Mississippi Negroes Want Equal Municipal Service

SHAW, MISS. — Negro citizens went to trial this week in U.S. District Court, charging unequal municipal services—paved streets, street lights, fire hydrants and the like.

The white side of town is provided with numerous municipal services.

The Negro side of town does not have the same services.

Same Tax Rate

All citizens, according to NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF) attorneys, pay taxes at the same rate.

All municipal services are paid from the same tax source.

The case is part of a new LDF drive attacking a problem common to the South and also found in varying degrees in northern cities.

Similar Suits Filed

Similar suits have already been filed by LDF attorneys in Belzoni and Itta Bena, Mississippi. More suits are expected elsewhere.

Black citizens in Shaw charge that town officials have:

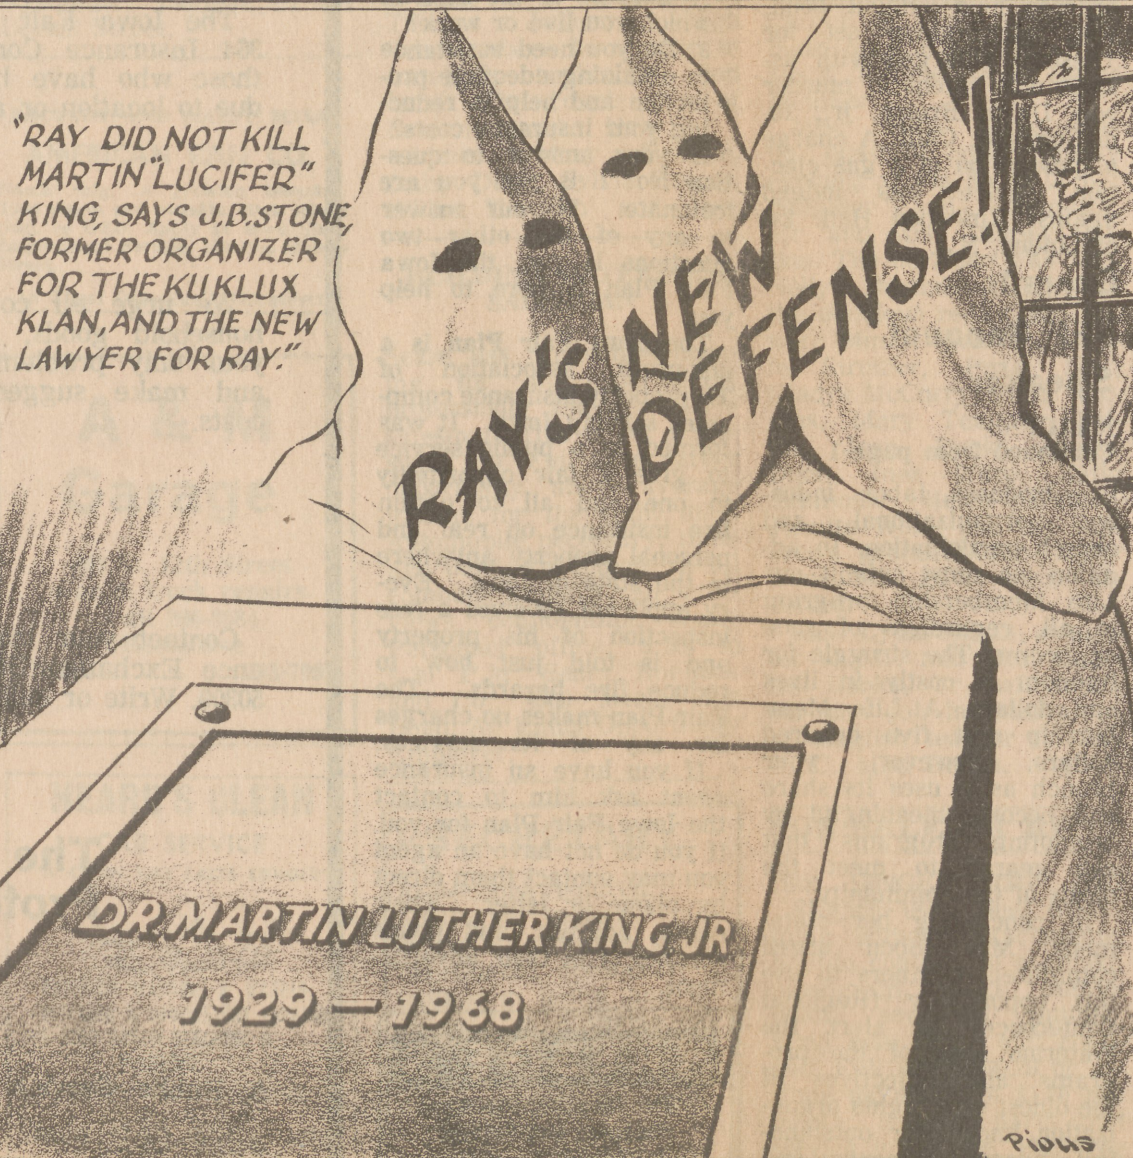

- paved and maintained the streets of white neighborhoods while refusing to pave and maintain streets in black neighborhoods;
- refused to construct and maintain sufficient and adequate fire hydrants in black neighborhoods, which have fewer hydrants than do white neighborhoods;
- refused to place sufficient and adequate street lighting in black neighborhoods while there is more and better street lighting in white neighborhoods;
- refused to provide sewerage service to many residents of black neighborhoods while these facilities are provided all residents of white neighborhoods;
- provided adequate water facilities for residents of white neighborhoods but refused to do so for residents of black neighborhoods where water pressure is substantially lower and inadequate, constituting an inconvenience and a danger to health, safety, and property.

LDF attorneys participating in this new campaign include Reuben Anderson of Jackson, Miss., and Jonathan Shapiro of New York City.

On Sunday April 20 at 10 a.m. closing workshop will be on "Making Your Branch Relevant", with closing meeting at 12:30 p.m.

Rev. Percy Burt, president; Mrs. C. E. Tredwell, as general chairman of conference; Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson, Jr. as co-chairman of FFF Banquet; Mrs. Martha Nash on publicity and promotion and many others are plugging hard for a satisfying and profitable meeting here.

Mrs. Ina Boon, NAACP Field Director for Life Memberships (St. Louis, Mo.) recently met with members of the Black Hawk County Dinner Committee to set-up machinery to secure citywide participation in Waterloo for the dinner. Mrs. Boon said "it is imperative that the community know that we want a cross-section attendance NAACP Continued to page 2

NEWS In A Nutshell

IOWA CITY — The status of the Negro in the United States has been more like that of an inmate in a prison or asylum than that of a member of a community, an educational psychologist told the 47th annual conference of high school and college history teachers at The University of Iowa Friday (Mar. 28).

