Continue Protest Of Nat Turner Movie

Los Angeles: A statement by Ossie Davis, one of the most ardent protesters in the movement to keep Hollywood from filming the book, "The Confessions of Nat Turner," appeared in a full page ad last week in the Hollywood Reporter, the film industry's trade paper.

Addressed to all black actors and other interested parties, the ad stated that this book is dangerous racism and an insult to all black people. Davis concluded: "For a black actor, a black man, to lend his craft, his body and his soul to such a flagrant libel against one of our greatest heroes would be to have one of us become an agent for the enemy against our own legitimate aspirations. It is quite possible I would despise such a man who would do such a thing."

Charge Postmaster John McNerney With Job Bias

Three postal employees have charged Postmaster John P. McNerney with discrimination.

James P. Mitchell, Jr., mail handler, was removed from the postal services Apr. 12, according to Henry R. Simpson, president of the Des Moines Postal Union. Mitchell is currently appealing to the Board of Appeals and Review in Washington, D.C., that his removal was the result of discrimination because of color.

Five

The second, said Simpson, concerns Cordell L. McGuire, mail handler, and the five attempts of McNerney to remove him from the service. "McGuire had charged the Postmaster with discrimination at the time his appeal was submitted to the Regional office Nov. 21, 1967 and under the postal regulations the

Negro Organizations: UNF, CNC, Brotherhood

Within the last year, three major Negro organizations have sprung up in the city: the Northern Brotherhood Leadership Conference, originated by Cecil Reed; the United Negro Federation, headed by Judge Luther T. Glanton and John Estes, Jr.; and the Concerned Negro Citizens, headed by Herman Wadsworth, Sr.

The Northern Brotherhood Leadership Conference is designated as an interracial organization, whose policy is to parallel that of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, formerly headed by the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The family exchange between St. Paul AME Church and First Baptist Church was in co-operation with the Leadership Conference, to get to the roots of de facto segregation in the church, according to Rev. Henderson S. Davis, pastor of St. Paul who said last Tuesday before the exchange that it was "to give people a chance to live out what they say."

The United Negro Federation, which met Monday at Julia B. Meyer Center, is constructed to unite the Negro community and to re-establish communication lines be-

King Scholarship Reaches $25,000

Iowa City—Contributions to the Martin Luther King Scholarship Fund at the University of Iowa have reached $25,000.

President Howard R. Bowen called for the creation of the scholarship fund in a speech delivered shortly after the assassination of Dr. King. Bowen says that annual contributions of $50,000 to the special fund, plus modest loans, could help provide educational opportunities for 25-50 disadvantaged students of minority background.

The University of Iowa Foundation is managing the fund, and contributions may be sent in care of the Foundation to the Iowa Memorial Union. Besides the scholarship fund, several other programs in interracial relations, poverty and human rights are being developed or expanded at the U of I.

Robert Parker, 14, son of Mrs. Willa Mae Parker, of 1229 15th street, received a $200 scholarship last Friday, speaking on "The Golden Opportunities of Youth." Robert, in competition with winners from Waterloo, Marshalltown and Newton, spoke at Newton Wednesday.

Fourth place winner was Don Brown, 14 of 2723 Columbia street, Amos High student.

A member of St. Paul AME Church, Robert will attend North High School, and after graduation, will major in music (he plays piano).

Boy Ballet Dancer

Featured in 17 Mag.

New York — "Ballet is the most masculine of the performing arts — it just has a bad image." So says 19-year-old Lewis Whitlock, of 3854 Clinton Avenue S., Minneapolis, in the "Face to Face" feature of the May issue of Sevens, a Magazine. Lewis, who began dancing at three and performed with the touring Bolshoi Ballet troupe at twelve, believes "people equate gracefulness with femininity," but forget that the power, control and self-discipline of dancing "are all manly attributes."

Teased

Lewis, a Wisconsin State University freshman, was trained in classical ballet, and now includes jazz, tap and modern dance in his repertoire. "I branched out in self-defense," he admits. "I didn't want to be teased." Although classical ballet (which Lewis regrets "represents a way of life that has vanished") is his first love, Lewis considers "jazz dancing a much more meaningful idiom" in its relation to contemporary America. Modern dance offers a man a "tremendous variety of character parts," explains Lewis, who prefers an active role to service as a "foil to the prima ballerina."

