Hand Injury Said to Have Stopped App't.

Walter Williams, whose case with the Iowa State Civil Rights Commission concerning discrimination in the appointment of a Des Moines fireman, has won a test involving the City.

The situation came up during hearings of the Civil Service Commission and the Iowa Civil Rights Commission.

WILLIAMS

sion, but Williams case was closed, finally by the Civil Service Commission, but Williams case was closed, and the Rights Commission failed to disclose reasons as to Williams case.

NAACP

The Des Moines branch NAACP had requested information as to why Williams' case was closed, and demanded that full reasons be given for the procedure. A spokesman for the NAACP during that time disclosed the case involving Williams and his suit with the city, saying that Williams had injured his hand, and as his suit was with the city, the Commission did not okay Williams.

Statement

Deputy Commissioner E. J. Giovanetti has ruled that Williams did injure his hand while working as a city garbage collector last Nov. 21, as Williams said.

Brad Morris, speaking for the NAACP said, "We are happy that the Industrial Commission has substantiated Williams' claim he was injured while on the job for the City. We felt that this was the way of the case all along, but since the matter was to be adjudicated by the Industrial Commission, comments on the merit of the case by the NAACP would not have been in order.

"We are confident that this will clear the way for Mr. Williams' appointment to the fire department."

Announce Mortgage Burning; Fr. City

The Rev. Orzelia Roberson, director of Friendship City, 925 9th street, has announced that Nov. 3 has been set aside for a "mortgage burning" and smorgasbord at that location.

The mortgage burning is due to "inhuman struggle", Rev. Roberson said, "for four years, for the public to become heir to another building". More information will be forthcoming.

NAACP Meeting Tues.

The Des Moines branch NAACP will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday, Oct. 24, 7:30 p.m. at the Willie House.

Reports from the State Conference held in Sioux City will be given, and 1967 memberships will be discussed.

Militancy Among Blacks On The White Campus; E. Dunbar

New York — A trend among Negroes in colleges to rebel against interracial conformity and reject white guidance was outlined today in a national magazine.

Ernest Dunbar, a Look senior editor, cited "the birth of 'Afro' or all black clubs and societies" as a manifestation of black militancy on campus.

Dunbar defined the change: "Time was when the occasional Negro accepted at an Ivy League school . . . worked frantically to become what he imagined was a proper college gentleman. Today, a new breed of black cat is tearing up white campuses, poking holes in some ivy-colored notions about integration and tracking Watts and Newark into fastidious halls . . ."

Cobb Is Whisked from Death; New Jury Drawn

Washington — The U.S. Supreme Court this week reversed the Georgia life sentence against Preston Cobb, a case that stirred international concern when Cobb was sentenced to death in 1961 at the age of 15.

NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF) attorneys won the case on grounds that racial discrimination was used in composing Cobb's Jasper County, Ga., jury.

Faces Retrial

The young man must still face the charge of murder; however the new jury will be drawn from an integrated panel.

LDF attorneys argued in their brief to the Supreme Court that Cobb was tried and indicted by juries from which Negroes were systematically excluded.

They added that when Negroes were included on jury lists in Jasper and Bibb Counties, Ga., it was merely token. The jury lists, the attorneys maintained, contained racial identifications.

Young Cobb was originally indicted on the charge of murder by the Jasper County grand jury in 1961. He was tried in the Superior Court that year, found guilty and sentenced to death.

That ruling was affirmed by the Supreme Court of Georgia.

Overrule Georgia Court

The Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals overruled in 1964 on the ground that Negroes had been systematically excluded from the grand jury that indicted Mr. Cobb and from the petit jury tried him.

He was reindicted by the Jasper County grand jury in February of 1965. A motion for change of venue was granted and petitioner was tried

See National Movement In Race Torn City

New York — A national movement has been developing in Detroit with accelerated momentum since the summer rebellion, according to an analysis by Grace and James Boggs in the Oct. 7 issue of the independent radical newsweekly National Guardian.

Brutality

The movement, according to the authors, "is conscious of itself as being the process of creating from all elements of the black community a self-governing nation which will control and determine its own destiny."

