Upholds Ruling On Alabama Welfare

Washington — A Federal court ruling that upheld Alabama's "part-time daddy" welfare regulation unconstitutional was stayed by the Supreme Court's Justice Hugo L. Black. The regulation, which bars aid to dependent children if a man is living out of wedlock with the mother or is visiting for sexual purposes, excludes 15 to 20 thousand children from the state's welfare rolls.

Justice Black gave Alabama 30 days to file its appeal.

One mother, commenting on the diligence of welfare investigators, asked: "How do they expect a woman to get married and get off welfare if she never meets a man? Every time a man says hello to you, they're ready to claim he's parking his shoes under your bed."

30 Days In Jail For Esther M. Baker

Esther M. Baker, who have her address as 766 1/2 10th street, was sentenced to 30 days in jail by Judge Harrison Wednesday for larceny.

She was convicted of taking a windbreaker coat here on Nov. 6. The sentence was made retroactive to Nov. 7 because she has been in jail since that time.

Lee Kemp, The Candyman, Receives SBA Loan

Mr. and Mrs. Lee O. Kemp were two very happy people Tuesday when they received a $20,500 Small Business Administration Economic Opportunity Act Loan. Here, Assistant Regional Counsel Mrs. W. S. Glanton, left, partakes of a mint prepared by the Kemps, candy makers.

Mr. and Mrs. Kemp are the first to receive this type loan for a candy-making business, which will be located at 2128 Indianola Road. Formerly Mr. Kemp was located at 1054 13th street.

The loan will cover building, machinery and working capital, effective immediately. Mr. Kemp, who has been in the candy-making business over 22 years, has served the community in this capacity, catering to parties, supplying a Waterloo business and working through Wedding Counselor, Mrs. Rose Pearlman.

The Kemps, who prepare their candy through their own select recipe, have a wide assortment of confectionary. They reside at 1174 14th street.

Otis Redding Killed In Private Plane's Plunge into Lake

Madison, Wis. — Talented and dynamic rhythm and blues singer Otis Redding, singing artist for Stax-Volt Recording Company, was killed Monday when the airplane in which he was riding crashed in a lake near here during a fog. He was identified as one of five persons missing.

Europe

The Macon, Ga., singer's career had spanned from teen-age dances in Macon to special performances in Europe before countless fans. Redding had recorded such hits as "Try a Little Tenderness", "Tramp", with songstress Carla Thomas; "These Arms of Mine", and "Mr. Pitiful". In Melody Magazine, a British publication, Redding took over first place as number one male vocalist, ousting Elvis Presley. Latest albums include "Otis Redding In Europe", and "History of Otis Redding", and "King and Queen of Soul". He was also featured in the "Stax-Volt Revue Albums" and "Memphis Gold" Vol. II, and a special "Don't Be A Dropout" album, published by the Labor Department.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Chicago — A 1968 Heritage Calendar that depicts the contributions of ancient Africans to the world has just been published by the Museum of African American History, 3806 South Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Atlanta — Alfred D. Lackey, 20, was convicted of rape of a 29-year-old Korean divorcee and sentenced to die in the electric chair Jan. 12. Lackey was one of eight youths accused of rape. He said that police beat a confession from him. Mrs. Hee Yunk Pierce, the alleged victim, claims she was abducted from a parked car and raped 50 times by the band of youths.

Troy, Ala. — Charges of attempted rape against 15-year-old Walter Ray Franklin have been dropped because of "insufficient evidence" after NAACP intervention. The youth was arrested on charges involving a 5-year-old white girl. The Rev. K. L. Buford, NAACP field director in Alabama, secured counsel for young Franklin upon request of the boy's parents. They explained that the boy had been employed to mow the lawn at the home of the alleged victim. The girl and her companions refused to move when requested in order for Franklin to complete his job.

Stokes, Hatcher Asked To Mayor's Briefing

Washington, D.C. — The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development invited winners of recent mayoralty races in 18 cities to a briefing sessions on HUD programs here Dec. 1. Included were newly elected Mayors Tom Urban of Des Moines, Carl B. Stokes of Cleveland, Ohio and Richard G. Hatcher, of Gary, Ind.

Children's Books Begin Series on Negro

First-time author Al Price discussed Negro art and how he used it in his book "Haunted By A Paintbrush," at the annual Book Fair sponsored by the Chicago Tribune.

Part of a new "Open Door" book series, Price's book will be published by Children's Press, Inc., Apr. 1, 1968.

Children's Press' new series tells the true stories of people who, as members of various ethnic groups, attained success in a chosen occupation. The first two books in the series are about Negroes and were written and illustrated by Negroes. Other books in the series will focus on different ethnic groups.

Urges Businesses To Help Minorities To Go In Business

Cleveland, Ohio — A department store executive Friday called on Distributive Education to expand its functions by training members of the nation's minority groups to open their own retail businesses.

Alfred E. Eisenpreis, vice-president of Allied Stores Corporation, said, "there is a great desire and eagerness among many Negro, Puerto Rican and Mexican American men and women to go into business. But success in business requires training of the kind which you are capable of furnishing."

Halley Becomes New Hudson River Museum Director In New York

Donald M. Halley, Jr., assistant director of the Des Moines Art Center, has been appointed director of the Hudson River Museum in Yonkers, New York. It was announced Sunday. He will assume his duties in February, 1968.

