New Book Out by Pulitzer Winning Gwendolyn Brooks

New York — The first collection of poetry in nearly ten years by Pulitzer Prize winning poet Gwendolyn Brooks, will be published by Harper & Row on Aug. 28.

The long title poem, "In the Mecca," was inspired, says Miss Brooks, by a decaying apartment house in a Chicago slum where she once worked as a secretary-typist.

It describes the reaction, or lack of it, of a cross-section of Negro slum-dwellers to the murder of a small child who lived in the building.

The volume also contains nine shorter poems inspired by contemporary events and circumstances, including one about the murder of Medgar Evers and another about Malcolm X.

Called by many critics "one of America's greatest living poets," Miss Brooks worked for 14 years on the poems in her new collection.

Recently named Poet Laureate for the State of Illinois, succeeding the late Carl Sandburg, Gwendolyn Brooks has published five volumes of poetry and one novel. She is the only Negro to have been awarded the Pulitzer Prize for poetry, which she received in 1950 for "Annie Allen."

Relationships still persist in many subtle and some blatant ways.

Twenty Africans landed in America the year before the Mayflower. By 1860, there were 4 million black men, women and children here.

"One of the facts our broadcast will concentrate on is that wherever there was slavery, there was also resistance. Two boatloads of Africans starved themselves to death rather than enter the country as slaves. There were at least 250 recorded slave revolts in America, the most famous being the Nat Turner revolt. An even more ambitious plan was drawn up by Denmark Vesey. He rounded up 9,000 supporters and intended to capture the city of Charleston but was betrayed before his rebellion could erupt. There are striking parallels between black rebellion then and now, and that is part of the story we will tell."

"The Heritage of Slavery" will show how the past has caused and influenced the present, using graphics and readings from accounts by slaves and slaveowners to capture the quality of life in slavery days.

CBS News Reporter George Foster will interview descendants of plantation owners and present-day black activists to demonstrate the parallels between attitudes under slavery and now.

Perry Wolff is executive producer of "Of Black America."

Charges Louisiana, Mississippi School Boards Delay Ruling

New Orleans, La., August 7.—The NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF) filed appeals in 13 school desegregation cases here yesterday, August 5, in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit through its staff attorney,

NEWS In A Nutshell

Akron, Ohio — A Buchtel High School Graduate, Wilmethe Duke McMillan, is the first recipient of Akron University's Martin Luther King Memorial Scholarship. The announcement was made July 30 by the secretary-treasurer of the King Scholarship committee, Lascelles Anderson, AU assistant professor of economics.

Detroit—Marcellus Ivory, a 52-year-old member of UAW, has been elected director of the union's west side Detroit Region 1A. Elected by union members from the region, he becomes the first Negro to head one of the International Union's 18 geographic regions. As a regional director, he will be responsible for the interests of 74,000 trade unionists in 22 locals, including some 34,000 members of Local 600, the world's largest local union, who are employed at the gigantic Ford Motor Co. River Rouge complex.

New York—"We face a growing possibility that extremists of both races may attempt to influence our nation toward what could almost amount to a civil war," said B'Nai B'rith in a statement on ghetto revolution. "Pragmatic considerations as well as philosophical, moral, and ethical concepts dictate that whatever we say and whatever we do—although possibly it may fail to receive 'popular' acceptance—must nevertheless be said and done."

New York—The American Jewish Committee called on all figures in American public life "to exercise clear-cut moral leadership" by "publicly disassociating themselves" from restricted clubs.

The first group of hard-core unemployed to be hired as full-fledged employees by American Airlines under the National Alliance of Businessmen's "JOBS" program will be reporting for work next week in Chicago and nine other major U.S. cities.

Chicago—Officials of the Office of Economic Opportunity and the head of Chicago's Woodlawn Organization have branded as "misleading" and "exaggerated" reports that the job program for two Southside youth gangs has been abandoned.

Franklin E. White.

