Pickett Cited by Vets Administration For Annual Award

David Pickett, a nursing assistant at Veterans Hospital here in Des Moines, has been awarded the Veterans Administration's Honor Award for his excellence in rendering outstanding service to the public in Des Moines. The "Chief Medical Director's Award for Service to the Public" was presented to Pickett because of the significant contributions he has made in the community to help solve the many problems concerning urban renewal and the elimination of conditions that lead to poverty, crime, hatred, etc.

Chief Congratulates

Dr. H. M. Engle, the VA's Chief Medical Director in Washington, D.C., extended personal congratulations by letter to Mr. Pickett and asked E. W. Christensen, VA Center Director in Des Moines, to make the presentation on his behalf. In attendance when Pickett received the desk plaque, gold service pin, and letter from the Chief Medical Director were Mayor Thomas Urban who extended his congratulations on behalf of the City of Des Moines, U. E. Wells, Assistant Center Director, Dr. Henry Decker, Chief of Staff, and Mrs. Ruth Felker, Chief of Nursing Service.

Given Semi Annually

This national award is given once every six months to a Veterans Administration employee who has made significant contribution in the public interest. Mr. Pickett received his award because of his activities as Past President of the Walnut Hill Improvement Association, Past President of the Assembly of Groups to be Served, and his work with various local officials and other organizing methods for improvement. The award was also given for his activities as Chairman of the Model Cities Program Planning Board, his activities as Representative-at-Large in the Model Cities Program, and his activities as Treasurer of the Region Four Model Cities Program in the Midwest.

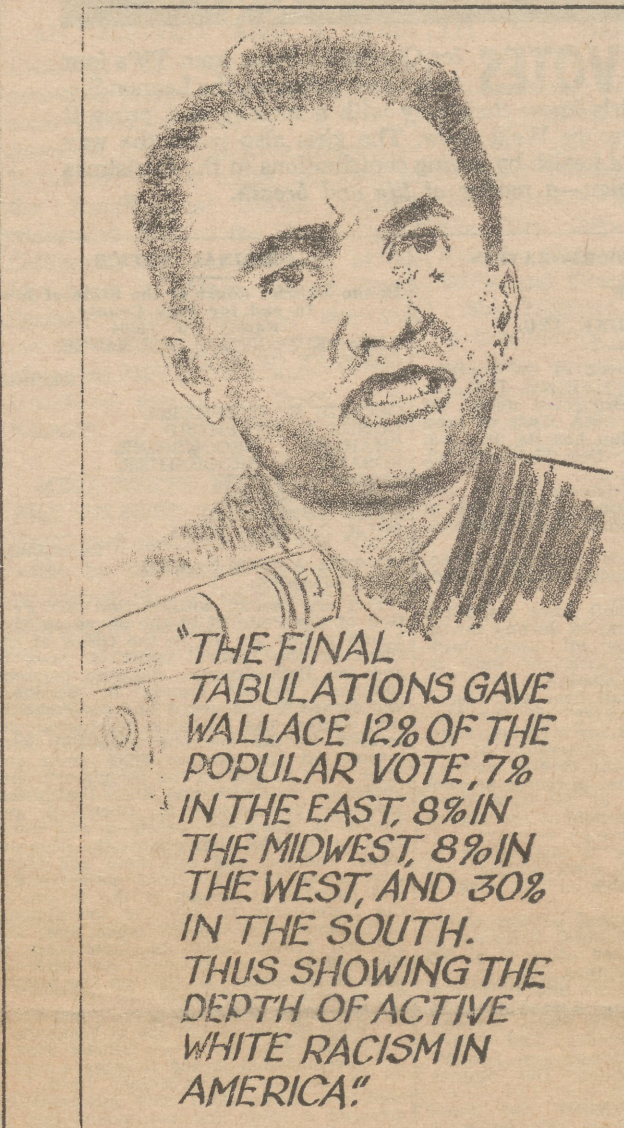

It is also noteworthy that in addition to Pickett's desire to help others, he carries 12 outstanding performance ratings for his duties at Veterans Hospital. Pickett said, "Solutions can be found for today's problems if enough people work at it." When asked what he would like to do with the VA in the future, he answered, "Anything that has challenge to it. That is probably the real reason I am working with the Model Cities Project."

