BLACK HAWK COUNTY GRAND JURY:

Probes Racial Bias in Waterloo

Citizens Aroused by Shoddy Remarks

Speech Made at Law Enforcement Academy

A silly joke by Donald M. Statton of Boone, chairman of the Iowa Law Enforcement Academy Board, has triggered harsh comments from Negroes and other citizens.

Speaking before the graduating class of about 30 candidates which was attended and addressed by Gov. Robert Ray, he used the word "Nigger" in a corny joke he told to illustrate a point.

"I probably shouldn't say this," Statton said, but he went on to tell the story, in which he described a "nigger" being chased through a cemetery by a ghost.

Statton's joke had the "nigger" saying, "You haven't seen anything yet," after the ghost remarked on how fast he was running.

The joke was intended to illustrate how rapidly the academy planned to respond to Gov. Robert D. Ray's call for more training of law officers. Ray delivered the graduation address for the academy.

The law officers at the ceremonies Friday are mostly from small Iowa communities. They had just completed four weeks of schooling at the academy to improve their police skills.

Statton, a former U.S. Attorney and Iowa Safety commissioner, later said that he had given the matter no thought even though critics over the state have made known their displeasure; that a man of his standing would make such blunders.

Monday, Representative Tapscott spoke of Statton's foolish statements before the legislature and introduced a resolution calling for an investigation of what is being taught at the academy. He told the body that these incidents continue to display deep prejudice in people's mind and make relations between the law enforcement officers and the public more difficult.

Negro College Fund Receives Record Sum

New York, N. Y., February 2, 1969 — The United Negro College Fund today announced that it received the record sum of $6,943,773 during the 1968 campaign.

Of this amount, $5,957,000 was contributed for the current operating expenses, $311,307 for special programs, $316,466 in the form of legacies and bequests, $347,000 representing the final payments on pledges to the Capital Development Campaign begun in 1963, and $11,000 for other purposes.

Gains Over a Million

George Champion, chairman of the board of the Chase Manhattan Bank, and last year's national campaign chairman and treasurer for the Fund, reported that the total income during the year was a gain of $1,352,000 over 1967 — and the largest annual increase in the Fund's 25-year history.

Corporation Awareness

"I feel," said Mr. Champion, "that the significant rise in campaign income last year, was due largely to the increased awareness and response

Harry Johnson Retires From Iowa-Des Moines National Bank

Harry V. Johnson, Sr., 1132 17th Street, retired January 31, 1969, from Iowa-Des Moines National Bank, after over thirty-five years of service.

Employed in the maintenance department, and as a messenger for the bank, he was highly honored on his retirement.

A party was given in his honor at the Wakonda Club, with workers and staff members of the bank were present.

He received many gifts including United States savings bonds, gift certificates, currency, sport shirts, and a handsome wood humidor engraved with his initials and date of severance from the bank.

Mr. Johnson is planning a small trucking business which will leave time for his favorite hobby, fishing.

of corporations, foundations, and individuals to the Fund's appeal to support quality higher education for Negro youth as a means to closing the educational and economic gap now existing in our country.

"The Fund's institutions," added Mr. Champion, "offer black men and women a chance—and often their only chance — to obtain high-calibre college education."

In outlining further details of the campaign, Dr. Stephen J. Wright, president of the Fund, noted corporate support increased substantially. He also reported that gifts came from over 65,000 individuals and organizations.

The money raised through the Fund's nationwide appeal for current operating expenses will be used by the private, fully accredited, predominantly Negro member-colleges and universities to help sustain teachers salaries, buy essential teaching equipment, strengthen library holdings and bolster scholarship programs for more than 27,000 needy students.

During the past 25 years, the Fund has distributed over $100 million to assist its member colleges and universities.

NEW MEDICAL COMPLEX

The University of Iowa's health sciences colleges will be able to accommodate much greater enrollments after 1971 when the U of I's current medical complex is transformed into a new, integrated Health Sciences Campus. The new campus will congregate all major hospital and teaching facilities for the health sciences. Included will be new buildings to house the College of Nursing and Dentistry, a new Basic Science Building, a major new addition to the University Hospitals, a new Health Sciences Library, and the many buildings now housing the College of Medicine and the College of Pharmacy.

PATRICIA ROBERT HARRIS APPOINTED DEAN OF HOWARD UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

Washington, D. C. (January 29) — Patricia Robert Harris, former U.S. Ambassador to Luxembourg and presently professor of law at Howard University, has been appointed dean of the Howard School of Law. The announcement was made by University President James M. Nabrit, Jr., following a meeting of the University's Board of Trustees yesterday.

