ROBERT SMITH, TELEPHONE EMPLOYEE

Wins 4th Ward Primary Victory

1st Negro-Democrat To Go to Davenport General Elections

Special to Bystander
By Cecile Cooper

Davenport, Ia. -- For the first time in this Republican stronghold city a Democrat defeated his opponent in the election for alderman of the 4th ward. Also, for the first time, a Negro became the first member of his race to win in the primaries here.

He is Robert M. Smith, Democrat, who defeated Darryl, Arnold winning the opportunity to face veteran-Republican incumbent Larry Herrington, in the general election on Nov. 4. Harrington ran unopposed.

In addition, another Negro, Rev. Charles Smith, pastor of Bethel A.M.R. church here, ran as a candidate in the 6th ward, but was defeated by a small margin. The Smiths are no relation but Mr. Smith is a member of Bethel A.M.E. church also.

Not First to Run

This was not the first time that a Negro has run for city office here in Davenport. Several years ago Charles Toney, employee at John Deere works, ran but was defeated.

The Smiths are not related to each other but Mr. Smith is a member of Bethel A.M.E. church also. He is employed at the Telephone company, is married and has three children.

Rev. Smith is in his second year as pastor of Bethel A.M.E.church. His wife is employed with the government.

Haynsworth Criticism Storm Rages

Confirmation Vote Expected to Hit Senate Floor Soon

Washington, D.C. -- The storm of criticism raging around the confirmation goal of Judge Clemente Haynesworth did not abate one iota over the weekend.

President Nixon stepped into the verbal fray reportedly bringing pressure on Republican senate leaders like Senator Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, to lead his Supreme Court nominee fight to victory. At the height of discussions last week it was reported that Judge Haynesworth was bowing out but it was stoutly denied by the White House.

Trusteeship

Earlier this week Judge Haynesworth attempted to cool tempers and spread oil on the waters of those opposing him, by announcing that he will put his financial holdings under a trusteeship to avoid conflicts of interest.

No Suggestions

In announcing Haynesworth's offer, White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler asserted that no one in the administration had suggested such a move to the South Carolina jurist, who is a wealthy man.

Haynsworth's portfolio of stocks and bonds reportedly has a value of more than $700,000.

Civil Rights

Following the close of testimony before the Senate, many senators and other leaders, including Senator Edward Brooke of Massachusetts and NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins, have assailed the civil rights record of Haynesworth.

James Farmer, top ranking Negro in the Nixon administration however, pointed out Judge Haynesworth "has a better civil rights record than Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black in his pre-court days."

Farmer, assistant secretary of health, education and welfare for administration, refused to expand his statement on Black and refused further comment on the controversial Haynesworth appointment.

Cecil Brewton Joins Tech Staff

Cecil Brewton, former swimming pool manager at Good Park, has joined the staff of Des Moines Tech as home-school worker. He resigned the swimming pool position on Aug. 18, after 23 years on the job. On that day he was honored by city officials with a cake decorated with a miniature swimming pool, and a $50 savings bond.

In his new job, which he began Aug. 18, Brewton will serve as liason between students and the school.

"I'm there not only for black students to relate to, but for all other students, too," Brewton said in a telephone interview. "But if black students have to to go to the principal or student advisor, I go with them so they will not feel alone."

Coaching

Brewton will also assist with coaching tennis in the spring and with swimming this winter. He is adept at both sports.

One of his sons, Chuck is currently a freshman on a swimming scholarship at Northwest Missouri State College at Marysville, Mo., along with his older brother, Cecil III, who is a sophomore there.

Two other sons, Freddie and Billy are a sophomore at North and a 9th grader at Irving, respectively. He also has two daughters, Joyce, a senior at North and Janine, a third grader at Nash.

He lives with his wife and family at 1115 13th street.

Afro-American Studies Adopted

GAINSVILLE, FLA.—— A degree-granting program in Afro-American studies has been established at the University of South Florida and officials say they acted without pressure.

