Mayor Stokes Wins Easy Ohio Primary Reports President Turned Down Park "Memorial" Request

Expect Tougher
Election Nov. 4

CLEVELAND, OHIO -- Carl B. Stokes, first Negro mayor of a major American city, won renomination Tuesday night in a Democratic mayoral primary election battle with white law-and-order candidate Robert J. Kelly.

Stokes, battling for a chance at a second two-year term as Cleveland mayor, had trailed by more than 20,000 votes before returns came in from the city's black areas.

With all of Cleveland's 973 polling places reporting, Stokes had 92,219 to Kelly's 60,899.

The victory leaves Stokes, who had waged an almost leisurely campaign against Kelly, in line for a much tougher Nov. 4 contest against popular Republican Ralph J. Perk.

Say Haynsworth Trying To Hold to Segregation As Long As Possible

Washington, D.C. -- Senate hearings on the confirmation of Judge Clement Haynsworth have ended, but the emotional oratory will cause many senators to take a close look at his civil rights record.

The Haynsworth nomination, Roy Wilkins said in a statement to the Senate Judiciary Committee, threatens to convert the Supreme Court from a rock on which the faith of Negroes has rested "into a swamp of delay and technicalities."

New York, N.Y. -- In her appearance Sunday on CBS television "Face the Nation," Mrs. Coretta Scott King, criticized President Nixon for favoring a "middle course" on civil rights.

Mrs. King asserted that there is "no Middle ground between right and wrong." I think that this administration is really asking for trouble unless it changes its policy.

News Conference
Mrs. King referred to the President's news conference last Friday when he said he favored a "middle course" between those "who want instant desegregation and those who want segregation forever."

The day before Mrs. King revealed that President Nixon had turned down a request from the family of Martin Luther King, Jr., for creation of a national park in King's memory.

Legislation
Mrs. King said that she first spoke to the President by telephone last February and asked him to propose legislation to create a Freedom Memorial Park on 15-acre site in Atlanta, Ga., which contains King's birthplace and the church where he was minister. Bootlegging Cases Continue, Shakily

Polk County District Judge James P. Denato will rule on pending indictments involving bootlegging cases.

A week ago Judge Denato dismissed the case against Douglas Wayne Brown, 22, of 1603 Gillette because he was charged with the wrong offense. Earlier, another man, Lowell T. Jones, who has similarly been charged was freed by Judge Denato because the charge didn't fit the evidence presented.

Prosecutions Since all the indictments for the alleged liquor violations were the same there was some doubt in the minds of officials as to whether prosecution of the cases could continue.

But Assistant County Attorney Harold Young moved Thursday to amend an indictment against John Owen Smith, 54, of 910 Twenty-fourth st. After Judge Denato accepted the amendment, Smith's trial got underway.

County attorney Ray A. Fenton said after the ruling that the remaining indictments against persons whose trials were pending also would be amended.

Indictments The indictments against Smith and Brown were among 42 obtained by Fenton last month from the Polk County Grand Jury. Of the indictments, 25 dealt with liquor violations, and most of the rest with drug abuse.

Three of the liquor cases had been tried before the Brown ruling came Wednesday. One person and two others entered guilty pleas.

Fenton said there is no way to prosecute Brown for the alleged violation now that his case has been dismissed.

Bill Russell Charges College Students to Cure World Ills

By Mrs. Laurenda Lewis Ottumwa, Ia. — A soft spoken giant who'd rather be typed "a man" than a basketball player, Bill Russell has a message of concern and hope for today's young people.

"The way things are going, it's up to today's college kids to save the country. If you don't do it, it'll be too late," he told Ottumwa Heights College students Monday night.

Warm Welcome The students faculty and townspeople gave the former Celtics player-coach a warm welcome. They listened intently as the bearded man outlined his views on a variety of modern social problems. His sincerity was strongly evident.

After his formal speech he went to the college lounge where he talked on until almost midnight.