Mrs. Harris will assume her new position February 1. She succeeds Clarence Clyde Ferguson, Jr., who recently resigned to accept a position as distinguished professor of law at Rutgers University.

Howard Graduate

The 1945 summa cum laude graduate of Howard's College of Liberal Arts has been a member of the University staff since September, 1961 when she was appointed associate dean of students. Two years later she resigned that position to join the faculty of the School of Law as an assistant professor and was subsequently elevated to the rank of associate professor.

Ambassador

In July 1965 Mrs. Harris took a leave of absence from Howard when President Lyndon B. Johnson appointed her Ambassador to Luxembourg. In that position she was the first Negro woman ambassador to represent the United States abroad. She returned to Howard in September 1967 as professor of law.

She is the recipient of the Luxembourg Order of the Oaken Crown (1967), Women's Committee of Yeshiva University's Distinguished Achievement Award (1968), Howard University's Distinguished Alumni Award (1966), and the National Council of Negro Women's Distinguished Service Award (1959).

A native of Mattoon, Ill., Mrs. Harris is married to William Beasley Harris, a Washington, D. C. attorney.

NAACP Opposes Concessions To Dixie Segregated Schools

New York — The decision of Robert M. Finch, new Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, to postpone full enforcement of the Johnson Administration order to deny Federal funds to school districts defying requirements to desegregate, apparently "represents a concession to President Richard M. Nixon's diehard Dixie supporters," Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said in a statement released here, Jan. 30.

Mr. Wilkins' statement followed Secretary Finch's announcement the previous day in Washington that the Nixon Administration had agreed to hold in escrow for a 60-day period Federal funds for five Dixie school districts pending further investigation and efforts to negotiate acceptable desegregation plans. Previously, the funds had been ordered cut off. Mr. Wilkins said that "the NAACP would do everything it can to have the Finch position reversed and to prevent it from setting a precedent."

In his report to the NAACP annual meeting here, Jan. 13, Mr. Wilkins expressed the Association's concern about the possibility of an alteration of the Johnson Administration's position on school desegregation by the new administration.

"If there is one place where the new Nixon Administration must be watched like a hawk," he said, "it is on this issue of the enforcement of the law on school desegregation."

NO VERDICT IN TRIAL OF VERNON DAHMER'S ALLEGED MURDERER

Hattiesburg, Miss. — Samuel H. Bowers, Jr., under trial for the fire-bomb murder of Vernon Dahmer, a Mississippi NAACP leader, has been returned to jail after a jury failed to agree on his guilt or innocence. He deadlocked panel, including two Negroes, was dismissed by Judge Stanton A. Hall on Jan. 25.

Already under conviction in the deaths of three civil rights workers near Philadelphia, Miss., Bowers will be tried again for the Dahmer slaying.

Nightriders fire-bombed the Dahmer home, store and car on January 10, 1966. Mr. Dahmer was burned fatally, and his wife and daughter were hospitalized with burns. He had been president of the Forrest County NAACP Branch and had recently been active in a voter registration campaign.

The jury hearing the Bowers case had been unable, in an overnight effort to reach a unanimous verdict, to come to a decision as to whether Bowers had planned and directed the Dahmer assassination three years ago. If convicted, the penalty for such a charge could be death in the gas chamber or life imprisonment. The jury vote had been 10 to 2, with the majority voting for conviction. The two Negro jurors voted with the majority.

Howard's Career Lauded by NAACP Leader

New York — The "pioneer role" of the late Charles P. Howard "in the fight for freedom," is lauded by NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins in a telegram of condolence to his sons. Mr. Howard, once a lawyer and active worker in the NAACP in the Midwest and more recently an international news correspondent, died in Baltimore on Jan. 25.

The text of Mr. Wilkins' telegram follows:

Shocked and deeply grieved to learn of passing of your distinguished father who was a pioneer in the fight for freedom. His dedication to this cause will long be cherished by all of us who continue the struggle to level invidious barriers to racial advancement and brotherhood of all mankind. On behalf of the officers and members of the NAACP I extend to you and your brothers heartfelt sympathy in the great loss you have sustained.

Stems from Incidents in Public Schools and Arson Charges Early Last Fall

Waterloo, Iowa — Stemming from racial tensions that have existed in Waterloo for months, The Black Hawk grand jury has undertaken an investigation of what is back of it.

Saturday the jury made its long awaited report with these conclusions.

—There was insufficient evidence to return any criminal indictments for arson or other acts that occurred during the racial strife here in September.

—"Outsiders" were not the primary cause of the disturbances.