Office Will Be Closed

Because the Bystander office will be closed Monday, Dec. 25, ALL news should reach the office Tuesday, Dec. 26. Having holiday guests? Don't wait, contact E. Tate, news editor, with your news.

Buddy Astronauts Attend Chicago Services Tuesday

Chicago, Ill.—A symbol of hope for the multi-racial world.

"He lived his life inextricably bound up with the several races and creeds of man," said the Rev. Mr. Ben Richardson, in his eulogy for the first Negro Astronaut Maj. Robert H. Lawrence, Jr. Lawrence, 31, was killed Friday in the crash of an F-104 Starfighter at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif.

A second pilot in the craft, Air Force Maj. Harvey J. Royer, 36, was injured.

Rev. Richardson in the final tribute, described Maj. Lawrence as "a young man who by his living and death ards this Earth distinction and inspiration."

"His left us hope, a cause for optimism, a means by which man can inhabit Earth joyously."

Astronauts

Attending the funeral were eight astronauts, Air Force Lt. Col. Robert Harris, escort for Mrs. Lawrence; Air Force Maj. Donald H. Petersen, escorting Maj. Lawrence's mother, Mrs. Gwendolyn Duncan; Lt. Comdr. John Finley and Lt. Robert Critten of the Navy; and Air Force Majors James Tyler, Albert Crews, Henry Hartfield and James A. Abrahamson.

Says Model Cities Is Start On Blight

Washington, D.C. — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey recently said that the Model Cities Program of the Department of Housing and

In a gesture of comfort Harris clasped Ms. Lawrence's hands tightly during the service.

Beauty

"There was a sense of beauty in his life, a rapport between him and his government," said Rev. Richardson. "Service to his nation he construed as central to his life. He stood beneath his flag. He was a good man, a loyal man, coming out of privation with small dreams, and bringing with him the discipline and courage necessary to fulfill them."

Jack Reilly, an aid to Mayor Daley, attended as representative of the mayor, who was presiding at a City Council meeting. Daley had paid a personal visit to the family Monday night.

Following the service at the church, there was a brief service at Graceland Cemetery before the cremation.

As she left the cemetery chapel, Mrs. Lawrence clutched the flag from Maj. Lawrence's casket in one hand and held the hand of their son, Tracy, 8, with the other.

The boy looked at his mother anxiously and, for the first time during her public appearance, Mrs. Lawrence managed a smile in an effort to reassure her son.

Urban Development is "the beginning of concerted action against the challenge of urban blight in America."

Speaking in Rochester, N. Y., the Vice President said: "Model Cities is more than a new program. It is a catalyst design to pursue comprehensive, not isolated, results."

Elk Head Tours Midwest

Reese's Removal Called For by Youth Council

Davenport, Ia. — Ray Reese, Deputy Equal Employment Policy Officer of the Rock Island Arsenal and assistant John Buckner have been charged with discrimination.

The charge came in a letter by the Black Power Youth Council of the Davenport branch NAACP. Gene Wyatt, president, said in the letter that "We are deeply concerned about the continuance of practices at the Arsenal and the absence of a positive approach toward the total elimination" of numerous well documented charges of discrimination, which allegedly took place at the Rock Island Arsenal.

Members of the executive Board of the Youth Council attended the Dec. 6 meeting during which John Haslach, representative of Headquarters, Army Material Command, Washington, D.C., heard accounts of the reported discrimination.

According to Wyatt's letter, discriminatory practices are in violation of these orders. Because of this "we demand their immediate assignment to an area of responsibility that is not related to minority employment practices."

The letter, sent to Colonel Snyder,

Commander of the Arsenal, continued: "We anticipate reluctance by the Government on the demands we have made and, therefore, request permission to bring this matter to the attention of the public by conducting a peaceful non-violent demonstration at the Rock Island Arsenal."

Effective

Wyatt later stated that the youth group believed that direct action may prove more effective method of dealing with employment discrimination; more effective than the senior branch's policy of dealing quietly with various employers, including officials of the Rock Island Arsenal.

The Davenport chapter of the NAACP had brought the charge of discrimination against Reese, who is also a member of the Human Relations Commission (which is not recognized by the branch). Reese voted against a revision in the Human Relations Commission ordinance, later reversing that vote and voting for the ordinance. The NAACP said it doubts "his ability to function as the detector and rectifier of discrimination on Rock Island Arsenal."

NAACP Monthly Meet

The Des Moines branch of the NAACP will meet Tuesday, Dec. 19, 7:30 p.m. at the Willkie House lounge. All board members are urged to attend for the last meeting of the year.

Committee chairmen are asked to bring in the committee work report for the year. Memberships are to be brought in, also. This work must be closed for the 1967 year. President is John M. Estes, Jr.

has served on the National Board of Directors of the NAACP, and from 1961-1965, was Mid-West Regional Attorney. Jackson has worked actively in Washington with the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights to secure the passage of the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

He resides in Washington with his wife and two daughters. For reservations, call 244-8523 or 243-3111.

Asks Court To End Misuse Of U. Renewal

New York — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and the National Committee Against Discrimination in Housing have jointly filed a brief in the United States Court of Appeals asking reversal of lower court judgment which denied Norwalk, Conn., Negroes and Puerto Ricans judicial relief "to end the misuse of urban renewal projects."