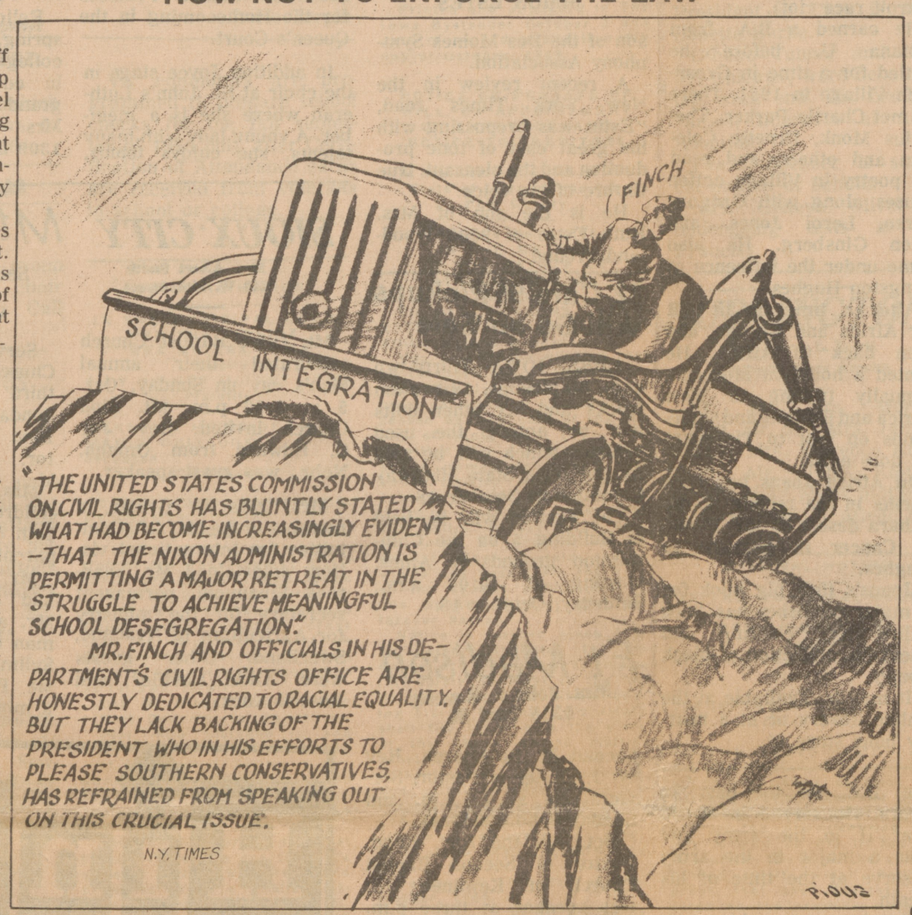
HOW NOT TO ENFORCE THE LAW



Temptations To Appear in Des Moines Oct. 18

The Temptations will appear in a one-show engagement Saturday, Oct. 18 at 8 p.m. at KRNT Theater. Members of the troupe include Paul Williams, Dennis Edwards, Melvin Franklin, Otis Williams and Eddie Kendricks.

Silence

When the Temptations come out on stage and there is that split second of complete silence before the audience reacts, one's immediate impression is of grace. They move across the stage with the masculine assurance of the winner. They stand tall. One of them takes the lead (all are lead singers, a rare thing) and separates himself from the others. He sings while the others come in on harmony all the while working out the intricate choreography. If they were an athletic team they would be unbeatable because every bone and muscle in each man's body seems to be electrically attuned to the movements and reactions of the others. The effect is Kaleidoscopic.

When they sing, their separate voices weave in and out of one another like a musical tapestry. They totally involve one's sense of sight and sound, and when they finish, one has a moment of shock because it has been totally involving. The applause is anti-climactic...it seems a feeble response. As in watching any great dancer or singer, the net effect is making the audience think it could do the same: it seems so effortless.

Sing and Dance

The truth is, The Tempations sing and dance the way everybody would like to. They look like football players but they neither dance nor sing like football players. Instead they have the coordinated grace that most ballet corps think they have and they sing with a harmony which has roots in the old gospel songs but has a special dash of the contemporary. Any adjectives to describe them would have to bring out their special qualities of this old and new.

The trademark of the group is their white patent leather half-boots shot in a long montage sequence to record their style, speed and variety.

Longevity is what they're aiming for - to sustain a quality of performance that they can be known for. Whatever they do, it is certain that will always be unique if they have anything to do with it...and they certainly do.

Chi. Jaycees Pick 4 Negro Candidates For Annual Awards

Chicago --SOMETIMES you have to jump at the faintest flicker of hope that Americans are beginning to understand each other's racial problems.

In Chicago, for instance, the Jaycees have announced their candidates for the national organization's outstanding young man of the year award.

Among the 10 they picked from the Chicago area was the Rev. Jesse Jackson, head of Operation Breadbasket, and one of the heirs to the leadership mantle left in the civil rights movement by the late Dr. Martin Luther King.

Nor was the Rev. Mr. Jackson the only black person named. There were three others, including Chicago Bear football star Gale Sayers, who was picked for two reasons—his prominence as the most dangerous running back in football today lesser known work he has done for the young people of Chicago's ghettos.

The two other black people selected were James Fletcher, an official of the Hyde Park Bank and Trust Co., and Wade Parker, director of Chicago's Division of Youth Service.

Neither Mr. Parker nor Mr. Fletcher are as well known as The Rev. Mr. Jackson or Mr. Sayers. But the Chicago Jaycees, with these selections, have recognized one fact which is probably not too well known among white Americans.