—A Negro "ghetto" exists in Waterloo, with some county and city-owned properties in the area "in disrepair and poorly maintained."

—De facto segregation exists in Waterloo's public school system.

—The city's residential areas are segregated and Negro applicants for real estate loans have, in the past been refused credit if they, chose to live in non-black neighborhoods.

—The minority and disadvantaged individual here, in general, is better off than he was a year ago.

The report contained a number of recommendations to correct the inequities found by the jury. It also urged that a grand jury be reconvened within six months to determine if the advice was being followed.

The report said the grand jury should "take further steps at that time to enforce implementation of these recommendations."

The grand jury preceded its recommendations with the statement: "We as a county and as communities with in that county must act now."

Among the recommendations:

—Eliminate the "acknowledged double-standard" of law enforcement in Waterloo.

—Hire "more properly qualified law enforcement officers" and increase policemen's wages.

—Clean up condemned houses in the Negro ghetto. Increase condemnation proceedings at a faster rate.

—Eliminate de facto segregation in the schools, beginning immediately at the elementary school level "where discrimination and prejudice, as such, are practically non-existent and the minority or disadvantaged child is more readily accepted."

—Enforce open housing in the city, with the board of realtors endorsing an "equal opportunity" statement by all of its members in their advertising.

—Encourage black residents to obtain housing in areas other than the ghetto.

—Implement recreation programs that will integrate "disadvantaged individuals who have a fear or lack of initiative to utilize present facilities."

—Reorganize the Waterloo Human Rights Commission, bringing its executive director "closer to the office of the mayor."

The grand jury urged implementation of the report which they felt would alleviate many of the injustices of which Negroes have complained.

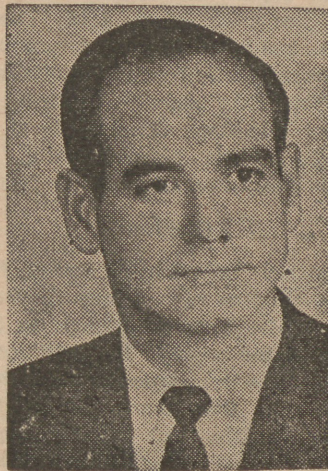

The incidents which began the investigation occurred last September with several instances of racial disorder following a re and confrontations by Negroes with police.

Rights Group Honors Humphrey and Wilkins

Washington — Celebrating the 20th anniversary of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights some 1,300 civil rights activists, including members of the Congress, paid tribute to former Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and to NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins, Conference chairman, at a rousing dinner party here, Jan. 28. The two were cited for their dedicated service to the civil rights cause — particularly their roles in securing enactment of a significant body of legislation.

The Conference — composed of some 100 civil rights, church, labor, minority group, fraternal and professional associations — is the outgrowth of the Joint Committee on Civil Rights organized by the NAACP, Feb. 5, 1949. Its first major project was the National Emergency Civil Rights Mobilization in Washington, Jan. 15-17, 1950. The mobilization, initiated by the NAACP, brought more than 4,000 delegates to the capital to lobby for civil rights legislation. Mr. Wilkins, then acting NAACP secretary, served as chairman of the mobilization and led a delegation to the White House to confer with President Harry S. Truman.

Continues Racial Fight

Guests attending the anniversary dinner, held at the Sheraton Park Hotel, reaffirmed the LCCR's commitment to fight racism and segregation whether projected by white people or black people. Walter Reuther, president of the United Automobile Workers, and others praised Mr. Wilkins for his reiteration of the NAACP's determination to combat Jim Crow, no matter who advocates it.

they filed before writing about their refund.

To avoid delays, be sure your Social Security number is entered accurately, all W-2 forms are attached, and the return is signed. Both husband and wife should sign if it is a joint return. Where the wife has income, her Social Security number and W-2 forms must be included.

Q—I can reduce my taxes if I itemize my deductions and my wife takes the standard deduction. Can we do this?

A—No. Married couples filing separate returns must handle their deductions the same way. If one itemizes deductions, the other must also itemize.

Married couples filing separately must also take the same type of standard deduction. If one takes the 10% standard deduction, both must take it.

Your Tax Questions

Q—I'm all set to file my return but my W-2 hasn't come yet. What should I do?

A—Wait until your W-2 arrives. The law requires employers to issue tax withholding statements to employees by January 31 so you should receive the statement shortly.

If you don't get your W-2 statement by January 31 ask your employer about it.

Q—Where can I get a copy of the new 1040 ES tax form?

