Make Partial Sweep of Council
Stokes, Hatcher Become Mayors; Hicks LosesNegro Voters Pour
Into Voting Polls

Cleveland, Ohio—For the first time in the history of this country, an Afro-American has become mayor of one of the largest city's in the United States. Carl B. Stokes received, according to unofficial returns, 129,825 votes, compared to Seth C. Taft, with 127,328.

Stokes had nearly solid backing from Negro voters in the primary, accounting for 93,000 of his 110,552 votes then.

As in the case in other cities, Negroes were urged to use their right to vote, and the Dr. Martin L. King, was in Cleveland pushing for that right.

Hatcher

Gary, Ind.—Amid the rumble of the National Guard, Richard G. Hatcher, at last reports, has become mayor of Gary, which is 55 per cent Negro. However, it may be a bitter victory for the 34-year-old lawyer, who last Tuesday asked a federal court to halt the election on grounds that Negroes were being disenfranchised.

He said that more than 5,000 Afro-Americans had been "purged from the voting rolls" and that 4,000 phony names of whites had been added.

Hicks

Boston, Mass.—The feared white backlash, if there is such a factor, was not apparent here, when Kevin H. White beat out Mrs. Louis D. Hicks, who rose as a defender of "neighborhood schools", a term which some authors refer to "white-only" schools.

Atty. Jones Speaker at
Hubbard Evg. Church

Atty. Oscar E. Jones was guest speaker recently at Salem Evangelical Church, Hubbard, to speak on race relations and its impact on today's society.

Jones was invited there after several members had heard him on a local radio phone show.

After the talk, there was a question and answer period as to what can be done to improve race relations in the various communities. There are no Negroes living in the tiny village.

Also on display at the church were various contributions of Negro history, at which Jones expressed surprise, since "few white organizations have taken an interest in Negro history", Jones said.

The theme of the display was to document many of the contributions the Negro has made to American progress.

Bluefield Students
Return To W. Va. Class

Bluefield, W. Va. — An angered U. S. District Judge, Sidney L. Christie, immediately granted a temporary injunction requiring immediate reinstatement of ten suspended Bluefield State College students when he learned Wednesday, Nov. 1, that President Wendell C. Hardway had gone back on his word to allow the students to attend class. The suit was filed on behalf of the suspended students by NAACP lawyers.

The NAACP lawyers sought a temporary injunction requiring the students' reinstatement, the dropping of all charges against them, and restraining the college from further suspensions based upon participation in peaceful remonstrations.

Goal Of The Rev. Orzealyea Robinson:
Burn Mortgage Of Friendship City, Inc.

Providing music were Mrs. Carolyn Ary, and the Frazier family: Edward, father, and Michael, son, singing, and Betty, wife and mother, accompanying all on the piano. The New Jerusalem Church of God in Christ Choir also provided spiritual numbers.

Scheduled to appear were a Drake ensemble, consisting of Jane Thorngren, Bill Good, Ed Markward, and Judy Grettenberg.

Hostesses for the occasion were Misses Phyllis and Paula Robinson, Sharon and Sarah Shortridge, and Sandy Duncan.

Friendship City, at 925 9th street, provides an outlet for food, lodging and clothing for persons, regardless of race, creed or color.

Roosevelt Does Have Negroes In Council

Although it was reported that Roosevelt High School did not have any Negro homeroom representatives in the Student Council, there are two: Miss Diane Webster and Paul Martin, juniors.

Last Monday Donald Johnson, vice chairman of CORE, had been granted a permit to hold a protest parade in Rock Island. It was granted by Police Chief Charles L. Meyers, jr. However, the parade was called off, and word has not been given when it will be held.

Carter said in a news conference that he sensed more unity among Rock Island Negroes, to support a fair housing ordinance, and will conduct a "full scale campaign" to get all Rock Island Negroes involved in the move to amend the city's new fair housing ordinance. He said the campaign will be aimed at "enlightening the people on what is going on downtown (City Hall)."

Handbill

Currently circulating, according to reports, is a handbill, which states that Rock Island had not accomplished nothing, thanks to the City Fathers. "These people who are supposed to represent us are more against us than for us . . . These honkies downtown are playing games with our rights. Let's take action

Teens Cause Ruckuss
At FAB Block Party

Mrs. Connie Cook, activities worker at Forest Avenue Baptist Church, revealed last week that there had been trouble at the block Halloween block party.

