7 SOUTHERNERS CONVICTED:

Ten Years for Rights Murders

"Security Bill Punishes Poor," Says Aronson

Secretary Charges Congress's Bills Contained Setbacks

Washington, D. C. — "One of the worst setbacks this past session was the passage of a special security bill that contains provisions punishing the poor," said Arnold Aronson, Secretary of the Memo's Leadership Conference on Civil Rights.

"The 13 percent increase in the general level of benefits will be welcomed by millions of the old and disabled, widows and orphans—even though it is still short of what is needed to keep up with rising costs. But it was a grain bought at a high price—public assistance provisions that will fall heavily upon the poor, particularly mothers and children," said Aronson.

Benefits

"Despite the efforts of many of our groups, the bill that came from the House-Senate conference committee contained two provisions we had sought to have deleted: one compels mothers with dependent children to take part in state work-training programs or lose their benefits—it is a compulsion they would have to accept even though insufficient day care is provided for their children and they may be forced to accept ill-paying, dead-end jobs; the other freezes the number of children in fatherless homes who can receive help under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program."

War On Poverty

"If the anti-poverty bill is hailed as a victory, it is because the worst things Congress was generally expected to do to the poverty program were somehow avoided," Arnoldson stated. The Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) was not dismembered. The authorization for the program was kept to two years and not cut back to one. The level of funding suffered no serious cut: the funds authorized were kept at $1,980,000 for the first year and $2.1 billion for the second and the funds finally appropriated for fiscal 1969 were $1.773 billion.

Thurmond Amendment Beaten

"Another Southern amendment civil rights forces succeeded in defeating was one proposed by Senator Strom Thurmond (R-S.C.). It would have written into the bill the House provision that gives the states complete control over the $1.7 billion authorized by Title III of the bill to set up supplementary centers for innovative educational projects.

Fountain Defeated

The Secretary said there was one clear-cut victory for civil rights in the House-Senate conference, though. The "Fountain amendment" was finally rejected. This was the provision adopted by the House two years running that would prevent HEW from demeriting new funds to any school district is has reason to believe is discriminating until it completes a lengthy hearing on the matter.

School Board Members Attend Amos X-mas Program; Had Proof

Members of the Des Moines School Board were invited to Amos Hiatt Junior High School's annual Christmas program held Dec. 19.

Mrs. William Robinson, president of the Parent Teachers Association, said the School Board members had been invited because "it was a good time to show them that the Negro parents did participate in school activities," and the children could put on just as good a program as the other schools.

The president said that the auditorium for the evening program was filled to capacity, different from last year, when few Negro parents showed up.

Mrs. Jack Spevack, she said, attended the evening program, and at the afternoon program for students, another board member attended.

A member of the American Society of Microbiologists, the American Tissue Culture Association, and the honorary science fraternity Sigma XI, she is also an active member of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority in New York which has currently established a fund for an enterprising young woman at Hunter College in New York.

NEWS In A Nutshell

New York — "Action and revelation" were the keystones of the two-day session of the Executive Committee of the National Council of Negro Women at the Penn Garden Hotel, New York, Dec. 16-17. Miss Dorothy Height, newly re-elected president, supported by staff and project directors, introduced some new programs and gave progress reports of on-going programs, among other Wome in Community Service to young girls in poverty, Workshops in Mississippi on local community problems, and Project Womanpower which is recruiting and training 6,000 Negro women volunteers for community service and action.

New York — The appointment of Dr. Frank S. Horne as assistant administrator for equal opportunity in housing, a new New York City position, was hailed by NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins, who said that the appointment "signals an accelerated pace to the goal of your pioneer efforts and your brilliant dedicated career. New York City is fortunate to have your services and unmatched experience."

Tuskegee Institute, Ala. — A $1,000 scholarship was awarded to James Sidney Green of Tuskegee Institute by the National Collegiate Athletic Association. Green, a native of Tuscaloosa, was among thirty-three senior football players in the nation awarded the scholarship for postgraduate studies.

Louisville, Ken. — A law against racial discrimination in housing has been passed by the Louisville Board of Aldermen after months of militant civil rights activity in this city. The campaign for open housing here, which included massive nonviolent marches and protests and the arrest of hundreds of black and white demonstrators, was led by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), the Southern Conference Educational Fund, the West End Community Council, and the Kentucky Christian Leadership Conference.

