued for Closed Team

Tampa, Fla.—Two Negro high school students Sept. 21 asked the U.S. District Court here to enjoin Florida white and Negro athletic associations from sponsoring segregated competitions between junior and senior high school teams.

Common

It is the first suit of its kind filed by the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc.

"Segregated public school athletic games are a common practice in the entire South," said LDF Director-Counsel Jack Greenberg. "This suit aims to change that picture. Taking discrimination out of sports will be a strong force in promoting integration generally."

Against School

The LDF suit was filed against the Florida High School Activities Association, the white organization, and the Florida Inter-Scholastic Athletic Association, it Negro counterpart.

Marine Brown Is In Vietnam Mission

Vietnam—Marine Private James T. Brown, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Brown, Sr. of 1544 Maple street is in Vietnam serving with the 11th Motor Transport Battalion of the First Marine Division.

The unit is also engaged in a civic action program designed to assist the Vietnamese people in completing self-help projects, such as the building of wells, culverts, small bridges and schools.

League

SEE FRONT PAGE programs", but the mayor didn't tell the percentage of Negroes reached through the program.

Bishop Thomas

Ending the Conference Friday was Bishop James S. Thomas. "The issue," he said, "is not Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown but the unremedied conditions of American cities which no man in this room would peacefully endure today."

After all, there are 99 per cent of the Negro people who have never rioted and hope they never will... for they are human beings, not mad dogs as one angry governor called them."

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Why does some hair break off when combing?

Your hair is precious and delicate...and none of us like to see it break off for any reason. Scientists tell us that excessive use of hot combs and over-processing of hair with chemicals often are major causes of brittleness resulting in hair breakage. But hair that is naturally curly and tangles easily frequently breaks off in everyday combing. Notice how irritated your scalp becomes when you comb in contrast to the way your beautician does?

Your professional beautician knows that curly hair mats and tangles so easily that it should be softened before combing. Otherwise, unnecessary irritation to the scalp and damage to the shaft and ends of the hair occurs. To achieve this needed softening and a temporary relaxing effect that prevents breakage on all human hair (including wigs), most beauticians rely on Clairol® Hair-So-New® spray-on creme rinse. For combing ease and for beautifying your hair in many other ways, trained beauticians stock a complete family of fine Clairol products for your specific needs.

Visit your expert hairdresser, who cares about your hair care and your comfort. Whatever the nature of your hair problems, only your professional beautician knows the answer for sure.

Handy Jim's
FIXIN-UP TIPS
For Farm and Home

Enclose Laundry Tubs
STORAGE is a "must" in the laundry, but oftentimes it is makeshift and unsatisfactory. Wise homemakers can readily make a combination linen chest and laundry supply cabinet which will serve also to hide unsightly stationary tubs.

As shown in the illustration, the handyman can enclose the tubs, construct a chest of drawers next to them, and create a handy clothes sorting table on top. To do the best job from the standpoint of cost, appearance and long life, he should build a framework of 2 by 2-inch lumber and cover it with smooth Masonite Tempered Presdwood, one-quarter inch thick.

Drawer construction can be simple. Just form the framework of lumber and attach a bottom of Presdwood. Wooden slides attached to the cabinet and sides of the drawers complete that part of the project.

The lumber framework for the enclosures should be no farther than 16" apart. Swinging doors to enclose the tubs may be made, too, as illustrated, or sliding doors of Tempered Presdwood unframed, may be made. They will slide in grooves cut into the cabinet floor and upper framework.
Prime and paint the installation for the best appearance.

The only qualification for membership in our group is a sincere desire to sing . . . and an honest liking for companionship and fun.

You don't even have to be able to read music. Won't you consider joining us?

HEALTH FOR ALL

Malaria, comparatively rare but not extinct in the United States, has lately been increasing to a point where it has become the subject of frequent discussion among public health experts. About 570 cases were reported in this country in 1966, with a rate of increase so rapid that the total 1966 figure was exceeded by more than 100 in the first three months of 1967.

