John Luther Smith Drowns in DM River

Swimming Across the River Saturday

Funeral services for John L. Smith, 32, of 1210 10th street, were held Tuesday at Community Baptist Church. Smith drowned Saturday, July 27 after he tried to swim across the Des Moines River.

According to a friend, Rod Bruce of 1180 12th street, he and Smith were fishing along the river bank near the city boat ramp on Prospect drive. Although both Bruce and Mrs. Smith tried to talk him out of it, Smith tried to swim across the river, but the current swept him downstream. Bruce jumped in an effort to save his friend, but was unable to reach him in time.

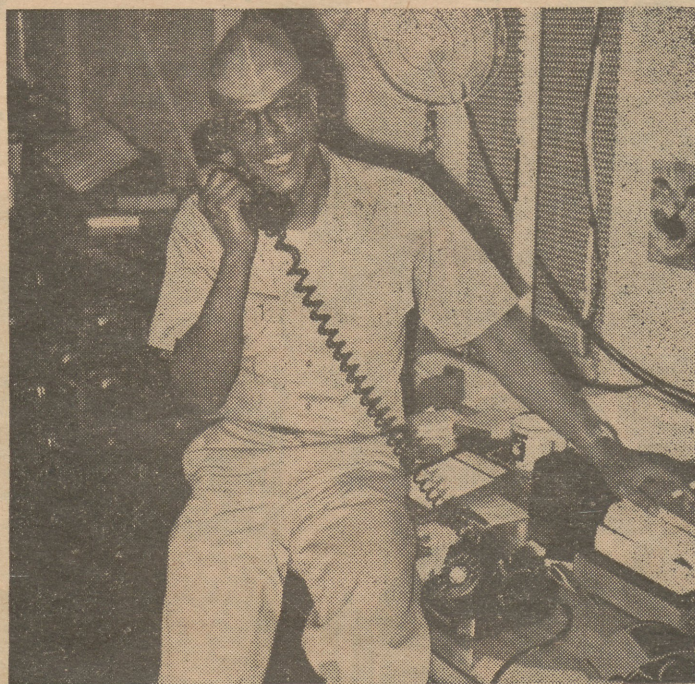

His body was recovered in thirteen feet of water about half an hour later by Officers James Quick and James Beardsley.

Burial will be Friday at Bartlesville, Okla.

A native of Guthrie, Okla., Mr. Smith had lived in Des Moines 15 years. He was a disabled veteran of the Korean War. He was a member

Study Says Citizens Feel Riots Justified

Washington—A majority of ghetto residents in major riot-torn cities believed the civil disorders in their areas were justified and about one fifth of the population in the areas participated in the outbreaks according to three supplemental studies for the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders released.

The two surveys of Negro and white attitudes in 15 American cities and a study of participants in the 1967 disorders in six cities verified the original conclusion of the Commission that "white racism" was the basic cause of the riots, David Ginsberg, executive director of the body, said in releasing the studies.

Rejecting previous beliefs that the riots involved mostly "riffraff" and "outsiders," the independent new reports conclude "our findings for six cities that experienced rioting in 1967 show, however, that about 18 percent of the Negro residents in the riot areas, on the average, participated in the disorders.

Iowa State Fair is Highlighted With Black Exhibition

A new exhibit to complement this year's Iowa State Fair will feature the black man's lesser known contributions to society.

A spokesman for the committee which is building the project said Monday that the theme of the exhibit, which will be located in the grandstand in a very strategic position, is "Black co-builders of America," as related to the black man's contributions to the American dream, depicting many facets of American life which most of this country takes for granted.

Close Ghetto Schools Federal Judge Orders

Indianapolis — The Kokomo, Ind., school board is under order of the U. S. District Court sitting here to submit, by Aug. 5, an acceptable plan to close ghetto schools before September and to provide integrated education for some 300 elementary school children who will be affected.

