ABC Commentator Addresses Madison NAACP at Banquet

Ft. Madison, Ia.—More than 200 persons listened to Mal Goode, United Nations correspondent for ABC here Sunday, Nov. 5, during the Ft. Madison branch, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People's annual fall banquet.

During the banquet, Goode said: "Instead of condemning the likes of H. Rap Brown and Stokely Carmichael, because we have allowed a system to fester and grow, we should only concern ourselves with eliminating these conditions."

Unfair

"Nothing can justify Negro ghettos and fourth-class schools for Negroes," Goode declared. "It isn't fair to ask a youth to go fight in Vietnam and then return to the same privation, discrimination, bigotry, and denial of opportunity that his forebears knew—he shares the same foxholes and rice paddies with white men." The correspondent added that the Negro was determined to move with them in the main stream of American life and that "the nation is paying a horrible price for its mistreatment of the Negro."

Not Satisfied

"The Negro of the younger generation is not satisfied with the

Ky. Couple Charged With Sedition Speak Here Wednesday

A husband-wife team, recently charged with sedition under the (now unconstitutional) Kentucky law, will be in Des Moines to tell of their work in organizing southern mountain poor people in Eastern Kentucky. They will speak at a public meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 21, 8 p.m., Oakridge Neighborhood Center, 13th and Center Streets. The McSurelys' home was raided on Sept. 11 and they were charged with sedition. On Sept. 14 a special U.S. Court held that the Kentucky sedition law is in violation of the U.S. Constitution freed all of those accused in Pike County and barred state officials from prosecution of them.

Negro Songstress Hailed In Germany

Detroit, Mich. — Popular Stax/Volt recording artist Carla Thomas received the most enthusiastic response of her career during her just completed three day whirlwind tour of West Germany. The mass response of the German media to Carla was illustrated by a banner headline which appeared in Bild-Zeitung, Germany's largest circulating (4 one-half million copies) daily newspaper which proclaimed "Carla ist Gold wert"—Carla is worth Gold.

First

She also became the first Negro to appear in the "A Lady In Show Business" feature of Detroit Magazine, the prestige-laden Sunday supplement of the Detroit Free Press. Carla's outstanding accomplishments were saluted in a two page article by Loraine Alterman, Free Press staff writer. The "Lady In Show Business" feature has usually been devoted to extolling the virtues of Brigit Bardot and Ursula Andress.

Sentenced Because Refused To Kill VN

San Francisco, Calif. — A general court-martial Monday convicted Army Pvt. Ronald Lockman, 23, of Philadelphia, Pa., of refusing to obey orders to go to Vietnam. He was sentenced to two and one-half years at hard labor and given a dishonorable discharge.

The court deliberated 11 minutes at the end of a trial that erupted in a violent confrontation between civilian spectators and military police soon after Lockman had pleaded not guilty.

Illegal

Lockman's counsel declared that only crime was that "his conscience was so strong that he was compelled to refuse to go to Vietnam." The case automatically will go to a military review board.

Again

Lockman, allowed to participate in a news conference after the trial, shouted:

"My father had doubts about this, but I know for a fact that I was right."

"I would do it again."

CORE Members Placed In Jail; 150 in Street for Better Illinois Housing

Rock Island, Ill. (Special)—Three officials of the Quint-City Core were arrested Saturday as they traveled in a housing protest here.

They are Raymond Carter of Davenport, president of the CORE, and Donald Johnson, vice president.

Also arrested was Charles Johnson. The three men pleaded innocent in Rock Island Circuit Magistrate Court Monday, and were released on 10 per cent of $500 bond each.

A 1:30 p.m. hearing is set next Monday for the three men charged.

The two CORE leaders originally were charged with violation of a parade issued to them by Rock Island Police Chief Charles L. Meyers, Jr.

At the request of the Rock Island County state's attorney's office, the charges were changed Monday to disorderly conduct. Charles O. Johnson was charged with being disorderly in the police station.

Reports say that Johnson, during the march, had lain in the street, and when Carter went to investigate, was also arrested. They, at last reports, had been held in lieu of $2,000 cash bond.

Rock Island had been a focus point in the housing situation.

The marchers started at 11 this morning from 7th Avenue and 9th Street about 95 strong. By the time the group reached the city hall the number had grown to nearly 150. The march was without incident until the demonstrators reached the city hall.