The brutality of the white power structure during the rebellion and the empty solutions to ghetto problems proposed by more enlightened segments of that power structure solidified the movement, according to the Boggs.

Retarded Children Meets October 25

The Polk County Association for Retarded Children will hold a meeting Wednesday, October 25th, at 8:00 p.m., at the Saster Seal Center, 2920 30th Street. In the absence of the President Mr. Robert Conley, the Vice President, Mr. Kenneth Kramp, will preside.

Volunteer Work

Various phases of volunteer work with the retarded will be discussed by a panel including Mrs. R. J. Schiekelman, Chairman of the Association's Colunteer Services; Mrs. Ella Mae Janssen, Woodward State School; Mrs. Kenneth Kramp, Summer Recreation and Winter Parties; Mrs. F. G. Schwartz, Work Activities' Center; Mrs. Alfred Truman, Nursery School; Drs. M. L. Van Cleve, Day Care Center, and public is invited to attend, particularly those interested in learning about mental retardation and doing volunteer work with the Association.

Police Blotter

Eugene Green, 20, of 1719 Twelfth st. pleaded innocent Thursday to a charge of robbery filed after he and a 16-year-old boy allegedly forced a 5-year-old girl to give them a $1 bill.

Green was ordered by Municipal Judge Ray Harrison to post a $1,000 bond or be held in the Polk County jail until a hearing at 1:30 p.m. Oct. 27. The 16-year-old was referred to Polk County Juvenile Court.

Two men were being held in the Polk County jail Thursday after pleading innocent to a charge of robbing Robert Starfel of Artesia, Calif., of $30 here.

Ronald Keith Dunn, 38, who said he lives at 1546 Eight st., and Ronald Lee Shepherd, 26, who gave his address as 1309 Ninth st., appeared before Municipal Judge Ray Harrison after they were arrested Wednesday in the 1300 block of Sixth avenue.

Katie A. Clark, who said she lives at 1100 Eighth st., was charged with larceny of more than $20 and is to appear in Municipal Court by Oct. 20 charged with $47.91 worth of merchandise that she had not paid for.

NAACP National Office Moves To New Quarters

New York — As of Monday, Oct. 16, the National Office of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will be located at 1790 Broadway, New York, N.Y. 10019.

The week-end of Oct. 14-15 was devoted to removal of the Association's furnishings and documents from the Wendell Willkie Memorial Building, 20 West 40th Street, where NAACP headquarters have been maintained since 1945.

The Broadway address will be the fifth for the Association since the original office was opened downtown at 20 Vesey Street in 1910.

In announcing the latest move, Executive Director Roy Wilkins said that it is "dictated by current and prospective expansion of program and staff." The office will occupy the 10th and 11th floors for a total of 16,000 square feet, he said.

The two floors have been renovated with modern lighting, flooring air conditioning and space allocation.

Atlanta, Ga.—NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. attorneys asked a judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals here to release a 12 year old mentally retarded youth, jailed on charge of arson, after four hours of police interrogation—without knowledge of his parents or legal counsel. The attorneys also asked for a new trial, in event the Court elects not to release the youth from custody of the Georgia Division for Children and Youth.

Supreme Court Steps Up Southern Integration

Washington — Responding to the U.S. Supreme Court's action this week—allowing accelerated southern school integration—the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. announced a step-up of litigation in nearly 200 cases.

The ruling, in effect, calls for top to bottom school integration in six deep southern states.

The high court refused to review the Fifth District Court of Appeals ruling affecting nine crucial school integration cases.

Under the Appeals Court decision in the Caldo Parish group of cases, "a desegregation plan must work, must abolish the dual school system and the identifiable Negro school," said LDF Director-Counsel Jack Greenberg.

This is "the most influential school desegregation opinion since the Supreme Court's 1954 school ruling," Mr. Greenberg added.

The nine cases—of which six were brought by LDF attorneys—contained the underlying issue of the pace and extent of school integration across the south, and acceptance of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare guidelines.

States affected include Alabama,

Louisiana, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi and Texas.

An array of LDF attorneys led by Associate-Counsel James Nabrit, III argued the cases on the Appeals Court level.

