Attorney Object of Crank Calls After His Talk "Loyal Democrats" Will Try to Win State's Seats

After Meeting with D.M. School Board

A Des Moines attorney told the Bystander last week that he had been the object of obscene telephone calls following his talk at the Des Moines School Board.

Anthony Critelli said last Friday to this newspaper that he told the School Board instead of combining certain schools, they should be closed and that the students should be transported to schools which are predominantly white, such as Hubbell Elementary School. He said at that time that his remarks probably would not be "appreciated."

Critelli's statements were widely publicized on radio and television, including the 6 and 10 p.m. news, and following his coverage the telephone rang. He said he first got a call from what he thought was a white woman whose comments were favorable, but then received a call from a person who, in a very low voice, said "nigger lover," without even asking for Critelli.

In another call, the person queried as to Critelli's identity, then said, "If you want your kids to go to school with niggers, why don't you move down there with them?"

The lawyer said he did not think the harassers had come from the Hubbell school area, but middle-aged cranks from any part of the city.

Although Critelli was criticized in this way, he said he plans to attend the next meeting of the School Board in connection with education because he is the chairman of the Education committee of Concerned Christians whose object is to eliminate segregation in the Des Moines schools.

Named Coordinator For "Hard-Core" Prog.

Chicago, Illinois—Myles L. Reed, a former elementary school teacher, has been named assistant program coordinator by the Borg-Warner Corporation to coordinate the recruiting and training of 50 "hard-core" unemployed Chicagoans under a $150,000 MA-2 contract received by the company from the U. S. Department of Labor.

Louis Nabors Will Sing At Sun. Concert

The fifth of a series of six summer concerts by the Des Moines Municipal Band will be next Sunday, July 28, on the west steps of the State Capitol Building beginning at 8 p.m. Featured as guest vocalist will be Louis Nabors of the Mid-America Chorale. The 45 piece professional band is conducted by Robert Bagley. Dick Eaton is Master of Ceremonies. This series of concerts is financed by a grant from the trust funds of the recording industry. Obtained through the cooperation of Local 75, American Federation of Musicians and the city of Des Moines.

Nabors

Nabors graduated from Southern University in Baton Rouge, La., and taught for a while in the Bahamas on a Cultural Exchange program. His operatic roles at Southern University include: Balthazar, in "Amahl and the Night Visitors," Ramphis, in "Aida," and was bass soloist in "Stabat Mater." He was president of his local chapter of Phi Mu Alpha, National Music Fraternity. This past year Mr. Nabors performed with the Mid-America Chorale directed by John Dexter and also appears as soloist at the Forest Avenue Baptist Church.

Black Phone Line at Rep. Nat. Convention

Washington — In a major effort to reach all elements of the black community, the Republican National Committee will have a direct telephone hook-up, from its Miami Beach Convention headquarters, to the nation's 250 all-black radio stations.

This latest instance of fast, modern communications has been uniquely dubbed The News Feedline.

According to Clarence L. Townes, Jr., Special Assistant to National Committee Chairman, Ray C. Bliss and director of the Minorities Division of the Republican National Committee, "The News Feedline will make it easy for black programmed radio stations to let their audiences know what will be taking place at the GOP Convention." "All services will be free of charge; "and while any station may call," stated Townes, "all tapes will be designed specifically for the black community."

Offers Reward For Pro-Wallace Negro

Hartselle, Ala. — William Bradford Huie, widely known Alabama author, has offered a $500 reward to anyone who can find a registered Negro voter in Alabama who is supporting George Wallace for the presidency.

Mrs. C. King Will Speak At Rep. Convention

National excitement over the coming Republican National Convention has tended to hide the other important event taking place in Miami Beach starting July 29.

For four days, the Republicans will be holding open hearings on their platform. This year, the GOP has invited a broad sampling of black Civil Rights activists to testify before its Platform Committee.

Young

Whitney Young of the National Urban League will be the first to testify before the Sub-Committee on Equal Opportunity in an Urban Society on Monday afternoon, July 29. Young will be followed later on that day by Dr. Thomas W. Matthew

Officers Receive Promotions from WH

Three senior Negro military officers have received promotions in personnel actions recently announced at the White House and Pentagon.

Colonel Frederic Ellis Davison was nominated by President Johnson for the rank of Brigadier General. When his nomination is approved by the Senate, Davison will become the first Negro general in the U.S. Army since the retirement of Brigadier General Benjamin O. Davis, Sr., in 1948. Colonel Davison is currently Deputy Commanding Officer of the 199th Infantry Brigade in Vietnam.

Colonel Cunningham C. Bryant was appointed Adjutant General of the District of Columbia National Guard. He is the first Negro to become Adjutant General of a National Guard organization.

