JOANNE JACKSON—ON THE START OF SOMETHING NEW

Miss Jackson

of July 4 as the start of a venture into the larger world of entertainers. Tentative plans call for visiting friends in Chicago, New York City and Zurich, Switzerland. Her first singing engagement has been planned this week. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jackson, 720 North 9th Avenue East, Newton, Ia. She is the mother of a young son, Strawn, who resides with her parents.

Other places where her singing talent has been displayed is the New Orleans Club.

Herb Fame of "Peaches And Herb" Shot June 29

Columbia, S.C. — Herb Fame, of the singing duo "Peaches and Herb" was accidentally shot June 29 in a motel here by his road manager Walter Booth, reports say. The bullet was lodged in his intestinal area.

Although Fame is not pressing charges, Booth, who did not have a license for the pistol used in the shooting, has been held on $5,000 bail.

The accident occurred when Fame knocked on Booth's door at the Downtowner Motor Inn and jokingly said, "Your money or your life." Booth recognized Herb's voice, but going along with the gag, he went to the door with the gun in his hand. As he unlatched the door, the weapon accidentally went off, firing through the door and striking the star in the abdomen.

Policeman and Dog Sets Off Tension in Davenport

Davenport — Tension gathered in this city last weekend after policemen were seen cruising the Negro neighborhoods with police dogs in their cars.

The dog incident and other Negro grievances caused a brief flap last Friday night according to sources which ended in a crowd of Negro youths shouting at passing traffic and smashing the window of a car carrying white persons at the intersection of West Ninth and Ripley Streets.

Polk County Clerk

Gerald K. Allen of 1212-56th Street announced his candidacy on the Republican ticket for Polk County Clerk of Court in the Sept. 3 primary.

Allen, a lifetime resident of Des Moines, is a senior at Drake University Studying Political Science.

Allen is presently Executive Director of the Polk County Republican Central Committee. He graduated from Roosevelt High School in 1964.

liam Cribbs, and as it ended a police cruiser, containing Sgt. Robert Garner and a patrolman arrived which set off an altercation during which a charge was made that the police cruiser had been seen in the neighborhood with a large police dog in the back seat. According to police headquarters the dog had been picked up by a patrol car and was being taken to the city pound, but reporters at the scene observed the car pass the area with a large German Shepherd in the back seat.

Later during the day four cars were reportedly stoned by Negro youths. There were no arrests.

Children Leave For Their Host Families

Nearly 373 children left last weekend for temporary new homes under the direction of Friendly Town, Inc., announced Mrs. Carol Rick to the Bystander Monday. She said the children from Des Moines and Waterloo will go to host families throughout Iowa, some as far away as Boydn, Iowa in the northwest part of the state.

This year's trade of children was double the success it has been in past years, Mrs. Rick said, and close to 120 families are still waiting for children to visit their homes. "This is by far the largest number of families and children."

Although Chicago had participated largely in the trade in the past years it sent less than 100 children this summer.

David Ruffin is Out; Edwards with Tempts

Detroit, Mich. — An unprecedented standing ovation this week greeted The Temptations; Motown's fantastic quintet, at the Valley Forge Music Fair, near Philadelphia, with a new singer in the group for the first time.

David Ruffin, formerly with The Temptations, has withdrawn in order to "do his own thing" which could not possibly be accomplished while a member of what many experts believe to be the finest male vocal group in the world.

The Temptations have added newcomer, Dennis Edwards, to round out the quintet.

Death from Stripping Car in Indianapolis

Indianapolis, Ind. — Two robbers attempting to strip a car were apprehended by police last week. One was killed. When officers arrived, the two men jumped from the car, but police, firing nine shots, struck Jesse James Woods, Jr., 21 in the chest. Police are still searching for Woods' companion.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Comedian Dick Gregory, 35, weakened by a self-imposed fast of almost six weeks, was released from Thurston County jail in Olympia, Wash., as a trusty-at-large for the 15-day balance of his 90-day sentence for illegal net fishing.

Washington, D. C. — President Johnson has nominated Colonel Frederick E. Davison, 51, of Washington, D.C. as Brigadier General of the U.S. Army, it was announced by the White House Wednesday. Colonel Davison becomes the third Negro in history to be named to the rank of General in the armed forces of the United States.