The marchers included about 35 white persons. The rest were Negroes.

In a related move, the North Central Region of CORE sent a telegram to Davenport Mayor John Jebens protesting the arrest of Carter and the others. The CORE letter asked that the three be set free without bond or trial.

Harassment

The CORE telegram to Jebens said the arrests represented "a form of harassment and attempt by police and the city administration to impede the progress of black people."

There was no explanation why the telegram was directed by Jebens, instead of Rock Island Mayor James Haymaker.

Youth Council Charges School with Segregation

Davenport, Ia. — The Black Power Council has criticized the Board of Directors of the Davenport Community School District on racial separation.

Gene Wyatt, president of the Davenport Branch Youth Council's National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, in a letter to Ray Judd, president of the Board said that "this separation has fostered the racial tension that exists between the students of West and Central High Schools; tension that has erupted from time to time in situations that threaten the welfare of many of the students in the community."

State

The letter was sent to Governor Harold Hughes, Davenport Mayor

John Jebens, Charles Mays, regional Youth Field Director, NAACP, Louis L. Pickett, Superintendent of Muscatine Scott County School System, Mark Roseman, NAACP, James Thomas, executive Director of the Iowa Civil Rights Commission, Julius Williams, Regional Director, NAACP and Robert Wright, President of the Iowa Conferences of NAACP branches.

Correct

Wyatt also asked that the school initiate action to correct the racial imbalance of the two Davenport High Schools at its next meeting.

Wright said Monday that it was "incumbent upon educators that they endeavor to secure equity in education. They have the authority to assign children to school districts other than their own."

Stokes, Hatcher Victories Highlight Historic Gains Made By Negroes

Washington, D.C. (Special) — Negro candidates across the nation wrote a new chapter in American history Tuesday with Carl Stokes in Cleveland and Richard Hatcher in Gary winning the most sensational victories.

The Stokes win for Mayor of America's eighth largest city, Cleveland, and Hatcher's victory for Mayor of Gary, were achieved despite white back-lash efforts, and both got liberal white support in addition to their solid Negro backing. The defeat of race-baiting Mrs. Louise Day Hicks for Mayor of Boston was also significant.

Virginia

In Louisville, three Negroes were sent to the state legislature; Mrs. Mae Street Kidd and Hughes E. McGill, Mrs. Georgia M. Davis, and Dr. Albert B. Harris.

The first Negro elected to the Virginia State Legislature, Dr. Ferguson Reid, of Richmond, and in Mississippi, Robert Clark, won for state legislature.

Victory!

Winning with Mayor H. J. Tate in Philadelphia were councilmen candidates Tom McIntosh, Edgar Campbell and Charles Durham. In Boston, Tom Atkins became the first Negro elected to Boston's new nine-man city council. In a sweep in Baltimore for Negroes won city council seats, Henry G. Parks, Robert L. Douglass, Victorine Q. Adams, and Dr. Emerson R. Julian.

In New York City, Attorney Andrew R. Tyler won a civil court judgeship in Manhattan and James H. Shaw won a similar post in Brooklyn.

Early returns from New Jersey indicated certain victory for Ronald Owens and George Richardson for the state legislature and two Negro city councilmen in East Orange, William C. Holt and Henry Smith.

24

Latest returns from Mississippi show that 24 Negroes are certain winners in county and municipal races. Ernest Morial, a New Orleans attorney, won the primary race for the state legislature and becomes the first Negro in this century to sit in the Louisiana Legislature. The victories of Dr. Reid in Richmond, Robert Clark in Mississippi, and Ernest Morial in New Orleans bring the number of Negroes in the state legislatures of the 11 states of the Old Confederacy to 23, with 11 in Georgia, 6 in Tennessee and 3 in Texas.

eration isn't satisfied with promises; he wants action now."

Goode spoke in Burlington at a reception, and also taped an interview with Mrs. Harry Baxter of the Burlington United Nations Association. It will be heard Dec. 12, 6:15 p.m. on KBUR radio's Listening Post.

More Riots

He also predicted race riots in "connection with the 1968 presidential election . . . If the Republicans nominate anybody but Rockefeller, they won't be able to make a dent in the solid core of Negro support that is President Johnson's."

Speaking out on American history textbooks, he stated that a notorious wrong was redressed when Negroes were given the credit due them. Before these textbooks were printed, "There was nothing in the textbooks that gave the Negro child any sense of belonging to the main stream of American life."