A—About 13 million new estimated tax form packages will be mailed to taxpayers February 1. If you filed an estimated tax declaration last year or owed more than $40 when you filed your 1967 return, you will receive a 1040 ES form, Declaration of Estimated Income Tax for Individuals, in the mail.

The new forms are preaddressed to assure proper identification of estimated tax credits. Be sure to use your preaddressed form when you file. Others filing for the first time should get a Form 1040 ES from their District Director.

Q—When parents are divorced which one gets to claim the children as dependents?

A—Generally the parent who has custody of the child for the greater part of the year is entitled to the dependency exemption. However, if the other parent contributes at least $600 during the year to the support of the child he or she may be entitled to the exemption. There is also a special rule for a parent who furnishes more than $1,200 of support during the year but does not have custody.

These rules apply only if the divorced or separated parents together provide more than half of the child's support and have custody for more than half of the year. For further details get Publication 501, Your Exemptions and Exemptions for Dependents, from your District Director.

Q—If I file my return now, how long will it take for me to get my refund?

A—The Normal processing cycle for refunds mailed now is 5-6 weeks if the return is accurate and complete. Send your return to your regional service center.

If there is a delay beyond the usual 5-6 weeks period due to the large volume of returns being received or missing or inaccurate information, you should hear from IRS about your refund within 10 weeks from the time you filed. Taxpayers should wait at least 10 weeks from the time

Reform Jewish Group Raises $40,000 for Biafran Relief

New York, N. Y. — Jan. 30 — A recent appeal issued to members of Reform Jewish congregations for relief of starving Biafran children has raised more than $40,000, it was announced today by Earl Morse, chairman of the Board of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC), central body of Reform Judaism in the United States and Canada.

The call for help came through the Social Action Department of the UAHC and, Mr. Morse said, "The response has been deeply heartwarming. We have received contributions ranging from sixty cents — which included one Canadian nickel — from two youngsters in Massachusetts, to $1,000 from a member of our Board."

Children

Another contribution came from three children of a family in Staten Island who went from door to door to raise the money. In their accompanying letter, signed by all three, they said that many people they called on "shot out suspicious questions to us, one after another. 'What's your name?' 'Where do you live?' 'Are you going to keep this money for yourselves?' One man actually told us that he didn't care whether the children of Biafra died or not!"

But the youngsters, two aged thirteen and one twelve, persisted despite such discouraging words and, the letter continues, "... we didn't think

Negro Silence Criticized By Jewish Congress

New York, Jan. 31 — The American Jewish Congress has criticized the "silence" of Christian and Negro spokesmen who, "by failing to speak out, gave their consent" to recent anti-Semitic incidents.

In a full page advertisement appearing in today's (Friday's) New York Times, the Congress declares:

"The challenge of our time is not only inhumanity but indifference. The target is not only ill will but ignorance. The enemy is not only slander but silence."

The statement calls for a strengthening of the "natural alliance between Negroes and Jews . . . in the fight for human dignity for every citizen."

"Today that natural alliance is under attack," the statement declares, adding:

Decry Black Extremists

"Black extremists, feeding on hopelessness and frustration, have given expression to bitterness and violence. In turn, these tactics have led to anxiety among Jews for whom the memory of Nazism can never die. Sadly, the result in some quarters has been backlash and bigotry."

Declaring that racism hurts both groups, the text states: "We dare not fall prey to the divisive tactic that seeks to pit Negro against Jew, Jew against Negro. The victim will be justice. The dupe will be ourselves."

The statement concludes: "As Jews we reiterate the moral and historical imperatives that have determined our commitment to the brotherhood of all men."

"As members of the American Jewish Congress we invite all those who share our concerns to join with us in working toward the goal of full equality in a free society for all Americans."

Iowa State NAACP Board Meets Here

The State Executive Board of the Iowa State Conference of NAACP Branches met in the Des Moines Room of the Des Moines YMCA, on Saturday, February 1st at 2 p.m. Branches represented at the meeting, were; Des Moines, Ottumwa, Marshalltown and Fort Madison.

State Conference President, Attorney Robert A. Wright, reminded those present that their branches were responsible for programs which should be presented during the week of February 9-15, in observance of NEGRO HISTORY WEEK. Each community was asked to request that the Mayor issue an official proclamation so that everyone might be aware of the observance.

Reporting on meetings he had attended in New York, California and Kansas City, Mr. Wright stated that the NAACP is continuing to grow in spite of the firing of Attorney Steele and the subsequent resignation of Attorney Robert Carter as General Counsel.

The State Executive Board members voted in favor of a resolution to give the moral support of the State Conference of NAACP Branches to the newly formed Iowa Human Rights Coalition.

