NAACP Leader Free After Struggle

Violates Principle Of Freedom Of Worship, Life Blood Of Religion

May Be Tried Within 3 Months

NEW YORK -- Aaron E. Henry, president of the Mississippi State Conference of NAACP Branches, has been "discharged from custody as a result of his (1962) conviction and sentence" in a Mississippi county court and has been "freed from any further restraint upon his liberty."

The order releasing Mr. Henry from the lower court's restraint was handed down, May 5, by William C. Keady, chief judge of the United States District Court in Greenville, Miss. The order was in response to a writ of habeas corpus petition filed on behalf of Mr. Henry. It culminates a long series of legal actions to vindicate the NAACP Mississippi leader. The case has been three times before the Mississippi State Supreme Court and twice before the United States Supreme Court.

May Have Retrial
The state may retry Mr. Henry within the next four months. NAACP Special Counsel Matthew Perry said here this week. However, Mr. Perry expressed the opinion that this is unlikely inasmuch as the Federal court ruled inadmissible certain "unconstitutionally acquired evidence" obtained as the result of illegal search and seizure. The testimony of the arresting officer based upon the illegally seized evidence was also ruled "incompetent." Mr. Henry was charged with disturbing the public peace.

In the original trial in the Bolivar County court, May 23, 1962, NAACP General Counsel Robert L. Carter asked for a directed verdict of acquittal on ground that the "whole process by which the defendant was brought or attempted to be brought into the jurisdiction of this court is illegal and void." Mr. Carter also cited the "unlawful search and seizure" of Mr. Henry's car.

Participating in the trial with the Association's then general counsel were NAACP attorneys Jess Brown of Jackson, Miss., and Jawn Sandifer of New York City. On appeal, Mr. Henry was represented by NAACP Lawyers Raymond Brown, Barbara A. Morris and Jack H. Young.

NAACP Leaders Support So. Carolina Strike

CHARLESTON, S.C.--In addressing 12,000 persons participating in the Mother's Day March and Rally to support the Charleston hospital strikers, Gloster B. Current, NAACP director of branches, called upon Governor Robert E. McNair to settle the strike and grant union recognition to the workers.

Mr. Current pointed out that the state had progressed in some areas - particularly in voting and in civil rights. But South Carolina has "regressed in labor relations," he said.

Legislators Present

In addition to Mr. Current, numerous leaders of labor, civil rights and government were in town to support the strikers at the rally held here, May 11. Among these were five Democratic Representatives -- William F. Ryan and Edwin I. Koch of Manhattan, Allard K. Lowenstein of Nassau County and John Conyers, Jr., and Charles C. Diggs, Jr., of Detroit. Walter Reuther, president of the United Automobile Workers and a member of the Board of Directors of the NAACP, presented a check for $10,000 to the union and pledged $500 a week for the duration of the campaign to secure union recognition.

The president of the Charleston NAACP, Russell Brown, is one of the attorneys of the union, as well as attorney for those who have been arrested. Delbert Woods, the Association's state labor chairman, has also worked with the strikers at the local level.

In calling for union recognition, Mr. Current recalled that the late Federal Judge J. Waites Waring had said, in a decision on voting, that it was time for the state of South Carolina to rejoin the Union.

We are for the correction of all the errors, evils, and imperfections in our American way of life; we want equality of opportunity for all people, better housing, better jobs, better education as well as the release from hunger and the abolition of poverty in all America; in fact, we are for all the rights to which American citizens are entitled, but we are not for the abridgment or the abolition of any of the basic freedoms for which this nation stands. So said Rev. J. H. Jackson, president of the National Baptist Convention. Therefore, we take a firm stand against the invasion and the disruption of the worship services in the famed Riverside Church in New York City on May 4, 1969, for this was in violation of the freedom of assembly and the freedom of worship.