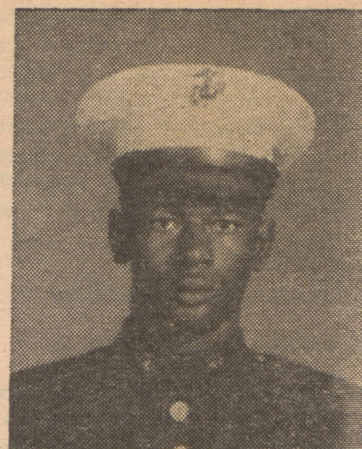

She said that the problem was caused by three or four older teenagers which "necessitated the closing of the outside program at an earlier hour.

"These boys threw eggs at members of the combo," she said in a letter, "and the group naturally decided to quit playing and leave the stage after two pieces of equipment had been damaged." Mrs. Cook said that policemen were not at the scene when the egg throwing happened, and felt that an assigned group of officers to patrol the area would have averted the trouble.

Marine Frank Smith
To First Assignment

San Diego, Calif. — Marine Private Frank G. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith of 1441 11th Street, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot here.

He will now undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

Winston-Salem in Throes of Rebellion; Starts After Beating

Winston-Salem, N.C.—This city was wracked by looting, rock-throwing and arson last week following the burial of a Negro who was clubbed to death by a policeman.

The toll for the three nights of racial unrest was 50 injured, 100 jailed and more than $350,000 in property damages.

The violence, which began on Thursday and caused city officials to impose a tight curfew, was stamped out by 400 riot-equipped National Guardsmen and helmeted policemen.

now with united support from the black community."

Johnson and Carter said that Rock Island Mayor James Haymaker took a stand against all fair housing legislation.

Zipper

But violence, sniper fire and looting began again in the second night of turmoil and the number of National Guardsmen were beefed up to 1,200. Snipers in a car fired at a National Guardsman, but officials said the bullet was deflected by his jacket zipper and he was not hurt. This incident prompted Guard officials to issue live ammunition to troops guarding the area where the incident occurred.

National Guardsmen formed a ring around the downtown area to prevent a recurrence of looting that marked the city's first night of racial turmoil.

Overcomes Whitmer; Scott
Grothe, Gross, Woods,
VanderLinden, Olson Win

Incumbent Mayor George C. Whitmer was beaten by only 750 votes Tuesday by 33-year-old Thomas N. Urban.

Totals for Urban were 20,997 to Whitmer's 20,247. For Councilman-at-large are incumbent Jens Grothe and Leo Gross. First ward councilman is Charles W. VanderLinden, Jr.; second ward Robert L. Scott, Jr.; third ward, Richard E. Olson; fourth ward, Jack P. Woods. Municipal court judge are incumbents Ray Harrison, Howard Brooks and Luther T. Glanton, Jr.

Only one incumbent councilman was re-elected—Jens Grothe, while incumbents George Nahas, Wallace Buss, and Whitmer were ousted.

Youngest

The City Council, reports say, will be one of the "youngest in years."

Urban had campaigned for the council-ward-manager form of government which called for the off-year election.

Glanton

Judge Glanton, the first Negro to be elected to an Iowa judgeship, received 28,540 votes. His salary will be $14,440 a year.

Waterloo

Davenport, Ia. — While here the NAACP used an intensive voter drive campaign in a "Know Your Candidate" pamphlet, Mayor John Jebens beat out his opponent by over 4,000 votes.

Jebens has been criticized by NAACP president William Cribbs for Jebens' remarks on the housing situation, and other areas.

GLANTON

Sen. Eastland, Committee
Examines Militants

Washington — The Senate Internal Security Subcommittee will take a good, hard look into Black Power and "new politics," ostensibly with an eye to determine the extent to which the movements are subversively influenced. The principal groups to be scrutinized are National Conference for New Politics (NCNP), the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Committee, the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE).

Gloves

Mississippi Sen. James O. Eastland is chairman of the committee. Prosecutor, Sen. John McClellan of Alabama, will be his chief aid. Mr. McClellan headed the Senate rackets investigation several years ago. He is not especially known for handling witnesses with kid gloves.