Washington — An organization founded by former professional football player Jim Brown to promote business investments by Negroes was awarded a $251,400 federal grant.

Cleveland, Ohio — James Farmer, founder and former National Director of the Congress of Racial Equality, and currently a candidate for Congress, will deliver the keynote address that will climax a 2-day conference and workshop sponsored by the Cleveland Committee of Concern in Hotel Cleveland Sheraton, Friday evening and Saturday, July 19 and 20.

New York — The Rev. Milton A. Galimison, 45, who has been arrested nine times in demonstrations against New York City school policies, was appointed to the Board of Education by Mayor John Lindsay. Rev. Galimison, a minister, is the third Negro on the board.

NEA Members Faced With Racial Incident

Dallas, Tex. — The 106th annual convention of the National Education Association critically examined American society, termed it "in deep trouble," and prescribed better education as perhaps the only cure.

The 7,103 delegates and their leaders grappled with educational and social problems related to the ghetto, poverty, educational deprivation, growing racial separation, crime and riots, drug abuse, campus disturbances, and other evidences of current social unrest or malady.

An unscheduled incident — a painful confrontation with the racial issue — became the convention's most discussed and widely publicized event. It quickly grew into an international incident and gave NEA occasion to put the convention theme, "Commitment to Action," to an immediate practical test.

Refusal of service to the First Secretary of the Embassy of the Kingdom of Lesotho by a small Dallas tavern, and subsequent refusal to serve a Negro NEA staff member and some Negro convention delegates, sent waves of intense resentment through the convention. NEA filed a strong protest with the U. S. Department of State concerning the embarrassment to its guest and convention observer from South Africa, Mooki Vitus Molapo, and took other decisive actions.

Bowling Firms "Closed" To Negro Women Bowlers

Davenport, Ia. — Three Negro ladies have filed complaints of racial discrimination by three bowling alleys here. They were filed with the Davenport Human Relations Commission.

The complaint filed Thursday petition HRC to conduct a hearing on the allegation and issue a report on its findings.

Filing the complaint were Carrie Stevens, 1405 Mound St., Janice Roberts, 152 6 Eastern Ave., and Marie Minnis, 1525 Spring St., all of Davenport, members of the committee of the Wetompa Bowling League made up of Negro women.

The committee had been named to arrange fall bowling times for the league.

Named

Named in the complaint were Mary E. Jefferies, manager of Suburban Lanes, 4004 Kimberly Rd.; Charles E. Lorseid, manager of Bowlmore Bowling Lanes, 2952 Brady St.; and Marvin E. Holstad, manager of Midway Recreation Lanes, 310 1/2 2nd St.

The complaint claims that on Apr. 22 the Negro League representatives were told there was a possibility of open time at Suburban Lanes.

Three days later the complaint alleges a Bowlmore Lanes secretary advised the women there were no openings at the bowling alley.

Whites Go

On Apr. 26, the complaint said two white persons, who will be identified to the commission, went to Suburban and were told an 8-team bowling league could bowl at 9 on Monday nights.

The complaint also says that these same persons were told by Bowlmore Lanes that any time Monday was open, early or late, and at 9 on Saturday nights.

At Midway

The Wetompa Bowling League is currently bowling at Midway but it is alleged that the only time available for the league this fall is following a 16-team league on Sunday.

The complaint says the same two white persons were later told by Midway that they could bowl Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday nights at 9, Saturday afternoon or Sunday night after 8.

The complaint further alleges that the Negro league at Midway is being charged $1.50 per game, but that the two white persons were advised the charge would be $1.35. Lorseid, manager of Bowlmore, said, "We wouldn't tell white persons we had openings and Negroes we didn't."

Urge Negro Businessmen To Set Up Shopping Cntr.

An official of the Des Moines Area Council of Churches, who are sponsoring the Oakridge low-rent housing development is urging Negro businessmen to move into the commercial 267, 378 square feet of land bordering their project.

Shopping Center

Father John Donovan told the Bystander Tuesday that he had spoken to a number of Negro businessmen about a commercial parcel and proposed that the area be set up as a small shopping center. "I have spoken with a number of Negro businessmen to spark their interest. It should be a shopping center type, with maybe a grocery store, clothing store, barber shop, beauty parlor and so forth," and stated he was hoping that a group of them could get together and do it.