NAACP Annual Meeting January 13

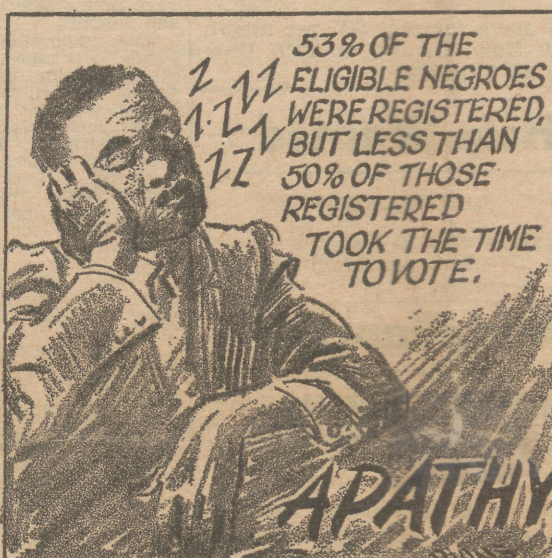

New York — Executive Director Roy Wilkins will report to the annual meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People on the "state of the NAACP" at the Park Sheraton Hotel here, Monday morning, Jan. 13.

Mr. Wilkins will report on the various activities of the Association during 1968 covering programs carried out by the several NAACP departments, significant achievements, membership and income figures, and highlights of branch actions. He will also indicate major programs and activities for the year 1969.

The results of the election of members of the Board of Directors

"THE FINAL TABULATIONS GAVE WALLACE 12% OF THE POPULAR VOTE, 7% IN THE EAST, 8% IN THE MIDWEST, 8% IN THE WEST, AND 30% IN THE SOUTH. THUS SHOWING THE DEPTH OF ACTIVE WHITE RACISM IN AMERICA."

NAACP Mourns Death of Two Outstanding Members

New York—Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive director, expressed "profound regret" on behalf of the Association upon the death of U. Simpson Tate, in Wewoka, Okla. In a telegram to the Rev. Wade Watts of McAlester, Okla., Mr. Wilkins noted that Mr. Tate "served as NAACP Southwest Regional Counsel with great distinction."

Mr. Tate helped to conduct the law suit that broke racial barriers at the University of Oklahoma. He later helped in the Federal law suit that achieved much the same result in the public school system of Oklahoma City.

A native of Monroe County, Ala., Mr. Tate attended public school in Mississippi and colleges in several states. In his capacity as Southwest Regional Counsel and later as NAACP field secretary for the State of Oklahoma, he travelled widely. Mr. Tate died of a stroke on December 14, at the age of 68.

