Dufflebag Totes Quite A Load

A waterproof dufflebag that carries a complete snowmobile outfit is one of the most practical accessories available to fans of the new winter fun machines.

The bag, designed by Ski-Doo Sports, Ltd., can tote a snowmobile suit, boots, mitts, tuque, helmet, sweater, insulated underwear, socks, goggles, and other accessories. Inside the dufflebag is a separate waterproof bag for boots.

The dufflebag has a lock ring, snap-shut outer compartment, name-and address window.

Considering the number of pooches in the neighborhood, we're about ready to admit that this country is experiencing a pupulation explosion.

Races Join In Building Town in N.C.

GREENEVERS, N. C. --- Negroes and whites in an eastern North Carolina area where blacks predominate by a 4-1 margin have joined together to incorporate a new town.

The state's newest municipality, Greenevers in Duplin County about 40 miles north of Wilmington, will be dedicated in ceremonies this weekend.

The population is 1,500, of whom 1,200 are black.

Acting Mayor Alex Brown said the town hopes to receive $1 million through grants and donations from businesses and foundations. Brown said two industries have expressed interest in locating in Greenevers, a tobacco farming area.

Model Cities Programs Ready To Be Put to City Council For Negotiating Contract

By Frances E. Hawthorne

The Model Cities program is poised and ready to go into the execution stages, that is, as soon as the City Council negotiates the contract with the federal government.

According to William Snyder, Model Cities Director, the program will be presented to the City council at its Dec. 15 meeting at City Hall, as soon as the contract is negotiated, the program formally begins. His remarks came at a meeting Monday of the Model Cities Planning board.

Snyder, who was out of the city last week moving his family to their new home here, said that the minimum internal staff requirement had been met.

When questioned by the board, Snyder explained that a minimum internal staff besides himself would include a deputy director, four senior planners, a systems analyst, attorney, accounting supervisor, two assistant planners, two community co-ordinators and four typists. These do not include staff that may be needed to implement various projects of Model Cities.

Snyder emphasized that he wanted a racially balanced staff and would like these selected from the Model Cities neighborhood where possible.

During other action the board unanimously passed a resolution supporting the director's minimum staff requirement.

The board also passed a resolution to send representatives to the Director's conference in Los Angeles, Calif., this weekend. Representatives besides the director would be Ralph Guisinger, Model Cities board chairman and Sam Stampley, staff member.

The board also supported a resolution to send Dave Picket to all regional executive board meetings.

Newest member on the board is Herman Lewis, appointed by Mayor Thomas Urban.

NEWS In A Nutshell

Minneapolis, Minn. -- The University of Minnesota last week announced that it is contributing an additional $60,000 to the fund of financial aids available to students in the Martin Luther King program.

Milwaukee, Wis. ---- A temporary restraining order was sought against the Milwaukee school board in a suit filed in circuit court last week. The suit sought to prevent the school system from suspending, discipling or interfering in any way with students who wish to take part in a proposed People's Committee for Model Cities Thanksgiving Day parade meant to inform Model Cities area residents about the program.

Fort Dix, N. J. ---- A black Vietnam veteran, Corp Louis Hutchins was shot at Fort Dix by the soldier assigned to guard him. Hutchins was shot in the back of his knee as he walked out of his barracks.

New Orleans, La. -- Black militant H. Rap Brown lost his chance to be heard by the Supreme Court when the high court declined to hear his plea that a federal judge has unconstitutionally forced him to forfeit $5,000 in bail. A Louisiana federal judge ordered Brown to forfeit $5,000 of his $15,000 bail on the ground that he made a trip to California, last year in violation of a court order.

New Haven, Conn. -- For the past six months 14 members of the Black Panther Party have been held without bail at locations scattered around the state. The 14 are women and three of them are pregnant.

Milwaukee, Wis.--- At least 15 students, most of whom are black, were arrested last week at Washington high school. About 40 students had been arrested as the school's racial turmoil enters its second week.

Cpl. Vernon Back from Viet

Cpl. Vernon Jeter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jeter, 1512 18th street, has returned from Viet Nam where he spent a year and seven months in combat duty. He received the Medal of combat action ribbon, National Defense, Service Medal, Viet Nam Campaign Medal and the Viet Nam Service Medal.

Cpl. Jeter has been honorably discharged from the army and plans to resume his education.

Urban Renewal Board Vote $5,000 to Study Feasibility of Plan

The Urban Renewal Board Tuesday night voted $5,000 for a study to see if a proposed black shopping area in the Oakridge Urban renewal project, would be feasible.

The vote came after the board had heard strong proposal from advocates who would like to see such a project developed there. The proposed center would be built in 6.5 acres of land North of Center street and South of Oakridge drive, just west of Keosauque Way, at an estimated cost of $1.3 million.

Max Krumrey, director of the urban renewal department, said at a meeting of the board Tuesday there has been a lot of discussion of black ownership of businesses in that particular area.

"I do feel there is some real value to the area to have a shopping center," he said. "There is not a real convenient shopping center close by."

Ted Richardson, director of the United Black Federation, told the board his group "is interested in furthering black entrepreneurship."

Maximum Growth

"It doesn't mean this project should be all black," he said, "but it will show that all people can be part of the community. I feel that businesses are where we need maximum growth."

Richardson said less than one-tenth of one per cent of the businesses in Des Moines are owned by blacks, and the percentage of blacks in management positions is even less.

Matthew Burksbaum, president of General Management Corp., which has developed shopping centers in a number of communities, said there is a national trend toward black-owned and black-managed businesses.

He said that, based on his experience in shopping center development, the center

Obtain $6 Million SBA Loans; $5.9 Pending

WASHINGTON, D.C.--The approval of more than $6 million in loans for black businessmen, with $5.9 million pending, was announced by Berkeley G. Burrell, President of the National Business League. The loans were obtained since January through the League's Project Outreach, a management and technical assistance program.

9-Month Report

Burrell made the announcement in a nine-month report of the activities of the Project, which is funded by the Economic Development Administration of the Commerce Department. Evaluating its performance on a $55,000 EDA contract, he commented, "The favorable cost-benefit ratio for minority business development is clearly indicated by the accomplishments of Project Outreach." Burrell also cited the cooperation of the 58 NBL chapters as a vital factor in the implementation of Outreach goals.

Initiated in 1967

The Project was initiated in July 1967 and now offers minority entrepreneurs specialized training and counseling in areas such as loan packaging, marketing and site location, business problem solving, contract and bonding procurement, and the establishment of local development companies.

10 Cities

Project Outreach is operative nationally in 10 cities: Atlanta, Chicago, Cleveland, Columbus, Durham, Jackson, Memphis, Norfolk, Richmond, and Seattle. The National Business League maintains a professional staff in each city to provide program services for the local minority business community.