Awesome "Today's college kids have the awesome responsibility of straightening out the world's social and political problems," he said, "because this is the first generation that can be aware of all the things that are going on."

Negro Uncle Gets Care of Mixed Tots

REDWOOD CITY, CALIF. — A 36 year-old Negro man was awarded custody of his late brother's four children Wednesday in a court battle with their white grandparents.

Superior Court Judge James J. O'Keefe said his decision had "nothing to do whatsoever with any racial aspect of the case."

He said the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ryglewicz of Milwaukee, Wis., and the uncle, Air Force Sgt. Benjamin Gaines of Langley Air Force Base in Virginia, both were "equal to the occasion."

The judge ruled that adoption by the uncle and his wife would be best because it involved a "growing family."

CAIRO, ILL. — Automobile dealer Albert B. Thomas was appointed mayor of this racially split city last Wednesday night and said shortly afterward that he thinks Negroes should be represented on the City Council.

LINES

THE SAGA OF HOMER MCQUEEN AND HIS WIFE, ORA, spanned the years from 1963 to 1969 with incredible speed!! They stepped from the roles of two young people in love into marriage, parenthood and into the business world. Homer arrived here in 1964, having been preceded by Ora and her family, the Theodore Smiths, in the Spring of 1963. Never losing sight of their goal, the young friends continued in school. With thought of marriage, the two sought and received counseling from their pastor, Rev. Kenneth McNeill of Burns United Methodist Church.

On July 4, 1965, this pastor pronounced them man and wife. Homer worked steadily toward his degree; Ora, having left Drake University, concentrated on employment and homemaking. In March of 1968, their daughter, Mellanie Dawn, was born.

On July, 1969, McQueens Pharmacy was opened—a tremendous achievement within a time-span of six years! Homer, a man of great dignity and charm is modest about his success but hastens to speak of Ora's help. "Among the many ways in which she assists me is the fact that she cares for the home and our small daughter; she keeps our books and supervises our four employees." No matter what the circumstances may be with her schedule, she willingly helps with emergencies! Theirs is a fine story. And where are they from? From down behind the sun! Arkansas! At McQueens Pharmacy Homer and Ora McQueen await your patronage.

KOLA-BANKOLA, OF LAGOS, NIGERIA'S KOLA-BANKOLA AND ASSOCIATES FIRM OF ARCHITECTS selected the United States as his 1969 fall vacation site and Des Moines in particular as it is here that his in-laws reside. He is married to the former Frances Lowry recently featured in this column. Kola-Bankola prefers fall travel. His 1968 trip took him to Switzerland Britain (U. K.), Frankfurt, Germany, Genoa and Rome, Italy. These, he insists are not for business; they are holidays. From home to London, Washington, D.C., Chicago — for a visit with a cousin—he arrived in Des Moines last Wednesday. He left Monday for Minneapolis, Minn. There he will visit a younger brother, Rufus Femi Bankola, a micro biologist. Rufus is the pathologist of Swedish Hospital in Minneapolis. Bankola will then visit in San Francisco, and Los Angeles, California; Washington, D. C., New York City, London, returning then to Lagos.

BANKOLA'S BUSINESS CARD NOTES that he holds a Bachelor of Architecture Degree from the University of Minnesota earned in 1958. His picture is in the 1957 yearbook. Following graduation he worked six months for Fran Schroeder Architects, Indianapolis, Indiana; another six months for Ernest Hamilton Associates, Architects and Engineers; from there to Stanley Engineering Company, Muscatine, Iowa. In October of '58 he and Frances had married. She had obtained her Masters Degree in Library Science at the University of Minnesota in '57. Having served the required 2½ years of practical experience, Kola-Bankola left for his home, Lagos.