Dislocated

The brief, filed on Dec. 4 as "Friends of the court" in Norwalk CORE v. Norwalk Redevelopment Agency, charges that policies of the Redevelopment Agency dislocate minority group families and fail to provide them equal housing opportunities. Accordingly, the brief contends, the suit should be allowed "to proceed on behalf of all low-income Negroes and Puerto Ricans similarly discriminated against by the policies and practices" of the agency.

Publishing Company Sued By Ray Charles

Los Angeles, Calif. — Filing a six million dollar suit against the Johnson Publishing Company of Los Angeles Friday was singer-composer Ray Charles.

The company publishes Jet Magazine, which the suit said carried the article last May 18, which supposedly said he had bribed police in a narcotics case.

Employment Officer Scheduled Dec. 21

Samuel C. Jackson will be guest speaker on Thursday, Dec. 21, 6:30 p.m. at the F.F.F.F. dinner at Holiday Inn South o Fleur Drive for the Des Moines branch NAACP.

Jackson, appointed by President Lynden B. Johnson in June, 1965, served on the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. A native of Kansas, he has been engaged in law practice in Topeka, from 1962-1965 he worked as an Institutional Attorney and Child Welfare attorney for the state of Kansas.

JACKSON

He received his B.A. degree from Washburn University School of Law in 1954, was past NAACP president of the Topeka Branch in 1963-65.

Demonstrations are Part Of U.S. Tradition: Reed

Ottumwa, Ia. — The greatest demonstration of integration was when 250,000 citizens went to Washington, D.C., to urge the passing of the Civil Rights Bill.

This opinion was vented by Cecil A. Reed, Commissioner for the Iowa

Employment Security Commission speaking to members of the Ottumwa National Association for the Advancement of Colored People last Tuesday night at the Church of the Brethren.

Lynching

Reed reminded the audience that while they were still reacting against the violence suffered by Negroes in this country, in 1964, when over 100 persons were killed in the South, not one person was tried for murder; and the 18 persons who were brought to trial were tried not for murder, but for obstructing civil rights, he said.

Textbooks

Reed said that history supported his feeling that demonstrations have had a part in the making of this country, mentioning the Boston Tea Party, the marching of women suffragettes the early organizing of labor involving demonstrations.

He also expressed concern once more on the Negro's involvement in history and that these contributions should be in society's textbooks.

Marine Sgt. Taylor Working At Beaufort

(Q0666) Beaufort, S. C. (FHTNC) — Marine Sergeant John A. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sloan E. Taylor of 1441 W. 14th street, is serving with the Marine Air Base Squadron 32, a unit of Marine Aircraft Group 32 at the Marine Corps Air Station, Beaufort, S.C.

His group is a major aviation element of the Second Marine Aircraft Wing, which provides air support for Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic units.

Airman Roscoe Malone In Fleet Exercise

USS Enterprise (CVA(N)-65) (FHTNC) — Airman Roscoe Malone Jr., USN, son of Mrs. Cora L. Malone of 1216 W. 10th street participated in "Blue Lotus," the largest U. S. First Fleet Exercise in three years, aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Enterprise.

The exercise was held off the coast of Southern California from Nov. 28-Dec. 9. It involved 24,000 men in 45 ships, and six air units.

Negro Fraternity Commends President

Atlanta, Ga. — One of the oldest predominantly Negro fraternities in the country has commended President Johnson.

Lionel H. Newsom, general president of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity, in a letter to LBJ, said, "This letter of deep appreciation for all you have done to make our nation a true democracy is far overdue. It appears a big irony that the one President who had done most for Negro Americans would be attacked by several of their leaders."

Newsom said he believed that Johnson was doing everything human possible to move the nation to greater heights than it has ever known.

Crack Down on Touring "Forbidden Countries"

Washington, D.C. — Stokely Carmichael, who has traveled to several countries around the world, returned to his native country Monday.

Meanwhile the State Department had asked Congress to authorize the penalty are: "A country or area where insurrection or armed hostilities are in progress, a country or area whose military forces are engaged in armed conflict with forces of the United States, or a country or area to which travel must be restricted in the national interest because such travel would seriously impair the conduct of the United States foreign policy."

Officially the gentleman's passport had been revoked in August, but U.S. Atty. Joseph Hoey of Brooklyn said his passport had been seized by a U.S. Marshal executing federal search warrant.

Categories

The four categories to constitute the penalty are: "A country or area where insurrection or armed hostilities are in progress, a country or area whose military forces are engaged in armed conflict with forces of the United States, or a country or area to which travel must be restricted in the national interest because such travel would seriously impair the conduct of the United States foreign policy."

The penalty does not currently apply to Carmichael, of course, since he made the trip before the measure.

Snack Tray For The Holiday Season

For refreshments that will net you a bright star as a holiday hostess, feature a colorful Edam cheese decorated with star-shaped cutouts and filled with a tangy, beer-flavored spread. Serve it at planned parties or to drop-in guests with crisp melba toast, salty nuts, pimiento-stuffed olives and a beverage that's equally festive — perhaps beer in crystal-clear mugs that are given a holiday look by tying a tiny bell with bright ribbon to the handle of each mug.

