Spriggs Named to American Republic Board

Second Outstanding Appointment Nov.

For the first time in Des Moines, a large business establishment included a Negro on its board of directors when it named Lacy Spriggs along with three other members last week.

The four are Joseph L. Strasser, president of United Federal Savings and Loan Association; clothier William J. Reichardt; Lacey D. Spriggs, principal of Washington Irving Junior High School, and Dr. William T. Brown, a dentist.

Broadens Base

The new members, boosting the board to 12 members, "bring to the company a broad background of finance, retail merchandising, education and the professions," said Powell at a news conference at the offices of the Greater Des Moines Chamber of Commerce.

"This is a part of our continued effort to broaden our base in the community, and we look on this as another in a long series of steps of the total involvement of American Republic in the business and community life of Des Moines and the State of Iowa."

Pension Plans

American Republic Assurance Co. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of American Republic Insurance Co. The assurance company was formed on June 28, 1967, to go into the variable annuity business, and more specifically to make this product available for pension plans, profit-sharing plans, HR-10 (or self-employed retirement plans) and tax-sheltered annuities.

John F. Guion, president of the firm, told the news conference that the assurance company — previously licensed in 30 states — has received a license to do business in the State of New York.

One of 45

Guion said of some 1,750 life insurance companies doing business in the United States, only 103 have been admitted to do business in New York, and only 45, including the Iowa company, are headquartered outside New York.

Powell said the assurance company already is producing business in many of the states in which it has been admitted, and it is hoped it would be able to do business throughout the country by the end of 1969.

The announcement was made by Watson Powell, Jr., board chairman.

New Telephone Books This Week

Delivery of the new Des Moines telephone directory started December 2 and while many directories will be delivered before the week is out, the job won't be entirely complete until December 13.

Loy Brooks, district manager for Northwestern Bell, said the white pages contain an additional 4,300 listings.

...New telephone numbers go into effect for Carlisle, Granger, Hartford and Noarwalk on December 8, and Brooks cautioned callers not to use the new telephone directory for numbers in those communities until Sunday morning, December 8.

Large Distribution

About 218,000 directories will be delivered in Des Moines and the surrounding communities. Northwestern Bell will hold another 65,000 books in reserve for new installations and replacements during 1969. Nearly 7,000 will go to meet requests for the new directory from around the country.

The directory once again features a green-covered Call-Guide format for its introductory pages and a bright red color to help call attention to emergency numbers on the inside front cover. Des Moines was the first city to use the Call-Guide format after it was conceived by Northwestern Bell in 1968.

The Crime Alert telephone number for Polk County—283-4811—has been added to the emergency list.

Wins Free Trip To Inauguration

Des Moines — Frederick H. Simpson, Atlantic, won the free trip for two to the Presidential inaugural in a statewide contest sponsored by the Iowa Republican State Central Committee.

"I'm just astounded," Simpson said when informed by Republican State Chairman Jack Warren that his ticket had been drawn from about 100,000 entries which had been entered at GOP booths at county fairs and the Iowa State Fair.

Simpson and his wife will attend the inaugural of President-elect Richard M. Nixon in Washington next month. The all-expense paid trip will begin Jan. 17 when the Simpsons will board a chartered flight at Omaha and end with the return trip Jan. 21.

Simpson, publisher of the Atlantic News Telegraph, said he registered for the free trip at the Cass County Fair during the first week of August.

Baltimore, Md. — The men of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Pi Chapter of Morgan State College, have been suspended for two years and will not be allowed to wear any paraphernalia or participate in any activities, Dr. E. Worthington Waters, Dean of Students, announced today.

If the chapter breaks the rules of suspension they may be suspended indefinitely, Dr. Harold Delaney, Dean of the College, stated. Otherwise, they will be reinstated without appeal at the end of the two years.

Art Jackson Named Director of New Careers Program

Art Jackson has been appointed director of a new federal program called "New Careers". The program is under the sponsorship of Greater Opportunities, Inc., and the City of Des Moines. New Careers will place 100 unemployed and underemployed persons in jobs with human services agencies starting Dec. 2, 1968. A career ladder will be created within the human services field and the base of the ladder is called an "entry level" position.

