SECOND PUBLIC HEARING CANCELED:

Slaven Manor Agrees to Integrate

Add More Savings And Loan Assns. to List Of "No Discrimination"

Washington, D. C. — Assistant Treasury Secretary Robert A. Wallace, the Department's Equal Opportunity Officer, last Tuesday announced that letters are being sent to some 6,000 savings and loan associations, savings banks and other organizations which issue and redeem U. S. Savings Bonds and Savings Notes, providing detailed information on requirements for compliance with the Treasury Department's new Equal Employment regulations affecting all organizations handling these securities.

Hiring

Some 12,000 commercial banks with federal deposits which issue and pay savings bonds are already covered by Treasury Equal Employment requirements. The new regulations affect about 6,000 other organizations.

These regulations prohibit discrimination in hiring, promotion, training and other personnel activities on the part of these organizations.

John Skipper Will Role In "Fever Heat"

A Des Moines resident will have a role in a movie being shot in the Des Moines area.

He is young John Skipper who will play a mechanic in the movie "Fever Heat", being filmed in Stewart and Dexter, Ia. Skipper will be seen in several scenes as one of a group of young men who race cars.

Fever Heat, starring Nick Adams, Vaughn Taylor and Jeanine Riley, is the story of a big-time racing driver whose car breaks down in a small town. Adams gets involved with dirt track racing. Writing the script is Henry Felson of Des Moines, nationally known writer and author of over 30 books.

Marine Sgt. Taylor Joins With S. C. Unit

Beaufort, S. C. — Marine Sergeant John A. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sloan E. Taylor of 1441 W. 14th street, has reported for duty with Marine Aircraft Group 32, a supporting unit of the Marine Corps Air Station, Beaufort, S. C.

The air station provides service and support facilities for two aircraft groups of the Second Marine Aircraft Wing based at the air station.

To Recruit Negro College Economists

Washington — A program aimed at recruiting young economists from predominantly Negro colleges for jobs with the Bureau of Labor Statistics has been launched by the Department of Labor.

Under the program, representatives of Negro institutions — often heads of economics departments — visit the Bureau here and get firsthand views of job opportunities for economists.

Becomes First Buyer At Younkers Store

Mrs. Francis Cuie will become the first Negro buyer serving the Art and Needlework at Younkers Brothers Department Store.

Mrs. Cuie, an employee eighteen years at Younkers, will order and work with arts and needlework and will also "go to market" twice a year in New York City in January and June.

For the past six years, she was assistant buyer in the Notions Department, but right now is under supervision with the present department buyer. The appointment becomes effective Feb. 1.

A member of Corinthian Baptist Church and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, her department is located on the fifth floor on the eastside of Younkers, and she and her husband, Henry W., reside at 916 24th street. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ovel Carter, 1180 14th street.

NAACP Monthly Meet

The Des Moines Branch of NAACP will hold its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 28, at Willkie House.

The executive board will meet at 7:30 p.m. and membership at large at 8:30 p.m. in the lounge.

Yearly reports of committee work should be compiled and mailed to reach the National Office by Dec. 31. Remember memberships.

Task Force Meets; Issue Whether To Have Professional Or Voluntary Rights Commission

After another meeting, the League of Iowa Municipalities Task Force decided that smaller committees should be formed before the next task force meeting, and also discussed avenues in which to go to form Human Rights Commissions.

The discussion came Wednesday night at Ft. Des Moines Hotel, where Park Rinard, director of the League of Iowa Municipalities, commended the force for the work it had done. "There's going to be a rough time ahead, I have to be realistic. But if we keep moving in this direction, we will achieve a goal some felt was unattainable a while ago."

Robert A. Wright, president of the Iowa State Conference of Branches said he was concerned that Davenport, "a city that has so many Negroes, failed to adopt a fair housing ordinance." Davenport Human Rights Commission last week voted down the fair housing ordinance.

He also said that the force "should purh against the imbalance of de facto segregation" in the schools. In a letter to the Board of Directors last week the NAACP Youth Council criticized the Board because of a controversy at West High where only one Negro was reported to be attending.

On whether to push for a Human Rights Commission in each city, the force was undecided whether to have the Commission voluntary or professional; the disadvantages being that persons in the community who offer their services may not be equipped to handle the problems objectively.

Interior

Mayor Frank Boshe, of Cedar Rapids further pointed out that, in order to better police community relations, he sent his police chief to the University of Iowa to talk with various heads of departments in that capacity, and received the impression that one professor felt that the Negro was inferior in the first place.

The force is scheduled to meet again in December.

Entitled "Harlem On My Mind," this exhibition is being created with the direct participation of members of the Harlem community of all levels and all ages in New York.

Pass Rights Bill Now Senate Leaders Urged

Washington — In an effort to assure enactment of the bill to protect persons in the exercise of their civil rights, the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights has called upon President Johnson, Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield and Minority Leader Everett Dirksen to press for a vote before adjournment of Congress.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Greenville, Miss.—Thirty thousand pounds of food for distribution to hungry Negroes in the Mississippi Delta has been sent to the Delta Ministry by the fifth district of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. On hand was Bishop H. Thomas Primm, Nashville, Tenn., presiding bishop of the fifth district. Bishop Primm also gave the Delta Ministry $5,000 contributed by members of his district to help in buying food stamps for families without incomes.

Cleveland—The Masons, Eagles, Elks, Moore, Oddfellows and other orders devoted to fraternity and fellowship were urged today to re-examine their policy of excluding Negroes from membership. The Independent Order of Oddfellows specifically exclude Negroes as well as "Chinese, Polynesians, Indians, half-breeds and mixed bloods."