Washington Irving P.T.A. Elects Officers

Washington Irving Junior High P.T.A. elected and installed new officers at its Apr. 23 meeting. Elected were Mesdames Robert Boller, president; Robert Carson, first vice president; John Gilchrist, second vice president; Jerome Scheckel, third vice president; Fanny Wright, secretary and Paul Young, treasurer.

Music Industry Hails Dr. Martin L. King

New York — Royalty allotments and benefit shows are the order of the day to salute the memory of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

In Hollywood, a "Friendship Rally" was held to honor the leader of the non-violent movement in America celebrities joined civic leaders and clergymen in an unprecedented effort to raise funds with which to continue the work of the late Dr. King.

Rod Steiger, winner of an Academy Award for Best Actor in the movie "In the Heat of the Night," hosted an all-star gathering of entertainers which included Barbara Bain, Oscar Brown, Jr., Jimmy Durante, Ivan Dixon, Eartha Kitt, Martin Landau, The Mills Brothers, Leonard Nimoy, Walter Matthau, Ben Gazzara, Shirley Bassey, and many others.

Newark, N.J. — Miss Sally Carroll, president of the Newark Branch of the NAACP, has announced the establishment of an NAACP Fire Relief Fund to aid the 600 persons made homeless by the disastrous Central Ward fire here last week.

Beverly Hills, Calif.—Producer Hal Kanter has signed Negro writers Robert L. Goodwin, Gene Boland and Harry Dolan to write scripts for 20th Century-Fox Television's new NBC half-hour comedy series "Julia," starring Diahann Carroll in the title role.

Princeton, N.J. — Elliot D. Moorman, 18-year-old freshman from Newark, N.J., led the balloting this week for President of Princeton's Class of 1971 to become the first black student in University history elected to a class office.

Cleveland is the fourth major city in the past year to report a drastic cut in dropout rates as a result of the Neighborhood Youth Corps in-school program, the Labor Department has announced.

Returning From Drake Relays; Seven Fatalities

Beaumont, Tex.—Tragedy marred the conclusion of the 59th Annual Drake Relays Meet in Des Moines when five LaMar Tech athletes, the coach and the pilot were killed in an air mishap.

Dead are Coach Ty Terrell, E. W. McCall, the pilot; Randy Clewis, Don LeLaune, Mike Favazza, John Richardson and Waverly Thomas. Thomas and Clewis were Negro.

According to last reports the pilot suffered a heart attack before the crash of the twin-engine private plane early Sunday morning, about 12:24 a.m. at Beaumont. It departed Des Moines at 7:02 p.m. Saturday.

Thomas and Richardson, both juniors, were champions of the Southland Conference last year. Thomas has run the 440 yard dash in :47.0 and the 220 in :21.6. Clewis had run the 880 in 1:53 this year.

The team arrived in Des Moines Thursday afternoon at Hotel Ft.

Des Moines, according to Tom O'Grady, reservation manager. He said that a LaMar team had been coming to the Relays for the past six or seven years, and he indirectly had known Coach Terrell. "They were a nice bunch of boys," O'Grady said, and many people commented on the courtesy of the team. They checked out of the Hotel about 5:30 p.m. before heading for their private plane.

FAA

The Federal Aviation Agency will completely investigate the crash, and the Iowa Aviation Corporation made this comment about private plane crashes: There are so many factors involved in private plane crashes that no single malfunction may be the cause. Some private planes may fly as low as 500 feet above the ground, and a spin would send the plane to earth in only a few seconds. Planes have been known to lose 700 feet in five seconds.

At the Relays meet, LaMar placed second to Texas.

Secretary Weaver will head the list of distinguished guests at the ceremony as Des Moines starts its first program toward meeting the need for better housing for low and modest income families.

Treatment

Another important factor in the remarkable reduction of TB is an unusual contribution of effort made by the U. S. Public Health Service in addition to the work of state and municipal agencies and the TB-Respiratory Disease association. Their combined efforts, through chemotherapy and other anti-tuberculosis weapons, brought results that bespeak a promising future for eventual TB eradication, with preventive drug treatment as its chief tool.

'Whole New Morality' at World Rights Conference

New York—Roy Wilkins returned from Tehran, Iran, here he headed the United States delegation to the UN International Conference on Human Rights, fully convinced that America no longer regards the race issue a purely internal affair.