Within the black community in Chicago and elsewhere, there are many different types of leaders dedicated to a variety of activities designed to improve the lot of the black person within a white society.

For too many white people,

LET'S MEET

By: Maude Esther White

Due to unforeseen personal problems, Maude E. White author of the column which usually appears in this section, will not begin her regular schedule until Nov. 1. See story elsewhere in this paper on the author.

Lovers of soul music have been spinning their dials in vain for the past several weeks because due to lack of funds ---- KDPS (Channel 11) was unable to come up with funding to save Chuck's program heard nightly...Monday through Saturday without commercials from 7 to 10 p.m.

Purposes

The program served several useful purposes.

(1) It allowed teenagers to learn something about black artists in the musical world.

(2) It was both a cultural and religious experience for them.

(3) It kept them off the streets during crucial racial rensions period.

(4) It served as a motivational tool and as a means of identification.

Governor

The Honorable Robert Ray in an attempt to save the program, made emergency funding available to Chuck and he was continued on the air from June to September 1, 1969. However, the hope that KDPS would continue the program was not realized.

However, one man's loss can be another man's gain for as of October 1 KWKY (1150 on your radio dial) now carries the program on Saturday and Sunday nights, from 10 p.m. to midnight.

So, again our youth can engage in these soul searching and cultural experiences made available to them by "Chuck" as he spins the plates made by such artists as James Brown, Aretha Franklin, The Temptations, etc.

Now, if you dig Soul Music, and if you want this program continued write or call KWKY, 244-7172, 419½ Locust and let your wishes be known.

Mr. Holloway has wanted to be disc jockey since his graduation from East high in 1961. He envisioned (in time) an all black radio station in Des Moines so that his black brothers and sisters can have an opportunity to work in this type of media. He believes such learning experiences can prove beneficial in improving the channel of communication not only between us soul brothers and sisters, but also between the races, for his listening audience is made up of people from all classes races, and religious background.

While waiting for his big break (a full time disc jockey) Mr. Holloway is employed full time in the office of the State Superintendent of Printing.

FIX-IT TIP

Want a room that can serve as both a bedroom and a study? Solve the double light problem by hanging two sets of window shades, one behind the other. During the day, the translucent shade can filter daylight glare for desk work. At night, a room-darkener can be pulled down for complete sleeping comfort.

WIGGINS

N.C., Wiggins received his degree in social science from Morningside College at Sioux City, He received the master of science degree in school administration from the University of Nebraska in Omaha.

Experiences

His background experience includes social worker at a community center in Omaha for 2½ years. He began teaching here four years ago with his first assignment at Nash Elementary school, 16th and Forest Avenue.

Wiggins said he feels his position on the executive committee will give him an opportunity to encourage greater attention to problems in target areas in the inner city.

Committed

"I am committed to most of the goals that are outlined in the objectives of this organization," Wiggins said. "In some areas, I think we could do much more work, particularly in what we call target areas here in Des Moines.

"While we as a committee must be concerned with the total community, I feel we could do far more work to assure a relevant and productive education for youngsters in the target areas.

JAYCEES

the only black leaders they know of are the militants or the sports heroes such as Mr. Sayers, Ernie Banks or Willie Mays.

We certainly urge Jaycee organizations in other parts of the state and the nation to take a close look at the outstanding young black people in their communities and recognize the important roles they play in community life.

By itself this will not end racist practices in this country, but it should serve as a vehicle through which white America can come to know the solid achievements most black people are making against odds which no white person can ever fully understand--Courtesy of Lindsay-Schaub Newspaper, Inc.

BLUE LEMONS------

by e. e. tate

One note of a name change of one of the city's musical groups: The Blacks and Blues Band is now called the Star Theater, announced at a sorority gig at Drake recently. The audience was dismayed to learn the the B and B band was no more until it learned that a "Star" had been born...

Ted Joans (Black Pow Wow, a book of jazz poems, ppblished by Hill and Wang) describes himself as a "jazz poet, thus a revolutionary poet," a painter, and a trumpet player.

Born in Cairo, Ill., in 1928 of parents who worked a riverboat run on the Mississippi, he survived a precarious childhood (his father was pulled off a street car and murdered by white workers in 1943 during a Detroit race riot).

He earned a B.A. from Indiana U. before he settled for a time in Greenwich Village in 1951. There he met Charlie Parker, Thelonius Monk, Ornette Coleman and others, and read his poetry in Village coffee houses along with Gregory Corso, Leroi Jones, and Allen Ginsberg. He also came under the influence of Langston Hughes.

After a time he lit out for Africa and Europe, and then back to Africa. He rented a house in Morocco, annually treking to West Africa and Europe, and sometimes on foot to Timbuktu (it does exist).

In Africa Joans has read poems in the middle of the Sahara desert on the Tropic of Cancer in homage to Hughes.

