Sen. Robert Kennedy Dies; Victim of Assassin

Shot in L.A. Hotel By 'Swarthy' Man

Los Angeles, Calif. — Democratic Presidential candidate Robert F. Kennedy was critically wounded early Wednesday morning by a would-be assassin's bullet lodged in his brain. The Senator died Thursday morning at 1:30.

The Senator had just finished a campaign speech declaring his victory in California when a barrage of bullets by an as yet unidentified man rained upon Kennedy. Several bystanders were also wounded.

The assailant was wrestled to the ground according to first reports by football great Roosevelt Greer and the gun was taken from him. The man is described by the Los Angeles police department as being about 5 feet, six inches tall, with bushy hair, weighing about 140 pounds, and with a swarthy complexion. He was also described as being Caucasian or Latin.

After the shooting occurred at the Ambassador Hotel, Kennedy was first reported as still being conscious as he was taken to the hospital, and throughout the night underwent four hours of surgery as at least six surgeons pored over him to extract the bullet which reportedly entered the right mastoid bone and lodged in his brain.

Charles Evers, Negro unsuccessful contender for office and now working for Kennedy was only a few feet away when the mishap occurred. He told newsmen that "Any man who is going to speak out is going to be killed, black or white."

Miller

The first doctor to take care of Kennedy was Dr. Ross Miller, a Negro, who said Kennedy had sustained severe head injuries, but was maintaining a good heart beat. One veteran reporter said when the suspect was arrested, he was led from the hotel, surrounded by at least 15 policemen when the crowd, realizing what had happened, lunged toward the man.

A few of Kennedy's close friends were allowed in Good Samaritan Hospital, including singer Andy Williams, who upon leaving the institution told newsmen that "Kennedy would play touch football again."

Campaign

Kennedy was in California campaigning for California's primary. According to network television projection polls, he would receive 44 per cent of the vote.

Los Angeles—The loud but contented growl that sprang deep from the throat of Cheetah last weekend could be heard from coast to coast as Stax/Volt recording artist Albert King made his first appearance at the with-it Los Angeles nightspot.

New York—The riots that have taken place in the black ghettos of this country are a drop in the bucket of violence that will spill over if white America continues to regard them exclusively as senseless, lawless acts. That is the view expressed in "The White Problem in America," an article in the June-July issue of Natural History, a magazine published by The American Museum of Natural History.

Jackson, Miss. — Aaron Henry, president of the Mississippi State Conference of NAACP Branches, and Charles Evers, the Association's field director in this state, were among several Negroes elected delegates to Democratic county conventions scheduled for May 21. Chosen at the precinct conventions on May 14, they were started on the way to possible elections as delegates to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago next August. However, they survived contests at the county, congressional district and state levels in order to achieve delegate status at the national convention.

Try to Calm Louisville After Riot

Louisville, Ky.—The local branch of the NAACP continued efforts this week to restore calm in riot-torn Louisville.

In appeals for an end to the violence, Rev. W. J. Hodge and other NAACP and community leaders have toured the area where rioting erupted on May 27 following re-instatement of a white policeman who had been dismissed on charges of using excessive force in arrest of a Negro suspect. They have also issued appeals over television and radio.

Arrested

As of May 31 two Negro youths, aged 14 and 19, had been killed, one by a police officer and the other by a store owner, on charges of looting. Meanwhile, some 2,000 National Guard troops have been patrolling the area. Negro marshals have also helped clear crowds in the area.

Mayor Kenneth A. Schmied has thus far declined an NAACP invitation to tour the riot area and to meet with the people in the street in the manner of Mayor John Lindsay of New York City.

Joyce Brown Is Fatally Injured Memorial Day; Frankie Barber Is Held

A seventeen-year-old Des Moines Technical High School Senior who was to have graduated Monday was fatally wounded late Thursday night by a .25 caliber shot in the right temple.

Services were held Monday at Maple Street Baptist Church for Tywayah Joyce Brown, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Theodore Brown, 1333 18th street. Rev. Brown is pastor of Our Saviour's Baptist Church in Des Moines. Held in the shooting is "Frankie" George Barber, a 1966 graduate of Des Moines Roosevelt High School.

Stewart Gaskin, a student at Kurtz Junior High School, told the Bystander what happened: he, Janice Collier, Denise King and Penny Spriggs had been sitting in an auto about one car away from the car in which Miss Brown was sitting with two other girls. This car was owned by Miss Belinda Butler. Barber and another man drove past in a red, 1962 Chevrolet, came up to the Butler car, then to the party. After a while he and the man returned and walked over to the Butler car. Gaskin said Barber had his head and arms in the car when he heard the shot. "Oh, I've shot Joyce, I've shot Joyce, it was just by accident," Barber was reported to have said. Then Miss Brown was carried from the Butler car to Barber's car and taken to the hospital.