Assistant Professor Roy Simon Bryce of Hunter College said the white in the U.S. has confined the Negro, first on plantations and then in city ghettos. Afro-Americans have been granted no voice in their own affairs, and have been treated like agents of contamination by "staff members," just like hospital patients and prisoners, he said.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. — The current status of the civil rights revolution and its impact on black and white union members, as well as other major social and political issues will occupy the attention of over 200 delegates from all parts of the U.S. and Canada at the International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers' Social Action Conference March 31, April 1-2 at the Rutgers University Labor Education Center.

NEW YORK — The establishment of a Black Academy of Arts and Letters, dedicated to defining and promoting cultural achievement by black people, was formally announced today by Professor C. Eric Lincoln, of the Union Theological Seminary.

The Black Academy was launched with the help of the Twentieth Century Fund, which provided assistance in financing the creation and initial operations of the new institution.

TULSA, OKLA. — Reverend Leon Sullivan, Philadelphia's dynamic "black capitalism" advocate last week urged U.S. Jaycees to "stop criticizing what is happening in the poverty streets of our communities and begin working to provide new wealth, new productivity and new jobs for the poor."

Reverend Sullivan addressed the opening luncheon of the United States Jaycee Board of Directors Meeting which was held here, March 20-22.

DAVENPORT, IOWA — The Davenport Catholic Interracial Council received a letter today from Mr. Charles W. Johnston, teacher in charge of the Adult High School, expressing appreciation for the Council's help in providing funds for needy students.

Ten students have received tuition fees from the scholarship fund, and several more will receive help in the near future.

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Benjamin R. Epstein, national director of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, this week called for "calm and objective" analysis of recent outbreaks of anti-Semitism centered in the New York City school controversy were not at all representative of the Negro community as a whole.

First in Century To Use Federal Troops To Enforce Civil Rights

Five star general of the Army and former President of the USA, Dwight David Eisenhower died at Walter Reid hospital, Friday, March 28 following a long seige of illnesses which only a person with a rugged constitution could stand. Fighting off one heart attack after another, the 5 star general underwent surgery in February following which an operation developed.

Born in Denison, Texas, on October 14, 1890, his family moved to Abilene, Kansas, where he grew up and from which he received his appointment to West Point.