Washington — The NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF) and Mobilization for Youth, Inc. recently asked the U.S. Supreme Court to review the constitutionality of New York State's money bail system. Specifically, the attorneys seek resolution of the question of whether requiring bail from a poor person violates the Eighth Amendment to the Constitution which states that "excessive bail shall not be required."

Bethel Young People To Present "Plaid Lads" At Callanan

The Young People's Department of Bethel A.M.E. Church will present the "Plaid Lads" at Callanan Junior High School, 31st and Center, in a recital at 4:45 p.m. Jan. 7, 1968. Mrs. Veritha Johnson is Supervisor.

Head Klansman, Deputy Sheriff Are Sentenced

Jackson, Miss.—Michael Schwerner, Andrew Goodman and James Chaney have been dead three years, since August, 1964, their murders gone unrevenged.

But last Friday U.S. District Judge Harold Cox handed down ten-year sentences to two white men, and six years to two others, and three year sentences to three more Southerners for violating the victims' civil rights.

Those charged were Klux Klan chieftain Sam Holloway Boers, Jr., and Alton W. Roberts, receiving ten years; Nesoba County Chief Deputy Sheriff Cecil Price and Billy W. Posey, six years; Horace D. Barnett, Jimmy Arledge and Jimmy Snowden, three years.

All White

The seven were convicted Oct. 20 by an all-white jury.

The conviction of the men tried for the lynching near Philadelphia, Miss., was termed a "history making development in the administration of justice in that state" by the NAACP.

Mob

In the bizarre murders, the workers had been arrested and held until the mob had been notified. Then they were released, to be captured on the highway by a gang of killers, according to the NAACP's earlier statement on the conviction.

Dr. John A. Morsell, assistant executive director of the NAACP said that the verdict demonstrated that the Department of Justice could secure convictions in civil rights cases.

Federal

A murder of this kind should be a Federal crime, with commensurate penalties, as is provided in a civil rights bill, said Morsell.

40 witnesses testified to the defense of the original 18 white men; the 19th, James E. Jordan, former Ku Klux Klan member, had been under FBI protection in Georgia for almost two years. He was one of the main witnesses for the prosecution.

James Bowman Will Host T.V. Program

A new program on job opportunities in the Polk County area will begin on KDPS-TV Monday night, Jan. 8. James Bowman, coordinator of federal programs for the Des Moines Public Schools, says, "Watch 'Job Line' if you're interested in getting a job or finding out how you can get a better one." He will be television host for the programs.

"Job-Line" will be the January-February "Polk County Moves Ahead" series co-sponsored by the Polk County Board of Education, the Department of Adult Education of the Des Moines Public Schools, and the Community Area Manpower Planning System.

Service

"Employment," says Bowman, "is a two-way street. The people who want a job need know what there is available and how to go about getting it. The people who are doing the hiring have certain qualifications they expect of employees. Jobhunters need to know what these are. We're trying to make 'Job-Line' the meeting ground and perform a real service to the working public and the employer as well."

A telephone connection with the Iowa Employment Service JobLine Sifting Center will be flashed on the screen frequently throughout programs. Personnel will be on hand after, as well as during, normal business hours for up-grading employment.

Officers Dismissed In African Beating Case at Pella Sat.

Pella, Ia.—After more than five months of being on the job after allegedly refusing to help a man in distress, Pella Police Chief Robert Houser and Patrolman Jacob Bruvoort have been fired.

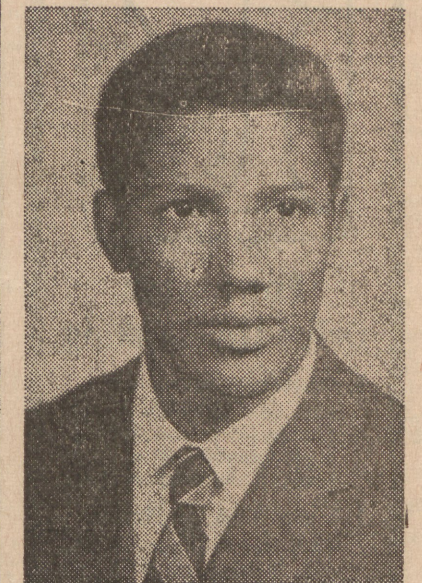

The announcement came Saturday that Mayor C. B. Caldwell had discharged the officers because of their refusal to come to the aid of Samuel Baker, 28-year-old African of Nairobi, Kenya, who charged in his complaint to the Iowa Civil Rights Commission that he had been beaten in the local restaurant. Baker's complaint to the officers allegedly went unheard.