Presentation

Master of ceremonies for the banquet was Dr. Harry D. Harper, Sr., president of the Ft. Madison branch, NAACP. The welcome by Mrs. Norman Krieger, and response by Robert A. Wright, president of the Iowa State conferences of branches. Solo was presented by Mrs. Norma L. Woods, past branch president.

Presentation was made to Goode by W. V. Windsor, first vice president of the Ft. Madison branch.

Dr. Wilhoit Points Out Slave Monstrosities

After a tiny start during a get-together, PYNE—Progressive Young Negro Enterprises—is working toward its second goal; bringing speakers for the Negro Heritage series.

Speaker Monday night was Dr. Frank Wilhoit, professor at Drake University, speaking on slavery.

Dr. Wilhoit first gave the history of the white slave during the Roman and Greek Empires, adding that slavery was always associated with a semi-agricultural, near militant society, as the United States was before the Civil War.

Pres. Had Slaves

The black slave, Wilhoit said, was a modern invention. He pointed out that the Founding Fathers, George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and others, had slaves; while Washington freed them in his will, Jefferson "couldn't bring himself to do it."

The most monstrous outgrowth of slavery were the slave codes, especially in Georgia, he stated, where no more than seven slaves were allowed to be together, unless a white was present. From Saturday until Monday no slave was allowed to bear arms, and at no time could he own a canoe, horse or cattle.

The need for PYNE had been long advocated, but it wasn't until this spring that it actually became an established organization. PYNE has plans to bring to the city an upsurging of pride in the black race, since Harvey Lloyd, a PYNE member, believes, as many do, that not enough young Negroes feel dignity in being black.

They extended a helping hand to the founders of PYNE, and through their efforts are bringing such distinguished guests as Dr. John Hope Franklin, Dr. Audrey Forrest and others to participate in the series.

Fieldhouse

Wayne Fieldhouse has also worked with the 25-30 members of PYNE, and he cited the problem of making young persons of the city become aware of PYNE's struggle: "Knowledge of PYNE is, so far, a by word of mouth matter." He said he thought that too many youngsters had not joined it because they were afraid wanting to learn about their heritage, and didn't know how to go about it.

"PYNE can be anything they want it to be," he said. "It can be a strong foundation on which to grow, or bring about a social community organization which can attack some of the major problems in Des Moines."

Franklin

On the Negro Heritage Series committee are Herb Cawthorne, chairman, Cecil Reed, Mrs. Eddie Easley and S. J. Williamson, Les Carter, Mrs. Edythe Cawthorne and Mr. Fieldhouse.

Next speaker will be Dr. Franklin, Nov. 27, beginning at 7:30 p.m. at the YMCA.

Leaders Ask Congress To Aid Poverty Program

Washington — Ten national civil rights leaders last Thursday urged Congress to pass an anti-poverty bill with funds at least at the level called for by the Administration.

That much money is needed, they warned, "if a national crisis is not to become a national disaster."

They also urged members of Congress to oppose any attempt to dismantle the Office of Economic Opportunity and scatter its functions among other government agencies.

Signers

Joining in the statement were: A. Philip Randolph, Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters; Roy Wilkins, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; Whitney Young, Jr., National Urban League; Dorothy Height, National Council of Negro Women; Clarence Michell, Leadership Conference on Civil Rights; Jack Wood, National Committee on Discrimination in Housing; Berkeley Burrell, National Business League; Bayard Rustin, A. Brother Jack McDuff And Organ At Sands

Brother Jack McDuff was at the New Sands Club last week, and I was fortunate enough to catch a few minutes with him.

He explained new jazz: "It's a new phase, still in the undeveloped stage. But it's not a commercial type, and not meant to be danced to." He said that he played it to an extent.

Brother Jack who has a special bag, who can knock a song into existence just by being stimulated by maybe a girl, (a new Negroess preferably), or the clanging bells on a streetcar—arrived here from Memphis, and took off after his performances here for Philly, Pa.

Race

John C. Handy Quintet recently released an album with "Tears of Ole Miss," a musical essay on that southern university, last of the red hot southern segregationist institutions. But Brother Jack said he'd leave it for someone else to take care of. He said that he gloried in the spunk of men (such as Handy, and others) who felt so strong on the issue. "It's (race issue) there, been there for 100 years. We've been very hip to it."