Miss Butler said Barber had been talking with Miss Brown at the time of the mishap. She said the girl was unconscious when carried from the car.

Cook-out

The shooting occurred at the home of Mrs. Doris Anderson, 2 E. Creston, who told the Bystander Monday that the teenagers had held a cook-out as a celebration for graduation, sponsored by a group of girls who, after graduation, felt they might not see each other again.

Not There

She stated that just before the shooting she had left her home to go to a group of cars down the street to quiet them down when she heard the shot, about a block away. "I was completely in shock," Mrs. Anderson said when she was told of the shooting. "It was a while before I realized that the parents had to be contacted." She emphasized that Barber was not a member of the party, and she had been told that he had not been at the party. "Most of the time the kids do a good job of screening people who come in."

Miss Brown

Survivors

In charge of the services Monday was the Rev. H. R. Fields. Miss Brown, born in Des Moines August 7, 1950, a graduate of Des Moines Technical High School, was a member of Our Saviour's Baptist Church and was engaged in many activities there as well as at Tech. She had just been employed at Arnold's Clothing as a salesgirl. Survivors include her parents, three brothers, Theodore, Jr., Isiah, and Peter; one sister, Veronica, and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bryson. In charge was Estes and Son Funeral Home.

Iowa State Association Meeting in Cedar Rapids

Cedar Rapids — The Iowa State Association of Colored Women's Clubs will hold their 66th annual convention here Friday and Saturday, June 7 and 8 with the national president, Mrs. Mamie B. Reese of Albany, Ga. scheduled to speak.

The convention will be held at the Roosevelt Hotel, First Avenue S.E. Appearing also at the annual convention will be the National Parliamentarian, Mrs. Ruby Edwards of Bloomington, Ill., and Mrs. A. June Franklin, Iowa state legislator who last week announced her candidacy for re-election.

Officers

Delegates are expected to attend from throughout the state. Mrs. Reese attended school at Drake University and graduated from Iowa University. She is now teaching in Albany, Ga.

State president is Mrs. Emma Turner of Cedar Rapids; vice pres., Mrs. Jeanne Morris of Des Moines; secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Shepherd of Cedar Rapids; treasurer, Mrs. Pauline Humphrey of Des Moines; administrative chairman, Mrs. Goletha Trotter of Des Moines; and state girls' advisor, Mrs. Gertrude North of Des Moines.

Need More Children For Friendly Town

Since Friendly Town, Inc., sent out a call for host families this spring to care for children in their home for two weeks, the staff did not expect the results.

This week Mrs. Carol Rick of Friendly Town told the Bystander that at least 600 families from all over Iowa have applied for a child. "This is astounding," she said, and now the problem is to try to find more children for the eager families who have opened their door.

Children from ages 6-13 who wish to stay with a family two weeks this summer should apply to any opportunity center where application forms will be available. Or they may call the YMCA, 288-0131, extension 52 for help.

Weekly Visits to Senior Citizen Homes

Senior citizens for the past three months have been delighted with two visitors who come to their home.

MRS. WADE

Mrs. Clara Wade, a licensed practical nurse at Mercy Hospital, and Mrs. Jean Smith, a registered nurse have been checking with opportunity centers throughout Des Moines to find senior citizens, then each Wednesday, chat with them. So far they have met with approximately twenty.

Of particular interest is an elderly blind man whom they have seen four times. A retired chef, Mrs. Wade said he enjoyed fresh food, and once brought him a bunch of broccoli, since he seldom got a chance to buy such foliage because of his limited income.

These visits do much for the elderly and for the two hospital officials, for "they can't get out to see other people," Mrs. Wade said. "We don't take anything on our first visit because we don't know their diet," but on later stops may bring a favorite food.

Later Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Smith will meet with young and expectant mothers around the city. Mrs. Wade is treasurer of the local unit of the Licensed Practical Nurses Association, and president of Union Baptist Church's Usher Board.

More Scholarships for Negro Med Students

Dr. John C. Troxel, President of National Medical Fellowships, Inc., and Senior Vice-President, Blue Cross-Blue Shield, announced today that the largest number of scholarships and grants-in-aid have been awarded for 1968-69 since the organization began offering assistance to Negroes in medicine. A total of $190,000 was awarded to 134 Negro students for study in 55 U.S. medical schools. The awards were made to 117 men and 17 women, ranging from $900 to $2,000 a year.