Recently, the NCNP sued Sen. Eastland for $500,000, alleging that his aides stole conference documents of the group's September meeting in Chicago which were later inserted in the Congressional Record.

A hearing on the complaint was held last week in Federal Court at the evening before city officials decided to rope off the 8-to-10 block downtown area.

Although this precaution discouraged looting in the downtown section, looting was reported in two shopping centers where several plate glass windows were smashed.

Police officials said the trouble apparently began when a small group of Negroes gathered on a downtown street and began shouting and cursing. Then garbage in a trash can was set afire and other Negroes joined in the demonstration.

Negroes arrested filled the city's jail. They were charged with disturbing the peace and resisting arrest. A few were charged with inciting to riot.

which time the disclosure was made that an investigation of the NCNP had begun. No testimony was given as to how the Eastland aides came into possession of the documents, but a vague allusion to a court order was made entitling them to documents pertinent to the Senate investigation.

The Senate granted authority for the probe in a closed session. Wide latitude was given the subcommittee, enabling it to include in its questioning any organization which sent representatives to the NCNP.

Reed has graciously agreed to do a Negro History Series for the Bystander. Watch for these informative articles.

Sidney Poitier Will Be In New Picture

New York, N.Y. — "Guess Who's Coming To Dinner," produced and directed by Stanley Kramer for Columbia Pictures release, will be launched at the Victoria Theatre in New York on Dec. 11 as a charity benefit for the Salvation Army.

One of the most eagerly awaited productions of the year because of its prestigious cast, "Guess Who's Coming To Dinner" stars Academy Award-winners Spencer Tracy, Sidney Poitier and Katharine Hepburn, and introduces Katharine Houghton.

Set Precedent in Mobile Home Court Reversal

A complaint of racial discrimination in September, 1966 filed by a Negro couple wishing mobile home space, was overturned by district Court Judge R. C. Fountain last week.

Fountain ruled that a mobile home court "is not a public accommodation under the 1965 Iowa Civil Rights Act."

Gentry

During the first public hearing for the Rights Commission last year, of Mrs. Ruth Wilson, who said she was the owner-operator of the Oak Hill court, the Rights Commission found her in violation of the 1965 act and ordered her to rent space to Mr. and Mrs. Willis Haddis of Mason City, who were renting for their daughter.

Lawyers contended the commission had no legal authority to "enter the case since the law does not specifically list mobile home courts as public accommodations."

Lawyer

Representing the commission was Nolden Gentry, who said that the ruling "limits the scope of the public accommodations section of the law . . . gives that section a very restricted scope."

The lawyer said he would recommend appealing the decision to the Iowa Supreme Court for a final determination. Speculation has been given that the overturning will, in fact, restrict all Negroes from mobile home courts, since five courts in the city turned the Haddises down, according to the Mason City man's testimony.

Webb Nabs K.C. Man Wanted for Murder

Patrolman Robert Webb, jr., changed his beat Saturday when he arrested Samuel E. Beasley, 26, of Kansas City, Kan., who in Kansas was charged with murder. Beasley also was charged with robbing the Hollywood Cleaners of $300 last Friday.

It's Been Forty Years, Grievances Still Here

by Eleanor E. Tate

Recently the Iowa Civil Rights Commission sponsored a human relations conference in Iowa City, "Improving Human Relations in Iowa—What Next?"

The conference was attended by representatives of the NAACP, human rights and human relations commission, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and others, to discuss problems on the state municipal and neighborhood level for a workshop to assess efforts made thus far in the state to achieve equal opportunity, and to program for the future.

Discussion

The workshop did not appear to be geared toward solving the problems which affect Iowa, but in discussing them, such as housing matters, the $500 bonding provision of the fair housing law. The workshops were further divided up into commissions without staff, advisory committee and private human relations organization, and other partitions.

In another area, under the auspices of the League of Iowa Municipalities, a "task force" met, to probe the difficulties in Iowa's minorities, and distinguished Negroes from all over the state came together, formed committees, and presented grievances.

How Many Now?