The enrollee, as the disadvantaged person is called, will be working on the job 25 hours a week and 10 hours a week, the individual will be going to college at Drake University. This is the first program of its kind where a person can get on the job experience plus college training related to his field of work at the same time. This is a two-year program and after that period of time, the enrollee will have a permanent position in the agency in which he is employed.

Before coming to New Careers, Mr. Jackson was a social worker for Polk County Welfare. He is a member of Iowa Welfare Association, on the advisory board of ICAP, and a member of the Mayor's Task Force on Health.

Respondent Acts Quickly To Settle Case; Possible Cease and Desist Order

The city of Des Moines' legal department acting in behalf and for the Human Rights and Job Discrimination Commission filed an equity action against Loren T. Olson, charging racial discrimination.

They allege that on or about the 19th day of November, 1968, Luanne Brown, a Negro, did attempt to rent an apartment located at 829 19th Street, Des Moines, Iowa, from Loren T. Olson.

The petition states further that Loren T. Olson discriminated against Luanne Brown by failing to negotiate with said Luanne Brown in the showing or renting of the property on the grounds that said Luanne Brown was a Negro, contrary to Chapter 25A of the Municipal Code of the City Des Moines, Iowa.

Restraining Order Asked

She stated that she is informed and believes that the defendant will rent or lease the above described property to other parties unless he is restrained from doing so, and such renting or leasing would cause irreparable damage to the plaintiff in that the intent of the above stated Chapter of the Municipal Code would be frustrated, and plaintiff would be without a remedy against the defendant.

The plaintiff demands that a temporary writ of injunction issue, restraining and enjoining Loren T. Olson, his agents, servants and employees from renting or leasing the above described property, after notice and hearing as prescribed by the court, and that on final hearing injunction be made permanent, and for such further equitable relief as the Court may deem just, and for the costs of the action.

The city is represented by Philip T. Riley, John F. McKinney, Jr., M. A. Iverson, James F. Fowler, Jack L. Briggs, Stephen R. Gadd and Eugene E. Olson, all on the legal staff.

Loren T. Olson, of 1220 Sixty-third st., named defendant in the city's first anti-discrimination housing suit, agreed to comply with the city's civil rights ordinance without a court hearing. The case was filed last week.

Olson and Stephen Gadd, assistant city attorney, signed an agreement filed in Polk County District Court Tuesday in which Olson stated his willingness to obey the city ordinance.

The agreement also stipulated that a permanent court order barring any housing discrimination by the landlord could be issued without a court hearing. Judge Waldo F. Wheeler signed such an order shortly after the agreement was filed.

The agreement signed by Olson stipulates not only that he will refrain from discrimination in showing his apartments, but also in leasing or sub-leasing them. The case is now closed.

Plan Bricklayers' Pre-Apprenticeship Program

Plans for a 1969 union bricklayer pre-apprenticeship school were announced today by the State Joint Bricklayer Apprenticeship Committee. The School will be held at the Des Moines Area Community College, Des Moines, beginning March 3, 1969.

The announcement was made jointly by Fred Eller, President, Iowa State Conference of Bricklayers; Richard Toon, Manager, Manpower and Training, Master Builders of Iowa; Gary Davis, Manager, Structural Clay Products Institute; and Les Buchan of the Iowa Concrete Masonry Association.

Applications will be received from individuals interested in receiving Masonry training without regard to race, creed, color or national origin, beginning December 2, 1968. Applications will close January 31, 1969.

Inquire at Local Offices

Information regarding applications may be obtained from local joint Apprenticeship Committees and local offices of the Iowa Employment Service.

The proposed school term is six weeks. Tuition and books are free to those admitted.

Applicants who complete the program will be registered under the rules of the Federal Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training, thus becoming eligible for employment as apprentices on federal projects where such rules apply.

Local Joint Apprenticeship Committees will determine the number of apprentices who can be gainfully employed in their communities in accordance with the volume of construction work there. The State Joint Bricklayer Apprenticeship Committee pointed out that numbers of apprentices from previous years will not necessarily be a guide for 1969.

Students who complete the school will enter a four year apprenticeship program which, if completed, will result in journeyman status for the student. The school will consist of both mechanical training and related classroom work.