EDAM CHEESE SPREAD
1 Edam cheese (3 to 3½ pounds)
¾ cup beer

1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
Few drops Tabasco
Paprika

Make star cutouts by cutting into red wax coating and peeling it off to let the color of the cheese show. Hollow out cheese from center leaving a 1-inch shell. Let scooped out cheese soften at room temperature. Using an electric mixer, mix cheese until smooth and fluffy. Gradually add beer, continuing to mix until blended. Mix in seasonings. Heap spread into cheese shell. Sprinkle top with paprika. There will be enough cheese spread for a refill.

Carmichael got a pushing, yelling mob-scene welcome from about 50 Black Power supporters at the airport. They shouted "Mau, mau! mau, mau!" as he stepped off the plane.

Named Ex. Director In Church Council

New York, N.Y. — The Rev. Dr. Charles S. Spivey, Jr., of Wilberforce, O., has been named executive director of the National Council of Churches' Department of Social Justice. It was announced today by Dr. R. H. Edwin Espy, NCC general secretary.

DR. SPIVEY

Dr. Spivey, whose appointment is effective immediately, comes to the National Council from Payne Theological Seminary at Wilberforce University, which he has headed as dean since 1957.

Finally! Negroes On Florence St. Team

Florence, Ala. — Florence State College has signed Negro football players Bobby Joe Pride of Decatur and Leonard Thomas of Huntsville, Coach Hal Self said Monday.

The two backs are believed to be the first of their race to sign an athletic scholarship with an Alabama college.

Self said in signing Pride and Thomas he believed the team got two of the finest athletes in the state and he was looking forward to having them on the team.

High School Scores

Des Moines Roosevelt swamped Tech Friday night; they roared to a 80-39 City Series victory.

North played to a thrilling 53-52 score over Dowling in the last 13 seconds.

East, however, fell victim to Ft. Dodge, 78-56 at East Friday night.

High Game Series Rolled By Don Tate

Rolling a high game series in the Meredith Night Hawk Bowling League which meets each Tuesday morning at Air Lanes was Donald Tate, who rolled a 642 series, with a 226 high game. Tate's team, the Vultures, are currently in first place.

Clyde McGregor of the Duds bowling team, had a 607, 203 series and game.

There is not much for me to say concerning the tragic death of Otis Redding, but that in my mind he will live on. During each of the recorded live albums I have heard, his song reached and touched your soul. Now, even though his physical presence is gone, his voice will still be here. I dig you, Otis, and I always will.

In the beginning, he entered a flock of amateur singing contests, and consistently captured first prize. It wasn't long before he joined Johnny Jenkins and his group as vocalist. Out of their acquaintance came "These Arms of Mine," his first hit.

Elk Secretary Has Died in His Home

Special — John A. Williams, secretary for the Midwest Elks died in his home Monday of a heart attack. A driver for the Public Works Department of the City, he had resided in Des Moines several years.

Survivors include his wife, Helen. The body is at L. Fowler and Son Funeral Home. More information will be released at a later date.

Rapid Growth Key To Deterioration

Washington, D.C. — Cities selected as Model Cities by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development come in all shapes and sizes and face different sets of problems.

Large, older cities like New York City and Buffalo, N. Y. will use Model Cities funds to develop new approaches to combat the worst slum conditions in the country. Other large cities of more recent vintage — Seattle, Wash., Des Moines, Iowa, Minneapolis, Minn. — will be dealing with areas of deterioration brought on by rapid population growth and movement, and economic and social change.

New U.S. Mail Rates

These increases in minimum postal rates have been approved by both the Senate and House and will take effect in January:

First-class letters from 5 to 6 cents.
First-class cards from 4 to 5 cents.
Airmail letters from 8 to 10 cents.
Airmail cards from 6 to 8 cents.
Second-class regular, non-advertising matter from 2.8 to 3.4 cent per pound, the minimum from 1 cent to 1.3 cents each.

he ached your heart through "Try a Little Tenderness" and the audience made him come back for more, as they always have, the way he wanted it to be.

Soul Sound

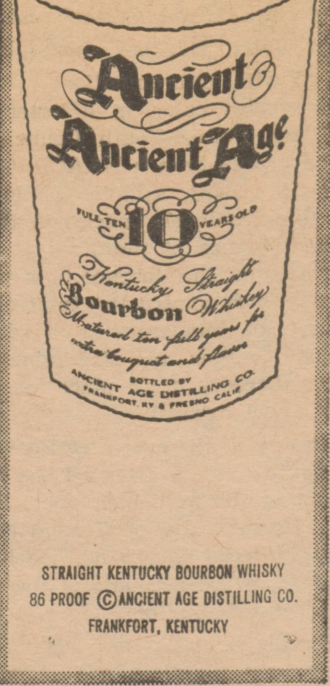

The King and Queen of Soul, people called Otis Redding and songstress Carla Thomas, and you knew they had it made when they reigned over the Bud Billiken parade in Chicago, when they toured Europe; this was the way soul was supposed to roll, and it came straight out of Memphis, Tenn., via Otis and company.

To me Otis presented a stock example of the new identity for the Negro, because in pictures he wasn't bothered with putting on lay-em straight or any kind of gimmick to cover being a Negro, and when he stepped to the mike and told you about the Life, you realized that his singing wasn't a gimmick, either—he didn't need to sing about how beautiful the flowers were or standing on a hilltop or any mish-mash of cold-water muck: straight from the heart, baby. "Hold her, don't squeeze her, never leave her: Try a little Tenderness." I'm a lover; Mama was; Pappa, too.—Tramp—Stax Volt, Inc. 1967.