By carrying a tape recorder in his car, McDuff can compose for his whole troupe, made up of Abe Blossingame on drums; Mel Sparks, guitar; Danny Turner and LeRoy Johnson on flutes. Brother Jack threw in that it was seldom that two or more flutes were extensively used to make the sounds, a thing indicative of his style.

Fiddle

Did you know that McDuff began his famous career on bass fiddle? Odd, he said, since his switch to organ brought him from bass to treble cleft.

Brother Jack — brother, because a gentleman decided to change a song title to Brother Jack, since McDuff's renditions were communicative, like soul, like a "brother". It stuck.

Brother Jack McDuff, Memphis, D. M. and Philly are lucky, as are all the rest of the gigs he plays.

Robert Wright To Washington for Rights Educational Conf.

State NAACP president Robert A. Wright will attend the Equality in Education Conference convening in Washington, D.C. today, it was announced.

Wright said he would discuss avenues to better racially imbalanced schools, and ways to recruit Negroes to Iowa colleges and universities.

He said he was concerned that not many Iowa Negroes were going to Iowa colleges, and that there were more Negroes on the Iowa campuses in 1945-46 than there are now.

Tuition

The president also stated that he would like to see projects begun to give Negroes tuition for those who were not up to it academically.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Grandpa coughed, coughed again, and looked around the room apologetically. The youngest, who was taking music lessons, winked.

"Try it in G minor, Gramps." The whole family laughed appreciatively.

Later, riding on the bus, Grandpa emitted a sudden salvo of barks. "Coughin' better, hey, pal?" grinned the rugged type in the next seat. Grandpa nodded wanly, while the passengers within earshot chuckled.

In the barber's chair he held up a sudden warning finger. The barber stepped back; Grandpa took a deep breath, wiped out his handkerchief and coughed.

"With you around," quipped the barber, "Who needs opera singers?"

So it went, and Grandpa went right along with it. Coughing — a jolly subject. And so harmless.

Not Harmless

Harmless. "Some of the airways may be obstructed . . . the walls of the tiny air spaces may tear." "Air flow is hampered, the lungs are endangered." Those are statements taken from recent pamphlets on Respiratory Diseases—diseases of the organs of breathing.

A persistent cough—one that lingers on and on or keeps coming back—is usually a sign of chronic respiratory disease.

Emphysema, chronic bronchitis, lung cancer kill many thousands in the United States each year—no laughing matter. On the contrary, it's a matter of life and death. If you have a cough you can't shake off, see your doctor without delay.

Snack Tray For The Holiday Season

For refreshments that will net you a bright star as a holiday hostess, feature a colorful Edam cheese decorated with star-shaped cutouts and filled with a tangy, beer-flavored spread.

Serve it at planned parties or to drop-in guests with crisp melba toast, salty nuts, pimiento-stuffed olives and a beverage that's equally festive—perhaps beer in crystal-clear mugs that are given a holiday look by tying a tiny bell with bright ribbon to the handle of each mug.

EDAM CHEESE SPREAD

1 Edam cheese (3 to 3½ pounds)
¾ cup beer

1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
Few drops Tabasco
Paprika

Make star cutouts by cutting into red wax coating and peeling it off to let the color of the cheese show. Hollow out cheese from center leaving a 1-inch shell. Let scooped out cheese soften at room temperature. Using an electric mixer, mix cheese until smooth and fluffy. Gradually add beer, continuing to mix until blended. Mix in seasonings. Heap spread into cheese shell. Sprinkle top with paprika. There will be enough cheese spread for a refill.

JAMES BETHEL, Community Consultant, Glenwood State School and newly seated President of the Iowa Welfare Association, "kept his cool" at the interruption of last week's Association Meeting. Jim's dignity will always wear well. He is, you know, a Southern gentleman.

THE RICHARD ALLEN CHORUS' opening concert on Sunday was everything one could anticipate. This is a group of serious performers who follow a rigid practice regime throughout each year's schedule. It is directed as you know, by Mrs. Loretta Reeves.

SHILOH BAPTIST CHURCH'S PASTOR WILLIAM HEATH AND CHOIR made my day last Sunday. Their televised service was interesting and moving. Pastor Heath is always before the public—if you ask me!