The issue at hand is that of the conferences, meetings, conventions which make up the struggle for equality, how many more will be needed before the basic factors in discrimination are eliminated? As early as 1944 S. Joe Brown, S. E. Thompson and James B. Morris compiled the D.M. inter-racial commission's history. The commission, formed in 1927, had then adopted resolutions calling for abolition of discrimination in the buying and renting of property, abolition in places of public accommodation; representation in proportion "to our population in all city and county labor and office work, with a definite program for interviewing employers of labor and heads of labor unions to the end that more Negroes may be employed in other than menial jobs"; the introduction of a course in Negro History into the D.M. public schools; a Negro member on the Board of Education, all asked for forty years ago.

Meanwhile, the task force will meet Wednesday, Nov. 15, 7:30 P.M. at Hotel Ft. Des Moines.

Langston Hughes' Last Book On Stands

The last published work of Langston Hughes—"Black Magic: A Pictorial History of the Negro in American Entertainment"—was published by Prentice-Hall on Nov. 8.

Long overdue, this informative history of leading Negro entertainers is the first of its kind. From the slave musicians like George Walker, Solomon Northup and Blind Tom to the modern performers like Louis Armstrong, Eartha Kitt and Sammy Davis, "Black Magic" depicts the success and failures in Negro entertainment during the past 300 years.

Teacher Testifies That Negro Children Beaten With Bamboo Sticks

Washington — A former school teacher testified at a Senate Labor subcommittee hearing on juvenile delinquency last week that Negro pupils in Boston's public schools are beaten against the school's rules.

Jonathan Kozel, a white man and formerly a fourth-grade teacher, said that Negro children are beaten with bamboo whips in the schools' cellars. He described the cellar as a dark place of "rank smells, angry shouts, a long grim corridor leading out into the schoolyard."

Author

Kozel is the author of "Death at an Early Age: The Destruction of the Hearts and Minds of Negro Children in the Boston Public Schools."

He said the first encounter with official violence in the life of a Negro child in Boston is the raised bamboo stick in the hand of a white teacher prepared to lash him for the smallest of errors and often for the most innocent of childish crimes.

Boston school superintendent, William H. Ohrenberger, refused to comment on Mr. Kozel's allegations.

Authority

"Jonathan Kozel poses as an authority on education and the problem of the deprived child," he said. "He has written a book which he hopes to sell. I will not engage in any dialogue that will increase the sale of his latest piece of fiction."

Mr. Ohrenberger acknowledged, however, that Boston's code of discipline does permit "minimal" corporal punishment. He said it consists of striking the palm of the hand with a rattan. Mr. Ohrenberger said this kind of punishment is used a minimal number of times and a witness must be present and a report filed.

about half of the $600 million we asked for. That is not the way to meet the problem. It is going to be slow, painful and costly. I would hope the American people would support the leadership that urges the Congress to take action in these fields: model cities, urban renewal, rent supplements and turnkey housing."

The Otto (Neal) Scholarship Fund, initiated at St. Paul A.M.E. Church, has reached $440.72, as of this past Sunday, with contributions pouring in from all over the city.

Plans are being made to extend the appeal to all segments of Des Moines.

WILLIAMS

A member of the Scholarship committee said that contributions have come in from outside of St. Paul where Neal was a member. He said a youth group sent in a large contribution, the members having gone to school with Neal.

Any persons wishing to contribute to the scholarship fund, setup to help a boy or girl to college, should contact Paul Danforth, committee president.

Commission Refuses To Place Riot Blame On City Governments

Washington, D.C. — The National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders Thursday issued the following statements on reports published in the press describing the Commission as planning, to lay major blame for last summer's riots on unresponsive city governments. The Commission has arrived at no such conclusion.

All

Until all of the available evidence is in, the Commission said it intends to reserve judgement on all the issues involved.

The Commission has not singled out any individual, any group, any level of government, or any officials of government for criticism or for praise.

Man Claims Bias By Electrical Workers

Birmingham, Ala. — A local Negro, who is a licensed electrician, Thursday, Nov. 2, asked the U.S. District Court here to order his admittance to Local 136, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO.

Plaintiff Arnett Banks is being represented by attorneys of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF).

Mr. Banks is asking for a preliminary and permanent injunction to stop Local 136 "from continuing to maintain its policy and practice of denying membership to persons because of race and color."