Questioned by newsmen upon his arrival at the John F. Kennedy International Airport here, Thursday, April 25, the executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said:

Minority

"How we handle our minorities at home has blossomed forth from a backyard affair into a crucial world issue affecting the nation's standing and prestige as the leader of the Free World. There was a time when the abuse of the Negro minority by racist elements within our society was regarded as private internal U.S. business.

"It was evident that at Tehran a whole new morality has developed which challenges racism in our life. The United States cannot afford to ignore this development."

During the opening session of the Conference in Tehran the more than 2,000 delegates, representing 79 nations and 47 non-governmental organizations, stood in a minute of silent tribute to the martyred Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., who, Mr. Wilkins told the international assembly "was the countryman of every human being in the world."

King

On his return to the U.S. Mr. Wilkins observed that "the image of Dr. King loomed large in the minds of the delegates who were attracted to him by his philosophy and practice of non-violence and the conduct of his crusade for equality on a moral basis. They regard his death as a major tragedy."

On the other hand, he said "the rioting, looting and the harsh rhetoric of black extremists are regarded as expressions of immaturity. Nevertheless, it was evident that the delegates were aware of the discriminations, frustrations and racism which spawn hatred and violence."

Addressing the Conference on behalf of the United States, Mr. Wilkins conceded that human rights are violated in some measure everywhere, "except in Anarcitica and in outer space." He, however, expressed confidence in the achievement of a "glittering future for all Americans, black men and white, Indians, Protestants, Catholics, Jews and non-believers."

Charger

In the United States, he acknowledged, "we are not completely changed, but the tortuous record I have reviewed shows we have worked for change, inch after excruciating inch. This commitment and will of which I have spoken, now bright, now grim, must mark the way internationally if the world is to fulfill the promise of the unprecedented step of a United Nations, 1948."

The Conference which is continuing for two more weeks was called by the UN General Assembly as the highlight of the Human Rights Year of 1968 in observance of the 20th anniversary of the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

You Can Make Meringue Cookies

By Betty Barclay

"MAKE 'EM YOURSELF!" You can. These glamorous meringue cookies that you used to have to buy from a fancy bakery, you can now make yourself in less than half an hour! Three dozen of them, too; enough to serve with elegance at an evening card party.

Chocolate Meringue Cookies
1 cup chocolate chips; 3 egg whites; 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar; 1/4 cup saltine cracker crumbs; 1/4 cup chopped pecans; 1 teaspoon vanilla. Melt chocolate over hot water. Cool. Beat egg whites until stiff. Add sugar gradually, beating after each addition until blended. Then fold in cracker crumbs, nuts, vanilla, and melted chips. Drop from teaspoon on lightly greased baking sheet and spread slightly. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) about 10 minutes. Makes about 3 dozen 2-inch cookies. Store in tightly covered container.

It was a thrill and an honor to be with Wilma Rudolph all day Saturday during her stay here, since Miss Rudolph has always been one of my favorite sports figures. I would suggest, however, that a Negro club or organization set itself up as a welcoming committee to escort Negro celebrities around the city during their sojourn. D.M. leaves no big impression on any dignitary who has to sit in his or her hotel room watching television all evening after being invited for some event. Come on, clubs, if you feel you can swing, show this to the next Negro star who arrives! Get in touch with the folks sponsoring the celebrity's trip and make sure that there will be no repeat of a dull evening for any of our souls again!

Track

It was glaringly obvious to Miss Rudolph that no Iowa Negro girls were running in the Relays, and I hope next year that some enterprising coach will get together a team of soul sisters to show Iowa how girls track can really be run. Out of 25,000 Negroes in Iowa, you'd think one could qualify for the Iowa Track Club! Perhaps the lack of a showing may be why a group of young souls reportedly roughed up some white girl runners. How about you, Eddie Violet?

Hildie, Joyce and Beverly Wheeler, of Chicago, were three very delightful young women who were very patient with my lack of directions in trying to get Wilma to the Des Moines Airport. If you see a grey Mustang wandering around the Loop, help them back to Chicago, will you? ATTY. WILLIE GLANTON, commenting about the past weekend's Sixteenth Central Area Assembly of Links, Inc., said she was "pleasantly surprised when Sister Links elected her Assistant Director of the Central Area." She "looks forward to two years of interesting and gratifying efforts and hopes these will be productive." The City is justifiably proud that we have a Des Moines Chapter of Links, Inc.