A special study of Negro employment in the rubber industry in Ohio calls for an aggressive attack on patterns of discrimination that keep Negro women from jobs and that keep Negro men from skilled work and from white collar jobs in most of the industry's manufacturing plants in Ohio. One of the four companies had 6.3 percent Negro male clerical workers where another had none; one company had 4.5 percent Negro female employees and another had half of one percent. All four companies participate in Plans for Progress and are officially committed to non-discriminatory employment practices.

Washington—Secretary Robert C. Weaver of the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development said a public housing program now in the experimental stage offers great national potential for homeownership by low-income families. The Secretary spoke in Washington, D. C. to the National Council of Negro Women, which is sponsoring the experiment in Gulfport, Miss. In the experiment, tenants build up equity by doing maintenance work, and by increasing rental payments as their incomes rise.

Magazine Says Teens Show Race Tolerance

New York—Although integration on the high school level has had rough going, Negro and white teens across the country increasingly show a willingness to accept each other. That's the conclusion Seventeen Magazine reached after investigating the progress and problems of integration in the high schools with the help of high school newspaper staffs all over the country, including Miss

MISS JAMES

Bettendorf Fashionable Apartment House Open to Non-whites After Probe

Davenport, Ia. — Another public hearing was canceled last week when the owners of Slaven Manor, Inc., of Bettendorf agreed to end alleged discriminatory practices.

The owner of the exclusive-no-more apartment house also agreed to issue a formal statement "unequivocally stating that the policy of the corporation and all agents is non-discriminatory with respect to the selection of tenants."

The policy "shall furthermore be embodied for a period of one year in a brief statement in any and all newspaper, radio or television advertisements used or issued by the corporation; also, such brief statements shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the office of Slaven Manor."

"... For a period of one year, a report shall be made periodically, but not less than once a month, by Slaven Manor to the Iowa Civil Rights Commission on all actions taken by the apartment complex owners with respect to non-white tenant applicants."

Order

James Thomas, director of the Iowa Civil Rights Commission, said Monday that if Slaven Manor did not live up to the policy that the Commission could issue orders commanding them to follow the rules, or bring them again to a public hearing.

During the case, a public hearing slated for September was held up by injunction, (before the city elections) but later (after the elections) ruling was made that the hearing should be scheduled.

After Albert Gaines, complainant, found other housing, he withdrew the complaint, and the $500 bond provided by an unknown party was sent back. However, the Commission, in making sure that all designated establishments comply with the new Fair Housing Law, including Slaven Manor which has 104 units, filed a complaint.

While Gaines filed the complaint for interests of his own, the Commission filed for interests of all non-whites. Because there was no public hearing as yet, there was technically "no finding of discrimination" or a finding of discrimination.

Owner of the Manor is Vesta C. Slavens.

Thomas also announced that the Commission sent out flyers to over 9,000 Iowa brokers and real estate salesmen, warning them that their state licenses would be in jeopardy if they "engage in housing discrimination".

The flyer said, in part: "Any licensing authority responsible to the governor shall institute such disciplinary action, including revocation of license, as may be provided by statute or other regulation."

Model Cities Program Is Approved for Des Moines

Des Moines has been one of the cities chosen who will share in the $11 million in planning funds which Congress has appropriated for the first round of applications in the Model Cities program. If Des Moines successfully completes the planning process, the city will share in the $300 million which Congress has just appropriated for supplemental grants and extra urban renewal funds expressly earmarked for Model Cities. Unfortunately, it will not be able to share in an additional $350 million which President Johnson had requested for this program—but which Congress did not appropriate.

Area

The area lies just northwest of Stanlie James, now a freshman at Spelman College, Atlanta, Ga. In a special report in its November issue the teen publication reveals the pitfalls (parental opposition, differences in culture, jargon and tastes) as well as the successes (new understanding of the problems, racial intermingling in school cafeterias, dances and at parties).

Grow

From all parts of the country, the evidence shows that teens have an impressive ability to change and grow with the times.

One teen spoke up for himself and many like him who for the first time are accepting Negroes: "I was brought up to beware of Negroes, and before integration at our school, I was scared to talk or even to say hi. Now I have a Negro friend."

Miss James is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis James.

the downtown business district.

The amount of the Des Moines planning grant is to be announced in a few days, federal officials said. Des Moines applied for $199,303 in federal money, to be combined with $49,826 in local funds.

"For the Model Cities program to succeed," said HUD Secretary Robert Weaver, "there must be full involvement of the skills, commitment, and resources of Federal, state, county, and city governments with neighborhood residents, private enterprise, organized labor, and community agencies and organizations of all types."

"The neighborhoods that have been selected for the first round of the program represent every section of the country. They are in communities of all sizes. They have an incredible diversity and complexity of problems. They represent the hard core both of need and of opportunity in meeting our urban problems. They are on the cutting edge of American life. For in them we shall start now to transform blight and decay into health and hope."

Low Income

"In the target areas there are one million families, or over four million people. Nearly a third of the families have incomes of less than $3,000 a year, and the vast majority earn less than the medium income level in the locality. A fourth live in sub-standard housing, and many more are overcrowded in deteriorating buildings."

YMCA Youthmobiles Are Transporting Children For After School Games

YMCA Youthmobiles have been transporting 5th and 6th graders from their schools to the Y.