The LDF complaint alleges "that there are no Negro persons who are members of Local 136."

by eleanor e. tate

A blue lemon to KDPS' PBL documentary program Sunday night, especially Douglas Turner Ward's "Day of Absence," which takes place in a small rural Dixie village, half of whose population is black. One day all Negroes stay away from their jobs and the town is so immobilized that it collapses. I especially got a kick out of the young mother who married her husband in a package deal, provided Lula (the maid) came along.

Sam and Dave

From Stax: Sam and Dave's "Soul Man" became the number one best selling record in the nation for the week of Nov. 5, according to the weekly charts published in the Nov. 11 issue of Cashbox and Record World magazines, the music trade journals. They are currently in Europe on the final swing of their month long "Sweet Soul Tour", and return to America Nov. 14. Congratulations, S and D, Deanie Parker and the rest of the Stax greats.

Plan Documentary On Black People

San Francisco, Calif. — American Documentary Films announces the production of their new film, Revolution in Black America, written by Larry Neal. This will be the first time any film organization has viewed ghetto problems through ghetto eyes. Several films on urban unrest have been made, but never presented from the point of view of the people most concerned. Revolution in Black America will be written and photographed by Black People.

Colleges

A feature length semi-documentary, production has begun with footage taken in Newark and Harlem, location recording of speeches, poetry readings and other socially and culturally significant events. Revolution in Black America is scheduled for release next summer. Distribution will be by American Documentary Films, who by special agreement with its Negro staff, will turn over rights for distribution in the Negro colleges to finance the nucleus of a planned communications center in Harlem that will include film, radio, television and press.

Are you worked up about the air pollution problem and the need to overcome it before it overcomes all of us? Fine!

Are you tempted to give in to a feeling of frustration about it? Don't!

Just think, instead of the people who've been working on it for eighteen years—count 'em, 18—and aren't discouraged yet.

The week of Oct. 22 marked the eighteenth observance of Cleaner Air Week, which the Air Pollution Control Association sponsors. If it occurs to you that eighteen years is a long time to grapple with a problem, it may also occur to you that the problem is getting infinitely wider attention today than in 1949, when Cleaner Air Week was first launched. And, despite all smoke, smudge, smell and smog, some genuine progress has been made.

As a token of that progress, Cleaner Air Week is certain to be greeted with more seriousness this year than at any time in the past. In addition to the efforts of its traditional sponsor, its objectives will be furthered by the National Air Conservation Commission of the National Tuberculosis Association as well as by the NTA's affiliated groups.

How?

How is Cleaner Air Week best acted upon? It's the ordinary citizen's special time to get up on his hind legs and howl about the national blight that attacks his physical well-being, his property, and the general landscape. Said howling will take a variety of forms, including pressure on legislators to provide relief, and on public officials to enforce existing clean air regulations.

Citizen clamor has brought about public improvements more than once in the past, though it may have taken more than eighteen years to do it. Getting behind National Cleaner Air Week is one way to get in your licks right now!

Your Tax Questions

Q—I just got a letter inviting me to a charity ball. If I buy tickets can I list this as a charitable deduction?

A—This may be a deductible expense if the event is sponsored by a qualified organization. In that case, a deduction may be taken for that portion of the ticket price that exceeds the value you receive by buying the tickets.

In other words, if the tickets entitle you to attend a dance when you would have to subtract what it would cost to attend a similar dance from the amount you pay for the tickets to determine the deduction. If you buy the tickets and do not attend the event the law still requires you reduce your charitable contribution by the value of your ticket.

To simplify things for contributors, IRS has requested that sponsors of charitable fund-raising events list the actual admission price and the amount solicited as a contribution right on the ticket.

Q—My boss says that since I didn't file a new withholding certificate by May 1, I have to wait until January 1 to do it. Is that right?

A—No. Many employers will let an employee change his withholding certificate at any time. Under the law, however, the employer is only required to make payroll changes four times a year, on January 1, May 1, July 1, or October 1, for changes filed at least 30 days previously.

2nd LIEUT. MICHAEL E. WALDEN returned home this week from OCS at Fort Sill, Okla., after a year in the Army. He will next be stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. Lieut. Walden is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil M. Walden.

REV. DONALD JOHNSON, a frequent visitor here was flanked by two bodyguards last weekend! They were his eldest son, Donald, a Marine of seven years' service and John D., who recently joined the Marines! A fine showing for a single family, wouldn't you say? Their home is in Zion, Ill.