Milwaukee Militants Meet With Youth NAACP; Quad Core Offers Support

Davenport—For the second time Milwaukee Commandoes have visited Davenport. The report came after four young members attended a youth NAACP meeting here which recently adopted the "Black Power" ideal toward open housing.

The men arrived here about noon Saturday, and at 7 p.m. met with Eugene Wyatt, president of the Youth NAACP. Spokesmen for the adult NAACP said that they had not received advance notice of the young men's scheduled meeting until later that day.

At the meeting, the commando major (ranks range from two star general to private), told the audience the job of a commando: "As a commando, your job is the protection and welfare of the crowd . . . keeping the crowd from throwing bricks and swearing at police and keeping attackers from getting at the line of the marchers."

"Some people call us hoodlums," said another commando, "but we're not. We're just young men fighting for liberty."

College

Reliable sources say that the St. Ambrose College Chapter of the NAACP had been building up since some members went to Milwaukee to march in the housing demonstrations. These sources say that the reaction by whites in Davenport was not that of hostility toward commandoes or proposed housing marches by the Youth unit of the NAACP.

Germ

The Davenport NAACP has been working effortlessly with the City

Council, the city sanitation manager and other officials to rid the city of its poor housing and rat problems.

Wyatt also said at the meeting that they would march, "but no one knows when or where."

The major commando was quoted as saying that the housing in Davenport was such that "I wouldn't put a germ to live in some of it," and that the Milwaukee contingent would "back Davenport to the limit" for decent housing.

Core Conference

Davenport—The Youth unit of the NAACP and Milwaukee's Commandoes are not the only ones dedicated to securing decent housing in this city.

Recently the Regional Conference of the Congress of Racial Equality met here with representatives from 13 states across the country. Resolutions adopted included approving the boycotting of Schlitz Brewing Company in Milwaukee to sport better housing "for black people."

The conference, limited to male speakers only, also advocated "better jobs for black people at the Brewing Co. to be obtained by June 28, 1968 in all capacities"; and stop busing black children to white schools, where they are still segregated, with the action to be taken by Oct. 30, 1967.

Rock Island

Raymond Carter, president of the Quad-City chapter, told the Bystander that housing discrepancies exist in Rock Island, too. The mayor, he said, was turning down ordinances not acceptable to him.

Community Improvement Group Shows Fall Job Hunting, Outlines Program

Community Improvement, Inc. has found 113 job opportunities for after school and week-ends for youngsters up to age 18 from marginal income families. However, only 40 openings are for those 14 and 15, and there are 150 qualified applicants of that age seeking work. Mrs. Kate Goldman, president, stated, "That the majority of 14 and 15 year olds will be placed in jobs funded by C.I.I. In some instances the supervisory personnel will also be paid for by the Corporation". Mrs. Goldman continued, "In our exploration of job development projects, we have found that non-profit agencies such as, libraries, hospitals, nursing homes, city and county departments and settlement houses will take the 14 and 15 year old for job experience and training if their jobs are funded."

Board Number One at the Capital City Bank building during World War II.

GARRISON

During the school year, Community Improvement, Inc. will institute a supportive educational program for all the youngsters enrolled with C.I.I. The educational program will provide information and experience for development of self-help, self-confidence and self-pride.

The young people who have been guided toward part time jobs by this Corporation will be expected to enroll in the educational program that will meet weekly in small neighborhood segments and once monthly as a total group. The total group is expected to be around 250 youth.

Program

The planning for an educational program will involve the United Community Services Planning Council, Polk County Community Action Council, Members of the Youth Services of the Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., Merit Employers Council, Public School Counseling Staff, job training, and placement agencies and representatives of business and industry. Programs for class sections will be provided in communication skills, grooming, specific training in job application and interview, community information related to educational and cultural institutions, law enforcement, job and career opportunities in the local community, savings and planning for future goals, information related to post-high school opportunities, scholarship and self-help aids to post-high school education and training.

The monthly meetings will be used for programs that will introduce to the young people community leaders, so that the youth may better identify with the goals of our society. These "Who's Who" programs will be built around civic and business leaders with a special program to be designed for "Who's Who" in the Negro community.