Baker has since left the area, after the Commission publicly apologized to the African while criticizing the officers.

Williams Becomes Second Fireman

If the Des Moines City Council certifies his application, another Negro will become a fireman.

Walt Williams, of 1735 Walker street, was certified by the Des Moines Civil Service Commission after more than a year of controversy involving the young man.

WILLIAMS

Williams and Milford Fonza, now a fireman for the city, had gone to the Iowa Civil Rights Commission with complaints that they had been discriminated against in the hiring of firemen by the Civil Service Commission.

The Des Moines branch NAACP had urged that the City Council and the Civil Service Commission take steps to complete Williams application and certification as a fireman.

How Did Civil Rights Fare In '67? NAACP to Report

New York — How the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and civil rights generally fared in 1967 will be set forth at the Association's annual meeting here Monday, Jan. 8, in the report of Executive Director Roy Wilkins to the organization's membership.

Supplementing Mr. Wilkins' remarks will be a report on activities of NAACP branches in their respective communities by Gloster B. Current, director of branches and field administration. Other departmental heads will be present to answer questions raised in their respective fields.

On Sunday night, Jan. 7, the Association's annual fellowship dinner will be held here at the Hotel New York Hilton. The Rev. Father James E. Groppi, advisor to Milwaukee NAACP Youth Council, and Charles Evers, NAACP field director in Mississippi, will be presented with citations by Bishop Stephen G. Spottswood, chairman of the NAACP Board of Directors.

The program includes remarks by President Kivie Kaplan and Executive Director Wilkins. Mrs. Shirley Farmer of the Mid-Manhattan Branch will be soloist. Frederick O'Neal, the noted actor and president of Actors' Equity, will be toastmaster.

MUST CLOSE THE GAP IN THE BLACK REVOLT!

HEALTH FOR ALL

Isolation is deadly for humans. Banishment was the worst the Greeks could conceive. Solitary is still the ultimate punishment. And too often TB patients have suffered painful seclusion. Unnecessarily.

Today, treatment for TB takes place more and more in general hospitals and homes. Patients are seldom surrounded by masked figures in surgical gowns.

There are reasons why. For one thing, much more is known about the TB germ. It is not transmitted by ordinary breathing. Lodged in tiny droplets of moisture the germ is spread by the explosive force of coughing, sneezing, and laughing. Anti-TB drugs drastically reduce coughing, bacteria, and the amount of sputum. They reduce the chances of the TB patient infecting others. In fact, there's evidence that with drug therapy, some patients become non-infectious very shortly — within a few weeks.

Purpose

TB patients today are treated like human beings. With social needs. But there are still too many patients, and too many thousands of people who are infected and do not know it. Some of these people are probably spreading their infections.

Seeing that TB-infected persons are found and treated will be a major purpose of your tuberculosis and respiratory disease association in 1968. The association slogan sums the need: "It's a Matter of Life and Breath." If you haven't remembered to send in your Christmas Seal contribution, why not do it today — and start the New Year right.

Family Finances

Service is as important as the product you buy.

Save money by making sure... before you buy... that reliable repair service is available locally.

Six rules of buying a product that will need maintenance or repair:

1. Expect good sales service. If you don't get it you're likely to have trouble when you need repairs.
 2. A guarantee is only as good as the organization behind it. Read it carefully.
 3. Think of the product in terms of need for maintenance and availability of parts and service.
 4. A good product name is essential but not enough if facilities for service are lacking.
 5. Utility companies may be able to tell you where to obtain good service.
 6. A dealer with adequate service facilities may have to charge a slightly higher price for the product.
- You save in the long run with those who have facilities for good service.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Is peroxide needed to color unwanted gray hair?