ADA DUNNER, M.D. "admired the community spirit" exemplified at the Northern Brotherhood Leadership Conference and Cecil A. Reed's approach toward possible solutions of our community's racial problems. Mr. Reed was nominated chairman by Marjorie E. W. Smith and as you all know by now, elected chairman of this new group. Dr. Dunner lauded the excellent attendance of fully two hundred persons. My good friend, Dr. D., chided yours truly for my absence!

ANNABELLE BLANEY, DEPUTY AUDITOR, and I for once spent a few hours together. "For once" meaning after years of office visits, we enjoyed a delicious meal and records such as those of Mahalia Jackson, Little Richards Gospel Choir, the Back Home Choir, and ended with Charles Gater's bass playing with The Best of the Dave Rooney Trio! We closed our day getting perfectly grubby gathering plants—flowers only! Annabelle, best known in the business world, is a superb homemaker and fine gardener!

MODEL CITIES CHAIRMAN, DAVID F. PICKETT, helped by his wife, Margaret a former WAC, their 19 year old son, David, Jr., and eleven year old, daughter, Toni, delayed their Sunday drive and chatted a bit with me. Their own ranch style home in its beautiful setting is a most fitting proof that this pair has ideas to share and the needed interest. Their home is across from Annabelle's. Other neighbors in this lovely block are Mr. and Mrs. C. Frank Franklin (the pair who represented us at the White House, you know); Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Carter (he's a P.O. employee); Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson (of Hammett and Robinson Funeral Home); Mr. and Mrs. Walter (Tiny) Brennen; Mrs. Florence Mann, Iowa Methodist Dietitian; Mrs. Erick Lindgren; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Jackson; Mrs. J. L. Lucas, widow of Rev. J. L. Lucas; Mr. and Mrs. Elton R. Lyle (he is retired); last but undoubtedly not least let's include Joseph Tursi, who is remodeling 1127 14 Street and will soon hold "Open House". Chairman Pickett has the full support of these owners of lovely homes.

Bouquets Entertain With Mrs. Wallace

PUNITIVE ACTION AGAINST UNION AND CONTRACTOR POLICY

Several years ago, a group of Negro bricklayers were brought to Des Moines to work on a building under construction at Euclid Avenue and Harding Road. They carried union cards and of course were qualified for the work.

Following the first day of employment the white union men remained home "sick" and of course the job was delayed. The construction company was under contract to complete the building within a definite time and thus was forced to let the Negro bricklayers go.

A complaint was filed with the human rights commission. An investigation was made which substantiated the charges leveled at the union.

Union officials, fearing the light which would embarrass the discriminatory policy of the organization, requested that they be allowed to police their own men. The commission agreed to this request. And as the By-stander had predicted, nothing further was heard about the complaint. Instead of policing their men, their dirty linen was brushed under the bed.

A similar situation arose in Clinton. Someone put the heat on the contractors and union with the result that the men were paid a substantial bonus. Under these conditions, this trick will hardly be tried again.

Of course, we realize that times are different; that discriminatory groups will not be allowed to get away with these unfair practices without being brought to account for their actions.

These practices are the underhanded dirty tricks that are played on Negroes that cause many to carry chips on their shoulders. We must quit letting such people set the policy and place it into the hands of people who practice what they preach.

GOV. ROCKEFELLER ENTERS
RACE FOR PRESIDENT

Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York has finally announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for President. His entry in the race had been expected in that he had held himself open for the bid and the pressure brought on by the demands of voters.

His entry in the race will provide a debate in the Republican party of the issues of the day and thus create more interest in the party.

Gov. Rockefeller has made an excellent governor of New York having been elected to three successive terms. And in spite of the fact that he has had a Democrat legislature most of the time, he has succeeded in carrying out his program of financial responsibility and reorganization of the state government.

New York City is a heavy Democrat stronghold with Harlem providing an almost solid majority. However, Rockefeller campaigned in Harlem and the Puerto Rican section of the city getting the views and gripes of these people who before had never been consulted about their wishes. As a result of these visits, he secured more Republican votes than any candidate for many years.