Outstanding Students

Ten outstanding Negro college students have been awarded four-year medical scholarships with awards averaging $8,000 each. These top students are the recipients of the coveted National Medical-Sloan Foundation Scholarships, the highest awards made by National Medical Fellowships, Inc. to entering medical students. Winners for 1968-69 will study at the medical schools of Harvard University, University of Michigan, Yale University, The Johns Hopkins University, Columbia University, University of Florida, University of California at San Francisco, Einstein Medical College, Tulane University, and Emory University.

Sloan Scholarships

The 30 National Medical-Sloan Scholarship recipients already in course under this program are attending the following medical schools: University of California at San Francisco (2), University of Chicago, Columbia University (4), Duke University, Emory University, George Washington University, Harvard University, The Johns Hopkins University, University of Kansas, Loma Linda University, Louisiana State University (2), University of Minnesota, New Jersey College of Medicine, University of North Carolina (2), Northwestern University, Ohio State University, University of Pennsylvania (3), University of Pittsburgh, Stanford University, Vanderbilt University, Medical College of Virginia, and Yale University.

Through the National Medical-Sloan program which is administered by National Medical Fellowships and financed by grants which have exceeded $600,000 from the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, 98 students have entered medical schools since 1960.

Dr. John C. Troxel also stated that through a 3-year grant from The Woods Charitable Fund, Inc. of Chicago, seven young women will study medicine at the medical schools of Louisiana State University, Case Western Reserve University, State University of New York, Howard University (2), University of Rochester, and Albany Medical College. In announcing the grant, Dr. Troxel said: "I am very pleased that increased attention is being given to opportunities for Negro women in medicine. Well over 50% of Negro college students are women, but less than 10% of the Negro medical students are women. It is estimated that at present less than 800 Negro students are enrolled in all four classes of U.S. medical schools. The country would benefit greatly by fully exploring the potential of Negro women for medicine."

Other foundations providing support for National Medical Fellowships, Inc. are: Charles A. Frueauff Foundation, Nathan Hofheimer Foundation, New York Foundation, Gustavus and Louise Pfeiffer Research Foundation, Robert R. McCormick Foundation, Shell Companies Foundation, and the Reader's Digest Foundation.

Non-Profit

National Medical Fellowships, Inc. of 3935 Elm Street, Downers Grove, Illinois, is a non-profit organization which provides assistance to Negroes for education and training in medicine. Since its organization in 1946, it has awarded $1,900,000 to assist 544 Negroes with their medical education and careers.

HEALTH FOR ALL

An intelligence report has just been issued on the status of an old health enemy. He's hurting, and his long-range prospects aren't rosy. But he's far from ready to throw in the towel.

The venerable foe is TB. The report, by the National Tuberculosis Association, confirms previous estimates of another step accomplished in the long slow march to victory over this stubborn disease. Fifteen years ago it was chalking up over 80,000 new cases yearly. The figure for 1965 was just over 49,000. Behind these mechanical-looking figures a bitter war of attrition has raged for a long time.

Disease

TB can't be rooted out overnight like other contagious diseases. It's like a time bomb. In settles in the body and often sits for months or years without doing anything, but it can break out into active disease at any time. Of 25,000,000 Americans who have the infection right now, most will never be sick with the disease. But some 47,000, more or less, will be TB cases next year.

develop pride in—and awareness of—their past which, throughout their American experience, has been expressed artistically in an undying yearning for freedom and which in the case of black people and Indians links them to roots that predate contact with western civilization.

That is why there is a folk culture tent at Resurrection City and why a special culture department is being organized by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference: To encourage all minority groups to keep alive the music, poetry and drama of their entire experience.

Mr. Kirkpatrick is from Louisiana. As a teacher, he tried to introduce cultural programming into the public school curriculum in Jonesboro. The effort cost him his job, and he became a full-time worker for SCLC. His assistant is Jimmy Collier, an Arkansan who now works for SCLC in New York.

Whether O. C. Smith is singing "The Son of Hickory Holler's Tramp" or "Honey (I Miss You)" or "That's Life," he has that special way of turning a musical phrase into something new—into something that makes audiences respond as if they were hearing the song for the first time. "The Son of Hickory Holler's Tramp," O. C.'s current Columbia single, is steadily moving to the top of national best-seller charts.

His second album is aptly entitled "Hickory Holler Revisited." Try it. Beautiful, beautiful people in Washington, D.C., and I am truly sorry that I was unable to spend more time in that city. I am tremendously grateful, however, to the many persons who sponsored my trip there.