Halt Memphis School Boycott After $10 Million Damage Suit by Board

MEMPHIS, — Following filing of a $10 million damage suit by the Board of Education against leaders of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Union and of United Black Coalition, a school boycott has been called off and suspended students re-admitted to classes.

Joint Action

The joint action, which had been initiated by the Memphis NAACP and the union, split when the union and some other elements in the coalition rejected the NAACP call for a moratorium to permit a cooling-off period after an outbreak of arson, vandalism and violence in the predominantly Negro schools.

The Rev. Ezekiel Bell, chairman of the UBC boycott committee, said that the filing of the damage suit had nothing to do with termination of the boycott. Both the NAACP and the UBC said they had received assurance from the Board of Education that no punishment would be meted out to teachers or students who supported the boycott.

Hasten

The coalition had sought to hasten desegregation in the city. Prime NAACP concern had been with the public schools and the local Board of Education. The union was seeking to organize employees of St. Joseph Hospital. Black students participated in large numbers in demonstrations to achieve the combined goal.

The NAACP board had agreed to a ten-day moratorium during which it urged students to return to classes as negotiations were conducted with school officials. Others continued the student demonstrations in a move designed to use the demonstrations to force the hospital to accede to union demands.

Scholarship Committee Gives Varied Aid to Black-College Bound

The Scholarship Committee is one of the paramount outreaches of the United Black Federation. It's goals, like those of the parent organization, serve black interests only.

The UBF Scholarship Committee was organized in 1968 with a membership including Judge Luther T. Glanton, Jr., Udell Cason and Mrs. Cynthia Turner. Mrs. Shirley M. Woods is chairman.

Interview

Mrs. Woods, in a recent interview, stated the committe helps black high school graduates attain further training in vocational schools, colleges, and universities. To do this, graduates are informed of available financial aids in the categories of scholarships, grants and loans, and assisted in obtaining these, and acting as coordinators between students and the educational institutions.

The committee makes personal or telephone contacts with the Des Moines high schools black graduating students. To date students have been assisted in entering Peru, Parsons, the University of Iowa, Ellsworth Junior College, Wartburg College and AIB.

Wartburg officials have shown great interest in getting more black students on campus. They met with the scholarship committee early this Fall. George Williams College in Chicago, and the University of Iowa are both sending recruiters to talk with the committee.

Applications Increase

As people learn about the committee's work, applications for scholarship aid are rapidly increasing. This has brought about personal interviews and counselling, as well as financial aid.

Those interested can reach Mrs. Shirley M. Woods, Scholarship Chairman at 1610 Cleveland, Des Moines, Iowa 50316; 262-5313.

Spriggs and Dr. St. John Williamson, Jr., of Des Moines; and Rev. John I. Thomas and George W. Turner of Cedar Rapids.

51 Units

The Iowa State Advisory Committee is one of 51 such units whose members serve without compensation to provide the Commission with information concerning civil rights activities in their communities and to disseminate information about Federal laws and programs.

Declare Mistrial For 4 Marines, Face Another

MEMPHIS, Tenn. --- A mistrial was declared after the first of four black marines went on trial on charges of rioting, conspiracy, and assault. A white juror admitted he was prejudiced.

However, all four marines still face another trial starting Dec. 1 at Millington Naval Air Station north of here. The charges against them stem from a clash between white and black marines at the air station last summer.

The accused men all served in Vietnam, all were wounded, and one was awarded the Bronze Star for bravery. They were sent to the hospital at Millington to recuperate.

They said the charges against them resulted from their defending themselves when they were attacked by 13 to 15 white marines armed with billy clubs.

The four marines under charge are Oscar Terry, 19 of Paducha, Ky., Arthur McCall, 20, of Birmingham, Ala.; Charles Nickson, 23, of Memphis, Tenn., and Perry Backstrom, 21, of Meridan, Miss.

Lincoln U (Mo.) To Get New Prexy

JEFFERSON CITY -- Dr. Walter Clarence Daniel will become the 12th president of Lincoln University next April 19 when he is inaugurated in ceremonies scheduled for the campus here.

When Dr. Daniel assumes the formal control of the school in its 104th year, he will direct the fortunes of a school that is little like the one started by the officers and men of the 62nd and 65th U. S. Colored Infantry Regiments following the Civil War.

Purpose

The school's original purpose was to serve the recently freed Negro. It now enrolls nearly as many caucasian students as it does Negro. Under this regimen it has grown. In 1954 when the U. S. Supreme Court declared racial seggregation unconstitutional, Lincoln had approximately 700 students. Since it has opened its doors to all qualified students, the enrollment has grown to well over 2100.

Sees Bias USDA-Worst

ATLANTA, GA. -- The U. S. Department of Agriculture remains the federal government's worst offender in discriminating against Negroes, the Southern Regional Council says.

Patterns

"Until the U. S. Department of Agriculture moves forcefully to end patterns enforced by decades of dominance by Southern white supremists, black Southern farmers will be denied equal protection under the law," the council declared in a report released Saturday.

The report especially cited patterns of racial discrimination in the Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service and Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Research

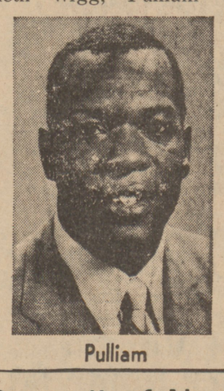
The Southern Regional Council is a private research agency devoted to equality of opportunity. It is financed partially by the Ford Foundation.

The report said the Farmers Home Administration has done more to correct racial inequities than any other branch of the Agriculture Department.

Dolph Pulliam Named Chr For Iowa Palsy Campaign

Dolph Pulliam, former Drake basketball star, Monday was named 1970 campaign chairman for the United Cerebral Palsy of central Iowa.

According to United Cerebral Palsy President Kenneth Wigg, Pulliam will direct all phases of the voluntary health organization's $55,000 fund raising effort to begin Jan. 2, 1970.



Pulliam

United Cerebral Palsy of Central Iowa serves Boone, Dallas, Jasper, Madison, Marion, Marshall, Polk, Story and Warren counties. Seventy per cent of all funds contributed remain in central Iowa to aid in purchase of wheel chairs, braces, therapy and for tuition at special schools.

Pulliam, who is also a news reporter for KRNT-TV and shares radio sports broadcasting honors for the Bulldogs basketball games, as guest speaker Monday evening for the Northwest Des Moines Kiwanis club at the Uptown Terrace cafe.

Council of Negro Women Launch Drive to Mobilize Four Million Black Women

WASHINGTON, D.C.------- In a spirit of new unity of purpose and action, the National Council of Negro Women used its 34th annual convention as the launching pad for a new thrust --- full mobilization of four million black women to work as agents for change in black communities throughout the country.