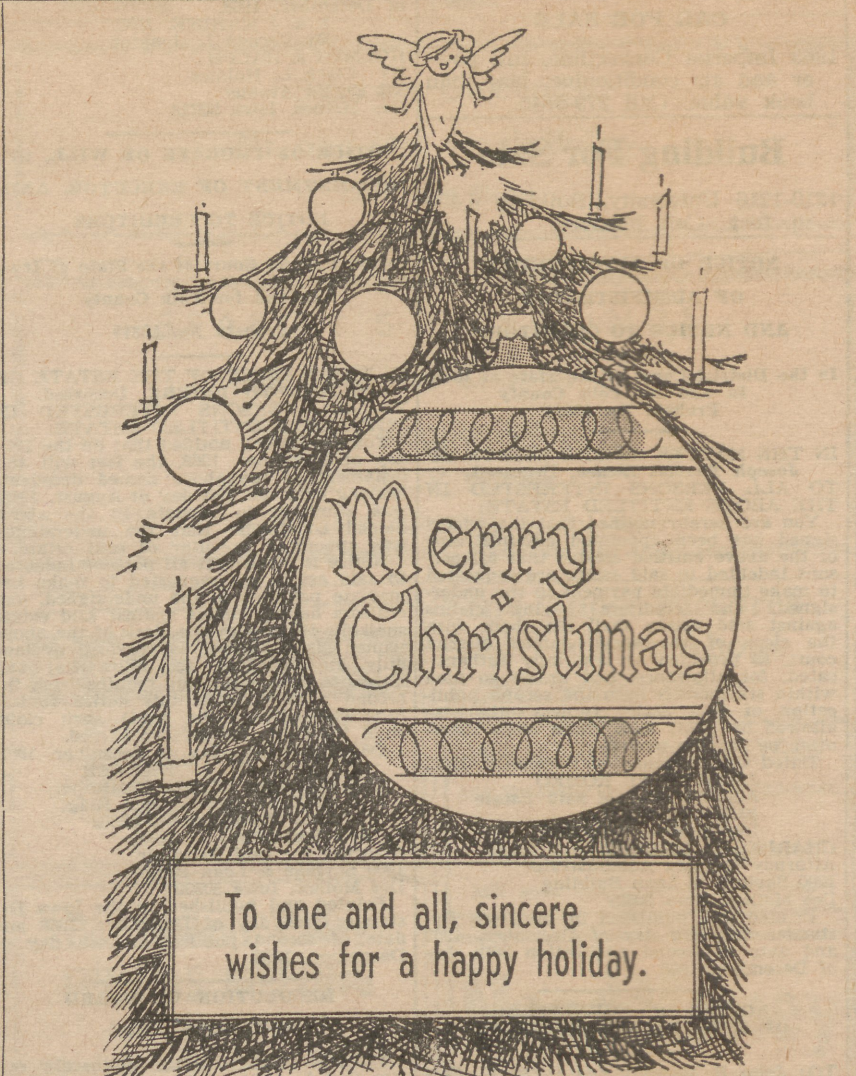

In the telegram of condolence, Mr. Wilkins noted that Mr. Tate "rendered invaluable service not only to the NAACP but to the entire southwest region."

New York—Mrs. Madeline A. Williams was mourned and praised by the officers of the NAACP in a telegram of condolence marking her death in East Orange, N.J., Dec. 14.

The first Negro woman to be elected to the New Jersey State Legislature, Mrs. Williams rendered "invaluable service to the NAACP" and "to the entire community" of New Jersey, officials of the civil rights organization said.

will also be announced at the annual meeting.

The meeting will be preceded the night before by the annual fellowship dinner to be held at the New York Hilton Hotel. The dinner and the meeting are attended by NAACP leaders and representatives from all sections of the country.

Louis Martin, DNC Minorities Division Chief, Resigns To Return to Newspaper Executive Role

Washington, D.C.—Louis Martin—a key figure in Democratic activities over many years—is stepping down after eight years as the Democratic National Committee's Deputy Chairman in charge of the Minorities and Nationalities Division.

Mr. Martin has headed the Division since November, 1960, when the newly-elected President John F. Kennedy asked him to accept the post. Prior to that, Mr. Martin, at candidate Kennedy's request, had handled press relations for the DNC's Minorities Division during the 1960 campaign.

In accepting his 1960 assignment, Mr. Martin embarked on what he thought would be a brief leave of absence from his professional activities as a journalist—specifically, as a top executive of the Sengstacke Publications. This organization, with headquarters in Chicago, publishes the Chicago Daily Defender and several weekly Negro newspapers.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Baltimore, Maryland — Harold D. Young has been appointed personnel administrator for Commercial Credit Corporation, according to John M. Sheehan, president.

A native of Washington, D.C., Mr. Young is a graduate of Hoffman-Boston High School in Arlington, Virginia, where he had made his home before joining the national installment finance and personal loan firm.

Washington, D.C. — The Department of State Equal Employment Opportunity Program is recruiting minority group candidates to fill middle grade officer positions. A limited number of appointments will be made on a competitive basis beginning immediately.

Recruitment will be done on a highly selective basis by the Equal Employment Opportunity Program staff and the Office of Personnel in minority group communities throughout the country.

Waterloo, Ia.—A program to train Waterloo Negro men in law enforcement and to provide them with part-time police work for pay was announced here Thursday.

Officials of four agencies sponsoring the program, believed to be the first of its kind in Iowa, said 29 Negroes currently are enrolled in a special 26-week, 160-hour police science course conducted by the Hawkeye Institute of Technology here.

Columbia, S.C.—The first of a series of suits seeking payment of $100,000 damages to the estates of three young Negroes killed at Orangeburg last February was filed in the United States District Court here, Dec. 18, by Matthew Perry, special counsel of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Washington, D.C.—"Black power did not start up from slavery—it started down from kings," declared Harland Randolph, vice president of development at Federal City College, at a conference of the International Human Rights Day Observances held here Dec. 10.