Commander Paul Stewart Green was selected by the Navy as the first Negro Medical Corps officer to reach the grade of Captain.

Floyd Patterson Reveals Marriage

Los Angeles, Calif. — Former heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson said Wednesday he had been married to Janet Seaquist for about a year and a half, but he denied the marriage was kept a secret.

"We definitely haven't been secretly married," Patterson said. "No one asked me about it and when someone came up to me and said, 'Are you married?' I said 'Yes.'"

Patterson said he and Miss Seaquist, a caucasian whose family originated in Sweden, "have nothing to hide."

The former champ, who was filming on the "Wild, Wild West" television set, said he expected a tough fight from his Sept. 14 heavyweight opponent Jimmy Ellis.

"It's going to be a good fight because of the difference in styles between us," he said. "His style is one of the hardest problems to overcome. Ellis (the World Boxing Association heavyweight champion) is fast and has superior ability. I'll have a problem on my hands."

Irasburg, Vt. — State police Monday guarded the home of the Rev. David Johnson, a Negro Baptist minister, after marauders last week fired five shotgun blasts at the house.

The sing will be Sunday, July 28 at 7:15 p.m. and will feature choirs and musical numbers from Glen Echo Christian Church, Mount Hebron Baptist Church, The Cheery Cherubs, Heavenly Voices and others from the "God's Army of Youth" program series. Also as a special feature will be a 15 minute segment from the "Summer Operetta Workshop." The Workshop is comprised of a company of high school and college students engaged in a non-profit workshop dedicated to the creative abilities and desires of youth. This company is led by Sue Caswell.

Afro-American Fest In L.A. This Summer

Los Angeles — Every person in America who wishes to attend the Festival of the African Peoples in Los Angeles this summer, will have the opportunity to do so. Chartered planes, buses, special trains, and even auto caravans will bring them. Those who cannot spare the money for the trip, will have an opportunity to earn their way, according to a recent bulletin released by the organizing committee of the festival.

Transportation, tickets, and accommodations may be earned by obtaining sponsors for the festival; by selling advertising in the souvenir program; and by selling festival buttons, bumper banners, tickets and similar items.

Spokesmen for the organization said they expect thousands will take advantage of this opportunity to visit the first International Festival of the African Peoples ever held in this country.

The festival organizing committee address is listed as: Metropolitan Station Box 6532, Los Angeles California 90055. Phone number 734-5057.

At the Fair

The Iowa State Fair is going all out for Iowa art this year, James Engler, art department curator, has reported here.

Head of the Grand View College art department in Des Moines, Engler said more Iowa artists in more media will get more attention than ever in the expanded art program on the main floor of the grandstand.

Young students painting while you watch, new competitive professional designer crafts classes, the annual Iowa Art Exhibit, and two traveling art shows will point up diversified Iowa talent, in Engler's opinion.

Ghetto to Work With La. Urban League

New Orleans, La. — Residents of the New Orleans ghetto are being invited to participate in five workshops at the 1968 National Urban League Conference in that city, July 28-Aug. 1.

This marks the first time that an organization such as the League has involved ghetto residents in its national conference deliberations.

Powell Loses His Graft Court Case

New York — Harlem Congressman Adam Clayton Powell lost a two-year battle to have a criminal contempt of court conviction overturned.

By a vote of 3-2 the Appellate Division of the state Supreme Court affirmed a 30-day sentence and a $500 fine imposed on Powell by a lower court in 1966.

Appeal is expected. But Henry R. Williams, lawyer for Powell, disclosed that no decision has been made yet. Powell would appeal to the Court of Appeals, the state's highest court.

Colts Timmy Brown Into Show Business

Baltimore, Md. — The glittering world of show business has lured another Brown away from the National Football League.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Washington, D. C. — The A.F.L.-C.I.O. Building and Construction Trades Department proposed Wednesday guidelines for local unions which would mean jobs and union membership for thousands of Negro slum residents hired to help rebuild American cities

New York—The Columbia Broadcasting System, last week signed comedian Godfrey Cambridge to a long-term contract for a TV series, either to front an hour variety show or to star in a half-hour situation comedy. The deal was made through the William Morris Agency, and word is that the other two networks had also been interested in signing him.

Uppsala, Sweden — American Negro churchmen moved Wednesday night to win more seats on the central committee of the World Council of Churches (W.C.C.) near the end of its fourth assembly here.

Chicago — Homicide detectives have launched an intensive probe into the puzzling murder of famous pianist and organist, Sammy Williams, whose decapitated body was found in his luxurious home, 6600 Marquette Rd., last Monday night.