Cameras Respond to Good Treatment

TODAY'S column is one of advice—to new camera owners. But one we feel will also be of value to owners of not-so-new cameras.

When you took that new camera out of the box, there was an instruction book with it, we're sure. It tells you in detail how to operate your camera—and under varying circumstances. It's designed to help you get the best possible pictures. But, of course, it can't do a thing for you if you don't read it carefully. Do that before you take your first pictures. Knowing how your camera operates—and what its limitations are—is a good way to avoid disappointment.

Since all new cameras are carefully inspected before packing, yours should work fine. However, if it is the exception to the rule and shows any inclination to stick, don't force it. Take it to your photo dealer, find out what is wrong and the proper remedy from someone who understands the mechanism involved.

These days cameras travel far and wide. Inevitably, they are going to suffer a certain number of bumps and shocks. On the whole they are rugged, and will take an amazing amount of punishment. However, it seems foolish to risk damaging a camera when a field case will protect it and are so low in price.

When traveling by car, you face the unfortunate problem of the most convenient places for carrying camera being the very places that aren't good for it—the glove compartment and the back window ledge. In both spots you find heat and dust, the worst enemies of cameras and film. You don't want to pack it away in a suitcase. So, the best idea is to put the camera in a field case and keep it on the seat beside you—ready for picture taking at all times.

for Governor

Don Johnson made his commitment years ago. He was appointed Chairman of the first committee organized in Iowa to meet the Civil Rights problem head-on. Many people believe the ground-work laid by this committee, under Mr. Johnson's direction, created the climate for the State Human Relations Committee.

Mr. Johnson's work was recognized nationally when President Eisenhower appointed him to the President's Commission on Civil Rights Advisory.

There are many areas of life in Iowa that need new direction. Don Johnson is familiar with all of them: taxes, education, highways, industrial growth, agricultural development, civil rights, and economy in government. He has positive programs that will benefit the whole State. Don Johnson has made his commitment. Make yours. Vote for Donald E. Johnson.

Baha'i Prayer For Unity Of All Races

"O Thou kind Lord! Thou has created all humanity from the same original parents. Thou has intended that all belong to the same household. In Thy Holy Presence they are Thy servants and all mankind are sheltered beneath Thy Tabernacle. All have gathered at Thy table of bounty and are radiant through the light of Thy providence. O God! Thou dost confer life upon all. Thou has endowed all with talents and faculties; all are submerged in the ocean of Thy mercy. O Thou kind Lord! unite all, let the religions agree, make the nations one so that they may be as one kind and as children of the same fatherland. May they associate in unity and concord. O God! upraise the standard of the oneness of humankind. O God! establish the Most Great Peace. Cement the hearts together, the fragrance of Thy love, brighten the eyes through the light of Thy guidance; cheer the hearing with the melodies of Thy Word and shelter us in the cave of Thy providence. Thou art the Mighty and powerful! Thou art the One Who overlooks the shortcomings of humankind."

Moves Against Job Bias in Natchez

Washington—Herbert Hill, labor director of the NAACP, on May 22, filed complaints against two Mississippi employers and four unions for discriminating against six Natchez workers.

In presenting the charges to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Mr. Hill sought Federal protection for the unidentified complaints because of an "atmosphere of intimidation and violence" in Natchez.

Samuel Jackson, Commissioner who received the complaints, said that the threat of violence seemed "very serious." He added that he would immediately refer the matter to the Department of Justice.

Named in the complaints were the International Paper Company, the Johns-Manville Corporation, and locals of the United Papermakers and Paperworkers Union, the International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the International Woodworkers of America.

Apprenticeship For Minority Realistic

Houston, Texas—Under Secretary of Labor James J. Reynolds has revealed apprenticeship in realistic numbers for Negroes and other minorities will be an accepted fact within three years.

He said that the growing number of apprenticeship outreach programs being conducted or supported by building and construction trades councils in 34 cities is the basis for his optimism.

Speaking at a recent construction trades completion banquet in Houston, the Under Secretary emphasized that the Bal Harbour agreement between the Secretary of Labor and the Building and Construction Trades Department of the AFL-CIO "was no idle exchange."

MacKay Cites Tasks As Baltimore, Md. Bureau Head

Baltimore, Md.—Clifford W. McKay, formerly associated with the Iowa Bystander and long-time editor of the Afro American at Baltimore, Md., in his new assignment with the Department of Public Works, Bureau of Consumer Services will handle administration, with a total of 233 persons in the bureau's payroll. One division—Customer Accounts—is responsible for the quarterly billing for water services in Baltimore and five surrounding counties which service some 500,000 outlets. Another division—Applications and Permits—issues all licenses and permits, including everything from the licensing of juke boxes and retail milk sales to building construction and the right to haul explosives through city streets.