Freedom of Worship
The freedom of worship must not be abridged nor destroyed in the United States of America for the following reasons:
1. It is a basic right. When it is destroyed, every other right is weakened and threatened. If men are not free to assemble to worship, they are not free to assemble.
2. The right to worship is one of the primary promises of the nation to its citizens. And if any group takes away that right, citizens are less free and this nation is made weaker as a democratic state.
3. The destruction of the freedom to worship robs America of one of the basic elements of human refinement and of the primary redemptive force in our imperfect society.
4. The freedom to worship is the very life blood of corporate religion, and religion is one of the most vital forces in American life. Any act that is designed to disrespect and to downgrade religion is a step toward an atheistic society, and an atheistic society that is forced upon a people is a form of religious and moral slavery.
5. To give any individuals or groups the right to decide whether a people shall hear a sermon and worship as they had planned or hear a manifesto for economic reparations, however noble it may seem, makes said persons dictators over the minds and consciences of others. And this nation does not need a dictatorship of any kind.
6. Negro Americans desire all of the rights promised to the citizens of this country, but the vast majority do not want them at the expense of and in opposition to the legitimate, cultural, moral, and religious rights of others. Five hundred million dollars have great economic value, but this sum of money is not worth as much to Negro Americans--nor indeed to any group of Americans--as the freedom to worship whether in storefronts, chapels, churches, synagogues, or cathedrals.
7. The invasion of the Riverside Church on May 4, 1969, was an attack on every religious group in the United States and a most serious threat to the very soul of this nation. That one act was more dangerous than organized crime and more grave than an invading army with guns, tanks, and poisonous gas. It ought to be the concern of the President of the United States of America, every member of Congress, every freedom-loving citizen in these United States. Silence on such a crucial matter is less than golden, and a refusal to stand against such a cruel act encourages a state of apathy that can wreck every democratic and free institution in this nation.

Because we are pledged to work for the unity of this nation and because we know one of the basic principles of national unity is the right to be different without being divested of any of the basic freedoms in America, we strongly support the right of all Americans to enjoy the freedom to worship without being molested or the freedom not to worship without being coerced nor condemned.

Deltas Recruit For Team Lift Tour

ST. LOUIS, MO.--Delta Sigma Theta's Teen-Lift Advisory Committee has been named and members are currently working with the St. Louis and East St. Louis Chapters recruiting and interviewing prospective candidates for the three 1969 tours. Mrs. Frankie M. Freeman, national president of the women's public service organization, announced here.

The three groups will visit, respectively, Chicago and New York, Washington D.C. and New York, and Detroit, Mich., Lansing, Mich., and Rochester, N.Y., Mrs. Freeman said.

In addition to the tours, Delta is using a $5000 grant from the Danforth Foundation to conduct a special four-day Sensitivity Training Workshop directed by Jeanne L. Noble, of New York University. The workshop is designed to "develop increased self-awareness and openness and receptivity to ideas and feelings shared by others," Mrs. Freeman said.

Census Bureau Issues Novel Leaflet

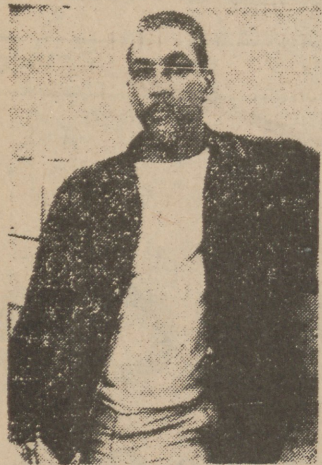

The leaflet provides a brief history and summary of the present status of America's black population as revealed in Census Bureau statistics since 1790. Negroes make up about 11 percent of the U.S. population today, the leaflet states, up from a low of 9.7 percent in 1930. Earlier years showed higher percentages: 14 percent in 1860 and 20 percent in 1790. About 54 percent of the black population now lives in U.S. cities. New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Detroit, and Washington, in that order, have the largest black populations among U.S. cities. The leaflet also summarizes incomes, housing, military service, voting records, and other subjects relating to the Negro population.

The leaflet notes that at least 2 million Black Americans were not counted in the 1960 census, with the result that many black communities have been shortchanged in Federal and State benefits. For this reason, many black organizations are working for an accurate count of the black population in the 1970 Census, to be taken next April.

Research and writing involved in the leaflet were by black staff members of the Census Bureau.