St. Louis, Mo. — Central City Foods, a grass-roots venture in the St. Louis community, is getting set for the opening of its first new supermarket. "The opening will take place in November," James Hurt, Chairman of the Board, said, "but we have a time-table to keep, and now we're ready to hire the Vice President, who will be the manager of operations."

Washington, D. C.—Ulric Haynes, Jr., who is very prominent in intellectual circles as an expert on Africa, has been appointed Chairman of a special panel on African Affairs for Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

South Africa Jams Radio Tanzania

Dar es Salaam — South Africa, fearful of a black revolt against its ultra-segregationist regime, has begun intensive jam of the powerful Radio Tanzania, Africa's "Voice of Hope" to millions of blacks living under white minority rule in Southern Africa.

Radio Tanzania daily beams English and African language programs from Dar to South Africa, South-West Africa, Rhodesia, Mozambique and Angola from its powerful Communist China-built transmitter — whose signals have been picked up as far away as Australia and South America. The broadcasts seek to mobilize black Africans in the freedom fight, under the joint sponsorship of the Tanzanian government and the OAU's African Liberation committee.

pro football to devote his time to acting and singing.

Brown, who commuted between Philadelphia and New York last season to take acting lessons, joins another former NFL great, Jimmy Brown of Cleveland, in the football player-to-actor transition.

New York — White and Negro Mississippians have formed a coalition — the Loyal Democrats of Mississippi — to challenge the credentials of the Mississippi state delegation at the Democratic Party Presidential Convention in Chicago beginning Aug. 26.

The coalition is urging instead that its own delegation, which is racially integrated, be seated as the official delegation from Mississippi. The coalition is composed of six state organizations — the State Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), Freedom Democratic Party Young Democrats, Prince Hall Masons, Mississippi Teachers Association, and Mississippi State AFL-CIO.

Loyal Democrats is Chairman of the Dr. Aaron Henry, a 46-year-old pharmacist from Clarksdale, Mississippi, who is also State Chairman of the NAACP. The Vice Chairman of the coalition is Hodding Carter III, publisher of the Greenville, Mississippi, Delta Democrat-Times and Chairman of the State Young Democrats. Charles Evers, NAACP Field Secretary and recent candidate for Congress in the state's 3rd Congressional District will serve as one of the coordinators for the campaign.

Delegation

"We intend to choose a delegation representative of all the people of Mississippi," Dr. Henry stated, "and, if we can find the funds, to transport this delegation to Chicago on August 26 to challenge the delegation handpicked by the white power structure of the state."

"We shall convince the Democratic Party and the convention's Credentials Committee that it should recognize our delegation as the only one in Chicago representative of the registered Democrats in Mississippi."

Right

"We shall charge that Negroes in the state have been discriminated against by being refused their right to participate in the Democratic primaries of the regular Mississippi party. This charge will be documented with affidavits from Negro citizens in more than 30 counties, representing more than 20,000 Negro voters."

More than 40 per cent of the population of Mississippi is Negro and of these more than 240,000 are registered to vote, a tenfold increase since 1965, Dr. Henry observed. "Yet only two out of a possible total of 66 delegates chosen for the August Presidential Convention are Negroes," he said.

250 Negroes to Take Part In Nat. Demo Convention

Washington, D. C. — Over 250 Negro delegates, double the 1964 number, will participate in the 1968 Democratic National Convention, according to reports as of July 15 from the 27 states and the District

South that has ever participated in a national convention of a major party since Reconstruction. Further, the increased registration, as a result of the 1965 Voting Rights Act, will enable Southern Negroes to play

Thus far 228 Negroes, 139 Delegates and 89 Alternates, have been reported with Michigan in the lead with 26 Negroes — 19 as Delegates and seven as Alternates.

In the 11 states of the Old Confederacy thus far 73 Negroes have been listed — 33 Delegates and 40 Alternates.

In releasing this preliminary report, Louis Martin, Deputy Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, called particular attention to Negro political development in the South. Martin said:

"We are going to have the largest delegation of Negroes from the a significant role in the 1968 election."

Maurice White Places Second in Derby

Maurice White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene White, 675 26th street, won second place in the Des Moines Soap Box Derby, B class. Maurice won a watch, football and trophy.

Maurice built a blue and white car with red wheels for the B class, and won three straight heats, narrowly losing in the fourth heat. He is eleven years old and will be a sixth grader at Bird School.

This was his first year as a participant in the Derby which annually is sponsored by the Des Moines Jaycees.

On The Campaign Trail

Rockefeller

Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller called Saturday for making mental illness benefits available in a universal health insurance program.

"About one-tenth of the population, or 20 million persons, either have been or will be mentally ill during their lifetime," he pointed out.