Challenge

MacKay said thus far he has found the work extremely challenging, for not only did it offer him an opportunity to open new job areas to unemployed persons in the ghetto, but is a means of improving the extension of city services to long-neglected citizens.

Hull House Founder Into Hall of Fame

New York—James Addams, a pioneer social welfare worker and a founder of the NAACP, was memorialized last week at the Hall of Fame for Great Americans on the Bronx campus of New York University.

Miss Addams was one of the National Committee of Forty which convened in 1909 to "help right the wrongs of the Negro." It was out of this meeting of "fair-minded whites and intelligent blacks" that the NAACP was born.

She was the founder of Hull House in Chicago one of the earliest and the most famous of pioneering settlement houses, which opened in 1889. By the time of her death in 1935, she and Hull House had gained world renown.

Evers to Join Sen. Robert Kennedy Staff

New York—NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins this week (May 24) granted Charles Evers, Mississippi Field Director, a leave of absence without pay to join Senator Robert F. Kennedy's campaign staff, but advised him against identifying the NAACP with the Democratic Presidential candidate.

HON. DEGREE TO ROY

Boston—Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive director, was awarded the honorary degree of doctor of humane letters last week (May 19) during commencement exercises at Boston University.

Mrs. Tinker Speaks Out On Race Issue

To the Editor:

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s death has impelled me to write to you and the readers of The Iowa Bystander about why I resigned last year from the NAACP, after a membership that had been first taken out in Kingsville, Tex., in 1944, and which had included service on the Des Moines Branch's Board and various committees as well as the honor of working for several years on the State Board.

Because my own involvement and that of my husband and most of my six children has been well known over the eleven years since we have lived in Des Moines, and before that in various smaller communities in Iowa, I have felt that readers of the Bystander would not read me out as another "white liberal dogooder with a Johnny-come-lately conscience". It has been many years since I "wore the mask" in relating to people regardless of race. This has offended acquaintances and friends of various races. Our children have grown up able to accept people as individual human beings, not as members of any race or ethnic group, because they have never known discrimination in our home because of race or ethnic reasons.

Races

And what Dr. King died for, the poor Negroes in the Freedom Movement have been suffering for over the years. True, other Negroes have suffered unknown for hundreds of years. But in the Freedom Movement, the opportunity to live—and to die—for Freedom was offered in a way never before possible. That some parts of the Freedom Movement turned violent should be no surprise. As J. Rap Brown says, "Violence is as American as cherry pie"—and as "patriotic" as well. American children of all races are taught that American heroes are those men who have been violent—who have killed. You and I too could list all the non-violent heroes in our history books on our fingers and toes with some pinkies left over!

When I worked hard in the NAA-

CP, it was not just for Negroes—especially not just so upper status Negroes could continue to climb the ladder of affluence while refusing to reach down and help pull up the less fortunate. When you accuse Stokely Carmichael as your scapegoat, remember he once said that for every death shed by a poor Negro in the Freedom Movement, many advantagged Negroes moved further up the ladder.

But when did we use violence? Each of us might ask and stay smug in anticipation of the answer. Even as we failed to give justice, a cup of running pure water, sewers, paved streets, good education—but most of all, failed to give friendship to the disadvantaged in our midst because we were afraid this would lose us friends, jobs, status—Even as we turned our "good" into social clubs for the affluent in the oppressed—Even as we stayed safe within comfortable homes when we could have joined those who

THE WORLD ONLY COSTS a DIME a DAY

The entire world—war, peace, business, politics, pleasure, life and death—unfolds before you every day for just one thin dime. That dime buys a daily newspaper, the biggest bargain you can find. In an election year the importance of the daily newspaper grows. Right now we are in the midst of one of the most heated pre-convention political campaigns in history. Following the conventions in August will be even more intense campaigning leading to the general election in November. To keep up with all the news read a complete daily newspaper. In Iowa that newspaper is The Des Moines Register. It's only a dime a day, less when you subscribe by the week.

marched for Freedom. By condoning the violence of our power structure, we have used it, and done violence against both the Prince of Peace in the first century, and his follower, Martin Luther King in this century. God help us all.