CAROLYN CLINTON is fast-developing into a truly fine singer. Her solos on Sunday were most pleasing. She is Shiloh's Young Adult Choir director and does splendidly.

WALTER HENDERSON'S Sunday participation as soloist with Shiloh's choir was very good. It is hard to believe that one young man can possess two great talents. He recently modeled in the Entre Nous Fashion Show — wore a suit which he has tailored!

FREDA NAHAS directed My Fair Lady at Dowling High School, as you may know. Those who saw it express much pleasure and satisfaction. I heartily agree after having seen it on Monday night!

DR. ADA DUNNER'S HOME, scene of The Night of the Iguana Cast Party, was perfect casting for a party site. Its large rooms make possible a delightful roaming from group to group, thus sharing debates, play discussions and whatever. Too, it was possible for The Drama Workshop Board to meet undisturbed—while the party was in progress. The party's menu provided an abundance of good foods.

RUTH AND GEORGE LUDWIG, having shared in the launching of the annual Foreign Student Festival, were on the cast party scene! Ruth and George were the German couple in the play, you'll recall. At the party Ruth, with her guitar, provided delightful folk songs.

IRV WHITE, Anatomy of a Murder Judge, seen at The Night of the Iguana Cast Party goes to show how closely knit Des Moines little theater groups are. Actors, Committee participants and viewers remain pretty much in contact. It is all great fun!

JEANNETTE BETHEL, ACCOMPANIED BY JAY, her handsome son, didn't make the L.A. scene after all! When I attempted to check on this, only Jay was at home and all he would tell me was "No comment". At three years of age, Jay, these two words make a pretty smart reply.

HE SHARED PEARL BUCK'S HONEYMOON. Pearl Buck and her husband, Lawson, had been only recently married, when L. H. Bailey upon hearing Buck was in China, decided to join him and his new wife. The two men were naturalists and so had much in common. Over the years following, Pearl always claimed—in good humor—the Bailey monopolized him on their honeymoon. (Mrs. Ann Page is L. H. Bailey's granddaughter.)

FORMER BEAU inscribed date of former girl friend's marriage to another within a gold bracelet. This really happened. The bracelet was already lined with the important dates of their now broken affair. As a gift, he added the date of her marriage.

ADC Mothers Crash Welfare Conv.; They Demand Full Dignity

The sudden influx of A.D.C. mothers into the annual Iowa Welfare Association's convention brought scattered criticism and admiration from various officials.

The mothers were seeking support for better welfare programs, and submitted eleven demands to the state officials.

Many officials welcomed the surprising appearance of the ladies who demand "100 per cent of the 1967 cost of living rather than 95 per cent of the 1954 minimum."

Welcomed

The Rev. Cyril Engler, board member, said that he welcomed the intrusion. "We want to hear what these people have to say."

But Pierce Witmer, chairman of the Polk County Welfare Board said they should have taken their grievances to the "proper" agencies.

Donald McKenzie, director of the Polk County Community Action

Behind the Prison Bars Assults, Beatings

Sex in prison goes far beyond the mere homosexual activity which one ordinarily suspects of taking place in jail.

In Mississippi, male prisoners are allowed to have sexual relations with their wives periodically in a unique "motel type" arrangement.

In Missouri, two prisoners sexually assaulted another man behind bars, then murdered him.

In New York, a woman begged for five years in prison rather than one year in another jail where she knew she would be sexually molested.

December SEPIA presents a shocking picture of what really goes on behind prison walls.

Also included is a penetrating study of the role of the Negro woman in the home. After looking at the situation from all angles, weighing the arguments pro and con, an answer is given to the controversial question: DO NEGRO WOMEN RULE THE ROOST?

Council, said that he knew the ladies would appear at the convention. "The whole key to the problem was the ability to live in dignity."

He told of one woman who had been sick for two months, and her case worker would call every day to ask where she got various materials coming into the home.

He also said that he didn't think ADC mothers used the money in terms of "moral abuse. The system harshly tries to dictate moral codes. 95 per cent don't need it. If the rest of the community were 95 per cent as clean, the community would be nearly spotless."

Racial System Is Defended By Student

A North High senior criticized rioters and mis-interpretors of the Black Power slogan in the school newspaper recently.

Peggy Spates wrote in an editorial that "Black Power has been the source of much friction and deteriorating relations between the races . . . I tend to agree with Mr. (Stokely) Carmichael that Black Power means Negro unity . . ."