The program, which began Oct. 2 of this year, was initiated by Sam Edgars, general secretary, for schools whose recreational facilities are limited.

Another factor which led to transporting was when Johnson and others found that due to the Y's inconvenient location, youths couldn't get there, since the freeway posed an immediate barrier.

Mick Johnson, YMCA Youth Director in charge of the Inner City Youth Club program, said that approximately 400 youths were in the after-school activities, from 3:10-3:30 to 4:30 p.m. The Youth Mobiles pick up the children from their schools, transport them to the Y, and return them to the school.

Included on the agenda for ICYC are football, basketball, track, and table games, all supervised.

Overwhelming

Johnson, 23, who envisioned the idea, said that the response has been overwhelming; as stimulation, he ordered 150 ICYC teeshirts, presuming that number of children. The shirts display the ICYC initials, and coloring around the sleeve and neck for the different schools.

Participating in the program are 5th grade Bird and Molton on Monday and 6th graders on Wednesday; Grant and Nash 5th grade on Tuesday, 6th graders on Thursday; Friday, Lucas and Willard, alternating 5th and 6th grade. There are also swimming periods for three schools on Saturday.

Although there is an admission fee, it is not mandatory. The program will be continued throughout the school year. Interested boys should contact the Y for membership.

Tradesmen for Building Industry, NAACP Urges

The Des Moines branch, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People announced Tuesday that they were looking for men who will be qualified for the building industry.

John M. Estes, Jr., president of the Des Moines branch, said that journeymen of any class or persons who have the ability to lay bricks or be an electrician helper or in a similar field would be eligible for the Federal Government's affirmative program concerning non-discrimination in the building industry. He said that contractors under this program are required to at least give interviews to these persons.

Proof

Estes stated that the name and address of qualified men are needed from all over the state in order to present a list to show to the heads of contractors who may be hesitant about Negroes. The list, Estes said, will prove to them that we have qualified Negroes to do the job.

The following regional nominees are on the ballot: Region I—Charles Johnson, lawyer, president, Northwest Area Conference of NAACP, Seattle, Wash., and Jack E. Singer Lou Rawls Really Is A Preacher at Heart

by Eleanor E. Tate

Show time, 8 p.m. KRNT Theater. My time, 9 p.m. backstage with Lou Rawls.

RAWLS

Lou Rawls—who can really sock it to them, who was doing just that when he moaned about his baby lying stretched out on a hard white table, when he pleaded to let his baby go, when he relected about his life when it was a very good year—relaxing for a while, padding about in his stocking feet deciding on what to wear for the second half.

He displayed an ultra-thick, black, shiny fur coat to prove he was ready for the "hawk" (the bad cold wind) he had brought with him from Chicago.

"The most important thing for me while I'm on tour," he said, examining a shirt with green embroidery down the front, "is to do my job and get home. But I want to please the audience, to do the best I can."

Fans

He also advised a young performer who wanted to sell a record: Should he get an agent first? "Get the record first. There are a million people in the world and they all got agents. If you don't have the record or the recording company, you won't make it."

Yes, and as fan Dorothy Gordon watched, he said his home was most important. What was the need of a fine home and car if he had to be away from it so many times, doing gigs, and once cutting five albums in one year? But he did admit that after a while he would get bored, and want to work again, the true mark of a dedicated singer.

If he had choose some other field he decided he would be a preacher, because they "get all the money."

Movie

He announced that beginning around June, he would commence shooting a movie in which he plays the part of trumpeter Louis Armstrong, beginning as a teenager to Armstrong's present life. Armstrong is technical director.

Manager for Rawls is J. W. Alexander, former manager of the late Sam Cook.

Accompanying him were combolists Gil D. Mahoneys, Mel Lee, Francois Vaz and Bobby Haynes, and aspiring songstress Patricia Valentine.

The concert was sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, with Al Beatty, vice president and Merle Engika giving special assistance.

Negroes Continue Success in Election

Increased successes for Negro GOP candidates was also much in evidence in the 1967 election, according to the National Republican, with Judge William W. Parker, of Waterloo, Ia., leading his local ticket to victory with a winning plurality of 18,890 votes. This victory made Judge Parker one of two Negro judges in the Iowa Municipal Court system.

Virgil E. Brown and John Kellogg won seats on the Cleveland City Council. In Bellefontaine, Ohio, two-term City Council member, Louis Ratleff, became the first of his race to win election to the Presidency of the City Council. Wendell Stokes won his sixth consecutive two-year term to the City Council of Urbana, Ohio. And in Springfield, Marysville and London, Ohio, Douglas Gardner, Clifford Brown and Allen J. Freeman won seats on the Board of Education and City Councils, respectively.

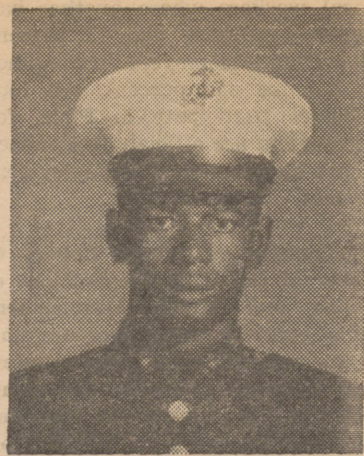

George Woods, well-known Philadelphia deejay, won his first election bid to that city's Council, and Lorenzo Hill captured the office of Controller in Pittsburgh.

The Shirelles Have Adapted To The Ways

Soul rock has come a long way, from the 1950's Phil Phillips and the Romans to Ruby and the Romantics to the polished sound of the Supremes.