Follow the suggestions of June Franklin given in her excellent speech at the Apr. 7 memorial march; demand of leaders of all "Rights" organizations that concern be broadened to all human beings. This would mean that our aggression on the Vietnamese as well as the poor in Des Moines would be opposed. This would mean that we would demand of our political representatives that they work for an end to the war in Viet Nam as well as the war in American cities. Support citizens who do work for peace, refuse to join in the slander of them by those who are afraid they will lose their own "pile" if a change occurs; use precious time of clubs and churches and other groups to relate to people across class, race, ethnic lines—not as "do-gooders" but as humble human beings seeking to learn as well as teach. This would include inviting in some of the Black Power youth, or going to them to learn from them, instead of energy wasted denouncing them to your white friends; support right away Dr. King's plan for a "poor people's demonstration" in Washington. If you're not poor, then send some of that green stuff with the Des Moines poor who do plan to go; support the Southside Project with money, positive words, and offers to visit and help. Jim Dunn and his young helpers believe in using non-violence. Refuse to accept slander by whites or Negroes about the Project without finding out for yourself what is happening down there. Call Cecil Reed (279-9844) and offer support for his many excellent suggestions; support Mayor Urban in his hope to change leadership and attitude of the Des Moines Police Department. He needs to know he has your support—the opposition are wasting no time telling him their opinions.

Martin Luther King, Jr. used non-violent demonstrations, and himself learned to love his enemies. Can we afford to do less?

DES MOINES SAVINGS

Congratulates the Iowa Bystander

On Its 74th Anniversary

The Bystander has been serving the Negro population of Iowa a few years longer than we have at Des Moines Savings and Loan.

We're proud, however, that we have had many of you as our customers for a number of years. Perhaps a few of you have been with us since our beginning in a small office in 1916.

Another thing. We're very pleased to have such fine Negro staff members at Des Moines Savings. Bob Parks and Kay Russell are a credit to all of you.

And so are the people who make up the Bystander staff. To them—again our congratulations upon 73 years of service to our Negro population of Iowa.

OVEN FRIED CHICKEN
A LA CREOLE
Buttered Spinach
Mexican Corn
Hot Biscuits

Fruit Compote Cookies

INGREDIENTS:

1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/3 cup all-purpose flour
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon paprika
1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1/4 teaspoon black pepper
1 ready-to-cook young chicken,
2 1/2 to 3 1/2 pounds, cut up.
1 cup uncooked white rice
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon black pepper
3 cups hot chicken broth made by cooking backs and neck
in water
2 large tomatoes, cut into wedges

METHOD: Light the oven and set at 400°F. Place the butter or margarine in a large all metal skillet, baking pan or baking-serving dish about 12"x9"x2". Place this in the oven until the butter or margarine melts. While the butter or margarine is melting, wash the chicken in cold water. Pat dry. Put the flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, paprika, poultry seasoning and 1/4 teaspoon black pepper in a paper bag. Add one piece of chicken at a time. Shake bag to thoroughly coat each piece of chicken with the flour mixture. Place the chicken in the hot melted butter or margarine, skin side down. Bake, uncovered, 25 minutes at 400°F.

Arrange rice, green pepper and onion under the chicken, turning the chicken so the skin side is up. Sprinkle the rice with the 1 1/2 teaspoons salt and 1/4 teaspoon black pepper. Slowly pour the hot chicken broth over the rice. Make certain all the rice is under the broth. Arrange the tomato wedges over the chicken and rice.

Return to the 400°F. oven and bake, uncovered, 45 minutes or until the rice is tender. If the mixture becomes too dry, add a small amount of chicken broth or water.

If desired, serve from the dish in which the chicken-rice bakes. This recipe makes 6 servings.

Gospel Program At Julia B. Meyer

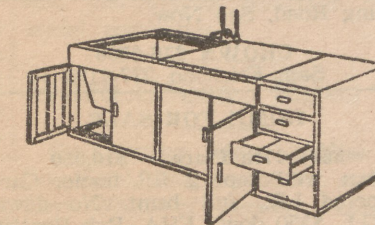

On Sunday, June 9, 3 p.m. Morning Star Baptist Church will present the Glory-Aires of Chicago, Ill. The program will be held at Julia B. Meyer Center, 801 Forest. Pastor is the Rev. Alex Crawford.

Enclose Laundry Tubs

STORAGE is a "must" in the laundry, but oftentimes it is makeshift and unsatisfactory. Wise homemakers can readily make a combination linen chest and laundry supply cabinet which will serve also to hide unsightly stationary tubs.

As shown in the illustration, the handyman can enclose the tubs, construct a chest of drawers next to them, and create a handy clothes sorting table on top. To do the best job from the standpoint of cost, appearance and long life, he should build a framework of 2 by 2-inch lumber and cover it with smooth Masonite Tempered Presdwood, one-quarter inch thick.