THE SUMMER OF 1969 brought many tourists to Lagos! This in spite of Nigeria's "confined Civil War." He has very, very high hopes about the future of Nigeria. The present conflict should end in a few months and that would be the beginning of greater strides in the government of the powerful Nigeria! Nigeria is going to be The Black African Country that will be the pride of all black people in the world! A United Nigeria will be the best thing that will ever happen to Africa as a whole and it is the desire of every true Nigerian that Nigeria remains one and not divided. It must remain one for the good of the black people. This is the black power. It is no where else but there! Because we have the potentiality of resources, the manpower and the aggressive resourcefulness of the Nigerians themselves, notwithstanding all odds and the determination to make that country the enviable black power! When you speak of Black Power—Nigeria spells BLACK POWER. With this our interview ended.

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Is peroxide needed to color unwanted gray hair?

Hair care and beauty experts know that the first traces of gray hair—and even slight fading of natural color after chemical relaxing—can dull a woman's appearance and make her look older than she feels. While most women hate these premature aging effects, many are hesitant about using permanent peroxide haircoloring which may change the natural hair color while coloring gray.

Professionally-trained hairdressers know the importance of their customers' preferences when unwanted gray becomes a problem. These experts also know that Clairol created semi-permanent Loving Care® hair color lotion without peroxide... to color only the gray without changing the natural shade. They also find Loving Care blends back color faded by chemical processing. Because of its mildness, Loving Care maintains healthy looking hair and lasts through a month of shampoos.

Whatever a woman's reason for wanting Loving Care for her hair, she is always wise to consult a professional beautician. Hairdressers are equipped with a family of fine Clairol products and the training to promise each patron the loveliest and most personalized haircoloring effects every time she visits her salon. If you dislike gray, and want no peroxide, why not ask your beautician to glamorize it with Loving Care?

JUDGE HAYNSWORTH
WOULD HOLD DOWN
PROGRESS

In a statement submitted to the judiciary committee of the U.S. Senate, which was holding hearings on the nomination of Judge Haynsworth to become a justice of the Supreme Court, Roy Wilkins, executive director of the NAACP said "Negroes will be granted their constitutional rights with an eyedropper at a time when these rights should flow like a river in a thirsty land on the basis of Haynsworth's decisions."

It is apparent that in this decision of Judge Haynsworth, which were reversed by the high court, he falls in the class of Supreme Court justices who held the civil rights laws passed during reconstruction days unconstitutional. In fact, they made the laws as useless as possible by restricting states rather than state and individuals from violating the civil rights of Negroes.

These decisions prompted southern states to pass all kinds of Jim Crow and disfranchisement laws, which, for a while, left the Negro hopeless to protect himself. Judge Haynsworth should not be confirmed because his views on human rights are too vague, hang on to the old order and join up with those forces which have used their power, prestige and money to keep the Negro down.

WORDS OF PRAISE
GO ONLY SO FAR

On numerous occasions, individual readers have praised editorials appearing in the Bystander. And there have been those who have disagreed with some.

This is as it should be. Editorials are the views of an editor of the media in which they appear. However, its columns are open for criticisms or approval which we appreciate more in print than by word of mouth.

Advertising carries most of the load of a newspaper. The Bystander has not been favored with the advertisement it should carry due to a narrow policy of many of our merchants; more narrow than that of many other towns.

In recent weeks, more merchants have changed their policies and are using space in the Bystander. And while they can reasonably hope for a fair share of the trade of our readers, they cannot expect large numbers of them to rush in as the result of one ad.

Friends of the Bystander support the Bystander when they read the ads appearing in it and trade with its advertiser whenever possible. And it is well to say so to management.

One friend remarked to the office that the Bystander is the most borrowed paper in town even though not the largest in circulation. We know this to be true and wish readers would use other methods to save a dime or $4.00 per year.

But in addition, there are subscribers, well able to pay, who fail to respond to statements, even though sizable number of prompts (P's) appear after their names in the credit book. This, of course, denotes irresponsibility. We spend the cost of the subscription in notices. It makes our chances for improvement harder.

Exclamations of support are fine and encourage a fellow to press on but unless put into execution are mere puffs of wind. But with all this, the Bystander has a lot of good friends and supporters— one of the reasons it has survived.