Donovan mentioned that the Small Business Administration and the Housing and Urban Development organizations would be excellent opportunities for the businesses financially.

Bids

Bids on the parcels will be officially opened in the fall, and Donovan said in order for merchants to bid for the land, they should employ an architect to exhibit what their respective buildings would look like in their pre-liminary plans and site plan.

Donovan said he had met with Rozenting Hardaway who is now developing land Northwest of 13th and University, and with John Estes about developing their businesses there.

Just back from vacation, nicely tanned . . . speaking of that, if TV is so integrationist minded, why not have a truly tanned Soul Sister on the sun tan commercials? Could you see the commentator talking "dark tan boys and girls" and some brown chick hips out on the screen with a Natural and some Bleach-Em-Out sun tan remover ? ? ?

Fashions

Also Dansiki, west African dress wear with authentic African print, imported hand-carved all wood comb, African hand-made wooden comb with metal prongs and with carrying case. Take your pick. Check or money order payable to Ashanti Fashions.

Joe Tex has a new one out, all about money. And Here Come the Judge! You can dig it.

Many artists are turning to the songs of the earlier years, and not without exception are your and my favorites, the mod rock groups with: Freak Out with Frankie and Johnnie; I'll be Loving You (and you and you by way of LSD); and Alice Blue Gown Goes Psychedelic. All as played by Yankie Doodle and the Havenots and Tommy Titanic and his Hot Icebergers.

Heard Stevie Wonder's "You Met Your Match"? And Archie Bell and the Drells, "I just Can't Stop Dancing."

Back to the commercial scene: little soul sister Odessma running to her mama after school crying, "My sandwiches are stale because of the wax paper, and the kids won't trade with me." So mama goes to the store after some cat dressed in black informs her as to what to buy. The next day Odessma goes to school with her ultra soft sandwiches and mama is happy.

That afternoon Odessma comes running to her mama crying, "My sandwiches are soft, but the kids STILL won't trade with me."

Mama wonders to herself, "Hmmm That's funny. I thought everybody liked chitterlin sandwiches."

Take it slow and tighten up.

Appetizing Ways With Salad

TO SPARK AN APPETITE for the meal to come, California hostesses like to serve a bowl of crisp salad greens with a light and lively herb and spice dressing as a first course. This increasingly popular custom is finding its way to other parts of the country too now that appetizing salad dressings with just the right amount of herbs and spices can be so easily made from an envelope of Good Seasons salad dressing mix. Here is a typical Western recipe:

PARMESAN GREEN SALAD

1 package old fashioned garlic salad dressing mix
Vinegar, water, oil
2 medium heads romaine, cut into 1-inch pieces
½ green pepper, sliced (optional)
1 cup garlic croutons

1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
2 tablespoons wine vinegar
6 anchovy fillets, finely cut
½ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese
½ teaspoon salt
¾ cup mixed salad dressing

Combine salad dressing mix, vinegar, water, and oil as directed on the bottle or package.

Place romaine, green pepper, and croutons in large salad bowl. Chill. Combine Worcestershire sauce, vinegar, anchovies, pepper and cheese. Whip with a fork until smooth. Add salt and ¾ cup of the dressing. Whip again. Pour over chilled romaine, toss lightly, and serve immediately. Makes 6 cups, or 3 or 4 servings luncheon or entree salad or 6 to 8 servings side salad.

HEALTH FOR ALL

There are casualties in Vietnam not counted in the statistics.

They come from a disease called melioidosis, apparently found only in Southeast Asia, which doctors in the United States are just beginning to know.

The disease has been called "the Vietnamese time bomb" because of its frequently delayed reaction. In some cases actual illness can occur as late as 10 years after exposure.

Melioidosis initiates a type of pneumonia that is sometimes mistaken for tuberculosis. But the disease, according to present evidence, is not contagious. If diagnosed in time, it can be treated successfully with certain antibiotics. Treatment must be continued for several weeks to avoid the danger of relapse.

The bacillus that causes the disease has been isolated, and is known to come from the soil of Vietnam.

Hildreth stated that he will continue to up grade the Sheriff's Office, a task that he set out to accomplish since taking office in 1955. Sheriff Hildreth feels that good law enforcement is essential to a strong form of government.