Over the years, singing sensations have come and gone, some able to adapt to the current trend or build themselves a brand new bag; others have fallen to the old record heap.

Adapting

The Shirelles are adapting to the ways; they have moved from teen gigs to nightclubs, where Bessie Simmons, Shirelle leader who, with Linda, Cookie and Marie, were at the 5-0-5 Club last week tells me has a warmer atmosphere than that of a stage or concert. "You feel like you're in a big, wide open field."

The Shirelles realize that they no longer capture the teen ear: "Teen-age things are okay, but they're in a different field." She said it was necessary to work up an entire act now for the more criticizing group, an act which usually is decided just before going on, in order to feel "the pulse of the people."

Dream

Although Miss Simmons had not how to use hand grenades, a compass and the principles of map reading and land navigation. He learned how to detect and disarm mines and booby traps and, while being exposed to live machine gun fire, he learned to advance safely from one point to another.

chosen the entertainment especially as her token dream, she said that now she was in the spotlight, she wouldn't give it up for another field. It was her thing.

The Shirelles were another celebrity, who, after finishing their performance Monday night, expected to rest by watching television for a couple hours, only to find of course that the local stations went off at midnight. Watching television is their only enjoyment while on tour, Miss Simmons said.

Thanks Bessie, Linda, Cookie and Marie. See you in Illinois.

Storybook Children

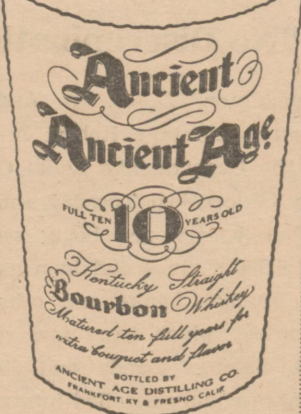

Remember Judy Clay? Well, she and Billy Vera have made a fine recording of "Storybook Children", a song which has a double meaning to me. Why can't we be like storybook children; the dark princess who marries the blond handsome prince from some far-off land, I wonder? According to Bob Rolontz of Atlantic Records, Storybook Children "concerns a boy and girl who live in two different world and wish they could live their lives like 'Storybook Children'. I presume you understand, but if you don't, buy the record anyway. I like it, I think you will, too. But of course I would like the record, since I'm emotionally wrapped up in its meaning, and so on

Keep Anti-Poverty War Under OEO; NAACP Urges Senate

New York — Despite the $460-million slash in the House-passed anti-poverty bill, Nov. 15, the program will continue to be administered by the Office of Economic Opportunity, as urged.

In a telegram to House Speaker John M. McCormack, and Minority Leader Gerald Ford, the NAACP's Executive Committee expressed "dismay" and "alarm" at the "drive to cripple the anti-poverty program by transferring vital elements of its program to other Federal agencies."

The bill now goes to a conference committee to compromise the House and Senate differences. The House bill calls for a $1.6 billion program; the Senate voted for $2.26 billion.

A Delicious Dessert For Holiday Economy-Rich Pumpkin Pie

SPICY GOOD AND CREAMY RICH PUMPKIN PIE is the perfect treat to climax any holiday meal. And, here's a recipe we'll all want to try... it calls for only one egg. You'll notice the difference in savings, but certainly never in taste; two tablespoons of quick-cooking tapioca takes the place of more eggs.

PUMPKIN PIE

2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
2/3 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon ginger

1-1/2 cups mashed cooked pumpkin
1 egg, well beaten
1-1/2 cups milk
Pastry for one crust 9-inch pie
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg

Combine quick-cooking tapioca, sugar, salt, spices, and pumpkin; mix well. Add egg and milk and blend well. Roll pastry 1/8 inch thick. Line a 9-inch pie pan. Trim pastry 1 inch larger than pan, fold edge to form a standing rim, and flute. Fill with pumpkin mixture. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 1 hour, or until done. (Pie is done when a knife inserted near the edge of filling comes out clean. Then center will be soft but will continue cooking after pie is removed from oven.) Serve warm, or cool to room temperature. Garnish with whipped cream, if desired.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Fifty-three thousand people lost their lives in highway accidents last year for no better reason than that somebody was careless or ill-equipped for the task of driving.

But there was another reason too, and a group of doctors considering the problem at an American Medical Association meeting put their fingers squarely on it.

Most of the deaths, it was pointed out, are not directly due to the

SP/4 ROBERT (BOB) L. DANIELS arrived in town Saturday from Fort Rucker, Ala. Bob, a '65 East High School graduate and former Grand View College student attended helicopter school at his present station, finishing as an assistant crew chief—thus winning his first wings. Taking advantage of his new locale, Bob visited Montgomery and Enterprise; Tampa, Panama City, and Pensacola, Fla. He was in Atlanta a number of times. His assignment in the postal section has prevented his seeing New Orleans' Mardi Gras. We're glad that Bob is so fine a representative of Iowa.

JOANN CHEATON in London for the marriage of her son, Corporal Joseph E. Johnson to Joyce Laurel Harrison, a Jamaica-born dress designer, spent a joyous seven weeks in September and early October. (She saw no fog!)

A GIVE-AWAY FATHER was a friend of the family, although Joyce had a stepfather. Such was the custom.

GUESTS numbered something over the 400 invitations sent. An invitation means the entire family attends, should it choose to do so.