Hair care and beauty experts know that the first traces of gray hair—and even slight fading of natural color after chemical relaxing—can dull a woman's appearance and make her look older than she feels. While most women hate these premature aging effects, many are hesitant about using permanent peroxide haircoloring which may change the natural hair color while coloring gray.

Professionally-trained hairdressers know the importance of their customers' preferences when unwanted gray becomes a problem. These experts also know that Clairol created semi-permanent Loving Care® hair color lotion without peroxide... to color only the gray without changing the natural shade. They also find Loving Care blends back color faded by chemical processing. Because of its mildness, Loving Care maintains healthy looking hair and lasts through a month of shampoos.

Whatever a woman's reason for wanting Loving Care for her hair, she is always wise to consult a professional beautician. Hairdressers are equipped with a family of fine Clairol products and the training to promise each patron the loveliest and most personalized haircoloring effects every time she visits her salon. If you dislike gray, and want no peroxide, why not ask your beautician to glamorize it with Loving Care?

They tell me that the African Twist is the thing to do. Well, I didn't see them doing it at Wilkie's Thursday night gig. I did hear about the little kids who were playing with rocks, who were such bad shots that the only things they could hit were Wilkie's windows. But little children must play. Try a sandbox next time, hmmm?

The Emotions were playing; about 150 youngs there, like Ralph Jones—rather, I don't think Ralph was dancing. He seemed to be guarding the door; and Valerie Claytor, Pauline Smart, Diane Webster.

Is the San Francisco Lounge the place to go? So many are talking about it, must be in the wedge.

Each year many newspapers publish the headline stories from the preceding year; I don't do exactly that, but I will just mention some of those celebrities whose interviews graced this column: Brother Jack McDuff, Ike Cole, Billy Williams, Johnnie Mathis, Lou Rawls, the Sherilles, the Young Americans, the Four Tops, Uncle Willie Pratt and Doug Clark and the "Hot Notes." So that shows you who's been to the city. What will next year bring?

Ministers Give Views For New Year Ahead

1968. Another year. The previous year was wrought with racial violence, murder, international clashing—what will 1968 be like? What can each of us do somehow set a new goal for ourselves and for the community?

Four ministers gave their suggestions for the year ahead. They were the Rev. George Parrish, pastor of Maple Street Baptist Church, Rev. Henry Thomas, pastor of Union Baptist Church, Bishop E. A. Tindrell, pastor of New Jerusalem Church of God in Christ and Rev. O. M. Peavy, pastor of Kyles A.M.E. Zion Church.

Rev. Parrish: The most important factor would be for all individuals to find it in their hearts to love one another. "Love one another", that passage tells more than ten pages of suggestions.

Rev. Thomas: I would take the motto from my last Sunday's sermon, "Traveling Safe with God in '68". In it, as an example, I used an automobile with its dependability and faithfulness. Like an automobile, a person should be dependable and faithful. Toward this he should set his goal for the new year.

Bishop Tindrell: I resolve to better my environment. I'll use this individually so. If we, as individuals, will try to brighten our environment, it may rub off on somebody else.

Rev. Peavy: As we have viewed 1967, we've seen midnight everywhere. Now, as we travel through 1968, let us see the daylight of God.

MRS. EWING

Mercy Hospital of a heart attack early Saturday morning.

Born in Glasgow, Mo., Mrs. Ewing had been a Des Moines resident 50 years. Employed as an elevator operator at Wolf's for 20 years, she was a member of Olive Branch Chapter 32 of the Eastern Star, the L.T. Club and Hostess Club.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Dorothea Ridge of Des Moines; a cousin, William Thomas of Des Moines, whom Mrs. Ewing reared, and seven grandchildren.

A 7 p.m. wake was held Monday at Estes and Son Funeral Home.

Are you planning to buy a new car on credit? Before you rush into installment buying, ask yourself, "Do I really need a new car immediately?" Then consider saving until you have enough money to pay cash.

Borrowing is an expensive business these days. For example, say you had $800 on hand and wanted to buy a $2,400 car. You'd have to borrow $1,600. If the interest rate were only 5%, the loan would cost you $120 over 18 months. The car would actually cost you $2,520, and you'd have payments of $95.55 a month.