NORVILLE TILLMAN—known to everyone—made a fast trip in and out of Iowa Methodist Hospital. With Mary's cooking skills to speed your recovery, you are on your way, Mr. T.

PHYLLIS GRIFFIN made her first public appearance as a guitarist in her performance before the Midwest Regional Conference of Women's International League for Peace and Freedom in its First Regional Conference held in Des Moines. Her rendition of "When Johnny Comes Marching Home Again"—so real for the times, brought tears to the eyes of many of her listeners. Lovely, too, was "Where Are The Flowers Gone?" and "The Prize", which you recall as a freedom song.

BARBARA GARRETT'S Sassoon (symmetrical) hair style by Mr. Paul, I've only heard about and am anxious to see. This said to be a modification of the pixie hair style—the longest hair, her bangs—only 3"! The rest shorter—one side a bit longer than the other. Wish we could see the many other models—some by Mr. Nelson and others by Mrs. Peggy Bailey.

Making a large, oblong festooned cake was Mrs. Helen McManus, with eight candles in the shape of a cross. Mrs. Julia Cannon baked a chocolate covered white cake. There were many gifts graciously received.

The event was in appreciation for the work Mrs. Wimberly had done in the John F. Kennedy Club.

DICK JEWETT, a Mid America Chorale member, had a joyous birthday celebration Saturday night at his big roomy pad shared by Dick, Will Wiggins, and Louis Nabors, fellow Chorale singers. Hostess of the affair was Dick's girl friend, Sharon Gorman. Lou was so-host!

LINDA GRIFFIN, in "the show must go on theory", completed her modern dance solo in "Hernandos Hideaway", with Everett Mays, Jr., was bridesmaid in Mime Instructor Jo Griggs' Oct. 7 wedding, then left for The Buffalo Center of Ballet—a month late entering school! Latest word of Linda assures us that she is getting along well, enjoying living at the YWCA and finds that dancing 4 to 5 hours daily, six days a week leaves her quite streamlined and in perfect physical condition! (All of which leaves me envious!)

MARY LOU COOK was hostess this week to The Willkie House Guild. They toured her gallery and workshop and were given a talk on creative living.

A GOLD BALL AND CHAIN attached to a Moulin Rouge type garter was worn around his shirt sleeve by a recent groom. The garter, concealed beneath his coat sleeve, was a gift from the bride. Quite an idea?

Service is as important as the product you buy.

Save money by making sure... before you buy... that reliable repair service is available locally.

Six rules of buying a product that will need maintenance or repair:

1. Expect good sales service. If you don't get it you're likely to have trouble when you need repairs.
2. A guarantee is only as good as the organization behind it. Read it carefully.
3. Think of the product in terms of need for maintenance and availability of parts and service.
4. A good product name is essential but not enough if facilities for service are lacking.
5. Utility companies may be able to tell you where to obtain good service.
6. A dealer with adequate service facilities may have to charge a slightly higher price for the product.

You save in the long run with those who have facilities for good service.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Should every woman be a blonde?

Blonde hair is beautiful for those women whose natural coloring it flatters. But not everyone should be a blonde.

Expert beauticians know that complexion and hair color must complement each other to glamorize and bring out all the natural beauty that was meant to be. They also know that very coarse and dark hair often is resistant to drastic color changes. However, there's no doubt about slightly lighter hair adding excitement to a woman's appearance. And hairdressers know there is no better product to add a whole new appeal to every woman's look than Miss Clairol® haircoloring—extra rich Creme Formula or new extra easy Shampoo Formula.

Both Miss Clairol products lighten and color at once, combining vibrant new color with the natural pigment of the hair. So even those shades that look blonde on white hair (as shown on most color selection charts) give a variety of flattering red-to-golden brown shades on women whose hair was black to begin with.

Beauty salons are equipped to answer questions and help with hair color selection. Depend on your hairdresser to have the professional skills and the total family of fine Clairol products to make every woman's experience with haircoloring completely personal and glamorous. Should you be a blonde? If you don't really know, ask your expert hairdresser.

ILLEGITIMACY ON THE RISE IN POLK COUNTY

Records at the Des Moines-Polk County Health Department show the county's illegitimacy rate growing steadily since 1963 and is at its highest level. The record further shows that the illegitimacy menace is greater among Negroes than whites, but there is increase among them also.

