Receive Service Awards From Veterans Adminis.

Nine Youth Opportunity Campaign employees have received Special Service Awards at the Veterans Administration Hospital for their exceptional work as summer student aids.

Each youth was recommended by his respective division or service chief and received a cash award of $15, plus a Special Service Certificate enclosed in a paper weight.

The awards were presented for the express purpose of recognizing those youngsters who have contributed far more than what was expected of them in their everyday tasks.

Division

The nine youths and their respective divisions are as follows: Sorter, Supply Division; Misses Williams and Daye, Administrative Division; Duncan and Turner, Dietetics; White, Personnel Division; Webb-Bey and Higgins, Building Management Division, and Miss Baker, Nursing Service.

Other YOC's in the Veterans Administration this summer are in such divisions as Finance, Loan Guaranty, Engineering, Chief Attorney and Laboratory.

E. W. Christensen, Veterans Administration Center Director who presented the awards, said that some of the YOC's began work in the VA as early as June 5 and will continue to work until September 30th. He said there is a possibility that some may convert to the "Stay-in-School" program during the year. This program provides that a student may work up to 16 hours at $1.60 per hour while maintaining adequate grades.

Christensen said that before taxes one YOC youth may earn as much as $1,024 during the summer. He said the majority will average about $750.

Bud Biliken Day Hosts Florence Ballard, Gregory, Mohammed

An enthusiastic crowd estimated at comprising over half a million people jammed the streets of Chicago Aug. 10 to cheer and applaud popular Detroit vocalist Florence Ballard as she headlined the Windy City's 39th annual Bud Biliken Day Parade. The largest of its kind to be held in any Black community in America, it is sponsored by the Chicago Defender Charities Inc., and was keyed to the theme of "Black Heroes of Illinois' Sesquicentennial."

Celebrities

Other celebrities participating in the parade were comedian Godfrey Cambridge, actor Don Mitchell of NBC-TV's "Ironside" show, Dick Gregory, Abbey Lincoln (Sidney Poitier's co-star in "For Love of Ivy") and husband, drummer Max Roach, top rated jazzman Julian "Cannonball" Adderley, the Impressions and Mohammed Ali. Many civic dignitaries and state officials also took part in the parade, including Chicago's Mayor Richard J. Daley and Illinois Governor Samuel Shapiro, both having earlier issued official proclamations in honor of Bud Biliken Day.

Stan's Record Shop Picketed in Bias

Shreveport, La. — Actor Ossie Davis has praised "the courage, the determination, and the unbreachable discipline" of the local NAACP and its Youth Council in connection with a selective buying campaign affecting several local, white-owned businesses.

In a letter addressed to Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive director, Mr. Davis pointed out that "two substantial victories have occurred in the space of one week." One was referring to Stan's Record Shop, "a local business with national impact."

The NAACP action started the early part of June when Stan's Record Shop began to sell a racially offensive record entitled "Kajun Ku Klux Klan," which contained such words as "nigger," "nigger-con," and "jiggerboo." It is estimated that 80 per cent of the record shop clientele is black.

Picket lines have been withdrawn from Stan's Record Shop, but continued at other establishments. Last week, Stan's agreed to hire five black employees, three of whom were placed as sales clerks and two as stock and shipping clerks.

The story is entitled, "In the Far Away Country of Montgomery, Alabama." Mrs. Lomax is assistant editor of The San Francisco Post and The Oakland Post, Negro weeklies published in Berkeley, Calif., the first Willie Award winner and formerly published her own newspaper, the Los Angeles Tribune, for 19 years.

Medford, Mass. — Five Negro disadvantaged students who might never have had the opportunity for medical training under conventional medical school admissions procedures have just been admitted to the freshman class at Tufts University School of Medicine, Dean William F. Maloney announced.

Ottumwa Coed Wins National Scholarship

New York — Five new scholarships, supported by the Dionne Warwick Scholarship Fund, were among those announced last Monday by Hugh W. Lane, the newly installed president of the National Scholarship Service and Fund for Negro Students.

This year the 345 NSSFNS scholars will attend 192 American colleges. They come from 256 high schools and 29 states of the United States. Each qualified for college admission and financial aid from the colleges' own resources. NSSFNS fills the gap between the college's cost and the financial aid package which includes scholarships, loan and job to family contribution and the student's own summer earnings.

Winner of the Caterpillar Foundation Scholarship of NSSFNS is Marilyn C. McKinney, of 604 Taylor Street, a graduate of Ottumwa High, Ottumwa. She will attend Central College.