He directed the Allied forces to victory over Germany and presided over surrender ceremonies. Soon after, he returned to Washington to become Army chief of staff, holding the post until 1948 when he became president of Columbia University.

The affection the nation felt for Ike paid off in the 1952 election. He had a plurality of more than 6.5 million votes over Democrat Adlai Stevenson and carried 39 of the 48 states.

He did even better in his 1956 re-election, topping Stevenson by 9.5 million votes.

Korean War

The Korean War was ended by an armistice in Mr. Eisenhower's first term after a dramatic visit to South Korea before his inauguration.

In 1954 the Supreme Court declared the segregation of schools to be unconstitutional.

Little Rock

Three years later, Mr. Eisenhower became the first president since Reconstruction to use federal troops to enforce a court order — the integration of schools in Little Rock, Ark.

The United States, under Mr. Eisenhower, severed relations with Cuba after Fidel Castro's revolution, but it did not support the Hungarian uprising.

Mr. Eisenhower retired to his Gettysburg, Pa., farm, located a very short distance from where he, a captain at the time, had his headquarters when he

Charge Mobile Offices with Bias

MOBILE — A group of 27 Negro police officers this week sued this city, its chief of police and police commissioners charging them with practices "which discriminate because of race."

The suit was filed in U.S. District Court here.

Thus Mobile became part of a drive against southern police department discrimination currently being handled by attorneys of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF)

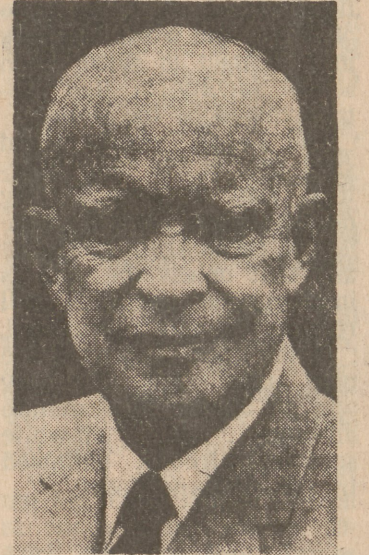

Earlier Suits

Similar suits have been brought in West Palm Beach and St. Petersburg, Fla.

The Negro officers are seeking, through their LDF attorneys, a declaratory judgment saying the challenged practices are "null and void" and violate the U. S. Constitution.

They also ask that the defendants be enjoined and that "affirmative action to eradicate the effects of negative regulations and policies be taken."

The case was brought by LDF attorneys Frankie L. Fields and Vernon Crawford of Mobile, and Jack commanded Camp Colt in World War I. He purchased the tract in 1950 while serving as president of Columbia University.

Dwight D. Eisenhower

His Writings

Retirement was not an armchair existence for Mr. Eisenhower. He continued active on Republican affairs, wrote his memoirs, "Mandate for Change," "Waging Peace" and "At Ease: Stories I Tell to Friends," traveled to Europe and vacationed at Palm Springs, Calif., in the winter.

Both President Kennedy and President Lyndon B. Johnson called him into consultation, generally on foreign affairs. Despite this relationship, Mr. Eisenhower did not hesitate to criticize either one of them.

Achievements, Disappointments

In a television interview during retirement, Mr. Eisenhower was asked what he considered his greatest achievements and greatest disappointments during his eight years in office.

Referring to achievements, he said: "When I came to the presidency, the country was rather in an unhappy state. There was bitterness and there was quarreling and so on ... I tried to create an atmosphere of greater serenity and mutual confidence, and I think that it ... was noticeable over those eight years that that was brought about ..."

Burial was Wednesday at his boyhood home of Abilene, Kansas.

NEGRO LAWYER

LOS ANGELES, CALIF. — Sam Yorty, the maverick Democratic chief executive, and Thomas Bradley, a Negro city councilman backed by Democratic Party leaders, overwhelmed the field among a dozen serious candidates for mayor Tuesday and headed into a runoff next month.

Bradley, 51, an attorney and former police lieutenant, won a majority of traditionally Republican write-in votes and ran evenly with Yorty, seeking an unprecedented third term.

MOTOWN PAYS HOMAGE TO KING MEMORY

DETROIT, MICH., March 25. — Wherever Motown artists are appearing on Friday, April 4, they will interrupt their performances to pay homage to the memory of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Wherever Motown employees are working on April 4, the anniversary of Dr. King's infamous assassination, they will have the day off with full salary compensation.

Ask Court for Equal School Jobs

Washington, D.C. — The U.S. Supreme Court said this week it would hear this term an appeal by the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. to desegregate southern school faculties.