Joans's first big book for a major publisher has been called an "exciting and energetic collection of black poetry."

It may be available at the public library or at a nearby book store.

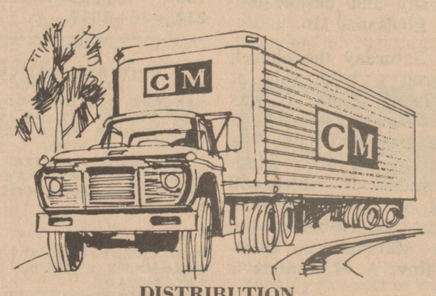
HERE'S HOW CURTIS MATHES CAN OFFER AMERICA'S GREATEST VALUES IN HOME ENTERTAINMENT . . . FOR LESS!



DISTRIBUTION

Most manufacturers ship to distributors who in turn sell to retail outlets. Somewhere along the line, this distributor's profit must be paid . . . yet it adds nothing to the performance of the set. Curtis Mathes sells direct to the retailer . . . saving you this "middleman's" profit.

MANUFACTURER → DISTRIBUTOR → DEALER → CUSTOMER

CURTIS MATHES → DEALER → CUSTOMER

Lower Overhead because:

Lower Plant Location Cost.

Curtis Mathes' plants are located out of expensive metropolitan areas.

Better Labor Cost.

Curtis Mathes pays top wages in their markets . . . giving them access to the best available personnel . . . thereby having more dedicated and conscientious workers.

Curtis Mathes Builds to Customer Demand

Most other companies purchase their cabinets. They build up a full line of sets . . . warehouse them . . . then introduce them to the public through expensive advertising programs . . . and hope that they sell. Curtis Mathes doesn't gamble in this way . . . because Curtis Mathes builds its own cabinets . . . we feel it's safer . . . and much less expensive . . . to introduce models in test markets . . . and if they sell, we build them . . . if they do not . . . we have not "built-in" any obsolescence.

Curtis Mathes Builds Most Of Its Own Components

By building all of these components Curtis Mathes saves about 30% of their cost by not having to pay the manufacturers' profit. This enables Curtis Mathes to give you better value . . . and more rigid and extensive quality control . . . assuring you of the most dependable Home Entertainment instruments in America.

Specialized Advertising

Every year many millions of dollars are spent advertising electronics. Curtis Mathes only advertises when and where it is needed . . . good sound advertising . . . on a local basis. By having an obviously superior product we can rely . . . with confidence . . . on "word-of-mouth" advertising. Curtis Mathes insures this confidence through better quality, appearance, warranty . . . and price!

Curtis Mathes is a Single Profit . . . Not a Multi-Profit Company

We build most of our components.

We operate each plant as a department of our manufacturing company . . . one profit! Our competitors sell at a profit to their set building divisions or buy from outside suppliers. We save an average of 20% on the parts we build or as much as 6% on our complete set.

Communist Prof Gets Standing Ovation at University of California

San Francisco, Calif--Self-admitted Communist party member Angela Davis, was given a standing ovation by 1,900 students when she appeared for her first lecture as assistant philosophy professor at the University of California Monday.

News Conference

Afterwards she appeared in a news conference with Department Chairman Donald Kalish who hired her. Miss Davis began teaching despite a decision by the governing Board of Regents of the university ordering Chancellor Charles Young, 37, to fire her.

Job on Line

But Chancellor Young, at 37 one of the youngest heads of a major American university, put his own job on the line by retaining her as a teacher pending an appeal.

Young is under great pressure from his faculty to permit Miss Davis to teach. About a third of some 1,750 eligible faculty voted Wednesday to condemn the regents for initiating termination proceedings against her.

Hearings

The board decided, however, to keep the black teacher on the university payroll until hearings on her appeal are concluded.

The ruling was regarded as a victory for the conservatives on the board, led by Republican California Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Young defied the regents because he felt the ban on Communist teachers contradicted recent rulings by the California and U.S. supreme courts.

"DIXIE PEACH"

New York -- The Lander Company's unique "Dixie Peach Sweepstakes Contest" ended most gloriously for Miss Annabelle Haislip of 4047 Spaulding Avenue, New York (seated with Mr. Al Burack) who won the grand sweepstake prize of $1,000.00! "Nothing like this has ever happened to me" she said softly with wonder in her shy voice. Miss Haislip, a handsome woman elegantly dressed in a grey ensemble and black accessories, made a fine representative of the new black woman who rely on Dixie Peach pomade and bergamot. The most unique and highly regarded aspect of the Dixie Peach Sweepstakes contest was the Lander Company's steps to involve black consumers across the country. The complete campaign was announced over black radio stations.

First Black Wine Co. Formed in L.A.

LOS ANGELES -- America's first black wine company has been formed here. It's products -- three dessert wines and four table wines-- went on sale in Southern California retail outlets on Monday, September 22. Meanwhile, arrangements for national sales are being completed.