Vote to Throw Out Old Guard Miss. Delegation

Chicago, Ill. — The Mississippi Democratic delegation to the Democratic National Convention has been thrown out, and a bi-racial delegation seated.

White and Negro Mississippians had formed the coalition of the "Loyal Democrats of Mississippi" to challenge the credentials of the Mississippi delegation.

The coalition is composed of six state organizations—the state branch of the NAACP, Freedom Democratic Party, Young Democrats, Prince Hall Masons, Mississippi Teachers Association and Mississippi State AFL-CIO.

Chairman of the Loyal Democrats is Dr. Aaron Henry, a 46-year-old pharmacist from Clarksdale, Miss., who is also state chairman of the NAACP. The vice chairman is Hodding Carter III publisher of the Greenville, Miss. Delta Democrat-Times and chairman of the State Young Democrats. Charles Evers, NAACP field secretary and recent candidate for Congress is serving as one of the co-ordinators for the campaign.

YMCA Urged to Admit 28 Miss. Negroes

New York — The national office of the Young Men's Christian Association was urged Aug. 17 to correct the discriminatory practices of its downtown Jackson, Mississippi, branch.

Gloster B. Current, director of NAACP branches and field administration, said that the Jackson unit had not acted on applications for

The vote was 84-10 to seat the Loyal Democrats.

Henry stated earlier that they intended to choose a delegation representative of all the people of Mississippi, and that "if we can find the funds to transport this delegation to Chicago on Aug. 28 to challenge the delegation handpicked by the white power structure of the state."

Refused

Henry said they would charge that Negroes in the state had been discriminated against by being refused their right to participate in the Democratic primaries of the regular Mississippi party, with the charge documented with affidavits from Negroes in more than 30 counties representing more than 20,000 Negro voters.

More than 40 per cent of the population of Mississippi is Negro, and of these more than 240,000 are registered to vote, a tenfold increase since 1965, Henry said. "Yet only two out of a possible total of 66 delegates chosen for the regular convention are Negroes."

membership filed six weeks ago by 28 Jackson Negroes.

In a letter to Leo B. Marsh, assistant executive director of the National YMCA, Mr. Current said that "the Negro YMCA in Jackson is located in a house and has no facilities nor programmatic activities comparable to the downtown YMCA."

Evers criticized the National YMCA board's policy of granting complete autonomy to its local branches on racial policies and the efforts of a YMCA field representative to resolve the issue.

Form Black Americans For Sen. Eugene McCarthy

Formation of an Iowa Chapter of Black Americans for McCarthy was announced by John Garfield, Senator McCarthy's Iowa Campaign Director. The National organization was conceived two days after the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy, and has concerned itself with countering the lack of involvement of Black America in the 1968 Presidential campaign.

On July 3, 1968, BAM issued the following statement in regard to Senator Eugene McCarthy: "We as concerned Black Americans have strongly united to support a presidential candidate who we feel is not only the last choice for liberty of Black Americans, but for all Americans."

Founding members of the Iowa Chapter are:

Mrs. A. June Franklin; Silas Ewing; Robert A. Wright; Dr. Stanley Griffin; Mrs. Edna Griffin; Louis C. Riffe; Homer McQueen, all of Des Moines; Mrs. Helen Lemme, Iowa City; Mrs. Lily Furgerson, Waterloo; Marion Williams, Des Moines; Lee Furgerson, Ames; and William Cribbs, Davenport.

In commenting on the formation of the Iowa group of Black leaders, Garfield said, "Eugene McCarthy has recognized that it takes more than laws on the statute books to alleviate the desperate social and economic conditions of so many Black Americans. As Martin Luther King understood, the only answer to riots, injustice, and despair is to change conditions in order to open the way for hope and progress. Eugene McCarthy understands these things and can provide the quiet but determined leadership which will encourage Americans to look into their own hearts, then the hearts of their neighbors and find a new direction for America."

Poor's Complaints To U.S. Offices

Washington, D.C. — The U.S. Office of Education announced Thursday, Aug. 15, that its Office of Programs for the Disadvantaged had been designated to receive and process suggestions and complaints of poor people about the operation of Federal education programs.

"I am making this designation," said U. S. Education Commissioner Harold Howe II, "because I hope it will help the Office of Education continue a dialog we began early in the summer, when we met with other agencies of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare to hear the demands of representatives of the Poor People's Campaign."