SHRIMP-SPINACH DISH BIG ON FLAVOR

It's a swinging, singing sort of a dish, fluffy and tasty beyond belief, the kind you crave to serve after a lot of heavy going in the kitchen. And it is just about as fool-proof as a souffle can be. You don't need to make a white sauce for it, as for most souffles, and you can begin at the last minute to put it together, if you need to, starting with a frozen block of spinach. Biggest time-saver will be canned shrimp. These shrimp, cooked and ready to use, are absolutely right for this or any seafood souffle or casserole. Simply toss them into a colander, drain, and that's it. This is a nice dish for company luncheon or late supper and suggests crusty rolls or French bread, crisp relishes and a fresh fruit-cup dessert.

SHRIMP AND SPINACH SOUFFLE

2 cans (4 1/2 ounces each) shrimp
1 package (10 ounces) frozen chopped spinach
4 large eggs, separated
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon coarse black pepper
1 garlic clove, cut fine
1 tablespoon grated onion (pulp and juice)
1/2 cup commercial sour cream
1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
1/2 cup butter or margarine, melted

Drain shrimp; reserve a few for garnish; chop the rest. Hold the spinach block under water tap just to melt the ice coating. Break the block into a half-dozen pieces, using the point of a heavy knife, and chop thoroughly. Beat egg yolks slightly; add salt, pepper, garlic, onion, sour cream, cheese, butter or margarine. Mix well. Add chopped shrimp and spinach. Beat egg whites until they stand in stiff, moist peaks; fold in the shrimp and spinach mixture. Turn into a buttered 1 1/2-quart souffle dish or casserole with straight sides; "dot" with reserved shrimp. Place in a pre-heated moderate (350-degree) oven; bake 50-60 minutes or until souffle is puffed, brown-flecked, set. Serve immediately. Makes 6 servings.

SPEAKING STRICTLY FOR MYSELF: After Monday night's "Count Basie Party", I feel that Count Basie's personal charm and warm outgoing acceptance of his followers makes an evening with him enormously pleasurable! One appreciates his impeccable attire, erect carriage, the toes-straight-ahead-walk and grace of a dancer. All these things in one who somehow creates an aura of great quiet while in reality he is conversing, communicating. I think the secret lies in the realization that he actually does very little of the talking—he's a listener.

MET THE NEW ORLEANS CLUB'S FEATURED SINGER, DELL AUSTIN: Visiting with Dell is a pleasure. His relaxed, natural manner is a nice change from the forced gaiety encountered in some entertainers. He appears to take his career seriously and foresees his success as being at one with that of the club. Such straight-forward thinking is admirable in one so young! Overhearing a comment to his manager, I noted his respect for "time", denoting punctuality. Austin has a superb background. He has sung professionally for five years, and prior to this sang in L.A. with Professor James Cleveland, the Clara Ward Singers, and The Caravans; locally, he sang at Johnny and Kay's. "I used to travel with all of them," he added. His favorite instrument is "anything that makes beautiful music." I spotted Dell among the guests at "Count Basie's Party". He graciously granted an interview. "I love big band style music. I think it is relaxing. This is my first night of leisure. I have either participated or worked my manager and I work very hard in this City and we hope to accomplish something big! We hope to have one of the very best clubs here! I am told that Dell 'has been packing them in at the New Orleans!' I believe it! At this point he asked if I'd like to meet his manager. I replied affirmatively and it went like this:—