HILDRETH

During his tenure of office, he has helped coordinate and acquire the various law enforcement agencies in Polk County to obtain a close working relationship. He assisted in inaugurating the Crime Alert Program which was recently put into effect in Polk County.

Take Your Medicine

Nobody ever hurt his eyes by looking at the bright side of things.

Tact: the quality that makes your guests feel at home when you wish they were.

We're living in funny times when you consider that most of our philosophical wisdom emanates from Pogo, Smokey the bear and Snoopy the dog.

Heard in the office: "I'm not a very good typist, but I can erase 75 words a minute."

Honest now, aren't you beginning to regret those wild promises you scribbled on Christmas cards?

One thing you won't regret: the lipstick you select from the wide variety at Williams Pharmacy, 1103 University Avenue, Phone 243-1253.

steadily. Many improvements have been made in the jail. Escape proof windows have been installed in three more cell blocks. New laundry and bathroom facilities have been installed. An extensive painting program is underway. New kitchen equipment has also been purchased.

Uniforms for Prisoners

The Board of Supervisors recently approved the purchase of uniforms for all prisoners. A prisoner will be stripped, given a shower and issued a jail uniform when he enters the jail. This will help eliminate much of the contraband from getting into the jail as nearly 6,000 prisoners are processed each year.

Since taking office in 1955, the Sheriff's criminal and patrol divisions have steadily improved service to rural Polk County; and the civil department has provided "the same high level of service" despite a 50% rise in volume of legal instruments handled.

Hildreth, a career lawman for over 20 years, stated that if he is re-elected he would continue to bring strong law enforcement to Polk County, to run the Sheriff's Office in a business-like manner and even though elected on a partisan basis would serve all the people on a non-partisan basis.

SONGSTRESS JOANNE JACKSON'S picture and story are bright additions to this week's paper. News of Joanne will always be acceptable in this column, so pass any good word along!

WEST DES MOINES' KIWANIS 4th ANNUAL MIDWEST ARTS AND JAZZ FESTIVAL was this week's most exciting affair. The setting—tents set up in a spacious area of Holiday Park, 14 Street, North of Railroad Street, was strictly midwestern atmosphere. The Kiwanis Dixieland Band is widely known and has its own big following. Its tent continuously overflowed.

ARTISTS CAROL HEDGES, NANCY LINK AND PAT GANTS always staging still another show of their own or participating in exhibits throughout Iowa were easily the most familiar in a group of well-established exhibitors.

MARY HEDGES, MERELY 12 YEARS OLD, stole the spotlight by flanking her showing of beautiful enormous paper flowers—her own creation—with her mother, Carole's work! Who else could get away with this? Smart girl! Her flowers were a popular item, decorative for any setting! (Say she sold a painting for her mother! Like "Hedges, Inc." ?????)

LEROY MITCHELL, LONG WELL-KNOWN ARTIST AND ART INSTRUCTOR showed this year. I noted his bar relief sculpture of copper and wood; a three dimensional design hangings of tempera point on masonite; an exquisite woven rug. His most exciting was a clock demonstrated by the placings of clumps of color and clock hands—suggestive but easily realized.

ANN PAGE'S SMALL PARTY FOR BRITISH DIGNITARIES, Mr. and Mrs. Esmond Wright, of Glasgow, Scotland, brought me as close to members of the British government as I ever expect to be. Esmond Wright is a member of the House of Commons, and preceding which position, formerly a history professor of Glasgow University. As visiting history professor at Drake University, he just completed a lecture series on "Great Britain Today, Trends in British Education, and British Government Today: Continuity and Change". Esmond and Olive are very interesting people and graciously shares their experiences. Professor Curtis Page of Drake University's English Department is responsible for the English couple's visit here.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Is peroxide needed to color unwanted gray hair?

Hair care and beauty experts know that the first traces of gray hair—and even slight fading of natural color after chemical relaxing—can dull a woman's appearance and make her look older than she feels. While most women hate these premature aging effects, many are hesitant about using permanent peroxide haircoloring which may change the natural hair color while coloring gray.