On the Campaign Trail

Demos

Mrs. William J. Clinton of Des Moines is one of the 52 delegates from Iowa to the Democratic National Convention which opens in Chicago next Monday. In addition to the delegates, Iowa will have 44 individuals serving as alternates who could serve as a delegate in the event that any of the elected delegates are unable to attend.

Mrs. Clinton, a child development social worker, has been active in the Democratic Party of Iowa for 8 years but has never participated in a national convention. She has served the Party as a precinct committeewoman.

Mrs. Clinton presently serves as secretary of the John F. Kennedy Club, and is on the Board of Directors for the New Frontier Club.

Washington, D.C. — To date 53 Negro delegates have been assigned to various committees of the Democratic Convention, according to reports from the chairmen of delegations from 24 states, the District of Columbia, the Virgin Islands and the Canal Zone.

On the key Credentials Committee headed by Governor Richard Hughes of New Jersey, 11 Negro delegates have been assigned thus far. The Credentials Committee will begin hearings on the contesting delegations in Chicago on Monday, August 19.

The total number of black delegates to the Democratic Convention is 13, with 177 listed as delegates and 136 as alternates. From the 11 states of the Old South there are 48 delegates and 57 alternates with Texas leading, listing six delegates and 11 alternates and Louisiana following, with nine delegates and four alternates.

Nereim

Candidate for U. S. Senator, Robert L. Nereim, Democrat, Des Moines, in a speech last weekend at Oskaloosa, attended by 150 Democrats, Nereim said "I have always stood for elimination of the Right to Work Law and I see less reason for it today as the laboring man and woman continue to fight for their fair share of this rich nation's increasing economy."

Nereim challenged Governor Hughes "to put his acts where his words used to be" and to read what has been in the Democratic platform and, if he is going to run on it, work for all of it.

Schwengel

Marengo, Ia. — First District Congressman Fred Schwengel said Aug. 21 that the 90th Congress has "taken several constructive steps aimed at reducing the crime rate."

Speaking to the Marengo Kiwanis Club here, Schwengel commented, "Republican leadership has provided the impetus for meaningful legislation. The Anti-Crime Bill provided funds for programs administered by state and local governments to control juvenile delinquency and crime. The Democratic Administration had proposed that these funds be controlled by the U.S. Attorney General in Washington."

Franzenburg

On Tuesday, Aug. 12: Paul Franzenburg, Candidate for Governor, Democrat, held a press conference in Davenport to unveil a major campaign proposal to take advantage of the desire of Iowa youth for summer employment to meet the critical shortage of help in maintenance and development of overburdened conservation and recreation areas. The plan calls for a legislative appropriation to the Manpower Development Council. The council would also compile a list of projects needing attention from the State Conservation Commission, county conservation commissions, cities and other local government. The list of projects would be sent to groups interested in providing summer employment for 14 to 21 year olds.

Those groups would raise local matching funds and select projects appropriate for the youth to do, such as cleaning windfall, developing additional campsites, cleaning recreational areas and so forth. In turn, county and state employees would be freed from tasks that the youth could accomplish.

Peace and Freedom Party Nominates Panther El. Cleaver for President

The Iowa Peace and Freedom Party met in convention in Des Moines on Aug. 10 and 11. Representatives were present from the Iowa City Peace and Freedom Club, the Des Moines Black Panther Party, the Des Moines Welfare Rights Organization, and the U. S. and Iowa Farmers Association. The convention adopted a platform including planks advocating immediate U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam, support for black liberation and for the program of the Black Panther Party. It called for the construction of a society based on democratic participation in, and control of, American institutions by the people themselves, rather than by the ruling class.

Calling for increasing farm price supports to 90% of parity, the Iowa Peace and Freedom Party endorsed a system of democratic control of farm prices by elected farmers' representatives acting in conjunction with the Federal Government. The convention voiced support of the Welfare Rights Organization of Des Moines in its struggle against the present inhuman and poverty-perpetuating welfare system.

The Party believes electoral action is valid only in a context including political organizing and education, direct action, and other non-electoral forms of political action and expression. In keeping with this belief, the Iowa Peace and Freedom Party nominated Eldridge Cleaver, Black Panther Party (California) Minister of Information, as its can-

Police Blotter

Two shootings occurred in the city over the weekend, that of James West and of James Huntley.

Candis Williams, 28, of 1244 16th Street was accused of shooting Huntley, of 1309 DeWolf Street early Saturday morning. Williams was charged with assault with intent to commit murder. Penalty for this is not to exceed thirty years.