On the other hand, if you put your $800 in a savings account, and added a deposit of $95.55 each month, at the end of 18 months, you'd have the $2,400 cash you need for the new car, plus over $220 in accumulated interest.

If you can, put off buying that car until you can pay cash. You'll be money ahead.

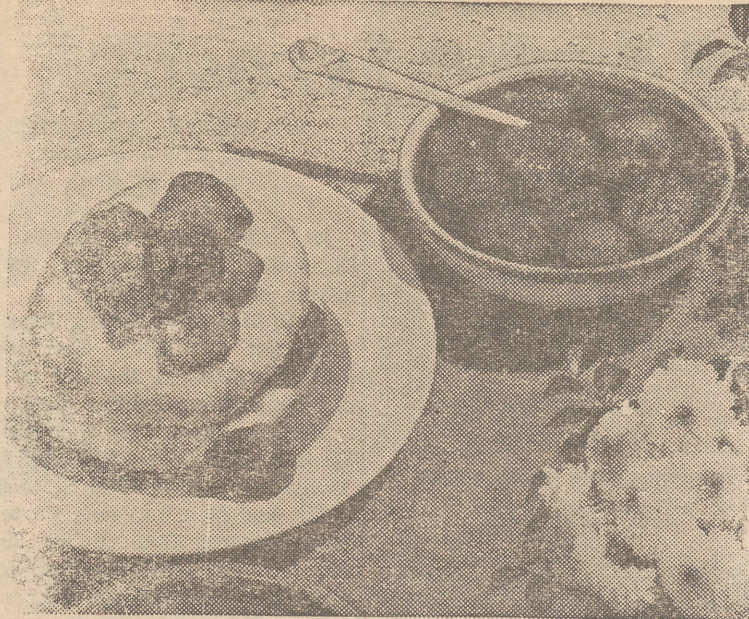

SPAGHETTI SUPPER FOR SUNDAY GUESTS

You can make Sunday night supper a guest meal without imposing extra work on anyone if you serve Chef Boy-ar-dee packaged spaghetti dinner as the main dish. The package contains quick-cooking spaghetti, a real chef's sauce made with either meat or mushrooms, and grated cheese to sprinkle over all. While the spaghetti is cooking, heat the sauce, assemble a salad out of the refrigerator, make the coffee, and you have a real presto-chango meal that will satisfy everybody. Ice cream, fruit, a refrigerator cake, makes a happy ending.

A Shortcut for Shortcake

PERVE SHORTCAKE AND IT'S A SURE THING ... everybody loves it, especially when lots of sweet, luscious fruit comes sliding over the top and through the middle. And now when you can depend on your grocer for fruit all through the year, fresh or frozen, it means shortcake comes more often to your table. And as long as you have an excellent recipe for shortcake such as this, you can have as many variations as there are fruits to spoon on the top—and be happy there are so many reasons for serving this dessert. This new recipe comes through the courtesy of Pream, the 100% dairy product to "cream" your coffee as well as your cooking. They suggest you try serving the individual shortcakes unadorned with several varieties of fruit in serving dishes, then let each guest select his own fruit topping.

QUICK SHORTCAKE

2 cups biscuit mix 2 tablespoons sugar
1 1/2 cup Pream 3/4 cup water
Mix the dry ingredients thoroughly and stir in water. Roll out into six biscuits. Bake for 12 to 15 minutes in oven at 450°. (ANS)

Is 45 too late to start building a retirement fortune?

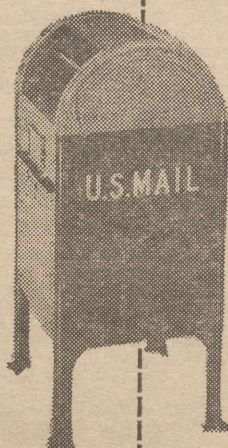

Not if you save part of your paycheck every month in a Home Federal passbook savings account. See the example on the right.

But, of course, if you are younger you can build even a larger fortune with smaller amounts. Compound earnings over the longer period of years will add substantially more to the total in your savings account.

For example, if you are age 25 and were to save $100 a month at Home Federal you would have $77,584 at age 65—$48,000 plus $29,584 in dividends. This example (and the ones on the right) are figured at our current 4 1/2% yearly rate, compounded twice a year on June 30 and December 31.