The Legal Defense Fund will raise the faculty desegregation issue in its appeal of a Montgomery County, Alabama school case. The case would otherwise have been delayed until next court term had it not been moved up.

Ratio

LDF will ask the high court to rule in favor of assigning Negro teachers to schools according to the ratio of Negro and white teachers in school districts as a whole.

In other words, LDF officials explained, if the ratio of Negro and white teachers in a district is 40:30, each school faculty in that district should be the same.

The Legal Defense Fund says this is the only practical way to push faculty desegregation beyond tokenism in recalcitrant districts; and that unless the plan is implemented, faculties will remain virtually segregated.

If the court approves the plan, LDF says, the way will be opened to eliminate all-black and all-white schools, already outlawed by the Supreme Court.

Grinnell College Honors Dr. King

GRINNELL, IA. — Black Martyrs' Weekend will be observed at Grinnell College Thursday night through Sunday (April 3-6) with a series of lectures, panel discussions, films, concerts, and art exhibitions featuring Afro-American culture.

The weekend, which is being sponsored and planned by the campus Concerned Black Students (CBS) organization, has been scheduled to coincide with the first anniversary of the death of Nobel Peace Laureate Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Ray Charges Politics in Case

NEW YORK, March 31 — James Earl Ray, the confessed killer of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., firmly believes that certain "political developments" in the United States will cause him to be freed from prison in two to four years.

Ray's beliefs were revealed today in an article appearing in the current issue of Look magazine. The article, by author William Bradford Huie, is based on information supplied by Ray, his lawyers and members of Ray's family.

Believed in Wallace

Ray, according to Huie, believed that George C. Wallace would be elected President on November 5, 1968, and that Wallace would promptly pardon the killer of Dr. King. "James Ray thought that by murdering Dr. King, he would aid Wallace's cause," Huie said.

Even though Wallace was not elected, Ray and his brothers, Jerry, 34, and John, 37, "took comfort" in the Republican victory, wrote Huie, adding:

"They figured they had gained something. The trial was (originally) set to begin on November 12, 1968. One of the reasons why James Ray changed attorneys on the eve of his trial, thereby forcing a postponement of several months, was that he thought he'd have a better chance if his trial were held after January 20, 1969" (the day Richard Nixon was inaugurated President).

Conspiracy

One of the lawyers involved with James Earl Ray in the Martin Luther King, Jr. murder case said today that he still believes Ray was part of a conspiracy and offered specific reasons why he thinks Ray was helped.

In an article appearing in the current issue of Look magazine, Arthur J. Hanes, former attorney for Ray, said that despite Ray's plea of guilty in court "I still believe that Ray killed Dr.

King because he was directed to do it."

Shortly before his assassination, the Rev. Martin Luther King told his wife Coretta and top aide Rev. Ralph Abernathy that he would not lead the Poor People's Campaign march on Washington.

King's secret decision to cancel the Poor People's Campaign is revealed in an article appearing in the current issue of Look magazine.

According to these aides, King lost considerable belief in the power of non-violence in the months before his assassination. His faith in non-violence apparently hit a low ebb on March 28, 1968, in Memphis, after he led a march protesting the city's refusal to grant its striking garbage men a pay raise.

Racial Flair up in Detroit

POLICE

DETROIT, MICH. — Police and black militants clashed in a fierce gun battle in the ghetto area of Detroit Saturday night and early Sunday that left one policeman dead and one wounded, five Negroes seriously injured and more than 135 Negroes arrested.

The battle — the largest and most violent between police and Negro groups since the July, 1967, racial warfare here that claimed 43 lives — took place after police said two policemen were ambushed when a meeting of the black militant New Republic of Africa adjourned.

Shot 7 Times

Four Negroes inside the church were shot and wounded and another suffered a possible broken leg when officers stormed the building.

Police said the dead officer, Michael Czapski, 22, was shot seven times in the head and chest when he and his partner tried to question about a dozen Negroes carrying rifles and carbines outside the Baptist church where the meeting was held.

Plan For All

Czapski's partner, Richard Worobec, 28, was wounded in the back and right leg, but managed to crawl to their scout car and radio for help.

The ambushers, dressed in Army fatigue clothing with leopard skin epaulets and black combat boots, ran into the church as police reinforcements roared up.

All but ten were released after investigation, and the others held for appearance before Recorder's Court Judge George Crockett.

Later, two of the 10 were ordered held without bond, with examination set for Tuesday. Charged with assault with intent to murder was David Brown, Jr., 19, of Compton, Calif. A charge of possession of a gas ejection device was lodged against Kirkwood Hall, 24, of Linden, N.J.