New York, N.Y.—Mayor John V. Lindsay was urged today by the American Jewish Congress to end the "exclusion" of Negroes and Puerto Ricans in filling two current vacancies on the city's Planning Commission.

Clyde Glass Dies in Washington

Clyde Glass, a retired music school teacher died in Washington, D.C., last week following a short illness. Funeral services were held Monday, December 23. Burial was in Washington.

Mr. Glass was a former resident of Des Moines, the brother of the late Oscar Glass.

Mr. Glass began his music studies in Des Moines with Bertha Allen. Later he attended the Des Moines School of Music and pursued further studies in Boston, Columbia University and in Europe.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Herione Thomas of Philadelphia, Pa., and a number of other relatives in Des Moines and New York.

Radical Authors See Slow Progress Made in Improving Race Relations

The January 7 issue of Look Magazine turns to the radical impractical element among Negroes devoting the whole issue of "the Blacks and Whites" in America, for a solution.

"It's not important that a black man prove he's as good as a white man. He is. What's important is whether our society can respond in a legitimate way to the black man in any position."

These are the words of Richard Hatcher, the Negro Mayor of Gary, Ind. Hatcher's words are quoted in the current issue of Look Magazine, which is devoted entirely to the confrontation between blacks and whites in America today, and they reflect the issue's central theme.

Difficult Question

Working within that theme, the editors of Look sought to find difficult answers to the critically important question: Can America's blacks and whites work together to bridge the racial gulf between them?

One answer is provided by Negro writer George Goodman, who co-edited the special issue. If bridging the racial gap "still means turning black people white," writes Goodman, "then the answer is no, probably never."

Look's special issue deals with virtually all facets of black-white relations and reports that responsible white men are beginning to build a body of social consciousness allowing the Negro to help himself to a portion of the American dream.

Cleaver Seeks Merger

Black Panther leader Eldridge Cleaver says that his militant Black Panther Party would seek mergers with all militant groups in order to carry forward the black revolution.

Cleaver made the statement in an interview published in the current issue of Look Magazine. The interview was conducted before Cleaver fled his Oakland, Calif. home to escape a parole violation that would land him back in jail.

Concludes the magazine:

"Progress is relative in the black and white story. In some ways we know there is a widening gap between the two races. In others, we become more and more aware of the dramatic change that every day is handling the American Negro his long overdue and 'inalienable' rights—and with these, his self-respect."

The authors in this issue spend their energy telling Negroes they can't attain total liberation without resorting to violence. The article is a typical example of how too much of the news media either through fear or in an effort to publish explosive news which depicts the radical unexperienced Negro as the spokesman for the solution of the race question in America.

Harlem Negroes Buy Woolworth Store

New York — F. W. Woolworth Co. has announced a unique sale-and-leaseback arrangement that will transfer ownership of one of its major stores in Harlem to Negro citizenship, with the objective of benefits to the entire Harlem community. This was achieved through the combined efforts of a group of social financial and black leaders including Harlem Freedom Associates; Carter, Berlind, and Weill, Inc., investment bankers; the Equitable Life Assurance Society and the American Federation of Musicians.

The entire project is located at 208-220 West 125th Street. The land and completed store is being sold to newly formed Harlem Freedom Associates. The rental income enabled the purchaser to finance the project.

Hold Self Styled Minister in Probable Child Stealing Charge

A 10 year old child was taken from the YMCA Tuesday evening while her parents watched their son participate in a wrestling match. She had gone to purchase a candy bar but never returned.

Anthony Erthel Williams, a self styled minister and probable escapee from a mental institution in Missouri surrendered to the Davenport police Thursday morning following a call to Atty. Henry McKnight who advised him to turn himself over to the authorities.

Des Moines NAACP Elects Officers

Miss Aletha Simmons from the New York office of the NAACP addressed the Des Moines Branch fighting fund for freedom banquet at Bishop's Merle Hay cafeteria Wednesday, December 18.