"Dancing Is Over": Black Tuesday at Coronet

ELEANORA E. TATE

"The dancing is over," declared a black artist Tuesday night under the clouds on the lawn of Coronet Blue. "Why can't you people get together?"

It was Black Tuesday at the Coronet Blue, sponsored by the Black Panthers, Inc. Nearly 200 people with a scattering of whites were crowded into Coronet to hear African music, admire black art in the lobby and within and listen to black poetry readings as done by members of the BP and of the black community.

Then the evening moved outside for a play "The First Militant Preacher," by Ben Caldwell, depicting an Uncle Tom "militant" preacher whose middle class home is in the process of being burglarized as the "preacher" walks in. The burglar is so incensed by the preacher's luxurious furnishings he begins to loud-mouth and the preacher, hearing him, thinks it is God. Through the burglar's ire, the preacher realizes his teachings are antiquated and he becomes a truly "militant" preacher.

As black poetry flowed from the throats of the participants, one hopes the people truly came for the performance and not for another motive, that they really believed in what the actors and poets were trying to get across, and that they were sincere in showing approval by clapping for what was being said, and not merely showing courtesy. At any rate they were there for the first Black Tuesday and even more appeared, undaunted by the sprinkles of rain which began to fall during the remainder of the play.

Proceeds from Black Tuesday will go to the Black Panther Bail Bond Fund and cultural Center Activities, one of which may be an African Festival later in August. The Black Panther Center is located at 1207 11th street, 243-4567.

Harvey Thompson Tries for Police Work

A 30-year-old Des Moines man has decided to become a policeman.

Harvey Thompson, of 1523 McCormick Street, said Monday to the Bystander that he wanted to become a policeman, and had thought about it last year. He took the required written test, but cancelled.

The young man, husband of Rose Thompson and father of two children, said he was optimistic in his hopes to become a policeman, and said he doubted that he would encounter discrimination from fellow policemen in the department.

When asked about police brutality rumors, particularly when it relates to Negroes, Thompson said that having a brother on the force would probably cut down on rumors of police brutality.

Poitier's New Film Lauded By Wilkins

New York — Sidney Poitier's new film, "For Love of Ivy," is hailed by NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins as "excellent entertainment" in his weekly column released to newspapers across the country by the Register and Tribune Syndicate for publication, July 27-28.

"Already," Mr. Wilkins comments, "the white and black intellectuals in and around New York are in a tizzy over his new film. The movie is excellent entertainment. The cast does a very good job, the dialogue is often just what the Negro dreamed ought to be said on the screen and the plot is what every plot is: boy meets girl, boy almost loses girl, boy gets girl. Abbey Lincoln is a sweet and salty domestic and Sidney Poitier is himself — a big, handsome, 'take charge' man."

Rematch in Blues Battle: King, Milt

Chicago—(LDA) — Former blues king and undisputed holder of the crown, B. B. King, succeeded in obtaining a rematch in the town where Little Milton Campbell copped it last September.

This was the first time that Little Milton had made any statement concerning the two-day blues battle which found him, surprisingly, the winner over King, who had never really been challenged before.

Musical Festival In Harlem This Yr.

New York City, N.Y. — "Hollywood in Harlem", presented by the Harlem Cultural Festival is arousing interest in this city by holding Sunday festivals.

Among the noted artists who appeared in Mt. Morris Park are gospel singer Mahalia Jackson; in African music, those scheduled to appear include Miriam Makeba and group, with Diana Sands as hostess and the Miss Harlem finalists. Later in July a Latin and calypso music festival was held.

Aug. 11 holds much promise, for it will feature the soul music festival with Bobby Bland and band, King Curtis, Charlie and Inez Fox, Lou Parks Soul Dancers.

On Aug. 25 a fashion show is in store.

Win Fight for Housing Site; Took Thirteen Years

Newburgh, N.Y. — The Newburgh Branch of the NAACP was told, July 25, that it would soon win its 13-year campaign to obtain a suitable public housing site for poor families displaced by this city's massive downtown urban renewal program.