WEDDING APPAREL is similar for both mothers: Joyce's mother wore pink and the groom's (JoAnn) blue. JoAnn's unbelievably lovely dress was made by Joyce and her mother! It was a sleeveless blue shift style. Its waist-length blouse is of lace; the skirt consists of ten pale blue silk tiers. Its net-lined full length coat is of lace. The coat collar and fronts are scalloped! Gorgeous! (Made in a day and a half.) The bride made JoAnn another sleeveless blue flowered metallic shift!

PLACING A SAMPLE OF THE WEDDING CAKE on an end table, JoAnn served me a slice. The wedding cake had a four tier center surrounded by nine smaller cakes. It seemed much like our fruit cake).

THAT THE BRIDE TO BE SHOULD NOT BE SEEN by her fiancé on the wedding day, as suggested by JoAnn, created something more than a stir. The idea was unheard of but in deference to JoAnn, was observed.

A SKILLED COOK, JoAnn, feeling a military wedding called for some American fare, prepared fried chicken, macaroni salad and baked beans. The bride's family prepared curried goat, ice and beans, and an approximately yard and a half long loaf of duck bread with a big duck in the center and about fourteen little ducks encircling it.

Rick Ramsey Named As School Rep. For Kwanis Club Meeting

Rick Ramsey has been named to be the senior boy to represent North High School for the month of November at the Kwanis Club meetings.

Ramsey, co-captain of the 1967 football team, was also one of the representatives for North to the Governor's "U.N. Day" at the capital, Oct. 24.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ramsey, 801 Boyd street.

COCKTAILS were almost JoAnn's undoing. The "cheering" (toasting) is done with quite small glasses. At the first "cheer" JoAnn "downed" her tiny glassful. Her son in an aside says "You're supposed to sip". "That little bit?" questioned our dismayed JoAnn. At the wedding supper JoAnn prepared drinks — American style. (?????)

BUCKINGHAM PALACE and its Changing of the Guard were an unforgettable sight; Westminster Abbey, The Houses of Parliament, and of course Trafalgar Square were viewed. In Piccadilly Square she enjoyed the Que Club where she heard Maxine Brown, The Temptations, and the Drifters. Missed Sammy Davis at The Talk of the Town—he was two weeks earlier.

RUTH ANN GAINES, a drama major at Dubuques Clark College, on tour with a college drama group entertaining the military visited JoAnn and the new family.

JOSEPH AND JOYCE hope to be in the States in mid-winter. Tentatively Feb. 28 and a month's stay.

U.S. Court Reverses Youth's Arson Charge

Atlanta, Ga. — Conviction of 12 year old mentally retarded youth, jailed on charges of arson after four hours of police questioning, was reversed here this week by NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF) attorneys.

The U.S. Court of Appeals ruled on grounds that the youth's confession was not voluntary since his interrogation took place without legal counsel or knowledge of his parents.

LDF attorneys told the court that Charles Brown was removed from Blakeney Elementary School in Waynesboro, Ga. by sheriff's officers. The law officials had been informed that the youth was seen leaving a school where fire subsequently broke out.

Driven

"During the hours of 11 a.m. to approximately 3 p.m. he was driven to various locations in and around Waynesboro, including some unpopulated areas, where fires had been set," the lawyers said.

He was interrogated during the trip by officers whose guns were visible to the youth, the LDF asserted.

The LDF also argued that neither Brown nor his parents "have ever been provided with satisfactory notice of the charges."

Mrs. Mildred Bayles Attends UN Seminar

Mrs. Mildred Bayles, 3004 Bowdoin, recently returned from a study and seminar at the United Nations in New York City, one of 41 Methodists from Iowa who traveled from St. Marks Methodist Church in Iowa City to the U.N. by chartered bus.

Purpose

The purpose of this Seminar was to acquaint Iowa Methodists with the organization and work of the United Nations and the role of the church in International Affairs. A second purpose of the trip was to help persons experience the meaning of Christian Fellowship through a combined program of worship, study, touring, discussion and recreation. In one of their tours, the group found themselves caught in the middle of the recent Peace Demonstration as Secretary Rusk was speaking.

Beside tours of the city, Mrs. Bayles visited with her brother-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bayles, of Jamaica, N.Y., who treated her to dinner and a Broadway Production of "Hallelujah Baby", starring Leslie Uggams.

Mrs. Bayles was sent to the U.N. by the Women's Society of Christian Service of Burns Methodist Church of which she is President. She is also District Secretary of the South Iowa Conference WSCS in the Methodist Church.

Legal Action Begun To Halt Northern School Imbalance

New York — The first of a series of legal actions designed to correct racially imbalanced schools through the merger of adjacent school districts has been initiated by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Announcement of the new move was made by Roy Wilkins and General Counsel Robert L. Carter at a news conference in the Association's headquarters here, Nov. 15. The announcement followed filing a petition requesting dissolution of the 80 per cent Negro school district in Wyandanchi Long Island, N. Y., and its merger with five surrounding districts, with more than 90 per cent white.

Why does some hair break off when combing?

Your hair is precious and delicate... and none of us like to see it break off for any reason. Scientists tell us that excessive use of hot combs and over-processing of hair with chemicals often are major causes of brittleness resulting in hair breakage. But hair that is naturally curly and tangles easily frequently breaks off in everyday combing. Notice how irritated your scalp becomes when you comb in contrast to the way your beautician does?

Your professional beautician knows that curly hair mats and tangles so easily that it should be softened before combing. Otherwise, unnecessary irritation to the scalp and damage to the shaft and ends of the hair occurs. To achieve this needed softening and a temporary relaxing effect that prevents breakage on all human hair (including wigs), most beauticians rely on Clairol® Hair-So-New® spray-on creme rinse. For combing ease and for beautifying your hair in many other ways, trained beauticians stock a complete family of fine Clairol products for your specific needs.