For the fans who want to show they feel a little the way I know many of you must, drop a line to Stax, 926 E. McLemore, Memphis. I did.

From Stax: Winter Snow, Booker T.; What'll I do for Satisfaction, Johnny Dave; Soul Girl, Jeanne and the Darlings; Down Ta My House, Rusus Thomas; As Long as I've Got You; the Chameles; and Pick Up the Pieces, Carla Thomas.

Norman-Williams

Wedding At Waterloo

★ ★ ★ ★

6 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 9, was hour chosen by Marcia Elaine Norman and Franklin Jeff Williams, to repeat their marriage vows.

Held at Antioch Baptist Church, with a background of tall red poinsettias and a pair of candelabrum with white candles, the atmosphere was truly in season.

The bride is the daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. Vivret Norman, 719 Beech Street. She wore a gown of white velvet, trimmed with white fur, the train falling from the waist. Her veil was elbow length. The moss green velvet bodice and crepe skirt gowns of her attendants gave a pleasing effect against the poinsettias.

Her maid of honor was Sharon Norman, her cousin. Bridesmaids were Cynthia Herrington and Anita Davis, of Joliet, Ill. Best man to the groom was Clifton Ray and groom-smen were Leroy Adams and Paul Norman. Ushers were David Sadler and Thomas Norman Jr. Rachelle
Norman was flower girl, and Troy
Taylor was ring bearer. Rev. Eugene
H. Williams performed the double ring ceremony.

The couple left Sunday afternoon for Joliet, Ill. where they will make their home and where the groom is director of O.E.O. He is also in professional football. They plan to take the honeymoon for two weeks during Christmas holidays, when they go to Florida.

Seen at the wedding was Mmes.
Lola Rhem and Ruby Haddix of Mason City.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Christmas and chronic respiratory diseases. An odd combination. But Christmas Seals are as colorful as Rudolph the red-nosed. As traditional as hot-gravied turkey. As cherished as Yuletide cheer.

Cheer is exactly what this year's Christmas Seals convey. They show a charming, old-fashioned toy train with goodies and gifts. That toy train has a real destination. The tracks lead to less suffering from chronic diseases that damage the lungs and constrict breathing. Christmas Seals are symbols of the chugging crusade to combat TB, respiratory diseases, air pollution, and smoking. A crusade to cut the toll taken by emphysema, chronic bronchitis, and asthma. The toll mounts into the millions.

In the toy train, there are ten cars, including a locomotive and the cute caboose. Each car is a separate Seal. This ten-unit design is a first in Christmas Seal history. Its appeal is immediate. Not only are the Seals perfect for cards and packages, they are sprightly and holidayish in other forms: posters, paper napkins, counter displays, book marks, bangle pins, bumper strips, coin cards, and more. All of them are available from your tuberculosis and respiratory disease association.

Chronic respiratory diseases don't make happy Christmases. But the spirit of sharing does. And that sharing can move the TB train toward its destination. Send in your Christmas Seal letter — today — and you'll supply the fuel for a trip along the tracks of progress.

The Mod's For Peanut Cookies

Like peanuts? Mad for peanut butter? Love peanut candy? Then you'll adore these peanut cookies, for they combine all three. One basic cookie dough is used to create both Peanut Cookie-wiches and Peanut Fancy Fingers. Filling and "tip dip" are melted candy bars and the polka dot toppers are hard peanut candies. For the Peanut People Bars prepare your favorite brownie recipe or mix, then stir a cupful of chopped salted peanuts into the batter. Form the stick people on top by lightly pressing peanut halves into the batter before baking; you'll need about one-half cup peanuts per recipe. Pipe the edges with stiff confectioner's sugar frosting, if desired.

BASIC PEANUT BUTTER COOKIE DOUGH

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 cup peanut butter | 1 teaspoon vanilla |
| 1/2 cup soft butter or margarine | 2 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour |
| 1 cup granulated sugar | 2 teaspoons soda |
| 1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed | 1/2 teaspoon salt |
| 2 eggs | 4 small (ten cent size) milk chocolate bars |
| 1/2 cup frozen orange juice concentrate, thawed | 1 cup hard candy-coated peanuts |

Blend peanut butter, butter or margarine, sugars, eggs, orange juice concentrate and vanilla. Beat. Sift together flour, soda and salt. Add gradually, stirring until blended. Chill dough until stiff. Form into Peanut Cookie-wiches and Peanut Fancy Fingers (see below). Bake on ungreased cookie sheets in moderate oven (350° F.) 7 to 12 minutes, or until lightly browned. Remove from sheets and cool. Meanwhile, melt chocolate bars over hot water and stir until smooth. Use on baked cookies as directed.

Makes 2 doz. Cookie-wiches and 2 1/2 doz. Fingers.
To make Peanut Fancy Fingers: Roll out about 1/2 of dough on floured board or cloth 1/8-inch thick. Cut into futed rounds. Into half the cookies, press a design of hard candy-coated peanuts. Bake. Spread bottoms of plain cookies with chocolate and sandwich with decorated cookies.
"Fingers" about 3 x 1 1/2-inch, by rolling bits of dough under hands. Bake. Dip one end of each cookie into chocolate, twisting slightly. Place on rack to set, with frosted tips extending over edge.