Police say Williams was arrested at the Little Sepia tavern at 1751 University, and Williams told police he had shot Huntley. Williams had reportedly been in an argument with Huntley Friday night.

Huntley was shot once by a hand gun, in his right side.

Mrs. Ethel West, of 1348 Stewart Street, was charged with investigation Saturday after James D. West of 1054 11th Street was shot in the right side of his chest. A .32 caliber weapon was found. West was shot at the eastside address.

In today's pop music world, the equivalent of the Good Housekeeping Seal of Approval is for a performer to earn the stamp of approval of Aretha Franklin, The Queen of Soul. Discovered and managed by Ted White, the husband and manager of Aretha Franklin, the DYNAMICS have a new record, "Ain't No Sun", which has just been released on the hot new Atlantic Records subsidiary label: Cotillion Records.

"Ain't No Sun" was written by Detroit songwriters Norman Whitfield and Sylvia Moy. Whitfield has written several hit tunes for the Temptations and Gladys Knight and the Pips, and Miss Moy's material has been successfully recorded by Stevie Wonder. The flip side of the record was written by Ronny Shannon, who wrote Aretha's first hit, "I Never Loved A Man The Way I Love You". The record was produced by Chips Moman and Tommy Coghill of Memphis.

The members of the Dynamics are: George White, Fred "Sunny" Baker, Samuel David Stevenson and Isiah Zeke Harris; all Detroiters, and all in their middle 20's.

The musical background of the Dynamics is essentially the same as that of Miss Franklin, each having begun to sing in church choirs. In fact, pop music fans were quick to note that the Dynamics musical interpretations and renditions are strongly influenced by those of Miss Franklin.

Fasten Tools for Safety
HOW to keep tools secure while they rest on top of a step-ladder is shown in the illustration, reproduced through courtesy of American Builder, authoritative magazine for the building industry. Fasten a piece of old inner-tube as shown.

● Slip tools under the band, which will prevent them from falling off. Also, both hands will be free when moving the ladder, and there will be no need to put down the tools every time a move is made.

Old Favorite With A New Flavor

HERE IS A DELIGHTFULLY DIFFERENT VERSION of plum pudding... the traditionally perfect dessert for festive holiday meals.

According to home economists at The R. T. French Company, the key to its flavor, texture, and speedy preparation is instant mashed potato right out of the box.

PLUM PUDDING

1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 envelope (1/2 cup) instant mashed potato
1 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup walnuts, chopped
2/3 cup candied fruit and peel mix, finely chopped

1 cup raisins
3/4 cup shortening
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1 cup brown sugar, packed
2 eggs
1 cup grated raw carrot
1/4 cup milk

Sift together flour, instant potato, baking soda and salt. Combine nuts and fruit with flour mixture. Cream shortening, spices and sugar. Beat in eggs, blend in carrots and milk. Add floured fruits and nuts; mix well. Pour into well greased 1-1/2 quart mold; cover tightly. Place on rack in steamer or deep kettle. Add enough boiling water to reach about 1/3 of the depth of the mold. Steam 2 hours. Serve with rum flavored hard sauce. Portions for twelve.

HEALTH FOR ALL

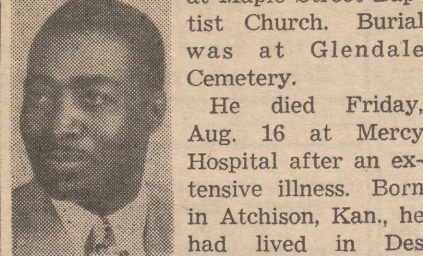

Today there is only one sure way to diagnose tuberculosis: laboratory sputum.

Damage that shows up on X-rays of the lungs are suspicious signs. So are positive reactions to tuberculin tests. But neither—nor even both together—are proof positive of TB. For conclusive proof, the TB germ itself must be spotted under the microscope.

Symptoms are deceiving. Some patients, labeled as active TB cases and put on drug therapy, show all the signs of TB. But they could have a fungus disease or lung cancer. Or a pseudo-TB infection, one that may look like tuberculosis but doesn't respond to the tried and proven anti-TB drugs.

Laboratories that use up-to-date procedures can find out for certain—in three weeks—two vital pieces of information: whether or not the patient's sputum contains the TB germ, and which anti-TB drugs will be effective for him. Even before the patient himself swallows a single pill, the laboratory analysis can determine which drugshe will respond to most effectively.