Dr. King Re-iterates Stand on Semitism

New York, October 10 — Martin Luther King Jr. today placed the Southern Christian Leadership Conference squarely against both black separatism and anti-Semitism, calling anti-Semitism "immoral" and used to divide Negro and Jew, "who have effectively collaborated in the struggle for justice." He added that the group he leads considered Israel's right to exist as a State "incontestable," and was opposed to "an unqualified endorsement of the policy of the Arab powers."

In a letter to Morris B. Abam, President of the American Jewish Committee, made public today by Mr. Abam, Dr. King denied earlier press reports that the S.C.L.C. was part of the group at the recent "New Politics" convention at Chicago that had introduced a resolution denouncing the "imperialist Zionist war."

Denounces Anti-Semitism

Dr. King stated that the S.C.L.C. had "expressly, frequently, and vigorously denounced anti-Semitism and will continue to do so." He pointed out that anti-Semitism was "immoral,.... and was used to divide Negro and Jew, 'who have effectively collaborated in the struggle for justice.'" Anti-Semitism "injuries Negroes," he said, "because it upholds the doctrine of racism, which they have the greatest stake in destroying."

Following are the texts of the telegram sent by the Presidents of 10 Jewish agencies to Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and of the answering letter from Dr. King to Morris B. Abam, President of the American Jewish Committee, one of the signatories of the telegram:

To: Rev. Martin Luther King

Our organizations share a deep commitment to full equality in an integrated, plural society. We believe that its attainment demands action by a coalition of groups for accelerated and dramatic social change. He have admired and respected your advocacy of these goals and your leadership over the years.

Now we are profoundly distressed by the recent New Politics Conventions. The apartheid of the adopted structure and the lack of democratic procedure; the absence of any specific constructive program for the advancement of equal opportunity; the anti-Semitism in spite of disavows; the irrational anti-Israel resolution; all are disturbing and destructive. We believe that they also are antithetical to everything you have stood for.

Because of your presence at the Convention, and the presence of your name on the National Council of the Conference for New Politics, we fear that these destructive positions may gain a show of respectability. We urge you to disassociate yourself publicly from the malevolence which found expression in the resolutions of the New Politics Convention.

We anxiously await your reply.

Dear Mr. Morris:

I am in receipt of your letter making inquiry of SCLC's position on anti-Semitism. First, let me apologize for being rather tardy in my reply. Absence from the city and the accumulation of a huge volume of mail account for the delay.

Serious distortions by the press have created an impression that SCLC was part of a group at the Chicago Conference of New Politics which introduced a resolution condemning Israel and unqualifiedly endorsing all the policies of the Arab powers. The facts are as follows:

1. The staff members of SCLC who attended the conference (not as official delegates) were the most vigorous and articulate opponents of the simplistic resolution on the Middle East question. As a result of this opposition, the Black caucus modified its stand and the convention voted to eliminate references to Zionism and referred to the executive board the matter of final wording. This change was the direct result of the spirited opposition on the floor by Hosea Williams, Director of Voter Registration and Political Education of SCLC. Incidentally, I only attended the conference to make the opening speech and left immediately after. I had no part in planning the structure or policy of the conference, nor was I a delegate. If I had been at the conference during the discussion of the resolutions, I would have made it crystal clear that I could not have supported any resolution calling for black separatism or calling for a condemnation of Israel and an unqualified endorsement of the policy of the Arab powers. I later made this clear to the press but a disclaimer seldom gets the attention that an original sensational attack receives.

2. SCLC has repeatedly stated that the Middle East problem embodies the related questions of security and development. Israel's right to exist as a State in security is incontestable. At the same time the great powers have the obligation to recognize that the Arab world is in a state of impose poverty and backwardness that must threaten peace and harmony. Until a concerned and democratic program of assistance is affected, tensions cannot be relieved. Neither Israel nor its neighbors can live in peace without an underlying basis of economic and social development.

At the heart of the problem are oil interests. As the American Jewish Congress has stated, "American policies in the Middle East have been motivated in no small measure by the desire to protect the $2,500,000,000 stake which U.S. oil companies have invested in the area." Some Arab feudal rulers are no less concerned for oil wealth and neglect the plight of their own peoples. The solution will have to be found in statesmanship by Israel and progressive Arab forces who in concert with the great powers recognize that fair and peace-solutions are the concern of all of humanity and must be found.