To open an account now, send the coupon or visit our office at Sixth and Grand in Des Moines. Home Federal pays the postage both ways on all savings transactions.

Starting at age 45, save each month	Total amount you add by age 65	Total in your account incl. dividends at age 65

Go To Nursing Homes And Sing To Patients

Although the headlines too often scream of teenage misbehavior, there are also the good deeds which go by unheard.

In keeping with the Christmas spirit, this year the Pilgrim Baptist Church's Junior Choir spent a day of their school vacation by going to various nursing homes and to a hospital to sing and visit with patients there.

The choir, supervised by Mrs. William Robinson and directed by Mrs. Alberta Williams, visited Johnson, Lawn Haven and Worthington Manor Nursing Homes, singing carols, and also presenting poinsettia plants.

From there they went to Mercy Hospital where they treated patients on the third and fifth floors, and gave poinsettia plants to two patients.

First

Mrs. Robinson said this was the first time that the junior choir had participated in this type of activity, and that the junior choir's visit was the first that caroling in that form had been done at the three predominantly Negro homes.

The choir also gave plants to their pastor, the Rev. William Heath and to William Robinson.

The fifteen children were transported to the homes and hospital by way of a Youthmobile loaned by the Y.M.C.A. and driven by Archie Moore, VISTA worker.

Raymond Carr, brother to the groom. In the groom's party were Dino Flanagan, best man; Wendell Griffin, Archie Simmons, Ted Carr jr., brother to the groom, and Frank Lowery, uncle to the bride, and head usher. "Oh Promise Me", "Because", and "I Love You Truly" were special solos by Miss Mary Parris; organist was Mrs. Alice Boyd. Officiating was Bishop E. A. Tindrell.

The altar was tastefully decorated with red and white chrysanthemums and ivy, flanked on each side by candelabras of seven candles each.

Reception

Fellowship Hall was the location for the reception displaying white lace scarved tables holding the traditional three-tiered wedding cake decorated with red roses and white carnations surrounding the cake. Highlighting the cake were bouquets of white carnations on either side. Refreshments included coffee, red punch, mints, nuts and candies in crystal service.

LEARN ABOUT HOME FOLKS FIRST

Children are born without race prejudice. They learn it from grown ups or other children who have been indoctrinated by their parents and associates. That prejudice is allowed to go to school and grow since there is little provision for combating it in the schools and thus many youngsters become soaked with prejudice which they can never shake off.

Today, public and private leaders are groping in the dark trying to find a way to combat racial prejudice effectively. They are coming to recognize that equal opportunity to live, work and learn are essential to the well-being of every citizen. Many are trying honestly to see that this is brought about.

On the other hand, during that time when youngsters begin to know about racial prejudice and until they become adults, there is a period when no counter move is made against what is being taught and/or told them.

The most fertile field is the grade school period where the youngster begins to form his opinions. He hears everything bad but is told little that is good. It follows even through the college period.

Thus, except for a week's seminar, a week of prayer or bringing noted speakers in to "give both sides", the schools do little to drill into the hearts and minds of youngsters what we say our human credo is.

Here and there individual citizens are raising or adopting foreign children. Our schools and universities are striving to teach American boys and girls how to get along with other races but have no program to teach them how to get along with minorities at home.

Negroes are making great contributions to the athletic program of the schools. Graduates in the field of education, sciences and the professions are bringing honor to their schools also. But the schools have been half-hearted recognizing these contributions. And these institutions should be thankful.

We are certain that with some course in human relations directed toward teaching youngsters from the grades through college the value of racial understanding and cooperation, of how to work together as well as play together, of how each must be fully indoctrinated with the principles set forth in our fundamental laws, much good can be accomplished and there would be less suspicion between the races.

Our schools, like our churches, have shied away from making bold contributions to the problem of race in America and we are suffering for it. This is particularly true in some of our Iowa schools.

So as these newly found groups grope in the dark for means of solving this great race problem here is a place where they can find some fertile fields.

COMBATING CRIME A FIRST
BY NEW COUNCIL

Des Moines has a new city council, seven instead of five. This change in government was brought on because the voters had pretty well lost confidence in the old system. We agree to some extent but there was some good in it at that.