"MRS. JOHNSON, THIS IS MY MANAGER, BONITA FORRESTER," says Dell. I look into the face of Bonita Forrester! I shall never be more surprised and delighted! She left Des Moines 11 years ago! For a few seconds our pleasure almost excluded the presence of our young friend! Turning to Dell, Bonita identified the young artist as a nephew of the Forresters. Which transforms Dell from a stranger to one of our very own and as such entitled to our total support! Incidentally, Bonita isn't kidding about the name Forrester—the girl married a "Forrester". Try this—"Bonita Forrester Forrester". She has been The New Orleans Club manager for approximately two months and, according to Preston Love, the results are so satisfying that he is pondering enlargement plans. Consensus of opinion has it that the New Orleans Club is fast becoming the center of jazz music for the entire country! Incidentally, it is rumored that a restaurant and kitchen will open there June 1st. Bonita neither confirms nor denies this. Instead she simply beams adding "Come on down and see us!" And that I will. DARTANYAN (DART) BROWN AT DRAKE UNIVERSITY'S "THE POINT", a brand new campus gathering spot established a first when on last Sunday he presented his group, The Black and Blues Band, the Sam Anthony Trio, the Bobby Dawson Trio and 10 other musicians representing many other organized sounds. Among the performers were Dale Convey, Bobby Jackson, Don Archer and Preston Love. (Every Saturday night there is a jam session at the NO Club!) With Mr. Show Business, the talented Irv White, as master of ceremonies, the men played to a crowd of approximately 400 persons, and ran from 1:00 to 6:00 p.m. Dart expressed a decided preference for the full nomenclature "Dartanyan" and is all of 19 years of age. He is a journalism sophomore at Drake and is currently on a scholastic scholarship from American Republic Insurance Company. Our of school hours are taken up with a YMCA job assisting children, unable to attend camp, find camperships. Another part of his time involves selling advertising for Los Angeles' National Collegiate Blotter firm. Apparently there remains time for his position of sports editor for Drake's Year Book; next year he will be associate editor for the publication. Dartanyan is the son of Mrs. Mary Alice Brown, a Veterans Administration nurse. HARDY'S CHEF, TAYLOR HEARD, says "Hardy's doesn't set a breakfast time. We serve breakfast 7:00 a.m. or 7:00 p.m. We don't tell people how to eat! People know what they want. For someone who sleeps in the day, breakfast might be 7 o'clock at night. Someone else will walk in first thing in the morning asking for a hot beef sandwich. And that is just what I give him! At Hardy's, breakfast, dinner or supper is when you want it!" No, Hardaway was not where in sight coaching his cook. This is how Heard runs the place!

Count Basie Party At Ft. Des Moines

The "Count Basie Party" held Monday night in Hotel Fort Des Moines' grand ballroom was unbelievable. The performance of Count Basie and his band excelled all previous shows given here. This is traditional! Basie and his men are always better than ever before! Repeatedly they were given a standing ovation, such was the excellence of their music.

Four men over the years dating from 1964 have sponsored the appearance of Count Basie and his Band two to three times yearly in Des Moines. They are Bill Baehler, President of Investors Equity of Iowa, Lex Hawkins, and Ray Johnson, attorneys; John Keith Rehmann, president of Keith Furnace Company and Dr. Meredith Saunders. Their arrangement constitutes a jazz club. Whenever the band has an open date allowing the club approximately fifteen days to launch its appearance, then Des Moines is treated to Basie. As Bill Baehler described their planning it is simply a matter of there being 300 tickets for 300 seats.

Set Your Table With Vegetables From Your Own Garden: Vegetables Are The "In" Plants Among Young Gardeners

If the latest statistics are correct, more people will be growing vegetables in their home gardens this year than in the past ten years or so.

Vegetables are "in" and the American housewife put them "in" the home garden.

Over the past few years, the "little woman" of the household has made some startling discoveries. First, the average size of new home plots today is larger than ten years ago and there is room for a vegetable garden. Next, she discovered that the old belief of vegetables being less expensive in Summer doesn't hold up. Home-grown vegetables are a saving on the food budget.

There is no denying, either, that vegetables coming from the garden are much fresher and more nutritious, and you can grow varieties and types which are not generally available in stores.

Finally, she discovered that healthy, insect-free vegetables are not difficult to grow.

In the Spring a wide assortment of already-started vegetable plants is available from garden shops, nurseries and other stores. Setting out started plants is much easier than sowing seeds indoors and hoping they will be suitable for outdoor planting.

Weeding and watering the vegetable garden are no more difficult or demanding, than the rose or annual border. In fact, if the vegetable garden is situated where it is not in view, and most are, a mulch of straw, salt hay or other material around the plants will curb weed growth and help the soil retain water.

Insects present no problem, either. When one chemical insect control can be used for vegetables and flowers, such as Spectracide® lawn and garden insect control, all spraying can be done at one time. Also, there is no need for taking extra time to mix individual sprays for vegetables.