The call for "unity and power and action" through an intensified black women's movement was sounded by Miss Dorothy Height, the indefatigable president of the National Council of Negro Women (NCNW).

Productive

According to Miss Height, this convention was one of the Council's most substantive and productive.

For two full days, Monday and Tuesday, a Leadership Institute was held for NCNW Section officers.

On Wednesday, NCNW members were organized into two groups for "encounters" with members of Congress and officials of government agencies.

On Capitol Hill, Group A met with Senator Edward Brooke (R. Mass.) at a session on the legislative process. Clarence Mitchell, Director, Washington Bureau of the NAACP, explained the major, pending civil rights battles before the Congress and outlined the type of support sections.

Miss Height was re-elected president.

Okla. City Blacks May Resume Strike Demonstrations

ATLANTA, GA., --- Demonstrations by blacks in support of the garbage workers' strike in Oklahoma City, Okla., will resume in two weeks if the charges against the participants are not dropped, according to the Rev. W. K. Jackson, president of the strike-supporting Coalition for Civic Leadership in Oklahoma City.

The announcement was made by the Affiliates Division of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference in Atlanta, Georgia, by Affiliates director, the Rev. T. Y. Rogers, Jr.

The Oklahoma City strike was begun last Aug. 18, after the city did not follow through with it's agreement following the report of a fact-finding committee. The agreement included $60.00 per month salary increase for the workers.

5 Local Firms Honored for Bonds Sale

Social Security

Health, Education Welfare

QUESTION: [illegible] years ago I began receiving benefits as a disabled worker. The law said I had to be disabled for 6 months before payments began. The benefits recently stopped because my condition improved and I was able to return to work. If my conditions worsens and I become eligible for disability benefits again, will I have to wait another 6 months before I get benefits?

ANSWER: No. Ordinarily you can start getting benefits immediately if you should again become disabled within 5 years - even if your impairment is different from the previous one.

QUESTION: I will be 65 next month. I have received two letters from the social security office asking that I come in and make my application. I do not intend to retire for a least two years. Why should I make application now before I am 65?

ANSWER: Your application for social security is also an application for hospital insurance under Medicare and can be an application also for supplementary medical insurance to help pay doctor bills. The benefits under hospital and medical insurance are paid whether you retire or keep working. To get full protection against doctor bills you must file before the month you reach 65. The letters you received urged you to come in and file so you will not lose any benefits under the hospital and health insurance programs.

QUESTION: I am already 65 and plan to retire at the end of June next year, but I would like to continue working part time making about $225 a month. I figure the last six months of the year at $225 per month will give me a total earnings of $1,350. Since this will be below $1,680 per year, can I collect all my social security benefits for the six-month period

ANSWER: No. Your earnings for the entire year - not just for the last six months must be counted in determining how much of your social security benefits can be paid to you. The $1,350 you expect to earn in the last six months of the year when added to your earnings for January-June probably will be so high that no benefits will be payable to you for the year. If, however, there turn out to be any months of the year in which you earn wages of $140 or less, you can collect your benefits for those months regardless of the total amount of your earnings.

VETERANS

EDITOR'S NOTE: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Veterans

Q -- I am a widow of a World War II veteran who receives pension under the new law. My church has contributed to my welfare. Is this counted as income toward my pension?

A -- No. Charitable donations are not counted as income in your case.

Q -- I am going to resume training late this fall at the same college that I attended in 1967. Do I have to get a new certificate of eligibiltiy from the VA?

A -- No, provided that you also plan to resume training in the same program, a new certificate of eligibility is not required. But make sure that you inform the proper official at the college that you wish to receive benefits from the VA. They will then send an enrollment certificate to the VA so that an award can be made to authorize training allowance for the current school year.

Q -- Can I receive G. I. educational allowance while doing post graduate work on a National Institute of Mental Health fellowship?

A -- Yes, effective Oct. 15, 1968, all grants and awards made by the public health service are exempted from the bar to concurrent payments in the G. I. Bill.

"LEAVES"
By Dave Griger

We gave you shade from the sun seems to be,
While the foliage were spread for the beautiful tree.

As now we are piled perhaps five feet high,
For the flames and smoke are rolling beneath the sky.

We lay on the roof top, we roll in the street,
Crushed by cars or human feet.

We humble and tumble without any rest,
We pack our grips and go out west.

The climate is warmer as it seems to be,
And we can stay much longer upon the tree.

Then I'll be smiling as no more a tear
For you'll be living most of the year.

I recall when you were so plump while I am sitting on the bench,
And now you lay scattered alongside the fence.

You may not hear the whisper or see the streaming tears
And that is how we lived all through the years.

In the spring we come and in the fall we go,
For what is left of us, we lay under a pile of snow.

In June we blossom with great desire,
And now we lay in heaps and burn in the fire.

We lay in a coma, half asleep, half awake,
And always being pushed by the iron rake.

In spring again we're born, we huddle cheek to cheek,
But we're afraid of the Robin's dangerous sharp beak.

And the birds and the rabbits are building their nest
As we leaves lay under them not able to rest.

The sun in the daytime and the howling wind at night,
For we leaves huddle together, being full of fright.

But when day comes we are so proud to be
While being guarded by our beloved tree.

But now he stands silent, lonely with despair,
While we lay helpless on the ground everywhere.

Built-In Aids Ironing Task

Half the headache of ironing is the setting up. A built-in ironing board is still the neatest, simplest solution and takes up little space.

One can be installed almost anywhere—in the utility room, kitchen, or sewing room if you are lucky enough to have one. Just be sure there's an electrical outlet handy.

The board itself requires very little depth but you will want the iron at hand, and possibly other accouterments. These may be set on shelves either recessed behind the board, or placed alongside, which requires more width but less overall depth. Either way it's only a matter of a few inches.

Piano hinges serve to let board and leg brace down in a jiffy. Concealed or decorative door hinges and hardware may be used.

Mrs. Gertrude Craig Dies in Omaha, Former Iowan

Funeral services were held Nov. 21 in Omaha, Nebr., for Mrs. Gertrude Craig. A native of Corning, Ia., and a graduate of Iowa University at Iowa City, she taught school in Buxton, Ia., for several years. While there she made a host of friends, some of whom are now living in Des Moines where she was once a frequent visitor.

Later she moved to Omaha, and shortly afterwards was hired as the first Negro teacher at the Geneva Industrial school for Girls. She was employed by the city of Omaha as a domestic Relations officer in the City Hall building.

Later she became probation officer under the jurisdiction of the Juvenile court for over 30 years until her retirement. She was a member of the Immanuel Community Church and of the Zeta Phi Beta sorority.