Sues Memphis Publishers For Unequal Opportunity

Memphis, Tennessee — A Negro newspaper editor today began a suit against Memphis Publishing Company, publisher of this city's two major newspapers, The Memphis Press Semitar and The Commercial Appeal.

Both papers belong to the nationwide Scripps-Howard Syndicate.

McCann L. Reid, an editor for the Tri-State Defender, a local Negro paper charges that Memphis Publishing Company refused to hire him because of his race and religion.

His suit was filed in federal court here by Lewis Lucas, a cooperating attorney for the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF).

According to attorney Lucas, Memphis Publishing Company officials told Mr. Reid they could not hire him because he is a Seventh Day Adventist and therefore could not work Saturdays.

However, an investigation by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) revealed that the company had hired a white man of Mr. Reid's faith to do the same job for which Mr. Reid had applied.

Copy Reader

In the suit filed today, attorney Lucas is asking that Mr. Reid be employed by the company as a copy reader, the position for which he applied.

He is also asking that his client receive back pay from the date of his application and that his salary be raised to what it would be now had the company not refused to hire him.

Black Nation Republic Airs Plans in Magazine

New York—The Republic of New Africa, in an announcement from Washington, has filed its demands for the United States to pay $400-billion in damages and to relinquish 5 Southern states. So reports Robert Sherrill in an exclusive article in January Esquire, published today, on the growing movement to form a black nation within the United States.

New Africa, reveals Sherrill, is not just a dream. It is a well-organized group of dedicated blacks who have set up a government in exile, complete with a President (Robert F. Williams), a First Vice President (Milton Henry), and an entire Cabinet.

More Support

Contrary to what most whites want to believe, total integration with economic and social equality, is not, reports Esquire, what the black intelligentsia wants. And within the loosely knit community of 23-million Negroes in this country, the recently revived proposal for the creation of a separate black nation—the Republic of New Africa—has more support than most people would like to think.

Bethel Sings Doom Song on Removal

James N. Bethel, President of the Iowa Welfare Association, commenting on the removal of its office on Sunday from the Family and Children's Services Building, 11th and Walnut Streets, to 321 E. Fifth, the Fredrigill Building, said: "We have some nice new paneled and carpeted offices, an air conditioning, too! This is probably my last big job! This is the last month of my year's presidency. This is the year that we lost our secretary to Muncie, Indiana. We lost our office lease! Neither of these losses was expected."

Referring again to his presidency of Bethel said "It is an honor to hold this office and it has meant much to me. Incidentally, during this year, we saw the largest annual conference registration in our history."

A Good Year

"So it has been a good year—a lot of work. We've bought new equipment. Each president goes in with his own prospective goals. Mine were purely housekeeping objectives — meaning a reevaluation of the administrative procedures and office practices and policies. Since that time we have purchased several new pieces of equipment, created an effective insurance package for our personnel and property. The moving and having to get a secretary were unexpected chores to be done in between. I didn't know that we would be faced with either of these but that happened during my regime. It is just a job that had to be done."

New Secretary

"We were fortunate in acquiring our new secretary, Mrs. Evelyn Holt! I must give credit to my employees for allowing me to spend the time necessary in discharging this part of my professional responsibility. Bethel is community consultant for the Glenwood State Hospital School. This school is one of the two State institutions for care and treatment of the mentally retarded."

HEALTH FOR ALL

OBESITY: IS THE DIET-IN DYING OUT?

Has dieting had its day? Are curtains in the offing for all those Summer Slimdown Seminars, One-Day Wonder Diets and Five-Minute Fasts for Fat Folks that were guaranteed to retreat the American silhouette into something more eye-pleasing?

The answer to that somber question tends toward the affirmative as science amasses more data on the causes and correctional possibilities of the great American malady known as overweight.

Late dispatches from the human inflation front include a report in Science Weekly by a forward patrol of investigators led by Dr. Stanley Schachter, a Columbia University psychologist.

Dr. Schachter and his colleagues express grave doubt that dieting can do the job. For awhile, perhaps; for the long pull, no. The regularity with which slenderized persons regain their poundage suggests to them that the problem of obesity isn't physical, but mainly psychological.