Liberals

Miss Spates also said that some individuals thought it necessary or advantageous to recreate the riots of the big cities this summer in "our schools this fall. Although many liberal-thinking politicians and sociologists agree the riots in the ghettos had just and solid reasons for their actions, we at North do not."

Assinine

The Achievement Scholarship finalist also said that "the races have come too far together and worked out too many problems for a few assinine bigots to try to wipe out all progress."

Why does some hair break off when combing?

Your hair is precious and delicate . . . and none of us like to see it break off for any reason. Scientists tell us that excessive use of hot combs and over-processing of hair with chemicals often are major causes of brittleness resulting in hair breakage. But hair that is naturally curly and tangles easily frequently breaks off in everyday combing. Notice how irritated your scalp becomes when you comb in contrast to the way your beautician does?

Your professional beautician knows that curly hair mats and tangles so easily that it should be softened before combing. Otherwise, unnecessary irritation to the scalp and damage to the shaft and ends of the hair occurs. To achieve this needed softening and a temporary relaxing effect that prevents breakage on all human hair (including wigs), most beauticians rely on Clairol® Hair-So-New® spray-on creme rinse. For combing ease and for beautifying your hair in many other ways, trained beauticians stock a complete family of fine Clairol products for your specific needs.

Visit your expert hairdresser, who cares about your hair care and your comfort. Whatever the nature of your hair problems, only your professional beautician knows the answer for sure.

SIDELIGHTS ON MAYORALTY ELECTIONS LAST WEEK

Negro mayors were elected in two large cities last week. All kinds of interpretations have been placed on the results depending upon what interest the writers and political dopesters represent.

One glaring angle was the unwillingness of the Democratic organizations in each town to support the nominated candidates. And while all kinds of excuses were given, it apparently dwindle down to the unwillingness to give a Negro the power and influence these jobs carry.

For years, both men had been good Democrats. They helped do the party chores and in each instance had been elected to office on "the ticket". But this was just too much for the machine so they welched on their loyalty and placed the emphasis on the color of a man's skin. This was certainly "thanks" for past loyalties.

These men could not have been elected without the vote of some white people. And this in spite of the fact that Negroes are in the majority in Gary. In each instance some white voters felt that the Negro candidates were qualified for the job and were willing to give them a chance at running the government.

Both Stokes of Cleveland and Hatcher of Gary have been good citizens. They have not joined the rabble rousers or insisted that everything everybody is doing is wrong and that they have all the answers.

Both men have the interest of the city, country and race at heart. They know that they have been intrusted with a big job; that they will be watched and that their success will pave the way for others to come.

GENERAL MOTORS ACTS, NOT TALKS

Many people and establishments have complained that now that new and different jobs are being offered Negroes in many instances that did not exist a few years ago, there are none or but few available to take advantage of the opportunities.

Without in any way offering excuses, the fact remains that this is true mainly because opportunity to train or to begin at the bottom and work up has not been available.

Recognizing this situation and the responsibility to do something about it, General Motors in Detroit has concluded that unemployment was a great contributor to the riots in that city.

General Motors Corp. has instituted a local hiring program since the Detroit riot and in the last three months has signed 12,000 persons, including 5,000 Negroes. Many of the new employees are from Detroit's inner city, the heart of the riot area.

G.M. chairman James M. Roche said the program has been successful enough to warrant further expansion.

Roche said that for many years G.M. tried to avoid job discrimination but pointed out that after the riot "it became clear to us that additional implementation of our basic policy was essential."

They even went up and down Twelfth street with sound trucks announcing that jobs were open, another company official said. Much of Twelfth street was laid waste by the riot.

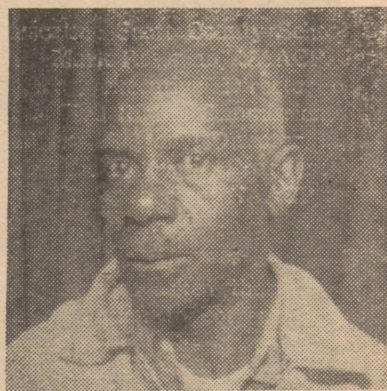

About 90 per cent are rated as competent, Roche said, while the rest need further training.

