$103,500 For Negro Orchestra Players

The Symphony of the New World of New York City has received a grant of $103,500 from the Ford Foundation to increase its training of talented Negro orchestral players, it was announced. The orchestra already is composed of up to 40 per cent non-white members.

The grant will be used to create a string ensemble of eight young musicians, most of whom will be Negroes. The ensemble will train with the orchestra and give concerts in schools, mainly in areas with large Negro populations.

"Although Negroes have long been prominent in jazz, popular, and vocal music, there are too few examples of their participation in the symphony orchestra, and particularly in the string sections," said W. McNeill Lowry, foundation vice president for the Humanities and the Arts.

Negro Students Present List of 16 Demands to Des Moines School Board

A list of sixteen demands read to Board Members were: African and Afro-American history taught by Negro teachers with the "true fighting history" at the heart of our schooling; Control of the schools by "community control board" with people from the neighborhoods working with the staff; More Negro teachers, counselors and other personnel; Refer to students of African descent as "black" or Afro-American instead of "Negro"; Involve students in decision-making in matters affecting their education; Provide adequate representation of minorities on student councils; Re-evaluate the Department of Pupil Personnel Services; Eliminate the track system (advanced, general and basic); Inform all high school students of scholarships available, regardless of academic standing; Remove teachers who are racists; Overhaul in-service teacher training; Provide more academic freedom in the schools; Give the teacher a decision-making role in education; Allow student representatives with voting power on the School Board, or abolish the board; Information about students should not be released without consent of the student.

Court Fight Over Former Temptations' David Ruffian

Detroit, Mich. — Conflicting testimony was given Oct. 11 in Wayne County Circuit Court by former Temptations singer David Ruffian and C. B. Atkins, the man who Ruffian wants to become his new personal manager.

The surprising contradictions in testimony were made in International Management Company's court hearing requesting an injunction which would prevent Ruffian from working personal appearance dates booked without IMC's previous consent.

Challenge Death Penalty Against Southern Negro

Washington, D. C. — A comprehensive study showing high death penalties for Negroes involved in rape of white women was presented to the U. S. Supreme Court last week.

The study is part of the defense of a Negro man on death row.

This unusual challenge was made by the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF) attorneys who asked the High Court to reverse the death sentence of Arkansas Negro inmate, William L. Maxwell.

Guilty
Maxwell was sentenced to the electric chair in 1962 after an all white jury found him guilty of raping a white woman.

The study used in the case is based on the investigation of 2,500 rape cases in 225 counties of 11 southern states.

Noted criminologist and statistician, Dr. Marvin E. Wolfgang said the victims have been disproportionately sentenced to death, by reason of their race, during the years 1945-65 in the state of Arkansas.

Jive
"We can't come to school any more and listen to all that jive about Patrick Henry and not a word about H. Rap Brown," said Edward Smith, president of the Black Committee for Student Power.

During the confrontation, School Board members were repeatedly interrupted by students in the gallery, most of whom were from Tech High School, but did tell the students that they would set up a time to discuss the matter further. The meeting is scheduled Monday, 7 p.m. at North High School, open to the public.

Knox
Another speaker was Charles Knox of the Black Panthers, who said, "If you don't reform, baby, then you got to go," but School Board member A. Arthur Davis stated, "I am not upset one whit by what I heard today," and that the board must do more than just listen to complaints. "We are not going to be pushed into a corner to the point that we do things that don't make sense, but we've got to come out open-minded."

Another speaker was John Estes, Jr., president of the city's NAACP, who mentioned that "moderate Negro leaders have for years complained of problems in the schools," while Rev. James A. Harris, art instructor at Callanan Junior High School urged the board to consider the students' demands.

Nov. 3 Election Emphasis Day

New York — Sunday, Nov. 3, has been designated National Election Emphasis Day by the NAACP. To observe the day, the last Sunday before the election, the NAACP is calling upon clergymen throughout the country to urge members of their congregations to go to the polls and cast their ballots in what Bishop Stephen G. Spottswood, chairman of the NAACP Board of Directors, calls "the most crucial election in this century."