The name of the new firm is Batik Wine & Spirits, Inc. It is headquartered at 7461 Beverly Boulevard.

Batik wines are produced and bottled under a long-term lease-buy arrangement in a modern, $1.2 million Bisceglia Bros. winery in Fresno, California. Bisceglis Bros. have been renowned as makers of fine wines for more than 75 years.

Details

These and other details about Batik (pronounced : ba-teek) were released this week by company president William A. Burke, former Director of Radio and Television Operations for the California State Legislature.

"The formation of our company," said Burke, a 30-year-old Negro, "is a giant step forward for black capitalism. It's the first time we blacks have had a chance to enter the total management position in the billion-dollar wine industry.

Charge Waterloo Rights Director

WATERLOO, IA. — Peter Middleton, director of the Waterloo Human Rights Commission, has been charged here with driving while his license was suspended.

Middleton's license was taken from him in August for 30 days after he pleaded guilty to a speeding charge. A Waterloo policeman last Saturday issued him a summons for driving while the license was under suspension.

Middleton said last week that the officer delivered the summons to his house and said he had observed him driving his white Mustang auto approximately ten minutes earlier.

"I haven't driven my car since my license was suspended," Middleton said. "There are three other white Mustangs just like mine that are owned by black persons in Waterloo."

Middleton, who has served as the rights commission director since August, 1968, is leaving the post next July 1 to enter law school.

Carolina Band Selected for Rose Bowl

Orangeburg, S.C. — The South Carolina State College Garnet and Blue Marching 101 Band has been invited to participate in the 1970 Tournament of Roses parade on New Year's Day in Pasadena, Calif.

Clifford Watkins, band director of the predominantly Negro college, acknowledged that the institution has received the invitation and accepted it.

"The Tournament of Roses parade is considered the grand-daddy of all parades and it is a fine honor to be selected as one of 21 bands to participate, especially when you think of the number of bands there are in the United States which were in contention," he said.

The league meets at Grand Lanes Monday nights. John Williams is president.

To Church Reporters and Pastors

Please see that only one person reports the news as it is confusing to have material coming from more than one source.

Do not list meetings of the choirs, clubs and organizations unless some special feature is reported.

Don't run advertising as news, and additions to the church or visitors unless from out of town. The sick should include only those in hospitals, which should be separate from the church news.

20 Other Black Officials Elected in Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss.--The election of Charles Evers as mayor of Fayette was widely publicized a few months ago. Many people are not aware, however, that 20 other black officials were elected in formerly white controlled Mississippi communities. In three cases, blacks won control of the city government.

Evers and five black aldermen swept into office with a solid black vote in Fayette, a sleepy town in Southwestern Mississippi. In Bolton, three blacks--led by a young militant -- won a majority on the board of aldermen. Jonestown elected three blacks to office.

The all-black town of Mound Bayou elected a young mayor and four black aldermen who ran on a platform of economic development. They hope to make the community a model of black self-determination, they said.

Black candidates were defeated in a great many towns, too. These defeats to blacks, many of whom had joined with the Loyal Democrats last year, brought the realization that the "moderates" were willing to use blacks to gain national recognition--but that they would not work for local candidates. Race remained the single issue whenever a black person ran for office. The only campaign that got backing from the national liberal establishment was that of Charles Evers.

Mississippi now has 91 black elected officials, four years after black people have found entry into the political arena possible. The majority of the poor and the black are still unaffected by the winds of change. The attempt to get the substantial changes needed through the political process is slow and painful. And people know that this whole avenue might disappear when the Voting Rights Act expires in the summer of 1970.

NEWSLIP COVER UPHOLSTERY?

Our slip cover upholstering is not actually new, but it is the proper method of covering upholstering stuffings with muslin - before applying the fabric - we reglue loose frame with hardwood kiln dry wooden dowels - in this way having tied springs from 2 ways to 8 ways in a diamond tie, having sewed down ¾ of the stuffings and using edge roll on all sharp edges of the wood frame - doing all steps - not leaving out any - then covering with muslin prior to putting on the fabric with our superior custom construction of any chair, sofa, footstool or ottoman.

This is why when you may want to change your fabric, you use fabric only, because our basic construction in upholstering is so well made nothing but the fabric need be changed within 5 years under normal use - in fact, based on your frame being good - a good fabric - and our work being done properly, your chair or sofa done by us should last for 20 years - that is, the fabric will wear out, but your basic construction will outwear many fabrics - all work done by hand, the old fashioned way - jute webbing and coil springs used whenever we can - no steps left out - we take and have all the time we need to do only the best upholstery construction work.

Secret! At the first sign of wear, change fabric, - do not let base muslin covering wear through stuffings - muslin is your fabric pre-foundation. We produce low production, high quality upholstering. The truth is: True custom upholstery can not be done vernight - a chair may take 2 or 3 days, a sofa a week or more.