Not all physicians, unfortunately, use laboratories that perform TB work. Recent Public Health Service figures show that 14 percent of the new, active cases diagnosed as TB had no laboratory confirmation.

Take Your Medicine

Friend of ours says the last time he sang in church, 65 people changed their religion.

Courting is probably the only sport where the animal that gets caught has to buy the license.

Fortunately, we bend in the middle. Think how uncomfortable sitting down would be if we had to stand up to do it.

A closedmouth gathers no foot.

It is fine to have both ends meet, but it is even better if they overlap a little.

They WILL overlap with what you save at Williams Pharmacy, 1103 University Avenue, Phone 243-1253. Drop in and make us prove it with our wide selection of family dental needs.

But the trend—in fact the necessity—is for laboratory confirmation. It is essential not only for diagnosis but for checks of the patient's progress—the only sure way to monitor the TB patient's response to drugs.

Your tuberculosis and respiratory disease associations now doing all it can to spread this important message: The laboratory is a central focus of the TB picture today.

Magic Lemon Pie Needs No Cooking

WHEN DAD AND THE YOUNGSTERS TAKE OVER the cooking chores for you on a week end, you had better keep your eye on the menu anyway. The man of the house can usually manage a steak while the small fry handle the salad fixings and vegetable dish—quick-frozen French fries and vegetables are a big help here.

The dessert course is naturally the easiest even if your favorite is a homemade lemon meringue pie. Friend-husband and offspring can make this delectable star with a recipe that calls for sweetened condensed milk as the principal ingredient.

And if instead of a baked pie crust, this lemon filling is poured into a cookie crumb crust the whole job is done without any cooking at all. If your amateur chefs are not quite sure of their meringue-making technique, they can always substitute a nice frothy ring of whipped cream instead.

MAGIC LEMON MERINGUE PIE
1 crumb or baked pastry 8-inch pie shell
1/2 cup lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind or 1/4 teaspoon lemon extract
1 1/2 cups (15-oz. can) sweetened condensed milk
2 eggs, separated
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar, if desired
4 tablespoons sugar

Combine lemon juice and grated lemon rind or lemon extract; gradually stir into sweetened condensed milk. Add egg yolks and stir until well blended. Pour into chilled crumb crust or cooled pastry shell. Add cream of tartar to egg whites; beat until almost stiff enough to hold a peak. Add sugar gradually, beating until stiff but not dry. Pile lightly on pie filling. Bake in slow oven (325° F.) until lightly browned, about 15 min. Cool.

Lee Hawkins and motored to Michigan City to see more friends.

It's Not Good to Undercut Your Friends

One reason why many good people refrain from politics is that their efforts, however worthy, are blown to the wind often by the very people they try to help or support.

Recently, a group of Negroes in Iowa has formed an organization to support Senator McCarthy for the Democratic nomination for President. Listed in the organization are several individuals who have been closely identified with the civil rights as officers and otherwise associated movement.

The other top contender for the nomination is Vice President Humphrey. During ALL of his public career as mayor of Minneapolis, Minnesota and later United States senator, Vice President Humphrey has been in the forefront of the fight for civil rights. He, along with former President Truman, was in the forefront when the diecasters were kicked out of the Democratic party in 1948. He has not wavered in his support.

On the other hand, Senator McCarthy is a "Johnnie come late" in other than passive support of civil rights with no record worthy of mention, and little as to how he will stand up under pressure should he receive the nomination.

We believe this group has jumped the gun, leaving by the roadside a true and trusted friend. He is at least entitled to the help of his benefactors as long as he is in the running and has a chance to win the nomination.

Both Sides at

Iowa State Can Profit

It appears that Willie Muldrew, leader of the Black Student Organization at Iowa State University, has changed his mind and decided to remain at the school. The threat grew out of a refusal of school authorities to meet all of the demands made for changes and the implementation of some suggested innovations.

His decision was a wise one. Their whole effort was not in vain in that not only were some demands met, but also an awakening of the officials that they themselves have sat by without keeping abreast of modern institutions.

It should not be necessary for these flareups to occur in order to obtain simple redress. Smart people should look ahead for new things and new methods in order to keep abreast of what's new in education.

The Bystander is somewhat disappointed that Don Graves, of Centerville, Iowa did not see fit to remain at the school, unless there are other matters of which we have no knowledge, in that we had some part in his entrance and freshman year in school.