Russell Bell Memorial Fund
We would like, at this time, to express our deepest appreciation to Mrs. Mote, Chief Pharmacist of the Broadlawn's staff; the sponsor of the Scholarship Fund at the Drake University Pharmacy course and all of the other members of her staff. A special thanks to Dr. Joseph A. Herman for his check of one hundred dollars. Enough can't be said to thank Russell's many friends in Des Moines, at Waterloo, Minneapolis, Minn., Detroit, Washington, D.C. and other parts of the states for their many courtesies, telegrams, cards and all acts of kind deeds. May God bless each and everyone of you.

A Memoriam to my brother, Russ, expressing just how deeply his loss is felt by me. Words cannot be found to describe the depth of my hurt. To me it's like losing a mother, father, sister, brother and a very dear friend at one time. He was all five into one.

However, I get some joy when I think of one of Jesus' last sayings in the book of Revelation, "And behold I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be." When I think of all the good deeds Russell has done for so many people, I know Jesus' rewards to him will be plentiful, the greatest gift of all being eternal life.

I would like to leave a message to the living, "To attend church every Sunday, to sing loud with song and to pray long prayers won't bring you good rewards. It's the good deeds that will bring you good rewards."

"The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh. Blessed be the name of the Lord". Amen.
Harry T. Bell, Jr. and family of deceased.

Brides have it easy these days - all they have to do to keep a groom happy is to cook better than a mess sergeant.

A man hopes that his lean years are behind him - a woman hopes hers are ahead.

Where there's a will, there's a lawsuit.

Temper: the only thing that improves the more you don't use it.

Friend of ours went to Las Vegas to get away from it all. Unfortunately, it all got away from him!

Next time, before leaving, he intends to spend a mite at William's Pharmacy, 1103 University Avenue, Phone 243-1253 for new after-shave lotion for the Easter parade.

THE PASSING OF FORMER PRESIDENT DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, our nation's 34th president and last living five-star general, was mourned throughout the world this week. John Estes, Jr., who so tirelessly invests his life in the activities dealing with our community's welfare, had this to say:

THE ENORMITY OF THE STATURE OF MR. EISENHOWER is best depicted by the fact of his contributions to the world, to our country and to our being. His appointment of Chief Justice Earl Warren implemented the greatest trend to afford the black community's equalization in our society. I feel that one of his paramount challenges was when he met the Little Rock Crises head-on and in so doing afforded equal opportunities to all citizens! And so made it possible for our society to have a multi-ethnic base in our educational processes. These are only some of the highlights on which I look back.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE A. JUNE FRANKLIN reminisced that Dr. Martin Luther King preached an enterfaith sermon at Washington's National Cathedral, the site of Former President Eisenhower's Monday service, on March 21, 1968, one year to the day of that occasion. She further observed that history seems to have a way of using the death of one to remind us of that of another: the loss of Mr. Eisenhower seems to have taken place almost a year to the day of Dr. King's death. This event was exactly five months to the date of the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy. History it seems does have a way of reminding us of past tragedies and losses.

DES MOINES' MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING are scheduled Friday, April 4 at St. Ambrose Cathedral — the March is at 6:00 p.m. with the service at 7:00 p.m.

LAUNCHING OF THE UNITED BLACK FEDERATION'S MEMBERSHIP DRIVE begins with a kick-off dinner at which Archie Moore, former heavy weight champion of the world is speaker. The dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m., April 28,

MRS. LINDA WHITE and her three young sons, Robert, Steven and Ricky were an eye-catching quartette at last Friday's Church of God Skating Party held at Terrace Roller Rink! She represents today's young mother who involves her young ones in wholesome community recreational affairs early! Not all three skated — instead Robert, the big brother skated; Steven decided at the party's end that he was ready to skate; Ricky contentedly watched the skaters and enjoyed his brothers' exotic leas they had tossed around his neck! Linda's brood had been very much a part of the throng, and the young mother had invested her time richly in her small ones' emotional and physical well-being. Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Frazier, and so a member of Des Moines' Frazier clan.

RAZOR SHARP CLARK'S BEAUTIFUL DRAWING ENTITLED "LADY IN THE LIBRARY" now graces a wall of the Roosevelt Crawford's dining room. It appears to be a pencilled portrait. The subject is a lovely young black woman seated on a Victorian chair her back to the book-filled segment of her library. Her dress is a simple, rounded neck, three quarter-sleeve, floor length affair. She has a very erect, regal carriage and classic good looks. It is a most lovely portrait. Nice work, Clark!