Be wise, don't buy outside appearance and style - buy inside basic construction - he truth is - your old chair or sofa is much better than a cheap new chair or sofa - see our new doel hardwood constructed frames if you want good new upholstered furniture - True custom upholstery is slow but thorough. Good upholstering takes time - it can not be rushed.

This I pledge - you must get the very best workmanship that I can produce with basic upholstering - for the ingredients mixed in that can't be bought are: honesty, consideration, integrity and truthfulness - we work slow but thorough - the job is our first consideration - our pay comes later - after you are 100% satisfied. If we can't buy our own job, neither will we sell it to you - for we truly live by Christ God's rule - Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

FOREMOST ON KAPPA ALPHA PSI'S FALL AGENDA is the members' proposed chartered bus trip to Madison, Wisc., where they will view the Iowa-Wisconsin game to be played Oct. 11. Following this the party of Kappas and their wives will go to Milwaukee's Sheration-Schroeder Hotel for the usual after the game fun-making. They will be joined by Milwaukee's Kappa brothers and their wives. Monroe Colston is Chairman of the Planning Committee. Robert Hyde is Polemarch.

THE ANNUAL FOREIGN STUDENTS FOOD FESTIVAL was one of the City's top week-end activities. Noted again this year among the booths were Clara Bayles (Mrs. Clifford) at the Ethiopian Booth; Maxine Watkins (Mrs Clifford) represented East Inda; and Elaine Estes (Mrs. John, Jr.) was on hand at the Sudan Booth. Elaine, experienced in the work involved in building collections representative of each country, presented gifts to the Ethiopian Booth of two charcoal drawings of Ethiopians done by an Ethiopian artist. They had been given to her by Mary Lou Cook (Mrs. S.M.) Clara Bayles and Grover Hahn are co-chairmen of the Ethiopian Booth.

THE FOREIGN STUDENTS FOOD FAIR AND DRAMA WORKSHOP'S ANNUAL JAZZ CONCERT were for some people Sunday's sole events! Did a bit of fun researeh at the concert as to how the very wide-awake people around me had spent their day. Selected replies were: JOANN JACKSON, The Urban Loung's First Lady of song, "spent the day resting in bed, not even watching television." JIM HUGLEY, YMCA Community Program Director, following a Foreign Students Food Fair dinner, "spent the day sleeping." MIKEL COOPER, a Drake Community College Student "slept the day away." Woke only "for a bit of food."

THE PIGOTT'S AFTER PARTY WAS GREAT! These two are Richard F. (Dick) and Virginia (Jinny) executives of their separate firms--his deals with office equipment and her's with interior design. Their party-giving is accomplished with ease. People were arriving and leaving all the while. The long, candle-lit table was ladened with food! The guests wanted for nothing. Jinny served as producer to Irv White, director and m.c. of the Jazz Concert.

JINNY PIGOTT'S EVENING PANTS SUIT was most exotic! Its wrap-around style silver and black chiffon brocade top was completely encircled with black silk fringe. Its pants were of black crepe, worn with black hose and black suede pumps. Jinny was observed skimming about in her blouse turned mini-dress! (Mmmm, I know how you feel, girls. Felt that way myself!) Now a look at her earrings of long, curling sterling silver wires encircling a dangling, diamond-shaped silver disc; the most fascinating of her rings was a large turquois stone set in a heavy hand-wrought silver mounting. Jinny made the earrings and ring. She wore an enormous handmade silver bracelet. Our host wore a handsome Fitz-Kelly green suit, the jacket of which was the single button style.

NOTED AMONG THE GUESTS were Dartanyan Brown, leader of a sextette; the Bob Popes, who are delightful company; Carl Adams, indispensable on stage or on the party scene when it comes to sounds! Met Ted Richardson, a publishing firm salesman, whose attire of green and black brocade evening coat, pleated bell bottom pants worn with black ostrich skin shoes was very good! There was Gene Roush, who aspires to relate modern and religious music! He and Ted R. teach the same group of youngsters at St. Timothy's Episcopal Church (Father Bob's Church, to me.) Sy Strother, a native of Des Moines and a nationally known musician, was there. Sy travels a great deal. (More later about him!)

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Is peroxide needed to color unwanted gray hair?

Hair care and beauty experts know that the first traces of gray hair—and even slight fading of natural color after chemical relaxing—can dull a woman's appearance and make her look older than she feels. While most women hate these premature aging effects, many are hesitant about using permanent peroxide haircoloring which may change the natural hair color while coloring gray.

Professionally-trained hairdressers know the importance of their customers' preferences when unwanted gray becomes a problem. These experts also know that Clairol created semi-permanent Loving Care® hair color lotion without peroxide . . . to color only the gray without changing the natural shade. They also find Loving Care blends back color faded by chemical processing. Because of its mildness, Loving Care maintains healthy looking hair and lasts through a month of shampoos.