BOTH SIDES MUST WORK THIS OUT

The labor department is attempting to assure employment to more Negroes in the building trades and at the same time head off angry confrontations between them and white workers as occurred in Philadelphia. It is proposed to give Negroes a quota of the jobs in proportion to their population in the area.

Labor opposes the theory. Last Week, George Meaney, head of the AFL-CIO says it won't work because trained Negro journeymen are not to be had and they can't be trained over night.

It is not now that labor has just begun to oppose more Negro workers, or any in some cases, in the unions or on the jobs. However, we believe that justice of the demands for a fair share of the work to be had will be too much pressure for the unions to withstand.

On the other hand, there is merit in what Meaney says simply because Negroes have been excluded from the unions or denied apprenticeship training to qualify for these jobs.

Undoubtedly, the doors are opening and it will be up to youngsters to prepare now rather than wait until the jobs are available. Unpreparedness will still be a legitimate excuse to keep them out.

mind being confused with the Seattle Pilot's popular left-fielder of the same name. In fact, Davis finds it often works to his advantage—it got him the job on "Bewitched."

The understandable confusion of names led to his initial interview with "Bewitched" producer, Bill Asher, an avid sports buff, who thought he was going to talk to the "other" Davis. Happily, Tommy, a singer and actor, and the brother of the L. A. Dodger's Willie Davis, turned out to be perfect for the part and was hired on the spot.

Clay Meets
Frazier In Street Tiff

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—Cassius Clay took a swing at heavyweight champion Joe Frazier Wednesday on a street corner in Philadelphia.

Both had just left the studios of television station KYW, where they taped a Mike Douglas Show.

Clay came out first, crossed the street and was signing autographs on the roof of his automobile.

When Frazier came out with his manager, Yank Durham, Clay took out after them.

When the former champion caught up with Frazier and Durham, he was grabbed by several members of his own retinue, while Durham grabbed Frazier

SPORTS

With Allen Ashby

There can be no doubt that everybody interested in football knows what happened at Iowa City last weekend. But do you know what really did the Washington guys in?

Well, here it is; we were drinking coffee with a lady who works on the fifth floor of the Register and Tribune. We were talking about the game the next day and we remarked that we never yelled at football games.

She said, "Why don't you yell at least once tomorrow? Just give a good loud yell for me and I think we will win. We agreed."

And when Levi Mitchell grabbed that opening kickoff and let out down the right sideline, we yelled, "Up the Middle!" The guy must have heard us because just then he stumbled over an outstretched arm, cut towards the center of the field, broke through and went on his way. Then the other fellow Smith broke over the middle for his touchdown run. So we were happy to report Monday that our friend's strategy worked.

Ozzie Simmons

But really this Mitchell fellow reminds us of Ozzie Simmons who played in the middle thirties. Every time Levi got the ball Saturday the crowd stood up. The fellow looks like a big star in the next two years.

Reversal

This game was just the reversal of the one last week and certainly proved that the Hawks have another potent offense that will require a lot of points to beat. The people were so excited at the touchdown parade they forgot about the leaky Iowa pass defense that is still very much there. Maybe that will get better as the season wears on and Iowa can still win six or maybe even seven games.

Iowa State had a rugged afternoon but pulled the game out against a tough Brigham Young team. We think that as soon as Obert Tisdale has a good day passing he will get really tough. That's all he needs to get started.

North High

And here at home it seems there are a couple of jinxes working in our high schools. It turns out that no matter how good North High is, or how bad East is, the East sidlers manage to do in North. And then they in turn lose to Roosevelt the same way.

But Lincoln has a fellow named Hayman who bears watching. He gets their tough yards and everybody who has seen Lincoln play talks about him. Remember the name for a couple of years.

Bobby Harris

We got a note from Don Ritchie about a fellow named Bob Harris. Bobby, as he was called, was one of the first if not the first good Negro athlete at Dowling. He also worked for a while at the Register and Tribune before he went into the army.