The appeals, according to White, seek to have the court overrule several lower courts which have refused to conduct hearings involving attempts by Negroes in Louisiana and Mississippi to implement recent Supreme Court school desegregation rulings.

Need More Time

Lower courts, he said, have refused hearings on the grounds that the Louisiana and Mississippi school boards would not have time to develop school zoning procedures before the coming school year begins. White said, however, that the boards have had since May to develop such plans but have failed to do so.

If the rulings of the lower Courts are allowed to stand, LDF officials contend, the schools will be reopened on the long practiced segregated basis.

This, the officials say, will be in defiance of a recent Supreme Court ruling. That Court stated that if zoning or other methods of assigning pupils would result in more integration than free choice plans now used, such action must be taken.

Rockefeller, Reagan and Nixon Vie for Nomination

Miami, Fla.—Former vice president Richard M. Nixon won a resounding victory Wednesday night at the national Republican Convention as he was nominated as candidate for the presidency.

Nixon captured 680 delegate votes on the first ballot, as he had first predicted he would do, though as the convention continued up until Wednesday he forecast he would win on an early ballot.

Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, called by many the only Republican Negroes would vote for, polled only 296 delegate votes.

Iowa delegates gave Nixon 13, Gov. Rockefeller 8 and the other major or minor contender, California Gov. Ronald Reagan 3.

As of Wednesday night, Nixon had not formally named his running mate, but is expected to Thursday.

Abernathy, who with 1000 members of the Poor People's campaign, who had come to Miami to urge nomination of a progressive candidate, said that the Party must nominate a candidate like Gov. Rockefeller if the G.O.P. is to win back the Negro voter.

Of the three candidates, the Associated Press tabulation as of Wednesday stood: Nixon 613; Rockefeller 272; Reagan 176; Favorite sons 195; John V. Lindsay 1; Uncommitted 76. Needed for nomination: 667.

Rights

On civil rights, the Convention was called upon to support "a social and economic bill of rights," and "to pledge itself to vigorous enforcement of existing civil rights laws; full

Rev. Abernathy Speaks To Miami Rioters

The NBC interrupted its regular broadcast of the Republican National Convention to give Rev. Abernathy an opportunity to appeal to the rioters and looters in Miami to refrain from violence and looting which was going on at the time. He reminded them that rioters were cowards and would add nothing to the solution of the race struggle today.

funding of the agencies responsible for administering such laws; and the broadest possible application of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, in order to speed desegregation in schools, housing, hospitals and other publicly-supported facilities."

The goal, Roy Wilkins said, "can be achieved only by a social and economic bill of rights that will guarantee to every American as a matter of right:

"(a) Useful employment at adequate wages for all who are employable or who can be made so by training or retraining;

"(b) Income sufficient to permit those unable to work to live in dignity and self-respect;

"(c) A decent place to live;

"(d) Education to the limit of his capacities;

"(e) Adequate medical care in health, illness and disability at a cost he can afford."

The convention was marred by a heart attack of former President Dwight Eisenhower, his third in just over three months, at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington.

The hospital said the 77-year-old five-star general had an attack of chest pains at 6:15 a.m. after a restful night.

Brooke

In another irony, Sen. Edward W. Brooke of Massachusetts turned down a dinner engagement with Sen. Everett Dirksen. Brooke, who said he regretted the incident, stated to newsmen that the hotel in which the dinner was scheduled Monday evening, discriminated against Negroes, and that he would not patronize any place that did. He later addressed the convention.

Dallas Plan to Hurt Wallace During Am. Party Convention?

Dallas, Tex. — SNICK (Student Nonviolent Co-ordinating Committee) is reported to be preparing for a violent demonstration when George Wallace of Alabama holds his American Party national convention in Dallas during the month of September, according to a story in the Chicago Daily Defender.

This is scheduled to be a follow-up of Wallace's convention in Ft. Worth where an expose of the demonstration plans caused Wallace to cancel his personal appearance.