THE PHI CHAPTER OF DELTA SIGMA THETA SORORITY maintains its lead in making community contributions in meaningful ways such as its monthly story hour held at Willkie House. On last Saturday thirty or more children participated in a story hour of Christmas tales and a craft period of making Christmas decorations for their homes. These varied according to the age group, each group led by its own leader. This program is under the leadership of Mrs. Nelsine Nichols (Mrs. R. J.).

PALLA MORTON—MRS. NATHANIEL (ED) AND JACK AND JILL CLUB MEMBERS, Daughter Wendy, Debra Brewer, Daphne Bell and Matthew Cushingberry, the 8-10 age group, were seen at Des Moines Civic Ballet Company's presentation of The Nutcracker. Having seen the television version of this ballet, they thoroughly enjoyed the stage show.

BERNICE ROLLAND (MRS. THOMAS H.) was on hand at The Nutcracker and, in agreement with all of us, found it "lovely".

EVERETT MAYS, JR. AND PARTNER JUDY EBERLINE as Spanish dancers performed "The Chocolate"—"Hot" Chocolate the young people added in good humor. Mmmmmmm, they gave a stunning number! They are Drake University students.

SURPRISES IN THE NUTCRACKER were Bill and Edy Fudge as President and Mrs. Silberhaus; and Jim Bauer and Jan Stewart as a couple dancing at the Silberhaus Christmas Party!

RICHARD JACOB'S ART EXHIBIT drew a large attendance on both Friday night and Sunday. Comments by some of the viewers follow:

No Bond Needed For Discrimination Complaints in Iowa

The Iowa State Civil Rights Commission has announced that persons seeking redemption involving alleged discrimination will not have to post a $500 bond.

Any complaints made may be made through the Commission, which does not have to post bond.

ELAINE ESTES (MRS. JOHN M. JR.): "He had variety of style, technique and media. He had used pen, ink, oil, water color, charcoal and acrylic. I found that interesting. He had a wide spread! In talking with him, I gained the impression that he doesn't yet want to settle down to one style. I liked the abstracts least of all. I especially liked his drawing of the bearded man. The Franciscan monk with a skull symbolizing death. He saw this in the light of himself as a philosopher studying death."

RUTH STOKESBERRY (MRS. JACK): "He has done a lot of things! He is very, very excellent in the area of drawing. This is unusual in a contemporary artist. He also has a very interesting and wide educational background which I think is very unique. He has attended college for eight years—a full year of theology, and he has also studied philosophy and I think this is reflected in his paintings. He said that he studied philosophy and theology because people asked him to expound on what was in his paintings and he couldn't 'prior to this study. 'He is a very charming young man.' Ruth summed up her impression with 'He has so many things going for him that he has a head-start on everybody'."

MEL WILLITS SAYS: "Mr. Jacob's work is a rare treat for those who appreciate good art. His ability to perceive and realistically capture the human form is rewarding and far outshines the lack of depth which is found in a few of his non-objective works."

LEONA WEBB (MRS. JOHN W.) is an excellent pastry cook—a good cook period! She sold homemade pumpkin and black walnut bread this week to help her candidate, Andrea Lee Weaver, one of five contestants for the title Queen of the Doll Show, an annual affair sponsored by the Parliamentary Law and Culture Club. Some of us gained five pounds.

NAOMI JEFFERS (MRS. CLARK) is another marvelous pastry cook! "Is said to be downright good cook—a soul burner!" The same somebody marvelled how "she learned to cook so well so young!"

Gifts were exchanged with club members and guests, who were Mrs. Leona Payne, Mildred Bayles, Mary Lu Williams, Catherine Williams, Margaret Casson and Gloria Burrell.

Delectable menu consisted of fried chicken, green beans, potato salad, spaghetti, baked beans, hot rolls and beverages.

Newly elected officers are president, Elvira Mann; secretary, Shirley Forbusch; treasurer, Linda Thomas and party chairman, Francis Johnson.

Next meeting will be held with Mrs. Ferme Jackson, 1240 McCormick, Jan. 5.

New members in the club are Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, Francis Cavil, Fanny Nelson; Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Broddus.

Office Will Be Closed

Because the Bystander office will be closed Monday, Dec. 25, ALL news should reach the office Tuesday, Dec. 26. Having holiday guests? Don't wait, contact E. Tate, news editor, with your news.

Receives Four Year Pin From Holiday Inn

Presented a five year pin for continuous work in her field was Mrs. Juanita Burke of 1423 Maple Street, chef cook at the Holiday Inn North.

Mrs. Burke, who specializes in steaks during the evening hours, was honored by her manager, William Parks.

Mrs. Burke, born in Smithville, Tex., moved to Des Moines to attend the Old West High School, but in 1931 she and her husband Robert, Sr., traveled to Newark, N.J., where she resided until five years ago when the family returned.

She has been married 41 years, and is the mother of four children: Robert, Jr.; Mrs. Esmerelda Troup; Mrs. Jacqueline Hackney and Sgt. Edgar E. Burke. Mrs. Burke has also received two, three, and four year pins.