Outlining the four-stage proposal, which received support from editorial writers and political leaders throughout the nation, Governor Rockefeller said:

"The present Administration has avowed, again and again, that we are ready to withdraw our forces from South Vietnam if Hanoi is ready to do the same. The Saigon Government has agreed. Yet we have been given no specifics.

Schwengel

Washington, D. C. — Congressman Fred Schwengel, R-Iowa announced today that Ann Morrison, Washington, La., has joined his staff in Washington, D. C. She is a graduate of Washington High School and Christian College, Columbia, Mo.

Humphrey

Washington, D.C. — A group of black leaders in Los Angeles, headed by Congressman Augustus Hawkins and Senator Mervyn M. Dymally, has initiated a campaign to enlist "the broadest possible support" for the nomination and election of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

In a statement released at a Los Angeles press conference the group of 20 leaders said, "The critical significance of this election has determined our choice of the one man whose experience, record, and courage make him pre-eminently qualified for the presidency — Vice President Hubert Humphrey."

Police Blotter

Four persons were arrested about 9:30 p.m. last Friday when police dispersed an "unruly" crowd estimated at 50 to 75 persons from the vicinity of Twelfth street and University avenue.

The four persons and the addresses they gave police were: Ernest Lee Davis, 24, of 1330 10th street, Glen Edward Davis, 21, of 1345 E. 16th street; Joseph Martin Lewis, 29, of 1163 9th street, and Robert Paris Williams, 19, of 820 16th street.

Ernest Davis, Glenn Davis and Lewis were charged with loitering, loitering and annoying. Lewis was released on $50 bond. The other men were being held in City Jail awaiting arraignment.

Trout Stocking Held Up Due to Warm Water

Stocking of some northeast Iowa trout streams will be held up until the water cools enough for fish to survive, announced the State Conservation Commission.

These streams are being posted with signs informing the public that trout stocking is being discontinued for awhile. The streams have become too warm (70 degrees F. or more) for trout to survive. In some cases the entire stream is too hot for survival and in other cases it's just a segment of the stream. Parts of some streams have sufficient springs to provide cool water to sustain trout.

Springs are located in upstream areas so fishing is available even though stocking will be suspended until suitable downstream water temperatures are attained.

A list of streams, by county, where trout stocking has been suspended follows:

Allamakee—Village and Big Point Creeks.
Clayton — Maquoketa River, Buck and South Cedar Creeks.
Dubuque — Swiss Valley Creek.
Fayette—Otter, Ensign Hollow and Mink Creeks.
Jackson — Brush and Little and Big Mill Creeks.

Congress

Washington — By Aug. 3, Congress will either adjourn for the Presidential conventions or recess and come back perhaps after Labor Day. In either case, that leaves us only the next two weeks in which to press for the immediate legislative programs so essential to any realization of the goals of full equality, said the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights.

Still before us, though, are the bills meant to do something about employment, education and hunger in America and the control of guns.

blue lemons

by eleanora e. tate

George Wallace was in Des Moines Tuesday and received the required number of delegate support to get on the Iowa ballot for president, as he has done in some other states.

During a speech here he said he would win the election in November. America has been called a "sick", "racist" and "violent" country who has seen the assassinations of president Kennedy and his brother, Dr. Martin Luther King, Malcolm X, and George Lincoln Rockwell, liberals, peacekeepers, separatists and Nazis.

America is NOT sick or is any other physical negative adjective that writers and broadcasters may feel necessary to heap upon her, and with this in mind, Americans will ultimately elect a man for the presidency who will do all of the people good; at least this is the ideal.

Alarm

Wallace into the presidential campaign should not raise alarm in Americans who, for their own safety fear his philosophy, or who fear "crime in the street" and so vote for him, for both are brought upon the country by the people themselves.

Philosophers say that good will overcome evil. Those of us who look upon Wallace with apprehension should remember that Man has been called by nature basically GOOD. Wallace, I believe, is running for the Presidency for the benefit of the people who think the same as he, and so he runs for the highest office to sway more people to his thinking which, I hope, HE believes is right, which HE believes is the only way to save America. He certainly is not doing it for the salary.

America does not need saving. It needs reviving.

Benefit

The only difference between right and wrong is according to the number of people who think one way or its opposite. We all at one time or another wish to sway someone in an argument which we believe to be right and good, although it may not be to the benefit for all, and we will fight for our belief, die trying or be swayed to the other side.

Most of us know what Wallace represents and what other politicians represent, for they have publically said so many times. It will now be up to the voting public to make up their minds as to what—for the benefit of all people, not just for the pro-Wallace, pro-Rockefeller, pro-Humphrey, pro-McCarthy or pro-Nixon people—feel will be right and good.

Repeat, right and good, not backlash or for one's own profit, but for the benefit of all people.