Whatever a woman's reason for wanting Loving Care for her hair, she is always wise to consult a professional beautician. Hairdressers are equipped with a family of fine Clairol products and the training to promise each patron the loveliest and most personalized haircoloring effects every time she visits her salon. If you dislike gray, and want no peroxide, why not ask your beautician to glamorize it with Loving Care?

DON'T PUT ALL THE BLAME ON OTHERS

It happens all too often that we blame the other fellow for our shortcomings: criticize them for not doing something for us that we could do for ourselves.

Recently, some criticism has been leveled at the public schools because many Negro students - there are white ones too - who are unable to read even though they are graduating from high school.

Those who have had occasion to hire some of these youngsters, the so called hard core ones in particular, know this to be true. And not only can't they read but they also falter under the very small problems in arithmetic.

Of course, there are many students who do well, who are making their marks, going on to college and/or entering some of the openings in industry that are available to them as never before.

In years gone by, the old timers pushed their youngsters the best they could even though no such opportunities were available as are today. They wanted them to be somebody, to get their lesssons, to respect and obey authority - and have something. There is much of this spirit today and accounts, partly, for the unprecedented enrollment of Negroes in college.

But we find that many of those students who can't read are spiteful, belligerent and assume the attitude that it is smart to be mean and to hate other people including the teacher. And their parents are at the age when their opportunities were an improvement over the old times and should carry the responsibility of teaching their youngsters at home the things that make for good citizenship. If the youngsters are sent to school with this deeply imbedded in their minds, more will read and recite well and go on to become substantial citizens.

CENTERS ARE NO TOTAL SUBSTITUTES

We are sorry to see that Dowling high school is moving to the suburbs.

However, the officials of the diocese propose to make the present campus a social center for the Model Cities area - open to all, of course.

Frankly, we have enough social centers already - the thing too many people think will solve the problems in ghetto areas. Without knowing who will finance and maintain the center, we are inclined to believe it can do little in comparison to a fine high school in the area.

HAYNSWORTH NO DIFFERENT FROM ABE FORTAS

When Justice Abe Fortas' nomination for chief justice of the Supreme Court was before the senate, the Bystander criticized some of those senators who opposed him, feeling that their objections were aimed at embarrassing President Johnson. But as the evidence of conflict of interest and other unethical dealings unfolded, we became convinced that the senators were justified in their actions.

Some of these same objections are being raised against Judge Haynsworth, whose confirmation is being considered, along with his labor and civil rights record.

The opposition does not question Judge Haynsworth's legal ability or honesty but does insist that he used poor judgment by considering cases involving companies he held stock in, hangs on to the old theory of according Negroes their rights as slowly as possible - typical of the conservative strict constructionists of the constitution.

There are other men from the South President Nixon might have appointed who would not stir such strife among various groups.

ST. LOUIS EMPLOYER NAMED IN WAGE-HOUR INJUNCTION SUIT

ST. LOUIS, Mo. - Violation of the overtime and other provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act by a St. Louis employer, and the withholding of $3,303.38 in pay due 16 employees, were alleged in a civil injunction suit on file today in U.S. District Court at St. Louis.

The complaint filed by Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz named Demetre Kabbaz, 2908 Russell Street, who operates D-K Asphalt Seal and Service, at 806 Russell. It cited alleged failure to maintain adequate time and pay records, as well as the overtime violations.

Henry Bowman To Officiate in Big Ten Games

Chicago, Ill -- After ten years, the ambition of Henry Bowman to become a football official in the "Big Ten" and also to officiate in the State high school basketball finals in Illinois was realized.

This year he made them both, he officiated in the finals of the State and on September 20 when the "Big Ten" launched its football season he was to serve as field judge. He became the first black official in the Big Ten.

Henry Bowman

Bowman works at the University of Illinois, Chocago Circle Campus. He does personnel work, supervising the employment of all the people it takes to keep a large university functioning. He served with the U. S. Air Force for 20 years and through that stint in the service and college courses at Macalaster college, St. Paul, Minn., and the University of Illinois, he became a business administration major and gravitated into personnel work.

SPORTS

With Allen Ashby

The big news this weekend was Iowa State's romp over Illinois. The Cyclones covered a pair of passers. Obert Tisdale looked like he did in high school and as a freshman and really pegged that ball. And he had a good backup man. We have always argued that one good game was all Tisdale needed to really get going. Now he has that so we shall be watching and hoping. We don't think Iowa state will be in the Big Eight cellar, but we will know more about that after Saturday.