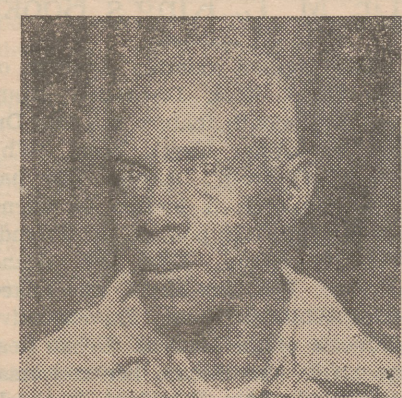

The Rockefeller family has long been identified with the cause of the Negro in education and general welfare. Spellman Seminary of Atlanta, Ga. is named in honor of his grandmother, his father served as trustee of several southern schools and was instrumental in raising large sums of money for their support and endowment.

It is generally conceded that Gov. Rockefeller will pull a strong vote from Negroes; also undecided and liberal Democrats. He will be the strongest Republican candidate.

SPORTS

With Allen Ashby

The Drake Relays number 59 did set one record that everyone is talking about. It was the first time in years that we had two really fine days together. From the time the high schools got off with Roosevelt's Larry Miller winning the hundred yard dash until the last event Saturday, there was excitement. Even the races that were not even in record time had some hair raising finishes.

As we watched young Miller pull up with the pack at fifty yards and take the lead at about seventy five we thought he would make a fine halfback. Maybe he will. And that long guy Toby Huston can pick em up and lay em down, too. But on the whole Tech with its nearly all Negro cast made a fine showing and should have won the race they got nipped at the tape in.

Shot Put

We attended Arkansas AM and N for fifteen minutes, but we got a kick out of seeing them gather at least a bunch of seconds in the college relays. Nobody beats Southern or Prairie View too much, so our gang did well. Prairie View put out a shot putter who got off a respectable heave of a little better than fifty eight feet for first place. Yes, he is six feet tall and three feet wide.

As the teams lined up for the quarter mile college relay, one fellow sitting beside me said, "one white boy in all that crowd", and we answered "howinell did he get there" and everyone laughed, even the fellow who didn't like it.

In years we have been seeing fellows get knocked down and sometimes clean off the track on the first course of the second or third leg of a track relay. This happens when the fellows are bunched up. Saturday we saw a Southern runner knocked sprawling and then we started asking questions about that course. Well, it seems as if after the first quarter in which you ran in lanes for 120 yards the runners are on their own. The first course is open territory and you cut for the pole at your own risk. It took us ten years to learn that. We never did figure how they could give special timing on the hundred yard dash. The winner looked to be way out in front. But then we didn't hold a stop watch on the race. The hood jump was rather poor so the triple jump winner really made up for it. He early jumped out of the pit and onto the grass. Green, the guy at the Penn Relays did just that.

Wilma

We thought it was Gordon of Iowa who came up and got Wilma Rudolph to be introduced and entered into the Relays hall of Fame. Her appearance here was the first time the Iowa girls had a track team and now they say there are twenty thousand girls running in Iowa. But where are the Negro girls? We are sure there must be some who can run, but where are they?

Isn't She Wilma Rudolph?

ELEANORA E. TATE

"Just be sure you don't wrap it too tight," Wilma said Saturday morning as we sat in her hotel room, she wrapping a multicolored, about eight-foot long cloth around her head with easy skill. "It keeps me exercised just putting it on," and she proceeded to get ready for her appearance in the Drake Relays parade, carefully selecting a white linen sleeveless dress and matching duster.

After the parade I met her in the lobby and we began the delightful task of finding a suitable dress for her to wear at the meet, which in itself presented a problem—Wilma Rudolph, the first woman to be honored in the Drake University's Hall of Fame, is 6 feet tall and weighs 165 pounds. She wears a size 14 dress and size 10 A shoes. During our sojourn through the downtown stores, she was often stopped for autographs and whispers of "Isn't that Wilma Rudolph?"

Knowing she was supposed to be back at the hotel by 12:30, we tried to hurry through the shops, but it was nearly 1 p.m. when we returned, and after a hasty lunch, grabbed a cab. I showed her what was left of Center Street. She made no comment.

Successful Drake Meet;
Twenty-two Records Fall

22 new records were put on the books of the 1968 Drake Relays meet April 26-27, marred only by the fatal La Mar Track Team's plane crash Sunday.

Friday in university-college finals of the 440 hurdles, Jesse Ball of Prairie View was number one in 51.7 seconds; 440 yard dash finals, Charlie Benson of Southern Illinois in 46.7 seconds; college relays finals, 880, Southern, made up of Bill Miller, Webster Johnson, Anthony Gates and Oliver Ford in 1:23.9.