March 15th has been set as the next meeting date for the state Board. The meeting will be held at 2 p.m. at the Des Moines YMCA.

NEWS AROUND IOWA

is dinner and speaker will be Mrs. Rolland Grete, Executive Director, Des Moines YWCA. Topic "Volunteer An Agent of Change".

Funeral services for Tony M. O'Neal, 68, were conducted Thursday, Jan. 29 at Union Baptist Church. Rev. C. I. Jordan officiated. Tony O'Neal passed away at Independence Hospital, was a former employee of Waterloo Waste Paper Co. and had resided in Waterloo for 14 years. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery with Johnson Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. Deceased is survived by widow who resides at 129 Hopkins Court. There are four sons, three daughters, one brother and one sister.

The problems of the aging citizen are of concern to this community as of other cities. A committee has been making a study for the last three months of conditions here in Black Hawk and in Buchanan Counties.

The cold weather drives pigeons and black birds to seek warmth on the chimney tops. One bird evidently lost footing and was trapped in my fireplace chimney for several hours. A fluttering made us aware of its being there. Upon opening the draft inside he finally realized that rescuers had arrived, and flew for the window which naturally was closed. When caught and taken to the door, well, you can imagine.

Sepia Begins New Series on Negro History

Sepia magazine is beginning a new series on Negro history in its February issue on newstands now.

The series will cover the entire history of the black man in the United States from the Civil War to the present and into the future.

Many black teachers have already proclaimed the first article outstanding and are collecting the articles as they are published for use in classroom work.

In other stories, the magazine reveals how customer convenience has reached its zenith with introduction of a drive-in mortuary in Atlanta, Ga. The body in the casket is placed behind a plate glass window for easy viewing from the car. Family emotions can thus be kept private.

To the black soldier in Viet Nam, there's always two wars to fight, the one against the enemy and the one against discrimination. The trials and tribulations of the black servicemen are chronicled in "Black Soldiers Fight Two Wars in Viet Nam."

Interracial marriages can be made to work, as Dean Rusk's daughter and her husband have proved. The marriage of the former secretary of state's daughter and a black man nearly two years ago made headlines, then the couple dropped out of sight. They were traced to Fort Worth, Texas, near Fort Worth, where he was attending an Army helicopter pilot school. The couple have made fools of the nay-sayers who predicted the marriage wouldn't work. They're a happy, ideal couple in every way, the Sepia story says.

Hamburger Coming Up by Betty Crocker

Trying to stash away cash for the Easter bonnet fund? O.K., then, let's glorify hamburger — the best friend a pennypincher ever had. For a starter, here's a cheeseburger surprise: A chunk of blue cheese bedded inside a quarter pound of ground beef. You'll rival the local drive-in with that one. Or, how's this for entertaining on a shoestring? Meatballs with Italian spaghetti. Or marvelous lasagne, very "in" this season. And of course you'll serve the family economical meat loaf — but yours will look extravagant. Little individual loaves basted with barbecue sauce. Or try one of my recipes below. They both help you save but never ever let it show.

HAMBURGER LATTICE LOAF

1 pound ground beef
1/4 cup chili sauce
1 envelope (1 1/2 ounces) dry onion soup mix or 2 tablespoons instant minced onion
1/4 cup milk
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon allspice
1 egg, slightly beaten
Short Pie dough (below)

Heat oven to 375°. Mix all ingredients except Short Pie dough. Spread in 8-inch pie pan. Pat Short Pie dough into a 9-inch square on waxed paper. With scissors, cut through waxed paper into 10 strips; place about 1 inch apart on meat mixture. Remove paper from remaining strips; weave across other strips for lattice effect. Flute edge on inside rim. Bake 25 to 30 minutes. 6 servings.

Peace brothers and sisters. I'm Eleanor E. Tate, and I'm your columnist this week while Marri takes a much-needed rest.

Somewhere was bragging about having "big money", so, to prove it, he spread out a 10-foot poster of a $1 bill.

Walnut Hills' Afro-American Art Festival comes up Sunday, 4-6 p.m., and that brings to mind that the festival is one of a number of functions kicking off Negro History Week, Feb. 9-15, honoring black people from 1619 (and before, I hope) to 1969 in black achievement, not only in music and sports, but also in medicine, education and countless other fields.