Up to a couple of years ago, the annual case tally amounted to 100 to 150 a year and didn't change much, according to officials at the Communicable Disease Center of the U.S. Public Health Service in Atlanta.

Carries

The new high figures, in the opinion of Dr. Hans O. Lobel, chief of the center's malaria surveillance unit, suggest that service men in Southeast Asia are being infected there and the disease "is striking from one month to a year later"—after their return to the United States. Most of the cases reported this year are, in fact, among returned members of the armed forces. The annual number of cases occurring in civilians—about 50 to 100—is the same as in earlier years.

Mosquito

Antimalarial drugs are given every week to troops serving in Southeast Asia, and they are instructed to continue taking them for eight weeks after their return home. Public health officials suspect, however, that many are ignoring these instructions, and that this may be a major cause of the increase in disease.

The malaria organism is carried by the Anopheles mosquito. Infection is a result of the insect's bite. However, the disease can also be passed on through blood transfusion.

Symptoms of malaria consist of fever, anemia, and enlargement of the spleen. The fever, occurring at intervals of one, two, or three days, is preceded by shivering and followed by sweating. In its commonest form known here, the disease can be fatal if treatment is delayed or inadequate.

LARRY LINK DIRECTS A POLITICAL SATIRE in Drama Workshop's opening fall show Saturday night, Sept. 30. The play brings you a fine cast! I just heard that Nancy Samcoe, our miniartist (Mrs. Larry Link) has joined the cast. See you at the Workshop!

MISS MANALA HENDRED, MRS. SILAS EWING AND MRS. ELOUISE WALKER were the lovely trio noted at Pajama Game the other evening! Manala was taking time out to entertain her "Mom", Mrs. Silas Ewing, before leaving for college in Sterling, Colo. And Maehemri was seeing to it that her guest, Eloise Morrow Walker—in town visiting relatives and friends—should enjoy the best, too. Hence, the choice had to be Des Moines Community Playhouse's Pajama Game. The three were pleased to see Linda Griffin's and Everett Mays', Jr. performance and described them as "marvelous".

DO YOU KNOW THAT KIZZIE STROTHERS is on hospital leave much of the time when she is seen pursuing her varied interests? Even when she is astride her Honda, at the wheel of her Falcon Futura, or really relaxing as she races about the tennis courts? She is Membership Chairman of the Licensed Practical Nurses Association of Iowa. In a recent appearance before the student body council of Des Moines' LPN School at Slinker, she discussed "We Need You". Kizzie happily reports that of a class of 64, she won 62 new members. Her goal is 100.

Seated cross-legged on her hospital bed, Kizzie cheerfully displayed a folder type get well card measuring a possible 24 by 30 inches. Eleven get well cards to be opened individually on as many days lined the two inner pages. Rev. and Mrs. Jas. Harris, representing The Inspirational Choir and Friends of Corinthian Baptist Church had performed the honor of delivering the gift. The card had been designed by Rev. Harris, a well-known artist. Bolstered by such thoughtful friends, Kizzie is waging a successful membership campaign for Iowa's Licensed Practical Nurses.

THE NEW COLLINS CLUB, AT EAST FIRST AND GRAND AVENUE is in a well-appointed spacious setting. Its manager, Willard Saunders, is a pro after some fifteen years in the business. The New Breed composed of Lew Edwards, organist and vocalist, Don Marsh, guitarist, Bob Knox, bassist, and Jerry Butler on the drums was playing the final night's performance. This I regretted because their music is fine and the players generous in their performance—giving a night of music! It couldn't be relegated to background—rather it offered continuous enjoyment and pleasure. The following noted on the Collins Club scene—

LEE HUGHES AND ALLEN SUL-LIVEN handsomely attired made one appreciate the latest in young men's dress.

BEAUTY OPERATORS GERALDINE ALLISON AND BARBARA OAKLEY were very goodlooking in the latest fashions for women. Geraldine wore a black and white striped "kite" dress which was just right for this girl! Barbara wore the suit of a brown wool three piece—outfit. A coffee colored brown, double breast brass button trimmed jacket with plain skirt, she was very smart!