We hope all sides have learned from this confrontation and will profit by the experience.

Using Federal Funds to Finance Segregation

Nick Kotz of the Des Moines Register Washington staff surprised many readers in an article Sunday which revealed how federal agencies are loaning money to clubs, golf courses and swimming pools from which minorities are excluded.

Over the years, the federal government has used tax monies to perpetuate segregation employing tax money for projects to which minorities were excluded even though it was part of money paid in by minorities.

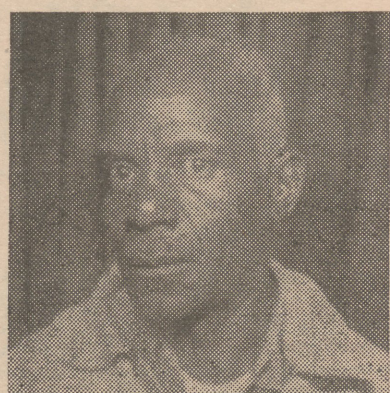

In the rush to clean up one injustice after another, this type of injustice has been given little attention. And although some complaints have been registered, it now appears that such loans are contrary to the civil rights act of 1964 and the attorney general has taken steps to prevent further violations.

It seems ridiculous that government agencies would follow such practices in view of the effort being made to see that each citizen be given a fair chance to enjoy whatever it provides for all citizens.

Paige

The biggest sports story of the year in our estimation was the signing of the ancient Satchel Paige as a pitching coach by the Atlanta Braves. We think the fella will make a good coach. He knows pitching and what is more important, he knows how to pitch. A couple of us fellows were speculating as to his age. Our companion, a veteran athlete himself, guessed and figured back. Then he figured Paige had to be in his late sixties. We reminded the wise one that the man could have started young.

We had a fellow in mind who started at fourteen competing with and against adults. People who saw him just naturally figured him to be much older than he was. So now that the man has retired from athletics, arguments still rage about how old he is. He is credited with being from fifty to seventy and everyone thinks he knows the guy's real age. And the man in question? He just agrees with whatever figure people come up with. He says he feels good and is in real good shape and that is all that matters. And do you know Satchel Paige has that same philosophy. Wonder if all old timers have it.

But we think that if the guy is allowed to work with the Braves pitching staff a couple of seasons, you will see some results.

Iowa State

Another item of interest was the statement by Iowa coach Majors that Willie Muldrew may change his mind about not playing football for Iowa State. We would have to guess that the coach and player talked about it. There is so much that can be done if the people on opposite ends of a conflict will only meet and talk. We thought the Cyclone Athletic Council was a bit wrong in not meeting with the Negro athletics and talking with them instead of to the press. If things worked out in their favor we would have to say it was in spite and not because of the Council's stand.

Boycott

And now for the big showdown this fall? Will there be an Olympic boycott? The leader of the movement says that his people are making conflicting statements to keep the American officials confused. Why? We doubt very seriously if there will really be an effective boycott.

Maybe someone could tell us what could be gained by it.

Emergency Safety Reflectors Made From Aluminum

Don't be caught at night without a signal for oncoming cars. These easily made reflectors always work even when your car lights are out. The base is removed for easy trunk storage.

To make 4 reflectors cut a 6 ft. length of 1/2" Do-It-Yourself Aluminum rod into four equal lengths.

An ordinary carpenter's saw may be used without damaging the teeth. Drill 2-1/4" holes for rivets. Cut a wood disc for the base and drill a 1/4" hole for aluminum rod. Use regular scissors for cutting the reflector discs from the Do-It-Yourself leather embossed aluminum sheet. It won't harm the scissors a bit. Drill the disc and rivet it to the rod with 1/4" x 1/4" rivets.

Finally add the reflective tape and you're ready if trouble comes.

Pre Season Football

Kansas City — Hank Stram's Kansas City Chiefs undefeated on the pre season trail, tackle the defending AFL Champion Oakland Raiders at Municipal Stadium this Saturday night, Aug. 24. The Chiefs come into the game with a string of three straight victories. Last Saturday they edged the St. Louis Cardinals 13 to 10 before 47,462, the largest crowd ever to witness a sporting event in Kansas City. It was the Chiefs second straight victory over an NFL opponent. The previous week they defeated the Minnesota Vikings by the identical score of 19 to 10. By virtue of the Cardinal victory, the Chiefs became the first AFL team to win three games against the NFL. They also hold a 66 to 24 decision over the Chicago Bears.