Wedding For Couple In Lovilia Soon

Lovilia, Ia. — Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Weatherback announced the engagement of their daughter, Josephine, to Sennis Katch recently. Miss Weatherback is an Ottumwa High School graduate, and Mr. Katch is employed at Standard Kellsman in Ottumwa. The wedding will take place in St. Peters Parish in Lovilia.

Children In City For Funeral of Father

Victor Doyle was in the city recently to attend the last rites of his father, Robert W. Doyle. With him were Reginald and Robert N. Doyle of Seattle, Wash., and Venus Anderson and family of Denver, Colo.

The children were also able to see their mother, Mrs. Ruth Doyle, of 1423 E. 18th street, who was convalescing from surgery three weeks prior to their visit; and sisters, Alise May, 820 17th and Marceline Stovall, 1215 4th street.

This was the first time that Victor has been to the city in twenty years and the children were together in that amount of time.

The stay was spent renewing acquaintances.

Mr. Doyle had been ill 11 days. Born in Lynchburg, Va., Dr. Doyle was a Des Moines resident for 40 years. He was a retired laborer and World War I veteran.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. May and Mrs. Stovall of Des Moines and Mrs. Anderson; four sons, Reginald and Robert of Seattle, Wash., Frank of Minneapolis, Minn., and Victor of Los Angeles, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Madeline Wormley and Mrs. Minnie Watkins, both of Des Moines; 16 grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

The body was at the L. Fowler and Son Funeral Home.

Guests Entertained At Three Purpose Club

The Three Purpose Club entertained their husbands and other guests Sunday, Dec. 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wallace, in the Christmas theme with sparkling decorations.

Partaking in the buffet dinner were Messers. and Mmes. Harry Johnson, Sr.; Theodore Martin, Jr., Fred McCracken, Stanley Proctor, Arthur Propes, Harold Williams, Paul Wilson, John Winters; also, Mmes. Edith Webb, Mussette Perkins, Aurelia Rhodes, Catherine Stewart; and Luther Wells.

The lovely evening was spent listening to music, dancing and socializing.

January Meeting For Rosa La Gragg Club

The Rosa La Gragg Club met Dec. 10 with the president, Mrs. Vivian Pruitt, 717 Hull avenue, and a box was delivered to a needy family.

The Club was also represented at the YMCA at the Negro Heritage Series. A donation was given.

A Christmas party was also held and gifts exchanged.

Next meeting will be Jan. 14 with Juanita Brown.

Special Holiday Treat for the Children

IT'S A CONSTANT SOURCE OF AMAZEMENT to see the small fry pack away a gigantic holiday dinner . . . and then tackle extra treats like these popcorn balls. Here's an easy recipe that makes a big hit:

MOLASSES CHOCOLATE STUDDED POPCORN BALLS
3 quarts popped corn 2 teaspoons cider vinegar
1 cups real New Orleans ½ teaspoon vanilla extract molasses ½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup sugar 5 tablespoons shortening
¼ cup water Chocolate bits

Pick over popped corn; discarding all hard kernels. Combine real New Orleans molasses, sugar, water, vinegar and salt; cook slowly, stirring constantly, to 260° F. (or when a small quantity dropped into cold water forms a hard ball). Remove from heat; add vanilla extract and shortening, stirring only enough to mix. Pour over popped corn, stirring until well-blended. Grease hands. Shape popcorn mixture lightly and quickly into balls, incorporating several chocolate bits into each ball while shaping. Cool. Wrap into waxed paper. Makes 28-30 balls. (ANS)

RIOTERS SHOULD BE PUNISHED

Riots are difficult to deal with much because they operate differently, often, because it is not easy to draw a line between their legal and their illegal acts. Then, too, public officials seem to fear that curbing the rights may draw criticism from the rioters who cry police brutality for sympathy.

Iowa University students have been rioting for weeks disrupting the orderly programs of the school. They have dared school officials to act against them and accused law enforcement officers of brutality; they have demanded that policemen and sheriffs be kept off the campus.

Students go to school to get an education. When they are accepted, they agree to be bound by the rules of an institution. Some professors at Northern Iowa University and at the University of Iowa have encouraged students to break the laws and rules governing their conduct at school and also of the state and nation.

School officers and the board of regents have been slow to meet the problem head on seemingly hoping that it would fall of its own weight. Instead, the rioters "pressed their luck" insisting that they were within their rights. This has brought criticism from law enforcement officers and Governor Hughes demanding that the law breakers be punished.

Iowa has had riots by farmers and labor union members but none by students. There have been mild disturbances by a few Negroes. But they were short lived. They all set bad examples. Now, Iowa has riots by university students. None of these are justified. Farm and labor riots had their demands met; Negro rioters got some concessions.

But they set a bad example for young people to follow and in the end prove that disregard for law and order creates anarchy. Prompt, stern action must be taken to discourage riots otherwise they soon get out of control.

NEW CITY COUNCIL HAS PROBLEMS

The newly elected city council in Des Moines does not take office until January 1. However, members are holding informal meetings laying out objectives they plan to accomplish when they assume their duties.

In spite of the fact that the election was somewhat a repudiation of the present council, the general direction it has followed will not change much in objectives. The details as to how it is done will differ in some instances.

As examples, they voted to retain city manager Tom Cheno-weth and the city legal head, Philip Riley. And while we have not always agreed with the manager, we think by and large he is doing a good job and deserves the confidence of a majority of this council and the public.