The officers and board members elected were: president, Malcolm Hogan; 1st vice president, Paul W. Danforth; 2nd vice president, Albert L. Garrison; 3rd vice president, Marsh Houston; recording secretary, Jacqueline Taylor; corresponding secretary, Leola B. Davis; treasurer, William L. Bell. Board members are: Robert A. Wright, A. June Franklin, James B. Morris, Sr., James B. Sr., James B. Morris, Jr., A. P. Trotter, William N. Cropp, John M. Estes, Jr., Arthur L. Propes, Louis C. Riffe, Thelma Clark, Clara Bayles, Ted Wheat, Marjorie E. W. Smith, Rev. Fred K. Swett, Cecil Reed, Maude White, James E. Bowman, Silas Ewing, Ione Lloyd, Jesse F. Taylor, Charles S. Crook, Jr., J. W. Janssen, Rev. James Shopshire, George C. Morris, Nolden Gentry, Judge Luther T. Glanton, Jr., John E. Davis, W. C. Buice, Karen Musser and Sandra West.

Blood stained clothing identified by the father has been found in the Grinnell area.

He had been living at the YMCA since October working at various jobs including the parking lot at 2nd and Locust.

ONE VISIT WITH MAUDE ESTHER WHITE calls for more of the same! A native of Perry, Iowa, she has returned to us after some 20 years in sunny California. An ambitious woman, Maude has spent some part of each of those years in self-development, always with the desire to "take someone else with me," she adds.

LEAVING IOWA IN 1936, Miss White tells me that each year since that time she has taken at least one course in some school. To date she has completed 2 years in Business Administration, has earned and received a B.A. in Sociology from the University of California, Berkeley, and from Drake University; this did not mark the end of her plans. Intext. This work, she says, was begun during her 1962-63 stay in Africa.

MAUDE IS WORKING FULL TIME as an Iowa State Employment Service counselor and finds this position most challenging. It provides, she states, an opportunity to invoke the agency's philosophy of assisting individuals to become involved in vocational opportunities which allow for the full utilization of their skills and abilities regardless of race, creed or religion. This position coincides with that of head clerk in California's State Department located in Los Angeles. This work occurred 1944 to 1950.

AN ACTIVIST AND A BORN LEADER (like her father) Maude served as president of the San Francisco Links, member of the YWCA Board of Directors, Area Secretary-Treasurer of the Links, member of the International House Council while a student at the University of California, and was president of the Ivy Leaf of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. Most recently, she was elected to the Board of Directors, Moingona Girl Scout Council of Central Iowa, and to the Board of the NAACP.

MISS WHITE HAS ONE BASIC PHILOSOPHY. It is "see no barriers" and declares that she tries to abide by the prayer of St. Francis of Assisi. She is the mother of Mrs. Marguerite English of Perry, Iowa, whom she says "has blessed her with five precious grandchildren." They are Eury, Denise, Maudine, Marvin and Mark. Miss White has been legally granted the use of her maiden name, White, a name she considers a legacy. And this is properly so—she is the daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. G. W. White.

MAUDE WILL MAKE A VERY REAL CONTRIBUTION to the community not only for her intellect but for her warm and pleasant personality! She exudes great community interest and a genuine desire to give friendship and guidance to young people.

Sherry Long Celebrates Birthday

Sherry Long, a Junior at North High School and daughter of Mrs. Maxine Long, celebrated her 17th birthday December 17th at her home, with her family and relatives. She received many fine gifts from friends and loved ones. Sherry also received a small homemade cake from Pat Atkins, a school mate.

HIS ARGUMENT
DEFIES HISTORY

Last week, Chuck Stone in the Des Moines Register replying to a news article concerning the effort of Rep. H. R. Gross to prevent A. Clayton Powell from getting his seat in Congress challenges the Iowan on two theories pointing out that the grand jury did not indict Powell for illegal use of $40,000.

He pointed out that Congress has no right to judge the qualifications of its members other than those enumerated in the Constitution. We do not subscribe to this interpretation and neither does the practice followed in Congress.

We are reminded of the last campaign of the late Senator Balbo of Mississippi when he was accused of urging white people to keep Negroes from the polls by any means necessary including murder.

Senator Balbo was elected. Negroes, including the NAACP, challenged Balbo's fitness for service in the Senate on the basis of his low level dangerous campaign utterances.

A committee headed by Senator Hickenlooper of Iowa was sent to Mississippi to investigate, to hold hearings and report their findings in the matter.