E. McMillan, head of the Dallas SNICK, has been jailed, and an aid of McMillan said plans for the anti-Wallace demonstration are being guarded from exposure, but that Dallas could expect a demonstration that would shake the local race situation beyond imagination.

When asked, the story goes on, if plans were in the making to do Wallace personal bodily harm, the informant said, "The assassination of Dr. King, Sen. Kennedy and the support of localities to exploiting white firms in the Negro areas deserve retaliation, since Dallas is famous for violent actions undesirable . . . so we feel anything we do to 'stop Wallace will be in order."

Townsend

Arthur Townsend, a Republican candidate for Polk County sheriff, said that he will seek election on a platform calling for elimination of the sheriff's office and creation of a single "metropolitan police force" to serve the entire county.

Townsend said, if elected he will request state legislation to permit combination of the sheriff's office with police departments in Des Moines and other cities in Polk County.

The county-wide law enforcement agency created by such a reorganization could be directed, Townsend said, by a police commissioner who would coordinate the activities of all personnel.

Stanley

State Senator David Stanley, Republican candidate for United States Senator, will be in Polk County on Wednesday, Aug. 14. At 2 p.m., Stanley will speak at a coffee to be given in his honor by Mrs. Richard Hunt of Des Moines. At 6:30 p.m., Stanley will be the guest on "People's Press Conference" on KRNT-TV.

Johnson

Washington, D. C. (Special) — President Lyndon B. Johnson won a rousing, standing ovation from the nation's Negro lawyers Thursday as he outlined recent Negro advancement at the annual banquet of the National Bar Association in convention here.

The President cited the record and declared: "We will match our record with any people—any time in history."

Thieves Break-in Kay's Lounge

Thieves entered Kay's Lounge, a tavern at 1208 University ave., Wednesday morning in a burglary in which $125, liquor valued at $550, 14 cases of beer and about 40 cartons of cigarettes were stolen, police reported.

Officers said the burglars entered the tavern by a hole in the roof and pushed a truck owned by the tavern against the side of the building, climbed from the truck on to the roof and cut the hole with a saw.

After descending into the tavern, police said, the burglars removed the money from a cooler and lifted the merchandise through the hole in the roof by standing on beer kegs.

The Black Panthers, Inc. can put the Afro pieces together, and all the performers socked it to the "friends, enemies, Negroes, black people and colored brothers" last Tuesday night. A spokesman for the BP suggested that my idea of not highlighting individual performers was a good idea, for any organization should be a total working force and not any single one or four or five given all the limelight. (Just to clear up to some of you why there were no names mentioned in the BP story last week.) The evening was not a social event, it was a time of telling and revealing, and as a first for DM, it should open some eyes. Contributions to the BP's bail bond fund and for the hopeful African Festival can be sent to Black Panthers, 1207 11th street.

GO GONE

A BP spokesman related to me the problems arising when they sought to have funds ($1,000) for the Festival, requested GO of the CAP Executive Committee. GO the spokesman said, in turn, questioned the validity of the organization, if BP planned to overthrow the government, whether it was politically inspired, questioned the secret nature of BP and its connection with the national Black Planters. The letter of refusal said there was no identifying accounting method for funds, and wished to know the full purpose of the BP program. The letter, the spokesman said, mentioned "strong disagreement by the black community concerning the proposal". The spokesman said the letter sent to the BP was not signed. "If," the spokesman questioned, "the Secretary of State can incorporate us, I don't see why they (GO) question the validity."

In the olden days, 2 plus 2 was always four and everyone believed it. Now, suddenly, according to new math, 2 plus 2 may or may not be four, and there is more than one way to arrive at the answer. The kids are learning this in school, and not too many people are fussing. But. When changes in reaching a goal which is close to home, like human equality, is attempted, all sorts of alarm arises. I would think that being truly called a man or a woman is more important than finding out the sum of 2 and 2 in six different, abstract ways. If kids come out of school calling a "man" a "boy", but can cipher like everything and not know which is more important, we have fallen somewhere.