Samuel A. T. Hodge, branch president, said that the support of New York State's Urban Development Corporation (UDC) had assured that the low income Diebold housing project would be included in a 78-acre Lake Street development area "with or without the City Council."

The Council's decision to build the 100-unit Diebold project in a dense commercial area already containing 125 low income apartments was condemned by Mr. Hodge as "a plan for an instant ghetto." He spoke at an NAACP rally held in the New Hope Baptist Church. The church is temporarily located in a storefront in the renewal area near the Hudson River waterfront of this economically blighted city of 28,000, including 8,000 Negroes and 4,000 Puerto Ricans.

Rocky

The NAACP branch leader said the UDC action came one day after he had requested Governor Nelson Rockefeller to authorize the corporation to bypass the City Council and build the 100 housing units on the vacant city-owned Lake Street property. He added that he hoped the Council would agree to the UDC recommendation at a meeting scheduled for next week, but insisted that the corporation could act without the approval of the local legislative body. The UDC is a multi-billion dollar agency created at the Governor's request this year to redevelop blighted areas in the cities of New York State.

Lawyers Propose Own "Nation" for Negroes

New York — The National Lawyers Guild, America's most progressive bar association, composed entirely of black and white civil rights and civil liberties attorneys, are trying to bring about a separate, black nation in the U.S.

At its 30th convention held in Los Angeles a few days ago, the Guild took two significant steps to make itself more relevant to the Black struggle.

The first step was the election of Milton R. Henry as Vice President of the National Lawyers Guild. Henry is from the Detroit area, one of the ten top criminal lawyers in the nation, and First Vice President of the Republic of New Africa. The Republic of New Africa seeks to end the endless agony of trying to get white America born again—free of racism—by creating a separate nation for Blacks within the confines, of what is now, the southern United States.

The second significant step toward relevance to Black people by the National Lawyers Guild was the undertaking of the task of preparing a legal brief showing the basis in International Law and Constitution for the allocation of land to Black settlers in the southern United States for a Black Nation.

Movies

Sidney Poitier is cutting up the screen again; I'm waiting for the flick which is going to show a black woman in this type of role. Throughout Poitier's movie career he has steadily climbed upward, from a high school gang leader, a guy helping some nuns, a top-notch crime detective, a world renowned doctor to his latest film. He's a great actor; I dig him.

But, The black women in films have been mammies, scrubwomen, and secretaries. The most recent movie I know of with a black woman play-delivering the sermon.

Members of Progressive Baptist Church, which was officially incorporated last May 15, began holding services on May 15, 1966 after a disagreement among members of Davenport's Third Missionary Baptist Church.

Since then services for Progressive Baptist were held at the Nicholson Funeral Home, Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, Bethel A.M.E. 6th and Warren street, temple Emanuel and other facilities.

Rev. Wiseman was installed recently along with the chairman of the board of deacons, Charles Berry and Alfred Garrett, chairman of the board of trustees.

The Senior Choir of Progressive Baptist has as their guests Sunday, 3 p.m. the Inspirational Chorus of Olivet Baptist Church, Rock Island, Ill.

At 4 p.m. an ice cream social was held on the church lawn.

ing a major role is Lena Horne, and she is a salon keeper. Bea Richards in "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" did a magnificent job and was even nominated for an Oscar, and Isabella Sanford, the maid in that movie, was splendid, but she was a maid. Howcum we don't got no black women as female secret agents, (since we are supposed to be so dominating and hold up the family, etc.) or politicians? The most admirable woman to bring black femininity to the equal place of other feminine races is Pearlle Mae Bailey, who showed America that we black women are gentle, loving, witty and fully presentable, in her remarkable portrayal as Dolly in "Hello, Dolly."