Neither military measures nor a stubborn effort to reverse history can provide a permanent solution for peoples who need and reserve both development and security.

3. SCLC has expressly, frequently and vigorously denounced anti-Semitism and will continue to do so. It is not only that anti-Semitism is immoral—though that alone is enough. It is used to divide Negro and Jew, who have effectively collaborated in the struggle for justice. It injures Negroes because it upholds the doctrine of racism which they have the greatest stake in destroying. The individual Jew or gentile who may be an exploiter acts out of his greed as an individual, not his religious precepts—just as a criminal—Negro or white—is expressing his anti-social tendencies—not the ethical values of his race.

On the general question of anti-Semitism, I would like to quote a few paragraphs from my recent book WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

One fact is decisive for perspective and balance: the amount of anti-Semitism found among Negroes is no greater than if found among white groups of the same economic strata. Two pools cited by Professor Thomas Pettegrew and a very recent study in depth conducted by Dr. Oscar Lewis arrived at this same conclusion. These evaluations should allay the alarm that has arisen from exploitation and exaggeration of the issue by some white and Negro publicists whose appetite for attention exceeds their attachment to truth and responsibility.

The question that troubles many Jews and other concerned Americans is why oppressed Negroes should harbor any anti-Semitism at all. Prejudice and discrimination can only harm them; therefore it would appear that they should be virtually immune to their sinister appeal.

The limited degree of Negro anti-Semitism is substantially a Northern ghetto phenomenon; it virtually does not exist in the South. The urban Negro has a special and unique relationship to Jews. On the one hand, he is associated with Jews as some of his most committed and generous partners in the civil rights struggle. On the other hand, he meets them daily as some of his most direct exploiters in the ghetto as slum landlords and gouging shopkeepers. Jews have identified with Negroes voluntarily in the freedom movement, motivated by their religious and cultural commitment to justice. The other Jews who are engaged in commerce in the ghettos are remnants of older communities. A great number of Negro ghettos were formerly Jewish neighborhoods; some storekeepers and landlords remained as population changes occurred. They operate with the ethics of marginal business entrepreneurs, not Jewish ethics, but the distinction is lost on some Negroes who are maltreated by them. Such Negroes, caught in frustration and irrational anger, parrot racial epithets. They foolishly add to the social poison that injures themselves and their own people.

It would be a tragic and immoral mistake to identify the mass of Negroes with the very small number that succumb to cheap and dishonest slogans, just as it would be a serious error to identify all Jews with the few who exploit Negroes under their economic sway.

Negroes cannot rationally expect honorable Jews to curb the few who are rapacious; they have no means of disciplining or suppressing them. We can only expect them to share our disgust and disdain. Negroes cannot be expected to curb and eliminate the few who are anti-Semitic, because they are subject to no controls we can exercise. We can, however, oppose them and have, in concrete ways. There has never been an instance of articulated Negro anti-Semitism that was not swiftly condemned by virtually all Negro leaders with the support of the overwhelming majority. I have myself directly attacked it within the Negro community, because it is wrong. I will continue to oppose it, because it is immoral and self-destructive.

Let me thank you for writing and also for your consistent support. I realize that this letter is long, but I hope it will shed some light on what

Cardinals' Bob Gibson Named Winner of World Series Award As Best Player

Boston, Mass. — Some say it was the three day rest that did it, while others say merely luck, but Bob Gibson and the St. Louis Cardinals, who at one time led three games to one by the Boston Red Sox, won the 1967 World Series Pennant Friday.

Home Run

Gibson himself even added to the 7-2 victory with a home run. Equally a hero of the Series was Cardinal man Lou Brock, blasting out a series-leading .414 average, and knocked down a 1909 record by stealing seven bases, once the record six by Jimmy Slagle in 1907 and Honus Wagner in 1908.

New York — Gibson has been named winner of the 13th annual "Sport Magazine World Series Award" as the outstanding player in the 1967 World Series.

For Gibson, who won three games in the 1967 Series, it was the second time he has received the award as "the player who did the most for his team through his overall play in the World Series."