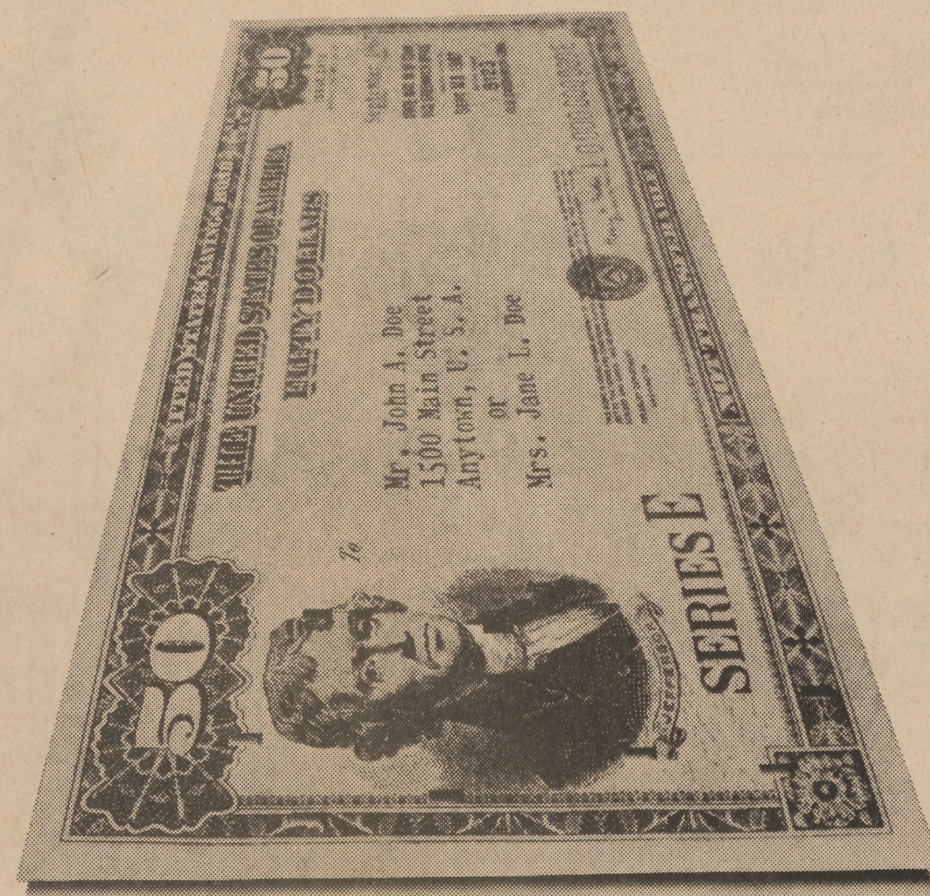

There are a number of "old favorite" vegetable varieties that can be grown, but the newer ones should be tried, too. Disease resistance has been bred into many new varieties, as well as improved flavor and larger size.

This year take a tip from other housewives and plant some vegetables. They are not only easy to grow, but you will be making quite a contribution to the household.

Insects are no problem in the home vegetable garden. Regular spraying with Spectracide keeps plants healthy and blemish free.

FIX-IT TIP
It isn't just a coincidence that most fuses blow out at night. This is the time when the heaviest load is on the house's electrical system. To avoid shuffling around in the dark looking for replacements, keep spare fuses on top of or next to the fuse box. It also pays to keep a flashlight handy. Replacing fuses in the dark can be risky.

CHANGES WHICH SHOW CONCERN

Today, the Bystander mail is three times as heavy as it was 10 years ago. This addition has not been in the first class mail but that of second and third in particular.

In addition to already existing agencies and groups working in the field of human relations and minority betterment, which did not exist a few years ago, hundreds of public relations agencies are sending material about the new job attitudes of large corporations that was never done before. Also new ones spring up which are to be considered in a favorable light of being liberal to minorities.

But it is a sign of the times - a sign which if it existed years ago would have headed off a lot of racial difficulties we are experiencing today.

Daily newspapers have, in some cases, increased their news about Negroes approximately 90 per cent but still reduced by an almost total exclusion of social news. Models appear on TV, magazines and newspaper advertising, an area where once they were totally excluded. Jobs are available in areas which were not available even a few years ago. And to the extent that takers are not available.