In the movie industry's rush to get the black man into the place he has always deserved, it has nearly forgotten the black woman, who

Army Bias: A Progress Report, from 1948-1968

The White House released the following memorandum from Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford to President Lyndon B. Johnson: July 26 marks the 20th anniversary of President Truman's 26 July, 1948, order to desegregate the Armed Forces. The program launched 20 years ago has made extraordinary progress.

Twenty years ago, the Army had 1,306 Negro officers, with only one a colonel. Now there are 5,637, of whom 27 are colonels, and one has been nominated to become a brigadier general.

The Navy in 1948 had only 4 Negro officers, now it has 330. The Marine Corps, which had one Negro officer in 1948, now has 180. In 1948 the Air Force had 310 Negro officers, with one a colonel.

Today it has 2,417, with 19 colonels and a lieutenant general.

There were just 14 Negroes at the Service academies in 1948. Today there are 116, or whom 47 entered as plebes earlier this month.

In the enlisted grades there has been the same kind of heartening break-through in opportunity to advance on merit alone.

For example, Negroes made up 10.7% of all Army enlisted men in 1948 but only 5.7% of the top enlisted grade. In 1968 the overall percentage is 12.1%, but now Negroes make up 13.9% of the grade which corresponds to 1948's top grade.

Equality of treatment and opportunity without regard to color is a fact in the Armed Forces of the United States. For most of our country's history, the opposite unfortunately was the case.

Take Your Medicine

Before marriage a man yearns for a woman. Afterward the "y" is silent.

Reminds me of the three ingredients in the good life: learning, earning and yearning.

An adolescent is a youngster who is old enough to dress himself if he could just remember where he dropped his clothes.

Men are creatures who can wait three hours for fish to bite, but can't wait fifteen minutes for their wives to dress.

Never be depressed — setbacks pave the way for comebacks!

HEALTH FOR ALL

A teenager in Mexico City this April asked a passerby for a cigarette. He will never make that mistake again.

"God gave men noses to breathe with and not to use as chimneys," the passerby shouted. Then he pulled out a pistol and shot the teenager three times. At last report, the boy was in serious condition.

The craving for a cigarette can have disastrous consequences but attempted homicide is not usually one of them. The damage is self-inflicted instead. Smoking, for too many people, is suicide in slow motion.

Smoke

The evidence of self-damage is no longer controversial. The medical facts are in—and doctors know it. Surveys show that 95% of physicians accept the incriminating evidence against cigarette smoking.

WALLACE BRINGS OUT THE RIGHT WING

Former Gov. Wallace of Alabama was in Des Moines last week in furtherance of his campaign for President on a third party ticket. Arriving in a chartered plane, surrounded by a staff and all the news men that go along with such candidates these days, it is easy to see that his campaign is well financed.

The governor reiterated his disclaimer that he is a racist, that he will stop riots in the streets and that communists will be put to riot. A large crowd turned out to hear him.

It is very interesting that a man who has reached his status by failing and or refusing to enforce the law in his own state now comes forward as a champion of law and order. The record of killing Negroes in Alabama, his defiance of U.S. Supreme court orders which finally necessitated calling out the national guard and U.S. army troops, his efforts to stop Negroes from voting and receiving a fair share of the tax money all in his home state make a record which no good citizen should attempt to justify by voting for him.

Then too, we have always had in Des Moines a sizeable right wing population and even further right as typified by the strong hold the Ku Klux Klan had in the 1920's.

Of course, most people believe in law and order, know that our troubles in the streets is done by both races and permissive conduct has been tolerated too much in the name of freedom and free speech.

Naturally, Gov. Wallace will get some votes but we don't believe it will be sufficient to prevent either a Republican or Democrat from being elected. And should he be elected, it would be a sad day in America and a blow to Democratic government.

CARMICHAEL ET AL MAKE VOTES FOR WALLACE

Speaking at Mobile, Alabama last week, Stokely Carmichael to a rally sponsored by the Neighborhood Organized Workers (NOW), Carmichael shouted "Don't pray for power, don't beg for power, take it with a gun barrel."