She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Helene Lucas Banks of Los Angeles, Calif., nieces, Miss Bessie Lucas and Mrs. Lenore Johnson of Des Moines; and Mrs. Amanda Collins of Denver, Colo.; cousin, Adam Johnson, Sr., of Des Moines and other relatives.

Blue Cheese Wheels End Gift Dilemma

Gift-giving is a way of life in America. Besides the "extra special" Christmas day, we exchange remembrances with each other on birthdays, anniversaries and, of course, on Easter.

If you're running out of ideas for the next special gift occasion, why not put your imagination to work and give an original gift that will please the recipient many times over.

If a homemaker heads your list, try something in the food line. An attractive package of specialty cheese might fit the bill.

Try a wheel of the tangy blue cheese made in the dairylands of this country. Wrap the American blue cheese in a lovely tea towel rather than wrapping paper, and you've given a useful and decorative gift at the same time.

A wheel of this cheese makes a useful gift at any time of year. It can be cut into wedges to be served with crackers for impromptu parties.

It can be rolled into balls and served with fruit. Crumble the blue cheese and combine it with one or more ingredients to make tangy dips, dunks and dressings.

You might even wrap one of your favorite American blue cheese recipes in with the wheel as well to add a personal touch.

Your food gift is one that gives pleasure for many weeks to come.

EQUITY NO. 74077

DONALD V. SHAWHAN and BERNICE SHAWHAN, Husband and Wife, Plaintiff,
vs.
FRED G. FRYMAN and OLGA FRYMAN, Husband and Wife, and all persons claiming by, through and under them, all claimants known or unknown and/or all persons under any legal disability having and/or claiming any right, title or interest in and to the real estate described as follows, to-wit:

The South 10 feet of the North half of the Southwest Quarter of the Northwest Quarter of the Southwest Quarter of Section 23 in Township 78 North of Range 24, West of the 5th P.M., all now included in and forming a part of the City of Des Moines, Iowa, Defendants.

TO: The Above Named Defendants,

You, and each of you, are hereby notified that there is now on file in the office of the Clerk of the District Court of the State of Iowa, in and for Polk County, at Des Moines, Iowa, the Petition of the Plaintiffs above named claiming that they are the absolute and unqualified owners in fee simple of the following described real estate situated in Polk County, Iowa, to-wit:

The South 10 feet of the North half of the Southwest Quarter of the Northwest Quarter of the Southwest Quarter of Section 23 in Township 78 North of Range 24, West of the 5th P.M., all now included in and forming a part of the City of Des Moines, Iowa.

Plaintiffs believe that said Defendants, or some of them, as Plaintiff is credibly informed and believes make some claim to said property, or some interest therein, adverse to the title of this Plaintiff, but that the Plaintiffs have no knowledge or information and do not know how said interest as claimed by said unknown claimants was derived, or claimed to have been derived, or the method of obtaining the same, and Plaintiffs allege that the names and residences of the unknown persons are unknown to Plaintiffs, and that the Plaintiffs have sought diligently to learn the same; and Plaintiffs in said Petition set out certain instruments of record which cloud the title of Plaintiffs to said real estate and to the pretended claims or questions which have arisen with reference to said title. For further particulars, see the Petition of the Plaintiffs now on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court. Plaintiffs further allege that none of the said Defendants or unknown claimants have, in fact, any right, title or interest in and to the above described real estate or any part thereof, or any color of title or interest therein, and that the Plaintiffs herein have been in the sole, complete, open, notorious, actual and undisputed adverse possession of the said premises for more than ten (10) years last past under color of title and claim of right for more than ten (10) years last past, and that by reason thereof, the Defendants are estopped from asserting any right, title, claim or interest therein adverse to the Plaintiffs.

Plaintiffs in their Petition, pray for the establishment of their estate and title against the adverse claims of the Defendants, and that each and all of them and all unknown claimants, and all persons unknown having or claiming any right, title or interest in or to said premises, and all persons claiming by, through or under them, be barred and forever estopped from ever having, asserting or claiming any right, title or interest in or to the said premises, or any part thereof, adverse to the Plaintiffs or the Plaintiffs' title to the said premises be quieted, established and confirmed, and that Plaintiffs have such other and further equitable relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate in the premises.

You, and each of you, are further notified that unless you appear and defend in said Court, at Des Moines, Iowa, within (20) days from the completed service of this Original Notice upon you, your default will be entered, and judgment and decree will be rendered against you as prayed for in this Petition.

This is the second month of the Personal Problems service and callers with problems of any kind are referred by the answering service to one of the Services' 35 trained volunteers. It begins at 7:30 p.m. continuing until 4:30 a.m.

Mrs. Robert Pearl registered dietician of St. Joseph's hospital, was recently elected treasurer of the Iowa Dietetic Association during a meeting held at Hotel Fort Des Moines in Des Moines, Ia.

Mrs. Mae Cuyles entertained the Self Culture club at the home of Mrs. Carl Majors on Nov. 21.

The Thanksgiving Community services under the auspices of the Keokuk Ministerial Association were held at 9 a.m. in the First Congregational church. Three "expressions of thanks" were given by Miss Cindy Thomas, Mrs. James Younggren and Mrs. Robert Pearl.

On Wednesday, Nov. 26 the city's Christmas decorations were officially lighted.

Swanson Heads IPALCO Board

Dwight H. Swanson was elected chairman of the board of Iowa Power and Light Company effective Dec. 31, succeeding A. Paul Thompson who is retiring. Swanson was elected president and chief executive officer Feb. 1 of this year.

In other action, regular quarterly dividends of 40 cents per share were declared Nov. 25, 1969 at the November meeting of the Board of Directors of Iowa Power and Light Company on the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock of the company, payable Feb. 6, 1970 to the holders of record as of the close of business on Jan. 9, 1970.

Mrs.Cora Harvey Attends Education Lab. in Minn.

Today Dec. 4, Mrs. Cora L. Harvey, Waterloo, Iowa is attending the fall meeting of the Upper Midwest Regional Educational Laboratory in Minneapolis, Minn., of which she was recently elected to a three-year term to the Board of Directors.

It is a federally sponsored educational laboratory, one of 15 such educational laboratories in the nation.

The program achieves the ultimate objective of education--to bring about the fundamental change in student behavior and dramatically increase his or her learning.

Serves 4 States

UMREL serves Minnesota, Wisconsin, the Dakotas, and Iowa, and presently has demonstration classrooms in an inner-city school in Minneapolis; on an Indian Reservation in northern Minnesota; in a kindergarten in Elk Point, South Dakota; and for all the grades of an economically, socially, and racially mixed parochial school in the Twin Cities.

Born in Ottumwa, Mrs. Harvey, was educated in the public schools of Oskaloosa, Chicago, Ill., and Gary, Ind., receiving her B.A. Degree, Wiley College, Marshall, Tex., in 1942. She taught during the war years in Texas and Arkansas, earning her Master of Arts Degree in Elementary Education, State College of Iowa, Cedar Falls, in 1964.