These changes have come about by pressure from government, social, religious and labor organizations. Changes have been enhanced by the Negro himself. The latter has much room for improvement for nobody can do some things for an individual which he is capable and must do for himself.

It must be recognized that gains once made may slip away if the individual does not protect them. This, the Negro must do and a lot of time and effort should be put forth to drive this essential home.

NEGRO BUSINESS
VARIES IN AREAS

There are all kinds of panaceas advanced by "spectators" who have solutions for the race problem. Some are so much opposed to each other that they meet themselves coming back.

The Sunday Register contained an article on Negro business May 18. What makes it difficult to succeed; lack of customers, money and experience were the conclusions.

Naturally, Negro business in Des Moines is different from that in such places as Chicago, New York, Detroit and the like. There they have thousands of Negroes concentrated and thus they can survive on Negro customers alone.

On the other hand, in Des Moines the Negro population is not large and scattered. Consequently a business owned by a Negro is generally in an area where there are white residents.

He cannot push for "buy black" nor should he push for separate this and that, antagonizing the fair white customer who would trade with him. Experience has shown that there are many white people who have no opinions about trading with a Negro as is illustrated by several favorable situations here today.

Those people who are pulling for separate courses of action are not helping Negro business. In the meantime, he needs all the help he can get in order to succeed.

Experience, yes, but where is it to come from? They have not had a long line of experienced predecessors and thus the Negro must depend to a great extent on the white business man including funds for his operation.

Iowa Spring Football

We sat out in that drizzle last weekend and tried to evaluate the Iowa U football team. They looked real good at times, but anyone could see that they could have used the guys who weren't there. Some of them were not real stars and the freshman may not have made it but the added numbers might have made a difference in the two teams.

Starters

The starters team wearing black shirts was the probable starting team for next fall. They may be pretty good if they can keep from getting injury problems. Then they will be in trouble. We were amused at the statement of one of the players that the departure of the black players united the squad. Well, we can see where they would adopt a we'll show you attitude, but will that be enough for a ten game football schedule? It might do for a couple of games but that should be it.

Some May Return

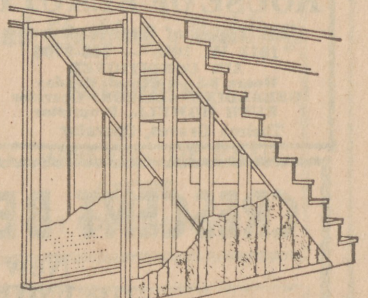

We keep thinking that some of the fellows will be back in the fall, but unless things change we don't know. There just might be enough fellows who don't want them back to keep them off. And we know from experience that some coaches would rather lose than retreat from a stand they have taken. But we thought the fellow who wrote in Monday's Register was right. The fellows should know before school ends whether or not they are going to get back. They can make other plans. We know the team could certainly use them. We also think the whole thing could have been resolved before it came to a boycott. It would seem that interested third parties might have stepped in and worked out an agreement. This has been done at other schools. Oh well, if the team can survive this year they can start another rebuilding program next year.

Big 8 Track Meet

Then there was the Big Eight track meet at Ames. We just couldn't be in two places at once but we sure hated to miss that one. And while we are on the subject of track we finally untracked what happened to Tech's Naomis Ward. The fellow pulled a muscle and we are told it never did respond to treatment. We hated to hear that but we wondered. We didn't like to ask the fellow himself because he might have had some real personal problems. But a pulled muscle is bad enough. Hope this doesn't end his promising career. Oh yes, we had as our companion and lunch buyer, one Frank Massey, who really lets people know he is around.

Outdoor Dining Popular
Pastime in New York

If you're planning a visit to New York this summer, join the natives in their new summer pastime—dining out-of-doors.

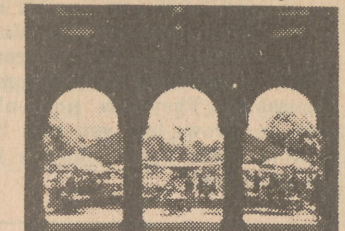

Three outdoor restaurants are especially popular.