Visit your expert hairdresser, who cares about your hair care and your comfort. Whatever the nature of your hair problems, only your professional beautician knows the answer for sure.

Fine Poultry Stuffing For Turkey Brazil Nuts In Poultry Stuffing

Brazil nuts chopped with all their creamy richness contribute a provocative flavor and texture to poultry dressings. This dressing truly creates as much interest and praise as the turkey.

When baking one of the smaller turkeys this holiday season, part of the dressing can be served as a side dish. The turkey cavity will probably not hold an adequate supply for all guests. This extra portion can be baked in aluminum foil the last hour the turkey is in the oven. Put the envelope of dressing in the corner of the roasting pan with the turkey.

Just as there is news in the smaller turkeys, there is new interest in a Brazil nut, raisin and bread crumb stuffing. The nuts and raisins give moistness to the bread crumbs, and this fruit-nut addition doubly steps up the flavor.

BRAZIL NUT RAISIN STUFFING

1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup finely chopped onion
3 quarts soft bread crumbs
2 cups finely chopped Brazil nuts
2 cups finely diced celery
2 cups raisins
1/2 cup chopped parsley
1 tablespoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup water or stock

Melt butter, add onion and cook until onion is tender, but not brown. Add bread crumbs, Brazil nuts, celery, raisins, parsley and seasonings. Cook about 5 minutes over medium heat, stirring constantly. Add water or stock, toss lightly. Stuff turkey with part of the stuffing. Put remaining stuffing in center of square of aluminum foil. Fold and press sides tightly together. Roast turkey. Place aluminum-wrapped stuffing in oven during last hour of roasting. YIELD: 10 cups.

REPUBLICANS MUST NOMINATE A LIBERAL

The two major parties are searching for candidates for the nomination of their respective parties for president in 1968. By all the rules of modern politics, President Johnson will get the Democratic nomination notwithstanding dumbbings and criticisms within his own party. He controls the party organization.

The Republicans find themselves in a more difficult spot. There are those who feel that with the help of the South, they can win without the big votes in the east and middle west and are willing to discount help from independents or dissatisfied Democrats.

There are those who support liberal programs without regard to who advances them; who know that, so far, the South can do the Republican party little good, that their program with respect to human rights is the enlightened rather than the conservative stand.

In 1964, the conservatives won the nomination with hands down but lost the election by an overwhelming vote.

The Iowa delegation refused to go along with the trend at the 1964 convention feeling that the program the conservatives advanced could not attract the votes Republicans needed to win.

The Republican leadership have some excellent men in the offering and also some which will, if nominated, meet the 1964 fate.

Undoubtedly, a lot of dissident Democrats will be voting against President Johnson. But Democrats are clannish and will support the nominee—regardless.

It is pretty certain that a conservative Republican will not attract the big city vote, the independent vote or dissatisfied Democrats. On the other hand, the nomination of Gov. Rockefeller or Senator Perry will be the type which would appeal to these groups as evidenced by the large vote they have received at the hands of their constituents.

Iowa Republicans must realize that getting the nomination and getting elected are two entirely different things. And for this reason they should keep both in mind in choosing a standard bearer.

WILL OBSERVE

THE LAW IN RIGHTS CASE

The Iowa Civil Rights Commission has settled a major housing discrimination case in Scott county. The case originated in Bettendorf, a suburb of Davenport where an apartment house owner refused to rent to a Negro couple.

At the conclusion of the investigation and an attempt to conciliate the case, the owners refused to change their position. A public hearing was scheduled.

Judge Haverkamp of Davenport enjoined the commission from holding a public hearing in September but later reversed that position. Again, the hearing was scheduled but at this point the property owners changed their position and agreed to rent to Negroes thereafter.

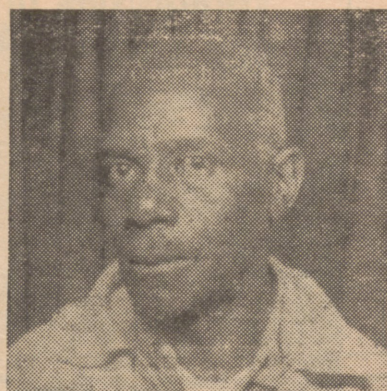

This was a job well done. It sets a precedent for future action.

Following up its effort to make the housing law work, the commission has prepared a leaflet to be sent out to the 9,000 realtors in Iowa, along with an executive order by Gov. Hughes, calling attention to the fact that violation of the housing law would subject them to the loss of their license.

This, to be sure, is an excellent move for it puts on notice one of the great forces against open occupancy or the rental or purchase of decent houses to Negroes. It is generally understood that most realtors have consistently blocked better housing or integrated housing for Negroes refusing to show other than the most undesirable houses.

Slowly but surely, progress is being made in eliminating racial discrimination and it will continue with intelligent work such as is being carried on by the civil rights commissions.

SPORTS

With Allen Ashby

Well, just one more game to go in what has been a long season. The Hawks can't win three games now. Might not win this next one. They tried all season but just don't seem to be able to come up with enough to win. Iowa State is probably glad their season is over. The Cyclones were an improved team from last year, but so were their opponents. Iowa U. may find itself in a similar situation next year. With a better team but facing better opponents.