A candidate must appeal somehow to all people or to majority of the people to be accepted. He may be elected by the electoral college, but it is the popular vote which makes him acceptable to the people. Appealing to one segment of the human emotion, such as "crime in the street", will alienate a larger segment of the population.

Candidates must not underestimate America, for her people are beginning to wake up to the human dignity in herself—the fact that all races of people exist. As men. Trying to revive a pugnacious, restrictive, genocidal (if political) attitude will only bring America down.

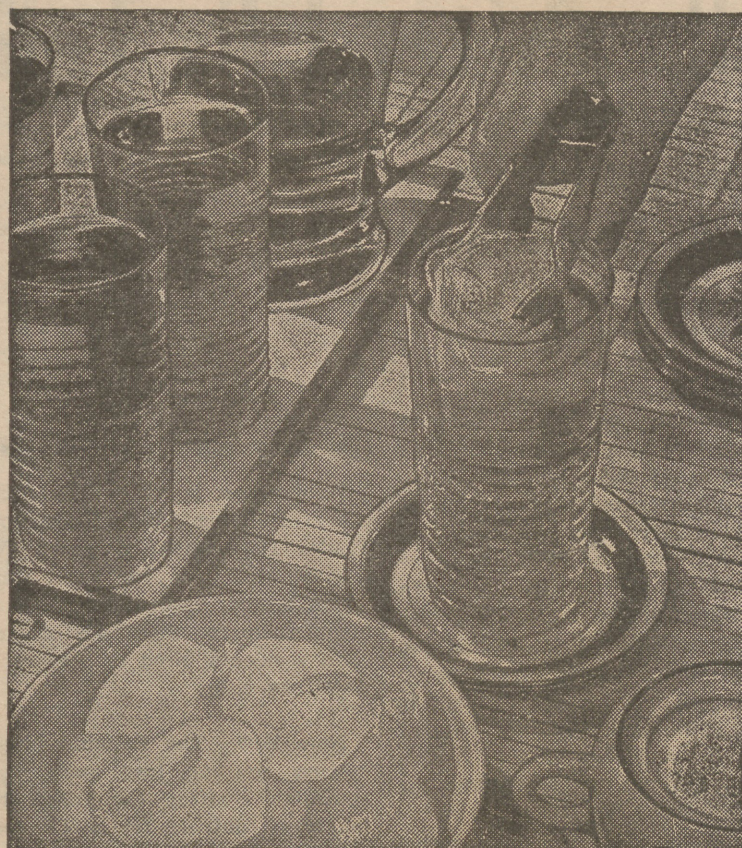

Family

America, in her hurry for industrial prosperity, has nearly forgotten her need for human prosperity. Nearly forgotten, but not quite. It can be revived, and it is being revived, but only Americans truly working for equality of the human can make it work.

America could be like a family whose members squabble, but when an outside force attacks a member, the entire group rallies to defend itself and eliminate it. The American family can defend herself against degradation and indignity, unequal opportunity and racism. The people must not be swayed by incidents of crime, which has been with the entire universe since man first stole the apple, which was a misdemeanor. If we can become a family, distinct in our own ethnic groups, but working toward the one goal of human dignity, we can make it work, and we won't need such a candidate to woo us into the trap we might fall into called the Independent Party.

LEMON ICED TEA BRACER— A REAL THIRST QUENCHER

WHO hasn't wished, at one time or another, for a drink that would really quench a thirst? Try this recipe for a Lemon Iced Tea Bracer and you'll never have to worry about a drink that really relieves that parched, seemingly insatiable thirst. Make a lemonade mix, according to your favorite lemonade recipe, or dilute a 6-ounce can of frozen lemonade concentrate according to can directions. Pour into ice cube trays and freeze. If you use fresh lemons, put a thin slice of lemon rind in each ice cube before freezing. Prepare iced tea according to the new open saucepan method by bringing 1 quart of water to a full, rolling boil. Remove from heat. Immediately add 4 tablespoons of tea (2 tea bags equal 1 tablespoon of tea). Brew 2-5 minutes, depending on how strong you like iced tea. Stir and strain into a pitcher or container of cold water. These measurements make about 2 quarts of iced tea. To serve, add 1-2 lemon ice cubes in tall glasses and fill with tea. A sprig of mint on top will add eye-appeal—and note, too, how the frosty glasses make the iced tea look and taste better—to help quench that thirst!

Lemon Ice Cubes
Thin strips of lemon rind
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup water

Cut thin strips of lemon rind into 1-inch lengths. Prepare 1 for each ice cube.

Mix lemon juice and water. (Some ice cube trays may hold more liquid. If so, increase the amount of lemon juice and water.) Pour liquid into ice cube trays. Place a piece of lemon peel in each cube section. Freeze solid. Serve 1-2 lemon and 1-2 regular ice cubes with each glass of iced tea.