Rockefeller Center's famed ice skating pond has been transformed into a delightful summertime restaurant—the Promenade Cafe. Superb cuisine is featured and an orchestra entertains for lunch and through late supper.

The Fountain Cafe in Central Park is located by the beautiful Bethesda Fountain on the lake. The versatile menu offers a wide variety of hot and cold dishes, cooling drinks and dessert specialties. Music here is courtesy of the birds.

The Tavern-on-the-Green, also in Central Park, is right next to the bridge path. Here you can enjoy gracious dining, followed by dancing under the stars. Many diners arrive by bicycle and even horse-drawn carriages!

For a free folder on New York's many summertime attractions, write to Roger Martin, Restaurant Associates, 1540 Broadway, New York, New York 10036.

Q - I lost my refund check. Can I get it replaced?

A - Yes, report the loss to the IRS Service Center where you filed your return. They will send you the forms needed to apply for a replacement check.

SPOT COMMUNIQUE
FROM THE HEALTH
FRONT

THAT OLD ENVIRONMENT—The number of physical stresses besetting people in their daily lives and occupations is increasing at a "geometrical" rate, a team of researchers recently warned at the annual Western Industrial Health Conference. To detect and combat the increasing hazards, they declared, we will need not only physicians, engineers, nurses, toxicologists and chemists, but such additional specialists as "health physicists, human factors engineers, psychologists and psychiatrists."

GLOBAL WAR NOTE—World Health Organization officials report that smallpox in West Africa is down to the lowest level in history, due largely to a vigorous mass vaccination campaign. More than 55 million persons have been inoculated in 19 African countries. Eleven of the countries have eradicated smallpox except for cases entering from outside.

RIGHT TO BREATHE?

Confirmation of the people's right to "full benefit, use and enjoyment" of their natural environment without contamination is being sought through the medium of a law.

Q - I forgot to deduct my medical expenses when I filed my 1968 tax return. Is it too late to do it?

A - No, it is not too late to amend a 1968 return. To make a change, obtain a Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, from your local IRS office and enter the information called for. It is not necessary to file a completely new return.

Q - Is a gardener considered household help? If so, will I have to withhold social security taxes on wages paid?

A - Wages paid to a gardener are subject to social security taxes. If you pay him cash wages of $50 or more during a calendar quarter then you are required to file a Form 942, Employer's Quarterly Tax Return for Household Employees, and pay social security taxes.

Income taxes, however, do not have to be withheld from wages paid gardeners and other household help.

Q - My son is taking a job this summer and plans to put most of the money he earns in the bank to pay his college expenses in the fall. If he earns over $600 will we lose our dependency exemption for him?

A - If your son is under 19 at year end or will be a full-time student during the year, the amount of money he earns will not disqualify him from being claimed as your dependent as long as you furnish more than one-half of his support and the other dependency tests are met. He must file his own return, however, if he earns $600 or more during the year.

Health for All suit by Environmental Defense Fund, Inc. The suit seeks to enjoin a Missoula, Mont., pulp mill from releasing alleged "noxious" sulfur emissions into the air. The Defense Fund plans to take the matter to the Supreme Court if necessary.

HEALTH LAG—The United States, world pace-setter in many other respects, is down to the "surprising" position of 15th place among all nations in infant mortality rates, according to Dr. Joseph T. English of the Office of Economic Opportunity. Writing in the monthly Bulletin of the National Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, he listed among the causes of this poor showing "the lack of prenatal care received by many poor mothers, the nutritional status of the poor, inadequate medical services, and a host of environmental problems."

Q - How long does one have to serve in Viet-Nam to be eligible for the G.I. Bill to return to college, and how much would a married veteran with no children receive each month?

A - Actual service in Viet-Nam itself is not a requirement for benefits (including educational assistance) under the G.I. Bill.

The law requires that the veteran must have at least 181 days active duty, any part of which occurred after Jan. 31, 1955. (Active duty for training purposes cannot be counted towards the 181 days.)

A veteran in full-time training (at least 14 semester hours) would receive training allowance of $155 monthly if he has one dependent.