Last year, a strenuous effort was made to secure the appointment of a Negro on the civil service commission and other boards which would be a step up in better representation at the city hall. These efforts were bypassed even after some favorable commitments had been made. We don't believe the council has done all it could to help relocate citizens dispossessed and/or paid inadequate prices for properties in the urban renewal areas. And while there is much independence in these boards once a person is appointed, the appointing authority has some weight if they will use it.

These are moves which help integrate Negro citizens into the operation of the city government—a move which helps make it a more progressive city and the utilization of unused talent developed in our schools, colleges and experience.

IT IS DIFFICULT TO MAKE PEOPLE SQUEAL

During the discussion of the acceptance of federal aid for planning a model city, a new member of the city council in explaining his vote complained that people living in the proposed area should take a greater responsibility in helping to solve the excessive crime rate in and around the location.

With this, we fully agree. In fact, there is too much robbery among young people especially when there is no excuse that they are denied a good chance to make an honest living.

But the city itself has not been free from contributing to this crime situation. Years ago Des Moines ousted the old red light districts and in so doing scattered the criminal element among the white people in most parts of the town. Instead of a concentrated red light district among the whites, women operate from taverns with rooms available nearby. Gambling among white people is much on the quiet with seldom a word about it.

It's quite different among Negroes. It seems that a "distrust" must be maintained and this breeds crime. Some are rather wide open to which the unfit elements are drawn. And they operate fairly easy as long as they keep white people out.

White criminals do little squawking on each other; Negroes are no different. Law enforcement officers can do a better job on their own initiative rather than wait for private help to set the trap.

SPORTS

With Allen Ashby

We were standing in line at a local cafeteria and the guy behind us kept pestering us with questions about race relations. Most of our answers were grunts and don't know. Then the little Russian fellow who talks to everybody made some remark about our sport column. The tormentor brightened at once. "Sports column? Now what do you think about this Olympic boycott thing?"

"Don't you know. It hasn't come off yet."

"Don't you think they are making a big mistake?"

"They haven't made or not made it yet."

"Did you read what Jesse Owens and a lot of other colored stars said?"

Moon

"Oh yes, they are entitled to speak their piece."

"Do you agree with them or don't you?"

"That is like arguing whether we are going to plant potatoes or onions on the moon when we aren't even there yet."

"The fellow gave up. 'I guess you are right.'"

And so we took our tray to a table, and there he was again, wanting some dope on football games. (We told the guy that all we could do was guess. That was just about all the experts did, but they had a little more facts to help them guess. Then he got onto boxing and had we heard any of those computerized fights on Monday night? No, we hadn't heard any of them, but we ought to go next week. Then we told our guy that we knew a fellow who has said that this is a gigantic scheme to call Jack Dempsey the greatest heavyweight of all times, and we didn't think he was. Then who was the greatest, Jack Johnson. Big, about two twenty, fast and a master boxer when he wanted to be. Johnson had to be the best. So we went around to baseball and basketball and by then we had finished our meal and left.

Basketball

Is U.C.L.A. going to lose a game this year? If they do lose one, it will probably be to Houston next month where brother Hayes and company would like some revenge for the NCAA meet last spring.

The only one of our local schools not having a bad year is Roosevelt. In fact, the Riders scored so many points that nobody believed them. East, North, Tech, and Lincoln have their work cut out for them if they expect to reach the 500 mark.

Don't Hold Up
The News

Had guests and parties during Thanksgiving? Don't wait until next week to give us the news. Phone or bring it to the office Friday or Saturday.

Oakland Raiders
Clinch Western Title

Add the numbers 77, 53, 74 and 83, and what do you get? If you're a quarterback in the American Football League, you get trouble.

The numbers, reading from left to right, are worn on the jerseys of Ike Lassiter, Dan Birdwell, Tom Keating and Ben Davidson, the members of Oakland's rugged Front Four—and one of the major reasons the Raiders have clinched their first Western Division title in history.

The Raider Front Four has gotten to opposing quarterbacks more times than any other unit in AFL history. 61 times, and also has tacked on more yardage losses, 581 yards, than any other unit. The best previous marks were 56 for 526 yards by Boston in 1963—and the Raiders still have two games to play.

ANDERSON ERICKSON DAIRY CO.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Is peroxide needed to color unwanted gray hair?

Hair care and beauty experts know that the first traces of gray hair—and even slight fading of natural color after chemical relaxing—can dull a woman's appearance and make her look older than she feels. While most women hate these premature aging effects, many are hesitant about using permanent peroxide haircoloring which may change the natural hair color while coloring gray.

Professionally-trained hairdressers know the importance of their customers' preferences when unwanted gray becomes a problem. These experts also know that Chairol created semi-permanent Loving Care® hair color lotion without peroxide . . . to color only the gray without changing the natural shade. They also find Loving Care blends back color faded by chemical processing. Because of its mildness, Loving Care maintains healthy looking hair and lasts through a month of shampoos.

Whatever a woman's reason for wanting Loving Care for her hair, she is always wise to consult a professional beautician. Hairdressers are equipped with a family of fine Chairol products and the training to promise each patron the loveliest and most personalized haircoloring effects every time she visits her salon. If you dislike gray, and want no peroxide, why not ask your beautician to glamorize it with Loving Care?