She taught 10 years in the Waterloo Community Schools, and is on leave the academic year of 1969-70 doing graduate work in library science at University of Northern Iowa, Cedar Falls.

Mrs. Harvey is the wife of Dr. Robert F. Harvey, a Waterloo dentist, and the mother of two children; member of Payne Memorial A.M.E. Church, A.K.A. Sorority, N.A.A.C.P., secretary of the Waterloo Branch of the Association of Childhood Education of the ISEA, WEA, and NEA.

Launches Attack on Lily-White Suburbs

New York -- In an effort to breach the iron noose which, in the main, confines Negroes to the inner-cities, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has launched an attack upon restrictive suburban zoning codes.

With sources of employment drying up within the cities as industry moves out, it is imperative that housing be made available to black workers in the suburbs, William R. Morris, the NAACP housing director, said in announcing the drive.

Initial Step

As an initial step, the Association has filed a petition with Michael Petito, town supervisor of Oyster Bay, seeking rezoning of the Long Island village to permit construction of housing for low and middle-income families. At the same time, the NAACP called upon the Department of Housing and Urban Development to reject the town's application for recertification of its Workable Program for Community Improvement.

Rezoning Alleges

The petition for rezoning alleges that the Oyster Bay laws "were systematically excluding low and moderate income and minority group families from gaining access to new housing anywhere in the township." It says that land-use regulations tend "to nullify the effectiveness of fair housing laws."

The situation "is particularly critical for non-white families who are compelled to find housing in a few locations where they pay exorbitant rents for substandard facilities."

Negro Owned Manufacturing Firm Goes Public

MEMPHIS -- Powell Communion, Inc., a pioneer in Memphis black entrepreneurship, recently became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the M-T Manufacturing Co., here.

Powell Communion, which will retain its product identity, makes a plastic, disposable communion cup with peel-off top for religious services. The cup, identical to the glass variety used in many churches, is pre-filled with grape juice with a wafer (or bread) packed in the lid. Ideal for military use -- the largest customer -- the communion cup will keep for 18 months without refrigeration.

One of a growing number of Negro enterprises formed in Memphis, under the umbrella of the city's $4-million Greater Memphis Program, the largest chamber of commerce development program of its kind in the nation, M-T Manufacturing also makes plastic blisters for tooth brush packages.

Mrs. Downey was born in Ottumwa, Apr. 18, 1898 and had been in ill health the past year.

She was a member of Mt. Zion AME Church, a past president of the Des Moines District Missionary Society of the AME Church, and a member of the United Federation of Postal Clerks Auxiliary and of the National Association of Retired Civil Service Employes.

She was married to Russell Downey, Nov. 11, 1920, at Ottumwa. He survives, as do two sisters, Mrs. Edith Lintz of Ottumwa and Mrs. Emma Mae Moore of Oakland, Calif.; and a brother, Hank Williams of Altadena, Calif.

She was preceded in death by one sister.

MRS. DOWNEY

Mrs. John Harvey, 708 Lincoln has returned from Des Moines where she visited her daughters, Mrs. Jean H. Johnson and grandchildren.

Mr. John Harvey received word of the death of his cousin, Mrs. Rosaee Johnson, of Chicago, Ill.

Mr. John Ewing is at Ottumwa hospital.

Services for Mrs. Leonora Downey, 71 of 1726 Milwaukee street, were held Nov. 29 at 1 p.m. at Jay Funeral home with the Rev. Marshall Smith, Jr., of Mr. Zion A.M.E. church, officiating. Burial was in Ottumwa cemetery.

Pallbearers were Roy Winston, John Harbey, Harry Brown, Norman Ellis, Charles Robinson and Vernard Black.

Out of town relatives and friends attending were Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lintz, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Allen W. Downey, Des Moines; Mrs. Louise Hall, and Mrs. Constance Moore, Chicago, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. William Kinney, Milwaukee, Wis., Mrs. Melvin Reed, Metropolis, Ill., Mrs. Cecelia Lewis, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Peguese of Des Moines; Mrs. Harvey Hess, Jr., of Waterloo and Rev. William H. Burnette, Jr., presiding elder, Des Moines.

Dawson Appointed FHA Director

Washington, D.C. - Adrian J. Dawson, 59, former director of the Kansas Real Estate Commission, has been appointed director of the Topeka insuring office of the Federal Housing Administration, effective Nov. 23, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development announced today.

Dawson served the Kansas Real Estate Commission from 1950 until August 1969, first as assistant director and then as director. Before 1950 he was affiliated with several real estate firms, and for a number of years was manager of the University of Kansas Extension Service.

Mr. Dawson lives at 1830 Collins St., in Topeka. He is married to the former Kathlyn Dennis, a teacher in the public schools of Topeka. They have a son, John W.

Our computers are color-blind

At R. J. Reynolds, the right man gets the promotion, no matter what his color. It's part of the way we've been honoring our commitment to equal opportunity. A way that is new and different. Our people have more than just a job; they have a career opportunity with a bright rewarding future. And we back up our offer with the best training we can provide.

Here is how it is:
it is 700 summer jobs right now it is 1 of every 4 jobs for Blacks it is everybody starting even.

But starting even is not enough. We let the computers identify who is eligible for training and who gets the promotions. Prejudice just isn't part of our computer programming. Regardless of color, promotion and additional training for promotion goes to the worker with the most seniority.

Scouting Construction Sites for HUD Registry Of Minority Contractors

Washington, D.C.--Every day in 50 major cities across the country a small army of volunteers is out scouting construction sites, looking for a particular type of contractor.

First in U.S.

When they find a minority contractor -- Negro, Mexican-American, American Indian, whatever -- they ask him a few questions, such as his name, type of work he can handle, and number of his employees. The answers they get will be used to create the first comprehensive Registry of Minority Contractors and Subcontractors ever put together in the United States.

Early 1970

The first edition of this Registry, which will be maintained and distributed by the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, should be ready for delivery in early 1970.

There are two major reasons for compiling such a list:

1 -- A number of Federal programs, such as Model Cities and low and moderate-income housing construction, call for use of local businesses and residents in the programs, including all phases of construction. There is often a large minority population in such areas. But it has often been difficult to locate minority contractors. They are usually quite small and in the past have not been included in general lists of construction firms.

2. -- The private sector is increasingly involved in improving the economic viability of minority Americans by encouraging entrepreneurship. President Nixon has called for a major effort to create minority businesses, and various coalitions and organizations of businessmen and other local leaders are interested in such programs in major cities across the country.

A registry of minority contractors would be a very useful tool in these programs.