Drawer construction can be simple. Just form the framework of lumber and attach a bottom of Presdwood. Wooden slides attached to the cabinet and sides of the drawers complete that part of the project.

The lumber framework for the enclosures should be no farther than 16" apart. Swinging doors to enclose the tubs may be made, too, as illustrated, or sliding doors of Tempered Presdwood unframed, may be made. They will slide in grooves cut into the cabinet floor and upper framework.

Prime and paint the installation for the best appearance.

LOGAN OPPORTUNITY CENTER'S OPEN HOUSE was well-attended and its setting attractively decorated for the occasion. Program speaker, Atty. Willie S. Glanton, gave a most moving message. As though having thoughtfully tailored her talk to deal solely with Logan's birth, its growth, its people and its friends, she dealt her views one by one—with the timing of an ace card player. She stated the need for each individual's total commitment and involvement to the betterment of Logan's Center—man hours given the great emphasis! Citing the necessity of the white community to extend itself over and beyond the call of duty—even in the face of the blacks' rejection; in face of the years of long suffering. She felt the white community must now mature in terms of the suffering they may expect by virtue of the black community's rejection—just as the blacks have had to mature over the years.

Black people were called upon to recognize the need for the white community's help as well as that of the black community. She pointed out the necessity for working together and rendering service to each of the organized Negro groups: The Black Federation, The Concerned Negro Citizens and the Northern Brotherhood Leadership Conference. Each has separate and distinct roles to play in achieving equality and unity.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Should every woman be a blonde?

Blonde hair is beautiful for those women whose natural coloring it flatters. But not everyone should be a blonde.

Expert beauticians know that complexion and hair color must complement each other to glamorize and bring out all the natural beauty that was meant to be. They also know that very coarse and dark hair often is resistant to drastic color changes. However, there's no doubt about slightly lighter hair adding excitement to a woman's appearance. And hairdressers know there is no better product to add a whole new appeal to every woman's look than Miss Clairol® haircoloring—extra rich Creme Formula or new extra easy Shampoo Formula.

Both Miss Clairol products lighten and color at once, combining vibrant new color with the natural pigment of the hair. So even those shades that look blonde on white hair (as shown on most color selection charts) give a variety of flattering red-to-golden brown shades on women whose hair was black to begin with.

Beauty salons are equipped to answer questions and help with hair color selection. Depend on your hairdresser to have the professional skills and the total family of fine Clairol products to make every woman's experience with haircoloring completely personal and glamorous. Should you be a blonde? If you don't really know, ask your expert hairdresser.

AS THE BYSTANDER
OBSERVES ITS 74th
ANNIVERSARY

One of the demands that Negro students at various universities are making is that more attention be given the history of the Negro. This would include courses in Negro history, or departments of Negro history and or the inclusion of more Negro teachers in the schools.

This, to be sure, is a reasonable demand because the school text books either say very little about the Negro or do such a miserable job that a student gets nothing or gets it wrong as he reads it.

The Negro press, more and more, is giving attention to the subject both by articles and cartoons depicting that history. And they are being read more and more by both races.

This can best be illustrated by the subscription list of the Bystander today, which includes most large corporations, federal, state and city agencies, social and religious organizations and individuals working in these and other fields.

It is for this and other reasons that the Negro press is important. And while the white news media is more liberal today in its coverage of the Negro and what he does, this information read in the Negro press does take on a different significance.

Many newspapers, both large and small, are having their problems today. The cost of production has doubled in many instances and the competition brought on by television and radio further complicates the problem.

This week the Bystander is celebrating its 74th Anniversary. It has been a long struggle to meet the competition which becomes stronger as the large media continues to gain monopolies; as agencies continue to belittle the advertising value of weekly newspapers. But advertisers have found that they do have a value and have become more liberal in the use of these papers.

It has been almost a miracle how the Bystander has survived these roadblocks. But as the list of advertisers is checked, the reader will find substantial support in the community of this and other special issues. Many use the paper month after month.

We can do a better job with more support from the advertising source—a much better from the Negro community.

In the long years of operation, the Bystander has opened its columns to the public freely; it has championed law and order, responsibility of individuals, complete enjoyment of civil rights and the opportunity of every man to get a job, maintain a home, educate his children, exercise his rights as to the political party, the person and the church of his choice.

We have seen a lot of favorable changes during these years. And in spite of the riots, looting and pillaging by some, a lot of people—and particularly youngsters—are pushing ahead making a way for themselves and the gratitude of the community in which they live.