Take it slow and . . .

But the scientists need our help. For the enforcement of laws now in effect and the support of laws still to be written, all of us share active responsibility. That's the necessary price to be paid for fending off a grave threat to health. It doesn't come easy, and it doesn't come free.

DES MOINES' BLACK PANTHERS on Black Tuesday, July 30, drew a large, enthusiastic gathering at Dibrell Sneed's Coronet Bleu, a perfect setting for the evening's program and very fine art exhibit. Program participants, members and guests were exciting in their African hair styles and garb. Mary Rhen, Regina Richardson and Rose Robinson wore beautiful African hair styles. Jackie Taylor was lovely in African drape style, off the shoulder dress and matching turban, and African necklace. Mike Harris in African robe, Willie Bruce, Archie Moore in Danshiki shirts, Carl Robinson in matching shirt and turban—all so handsome. Sure their hair was worn in natural styles. Among the exhibitors were Charles Boston, now in service, Jerry Burrell, of Western Tool; Thomas and Alice Rowland—Tommy is busy filling orders for his work! Serviceman Rozenting Hardaway's pretty and talented bride, "Carolyn" was a splendid performer as was Rose Robinson and Regina Richardson. Naturally Charles Knox and Jim Dunn supported by loyal members such as Danny Hall were in the forefront! In spite of the breakdown of the air conditioner Mutual of Omaha Insurance agent, James Tucker, consented to a brief interview. He is a businessman interested in his town's people—all of them! To my questions he replied "there was merit to much of the show—we agreed that neither of us appreciated extremists. He "thinks a lot of people don't understand what the problem is—that many people have been beat down all of their lives." "Many nationalities are not easily recognizable "as is true with our group. "So for someone wanting to group persons, this is easily done!" As with the rest of us, he found much to enjoy. Sneed's invitation that the show could be completed on the lawn heightened the evening's pleasure.

PAM SUDHEIMER (Mrs. Louis C.) and her husband were feted Saturday night by a farewell party given by the Lenford L. Links (she is Artist Nancy Samcoe). Pam, well-

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Should every woman be a blonde?

Blonde hair is beautiful for those women whose natural coloring it flatters. But not everyone should be a blonde.

Expert beauticians know that complexion and hair color must complement each other to glamorize and bring out all the natural beauty that was meant to be. They also know that very coarse and dark hair often is resistant to drastic color changes. However, there's no doubt about slightly lighter hair adding excitement to a woman's appearance. And hairdressers know there is no better product to add a whole new appeal to every woman's look than Miss Clairol® haircoloring—extra rich Creme Formula or new extra easy Shampoo Formula.

Both Miss Clairol products lighten and color at once, combining vibrant new color with the natural pigment of the hair. So even those shades that look blonde on white hair (as shown on most color selection charts) give a variety of flattering red-to-golden brown shades on women whose hair was black to begin with.

Beauty salons are equipped to answer questions and help with hair color selection. Depend on your hairdresser to have the professional skills and the total family of fine Clairol products to make every woman's experience with haircoloring completely personal and glamorous. Should you be a blonde? If you don't really know, ask your expert hairdresser.

LEMON ICED TEA BRACER—A REAL THIRST QUENCHER

WHO hasn't wished, at one time or another, for a drink that would really quench a thirst! Try this recipe for a Lemon Iced Tea Bracer and you'll never have to worry about a drink that really relieves that parched, seemingly insatiable thirst. Make a lemonade mix, according to your favorite lemonade recipe, or dilute a 6-ounce can of frozen lemonade concentrate according to can directions. Pour into ice cube trays and freeze. If you use fresh lemons, put a thin slice of lemon rind in each ice cube before freezing. Prepare iced tea according to the new open saucepan method by bringing 1 quart of water to a full, rolling boil. Remove from heat. Immediately add 6 tablespoons of tea (3 teabags equal 1 tablespoon of tea). Brew 2-5 minutes, depending on how strong you like iced tea. Stir and strain into a pitcher or container of cold water. These measurements make about 2 quarts of iced tea. To serve, add 1-2 lemon ice cubes in tall glasses and fill with tea. A sprig of mint on top will add eye-appeal—and note, too, how the frosty glasses make the iced tea look and taste better—to help quench that thirst!