Overeating, Dr. Schachter maintains, isn't caused by inner hunger but by outside stimuli. The stimuli are various; they could be strong emotions or the ravishing aroma of fresh-baked apple pie or a glimpse of the promising portals of a pizza palace. Such hazards can make good diet resolves vanish like pizza and apple pie.

Study of a group of obese people has shown that they can be more indifferent to food than persons of normal weight in normal situations. It isn't overeating at meals that does the damage; it's responding to those outer stimuli.

Can an obese person change from an outer-motivated to an inner-directed eater? Therein lies the only hope, according to the investigators. Yet they doubt whether such a change is possible. Meanwhile, as they continue to explore, dieting remains the best available answer to the obesity problem.

Bishop Patterson Heads Church of God in Christ

Memphis, Tenn. — Bishop J. O. Patterson, of Memphis, was elected Presiding Bishop of the Church of God in Christ, Inc., at the 61st Annual Holy Convocation, which convened recently in Memphis.

The elevation of Bishop Patterson to the top Church post, along with the election of 12 Bishops to the General Board, highlighted the convocation, held at Mason Temple, the national headquarters.

Native of Mississippi

Bishop Patterson, 56, a native of Dora, Miss., is a son-in-law of the late Bishop Charles Harrison Mason, founder and Senior Bishop of the Church of God in Christ, Inc. A member of the Church for 47 years, Bishop Patterson has served on the Executive Board, the Board of Bishops, manager of the COGIC Publishing House and as General Secretary of the Church. Bishop A. B. McEwen, also of Memphis, who has served the Church faithfully in many capacities, was acclaimed Bishop Emeritus by the General Assembly.

Twelve Elected

Thirty-four candidates, representing a cross-section of states, were nominated for positions on the General Board. The 12 elected were:

Bishop Patterson, Bishops J. S. Bailey, Detroit; S. M. Crouch, Los Angeles; Wyoming Wells, North Carolina; L. H. Ford Chicago; O. M. Kelly New York; C. E. Bennett, Indiana; J. A. Blake, San Diego; J. W. White, Louisiana; D. L. Williams, Virginia; F. D. Washington, New York, and Bishop J. D. Husband of Georgia.

Several committees were instrumental in helping to guide the election procedure.

The Rules committee, which established outlines governing conduct in the General Assembly and during the election, was chaired by Elder Chandler Owens, of Newark, New Jersey.

Other important committees were headed by Bishops F. G. Green, William Rimson and S. C. Coles.

Season's In For Ham 'n' Yams!

"(Pretty—perfect)" for a party... this fine way to use up left-over mashed potatoes and bits of ham which results in gourmet eating! And, with the Louisiana yam season at its height, you'll get peak enjoyment too, in these easy-to-make, and easy-to-serve yam rings. With the delicate flavor of maple-blended syrup enhancing the yams, you can be sure of requests for second helpings. So better not depend upon having "left-overs." Better double the recipe, in fact!

HAM AND MUSHROOMS IN YAM RINGS

1 egg, slightly beaten
2 tablespoons milk
2 tablespoons butter, melted
2 cups mashed cooked Louisiana yams
1/4 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1/4 cup Log Cabin Syrup
1-1/2 cups sliced fresh mushrooms
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
1 cup diced cooked ham
Combine egg, 2 tablespoons milk, and 2 tablespoons melted butter. Add to mashed yams. Mix well. Add salt, pepper, and maple-blended syrup and mix until well blended. Shape yam mixture into rings on greased baking sheet, using a pastry bag or spoon. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees Fahrenheit) 20 minutes, or until delicately browned.

Meanwhile, saute mushrooms in 3 tablespoons of butter until browned and tender. Add flour, mixing to a smooth paste. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture is thickened. Add ham and heat thoroughly. Serve creamed mixture in center of each yam ring. Makes 6 servings.

ROSS WILBUR'S PENDING DEPARTURE for the New York Office of Lutheran Social Services comes as a surprise to State Welfare circles. Ross is a highly responsible social service administrator and certainly will be missed by the Iowa social work community.

REPRESENTATIVE A. JUNE FRANKLIN spent Thursday, Friday and Saturday in Washington, D.C., where she attended the Quarterly National Board meeting of Americans for Democratic Action.