Tied

Gibson also tied Christy Mathewson's record of allowing just 14 hits in three complete game victories in a Series, and tied Red Ruffing's mark of five consecutive complete-game victories during a career covering more than one Series.

Gibson, who hurled 2-1, 6-0 and 7-2 complete-game victories against the Red Sox, received the "Sport Magazine World Series Award," a 1968 Corvette sports car, at a luncheon in his honor at the New York Hilton Hotel on Oct. 16.

Bob first received the "Sport Magazine World Series Award" in 1964.

NELSON QUINN AND HIS MRS. are enjoying themselves now that Nelson is retired. In looking back over the years, he had this story! As a very young man and unemployed, walking the streets of a strange town he noted a "Cook Wanted" poster in the window of a small eatery. Completely inexperienced but driven by necessity, he applied for the job. Got along well, too, until someone requested an egg omelette! Beckoning his buddy, Jessie, he asked "How do you cook an egg omelette? His buddy laughed so hard and so long, Nelson was on the verge of giving up. Finally his friend proceeded to cook the omelette with the threat that only once would Nelson be shown how. This Nelson agreed was fine. He held the cooking post for as long as he liked!

SHSSSSSH! MRS. H. O. JOHNSON did it again! Was stunning in a green lace afternoon dress at the Princess O'Ziel Chapter of the OES's banquet held at Younkers Tea Room recently. It seems that lady has the habit of looking lovely!

JANICE CARTER, a stunning 5'4" cool, tan young thing is now wearing a brand new diamond! Can't tell you more now! Oh, I can say she is a State House steno. Is that enough?

JUST LEARNED RONNENE PARKEY is attending Central State College, Wilberforce, Ohio. An East High graduate, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parkey, Jr.

THE DES MOINES COMMUNITY PLAYHOUSE's presentation of The Anatomy of a Murder is being presented in late October—so where's your activities' calendar, folks?

THE NIGHT OF THE IGUANA is playing November 2, 3, 4, and 5 at Drama Workshop. Carla Lucas is the director. Larry Link is playing the lead—the Richard Burton role. You will remember that this is a Tennessee William play. So you'll have the beautiful the sad, the bizarre but you'll be absorbed in it!

BUNNIE BARNEY, who is always in pursuit of antiques, proved again my earlier claim that if you want something and can't find it yourself, ask Bunnie! She can and she will! Her latest achievement was an assist to Ruth Stokesberry, a member of Nancy Link's Props Committee (for The Night of the Iguana play). Bunnie answers to the tinkle of 285-2146!

WHENEVER MARY AND KENT VIERS hear the word 'iguana' they think of Guam where they resided during World War II. Beneath their home lived an iguana, which is a tropical lizard, you know. Mary didn't appreciate their guest's objection.

Baltimore Women Pay Tribute to Editor

tionable habit of snapping her two pet cats with its tail when they ventured near!

OONA WHITE, Mary Vier's younger sister, leads an enviable life. Holiday discovered and featured her Peace Corps venture on its March '65 cover as she and a friend lived in a mud house—in an African section of Niger (a part of what was once French West Africa.) Recently she and a girl friend hitchhiked from Carbondale, Illinois to The Teton Mountains in Montana; British Columbia, Canada; then to Washington State; returned through Colorado and on to Austin, Texas. Presently she is being tutored in (Farsi) (or is it Farsi)—the language spoken in Afghanistan—preparatory to rejoining her fiancé, a Peace Corps volunteer there and where they will be married. She is employed as a University of Texas librarian. All this, folks, as I type!

ERIC VIERS, Oona White's nephew, is an equally fascinating personality. Accompanied by his dog, he hunts and fishes—thus supply the family with choice fare! Occasionally uses a 16 gauge shotgun, but prefers a 20 gauge. It is not at all unusual for Eric to doll up in a blanket and sleep out in the woods for even a week. Eating only what he has caught, cleaned and cooked! Eric and his dog strictly on their own! You guessed it—he is Mary and Kenton's youngest and Christopher's younger brother.

VOTE IN THE CITY
ELECTION TUESDAY

The voters of Des Moines go to the polls Tuesday, October 24 to nominate candidates for mayor and city council who in turn will be voted on in November.