Lemon Ice Cubes

Thin strips of lemon rind
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 cups water

Cut thin strips of lemon rind into 1-inch lengths. Prepare 1 for each ice cube.

Mix lemon juice and water. (Some ice cube trays may hold more liquid. If so, increase the amount of lemon juice and water.) Pour liquid into ice cube trays. Place a piece of lemon peel in each cube section. Freeze solid. Serve 1-2 lemon and 1-2 regular ice cubes with each glass of iced tea.

Note: Lemon and water may be sweetened to taste before freezing if desired.

FOOLISH PLAY BY LAWYERS' GUILD

The National Lawyers Guild, composed of white and Negro civil rights and progressive lawyers, have given its blessing to a new Negro state. They propose that it be carved out of land "rightfully owned by but denied Negroes in southern states" and are in the process of preparing legal briefs in international and constitutional law to substantiate the claim.

It seems preposterous that a group of lawyers would attempt to encourage Negroes to expect any such an arrangement, particularly since they want someone else to finance it or make some phony claim which they have no chance of bringing to successful fruition.

Just how they think that an owner of a real estate project or farm or a ranch or plantation would give up his land hoping that "maybe either Congress or somebody out of the clouds" would reimburse him is more than rational people should propose.

Many Negroes left the farms and towns in the south expecting to find a Utopia in the north only to land on relief secured to them by politicians in return for their vote.

Many have broken out of the ghettos and made good citizens supporting their families and educating their children. They are not going to be lured by any such fantastic dream of a Negro state which has no chance to become a reality.

IOWA STATE AND NEGRO ATHLETES

The public has watched with interest what dissatisfied Negro students at Iowa State University would do as the deadline for meeting their demands to the athletic council came on August 1. It appears that two football players, Willie Muldrew and Don Graves, were among the seven Negro students who asked school registrar Fred Schlunz for withdrawal slips Friday are far less than 23 as was originally stated.

Two of the demands made by the Black Student Organization were met; a Negro counselor was named and hereafter they will be referred to as black students. Courses in Negro history and achievement are to be instituted. Living off the campus was taken under advisement. The demand for the hiring of a Negro football coach immediately was denied. True, a coach should have a free hand in selecting his assistants, but we believe the school might well establish a policy that a Negro coach would be hired at the next opening.

Two of the demands we considered frivolous referring to them as black and living off the campus.

The hiring of a Negro football coach would have had a chance had they placed a future limitation date rather than immediately unless a vacancy existed.

In a letter to the school last week, Representative A. June Franklin of Des Moines leveled several charges of uncivil conduct against the school and townspeople which are brought up for the first time. Just why the Black Student Organization did not raise these serious issues, if true, in their original complaint is difficult to understand.

A group from Des Moines working with professors and students thirty years ago succeeded in securing admittance of Negro students to the dormitories. Now these youngsters want to go back to what their fathers and friends fought to eliminate.

Some called attention that most Negro athletes had not graduated and thus the school only used them to boost their athletic program. Maybe so, but any student who remains at Ames four years gets something even though he does not graduate, something he could not have brought from home because of poor opportunity and early training. While students attend school to get an education, it is no more harmful for some to go to perfect than skill as athletes than for girls to find husbands.

Undoubtedly the Black Student Organization has done some good. It should profit by the mistakes of the past and work to secure other substantial demands which have a bearing on their education. It can be done.

THE IOWA STATE FAIR, 1968

The Annual Iowa State Fair is to be held in Des Moines August 16 to 25—a bit earlier than in past years. Originally a farm and homemakers display with the carnival touch added, the affair has grown into an exposition.