THE LADIES OF THE IOWA FARMERS' UNION TEA to be held Monday, December 9 will present as its speaker Representative A. June Franklin. In her talk the legislator will try to show the group the problems of the City and will try to understand more about the problems of the farmers.

THE DES MOINES DRAMA WORKSHOP is presenting The Rhinoceros, December 5 through 8—with an 8:30 p.m. curtain time. The play, authored by Eugene Ionesco, is directed by L. Lenfred Link. "The Director's Notes" state: "This play has nothing to do with conformity, which is superficial and superfluous, as well as being primarily American. True, its genesis was the collective hysteria of the Nazi phenomenon, but that is something quite different. It is anti-totalitarian, anti-ideological".

JERRY BUNDY, 17 year old singer with "David Settles and the Soul Brothers", Kansas City, Kansas group which played at the Thanksgiving Day Dance held at Knights of Columbus Hall last Thursday night, deserves much credit for keeping his cool in the face of one girl's determination to take the microphone and do a song. He simply left the platform, Jerry says. His group did likewise. When things were calm, the fellows proceeded with their show. Excellent.

Plan Indian Center At Logan

Logan Opportunity Center is the setting up an Indian Cultural center, called "The American Indian Center". Its purpose is to provide a meeting place or half-way house for Indians leaving the reservations and for community newcomers. Through a center, programs would be accomplished which would serve to make Indians aware of their background and culture and so result in greater pride in their race and rich heritage. Handicrafts and other skills will be taught and perhaps commercial undertakings involving the sale of these might provide a means for maintenance and upkeep of the center.

Group officers are Walter Kerchee, President; Ulysses S. Grant, Vice President; Mrs. Maria Thompson, Secretary; Harvey Major, Treasurer; Delegate and Alternate to the Assembly of Greater Opportunities, Inc. are Kerchee and Major.

Seeks Funding

Election of officers has been followed by the group's application for representation with the Assembly of Groups to be served, the governing or policy making body of Greater Opportunities, Inc. The Indian culture group has been working with Greater Opportunities' directors in an attempt to get funding for their project. The Bureau of Indian Affairs and the Indian Community Action Project of the University of South Dakota at Vermillion have promised technical assistance. This guidance is necessary because funding is not available for off-reservation Indians.

Organizational Meeting

Herman Wadsworth met with the newly formed group at the time of its organizational meeting and, finding the need for funds, contacted the South Dakota source. Frank Fant, supervisor of Logan Opportunity Center, sits in on the meetings and works with the young agency.

The first program launched by the American Indian Center was a Pow Wow held November 9 which drew an attendance of 350 persons.

St. Mary's Society Meets with Mrs. Cooper

St. Mary's Christian Home Society will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Ruby Cooper, 1435 2nd St. Place, December 9 at 8 p.m.

THE NEWLY FORMED AMERICAN INDIAN CENTER GROUP'S 350 member Pow Wow held recently at Logan Opportunity Center represented Indians from all over Iowa, as well as other States and was an unbelievably gala affair. A Pow Wow in Des Moines! Held in Logan's spacious setting the occasion was beautiful beyond words. The evening opened with prayer followed by dinner. Next was the Pow Wow! It had the joyous participation of everyone—very young to very old! All clapped, danced and many sang. In the center of the dance floor is an enormous drum and the men encircling it are all striking the one drum! Their precision is perfect! At Tama's Pow Wow contest for the best dancer, I had selected a favorite. Nope he didn't win! At the Logan Pow Wow I asked on what basis selections were made. The reply: "No fancy dancing"—rather it is the ability to dance to the beat and to stop on the beat. Think that over! The costumes combine the very old styles—long dresses, pretty blouses and skirts with lots and lots of handmade Indian jewelry. Many of the newer dresses and blouses are simpler with ribbon trimming. All are most lovely. Many types of leggings or boots leave a viewer filling with longing for just this costume!

MARIA THOMPSON, AMERICAN INDIANS CENTER GROUP'S secretary, is again at home after long hospitalization. She is credited with contributing so much to the Pow Wow's success! A card will reach her at 1117 E. 9th Street, Des Moines, Iowa. Let's tell her our appreciation.