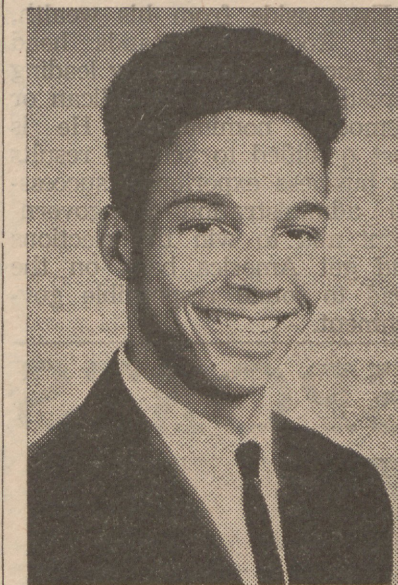

Professionally-trained hairdressers know the importance of their customers' preferences when unwanted gray becomes a problem. These experts also know that Clairol created semi-permanent Loving Care® hair color lotion without peroxide... to color only the gray without changing the natural shade. They also find Loving Care blends back color faded by chemical processing. Because of its mildness, Loving Care maintains healthy looking hair and lasts through a month of shampoos. Whatever a woman's reason for wanting Loving Care for her hair, she is always wise to consult a professional beautician. Hairdressers are equipped with a family of fine Clairol products and the training to promise each patron the loveliest and most personalized haircoloring effects every time she visits her salon. If you dislike gray, and want no peroxide, why not ask your beautician to glamorize it with Loving Care?

Hinky Dinky Store Ads in Bystander

For the first time in many years, a large chain store in Des Moines, Hinky Dinky, has commenced a series of Advertisements in the Bystander. It appears on page two and is particularly directed at the store at 19th Street and Carpenter Avenue.

This store is located in an area where Negroes comprise a large share of the population. And while the store has had excellent patronage among Negroes already, the management not only wants more but is also saying so in our columns as well as the daily papers.

In order to further check the amount of trade coming from this source, the ad carries a number of SAVING COUPONS which will enable purchasers to help cut their grocery bills.

The Bystander will appreciate the full cooperation of its readers by using these coupons. This class of advertising is valuable to our publication.

TALKING OUT OF
BOTH SIDES OF THE MOUTH

Speaking at a rally of sympathizers at Iowa State University at Ames Saturday, Jimmy Rollins, of CORE, said, "We propose to get our liberation by any means deemed necessary." He went on to admonish his audience that the students should not engage in illegal practices to accomplish their aims but that non-violent approaches to the solution to the problem died with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and other methods must be pursued to gain for Negroes their rights.

It is seldom that a speaker could talk out of both sides of his mouth as he did, and to the "courtesy applauder" it sounded good at first thought but as it sank deep into their minds their thoughts could not be together. At this same meeting, an appeal went out for contributions to help dissatisfied students register in other schools. Unfortunately, these students have not learned that it takes money to stand up for what they believe and that it is ridiculous to beg somebody else to foot the bill.

Unfortunately, level headed people among the Negro alumni nor citizens near the school have been asked for help in solving the problems raised by Negro students and thus the issues are dealt with in the light of inexperience and immature reason. REPUBLICAN DELEGATES MUST CHOOSE WISELY

Gov. Rockefeller of New York has asked the Republican National Committee and the Nixon forces to join in sponsoring a popularity poll in order to determine who is the most desirable candidate for President on the Republican ticket.

This would serve just as some states use primaries in selecting delegates to the national convention. Rockefeller wants to know what the rank and file voters think should be done.

The large city voters will be a leading factor in the election. Like Gov. Rockefeller says, Nixon carried several states up to when he reached the large cities, then he lost the states.

In view of the fact that the Negro vote figures prominently in the large cities, it is important to see how they, along with other voters, feel as between Rockefeller and Nixon. Our observation among most Negroes, Democrats or Republican, is that if the Republicans nominate Rockefeller they will vote for him; otherwise they would vote the Democratic ticket. This is generally the agreed position.

Here in Iowa, the majority of the delegates to the Republican National Convention lean or are committed to Nixon. Many of them take their position from the fact that most members of the "organization" support Nixon. Unfortunately, they fail to realize that only 27 per cent of the registered voters are Republicans and that in order to win in November, a large vote must come from independents and dissatisfied Democrats who, in the final analysis, are not the conservative kind.

Iowa delegates must realize that the Presidential standard bearer must be a strong candidate with appeal from regulars and irregulars. He must have the right appeal to help elect Republicans in the State House, County and precinct as well as in Washington.