Welcome Easter Season With Pink Snow Cake

April may have been the "cruellest month" for the tormented poet, but for most of us it's a time of rejoicing.

Somewhere in the midst of this merry month we usually find Easter with warm weather close behind. For many, it is an end of a time of fast and denial. For all, it is a time to enjoy food, many of which are traditionally served only during the Easter Season.

The West Bend Company, manufacturer of a complete line of Teflon-coated bakeware to meet the most intricate pastry needs, offers this recipe for an easy-to-make Easter cake of a delicate Spring pink. Made in a Teflon-coated tube pan, the cake will be easy to remove without crumbling.

PINK SNOW CAKE

(Makes 1 10-inch tube cake)
1 package (15 ounces) angel food cake mix
1/2 pint vanilla ice cream
1/2 cup maraschino cherry juice
1/2 cup flaked coconut
1/2 Whole maraschino cherries for garnish
1/4 cup chopped, well drained maraschino cherries (about 10 cherries)
2 cups heavy cream, whipped
Red food coloring

Prepare angel food cake mix according to package directions given for mixing. Fold in chopped cherries. Turn into ungreased 10-inch tube pan. Bake in 375° (moderate) oven 45 minutes. Invert and cool. Turn out cake and fill center with ice cream. Fold maraschino cherry juice into whipped cream and

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Can your hair be damaged from brushing, alone?

All hair becomes damaged from exposure to sun and natural elements. Certain greasy compounds and many chemicals, improperly used, also take their toll...not to mention simple attempts at beautifying the hair with any brush not made of natural bristles. The results are brittleness, breakage, dry and dull looking hair.

Your professional beautician knows how artificial bristles actually brush away a great deal of the "lubricants" of the hair that give it body, lustre and protection. And trained beauticians claim that nothing beats Clairol® condition® Beauty Pack Treatment for overcoming brittleness, dryness and breakage... leaving hair lively and easy to manage. condition® is an easy-to-work-with creme which can even be applied during a chemical straightening retouch to prevent drying of hair that has been previously relaxed. condition® is the ultimate in repairing deep-down damage. And, when time is a factor for their customers, hairdressers turn to new Clairol® Hair Dew® — the lotion conditioner that penetrates so fast many think of it as an instant conditioner. When applied regularly by your beautician, Clairol Hair Dew adds body, softens and gives a glowing new look to your hair that many friends will notice and admire.

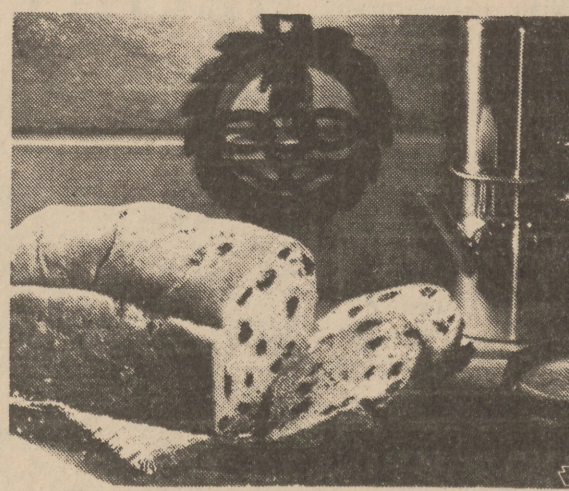

Damage can come from using brushes with artificial bristles. But damage to every woman's hair comes from so many other causes that all human hair (including wigs) needs to be revitalized periodically. Visit your professional beautician and ask this expert to check the condition of your hair.

Only your professional beautician knows the answer for sure.

Wake Up to Raisin Oatmeal Bread

Here's a raisin and oatmeal bread that will make your family wake up and take notice. California seedless raisins, rolled oats and molasses make this a particularly moist yeast bread and one with excellent keeping qualities too. CALIFORNIA RAISIN OATMEAL BREAD

2 tablespoons sugar active dry or compressed
3 tablespoons molasses 4½ to 5 cups sifted flour
¼ cup shortening 1½ cups California seedless
2½ teaspoons salt raisins
Water

Combine oats, sugar, molasses, shortening and salt. Add 2 cups boiling water, stir and let stand until lukewarm. Dissolve yeast in ½ cup warm water (105 to 115 degrees F.) in warm bowl; add to cooled oat mixture. Add half of flour beating well. Add remaining flour and raisins to make moderately stiff dough. Knead lightly. Place in greased bowl. Cover and let rise in warm place 1½ to 2 hours until doubled. Punch down and let rise again, about ½ hour until doubled. Form into two loaves and place in lightly greased 8½x4½x2-inch loaf pans. Let rise 30 to 45 minutes until light and well-rounded above edge of pan. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 375 degrees F. and continue baking 35 to 40 minutes. Cool on rack. Makes 2 loaves.