MISTOOK PRETTY SIXTEEN YEAR OLD MARDEEN CASSELL for an Indian maid! Instead she is the daughter of Mrs. Bertha Cassell, 1236 Stewart, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burks Strother, and an East High School junior.

Quick-To-Make Holiday Favorites

When every hour means so much during the pre-holiday season—make these wonderful Chocolate Crisps with no fuss or effort.

Homemade Christmas candy brings a great deal of pleasure to all—young and old alike. However, candy-making is sometimes a tedious process which can take up many precious hours of your pre-holiday time. Well, now you won't have that problem to face—nor a messy clean-up job either—when you make these speedy simple candies.

Chocolate Crisps are prepared so quickly and easily that even the youngsters can turn out several batches in one afternoon. And you need only two ingredients—candy-making chocolate and candy-coated puffed wheat—to make three dozen crispy candies.

French Cocoa Balls, also quick and easy, are a soft, fudgy type of candy made with a new sweet cocoa mix. They can be rolled into various shapes with many attractive variations such as chopped walnuts, ground pistachio nuts, toasted coconut, etc. Economical, too, when every batch makes three to four dozen French-type chocolates.

CHOCOLATE CRISPS

1/2 package (4 squares) candy-making chocolate
2 cups candy-coated puffed wheat

Heat chocolate over boiling water until partly melted. Remove from water and stir rapidly until entirely melted. Add candy-coated puffed wheat and mix well. Drop from teaspoon on waxed paper or press into greased 8 x 8 x 2-inch square pan. Cool until firm. Makes 3 dozen clusters or squares.

FRENCH COCOA BALLS

1/2 cup 4-in-1 sweet cocoa mix
4 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons milk

Combine cocoa mix, butter, and milk in saucepan. Place over low heat only until butter is melted and cocoa mix is dissolved, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add 1 cup of the sugar and the vanilla, mixing well. Blend in

2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar (about)

1/2 teaspoon vanilla remaining sugar gradually until mixture is stiff enough to knead with fingers. Knead for 2 or 3 minutes. Shape mixture in 40 small balls, and roll in breakfast cocoa.

GOOD NEWS ABOUT APPRENTICESHIP TRAINING

About everybody connected with apprenticeship training is offering opportunities for youngsters to learn a trade today. This is gratifying because in years gone by such opportunities have not been offered and yet when jobs came on the scene, almost unexpectedly, minorities were accused of lack of training for skilled jobs.

Information concerning apprenticeship training is provided at the apprenticeship center, the news media and civil rights organizations using every effort to get the information out as quickly and as thoroughly as possible so that every available prospect can know about the program.

This move is gratifying for the program provides the bridge over the gap that has existed heretofore between minorities and skilled trades. Its success will depend, to a great extent on the response they get and a follow through by those who undertake the training.

TWO FINE ACTS OF RECOGNITION

Des Moines has witnessed the appointment of two of its citizens to positions of stature. First, William Cropp, a social worker, was named to head the Polk County Mental Health Center and, second, Lacey Spriggs has been elected to the board of directors of the American Republic Assurance Company.

These are positions of responsibility and each of these men brings to his post a wealth of knowledge. Cropp's formal education in his field prepares him well to fill the job. Spriggs, a junior high principal in a mixed area, plus his academic training and background to a company which is already reaching out to help minority groups move ahead.

Such recognition proves that this community is moving ahead in its effort to make Des Moines a better city by demonstrating to minorities that not only are the business and professional people interested in helping them get an education but also a job commensurate with their training once it is completed.

BROOKE GIVES NIXON BEST ADVICE

President elect Nixon has offered Senator Brooke of Massachusetts a cabinet position in his new administration. The senator has turned it down believing that he can be of more help to Mr. Nixon, the party and his race by remaining in the senate.

Senator Brooke traveled with Mr. Nixon during much of his campaign, was an advisor and did not hesitate to call Mr. Nixon's hand when he felt that the position which was being taken clashed with his ideas.

We agree with Senator Brooke's decision and yet it was the smart thing for Mr. Nixon to offer the senator recognition for his worth and help.