There are all kinds of angles entering this increase in illegitimacy including economic position, education and opportunity.

One finger pointed at the rise is abuse of the ADC. And while it is denied by state welfare officials, it is true.

Aid to Dependent Children is a worthy undertaking. It was devised to enable mothers to remain at home and care for their children rather than have them live in a haphazard manner.

But unfortunately, many mothers are abusing it. Many are some spending these funds for other than is intended: they help to finance lazy men who slip around and live without working.

Some method should be devised to police the expenditure of these funds and condemn birth of one child after another by mothers who seek to enhance their income.

It is not surprising that this increase in illegitimacy exists more among the poorer class because they have less of what it takes to prevent it.

CITY ELECTION TUESDAY BRINGS SURPRISES

Des Moines citizens went to the polls Tuesday and elected a new mayor and five new members of the city council.

The voting produced some surprises much because the incumbents failed to sense the dissatisfaction shown in the election last month which authorized a change in the form of government.

The only incumbent councilman elected was Jens Grothe. And he admitted earlier that the vote last month was a repudiation of the present city council.

More young men will be on the council. Generally, they have had little experience in city government. But since the law governs what can and cannot be done and their duty will be to make policy, it is hoped that we get no wild eyed ideas from these men in the name of making a better city.

Des Moines has lost population since 1960. Much of it was due to the closing of some industries; much to the movement of many people to suburban areas.

The new administration deserves the support of all citizens of Des Moines. They have our best wishes.

NEGROES BREAK THROUGH AS BIG CITY MAYORS

To the surprise of many, Cleveland, Ohio, and Gary, Indiana have elected a Negro as mayor. Each is a democrat; neither received the endorsement of his local democratic organization.

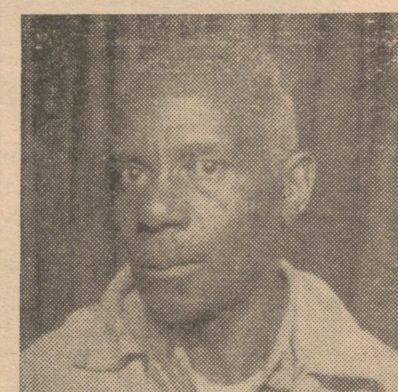

During the past several years, Negroes have been a strong part of the political organization in these cities. But the political leaders, acting for a segment of the population who objected to placing Negroes in a position of power and influence such as these offices offer, thought more of keeping them intact by maintaining the solidarity of the party and it backfired.

Here, too, was some sentiment for a change, not that it is always necessary but these times come along. Then too, these elections prove that many fairminded citizens will support a Negro candidate even when his opponent is white where opportunities present themselves.

SPORTS

With Allen Ashby

We survived the coldest game of the season so far with one more coming up. Our impressions of the Iowa-Minnesota game. We had thought this might be the one the Hawks would stage their upset on. But that was before they lost their number one quarterback, Eddie Podalak.

Now would Iowa have won with the guy in there? Well, we just don't know with everything played exactly as it was Saturday and the big guy in there we would have to say yes. Podalak might have loosened up that tight Gopher defense so Si McKinnie could have gone places. But on the other hand there might not have been those Minnesota fumbles that helped keep the score down. Those guys from up the country are big, really big. They don't score many points but they don't give up many, either. Their defensive yield average about eight points a game. But we do think a good passing team will probably beat them.

Gophers

The Gopher defensive line is big and rough; probably the roughest we have seen since Michigan State a couple of years ago.

They don't have that breakaway speed to score from anywhere on the field, but behind their big blockers and with a man eight feet tall and four feet wide to catch passes they don't need that speed yet.

Again Iowa played a good game and you were sorry they lost. Now they have to win two of the next three games. But we said three and there is still hope. Come on Hawks.

Iowa State had the same luck. The Cyclones played a fine game, but hadn't scored point one and so they lost another well-played game. They are in a real tough conference and nobody gives up anything if he doesn't have to.

Drake got back on the right track by dusting South Dakota. Our older brother played for South Dakota in what we think was the first Drake-South Dakota games in, we think, 1919 or 1920.

Here at home North High, which always plays its best ball against Dowling, caught a tiger by the tail. Dowling must have been determined to see that North didn't cause too much trouble, so they whopped 'em good.