Iowa delegates will remember that a lot of fine Republicans went down the drain with the land slide of 1964 and should reason that a poor candidate at the head of the ticket in 1968 may swamp many of their close allies at home as well as in Washington.

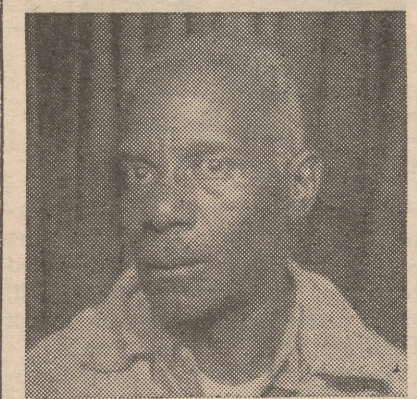

Of course, there is no guarantee as to whom the Democrats will nominate or whether he will appeal to the Negro voters as Roosevelt, Kennedy and Johnson did. But we do know what will be required to win.

Unfortunately, some of our senators and representatives in Washington, among Republican have collaborated with Congressmen that mean the Negro no good. They have criticized decisions of the Supreme Court unduly siding with reactionaries who, in the final analysis, are mad about the school decision of 1954 or want it easy for some policemen to abuse defendants in their custody without reasonable foundation for their action. In fact Senator Stinnes blames the Supreme Court for the hijacking of planes between Florida and Cuba.

Even aside from his wealth, Gov. Rockefeller stands head and shoulders above any leading candidate for the Republican or Democrat nomination. He is best qualified to achieve results by business experience, successful administration in government and to win the elections and get America back on the road to sound responsible government.

Boycott

The real argument behind the various boycotts at different schools are beginning to come out. We have always argued that the whole thing was based on social attitudes and the facts coming to the front seem to bear us out. Of course the other things, lack of comradeship with the white boys and such are nothing new. In the case of a small town high school or a college in which there was maybe only one Negro, a real comradeship just didn't exist. If you were an athlete, you helped the school win. Sometimes you were the only reason they didn't win and you were a hero for that day and forget it until the next day or game. And with very few exceptions if you met one of your white teammates downtown with his date the guy didn't see you.

Smart

So these problems are not new, but how do you cope with them? How do you make your teammates and your school accept you as an equal in all respects? Good grades won't do it. We have often heard of a Negro who averaged a straight A being called the smartest colored boy who ever went to such and such a school. So we just wouldn't know where to start trying to gain the thing we all want—not exactly integration but equal respect as people. Maybe the boycotts might make it. Some of the schools have jumped the problem by hiring Negro coaches and we would guess there would be more to follow.

The All-star football game comes up next month and we notice a lot of fellows from our black schools in the star's lineup. There have always been some of those big, fast athletes in these southern schools, but nobody believed the stories they heard until the pros began to check them out. Now they know the fellows are for real.

And in basketball those schools were ready for anything up this way as early as in the Thirties. But nobody wanted to play them and risk getting beat by a nobody.

The football teams weren't ready largely because they had too many small guys who were stars. We recall when the Negro colleges picked our all star team and challenged a pro league team. Well sir, the pros ate them up without salt and pepper. And that was the last we ever heard of that venture.

Fellows like Young of the Chicago Defender said Negro football would never be the same. He was right. It grew up and is now as good as any in its enrollment class anywhere.

The city softball meet doesn't seem the same without the old Hot-tentots in it. But some of the old guys are still around on various teams and doing all right.

Athletes Rallying for Hopeful E. McCarthy

Washington — "I'm concerned about the future of black athletes and the future of this country," says Bill Briggs, of the Washington Redskins. The burly defensive end has been speaking and working for Senator Eugene McCarthy since a week before the Nebraska primary.

Athletes

The six-foot-four-inch football player left for the Redskins summer training camp in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, July 15. He was not able to do very much speaking for the Senator there, but he plans to expand his activities as Chairman of the new Committee of Athletes for McCarthy. The Committee is an organization of professional and amateur athletes who are deeply committed to the Senator's "new politics" of 1968 and who seek endorsements of the Senator from other leading athletes.

Emotional

During the Nebraska primary campaign, Briggs spent time with ministers and black leaders in Lincoln, soliciting support for McCarthy. In Omaha, he talked with students at the junior high and high school levels.