There are other able members of the minority group to whom Mr. Nixon can turn in his effort to dispel the suspicious feeling among Negroes that made 95% of them vote against him, that will not retard the gains Negroes have made in recent years and that will give Negroes a better image of the Republican party.

Mr. Nixon had a good civil rights record in Congress and headed President Eisenhower's first fair employment group. He knows what the Negro wants; he must help them get it.

SPORTS

With Allen Ashby

Now that the football season is well on its way to the bowl and play off stage, it is about time for some guy to come up with the arguments about football of today against the game of twenty or thirty years ago. There are not many, if any, changes in the basic fundamentals of the game. The idea is still to get the ball over the goal line and the best way to do it is still to knock down whoever is in the way.

The players are much bigger and faster. There just isn't any place for a hundred thirty-five pound set back or a hundred forty pound end. Even a pulling guard weighing less than two thirty would be run over.

Passes More

Teams pass more because primarily the ball is smaller in circumference and easier to pass. The old ball was made mainly for kicking. Kicking played a big part in the game strategy of the thirties and forties. Those punters could drop a football within inches of the sideline and out of bounds inside the five yard line a lot of times. Then, the emphasis was on placement and distance. Now it is on some distance and height to allow players of the kicking team time to get down under the ball. Today the kicking team consists of just about all the fast runners and swift tacklers and they all take off at the sight of the ball. The kicker stands so far back that he has to have a bad pass in order for a punt to be blocked. He has time to walk three or four steps before he kicks the ball. Your old punter stood not more than ten yards behind the center, took one step or maybe a half step and booted. That idea of placing units out of bounds might work now, but most teams try a field goal from anywhere under fifty yards, so why boot the ball away.

Ran Most Plays

Formerly you ran about sixty per cent of your plays, now you pass on just about half of them. Sometimes more.

Your old time signal caller could get no help from the coach except between halves. When a substitute entered the game he couldn't even get into the huddle until after one play was run. The information that the coach sends out to his quarterback now had to be learned by that fellow during a game. The quarterback had to know every other team member's assignment on each play. That way he could tell who didn't do his job—when a play got broken.

He had to figure out what the defense was doing and how to counteract it without any help. Now the bench except between halves, wonders how some of your great quarterbacks today would make out, a lot of them would do all right because they would have come up in that environment.

But with all that you still have to crash into that line to get five yards and there isn't anyway to stop a runner without tackling him and knocking him down.

Call Your Service Man

Families who have relatives stationed in Vietnam are advised by Northwestern Bell manager Loy Brooks to plan ahead if they wish to talk with them during the holiday season.

"In most instances it is easier for a serviceman to call home than for his family to try reaching him in Vietnam. That is why servicemen are encouraged to notify their families in advance if they expect to telephone home, particularly around the holidays," Mr. Loy Brooks said.

Jackman Graduated Marine Corps Combat

San Diego (FHTNC) Nov. 20 — Marine Private Marlon L. Jackman, 17, son of Mrs. Edward Colbert of 1520 Mondamin Ave. Des Moines, Iowa, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot here.

He will now undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

A thorough study of basic military subjects, hygiene, first aid and sanitation, and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join the Marine combat forces.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Why does some hair break off when combing?

Your hair is precious and delicate . . . and none of us like to see it break off for any reason. Scientists tell us that excessive use of hot combs and over-processing of hair with chemicals often are major causes of brittleness resulting in hair breakage. But hair that is naturally curly and tangles easily frequently breaks off in everyday combing. Notice how irritated your scalp becomes when you comb in contrast to the way your beautician does?

Your professional beautician knows that curly hair mats and tangles so easily that it should be softened before combing. Otherwise, unnecessary irritation to the scalp and damage to the shaft and ends of the hair occurs. To achieve this needed softening and a temporary relaxing effect that prevents breakage on all human hair (including wigs), most beauticians rely on Clairol® Hair-So-New® spray-on creme rinse. For combing ease and for beautifying your hair in many other ways, trained beauticians stock a complete family of fine Clairol products for your specific needs.

Visit your expert hairdresser, who cares about your hair care and your comfort. Whatever the nature of your hair problems, only your professional beautician knows the answer for sure.