Head-on Crash Claims One Life; Charle DeVan In Serious Condition

A Des Moines man was injured about midday Tuesday, and one man was killed in a head-on crash in the 1100 block of Second Avenue.

In serious condition at Broadlawn Polk County Hospital was Charles DeVan, Jr., 35, of 1216 2nd Avenue. According to police the vehicle driven by DeVan was going the wrong way.

Killed in the crash was Donald Grasp of 224 E. 16th Street. Police say he received a broken neck in the impact. The absence of skid marks on the pavement, police say, was an indication that the drivers did not see each other in time to save themselves.

On the Campaign Trail

New York, Oct. 7 — Formation of a Committee of Black Americans for Nixon-Agnew headed by businessman Earl Kennedy of Detroit was announced last Saturday by John N. Mitchell, Nixon-Agnew national campaign manager.

Muscataine, Iowa — In a speech to the Muscatine Rotary here Monday, Congressman Fred Schwengel, R-Iowa, said that law and order is "not complete without justice."

Schwengel said, "We are a nation built on respect for law and order. We can not move ahead unless respect for law is maintained. Law, however, must be built on justice for all. Justice, full and complete, is not easily attained. Yet, more progress has been made toward achieving justice under the American political system than in any other in history. But the quest for justice must continue."

Back from vacation, taking no responsibility for last week's paper. Among my sojourns was a visit to the Black Panther Cultural Center, now called the Black Congress Building, at 1207 11th Street. Upon walking to the house, one gets inspiration even from looking at the sidewalk, covered with quotations and insignias of the BP.

Inside, I got a good dose of Eldridge Cleaver, Malcolm X and H. Rap Brown pictures and speeches, along with some of the most beautiful pictures of black men and women ever painted.

Which all adds up to this: get yourself together, baby, because black is the way to be. It's one thing to have a picture of George Washington on your wall, anyone can have Mr. Wig up there, but it takes a little bit of commitment to

Rabble

Those who say that some militant organizations are rabble-rousers and should be rounded up and herded off to jail for the next hundred years forget that the major Negro organizations were considered "rabble rousers" also in the beginning. They also holler about Black Power and how it is Communistic, etc. Under those terms, so could the founding of the Democrats and the Republicans when they began, and sometimes now I still wonder what their aims are in view of the major presidential candidates. I'm not sure I would want to support any man who participates in the mud slinging and political underhandness going on now. To support a man whose state has the highest murder rate in America or to support a man whose own home when he was vice president was supposedly aided by a protective covenant? Baby, get yourself together!

Those who point to this summer's newspapers and laugh at their own people being beaten by police are helpers to the cause and may be the first to go if a revolution comes. We can't all be Skoie Mitchells — Mitchell, a black comedian who contributes to Negro organizations so "in case they do win, I want to be on their side!"

Albert King — Blues

Albert King: Live Wire/Blues Power, recorded live at the Fillmore Auditorium in San Francisco. King brings the audience to the nitty gritty in a rousing rendition of Watermelon Man, Blues Power and Night Stomp. Flip side salutes with Blues at Sunrise, Please Love Me and Look Out. That's right, look out, baby, cause the Blues Man, Mr. Albert "Blues" King has made it with another album.

"They started clapping and minute the hefty singer began walking to the stage . . . they applauded every quicksilver rift, every bent crying note from his guttary, but mostly they cheered his presence . . ." according to Pete Johnson of the Los Angeles Times.

ROSE JOHNSON CAST A MUCH DESERVED BOUQUET to our Editor J. B. Morris when she stated "People say they know nothing of Negro history! I save The Iowa Bystanders weekly. This paper has always carried Negro history—special items have always appeared on the second page. These had to do with historical facts regarding noted Negroes and their achievements; Were I to clip these from my Bystander collection, they would make a book! Mr. Morris has provided this service over the years!"