A few of them are poet Phyllis Wheatley, 1773; Benjamin Banneker who published a wide-read Freeman's Journal, 1871; David Walker, 1829, published Walker's Appeal, Shadrach and Thomas Sims, 1851 — freedom from and freedom back into slavery; Nat Turner; Harriet Tubman, W.E.B. DuBois, Marcus Garvey, Sen. Hiram Revels, Claude McKay, Noble Sissie, Jesse Owens, Mary McLeod Bethune, Judge Jane M. Bolin, Richard Wright, Adam Clayton Powell, Mayors Richard Hatcher and Carl Stokes, Stokely Carmichael. And our award winners, Ralph Bunche and Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. — the Nobel Prizes for peace — and Gwendolyn Brooks, Pulitzer Prize for poetry.

Of course, this list is only of a few, why don't you add your name by doing something, too (besides eating peanutbutter sandwiches and fussing when it sticks to your mouth)?

By way of recordings, try out the albums "Who's Making Love", by Johnnie Taylor (tailored for taste, you know), and "Uptight!", the score by Booker T. and the M.G.'s from the movie (both by STAX) of the same name. Taylor, in this latest album, comes on like a mild Sam Cooke, especially when he sings "I'd Rather Drink Muddy Water" and "Woman Across the River", not to mention "Take Care of Your Home-work". The movie "Uptight!", if you recall, stars Raymond St. Jacques, Ruby Dee and Roscoe Lee Browne. Better look out for "Cleveland Now" and "Blues in the Gutter".

The so-called "riot ordinance" controversy has been in the news. If it ever got passed, wouldn't it be funny if the people loudly protesting the law would later be arrested for disturbing the peace?

By the way, this same somebody with the $1 also planted horsehairs in a flower pot and tried for five years to grow race horses. Picked all the hair off his mule trying. Mule froze to death last month. Peace.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Should every woman be a blonde?

Blonde hair is beautiful for those women whose natural coloring it flatters. But not everyone should be a blonde.

Expert beauticians know that complexion and hair color must complement each other to glamorize and bring out all the natural beauty that was meant to be. They also know that very coarse and dark hair often is resistant to drastic color changes. However, there's no doubt about slightly lighter hair adding excitement to a woman's appearance. And hairdressers know there is no better product to add a whole new appeal to every woman's look than Miss Clairol® haircoloring—extra rich Creme Formula or new extra easy Shampoo Formula.

Both Miss Clairol products lighten and color at once, combining vibrant new color with the natural pigment of the hair. So even those shades that look blonde on white hair (as shown on most color selection charts) give a variety of flattering red-to-golden brown shades on women whose hair was black to begin with.

Beauty salons are equipped to answer questions and help with hair color selection. Depend on your hairdresser to have the professional skills and the total family of fine Clairol products to make every woman's experience with haircoloring completely personal and glamorous. Should you be a blonde? If you don't really know, ask your expert hairdresser.

GOP Lincoln Day Dinner to Feature Marilyn Maye Feb. 22

Marilyn Maye, former Iowan who now ranks among the "big names" of show business, will be the featured entertainer on February 22 at a Republican-sponsored "GOP Cabaret" at Veterans Memorial Auditorium, Des Moines.

"We're delighted that 'Marvelous Marilyn Maye' will be with us," said E. A. Hayes of Mt. Pleasant, State Finance Chairman. "This is an entirely new idea in fund raising, and Miss Maye's enthusiastic spirit will add a lot of sparkle."

The "GOP Cabaret" replaces the party's traditional $25-a-plate "Lincoln Day Dinner" this year.

Marilyn Maye came to Iowa as a girl, attending high school in Des Moines. She did "club dates" to earn money for dancing lessons, but it was her singing that "caught on."

Steve Allen Break

Her "big break" came when fellow-Iowan Steve Allen heard a recording Miss Maye had made in Kansas City, Mo. He invited her on his then-popular nighttime television show, a recording talent scout heard her, and her career skyrocketed.

Miss Maye's first "big hit" was a song, "Cabaret." She sang another hit, "Step To The Rear," as a parody for Iowa Gov. Robert D. Ray's election campaign in 1968.

In real life, Miss Maye is married to Sammy Tucker, a widely known musical arranger. Their daughter, Kristie, a singer and dancer, has appeared on network television shows.

Twasi Club Plan For Style Show

The Twasi Federal Women's Club met January 26, at the home of Arbella Jeter. Plans were discussed for the style show to be presented April 6, and directed by James Piggee.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, Feb. 13, at the home of Mrs. Charlene McMichael, 1112 8th Street.

Tart-Sweet Combination, Perfect Pie

Oranges and prunes are an excellent combination for a cool weather pie. These compatible fruits are blended with sugar and quick-cooking tapioca to make a filling that is just the right balance of tart and sweet... with juices just right, not too stiff, not too runny. Quick-cooking tapioca thickens fillings in the oven with no top-of-the-range cooking necessary.