"Black people are not in a revolution here in the United States, it hasn't started yet," Carmichael said. "We are only at the beginning of a revolution—the armed stage."

"We must create the maximum damage with a minimum of losses of black people. And that is through guerrilla warfare."

Referring to racial uprisings in Watts and Detroit, he praised Negroes who died there and said, "Look at Cleveland two days ago and that was even better wasn't it?"

There is dangerous statements predicated upon the false premise that Negroes are sufficiently armed to cope with the police, national guard and the armed services. They inflame a lot of Negroes who may not have been able to rise above the ghetto, they inculcate in the hearts and minds of little children hate for white people, a sad thing which is evidenced as white people pass their neighborhood; they imply that all white people are in the same class just as he himself complains that many say all Negroes are in the class.

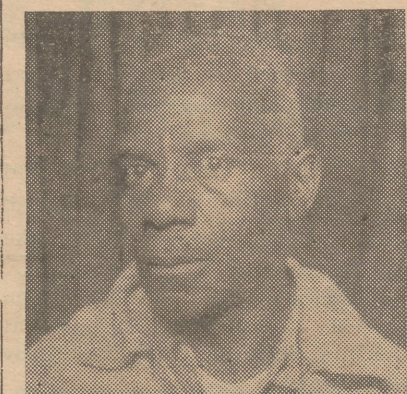

When the late Senator Bilbo of Mississippi conducted his last campaign, he advised white people to shoot to keep Negroes away from the polls. He got elected but when he appeared before the Senate to be confirmed, he was asked to step aside because complaints of his conduct were before that body and time was needed in order to determine what should be done with him.

That shock was so great—he had no idea that a challenge of "the gentlemen from Mississippi" by Negroes would catch up with him—that he became desperately ill and died soon thereafter. He was not seated.

Carmichael's conduct is about as bad as that of the late Senator Gilbo and yet the wild, dangerous purveyors of hate are allowed to go from place to place stirring up trouble.

Speeches such as that of Carmichael make votes for Wallace, poisons the minds of a lot of people and in the long run hurts the cause of the Negro everywhere.

SPORTS Campaign Trail

With Allen Ashby

The 20th annual Hilltop Open Tennis meet gets underway this weekend. We called it the 19th, but were corrected by a fellow who ought to know.

This is the week everything stops while a few of us people watch people swat a little white ball back and forth across a piece of cloth. There have never been very many Negroes in the thing. Maybe this year will get a few more than usual.

We wonder if it is that the meet keeps getting bigger with nearly ninety per cent white players in these troubled times. People who can't come take time to send their regrets and vow to be back next year. So you see the rest have really grown up. This year there will be placed in competition the Harold Holt Memorial trophy for the Men's singles. This is a fine piece of work which must be won three times for permanent possession. Tom McCollum, who used to play junior tennis against the Holt boys Harold and Eddie donated the trophy.

Youth

We have had some junior players who, had they kept playing might have been highly ranked today. The Simmons boy was a fine prospect and might have gone on. Besides, the Holt boys there was the late Freddie Hawkins who had a good game. There were others that we can't recall just now, but our junior program at one time brought results.

But none of the fellows or girls was willing to sacrifice anything for the game and in our book if one didn't do that, he could forget it. But we guess kids don't think like we did. A fellow once said if some of us older players had worked as hard at making money as we did in sports, we could retire now. And he was right.

All of our games: football, tennis, basketball, baseball—required hard work and getting into condition. That meant giving up some things we liked to do.

But maybe the kids know better now. Just play for recreation and don't get too worked up about it. And what about teaching? One fellow said if they aren't willing to sacrifice, he doesn't want to teach them.

Now what brought that on? See you at the Tennis courts over the weekend and don't forget the finals at ood Park Sunday.

The softball teams ought to give the trophy they win to catcher Mat Eubanks. The guy personally accounted for two clutch wins by home runs and helped a lot in the others. If they gave an award for the outstanding player he should win it going away.