We are not familiar with what the report contained. It must have been bad for when the senator from Mississippi came forward to be sworn in the presiding officer asked that he not take the oath, that he step aside and await the report of the investigation of his fitness for office.

The Senator was ill with cancer anyway. He died a few days thereafter hurt because the senate was questioning his fitness for office on other grounds than those named in the constitution.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

The Bystander hopes for all a Merry Christmas; a Christmas grounded on peace on earth and good will toward men.

True, wars, hot and cold, cover the world today pitting nations against nations, races against races and men against men. But there is hope in that a peaceful solution of the problems that divide their forces are working for solutions. And while most people in America, in spite of their divisions, are happy and provided for, the full meaning of Christmas cannot come until there is peace on earth and good will toward ALL men.

Rice Consumer Service

* Indonesian Chicken — Shrimp Superb

The Asian countries are masters at combining unusual food combinations for sensational flavor. This combination of shrimp, chicken, ham, crab meat, peanut butter and seasonings sounds too different! But it is a delicious, subtle blending of complementary flavors.

INGREDIENTS:

1½ cups uncooked white rice
4 cups chicken broth (use bouillon cubes if desired)
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ cup cooking fat
1½ cups chopped onions
1 clove garlic, minced
1 teaspoon whole cumin seed
1 pound frozen green shrimp or 2, 4½ oz. cans
1 teaspoon ground coriander
½ teaspoon mace
½ teaspoon chili powder
¼ cup peanut butter
1 cup cooked crab meat, cut up (about a 6 oz. can)
1 cup cubed cooked ham or luncheon meat
1 cup cut up cooked chicken (about 2, 5 oz. cans)
About 1 cup chopped peanuts
About 1 cup shredded coconut
About 3 bananas, sliced

METHOD: Put the rice, 3 cups of the chicken broth and 1½ teaspoons salt in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat down low. Cover with a lid and simmer over this low heat 14 minutes. Remove the saucepan from the heat, but leave the lid on until ready to use, at least 10 minutes. While the rice cooks, heat the cooking fat in a large skillet or Dutch oven. Add the onions, garlic and cumin seed. Cook, stirring occasionally, 10 minutes or until the onions turn yellow and are tender. While the onions cook, if green shrimp are used peel and clean. To clean, run a knife along the back of the shrimp from head to tail to remove the sand vein. Wash in water. After the onions cook stir in the green uncooked shrimp. If shrimp are very large coarsely chop them but save several whole shrimp for garnish. Cook, stirring occasionally, about 10 minutes or until the shrimp are pink all over. Stir in the coriander, mace, chili powder and peanut butter. Mix well. Add the shrimp if canned shrimp are used, crab meat, ham, chicken and the remaining 1 cup chicken broth. Heat until very hot. Gently stir in the hot rice. Serve in a large dish garnished with the whole shrimp. Serve the peanuts, coconut and bananas in side dishes. Servings of the chicken-shrimp mixture should be topped with helpings of peanuts, coconut and bananas. This recipe makes 12 servings.

HEALTH FOR ALL

Three French hens or five golden rings would make charming Christmas gifts. Perhaps. But this year cartons of cigarettes might not get a friendly response.

Just this year, one million people quit smoking. Millions more are trying to stop. And—say the latest government reports—one-third of all people who try to quit are successful. They need all the help they can get. Not temptation.

The cigarette industry is still a $7.5 billion business. Backruptcy is not around the corner yet. But trouble is.

For one thing 100,000 doctors have sworn off cigarettes. One-fourth of all men and one-fifth of all women who have ever smoked have now quit. This year's surveys show, for the first time, a sharp decline in the smoking rates for teenagers. And more young people than ever before report that they do not intend to take up smoking in the future.

Cigarette sales are hurting. The latest Internal Revenue Service figures show an absolute reduction—for each month recorded so far this year—in the number of cigarettes manufactured and in those removed from manufacturers' warehouses.

Cigarettes for Christmas—for anytime—are now unwelcome presents for millions of ex-smokers. And the anti-smoking efforts of your local TB-RD association are trying to promote more reduced use of cigarettes.