Prune and Orange Pie
2 1/4 cups (1-pound box) dried prunes, washed
1/2 lemon, sliced
2 cups water (about)
1/2 cup orange juice
Sections from 2 oranges, diced (about 1 cup)
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1 1/2 tablespoons Minute Tapioca
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
Pastry for two-crust 9-inch pie
1 tablespoon butter

Place prunes and lemon slices in saucepan. Add enough water to cover prunes. Cover pan. Simmer prunes about 30 minutes or until tender. Cool; then drain.

Discard lemon slices. Cut prunes in half and remove pits. Combine liquid drained from prunes and the orange juice.

Add water, if necessary, to make 1 1/4 cups juice. Combine prunes, orange sections, orange rind, the juice, quick-cooking tapioca, sugar, and salt. Let stand about 15 minutes.

Line a 9-inch pie pan and trim pastry at edge of rim. Roll remaining pastry 1/4 inch thick and cut several 2-inch slits or a fancy design near center. Fill pie shell with prune mixture; dot with butter. Moisten edge of bottom crust. To adjust top crust, fold pastry in half or roll loosely on rolling pin; center on filling. Open slits with a knife. (Well-opened slits are important to permit escape of steam during baking.) Trim top crust, letting it extend 1/2 inch over rim. To seal, press top and bottom crusts together on rim. Then fold edge of top crust under bottom crust and flute.

Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 45 to 50 minutes, or until syrup boils with heavy bubbles that do not burst. Serve warm with orange-flavored whipped cream, ice cream, hard sauce, or Cheddar cheese, if desired.

PROPER DISTRIBUTION OF WELFARE FUNDS

Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Finch has announced that plans are being worked on to evolve a uniform system of payments to people receiving money from that agency.

At present, people living in New York and those living in Alabama receiving funds from the government under similar situations receive an entirely different amount. In some cases, it is less than half.

This has been going on for years. It is true of money appropriated by the states themselves; and it is an argument against some states that cannot be trusted to deal with all of their citizens equally when the government places no rules on distribution of funds.

There is much agitation for the federal government to refund to the states a part of the money it receives in taxes. And while this situation is somewhat different, many southern states operate on the basis that the Negro needs less. Not that their groceries or clothing cost less but that they don't want the Negro to enjoy the same advantages as they.

If Secretary Finch goes through with his program, Negroes in the South who have been cheated for years in the distribution of welfare funds, will receive enough money to provide adequately as the program contemplates.

RALPH MCGILL USED
HIS STATURE FOR GOOD

Last week, Ralph McGill, publisher of the Atlanta Constitution, was in Des Moines where he delighted his audience at Veteran's Auditorium with an able address—one that all who heard him will remember.

This week he lies a corpse in death caused by a heart attack. (He told some people while in Des Moines that his health was not so good.)

Ralph McGill will be remembered as the boy from the backwoods of Tennessee who became editor and later publisher of one of the leading newspapers in the country. In that capacity, he used that opportunity that a number of newspapers do to help shape the thinking of the people they serve.

This Ralph McGill did during his entire lifetime with the result that his efforts have helped make Atlanta the most liberal city, as well as the gate city, of the South. For it, he received enumerable degrees and honors along with extensive travel over the world.

The Bystander has always compared McGill's tenure with the Constitution and that of Harvey Ingham with the Des Moines Register. Each paper has continued a long line of liberal constructive service to its community and undoubtedly it will continue with the Atlanta Constitution just as it has been with the Des Moines Register.

The country has suffered a great loss in his death.

WE ARE GETTING TOO
EASY ON CRIMINALS

When the Constitution was originally adopted, it provided for a speedy trial for persons charged with a crime. In recent years, many persons charged with a crime do not wish a speedy trial, knowing that by waiting witnesses will die or disappear or that they can remain on bond, continue to commit crimes and eventually plead guilty to one in return for the dismissal of other charges.

President Nixon's proposals for war on crime is directed toward this evil. In fact, protective custody until trial (somewhat a denial of bail) is being considered in certain cases.

Des Moines had an exact example of this last week when a fifteen year old boy was charged with breaking and entering. Later it was discovered that he was at liberty on bond charged with a similar offense.

The Polk County bar association is in the process of strengthening bail procedure. For several months the courts have operated under a release program which has some merit; it has some drawbacks, and professional bondsmen some merit.

In recent months, in an effort to see that persons charged with crime receive a fair trial, criminals have taken it as an assent to their operations. In the meantime the public feels that their rights are being jeopardized in order to protect criminals.