He dealt with black unity groups on college campuses in Oregon and California, stressing the point that "We owe it to ourselves not to get involved in politics on a purely emotional level. We have to sit back and look at the candidates objectively."

Ghetto

"In the past, politics in the ghetto was just an emotional affair, but now we're fighting to become individuals, to have a place in this country, and this stereotype of the black man who responds to nothing but emotion has to be extinguished."

Briggs emphasizes that when the Senator's civil rights record is presented, "it shows the Senator's deep commitment to civil rights in the past and his direct involvement with the black community."

Willie Mays, Aaron
Streak Hitters

New York — Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants and Hank Aaron of the Atlanta Braves are the only active major-league players to have three hitting streaks of 21 or more consecutive games.

Calls For Ouster of Baseball's Eckert

New York — "Baseball Commissioner William D. Eckert should be paid off and retired," asserts an article in the current issue of SPORT Magazine.

"Commissioner Eckert is not a leader, but in fact is being led by a group of unbelievably greedy, callous and arrogant clubowners who seem bent on destroying what was once our national pastime," it says.

In calling for Commissioner Eckert's ouster, the article cites his impotence in dealing with the crises facing baseball following the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy and in the disagreement between the two leagues on the shape of expansion in 1969.

After the Kennedy assassination, some teams called off Friday games, others called off Saturday games and some postponed Sunday contests, with many of the clubowners' decisions seemingly dictated more by box-office considerations than by any sense of respect and national mourning.

Servile

"And through it all," it says, "the commissioner was sitting back taking orders, not giving them, calling up owners and asking what he should do rather than telling the owners what to do."

"In the expansion disagreement," according to the Sport editorial, "the National League, motivated by greed on the part of its owners, refuses to go along with the American League on its six-team, two-division set-up for 1969, while the commissioner takes in the anarchy all around him and does nothing."

"Baseball needs a strong, independent soul to run the game free of owner interference," concludes the Sport article. "We suggest the owners get together at once and find a man who can govern them, and who can control their lusts and drives toward self-destruction."

Athletes Support
Richard Nixon?

Washington — Bart Starr, Wilt Chamberlain, Whitey Ford, Joe Louis and more than a hundred other top sports personalities have formed a team to support the Presidential candidacy of Richard Nixon.

Called Athletes for Nixon Committee, the new group is comprised of stars from baseball, football, basketball, golf, racing and track and will be chaired by 50-year baseball pioneer Leland S. (Larry) MacPhail, announced Charles S. Rhyne, Chairman, United Citizens for Nixon.

30% of Negroes
Seen for G.O.P.

Miami Beach, Fla. — A G.O.P. official directing a national campaign to recruit minority votes for the Republican Party says his two-year project has won "at least 30 per cent of the black vote across the nation."

Clarence Townes, Negro assistant to Republican National Chairman Ray Bliss, said Wednesday that the G.O.P. is seeking young Negroes who are aggressive but "within the system."

"In order for the Republican party to have a rebirth and in order to reinstate the black voter, we must include the so-called militant elements of the minority groups," Townes said. "They have been quite important in our drive to recruit black voters over to the Republican side."

ON THE ROLL

Her name was on the Church roll
Where it so long had been.
She was a faithful Christian without A life of Sin.

She went to church each Sunday
And taught in Sunday School.
She did in her short lifetime
Obey the Golden Rule.

She went to all the meetings
Where there she'd stand and sing
And glory to God, our Father, She Crowned the Lord and King.
Her heart was full of love

In the Service

Vietnam, July 2 — Marine Lance Corporal Quylon Coleman, 19, son of Mrs. Velma L. Coleman of 1607 Forest Avenue, is serving with the Third Battalion, Fifth Marine Regiment, First Marine Division, in Vietnam.

As a member of the battalion he helps capture or destroy enemy forces. He accomplishes this through weapons fire, tactical maneuvering and both large and small scale operations.

She had such peace within
She was a regular member
Thoroughly saved from sin.
She never missed communion.
She always paid her tithes
And testified of wanting a
Home beyond the skies.
Although her life she was moral.
And others she would win
She made her preparation, by Being born again.

Take heed ye heartless sinners
In your works and deeds
That you enjoy performing, that Meets your worldly needs.
"Be born again said Jesus
Regardless of the cost."
For when this life is ended,
You'll be Forever lost,
In Memory of my little sister,
Joyce.