In spite of all pregame stories, it would have been news if Iowa U hadn't beaten Arizona. We were glad to see Green begin to look like he did before he got hurt last year. Then he was a fine runner but after his injury Podilack went so well that the Green guy couldn't get back into the starting lineup and Mitchell proved he wasn't just a one game flash.

Defense

There is no doubt about the Hawks ability to score. We just hope the defense is as good as it looked in the second half. Oh yes, we stick by our six game prediction and we were a little amused at the squabble Bill Reichardt tried to start with athletic director Evashevski.

We have listened to the fellow on the air and he doesn't sound as if he is second guessing anybody. He sometimes says the situation calls for such and such a play and if it doesn't come off goes on to the next play. Occasionally he will explain why he thought a certain thing might have worked. But that isn't any more than most of us in the stands who think we know football do. Oh well, it made good reading and provided a few people with opportunities to comment on something.

Drake

Drake really staged an upset by beating a good North Texas team. It has begun to look like the Bulldogs are ready for the real Missouri Valley schedule.

North

And here at home North really got Dowling. The Maroon guys may have read their paper clippings and forgot to show them to North who played as if they really wanted to win and nearly did. East punched out a victory over winless Tech, but the Engineers racked up a few points, too.

A fellow said they have nearly an all sophomore team and are about a year away from being tough. A coming star may be a guy named Barney Heath who they say does it all now.

Lincoln

And at Lincoln you no doubt saw where the name of Hayman turned up in the scoring column. The guy weighs around 190 and is pretty fast as we say. Keep the name in mind for the next two years.

Who would have thought it. The Mets in the world series? and as hopped as they are they might win that, too.

Activities of the Iowa Civil Rights Commission

It is easy to have a complaint of discrimination settled by the Iowa Civil Rights Commission (a state agency who feels that he or she has been a state agency with enforcement powers). And it costs nothing!

Anyone in Iowa who feels that he or she has been discriminated against (on the basis or race, creed, color, religion, national origin, or ancestry) in matters of employment, housing, or public accomodations should write (Iowa Civil Rights Commission, State Capitol Building, Des Moines, Iowa 50319) or call (Area Code 515/281-5129) right away.

A Commission staff person will then help you file a complaint regarding the incident. The Commission staff then conducts a thorough investigation, including getting respondent's (persons being charged with discrimination) side or the story.

After this investigation is completed, the Commission makes a preliminary finding. If the finding is "no probable cause" for the charge of discrimination, then the complaint is dismissed.

If, however, there was "probable cause" for the charge that discrimination did in fact occur, then the Commission attempts to conciliate (settle) the dispute by convincing the respondent to obey the law. If conciliation fails, then the Commission calls a public hearing, to take testimony under oath.

Based upon its findings of fact and law at the hearing, the Commission may either order the complaint be dismissed or that respondent cease-and-desist from discriminating as well as take appropriate affirmative action to remedy the situation satisfactorily.

The commission order may be appealed to the district court by the Commission, complainant, or respondent.

A court order to halt discrimination carries the effective sanction or contempt of court--with a violator subject to imprisonment and/or fines until he complies.

Lifter of Leaner?

There are two kinds of people on earth today.
Not the saint nor the sinner For tis well understood
That the good are half bad And the bad are half good.
Not the happy or sad For the fast flying years.
Bring each man his laughter And each man his tears.
Not the rich or the poor For to count a man's wealth
Your first must know The state of his conscience and health.
No, the two kinds of people On earth that I mean
Are the people who lift And the people who lean.
Wherever you go You'll find the world's masses Always divided in just those two classes
And, oddly enough You'll find, too, I ween There is only lifter to twenty who lean.

Social Security

Health, Education Welfare

Children who have lost their mothers may be losing monthly social security checks, according to Leo W. Smith, district manager of the Des Moines Social Security office.

1968 Change

A change in the social security law in 1968, has made it easier for children to draw monthly benefits based on the work of their mothers. Before the change, in addition to working a specified number of quarters, a mother must have been furnishing substantial support to her children. If not, it was required that she have worked at least one and one-half out of the three years just prior to her death.

Requirement

The law has now been changed so that a child may draw many benefits upon the mother's death if she had worked the required number of calendar quarters. This is true even if she had not worked in recent years and had not been furnishing any portion of the child's support.

For purposes of these benefits, "child" means any unmarried child under age 18. It also means an unmarried child age 18-22 who is a full-time student, or a person over 18 who is suffering from a disability which began before he reached 18.

Retroactive

Since social security payments can be made retroactively for only 12 months, any person who believes he might be eligible to receive benefits under this provision should apply to the social security office as soon as possible to avoid losing social security benefits to which he might be entitled. Any person who applies for these benefits will be asked to submit evidence of the child's age, such as a birth or baptismal certificate, according to Smith.

Smith stated that the people in the social security office in Des Moines, located in Room 293, Federal Building, will be glad to answer questions about these or any other provisions of the social security law.