This year the Christmas Seal is not two turtle doves but a partridge in a pear tree, a gift for the first day of Christmas. Using Christmas Seals helps in the year-round effort to combat cigarette smoking, emphysema, tuberculosis, and air pollution.

It's a matter of life and breath. So—try to stop smoking—and use Christmas Seals.

—Your Christmas Seal Organization—Polk County Tuberculosis & Health Assn.

SPORTS

With Allen Ashby

Talking about top stories of the year, we would guess the first Houston—U.C.L.A. game had to be one of the big ones. Then the rematch with its smashing defeat of the Texans was a big story. The pitching feats of Bob Gibson would rate high and the upset of his team by the Detroit Tigers certainly made news.

Ash

Arthur Ash and his tennis wins made all of us old explayers feel good. We have always wanted a top Negro net star.

These were a few of the scores that struck us on the national scene. Oh yes, there was the off again, on again boycott of the Olympic games by Negro athletes. Then that incident that was "properly" smashed by the powers. Oh well, it was a great show.

Iowa Football

Here at home just about every one who follows football was interested in Iowa U football. We must say the Hawks never had a dull game and their first winning conference season in some time had to be big news in Iowa.

Iowa State

The Iowa State team didn't win too many games, but they always played well and each game was full of big plays. That fourth year old play that came up against Nebraska was an example. Normally that would have been a big story.

Locally, Dowling squeezed out a number one rating on one rating after East Waterloo had held the place three years. The thing about the Waterloo team that we thought should have been pointed out was that in spite of their internal troubles the football team kept on its winning ways and never got involved so it should

The collapse of the East High team here was a bit of a shock. The Scarlet started out with what could have been a fine team but suddenly went to pieces. Some who claim to know say interracial strife caused it. We don't know for sure, but the team really went down the drain. There were other things like our Hilltop tennis meet, kids in little baseball and stuff like that that made this year a good one for sports.

Drake Basketball

People are still arguing about the Drake basketball team. Real Drake partisans will tell you that this is the best team ever. Some of us who have seen so many of these playing starts have a wait and see complex. We really expect Iowa University to come up with a tough ball club in time for the conference race. That Big Ten title is really up for grabs with Illinois looking better every week.

Drake in the Missouri Valley! That league is always tough and there just isn't any easy way to pick a possible winner. Be nice if that winner were Drake.

Here at home it looks like nobody is going to stop Roosevelt at least here in the city. Maybe they will take all the marbles this year.

Bowling Scores

Thelma McCurn picked up the 6-7-10 split on Tuesday night November 26 at the Capital Bowling Alley in the Tri-Hard all Women's League, and Deloris Davis had a 208 high game and a 543 high series, Audrey (sis) Sanders had a 243 high game and a 538 high series. Given Stubbs, is the Leagues president.

Q—My husband, a World War II veteran died in 1958. We did not have any children. My application for a widow's pension was denied at that time because I had only been married to my husband for three years. I am now unable to work because of disability. Will this be a consideration if I should reapply for a pension?

A—In itself your disability would not be a consideration. However, a law passed in 1967 liberalized the five-year marriage requirement in effect at the time of your husband's death. Now a widow needs to have been married to the veteran only one year before his death to meet this pension eligibility requirement. For information and assistance in reapplying for a pension, contact your nearest VA regional office.

Q—What is the limit on the amount of a guaranteed home loan a veteran can obtain from a lending institution, and what is the maximum length of time allowed to repay this type of loan?

A—The VA has no limit on the amount which may be borrowed with a guaranteed loan. However, there is a limitation on the amount of the VA guaranty to the lender. The guaranty cannot be more than 60 per cent of the loan and in no event can it exceed $12,500. GI home loan

Q—I am receiving a pension for my nonservice-connected disabilities. When is the deadline for returning my income questionnaire from the Veterans Administration?

A—The deadline is Jan. 15, 1969.

What is electricity? THOSE FIRST GREAT WORDS

Electricity is the magic of a tape recorder. It's the friendly glow of outdoor lighting. It's the convenience of power tools. It's probably 30 to 40 household servants in and around your home . . . five or six times as many as you had a generation ago. With electricity doing so many useful things, it stands to reason that your bill is higher today. But the unit cost of electricity is a full 30% lower than a generation ago. Electricity . . . your biggest household bargain, faithfully yours from