Note: Lemon and water may be sweetened to taste before freezing if desired.

Black Man's Loss In Kennedy's Death; Says SEPIA Magazine

The black man suffered another stunning loss in the murder of Senator Robert Francis Kennedy, SEPIA magazine says in an article in the August issue.

The story, written by a man who was on the scene, points out three shots were fired into Senator Kennedy instead of the two commonly supposed.

In a related story, the magazine points out the ridiculous ease with which the tools of murder may be purchased, this despite the murder of three prominent Americans in less than five years.

The weapons are already in the PRIVATE OLLIE WILBERT ALLEN was on the scene recently after completing his basic training at Fort Bliss Training Center, El Paso, Tex. He was enroute to Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Tex. Ollie won a rifle medal in basic training. He has been assigned to the medics and is scheduled to enter the U.S. Military Preparatory School and from there to the Military Academy of Officers Candidate School. He is the son of Charlie Mae Allen, 1009 24th Street, Des Moines and Perry W. Allen, Jr., Fort Worth, Tex.

COMBO LEADER GEORGE CLINTON, JR. NOW TURNED BUSINESSMAN is the new owner of The Stonehenge, 2537 Forest Avenue. A psychedelic shop, it features "posters and odds and ends". I purchased three lovely bangle bracelets which are unusual in that, imported from India, they are crushed turquoise in brass. The shop offers the popular beads and medallions worn by young men. Reading materials included The Seed, The Chicago Seed and Iowa City's Middle Earth.

STILL FOCUSING OUR ATTENTION ON CLINTON'S STONEHENGE, let's run a check on this popular adjective, psychedelic, which he has brought closer to us. Random House Unabridged Dictionary—the newest dictionary out—says "psychedelic" means "of or noting a mental state of great calm, intensely pleasurable perception of the senses, esthetic enchantment, and creative impetus." And so The Stonehenge is an oasis of things beautiful and pleasurable.

ROXIE McKNIGHT (Atty. Henry McK's beloved) gave me shelter one sweltering evening recently. I enjoyed our woman talk including visiting with her granddaughter, Annette Billingsley, a delightful 12 year old. I enjoyed most Roxie's sharing some of her favorite interests with me. She takes delight in creating beauty. Her well-appointed home reflects excellent taste but even more it has here and there a bit of the old, charming pieces. Treasured gifts from relatives and friends are a part of the entire setting. I am completely captivated with her small cupid, which once adorned her lawn. Finding it was being battered and worn, she donned rubber gloves and patched the little figure with plaster of paris; painted it stark white, adding a bit of red nail polish here and there. Next she filled its upheld bowl with artificial fruits, artificial water lilies, tiny tea roses, and ferns. The final touch was a cardinal tucked into the center of this lush arrangement, its glorious red the crowning beauty. The result, the loveliest of "antiques"!

In Answer to Veronica

We pause and think of lovely Joyce Brown, too.

She lived and loved like a real Christian should.

She was all and more than Veronica said,

She's witnessing for God now, Even though she is dead.

A child brought up in life by the Golden Rule,

You don't receive this knowledge in your books at school.

The parents of Joyce who gave her her daily bread

Also shared her manner as from God they were fed.

What a beautiful family showing forth Christ's life.

A witness, oh yes, of Joyce will be said,

Be still and listen—Joyce Brown is not dead.

Revolutions, chapter 14, 13th verse: And I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto

Me: write, blessed are the dead which die in the Lord

From henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their Labors; and their works do follow them.

VACATION REPORT;
NOT AN EDITORIAL

It is nice to find what you are looking for. And this is what happened to me as I flipped over to Denver last week, a place I had never visited.

About all I looked for was my daughter, Jean (Mrs. G. Kenneth Washington) and her husband, Dr. G. Kenneth Washington. She is a psychiatric social worker in the University of Colorado Medical School and he a urologist in a clinic in Pueblo. Their children were away on vacation. My desire was to see some of the old timers from Des Moines and settled for a visit with Earl Mann, formerly of Clinton, Iowa, and Marie Nollen family of Des Moines. He, along with J. W. Mitchell, Wm. Books and a few others in Des Moines served in the officers training camp at Ft. Des Moines in 1917 and in 1918 at Camp Dodge and went on to France in the 366th Infantry, 92nd Division. I had not seen him in 49 years and although quite incapacitated he talked gleefully of our 1917, 1918 and 1919 service. He served in the Colorado legislature for many years and otherwise has made an excellent citizen.

Negroes are beautifully housed in Denver. They are making some progress in economic, political and civic affairs.