People who saw the freshman game between Iowa and Iowa State came away with high praise for the Iowa frosh. They also had good things to say about Iowa State's Tisdale who played for East Waterloo last year and Jock Johnson of East Des Moines. Now the problem for both Iowa and Iowa State is to keep these fellows in school so they can play next year.

Scholarships

There is a big difference in the thirty scholarships allowed of Big Ten schools and the forty-five allowed Big Eight schools. Think what Iowa could do with fifteen more football giants.

Indiana finally reached the end of the road when they went to Minnesota. Wonder if the game had been played in Indiana would it have made much difference? Looks like Minnesota in the Rose Bowl. Their opponents—if you are a football fan, you must have seen that game Saturday when Southern California edged U.C.L.A. by a point, 21-20. This O. J. Simpson fellow from California has to be everybody's All-American and so does Purdue's LeRoy Keyes. Well, if they gave the Heisman Trophy to Simpson we couldn't get too mad, although if we had to vote it would be Keyes.

There is talk about moving the Des Moines Warrior team to Cedar Rapids. Seems that people here just won't go out to the games in any large numbers. About thirty five hundred is the usual crowd. And they did have a good ball club.

High School

Now we are heading into basketball and the football honors aren't decided yet. Yet you see plans of coaches for the coming cage season. Here in Des Moines we shall have to wait and see who comes out. Don't know how North will do this year, but we would guess Roosevelt has the team to beat again. They should have a polished veteran team back but minus Ken Whitney who was their spark plug last year.

Now you see what comes of having to write a column a day earlier. I can't read the stuff.

Help For Those Who Need Bond
For Rights Cases

To the Editor:

I should like to publish a brief reminder, if I may, of a civil rights resource for Iowa.

The Iowans for Fair Housing organization still has a modest fund, which was raised by our 400 members during the successful fight for a State fair housing law.

Anyone who wants to file a complaint of unfair housing practices with the State Civil Rights Commission, however, is supposed to post a bond. The law requires this assurance of the good faith of the complainant.

Whoever needs financial help in making a bond so he can file an official complaint of housing discrimination, please get in touch with me.

Let us hope that there are bonding companies who will write the $500 bond required by the fair housing law. If not, the fair housing law should be changed, or appropriate court action should be taken.

Morgan State Bears
Have 26 Victories
Going For Them So Far

Baltimore, Md.—The Morgan State College Bears, 1966 NCAA Atlantic Coast Champions, sought their 26th consecutive victory Saturday when they met the Virginia State College Trojans.

Morgan to date is 7-0. Virginia State is 4-2-1. The game had significance for Morgan's Coach Earl Banks because the Trojans were the last team to beat Morgan, knocking them out of the CIAA title in 1964 with a 13-7 victory.

Since then, Morgan has played in the Orange Blossom Classic in Miami in 1965, beating Florida A. and M. 36-7 and won the Atlantic Coast Championship Tangerine Bowl Game in Orlando, Fla., in 1966 defeating West Chester (Pa.) 14-6. They were also CIAA (Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association) Champions in 1965 and 1966.

Southern Calif.

To Rose Bowl; Simpson

Los Angeles, Calif.—Southern California will go to the Rose Bowl. The distinction came in the play-off Saturday after they beat U.C.L.A. by one point, 21-20. In the last quarter, both teams scored touchdowns within one minute.

O. J. Simpson, once thought to be out for the season due to an injury, played his best, scoring a crucial 64-yard touchdown. U.C.L.A.'s turning point was in the extra point failure.

"November 67"

Four years, now have gone,
how quickly did they pass.
But the memory of John F. Kennedy continues to last.
Time has taken a turn for the worse, as the world seems to be under a curse for what they did to this great man in Dallas USA.
No one alive will forget the day.

My how we need him now, with rioting, crime, demonstrations and unrest. The world is in one big mess. Then we look at this Vietnam thing, he alone could make the peace to ring. For he wouldn't be playing this foolish game, with lives of our American son's. It would be war at the full scale.
His words were strong. For he meant what he said.

Strength should be firm as the decisions he made. For even in November 67 John Fitzgerald Kennedy can be heard from Heaven.
We need him now.

December issue of the Sepia Magazine will salute Frederic Harris.

Police Blotter

Federal Judge Roy L. Stephenson Thursday denied motions for a judgment of acquittal or a new trial for Dan Lee White, 26, of New York City, who was convicted by a jury here Oct. 31 of willfully failing to report for induction into the armed forces.

White, formerly of Des Moines, will be sentenced after a background investigation is completed. He is free on bond pending completion of that investigation.

Maximum penalty for failure to report for induction is five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

A. P. Trotter of 1004 27th street said that he returned home Thursday night and discovered $108 had been stolen from bedroom drawers and a $29 wrist watch also was missing.

Carl Ridenour Olson, 20, who gave his address as 1198 9th street, pleaded innocent in Polk County District Court to a charge of larceny over $20.

College Football

Columbus, Ohio — The Hawkeyes bit the dust again Saturday, 21-10. Silas McKinney scored on a one yard run.

Ames—The Cyclones didn't make it either Saturday, for the Oklahoma State Cowboys galloped over them, 28-14. Ben King scored on a one yard run.

Carbondale, Ill.—Southern Illinois gained another point on their winning record Saturday when they beat Drake, 45-17.

He was charged with taking 45,000 S & H Green Stamps valued at $978.76 from Acri Wholesale, 1400 Market street last Aug. 24.

Nashville, Tenn. — Fred Brooks, 20, a Black Power advocate who headed last summer's controversial liberation school for young Negroes in Nashville, walked out of an Army induction center in Nashville after refusing to be drafted.