In view of the fact that the primaries are held so soon after the system of government was changed, candidates have not had sufficient chances to make their views known to the voters. For this reason, the selection of candidates for the general election requires that what little they say now and their background must be taken in consideration in choosing the right person.

Some able people are in the races. This is the largest number of candidates in a city election for thirty years. It will bring out a good vote and a spirited campaign.

But whoever the choice, vote—a responsibility every citizen has.

THUMBS DOWN ON ANTI-SEMITISM—KING

This week appears in the Bystander a rather lengthy article in which Dr. Martin Luther King disavows any animosity toward Jews or connection with anti-semitism, a painful position some rabble rousers are advocating.

No intelligent person can deny that Jews have made a great contribution to the cause of the Negro race in this country. Negroes cannot afford to join up with those carrying the banner of anti-semitism for the same group would turn on them at the first opportunity.

We are glad Dr. King has not fallen into this trap.

Questions

Q—What right does the IRS have to seize somebody's property or bank account for unpaid taxes?

A—Federal tax law provides several actions the IRS can take to protect the government revenue when a taxpayer refuses to satisfy his obligation voluntarily.

Before enforcement action is taken, a person who owes taxes is given ample opportunity to voluntarily pay his tax liability. A taxpayer is sent several written notices and afforded conferences. If in response to any one of these notices the taxpayer cooperates, no enforcement action is taken. Only when all attempts to gain the taxpayer's cooperation in regard to enforce the law.

Cyclones Win Over
Kansas Wildcats

Ames, Ia. — Everyone is jubilant here, for the Cyclones busted the Kansas State Wildcats Saturday 17-0.

Two of the scores for the Cyclones were Don Graves, junior 215 pound right guard, who loped 49 yards late in the second half, and Les Webster, left halfback, sprang across on a one yard run to compile 12 of the 17 points.

Graves, also called "monster", is 6-3, son of Mrs. Close Graves of Centerville. He was born in Des Moines, but graduated from Centerville High in 1965 with 12 letters, four each in football, basketball and track. He was All-state griddler twice; his major is sociology.

Webster, a senior letterman from Omaha, Neb., is 195, 5 feet, 11 inches tall. After graduating from Omaha Tech in 1964 with seven letters, he was football captain two years, and all state. Webster is combining majors in Applied Art and Physical Education. He has a net rush total of 1,070 yards in the season.

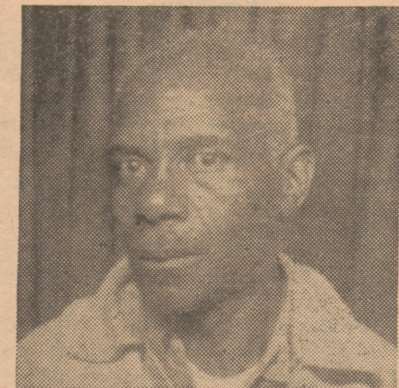

Campbell

Equally important to the Cyclone team are Sam Campbell, junior letterman, left end, 222, 6-4, he was born in Lorain, Ohio. Sam holds ten letters in football, basketball track and boxing, captained football and basketball teams at his school, and was an all-state eager. Campbell lists his major as Applied Art, and along with many sports trophies on his mantle, he also has several art awards.

John Chism, junior letterman, 220, 6-3, from Cleveland, Ohio. A '64 grad with six letters, his major is physical education. Chism missed the 1966 season with an injury.

Maurice Cox, or Moe or Maury, a sophomore fullback, is 215, 6-2 sophomore from Rockford, Ill. Cox graduated with three letters in sports, major is physical education. Cox' big thrill was a kickoff return in the final seconds to win a football game at his high school.

The Sports Today

With Allen Ashby

Well, sir, the Iowa Hawkeyes gave it a mighty try last week and almost made it. We have to go on what we read and saw from the game films, but that was one time a discussion probably cost a ball game.

Whatever the call was, it didn't stop the Iowa cause and left doubts in a lot of minds. But there was no doubt that cost Iowa one touchdown that the enemy might not have scored. Do we still think they win three games? Yep. And we still don't know what three.

Iowa State has a winning streak going. They really looked good while beating Kansas State. But then, who is K State? Let's see how they look next week. One thing, Iowa State doesn't lose too many athletes because of grades.