Humphrey

Washington, D. C. — Elgin Baylor, the professional basketball superstar, has moved, temporarily, from the athletic court to the political arena to score a few points for Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Baylor, the high-scoring forward of the Los Angeles Lakers, is trying his hand as a member of the Citizens for Humphrey campaign team. The cage star thus joins a squad of champion athletes who are supporting Vice President Humphrey by urging the public to judge public servants — lake sports figures — on the basis of ability and performance.

Dr. Geraldine Woods has been appointed a national co-chairman of Women for Humphrey. The other two co-chairmen are Margaret Truman Daniel, daughter of President Truman and Bess Myerson Grant.

Washington, D. C. — press conference with Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, Diana Ross, lead singer of "Diana Ross and the Supremes", announced her support of his candidacy for President of the United States. This marks the first time in history that a presidential nominee has ever personally shared a major press conference with a star from the world of show business in support of his campaign.

McCarthy

State Representative A. June Franklin, who is running for reelection on the Democratic ticket, was chosen co-chairman of the Polk County McCarthy for President Committee.

A statewide drive to collect the signatures of thousands of Iowa voters pledging their support to Senator Eugene McCarthy was announced Saturday by John Garfield, State Campaign Director for the McCarthy Iowa Campaign.

Schwengel

Washington, D. C. — "Congress is supposed to be a law-making body, especially in the area of crime and law enforcement," Congressman Fred Schwengel said. "It has a responsibility to make certain that the laws for the prevention, control, and punishment of criminal offenders are adequate. This means some laws must be revised and other new ones passed. Therefore, I have sponsored the creation of a permanent Joint Committee on Crime, the Courts, and Law Enforcement which would make continuous investigations into the problems facing our law enforcement system and file annual reports and recommendations with the Congress."

AFI NFI Tangles in Pre-Season Football

New York — Professional football makes its debut in Houston's Astrodome tonight (Thursday), and the AFL's championship Oakland Raiders entertain the Baltimore Colts Saturday night in key games in the first weekend of pre-season AFL competition. The Oilers, slated to play all their home games in the air-conditioned Houston arena, will face the Washington Redskins in one of four inter-league AFL-NFL contests. Others include Baltimore at Oakland and San Francisco at San Diego, Saturday night, and Detroit at Buffalo, Monday night. Cincinnati enters the AFL picture playing host to Kansas City Saturday night.

A total of 2 pre-season contests on an over-all AFL slate of three dozen will be inter-league contests. The "pressure-point" will be used on all inter-league games, with the kick for the extra-point shelved in favor of going for the one-pointer by rushing or passing from the 2-yard line. This replaces the 2-point option play used in 1967 inter-league pre-season competition.

Gives Views on Black Athletes at Iowa St.

On May 20, 1968, the Black Student Organization of Iowa State University presented to the Athletic Council eight grievances which were orientated toward the basic rights of men in our so-called Christian society. The consequence of these grievances not being met would be the withdrawal of the Black students from Iowa State University. Like babbling ill-advised parents, they decided to take a spot-check of the qualms and woes of their boys. But, to their dismay and surprise they found that they must now respond to the Black athlete, who they had been calling "boy" or "Negro", with a new amount of awareness and rationality. The "boys" have come of age!

In a matter of two weeks — a questionable amount of time to adequately study the grievances, the Athletic Council saw fit to make a proclamation the grievances were unjustified.

Obviously the B.S.O. couldn't accept the Athletic Council's decision. In response, the B.S.O. drafted a more detailed explanation of the grievances including some specific examples of prejudice and discriminatory behavior.

Perhaps their unwillingness to delve into the problem at hand is due to the fact that the integrity and ability of an educator is being questioned. This very unwillingness to question the men accused of prejudice, seems to me to be self-evident of guilt.

It is a tragedy to know that some people believe that a racist university has something to offer!