He said, "I don't think the Army wants me, man. I think I'd do more harm than good."

Negro Inventors

Between 1834 and 1900 at least 314 patents were granted to Negroes.

Henry Blair became the first Negro to receive a patent in 1834 for his seed planter. In 1836 he was granted a patent for a corn harvester.

From 1885 until 1899 Granville T. Woods invented a dozen devices which increased the operational effectiveness of American railroads.

On May 12, 1874, Elizabeth McCoy invented the ironing table. That same year he invented the steam lubricator for steam engines.

On May 3, 1886, R. F. Fleming, Jr. invented a guitar.

In 1885 C. J. Dorticus invented devices for applying coloring liquids to sides of shoe soles and heels and a machine for embossing photographs and photographic print wash.

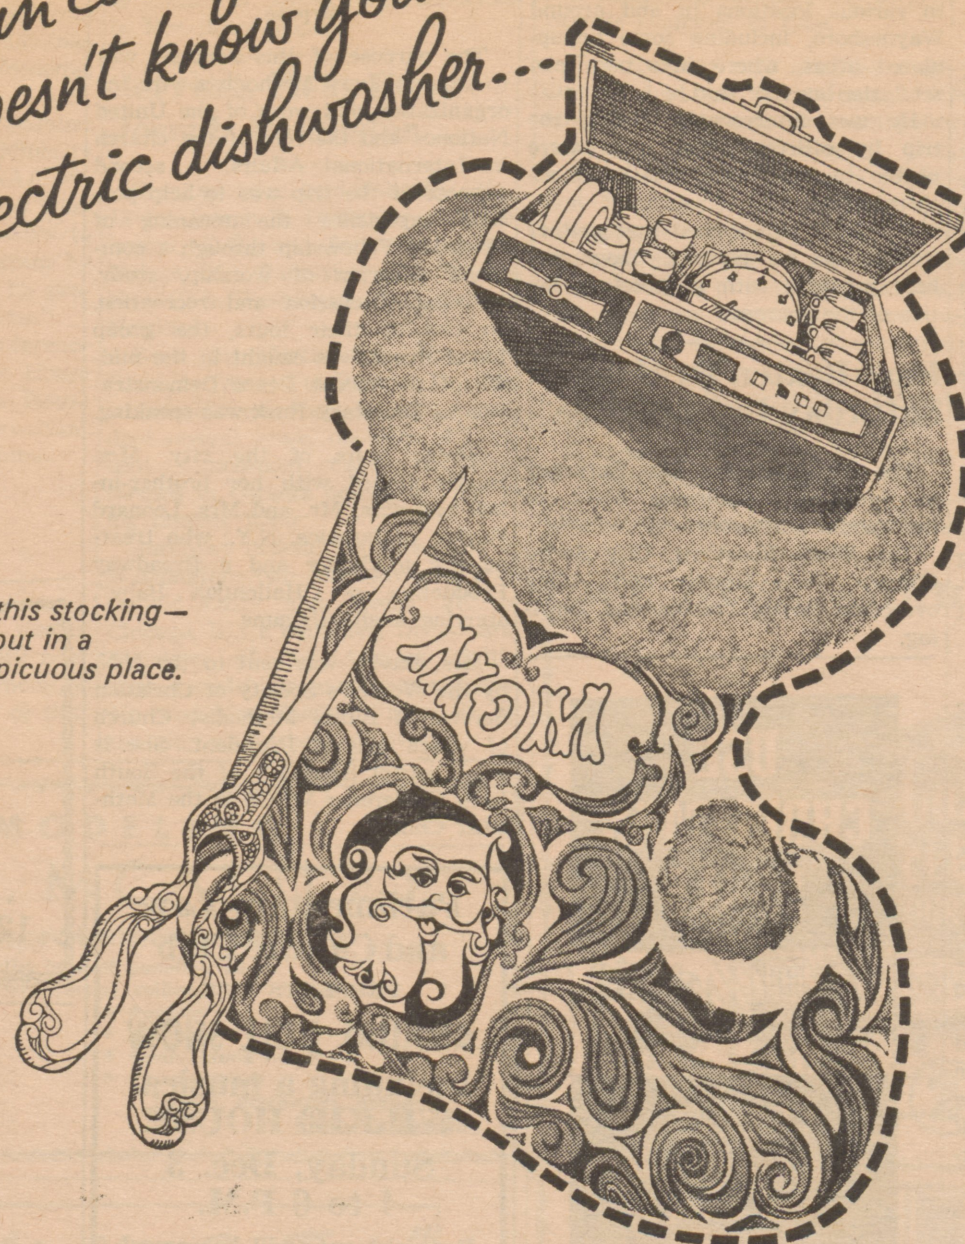

On July 22, 1879, M. W. Binga invented a street sprinkling apparatus.

Christmas Edition

Individuals and organizations

Just in case your husband doesn't know you want an electric dishwasher...

Clip this stocking—and put in a conspicuous place.

Husbands appreciate a hint at Christmas time. So we're making it very easy for you. Simply cut out and put in a conspicuous place.

You don't really need any more reason for wanting a dishwasher than the hours of work (and family foot-dragging!) it saves. But did you know that an electric dishwasher—because it uses hotter water than hands can stand—gets dishes cleaner? And did you know that new dishwashers do their own pre-rinsing?

Your dealer is ready with a happy choice of models. So get out your scissors and—Merry Christmas!