ZOOK AND BARBARA WILLIAMS NEW VENTURE: It is Williams' Market, formerly Glazer's, at 13th and University Avenue. The couple, natives of Iowa, has spent their youth here and count on the backing of their many many friends and acquaintances—most everyone knows them. Zook has operated filling stations on both East and West sides here. Barbara is Music Director of Corinthian Baptist Church and a music teacher with the Des Moines Public Schools System. They have two children, Arzania, Jr. 12 and Stephanie 2.

THE APPLAUSE ACCORDED CORINTHIAN BAPTIST CHURCH Pastor Frederick W. Strickland at his October 6 musical recital is still reverberating throughout the community—by all lines of communication! The occasion was the Men's Day Program. Attired in black tie and tails, the minister gave a performance composed of poetry and music, which included some of his own compositions. Three of the vocal numbers were interspersed by Rev. Strickland's poetry selections read by Andrew Wolden. His singing was likened to that of Robert Merrill—the minister, however, possesses an exceptionally fine bass. One of his musical compositions sung at the end of the program was "Joy Bells Ringing" and was done by the combined Corinthian musical groups. Mrs. Doris Wade was program accompanist and Mrs. Barbara Williams mistress of ceremony.

CLUB gave the Sunday, October 13, afternoon program at Corinthian—this in behalf of the Building Fund. A longtime gospel singer favorite, Rev. Fox's performance was thoroughly satisfying to his listeners. He sang for them such numbers as "How Great Thou Art", "It is No Secret", "Lead Me, Guide Me" and his pastor's request "His Eye is On the Sparrow". With Mrs. Doris Wade at the piano and his very own "Mrs.", Evelyn Fox at the organ, just how could Rev. Fox do less than satisfy!

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Can your hair be damaged from brushing, alone?

All hair becomes damaged from exposure to sun and natural elements. Certain greasy compounds and many chemicals, improperly used, also take their toll...not to mention simple attempts at beautifying the hair with any brush not made of natural bristles. The results are brittleness, breakage, dry and dull looking hair.

Your professional beautician knows how artificial bristles actually brush away a great deal of the "lubricants" of the hair that give it body, lustre and protection. And trained beauticians claim that nothing beats Clairol® condition* Beauty Pack Treatment for overcoming brittleness, dryness and breakage... leaving hair lively and easy to manage. condition* is an easy-to-work-with creme which can even be applied during a chemical straightening retouch to prevent drying of hair that has been previously relaxed. condition* is the ultimate in repairing deep-down damage. And, when time is a factor for their customers, hairdressers turn to new Clairol® Hair Dew*—the lotion conditioner that penetrates so fast many think of it as an instant conditioner. When applied regularly by your beautician, Clairol® Hair Dew adds body, softens and gives a glowing new look to your hair that many friends will notice and admire.

Damage can come from using brushes with artificial bristles. But damage to every woman's hair comes from so many other causes that all human hair (including wigs) needs to be revitalized periodically. Visit your professional beautician and ask this expert to check the condition of your hair.

Only your professional beautician knows the answer for sure.

A NEW CONCEPT OF ACADEMIC FREEDOM

Situated a thousand miles away as we are, it is difficult to understand what is involved in the strike by school teachers in New York City.

Whatever the problem involved, the children are being hurt both in the retardation of their education and the example teachers set evidenced by the policy "I will get mine, whatever the cause."

Taking to bosom of Adam Clayton Powell by Grinnell College presents another instance of glorifying people who have been a poor example when opportunity has been available to do otherwise.

He grew up in one of the original ghetto areas, where as the son of the pastor of the largest Baptist Church in America and later his father's successor and yet the record shows that he did little for the people but keep them on relief, in return for which he collected a fabulous salary and got their votes on election day.