JANN DAVIS, SMARTLY CLAD in a patterned two piece suit was real cool as she enjoyed the evening dancing with first one and then the other of her three escorts: Wilbert Lewis, Darrell Whiteside and her brother, Dwight Davis. Jann is a clerk-typist at Look Magazine and lives in Perry.

UNITED CAMPAIGN
FOR EVERY CITIZEN

Des Moines, like most cities over the country, is conducting its annual United Campaign for funds to operate 38 agencies engaged in the social, recreational, economic and health problems of the city.

As in the past, the general committee is composed of able business, professional and lay people who recognize the need for these facilities. They recognize further that in order for them to continue to do a good job, adequate finances must be provided.

The health facilities provided are worth all the money raised. Long before new agencies were available, united provided well baby clinics, health centers, child guidance center offering psychiatric and psychological health for those who were unable to pay for them.

These same men and the organizations with which they are affiliated contribute a large share of the funds raised each year. However, it is important that every citizen has a financial interest in this community project which serves everyone who needs these services and no one is turned away because of race, religion or lack of funds.

Most people are touched in one way or another by United Campaign facilities. And those who don't should not hesitate to give in order that some worthy person may be served.

It has been difficult to reach the quotas set in some recent years, and yet people have more money today than ever before. The quota is $2,200,000. Des Moines must continue to support this project fully so that the commitments can be met and that its service may be kept in step with modern community service organizations.

MILWAUKEE BISHOP
STANDS FAST

Milwaukee, Wis. has a large Polish population. A majority of them live in a definite area, and like in their mother country belong to the Roman Catholic church.

Generally speaking, relations with Polish and Negro people are not so good anywhere. And Milwaukee presents no different picture.

The Youth Branch of the NAACP has been conducting marches in the Polish as well as other areas demanding that the city council pass an open housing ordinance. The group is led by Father Groppi, a priest serving a parish in the Negro community. He himself is of foreign extraction. His experience as pastor of a church in a Negro area gives him an insight in the injustices these people suffer.

These Polish people protested Father Groppi's leadership in these marches and appealed to the bishop to use his authority to stop him. Responding to a group seeking the Bishop's support, he refused their request and admonished them to help remove the causes which produced the march rather than the one who leads them.

The bishop was exactly right, for here "religious" people were trying to use their religious leaders to accomplish and maintain an injustice.

To often officials in positions of leadership do not have the courage to stand up for the right in the face of the rabble or the pressure groups who throw their weight around in many instances to the detriment of good causes.

The failure of American leadership to do as this Bishop has often allowed the mean, the prejudiced, the ignorant to block the Negro from enjoying even the things the law guarantees, and this has helped create less respect for law and order. Father Groppi respects the law but he does not believe the law or anything else should be used to prevent another from enjoying his rights.

The Sports Today

With Allen Ashby

The Iowa Hawkeyes fans went home happy last weekend. But will they be as happy this time? One wonders if Texas Christian really had much since they were in the same plight as Iowa last year. Well, we called for the Hawks to win three games. Now it is one down, two to go. Who will the other victims be? We don't know, but one of them could be a surprise win.

We would have to class as the two major upsets of the day the lopsided scores rolled up against Michigan State and the beating of Miami by Northwestern. Then Alabama, the team that gets top ratings by beating a lot of straw dummies that wasn't all straw. And the Crimson Tide was tied. Now they will have to scramble to get back in the title picture.

Drake and Iowa State may be in for a couple of long seasons. The scores teams are rolling up against the Cyclones and the Bulldogs make one wonder (again). Well, maybe they will snap out of it this week.

At home

Here at home the afternoon game between Lincoln and East was about what the officials and police like. No trouble. It was a good game that ended in a 7-7 tie. So everybody got a little glory. We still don't think our local schools except maybe Dowling are going to cut much of a figure around the state.

Dowling could have the best team in the city if the Tech game is any indication. The score could have been bigger if the regulars had stayed in. This could be a big year for Dowling. North isn't going too far, either. Hoover High finally fell out of the clouds. Wonder if any Negroes are playing out there?