SCHOOLS TURN OUT
NEW MATERIAL

Schools are closing this month, graduating thousands who will pursue their education further, thousands who will enter their chosen fields of endeavor, thousands who will just quit and try no more.

All of these three classes are important in that further training is needed, the ranks of those who work must be refilled and those who just quit must be given attention or they become drags on society.

Fortunately, new and different methods are being found today presenting opportunities unheard of in years gone by. Check the employment columns in your newspaper and there are jobs offered in every field with more and more saying "an equal opportunity employer".

Then, too, non-discriminatory clauses in government contracts—and most big companies have them—are being made meaningful because officials are following up their promises made when the contracts were negotiated and insisting that this provision be complied with or else.

More boys and girls are getting an education today than ever before. The opportunities are there. It only remains for the student to use the opportunity. And without an education the chances of reaching higher is less as the years go by.

CONGRESS MEMBERS NOT

Senator John Williams of Delaware and Rep. H. R. Gross of Iowa, speaking at a news conference in Waterloo, said that poor people's march should not have been allowed to camp on the mall in Washington. Boy Scouts nor any other group is permitted to do so.

If this be the case then Gross is right. But why tell us in Iowa instead of bringing it up in Washington when and where it happened?

Both said no special legislation would be passed as a result of the march. However, the housing bill has become a law and during their presence. Yet, when the bill was introduced most members of Congress thought it did not have a chance.

Thus the senator and representative are batting 50%.

SPORTS

With Allen Ashby

The athletes who were threatening to boycott the Olympics are running in all sort of meets, and would lead one to believe that they may not carry out the threat after all. Even Bob Beamon, who got himself kicked off his school track team competed in a meet and won the broad jump. Some of the other winners hadn't been talking too much about boycotts. We never did learn where Charley Green stood on the thing. We recall that Hines had said he would have competed in New York last winter, but for threats. Charley Boston hasn't ever taken a firm stand in favor of a boycott, and neither had a lot of others. So maybe there will be a sizeable contingent of black athletes at the Olympics after all. They don't have long to get on or off. The tryouts are just around the corner, and it looks as if they will all be there.

Iowa Athletes

We didn't want to be meddling into something that is none of our business, but we thought the black athletes at Iowa U. were just a little bit hasty in declaring Register reporter Ron Maley personal for using the word Negro last week. Now, don't get us wrong, we are very much in sympathy with the athletes at Iowa, because we believe we understand most of their problems, but this is our thought, for what it is worth. The sudden switch to the use of the term black instead of Negro has caught just about everybody off base. Even some of the writers for black papers will find themselves using the term Negro, since that has always been the accepted term for us. We can recall when to call one of us black was to have a battle on your hands. We remember a white friend of ours from Davenport telling us about his high school days. He played on the same football team with Bill Cribbs. He said he made some remark, really paying tribute to a Negro athlete on the other team. He said that black boy sure was rough. Cribbs, said our friend, grabbed him by the shoulder and pointed to his own shoes and then to his own skin. "That is black. This is brown". The fellow said he didn't know what to say, but he apologized, half expecting a pop on the chin. Now the fellow would just be saying the right thing. We thought the Register writer should have been reminded that the term Negro is passe. Then if he used it again, there would be justifiable grounds for boycotting him. But the fellow it would seem ought to have some sort of trial.

Wrestling

It would seem that people really read this stuff once in a while. A fellow was talking to us the other day, and he wanted to know if we thought our fight to get black wrestlers in the local high schools had anything to do with the two who were the first to make it. Well, we would be the first to say no. Those two boys simply wanted to wrestle and were good enough to go out there and make it. Whatever we did didn't result in anybody that we know of getting on anybody's wrestling team. But we had a whole lot of fun arguing with the various coaches and enjoyed the privilege of working out with just everybody on some squads.

We heard there were a lot of young golfers around. Would like to see some of them get into the different meets around. We keep looking for some names that we might recognize, but so far no soap. Maybe the golfers play that game like our tennis players do. Just as a means of recreation, and that is all. It is hard to get young tennis players to adopt tournament tennis as a way of life, and that is probably the way with the golfers.

Branch President Horace C. Bynum said he was "delighted" that Dr. Dolce agreed to include the Negro schools. All the NAACP ever wants, he added, "is an equal opportunity to participate in every program of learning in our school system."

Executive Secretary Arthur Chapital, however, noted a lack of integration in the junior and senior high schools. "Each of the three schools our students attend," he said "is literally 99 44/100 black!"