Industries in other towns may well follow this program for if men are well employed and enjoy the equal exercise of their civil rights, there will be few to listen to the folks who follow the trouble makers among whites and blacks.

SPORTS Hawkeye Super Stars

With Allen Ashby

If the Iowa-Northwestern game was served up a movie recipe or any other sort of play, nobody would accept it as being possible, let alone probable. You couldn't give that slot away. And we suppose most of the spectators who were there didn't believe it, either.

Three touchdowns without losing the ball. This should knock over three game predictions into a cocked hat. We don't see how they can bounce back home from that one. Maybe the last game against Illinois, but not this week.

We looked at the game films and saw a hard hitting Iowa team that just can't seem to pick up a win. Everbody who is supposed to lose to the Hawkeyes comes up with a fantastic effort and that does it. Oh, well, hope we can keep the freshman team eligible for next year.

Keys

We thought the Purdue-Minnesota game would be the game of the week, but that was a block buster. If LeRoy Keys doesn't win the Heisman trophy, the guy who does win it should write Keys a letter of apology and mail the trophy to him.

A lot of the All-American teams for various magazines are already picked, but are not released yet. If everyone waited until the first week in December to pick their teams, there would be some guys left off these national magazine teams.

One

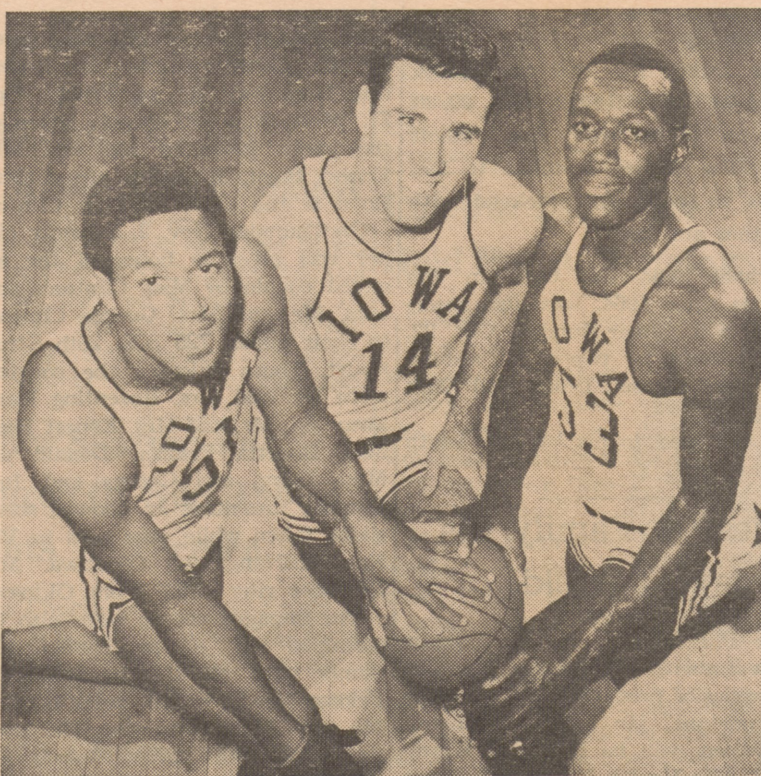

When we were a kid there was only one All-American team, Walter Camp's team that appeared in Colliers Magazine.

Then there were others, but you had to make that one to really rate. The others came along later and now the job of picking the nation's eleven best players is too big, so the the pickers just pick a squad and let it go at that. They could be right.

All-State

Here at home we looked at the list of all-state high school football teams and reflected how few Negroes made it in the early days. Two of the very first so far as we know were our older brother, Lucius in 1916. We believe he was the first Negro to make it. Then the next one was Curtis Morton in 1919. Morton could have played for anybody today. Big, around 190 and fast enough to win the state high school hundred yard dash, the guy must have made a lot of North High's opponents wish they were somewhere else.

There was one guy we thought made it but didn't. And we were surprised at some of the guys we had forgotten about. For instance, Traffic Officer Bob Webb was on the all state end for North High in 1928. School official Walter Thompson was a halfback on that same team, but played at East High. Then there was that period when the team was

Iowa City, Ia.—A year ago, Coach Ralph Miller referred to 1966-67 as "open house year." He meant that no one was a proven starter as he built from a nucleus of seven lettermen. The team "jelled" into a 16-8 record and 9-5 in the conference for third place.