The survey is now being conducted by approximately 200 volunteers in 50 metropolitan areas, listed below. They are trained by city coordinators, who were trained by the NAACP in regional sessions held in New York City; Atlanta, Ga.; Columbus, Ohio; Chicago, Ill.; San Antonio, Texas; and San Francisco, Calif.

BOB CULP SPIES ON BOB COSBY

Television star Bill Cosby (right) was one of Robert Culp's most frequent visitors during the filming of The Columbia Pictures release, "Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice," a satire on American marital mores. Culp, who teamed with Cosby in the popular "I Spy" television series, co-stars in the new motion picture with Natalie Wood, Elliott Gould and Dyan Cannon.

The musical score by the brilliant Quincy Jones provides his usual exciting backdrop to the Frankovich Production. The film, a World Premiere showcase in New York City, was welcomed in Los Angeles, Boston and San Francisco with record-breaking grosses. "Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice" will open nationally during the Christmas Season.

Cosby will be in Des Moines Saturday for a 7 p.m. performance at KRNT Theater. This will be his second appearance here.

Vents Preventive

Adequate venting is a key to eliminating exterior paint failures. The Federal Housing Administration can supply its minimum rules for venting to remove vapor, which forms in any home.

CHRISTMAS SEALS -- A MATTER OF LIFE AND BREATH

"Anybody who has ever made his living as a singer knows the value of healthy lungs," says Mike Douglas, star of TV's daytime variety show.

Mike Douglas has a special interest in healthy lungs. He is National Honorary Chairman of the 1969 Christmas Seal Campaign, which began Nov. 12.

1969 Design

People in cities and towns across the country will receive their Christmas Seals from their local tuberculosis and respiratory disease associations. The design of this year's Christmas Seal shows 12 tots in snow togs dancing around a fir tree. The circle means warmth and togetherness. The mood is upbeat and fun-filled.

"When an entertainer is in constant touch with millions of people," says Mike Douglas, "I figure he has certain obligaton to level with them--to talk to them now and then about things that are for real.

Urgency of Fight

"That's what I propose to do in my capacity as National Honorary Christmas Seal Chairman," he says. "To explain the urgency of the fight for better breathing, and the importance of Christmas Seals in the war against emphysema, air pollution and tuberculosis--a war being waged all year round by the National Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association."

Healthy lungs are important for singers like Mike Douglas. And for everyone.

Use Christmas Seals. It's a matter of life and breath.

Activities of the Iowa Civil Rights Commission

By Alvin Hayes, Jr.

The caseload at the Iowa Civil Rights Commission has increased significantly in the past year, thus indicating that the Commission is reaching the victims of discrimination better than at any time since the Commission was formed in July of 1965.

For example, 84 formal complaints (52 in employment, 18 in housing, and 14 in public accommodations) were opened in the past year -- as compared to 40 during the year before. (A total of 160 formal complaints have been opened since July of 1965.) A big factor in the increasing caseload has been the Commission's affirmative action employment project (funded by the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission) under which one staff investigator is assigned full-time to analyzing the total employment practices of selected large companies across the state.

So far, 23 formal complaints have been filed by the Iowa Civil Rights Commission itself against companies which are underutilizing minorities and have no specific affirmative action program to eliminate both outright and subtle discrimination.

This Commission has also actively filed Commission charges in the area of housing (especially before the $500 bond requirement for filing a formal complaint in housing was repealed in July of 1969.) As a result, this Commission itself filed 40 of the 84 formal complaints opened in 1969 -- as compared to a total of 22 Commission charges in the combined 3½ previous years of the Commission's operation.

Another indication of the Commission's increasing effectiveness is in the number of formal complaints settled. During the past year, 64 formal complaints were settled -- as compared to 18 the year before. 38 of the 64 formal complaints settled during the past year were conciliated (thus getting the parties to agree on a satisfactory solution to remedy a discriminatory situation.) The Commission found no probable cause for the charge that discrimination occurred in 21 of these 64 complaints -- with the other 5 closed for other reasons with no discrimination being found.

This Commission views the Iowa Civil Rights Act as requiring that a person neither be denied equal opportunity nor be given preferential treatment merely because of his race, creed, color, national origin, religion, or ancestry. When other relevant considerations are equal or similar, a decision (regarding matters in employment, housing, or public accommodations) must not be based upon a person's minority status -- but upon his or her personal merit.

The Iowa Civil Rights Act prohibits discrimination in employment, housing, and public accommodations -- based on a person's race, creed, color, religion, national origin, or ancestry. If you have been discriminated against or know about a discriminatory practice, write: Iowa Civil Rights Commission, State Capitol Building, Des Moines, Iowa 50319; or telephone: area code 515/281-5129. It costs nothing for a person to have a discrimination complaint investigated or resolved.

New Self Service Unit to Be Installed at P.O.

Postmaster John P. McNerney announced today that a new self-service postal unit has been installed in the Main Post Office lobby located at Second and Walnut. This unit will be put into operation on Friday, Dec. 5, at 10:00 A.M., by holding opening ceremonies in the Main Post Office location.

McNerney says the new do-it-yourself mailing center will be open 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 52 weeks a year. Des Moines mailers will be able to mail letters and packages, buy stamps, postal cards, envelopes and parcel post insurance from the vending machines at the unit.

There are letter and parcel scales and a National Zip Code Directory so that parcel postage and letter postage can be easily determined. The mailing center also will have bill and coin changers to give patrons the coins they need. A free direct telephone line to the information center at the Des Moines Post Office will be available in case additional information is required by a mailer.

Job Sewing Class Continues

A five-week training course for industrial sewing machine operators is continuing at 2911 East Grand Avenue under the state and federal NEBIT program for new and expanding business and industry training and conducted by Des Moines Area Community College.

The course was organized in July to serve the needs of seven Des Moines manufacturers who are experiencing a shortage of help due to the lack of trained women to perform a variety of sewing skills. Trainees can be accepted at any time.

Working with the program, which was established through the efforts of the Industrial Bureau of the Greater Des Moines Chamber of Commerce are: Airline Textile Manufacturing Company, Ten-X Manufacturing Company, Lindfelt Glove Division, Victor Golf Company, Precision Sewing Company, Dixon Industries and Iowa Fibre Products, Inc.

These firms are furnishing equipment and materials for the course and will interview those who successfully complete the program at the end of the training period.

Take 'Julia' to Lunch

"Julia," that popular night-time television show starring Diahann Carroll, is now appearing in full color not only on a major network but also on a new school lunch kit from Thermos. Our favorite nurse and her puckish son, Corey, decorate the flat metal kit and the matching 8-ounce Thermos vacuum bottle packed inside.

Thermos vacuum bottles are the only ones made with an open-handled cup that is easy for children to use. This year, Thermos has added a new feature to their half-pint vacuum bottles which solves the problem of the cup's sticking. A cam lock device on the bottle's cup and shoulder prevents the cup from "seizing" on the bottle.