Most any boy has a driving ambition when he's 16.

FIX-IT TIP

Chair rails on dining room walls can change the look of the room if they are painted vivid colors. Bright colors will add a contemporary look when contrasted with walls or correlated to doors, windows or wainscoting. The band of color around the room will also help "lower" a too-high ceiling.

THE PEOPLE LOVED EISENHOWER

Few people have attracted such world wide attention as that of former President Eisenhower. And yet he was a quiet, unassuming person who went about his job doing the things he was asked to do and doing them well.

Born in a lowly state, both as to family finances and prestige, he seemed to take the right course that led to one success after another.

There are some who say he was not a great soldier nor a great President. But in spite of these observations, he always somehow landed on top. And which reminds of the observations of the Saturday night quarterback who said his team was not great but it managed to win games week after week.

Eisenhower believed in law and order. His life had been one of a soldier and this taught that orders are orders. This was the philosophy back of his dispatch of troops to Little Rock, Ark. to enforce the decisions of the federal court. He believed that a law on the statute books should be enforced until it is repealed.

President Eisenhower believed in honesty, integrity and responsibility. He practiced it in his every endeavor. They were the assets of the man which struck the hearts of people everywhere and endeared himself to people everywhere.

And in the final analysis, he will go down as one of our great Presidents, greatly because the people loved and respected him.

POOR JUDGMENT EXERCISED HERE

Des Moines has in Willkie House a fine, usable recreational center, a credit to any community. It is located in an area designed to serve both races and for years did so with credit to the United Campaign and the staff which manned it. And there has been able administration over the years.

And while it is still open daily and well kept, somehow it seems to be forgotten.

Here youngsters, who are trying to make something of themselves, gather for fun and recreation. And it was conducted with decorum and a sense of duty. Of course, things were a bit rough at times but well under control.

In a so-called program to streamline community houses wherein control has been taken from the boards to save money, the institution has been crippled to the extent that its effectiveness is far below its possibilities.

The community chest organization is not broke. There are funds being spent by downtown business men in a so-called effort to help Negro youth but which, in fact, is going down the drain with absolutely nothing to show for it.

The Bystander supported the integration of the YM and YWCA hoping that the facilities and those of Willkie House, the latter is used freely by Negroes and white) would provide needed recreation and entertainment for youngsters.

It was done at the beginning but interest in the project got less year after year greatly because of the Negroes there on the staff.

In the case of the Y's we appreciate the scarcity of trained workers among white and Negro people. But there have been successful workers brought up through the ranks here and are doing well elsewhere.

If these organizations have any money, and we have reason to believe they have, they might well start some high school graduates on the go to seek out youngsters to come down and participate in what they have to offer. We believe the United Campaign should reverse the set up at Willkie House and give the community an adequate staff and authority as was in-

SPORTS

With Allen Ashby

Now that the basketball season is about over, and honors are still coming in for the Drake team and its coach, we can take a look at some other sports. But one last thought - the coaches were bitter about not having the no dunking rule rescinded, but the rules committee went along as so many people do. To rescind it would be an admission that the rule was aimed at Alcindor and the policy makers would rather die than admit that. So many things are done in collegiate sports out of sheer personal spite and prejudice. And we don't mean race prejudice. For example, there was the year when Notre Dame had what was undoubtedly the best football team in the country. But because the Irish took advantage of a rule that was there to be used and had been used by other teams for years, they were dropped to the number two spot in the polls and the next year came a cycle against time outs for injuries.

Then there was the great Michigan State team just ahead of the one that tied Notre Dame. Most Negroes we talked to insist that the Spartans, although the best college team in the country, were placed second behind Alabama who played nobody. And this was in a special poll conducted after the bowl games. We argue that the bowl games are played in another year so how could they count on a season just passed.

Then there was the cry that went up when Bill Russell used to leap up and bat balls away from the basket that looked like sure winners. If a ball hung on the edge of the basket too long, Russell would grab it off. So came the goal tending rule.

Zone
A zone defense required moving the ball around and kept the score down so now the zone will likely get outlawed. We could go on for weeks citing examples of other sports in which one man changed the rules. But we hope you get our point. And in some of these rules changes how the changes admitted just what they were really doing.