The enclosed clipping says that Bob Harris is one of to restrain him.

Clay threw a looping right hand punch over their backs, which hit Frazier on the left shoulder. Frazier wrestled himself out of his jacket and struggled to free himself. Clay, meanwhile, threw another punch that fell short.

Unlike Federal law, the Iowa Civil Rights Act does not prohibit discrimination on the basis of age or sex.

Anyone in Iowa who feels that he or she has been discriminated against in employment, housing, or public accommodations should immediately contact the Iowa Civil Rights Commission (a state agency with enforcement powers). Write: Iowa Civil Rights Commission, State Capitol Building, Des Moines, Iowa 50319. Telephone: Area code 515/281-5129. It costs nothing to have a complaint of discrimination investigated and resolved; the work is done by the Commission.

PEP PILLS—PICKUP OR LETDOWN?

Pills are part of today's world.

People take pills to pep up. To calm down. To cure TB. To stop having babies.

Pills can be beneficial. But pills—especially those not prescribed by physicians—can have strange effects. Pep pills, for instance, can have a downbeat kickback. At least for rats. And probably for humans, too.

Experiments

In experiments at Boston University, Dr. Aarje Latz gave amphetamines—pep pills—to rats for 10 days. The pills made the rats perform poorly on tasks they were trained to do. Their performance declined with each successive day on the pills. Even after the effects of the drug had worn off, the rats still performed badly. The let-down lingers.

Apparently the effects of some pep pills depend not only on the drug itself but also on the situation. Rats given small doses of dex-four men selected to coach girl's basketball in California. Hope we got this dope right because we ate the letter. But thanks, Don.

THE SILENT WORKMAN

Why fret at your work because

The deaf world does not hear and praise?

were it so bad, O workman true,

To work in silence all your days?

I hear the traffic in the street,

But not the white worlds o'er the town;

I heard the gun at sunset roar;

I did not hear the sun go down.

Are work and workmen greater when

The trumpet blows their fame abroad?

Nowhere on earth is found the man

Who works as silently as God.

VETERANS

EDITOR'S NOTE: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q—What is the difference between going to school under the new educational act and the vocational training act?

A—Any veteran who served at least 180 days any part of which was after January 31, 1955, is eligible to attend school under the new educational act provided his release from service was other than dishonorable. Only certain service-connected disabled veterans can qualify under the vocational rehabilitation act.

Q—My U.S. Government Life Insurance is paid up but my wife has just died. I have no children and no near relatives. I really only need enough insurance to bury me. Also I owe money that I would like to pay off. Can I change my insurance to meet this situation?

A—Yes. You may borrow against your insurance or you may wish to cash part of it in, retaining the amount of protection you consider necessary. You may also wish to revise your beneficiary designation.

Q—I am a patient in a VA Hospital and am 100 percent disabled due to service-connected disability. I am receiving additional compensation for my daughter who will be 18 soon. If she continues in school will benefits continue her?

A—If your daughter is in school and unmarried, your additional compensation will continue until she is 23. Also, she may be entitled to educational assistance, regardless of marital status, at the rate of $130 per month after high school as the child of a totally disabled veteran. Application should be submitted for this benefit.

Q—How can a veteran selling his home be relieved of liability on a VA guaranteed loan?

A—One method is to require the purchaser to pay off the GI loan with his own resources or to obtain a new loan. Another method is to have an approved purchaser assume all the veteran's liabilities on the home and have the VA approve the assumption agreement and specifically release the veteran from further liability to the VA.

Q—Should you bring a tax expert with you when you are called in for an audit?

A—Professional tax help is usually not needed during the examination of a return. However, you may bring someone to represent you if you wish.

The reason for examining a return is to determine whether it is accurate and complete. To do this, you should have the records to back up the items and amounts shown on your return.

Q—Can you deduct anything for employment agency fees?

A—Fees paid to an employment agency for securing a job are deductible when you itemize your deductions.