No one had the inside track on a regular job last November. Now two veterans have such classification: forward Sam Williams, all-conference in his first year of major play after two years as a JC athlete; and forward-shifted-from-center senior Huston Breedlove.

Shown here are Breedlove, Joe Bergman and Williams.

taken on a weekend trip to Chicago and Negroes didn't make it. Ah yes, there were some good ones. But they couldn't rate. That got busted up and more and more Negroes showed up on the all-state teams.

Iowa, Fairest on Earth

You may sing of the glorious Mountains
And their snow-capped peaks so high;
I can sing of a sight that is fairer.
That delights while it rests the eye;
Tis the beautiful rolling prairie,
Where the green hills meet the blue sky.

There's a land that is fairer and dearer
Than any strange country on earth,
Where the breezes sweep over the prairie,
In the beautiful land of my birth.
And the sunlight kisses the green fields
Of old Iowa-fairest on earth.

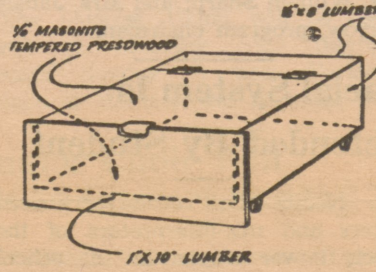

Bystander Closed For Thanksgiving

Because of the Thanksgiving Holiday Thursday, Nov. 23, the Bystander office will be closed. All news should reach the office, therefore, no later than Monday for the early deadline.

Under-Bed Toy Box

TOY storage is a constant problem in the home with children—particularly following Christmas and birthdays, when the supply is increased. Having a convenient, yet out-of-the-way, storage box gives the child excellent training in putting away his belongings and gives Mother a big lift, too. Under-the-bed storage is excellent, especially when the box has casters for easy removal and a lid to keep out the dust. Such a box, as illustrated, may be constructed in the home workshop of materials carried by lumber yards.

Required are suitable lengths of 8-inch x one-half inch lumber for the back and two sides of the box, a front of 1" x 10" lumber, sufficient Masonite 1/4" Tempered Presdwood for the bottom and top, casters, hinges and bolts and nuts to attach them.

The wider piece of lumber on the front improves the appearance of the box when it is under the bed. Prime and paint the box in a color to match the furnishings of the room.

Sonny Liston Will Fight For Davis Now

Las Vegas, Nev. — Entertainer Sammy Davis, Jr., and former world heavyweight boxing champion Sonny Liston discussed terms that will make Davis the fighter's manager after official signing in Las Vegas, Nev., Nov. 22. Liston wants to fight California champion Henry Clark Dec. 15, in Las Vegas, but needs Nevada approval.

Police Blotter

Leland D. Butts, 22, of 1408 McCormick street, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to twenty five years in the Men's Reformatory at Anamosa. He pleaded guilty to robbery with aggravation in the Aug. 29 holdup of Target Service Station, 1427 E. University, taking $67.50.

John Lee, of 1053 9th street, was charged with larceny in the Indianapolis holdup of a supermarket.

Jimmy Hughes, 19, 127 11th street, West Des Moines, who said he had broken into at least 22 homes within the last year, pleaded guilty in connection with the breaking and entering of a West Des Moines home.

Ft. Dodge—Harlan Price Thomas, formerly of Des Moines, was arrested last Thursday in connection with the beating of Fred Williams, Sr., 73, of Ft. Dodge. Thomas was charged with murder with the fatal beating.

Charles Rivers, Jr., 18, who said he lives at 671 Twenty-sixth st., and Baron Lewis, 19, who gave his address as 920 S.E. Twenty-seventh street, were ordered to post $1,000 bond each or be held in the Polk County jail until a hearing at 1:30 p.m. Nov. 28. They were charged with burglary in connection with a break-in Sunday afternoon at the Chesterfield Opportunity Center at 2738 S. E. Maury street.

You may sing of the grand old ocean
When the white sails its breast adorn

I am sure that there is a sight that is grander in the dear land where I was born.
When the warm wind ruffles the green waves
In a field of Iowa corn.

You may sing of the magnificent mansions
Of the castles on the Rhine;
They can never bring rest to the homesick

For their splendor I do not pine,
But I long for the little old farm house on that dear childhood home of mine

In Dear Old Iowa-Land of my Birth.