Wrestling
About four years ago a fellow told us that Jason Smith was the best wrestler ever to come out of the Des Moines school district barring nobody. Smith was competing for Ankeny High in just about any weight from middle to heavyweight and welterweight. Well, the guy has one more year to add to his friend's arguments. The guy also said Smith was a fine fellow and a real gentleman on and off the mat. He certainly had a record that we don't think has been topped by anybody from a Polk County high school. And a real chance to add to it.

Golf
If you are a golf fan there is a fine article on Charlie Gifford and Negro golfers in this current week's issue of Sports Illustrated.

tended by those who built it.
The youngsters who are doing a good job in the community deserve a better deal than they are getting and it can't be had by the manner in which business men have turned their backs on them to do some things which have absolutely no merit.

Health for All

"Something is seriously wrong." Thus did Dr. John J. Hanlon, president of the American Public Health Association, sum up a widely held opinion about the state of health services to the American public. Despite all private and public medical plans, he declared, we still have "two systems of medical care: one for those in preferred socioeconomic status and one for the poor."

Specialists in the field have increasingly noted the link between poverty and health - or unhealth. Sickness and death rates in the rundown inner cities and impoverished rural areas are scandalously higher than in the general population. Most severely affected are the members of America's black community, although people of all ethnic origins are involved. Substandard housing, crowded living, poor nutrition, inadequate medical care work their havoc not only on the health of the poor but of the society at large.

The problems of poverty and health have lately received an in-depth analysis in two successive issues of the NTRDA Bulletin, monthly magazine of the National Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association. Physicians, health educators, health and welfare workers, and other experts contributed the benefit of their experience and their views. The fruit of this journalistic endeavor is a widely distributed brochure entitled "Poverty and Health," incorporating reprints of both Bulletin issues.

In Part One, called "The Problem," the underlying factors determining the present state of ghetto health and disease are searchingly examined. Part Two, "Roots of Change," discusses corrective measures with emphasis on the need for participation by the poor. The brochure is now exciting serious attention in the public health and social service fields, and may well exert an impact on ultimate decisions regarding the problem it deals with.

Good Prospects for Iowa Baseball Team

By Larry Scarpino
Word from Mesa, Arizona, where the Iowa Oaks are in spring training has it that Iowa's triple A club is blessed with power at the plate.

Field manager, Jim Williams, will be giving the Oaks a solid week of spring training games this week. Jim hopes to recruit some pitching help and to bolster the lumber department for good measure.

Meanwhile, back here at home base, general manager Bob Morris is building towards a grand opening on Monday night, April 21. This will be the home opener for the Iowa Oaks and special tickets are now on sale at the box office for this night only.

That box office address is Sec Taylor Stadium and the phone number is 243-6111. The officials Iowa Oaks address by mail is: Iowa Oaks Baseball, Box 398, Des Moines, Iowa 50302.

Bill Bryson of the Des Moines Register is sending back from camp the lowdown on the Oaks' talent. Bryson is probably one of the nation's leading baseball authorities.

The Iowa Oaks season ticket drive has surpassed the 700 mark with 1,000 duckets still the ambitious goal.

Marimba's Origin

Music experts say that the Marimba is neither of American Indian nor of Spanish origin. Because it resembles the native African limba in tone and name the accepted theory is that a Negro slave from Africa made the first one, using gourds as sounding boxes.

Barnacle Goose

In medieval times the fact that no eggs or goslings of the species were ever found gave rise to the legend that the barnacle goose emerged, fully developed, from barnacles, hence its name.

To the Reverend Martin Luther King

Was it just one year ago today when this great man's life was taken? My, how the time does fly; when many are born and others die. But this life was taken, snuffed out, by a thief in night - of which no man has the right.

It seems his cause and courage continue to last; because he left his kind of strength he showed all through the past. Perhaps he had to die to make his people and the world to see the wrongs being done. He succeeded in this; yes, he really won.

The anger set off by the shock of his death brought about a proud, strong people whom we see today. So his life wasn't just given away.

Here we had a man of education, fighting a battle the way he thought was right - through non-violence and self-control. The very thing he was opposed to destroyed this man who had his dream: Never let a black man or any man cease to have such dreams. For as his, yours too can become a reality. Death was a known part of this dream because of the times in which rights and fairness are now finally being brought to the surface.

Let none of us forget the Most Reverend Martin Luther King, who in his short life never used his race to better his needs. But did better the world through his deeds.

From this great humanitarian struggle for man's freedom and world peace, I find a sincere feeling in mind and body to have shared the earth knowing such another human existed.

I think not of the tragic and bitter fate which he met; but only of the compassion in his heart for mankind which he did possess. To the world and all, he gave his best.