The fair is a fine educational project which city people pass up all too often. It is an excellent outing for the youngsters and a place for visiting friends to get a real look at what Iowa produces and can do.

In recent years, it has taken on new life. Attendance has been greater and entertainment offered which is well worth the admission price.

With Allen Ashby

The Hilltop Tennis meet really got off to a swell start. We would have all the matches down to the finals by Saturday night. Then what happened? We had a semi-final singles match that lasted about two days, a quarter final doubles match that lasted all afternoon and our schedule was shot full of holes.

The junior events went off great except that an 18 year old doubles match got lost and hasn't been played yet. Mr. Morrow's two boys did all right. Mark won the boys 14-year-old title and teamed up with his brother, Harold, to win the doubles honors in that bracket. This was the first time in the history of the meet that any of our guys really took over a decision in the boys matches.

Boxer Emile Griffith Wins
Over "Gypsy" Harris

Philadelphia, Pa.—Former middle-weight champion Emile Griffith ended Gypsy Joe Harris' unbeaten streak with a unanimous 12-round decision Tuesday night at the Spectrum.

Griffith, 29, a slight underdog, won easily as he pounded the Philadelphia repeatedly with a left jab and a long right that several times staggered Harris.

For the boys-sixteen-it was Chuck Hemminger and Jeff Cobb winning the doubles and then they played for the singles crown with Hemminger winning. The girls events were dominated by a pair of sisters, the Gerder girls who won both the fourteen singles and doubles titles.

The fun came in the adult matches. Our men's singles crown went by default to a gentleman who was presented the Harold Holt Memorial trophy by Holt's mother, Mrs. Evelyn Holt. Arden Stokstad had to default when he fell a victim to the twenty-four hour flu. Then the men's doubles final was rained out and the rest of the matches were played Sunday between rain showers.

Stokstad had to default his doubles semifinal match also and Bill Rompf and Mike Schrier seemed headed for an easy win over Harold and Tom McCollum when the McCollums suddenly got tough and tied up the match. Then came the rains

Judge Nat Lopinson scored it 56-53, judge Dave Beloff 58-51, and referee Pete Tamasco 58-53, all for Griffith.

Harris, who had to sweat off two pounds Tuesday afternoon before making weight (160), was outclassed by Griffith, who three times has been welterweight champion and twice held the middleweight crown.

again. So the match will be played later.

Esther Myers didn't want to play women's singles but got in so there would be a bracket. Well, she got to the finals. A strong determined Kim Heedson was too much for Esther who lost 11-9, 6-3. Miss Heedson teamed with Jack Beese and lost the mixed doubles trophies to a Mason City pair, Howard Sprague and Nessen. Sprague also won the veterans singles crown by beating Harold McCollum.

The thing was handled by Cecil Brewton, Mrs. Myers and yours truly. What happened to everyone else we don't know and Cecil is as mad as a wet hen. We had some line callers on Sunday, but that was it. It was still a great meet, rain and all.

Ithaca, N.Y.—Several Negro coeds at Cornell University who say they have encountered hostility in the school's regular dormitories will be given special housing, the University says.

To the Editor—

I have a few thoughts to leave with you before I depart this community to begin another year in school.

Many changes have come about in a short span of four years. We are a part of one of the greatest humanizing revolutions to take place in world history. We are opening avenues that the Negro thought could never exist. We have the opportunity to do things our parents never before dreamed of. But we should not stop here. We should never allow ourselves to become idle as some in the past movements.

During my recent trip overseas I met and talked with fellow brother and sister Africans, West Indians and American Negroes — they cannot understand why we allow ourselves to become deprived. I met Negro men who are in every occupation imaginable and who are respected because they had the courage and fortitude to make a way.

MISS ROBINSON

We too can achieve — we know what to do and we know how to achieve our goals. We cannot afford to slip back. And remember once you make it, turn around and help another. Let us, each one, examine our own selves and reaffirm our faith and belief and come out fighting. We can do it.