At its first official meeting Tuesday Mayor Urban reiterated the urgency of combating the crime wave which is rising in every community today. The mayor is on the right track. The public is wary of the fears and uncertainties encountered on our streets today. They want something done about it.

A committee on crime within the council has been appointed to study ways and means of doing something to combat the evil. It proposes to work with existing law enforcement officials in seeking some solutions. The public anxiously awaits the answer.

Patriots Charles
To Peanut Butter's
All-America Team

Chicago, Ill. A gastronomic All-America football eleven has been announced. For the fifth straight year there's a Peanut Butter All-America, made up of some of the most promising rookies in the ranks of professional football. Judges from the Peter Pan Peanut Butter Company Chicago, each year make their pick from the roster of college players in the All-Star game. Picks from the roster of college players in the All-Star game.

John Charles, Purdue B, now with the Boston Patriots, is a fan for mayonnaise on his peanut butter sandwiches, and also likes to have some soup at the same time.

Players considered for this year's squad weighed an average of 220 pounds and stood an average of 6 feet, two and three-fourths inches tall.

Purdue (B)You Can Make
Meringue Cookies

By Betty Barclay

"MAKE 'EM Yourself!" You can. These glamorous meringue cookies that you used to have to buy from a fancy bakery, you can now make yourself in less than half an hour! Three dozen of them, too; enough to serve with elegance at an evening card party.

Chocolate Meringue Cookies
1 cup chocolate chips; 3 egg whites; 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar; 1/2 cup saltine cracker crumbs; 1/4 cup chopped pecans; 1 teaspoon vanilla. Melt chocolate over hot water. Cool. Beat egg whites until stiff. Add sugar gradually, beating after each addition until blended. Then fold in cracker crumbs, nuts, vanilla, and melted chips. Drop from teaspoon on lightly greased baking sheet and spread slightly. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) about 10 minutes. Makes about 3 dozen 2-inch cookies. Store in tightly covered container.

A Room for Two Children

WHEN two youngsters occupy the same room, ordinarily they have little privacy. However, by using a bit of imagination and ingenuity, the fix-it-them-selves family can create a room that has two of everything, plus built-in privacy.

First, the room is divided by means of an extra-wide divider desk and closets. This way, there'll be a separate study and clothes storage area for each child. The separation of the space is completed by a sliding door.

Other features may include a radiator enclosure, fluorescent lighting, spacious drawers in the desks and an attractive soffit. Use of Masonite hardboards for the closet walls, desks, soffit and as underlayment for the flexible floor covering makes such a room improvement both economical and easy. A large variety of hardboards for these purposes are available at lumber yards.

Hardboards made by Masonite Corporation, the pioneer producer, are made by exploding clean wood chips in huge guns and then compressing the fibers into thin, strong panels under extreme heat and pressure. Being all wood, these panels may be worked and finished like wood.

For a free plan detailing how to create a youth room for two, write The Home Service Bureau, Suite 2037, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., requesting Plan No. AE-265.

Marine David Ward
Serving In Viet Nam

Da Nang, Vietnam (FHTNC) — Marine Lance Corporal David C. Ward, son of Mrs. James Ward of 1421 2nd Street Place, is serving with the First Tank Battalion, First Marine Division near Da Nang, Vietnam.

Primary mission of the battalion is to support the division's infantry units engaged in combat with direct supporting fire.

The tank also has other capabilities. Using a blade similar to a bulldozer, the tankers often cut roads through dense Vietnamese terrain in order to provide the infantry with supporting fire.

Marine R. Dobbins
Finishes Training

Camp Pendleton, Calif. (FHTNC) — Marine Private Russell E. Dobbins, of 1318 Washington completed two weeks of training under simulated combat conditions in the fundamentals of day and night patrolling, employment of infantry weapons, survival methods and assault tactics at this Marine Corps base.

While in the field he was taught how to use hand grenades, a compass and the principles of map reading and land navigation. He learned how to detect and disarm mines and booby traps and, while being exposed to live machine gun fire, to advance safely from one point to another.

From this course, he is scheduled to go to more advanced training before being assigned to his permanent unit.