Drake

Drake seemed to make a habit of winning homecoming games. They pick on Northern Iowa who generally gives the Bulldogs a good run, but seldom beats them.

Surprised?

Were you surprised by the size of the Ohio State-Purdue and the Southern Cal-Notre Dame scores? In the Ohio State game it was just too much Purdue and in the Notre Dame game, whew! The Irish looked like Iowa against them last home opponents. You can't give a good team the ball ten or twelve times in a game without getting clobbered. Even if you are Notre Dame. This guy O. J. Simpson must be one heck of a ball player.

Here at home things just sort of marched along. East went to Mason City where they almost never win. Dowling, probably our best team in the city must have had a wild one at Ft. Dodge, but the boys came home in convincing style.

We have been watching the effects that says interior linemen must hold until the ball is kicked. Well, there haven't been the rash of injuries that a lot of coaches predicted. The players do have time to try to throw the ball back and more of them do. The kicker seems to get the ball away faster so it really doesn't hurt much. We think it was Horace Gilliam of the old Cleveland Browns who used to stand back twenty yards behind the center, take about five steps up and boot the ball a country mile and so high that at times when it came down it had snow on it. Needless to say, there were no runbacks, but the players got mighty tired of standing around waiting for one of Gilliam's punts to come down. The other pro football teams soon got the message and now they all do it.

Now we think the pro pass defense is gradually changing to a zone type of defense with all men playing the ball. The idea might go places.

Larry (the weasel) Holton, a junior letter, weighing 180, 5-11, was born in Keokuk and graduated from Keokuk high with nine letters. An all state griddler, he led the cage team to third in the state as a senior. His father, Thomas, was an all-Mississippi Valley griddler.

Ben King, Bob McPherson, Willie Muldrew, Dan, Doug, and Willie Robinson will appear next week.

Drake Wins Homecoming
Game Sat.; 10-7, UNI

Drake, after three losses and one victory, Saturday added one more win, beating the University of Northern Iowa at Drake Stadium, 10-7.

In the first quarter, Ben Mays dropped the UNI quarterback for a six yard loss and when the Panthers tried to gain on fourth down, Mays was in there again to send the ball over on downs to Drake, who went into Panther territory, but failed to convert the yardage into a touchdown.

Drive

In a spirited Panther drive which found many holes in the Drake defense the Panthers advanced to the Drake one yard line for the first touchdown of the game, 30 seconds left in the first quarter.

After a Panther kick off to the Bulldogs late in the first quarter,

Drake was unable to move, and gave the ball over to the Panthers in the second quarter, but Mays, from behind, again caught the quarterback in a crunching tackle to hold them.

It was 7:10 in the second quarter that Drake scored with a pass from Gary McCoy to Misner on a scoring pass from the twenty-two yard line. The extra point tied up the game, 7-7.

Three Points

An attempted field goal was the next scoring feat by the Bulldogs, with 1 minute, 6 seconds left in the first half, Drake on the 5 yard line of the Panthers. But the Panthers held strong, and Drake tried a 37 yard field goal, which upped the score to 10-7.

Drake goes against Omaha University this Saturday here.

Hawk Lineup Fails to Beat
Indiana at Bloomington

Bloomington, Ind. — The University of Iowa, after leading 17-14 in the fourth quarter, was knocked from the winning circle when the Indiana Hoosiers faked a field goal attempt and ran 18 yards to Iowa's 4 yard line with a consequent score, 21-17.

Silas McKinnie, in this game carried 25 times for 150 yards, including a 42 yard run to Indiana's 49 yard line. McKinnie, who began the season weighing 198, now stands at 205, according to reports.

Squad Men

Also on the squad are Greg Allison, outstanding sophomore from San Diego, Calif., where he was Southern California Lineman of the Year in the 1965 season; John Hayes, 6-2, 190 pound junior, ranking as the number two wingback at the beginning of the season. He was an outstanding basketball player and trackman at Asbury Park, N.J. High School.

Gridders

Melvin Morris, a former Louisiana all stater, suddenly is number two offensive right tackle, standing 6-2, 240 pounds. During his senior year in Louisiana, he received an out-