And, oh yes, that rumble you hear in the distance is East Waterloo with an all-veteran team and they say tougher than last year.

Baseball

And the baseball season shows no signs of a letup. The American Leagues is going probably right down to the final Sunday. Talk about pressure! Who will win? Make a guess.

There are a series of imaginary bouts being broadcast over a radio station. The bouts feature the old boxers from John L. Sullivan to Muhammad Ali. The dope is fed into the computer and the bout is made up from the answer. So far Jack Dempsey has beaten James Corbett who fought in the last days of the 1890's. This week it was Joe Louis and Jack Sharkey. Now may we remind you that Joe Louis did knockout Sharkey when Louis was champion. Our friend calls the whole thing an elaborate scheme to declare Jack Dempsey the greatest fighter of all times and our friend insists that Jack Johnson was. Maybe he's right on both counts.

Do's And Don'ts

Iowa Wins Over Tex.
Christian; 24-9

Texas Christian University was in for a surprise Saturday when the Hawkeyes from the University of Iowa stomped them, 24-9.

Silas McKinnie, senior offensive tailback, was second in individual rushing to Ed Polalack, with 77 yards to his gain. McKinnie is to take over part of the Hawkeye leadership responsibilities in 1967 as the captain while Iowa is on offense.

TD

McKinnie, from Inkster, Mich., 198 pound 6 feet, one inch player, also turned in his share of scoring with a scrambling touchdown after the score was tied 3-3 on field goals.

In two seasons McKinnie has made 802 yards in 211 carries for a 3.7 average, and was Iowa's leading ground-gainer in 1965 and 1966.

According to assistant coach Bud Tynn, "McKinnie is a leader."

Men Bowling Strong
In Forty And One

James Boston rolled a 246 high game and 604 high series Monday night at Grand Bowling Lanes for the 40 and 1 Bowling League.

Second was Earl Richardson, 242; Wes Davis, 226; and Lacey Spriggs, 226, 660.

President is Elmer Tolson.

Drake Under Again;
North Tex. Beats

Drake University lost its second game of the season Saturday when they were walloped by North Texas State, 31-0 in Denton, Tex.

The Bulldogs were limited to 99 yards on offense.

Des Moines Warriors
Lost To Alabama

A one-point margin was the story of the Des Moines Warriors and the Huntsville, Ala. Hawks Saturday night at Sec Taylor Stadium. By the way, the Warrior were 13.

Next game is Oct. 7 with Joliet, Ill.

A Reader Is Heart
Broken On Wrong Done
To the Editor

I am heart broken over the fact that my people have caused so much suffering and agony of spirit for the American Negro since the time he and his people were illegally kidnapped from Africa's shores until the present time. As I was praying about this the Heavenly Father spoke about it as follows: As Queen Esther saved her nation from complete destruction by announcing a three-day-fast and prayer, so He would save our colored people from the spirit of prejudice that the white people continue to have against them if they would do as Queen Esther did. Instead of fasting three days in succession, suppose we decide upon three Sundays in succession, beginning with the second Sabbath of October.

Now, the best way to begin such a prayer is to search our own hearts, making this a day of repentance, confession of our own sins, making apologies and restitutions. This is an age of rush; arrange matters so that you will have plenty of time for prayer.

Forgive

The next step will be hard but you can make it. Refuse to retaliate; as that would only make matters worse. The Bible says, "Forgive and ye shall be forgiven."

Pray for the rioters that they may see that they are not only hurting themselves and working against their own interests, but they are bringing into disrepute the multiplied thousands of fine, respectable, law-abiding colored citizens.

Quotable Quote From
Cmdr. Samuel Gravely

Vancouver, Wash.—Cmdr. Samuel L. Gravely, jr., 45, the first Negro ship captain in the United States Navy said his first assignment was to train Negro recruits—"that kind of assignment would never happen today", he said speaking of an assignment given him before his promotion.

Howard University was chartered in 1867, with Congressional support, by Freedmen's Bureau under General O. O. Howard. It was a rider on a bill admitting the State of Nevada into the Union