East

East won the city series title by tying Roosevelt Saturday. East High's Manny McGuire might have been a hero. Now that East is City Champs, just where does that leave Dowling? They must be city champs, or mighty close to it.

About a year ago, Clark Yeager, former semi-pro baseball star, approached us with an idea for a dinner for old baseball players. He tried hard to enlist our help, but our work load just wouldn't give us time.

But last week the idea became real and the dinner was held. Fellows who were there say they really enjoyed seeing some of their former teammates of years ago. They plan an even bigger one next year. Glad it went so well, fellows.

Mike Garrett Of Chiefs No. 1 On Chart
With 811 Yards Rushing, Pass Receiving

Kansas City—Mike Garrett trotted slowly back to the Kansas City huddle. He had just carried three times in succession against the New York Jets, and admittedly was looking for a possible chance to catch his breath.

"I came back to the huddle really winded," Garrett explains. "So I looked at Dawson (Chiefs' quarterback Len Dawson) with a kind of a 'Lenny I'm tired look'—but he called me again."

Over Lincoln

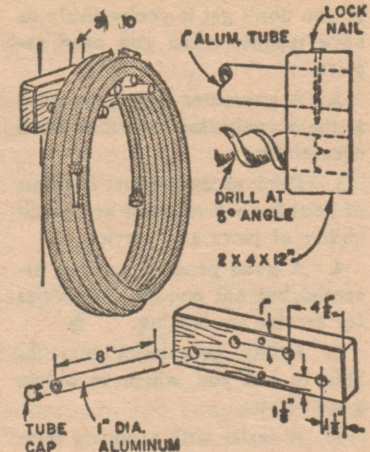

Dawson, in fact, called on Garrett 12 of 19 times the chiefs handled the ball during the third period of a 42-18 victory—and it's easy to understand why. The little halfback was having the best day any running back has had in the American Football League this season, rushing for 192 yards in 23 carries.

SPAGHETTI SUPPER
FOR SUNDAY GUESTS

You can make Sunday night supper a guest meal without imposing extra work on anyone if you serve Chef Boy-ar-dee packaged spaghetti dinner as the main dish. The package contains quick-cooking spaghetti, a real chef's sauce made with either meat or mushrooms, and grated cheese to sprinkle over all. While the spaghetti is cooking, heat the sauce, assemble a salad out of the refrigerator, make the coffee, and you have a real presto-chango meal that will satisfy everybody. Ice cream, fruit, a refrigerator cake, makes a happy ending.

Tube Rack Keeps
Gardening Hose
Safe This Winter

Carve for your gardening equipment during the winter will keep it in tip-top shape, ready for use next spring. To store garden hoses, try this simple rack that keeps them neatly coiled, off the floor and out of the way.

Cut a 12" length of 2x4 to make the main support. Lay out the holes for the 1" Do-It-Yourself tubing and bore the holes at a slight (about 5°) angle to keep hose from sliding off. Drill 3/16" holes for the two screws that hold the 2x4 to the wall.

Cut four 8" lengths of the 1" tubing and force tubes into the bored holes. Drill holes from top edge of 2x4 into each tube end and drive in lock nail.

Screw the rack to the wall with two #10x2 1/4" screws. To keep dirt from getting into the tubes, snap 1" aluminum tubing end plugs into the outer ends of tubing hangers.

Reynolds Do-It-Yourself aluminum is available in local hardware and building supply stores.

That performance went a long way toward giving Garrett first place among the nine AFL players who have gained more than 100 yards rushing and receiving this year.

With 671 yards rushing and 140 receiving, Garrett has a total of 811 yards, lead of 59 yards over Buffalo's Keith Lincoln. Clem Daniels of Oakland is third with 730.

First

Garrett now is already within reach of his rookie marks when he gained 976 yards over-all, 801 rushing and 175 receiving. And one of the major reasons for his improvement could be the use of the I formation, which Garrett ran out of when he was in college at Southern California.

Garrett leaves no doubt he likes the formation, in which the running backs and the tight end line up directly behind the quarterback.

"The I formation is good because you have a view of the entire line when you line up," Garrett explains. "If you're lined up to one side or the other you just have a good view of your side."

"The perspective from the I is like viewing something out a helicopter compared to looking at it out of a car."