A Negro professor at New York University, who in a speech to 700 people on the campus referred to Vice President Humphrey and Richard Nixon as "facist bastards". He was dismissed from the position but all kinds of protests have been going on to get him reinstated. Such words denote a mean low status, the use of which adds nothing to the education of his audience.

Or the instance that a former convict and racist should be accepted as a lecturer at the University of California at Berkeley.

All of these terrible examples of disorder, illegal conduct, parading of unfit people before schools are done under the cover of academic freedom. Maybe it's a new kind of freedom but it is playing havoc with America by promoting criminals, dividing the people thus weakening the whole structure of the country.

Undoubtedly this course of conduct must stop and if people won't listen to reason, settle their differences by peaceful means and set a better example for future generations our way of life is doomed.

SHALLOW THINKING
EQUALS SHALLOW
CRITICISM

There was a time when some people engaged in physical combat over the political party of one's choice. This has been minimized greatly by the added number of independent voters, more intelligence and the more equal strength of the two major parties.

At one time, there was considerable antagonism in Des Moines as to the political choice. The party of choice is a right which every person is and should be free to exercise. For years this has not existed as the average voter has not hesitated to help another as long as it was no embarrassment of his position.

An excellent example of this was the first campaign of Judge Luther T. Glanton, Jr. The election is non-partisan. His campaign committee was composed of Democrats and Republicans with one of the latter serving as treasurer. And not only did Republican committeemen work but they also contributed money to help pay the bills. They will do the same thing under the same circumstances.

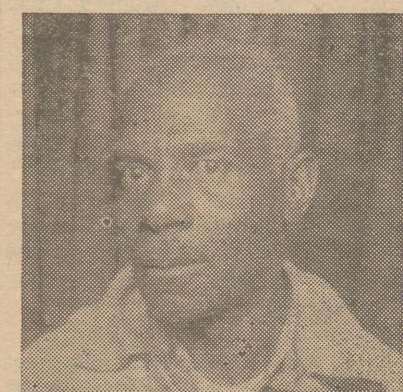

Negro Democrat leaders have interceded in behalf of the By-stander to help secure political advertising because they knew that money was being spent in other media to inform Negro voters; they felt that the By-stander was entitled to the same consideration and got it.

This country is governed by parties and not individuals and thus the bulk of the voters belong to one of the major parties. They select their candidates in the conventional way with some falling below the expectations of some. It is here, as at present, we must make a choice and this is entirely the voters' own thinking.

Recently the By-stander received a rather scurrilous message from the pastor of one of our Negro churches stating that our support of Richard Nixon was no better than supporting Governor Wallace. Seldom do we stoop to challenge such messages because it was silly for an intelligent person and we do this to remind him that our record and judgment make sense and that any attempt to undercut that record is the height of poor judgment, ignorance, lack of self control and understanding as to how our political system works.

SPORTS

With Allen Ashby

Hawk

We thought the Hawks had a good chance to win that game last Saturday and we still think so. Those two early fumbles put them in the hole and they never got out. As we sat there and watched the two teams trade touchdowns, we thought it was a shame that Denny Green doesn't weigh about twenty. As hard as he runs somebody would get hurt. That fellow Bill Powell should be just as big. He can carry the mail all night, too. The Iowa defense didn't look too bad against rushing, but their pass rush just wasn't there and the passes had all day to find their men. And in these days of good passers any thrower who gets time to look for an open man will generally hit him.

Aside from the two fellows whose names we heard all afternoon, there was a big Negro who picked up valuable yardage up the middle when Indiana needed it. Then they had a pass catching end who was just that. But then Iowa receivers didn't do badly. It was just that the defense couldn't hold. Oh well, next week comes Wisconsin, and we really ought to get that one.

Iowa State

Iowa State really sprung a surprise when they dusted Kansas State. Those guys have begun to believe they can win and it will take more than just showing up to beat them. They use so many sophomores you would think it was a junior college team. One fellow said he bet Willie Muldreu is sorry he left. Maybe so.