The suggested retail price for the Julia lunch kit, complete with a Thermos vacuum bottle, is about $3.50.

should contain a supermarket, drugstore, barber and beauty shops, a cleaning shop and possibly some clothing and soft-goods stores.

Bucksbaum said national retail chains have expressed interest in moving into such centers, using black managers.

SBA Help

Mrs. Willie Stevenson Glanton, an attorney with the Small Business Administration (SBA), said the agency was especially interested in providing business opportunities for members of minority groups, and in making sure the operations being assisted by the SBA would be successful.

Opportunity

"This would give black people an opportunity to own a significant part of a shopping center," she said. "I feel that this is an opportunity which should not be missed, and I feel the city should work with us on it."

She said SBA could provide up to $350,000 in financing each of the businesses within the center, and could also guarantee loans from conventional lending institutions.

Freedom to be yourself

Man's freedom to be himself is a God-given right. But no one can truly be himself as long as he believes he is the product of heredity, age, environment or psychological factors, says an experienced Christian Science practitioner and lecturer. Man's true identity, asserts Jane O. Robbins, C.S., is found through the recognition of himself as the likeness of God. You and your friends are invited to hear "Freedom to be Yourself" by Miss Robbins, a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship. Everyone is invited, admission is free.

Presbyterians Ask Pledge for Black Members

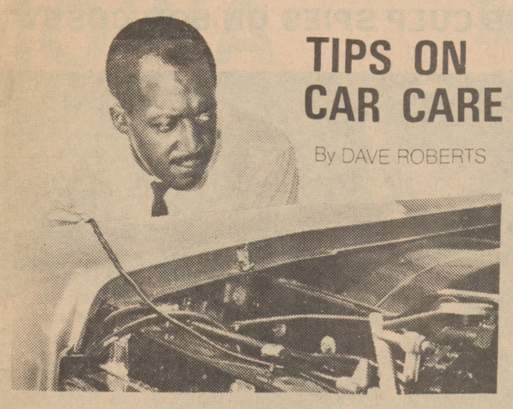
ATLANTA GA. -- A proposal asking each member of the Presbyterian Church to pledge a minimum of $6 a year for three years to finance the needs of black Presbyterians has been referred to the denomination's General Council executive committee.

The proposals came from the Black Presbyterian Leadership Council of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. At a meeting of the General Council earlier this week a position paper was adopted calling white racism the denomination's central problem.

Georgia NAACP Urges Integrated Textbooks

ATLANTA, Ga. -- In testimony before the History of the American Negro Study Committee of the Georgia House of Representatives, W.W. Law, president of the Savannah NAACP Branch, said that "neither his (the Negro's) face nor his contribution has found a place in our history texts." He said that there is an urgent need "for exposing Georgia youth, black and white, to an integrated history."

The House History Committee, Law said, "should reject the notion that Negro history should be taught only to Negroes. While Negroes need to know their own heritage, judging from bitter experience as a Georgian, I dare say that whites need it even more."



TIPS ON CAR CARE

By DAVE ROBERTS

Pump Mileage into Your Tires

One of his tires was smooth as a baby's face. Two others had only a trace of tread left. All of them were underinflated, and the wear pattern showed they had been run that way a long time.

He said he had not looked at them for months. It took a flat to make him look now.

This is the story of most people who have tire trouble today. Statistics show that few tires fail unless they have been abused, mistreated or neglected.

Without spending a dime, the average driver can keep his tires safer longer and can get more miles from them. The free air available at any service station is all he needs. Proper inflation is a must for tire safety and long tire life.

Most drivers think the air pressure will stay put unless the tire is punctured or has a leaky valve. They believe once air is in the tire they don't have to worry about it again unless the tire is damaged.

This is not true. Even the best of rubber allows a small amount of air to seep through. This air loss is small, but it is constant, so in time the pressure drops.

B.F.Goodrich tire experts say tire air pressure should be checked at least once every month.

The air pressure you should use depends on the load you carry. Your automobile owner's manual has a chart that gives the recommended pressure for different loads. Another chart of recommended pressures is printed in the glove compartment of most cars.

The heavier the load, the higher the pressure should be. If your car manufacturer recommends 26 pounds for average loads, be sure to raise it before driving any great distance with an extra heavy load.

But never inflate to more than 32 pounds with load-range-B or 4-ply-rated tires, or more than 36 pounds with load-range-C or 6-ply-rated tires. The load range is printed on the sidewall of the tires.

Here are some tips that will help you keep your tires inflated properly for better wear and service: 1) Always check pressure when tires are cool, after car has been parked at least three hours. 2) Do not reduce pressure when tires are hot. It is normal for pressure to increase up to six pounds when the tires are run. 3) For superhighway driving over long periods, increase pressures four pounds over recommended pressures before you start, but do not exceed the pressure limits mentioned above.

ORIGINAL NOTICE

In the District Court of the State of Iowa in and for Polk County

Equity No. 74021

THE PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA

Plaintiff,
vs.
JERRY N. GIBBS
WILMA J. GIBBS

TO THE ABOVE-NAMED DEFENDANTS:

You are hereby notified that the Petition of the Plaintiff in the above-entitled action is now on file in the Office of the Clerk of the District Court of Iowa in and for Polk County, claiming personal judgment against Jerry N. Gibbs and Wilma J. Gibbs and judgment in rem against the property hereinafter described in the sum of $15,098.15 with interest at a rate of 5¼% from and after May 1, 1969 on the promissory note of Jerry N. Gibbs and Wilma J. Gibbs, executed and delivered to the Plaintiff, who is the absolute owner thereof, and said note and mortgage given to secure said note are due and payable by reason of the failure of the Defendants to pay the installments of principal and interest when due. The Petition further asks for foreclosure of the said mortgage of even date and the note of May 15, 1963 on the following described real estate to-wit:

Lot 14 in Green Ridge Knolls, Plat 2, an Official Plat, now included in and forming a part of the City of Des Moines, Iowa; and also asking that said mortgage be declared a prior and paramount lien to that of each and all Defendants and further praying for the appointment of a receiver, and for the amount paid by the Plaintiff for legal attorney fees, abstract expenses, and all accruing costs of action and for such other relief as may be just and equitable in the premises.

You are further notified that the mortgage herein provides that in the event of foreclosure and sale of the property by Sheriff's sale, the time of one year redemption shall be reduced to six months provided that the mortgagee waives any right to take a deficiency judgment. Plaintiff reserves the right to waive all rights to a deficiency judgment prior to Sheriff's sale.

The foreclosure petition of the Plaintiff prays for a writ of possession in the event that any part of the mortgaged premises be sold under foreclosure decree and not redeemed from Sheriff's sale as by law provided without any other additional proceedings.