SPORTS

With Allen Ashby

Noisy Crowds

There is a lot of fussing about basketball crowd behavior and officiating at the games. The thing has gotten plumb out of hand as far as the crowds are concerned. This could be laid to a lot of things. For one there isn't any sport that gets the crowd excited as quickly and as much as does basketball. Now, what we read, soccer probably does the same thing in some other countries. The crowd is right next to the fast, violent action and this closeness seems to really generate crowd emotions. In this matter we would rate amateur boxing and maybe professional wrestling next on the list of crowd excitors. Football is exciting, but the players are removed from the crowd and there is too much time between plays. Basketball is continuous action.

Coaches Beet

These same coaches like to ham it up and are always at the score's table or up in an official's face protesting some decision even when they might be wrong. They no longer protest in the dignified manner of some of the former coaches, but yell and scream like mad men. Then the official loses his cool and we have a first class shouting match and you know who the crowd favors.

Some coaches urge the crowd on not by jumping up and yelling, but by little gestures of resignation when a call goes against their team.

Ever since we can remember basketball we can recall crowds getting out of hand and in some cases assaulting officials. The coaches could do a lot to help curb this by their own actions.

We knew one coach who merely sat on the bench chewing gum, we think it was great and never raised a finger in protest. He always said he was too busy keeping track of what was going on to get into an argument. Well, this fellow had very little crowd trouble because his calmness seemed to infect the crowd.

We don't know the answer but we can foresee a national tragedy like a crowd assaulting officials at one of our nationally televised games or a coach and official getting into a fist fight some night. And it can happen over night. There has to be some control over the crowd and the coaches. Forfeiting a game might work that time, but would you like to see the official who forfeited a game to say Drake on Iowa State's floor?—or the other way?

Here at home it looks like the Roosevelt gang will make it after all, to learn from their defeats and maybe into the State basketball meet a better team because of their two defeats. The guys, Florence of North, Turner of East and Hughs of Tech continue to hit the nets even if their teams don't win.

Mourns Assassination
Of Urban League Executive

New York — Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, designated Charles V. Johnson of Seattle to represent the Association at the funeral, Jan. 30, of Edwin T. Pratt, slain executive director of the Seattle Urban League.

The 38-year-old Urban League executive was cut down by gunshot in the doorway of his home on Jan. 26. Two apparently white youths were seen fleeing the premises after the gunfire. Mr. Pratt is known to have received threatening messages recently.

In a telegram of condolence to Mrs. Pratt, Mr. Wilkins expressed the Association's sympathy in the "tragic loss" of her husband. He also informed her that Mr. Johnson, a member of the Association's National Board of Directors, would represent the NAACP at the final rites for Mr. Pratt.

Another powerful voice in American life has joined the chorus of objection to cigarette advertising.

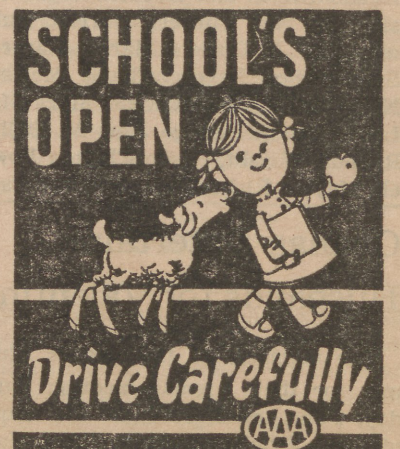

The Federal Trade Commission, whose members are Presidential appointees charged with protecting business and the consumer from undesirable trade practices, included this forthright sentence in its midyear report to Congress: "Cigarette advertising on television and radio should be banned."

As an alternative proposal, the commission suggested that broadcast advertising of cigarettes "should be limited as to the hours at which it may appear; the extent to which it may appear; and the types of programs on which it may appear."

The intention of course is to protect juvenile and adolescent minds from the subtle and not-so-subtle appeals sometimes directed at them by the cigarette advertisers. Nowadays many young smokers start in their early teens or even before, whereas a generation ago the common starting age of regular smoking was sixteen or well over. This change underlines the effectiveness with which cigarette merchants hammer away at their message that smoking is the manly, or the success-related, or the sexy, or the "in" thing to do.

The abolition or curtailment of radio-TV advertising is only one of several suggestions made by the FTC for dealing with the cigarette hazard. Such miracles of reform seldom sweep through Congress without widespread public clamor for their passage. Here is a cause that might appeal to all parents, friends and well-wishers of teenage people.