Q - I was retired from the Air Force last April 30 because of physical disability. Am I entitled to VA compensation payments as well?

A - There is a prohibition against simultaneous receipt of service retirement pay and VA compensation. You may elect to receive whichever of these benefits is the greater.

You may re-elect between these benefits as often as it is advantageous to you.

Q - I was recently divorced. I am now a dependent parent of a son lost in Viet-Nam. I am 40 years old and would like to return to school to better qualify myself for self-support. Is educational assistance available for me through the VA?

A - No Educational benefits have been authorized for widows of veterans whose death was due to service and wives of service-connected permanently and totally disabled veterans. This benefit is not available to dependent parents.

QUESTION: I intend to file for my social security benefits soon. What will I need to prove my age?

ANSWER: if you have a birth certificate that was recorded when you were an infant, you should bring a certified copy which we can keep. If you don't have an original birth certificate and you were baptized before age 5, you should obtain a copy of the baptismal certificate for us. If you don't have an original birth certificate or an infant baptismal certificate, you should get at least 2 documents to support your birth date. Documents most commonly furnished are school records, delayed birth certificates, old insurance policies, children's birth certificates and state or Federal census records. Of course, any other old document showing your age or date of birth may be acceptable. I suggest you contact your social security office if you have any difficulty obtaining proof of your age.

QUESTION: How does Medicaid differ from Medicare?

ANSWER: Medicare is a Health Insurance Program administered by the Social Security Administration, an agency of the United States Government. There are two distinct parts of Medicare. First, Part A or Hospital Insurance is financed by a portion of social security taxes paid by self-employed people, employees and employers. Thus, a person who pays social security taxes regularly has pre-paid hospital insurance when he or she reaches age 65. Part B or Supplemental Medical Insurance can be purchased by most people nearing the age of 65 or older if they enrolled during specified periods. A person need not be retired or show financial need to qualify for benefits of Medicare.

Medicaid is a program designed to help people who need financial assistance in paying their medical bills.

Medicaid is financed with matching funds of Federal and State Governments. Medicaid is administered by the Department of Social Services in Iowa. If you want more detailed information about Medicaid you should contact the Welfare Office in the county in which you live

Q - I have my refund. Does that mean my return was all right and will not be audited?

A - No, it does not. The fact that you have your refund indicates only that your return contained all the required information needed to process it.

IRS generally has three years from the filing deadline of the return to examine the return and propose an adjustment in the tax liability.

For this reason, keep your tax records for at least three years from the due date of the return. Some records, such as those relating to the acquisition of a house or other property, should be kept longer.

VETERANS

EDITOR'S NOTE: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q - I enrolled in college this spring under the G.I. Bill and intend to re-enter the same school and take the same course of study this fall. Must I tell the Veterans Administration about my fall enrollment plans?

A - Before the end of your present enrollment period you will receive a certification of attendance card from the VA.

The primary purpose of this card is to confirm the training for which you have been paid an educational assistance allowance.

However, the card also has a section relating to re-enrollment plans. By complete ting this section you will help VA anticipate your future educational assistance allowance needs.

Q - What are the maximum charges allowed by the Veterans Administration on a G.I. loan?

A - The veteran-borrower is permitted to pay reasonable closing costs customarily paid by borrowers in home mortgage financing. These include fees or charges for VA appraisal of the home, credit report, survey (if required by the lender), title evidence, recording fees and a lender's origination fee not to exceed one per cent of the loan amount instead of any other fees for the lender's services.

The initial installments of such recurring expenses as property taxes and hazard insurance must also be paid at the time the loan is closed.

In addition, a veteran separated from service after Jan. 31, 1955, must pay a statutory fee of one-half of one per cent of the loan amount. This is a one-time payment which may be included in the loan amount.

Q - May a veteran receive Social Security retirement credit for military service during World War II?

A - Generally yes - a veteran may receive $160 wage credit for each month of World War II duty if he was released from service under other than dishonorable conditions and had at least 30 days of active service.

However, there are exceptions. The government will not give the veteran double credit. For example, if a veteran's World War II time is counted for military or civil service retirement he cannot also receive Social Security wage credit for the time. Your nearest Social Security office will be glad to answer any questions you may have.