Detective James and Mrs. Thompson stopped by to see us along with his mother and stepfather Mr. and Mrs. Thomas formerly of Des Moines and Mrs. Fred Allen of Des Moines.

I had always wanted to visit Central City, a relic of one of America's gold mine operations in Colorado. More than 1000 feet above sea level, the town is a tourist center where many of the old houses, saloons, the opera house and other relics still stand and the roast beef dinner was tops.

To cross the continental divide from Denver, over 31,000 feet in the air up and offered an opportunity to view the snow capped mountains, the cold mountain streams and families dotted in spots vividly reminded one of the old west. It enabled me to appreciate "Gunsmoke" on television that night more and the other western shows that are seen on television.

Had a reservation at the Hotel Utah in Salt Lake City, one of the most beautiful hotels I ever stayed in. In 1916 I came down from Butte, Montana to visit my brother, Will and had not seen him for ten years. A fine well built man in his early years, I found in a nursing home very ill, looking quite sad. He did not know me but as his mind finally reflected and we talked he took on new life and visited for hours about our young days in Georgia. It inspired him.

Fortunately his pastor, the Rev. Palmer I. Ross of Trinity A.M.E. Church guided me on a tour of the state house, and city-county building and to the library. They are beautiful modern buildings far ahead of most places.

He took me to the Episcopal Church where I found a young priest from Keokuk, Iowa, who was serving as acting priest.

Dr. Ross is a highly respected citizen and is affiliated with the NAACP and several state and city commissions and bureaus. He is the type of desirable citizens that are in demand and of which we have too few in many of our cities.

The Negro population has increased materially since I was in Salt Lake City 52 years ago.

I was not able to visit the Mormon temple and its other buildings. Suffice it to say the church still wields great influence over what goes on in Utah.

This is written in the Hotel Utah. Tomorrow, after boarding a plane, will find me in Des Moines after a little more than 4 hours in the air.

It was a touching trip and some what sad one but out of it emphasized that travel is beautiful and eventually we meet the same fate if we live long enough.

Hotel Utah, one of the most beautiful in the country with a roof garden which everyone could enjoy. Negro waiters man the dining room, one of the few such in the country.

Salt Lake City has active branch of the NAACP.

All in all it was a trip well worth taking providing a break in the day's work and a visit with relatives and friends that will ever remain in my memory.

—J. B. M.

SPORTS

With Allen Ashby

Recently there ran of series of articles in Sports Illustrated that dealt with the problems of the black athlete in college. Most of the contents were old stuff to us fellows who happen to have spent even a little time in athletics at a white school. There is no need to repeat the things that we have set down here so often. But if you could possibly get to read the articles, by all means do so.

Athlete

Our final argument in favor of whatever side we are on, deals with an East Des Moines athlete of a few years ago. The boy was a fine athlete and wasn't dumb. But because he was a star athlete he was allowed to attend whatever classes he wanted to whenever he wanted to. So he "graduated" and went to college tabbed as a fine freshman prospect which he was. But the guy never learned how to attend class regularly, let alone study. He had to flunk out because of his background. Yet the fellow was smart enough to have made it all the way if he had been started right.

It hasn't been too many years ago that professional Negro athletes could be seen working at whatever they could find. But these fellows coming up now know what to do with their money and have enough to do what they want to with it.

Would you pass up that chance for fame and fortune because you believed in a cause enough to boycott a thing as big as the Olympics for it? That is what just about everybody is wondering.

Here at home the Roadside bets have placed their teams squarely into the middle of the city softball meet which will be over by the time you read this. Maybe the fellows will win the thing.

Our 19th annual Hilltop Open gets started next week. We never know what defending champions are coming back, but we shall watch the affair in Cedar Rapids this weekend, and see what comes out of that. We get a lot of our talent from that meet.

Last year we had the best news coverage ever on the thing and we hope the momentum will come over into 1968. We haven't made too many trips to the park lately, but when we do, we don't see any real likely looking prospects. Why? We don't know.

Boxing

Now back to the boxing business. Some writers are afraid the heavy-weight thing might end up in another fight between Floyd Patterson and Sonny Liston for all the marbles. What if it does come to that?

Who would go to see the thing? The fellows are right who argue that the only real way to revive boxing is to reincarnate the small clubs and let fighters start out in them.

Still Like Negroes on Back of the Sports Bus

New York — In spite of twenty years of progress, "professional sport still likes its Negroes on the back of the bus," says Jack Olsen in Part IV of his "The Black Athlete — A Shameful Story" in Sports Illustrated last week. The underlying attitude of allowing the Negro to "help out" in a white man's game persists and positions requiring thought and leadership are withheld from him. Football is the most rigidly patterned, says Olsen. He points out that no Negro has ever been established — and seldom has been tried — as a starting quarterback. In baseball he is rarely allowed to be a pitcher, and in all sports (even in basketball where the greats are so predominantly Negro) coaching and front office opportunities have been practically non-existent. When the Negro is through as a competitor, says SI, his sport has no further use for him.