University relays finals Friday, 880, Ohio, made up of Ben Smith, Dick Fulmer, Roger Hosler and Emmett Taylor, 1:23.7, breaking the old 1:23.8 record set by Texas in 1959; 4 mile, won by Drake in 16:39.7.

High School

High school finals Friday saw Des Moines' Larry Miller win the 100 yard dash in :09.9. North was victor in the sprint medley, made up of Robert Webb-Bey, Chuck Clark, Ken Gordon and Dan Bohenhouse in 3:32.4. Tech was second (Tom Knox, Naomis Ward, Marvin Allen, Richard Scott) in 3:32.4.

In elementary finals Nash School set a new relay record. The old 240 yard shuttle time was 31.4 set by Nash four years ago. The team, made up of Richard Lloyd, John Miller, William Searcy and Clarence Bameron ran in :31.1.

Kansas

Saturday Clyde Glosson of Trinity was victorious in the 100 college special events finals, winning in :09.5. In the preliminaries Friday he was timed in :09.3. Jim Bagby of Prairie View was number one in shot put, heaving a 58-3. In University relays finals, Kansas with Jim

Autographs

We managed to find our seats at the stadium, then she was ushered down on the field to again be honored, and after a chat with athletes, sent Ted Wheeler, former athlete and world record holder to fetch me. We crossed the field, she still signing autographs and losing pens to awesome fans and photographers, and made our way to Mr. Wheeler's company. Later Miss Rudolph went down on the field to talk with the Wilma Rudolph Track Club manager, whom, she said, had no authority to name the club after her. Just before the meet's end, she signaled me back onto the field with the intention that we could make it back to her hotel room for a bite to eat, but she was immediately surrounded by autograph seekers. We were just about the last ones to leave the stadium, in the company of Hildie, Joyce and Beverly Wheeler, sisters to Ted, who live in a suburb outside of Chicago. Driving back in their grey Mustang convertible, Wilma was constantly being pointed out. Somehow we made it back downtown.

We sat about in her hotel room, complimenting her Afro hair style, discussing the ways of the world, including Dick Gregory, Jesse Jackson and black feminine sex symbols as Miss Rudolph makes reservations for her trip back to Detroit, although we urge her to stay to catch some of the parties.

At 8 p.m. we are at the Airport still hoping for that "bit to eat", but her plane leaves at 8:10 p.m. returning her first to St. Louis, then Detroit.

Miss Rudolph was honored Friday night at Drake. She is the first woman to be named to the Drake Hall of Fame. A Detroit junior high school teacher, she also is coach of a 12-13 years of age and nine and under girls track team.

Corpus Christi, Tex. — Seaman Apprentice William E. Godwin, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett F. Godwin of 2552 Des Moines st., has reported for duty with Training Squadron Thirty-One at the Naval

The team this year is best noted for the one mile relay, made up of Webster Johnson, Anthony Gates, Robert Johnson and Oliver Ford Saturday in 3:06.8. In the one mile preliminaries the team was clocked at 3:11.2. Winning the college 880 were Bill Miller, Johnson, Gates and Ford, Miller, a sophomore, is ranked as one of the top sprinters in the country, according to Clyde Franklin, team member. He said when Miller was a freshman, he ran the 100 yard dash in 9.03, but runs a 9:04 this year. Franklin, who was unable to compete in the finals because he was a freshman, said his best run was the open quarter, which he does in 46.9.

Air Station, Corpus Christi, Tex. The squadron trains student aviators in multi-engine type aircraft using the carrier based TS-2A "Tracker." During his duty here, he will receive on the job training in his particular field in preparation for advancement opportunities.

A Tribute To Dr. King

Dr. King was a man sent from God. There is no doubt about it; He preached the Gospel of Jesus Christ

As it is recorded in Holy Writ. Dr. King was like Moses Who was a great leader of men; He chose to suffer affliction with his people

Rather than enjoy the pleasures of sin.

Dr. King sacrificed his life That his people might be set free; Few have preached as eloquently as

Dr. King— Fewer have lived as eloquently as he.

Dr. King left his work unfinished The evening that he was slain; His work of non-violence must be continued, Otherwise, he will have died in vain.