Only the champion Green Bay Packers get a glowing bill of health from Olsen. They, he writes, "partly because of geography, partly because they are winners and certainly because of Vince Lombardi, have a racial rapport that—unfortunately—is unique in professional sport." For the rest, Olsen found that the life of the average pro black athlete, though much better than that of his counterpart on a college campus, still produces significant racial problems, some of them quite different than those of the college athlete.

Reported as the most objectionable aspects are:

- # the Negro must be measurably better than a white man playing the same position
- # Negroes are stacked at certain positions in order to leave other spots open for whites
- # the quota system is an accepted fact — only so many blacks per position per team
- # personal prejudice, often detrimental to team performance, is rampant.

Costs

The occasional Willie Mays notwithstanding, says the SI article, there is basis for the black professional athletes' claim that the color of their skin consistently costs them money. "In the same year that a California white boy named Mike McCormick got a $60,000 bonus," Olsen writes, "a Negro named Orlando Cepeda was signing for $500. San Francisco Giant Owner Horace Stoham paid $350 for Jim Ray Hart's signature, $500 for Willie McCovey, $500 for Felipe Alou, and $4,000 for Juan Marichal. Frank Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles figures that the color of his skin has cost him a minimum of $50,000 in salaries alone through the years."

Cliff, Pete Brown Capture
Waterloo Golf Tourney

Waterloo—For the first time in Iowa golf history two Negroes placed first and second in the Waterloo Open golf tournament Sunday.

Cliff Brown, touring pro of Nashville, Tenn., won a three-way playoff at Waterloo to win the $2,000 purse first prize, and Pete Brown of Los Angeles, Calif. captured second. Cliff shot a four under par 68 over the course in the final round to tie Pete Brown and Roy Pace. Pace is from Longview, Tex.

To capture the crown, both

Browns and Pace competed in a three-way playoff, during which Cliff eliminated the other two on the third hole.

This was the first playoff to determine the champion in the last 15 years.

Urge School Board
Not to Bus Children

To the Editor:

The School Board plan for "Busing" our children to other schools is objectionable to us. It is deeply felt throughout this entire area that this plan would be disastrous.

We are not in favor of small children, elementary age, walking a greater distance to attend school, when it is not necessary nor constructive.

The Safety Factor alone is too great. No child can or should be expected to negotiate the crossing of several main thoroughfares safely and wisely. It is difficult under normal circumstances, without providing artificial ones. We do not need this added danger to our young children.

The accessibility of schools is a deciding factor in many cases and for a young child to pass one school monial to good neighborliness.

Morgan is coached by Earl Banks, former University of Iowa All-American guard, while astute Eddie Robinson, who leaves little to chance, is the Grambling mentor.

In making the announcement at an elaborate news conference reception held at Toot Shore's, Bill Curtis, manager of market development for P. Ballantine and Sons, and the energizing force behind the contest, pointed out that public awareness and public concern precipitated action and made this historic sports milestone possible.

First

It is the first major attraction featuring Negro college teams in New York City. With civic groups, industry and city officials working in close partnership, efforts are being made to lure 60,000 fans into Yankee Stadium to help underprivileged students who otherwise might be abandoned in hopelessness and despair.

Ernie Green Becomes
Co-Captain of Browns

Hiram, Ohio — Reports say running back Ernie Green has been named as co-captain of the Cleveland Browns.

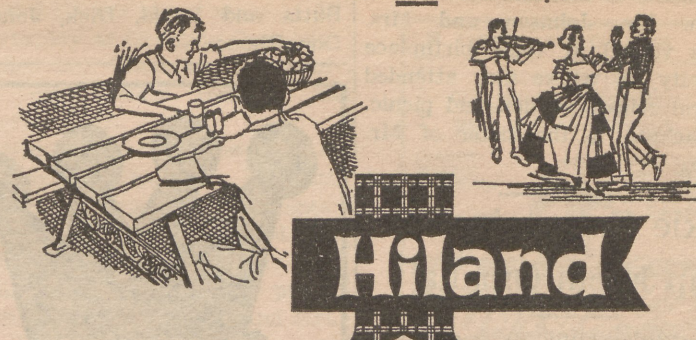

Green was named after two Cleveland NFL veterans were released following a racial incident. The two, John Wooten, Negro, and Ross Fichtner, white had been involved in a ruckus after Fichtner, who holds an annual golfing event, had invited no Negroes to participate from the squad. Fichtner, in defense, said in past years he had invited Negroes but none ever attended.