You are further notified to appear before said Court, at Des Moines, in Polk County, Iowa, on or before January 10, 1970 and that unless you do so appear your default will be entered and judgment or decree rendered against you for the relief demanded in the Petition.

THE EXCITING NEWS OF A BLACK SHOPPING CENTER being planned in the Oakridge Area and sponsored by the United Black Federation is too good to be true! Judge Luther T. Glanton, Chairman of the Board of the UBF stated that the success of this venture will depend upon the involvement and commitment of each black person in the community. He further stated that the Membership Committee will soon announce the kick-off for the Membership Drive.

THE BLOCK, THE BLACK AREA ON UNIVERSITY AVENUE so described, provides many exciting and prideful moments! Stopping by Williams Pharmacy one evening this week, I encountered several of our business men. Each one, a self-made individual who has made his mark and is so recognized for his successes. A thumbnail description for now!

THERE WAS HENRY HAMMITT, whose partnership with George W. Robinson, Jr. has been long-standing and always a growing thing! Their funeral establishment, Hammitt-Robinson Funeral Home, now houses in anewly erected edifice, is located at 14th and University Avenue. Hammitt, a formidable personality, is also involved in anew fully equipped car wash located only one building west of the funeral home. He has also invested in real estate and operates a hauling business. He and his wife, the former Dorothy Carson, reside in one of the city's most beautiful homes in the Waukonda area.

ANOTHER OF THIS GROUP ENCOUNTERED on the evening I am describing was Louis Fulton, who for many years has operated a hauling business--short and long distance moving; in the main, I believe, for business houses. This activity has carried with it short term business ventures. "Louis", you see, usually noncommital, is very resourceful. The line "Behind each successful man is a woman" in this case refers to "Vera", Mrs. Louis Fulton.

ON THE SCENE ONLY MOMENTARILY WAS MELVIN HARPER. Remember The Jazz Set, a very, very popular, only one of its kind, out on SE 14th Street and operated by Mel and Marguerite? You do remember and shall never forget! Melvin still moves about in the forefront of what is happening business-wise. Real estate is only one of his interests. Anything under the caption of "capitalism" can be negotiated with "Mel". And Marguerite? As always in the business world. She's never in the background!

THE BUSY SETTING OF WILLIAMS' PHARMACY, with Marion busily preparing prescriptions, was the backdrop of the scene which I have described. At one time or another people from the total area of Des Moines can be noted at Williams' Pharmacy. Marion expresses an interest in all who come, carries on a light banter--mischievious, mirthful!

For my part, I may come for a pill but upon leaving I'm sparring for the last verbal thrust as well as my packet of pills! Always surrounded by a mixed staff, Marion's current management boasts a bevy of beauties in addition to clever, young men. The female members are Cecilia Thompson, a Drake University junior and psychology major, is secretary-bookkeeper and Girl Friday; Paula Baker, a North High senior is a soda clerk; and Pat Triplett, a government employee by day is a Pharmacy office worker by night --each a real honey! Mr. Williams' source of inspiration is "Corliss", Mrs. Marion Williams, the new Girls' Advisor at Amos Hiatt.

MARY BRUBAKER, KRNT TELEVISION PERSONALITY, is undoubtedly one of the greatest influences in the lives of this community's women TV viewers. Oh, you don't think so! Well, how many girls' wall-to-wall carpeting was laid this year? Yes, after Mary's appearance in a lovely, long formal as she described the merits of a particular carpeting! ?? About two weeks ago Mary modeled a blue and white party dress. A close friend rushed down to Taylor's, selected this dress, long silver gloves, and matching silver bag and shoes in preparation for the holidays! A pace-setter, that's what Mary is!

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Why does some hair break off when combing?

Your hair is precious and delicate...and none of us like to see it break off for any reason. Scientists tell us that excessive use of hot combs and over-processing of hair with chemicals often are major causes of brittleness resulting in hair breakage. But hair that is naturally curly and tangles easily frequently breaks off in everyday combing. Notice how irritated your scalp becomes when you comb in contrast to the way your beautician does?

Your professional beautician knows that curly hair mats and tangles so easily that it should be softened before combing. Otherwise, unnecessary irritation to the scalp and damage to the shaft and ends of the hair occurs. To achieve this needed softening and a temporary relaxing effect that prevents breakage on all human hair (including wigs), most beauticians rely on Clairol® Hair-So-New® spray-on creme rinse. For combing ease and for beautifying your hair in many other ways, trained beauticians stock a complete family of fine Clairol products for your specific needs.

Visit your expert hairdresser, who cares about your hair care and your comfort. Whatever the nature of your hair problems, only your professional beautician knows the answer for sure.

The Bonnie Herndons Return from Trip In West Africa; Couple Impressed by Natives

Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Herndon, of 723 28th street, returned home Nov. 20 from a three weeks visit in Africa.

They visited Mrs. Herndon's cousin, Mr. William Cotton, formerly of Bardstown, Ky., who for the last 16 years has been living in Monrovia, Liberia, West Africa. During that time Mr. Cotton became a naturalized citizen of Liberia. He accepted a position there, following his graduation from Hampton Institute, operating a taylor shop and cleaning plant for Mr. Charles Dunbar Sherman. Mr. Cotton is vice president of West African Investment and Finance Corporation, of which Mr. Sherman is president.

People Friendly

Mr. and Mrs. Herndon found the people very warm and friendly, doing everything possible to make their visit interesting and entertaining, including dinners, luncheons, parties and sightseeing tours.

Schools

In Monrovia the parents and children are intensely interested in education; they are short on schools, but are building more. Their schools now in operation are being used on double shift to educate as many as possible.

Rich in Resources

Liberia is a country very rich in natural resources, iron, gold, diamonds. They also cultivate great farms of rubber, rice, nut palm, plaaintain (similar to bananas), cocoa and coffee. Pineapple and citrus fruit also are grown.

4 Days in Ghana

The Herndons spent four days in Ghana at the Ambassador hotel in Accra, capital of Ghana. When they were ready to leave Monrovia for Ghana, Mr. Cotton gave them a letter of introduction to his friend Mr. Ricks, of the Liberian Council in Ghana.

School Tour

Mr. Ricks was very helpful; his vice counsel, Mr. Cranshaw, secured a private car for them and directed the driver to take them to the points of interest. They visited the boarding school and College of Achumota where the headmaster conducted them on a tour.

The Herndons also visited the University of Ghana and the Port City of Tema, a thriving city, a by-product of the largest manmade port in Africa, suitable for heavy ocean-going ships. Tema is connected to Accra by about 40 miles of practically perfect four-lane highways.

Impressed by Negroes

The Herndons found Ghana business generally much farther advanced than Liberia. They were particularly impressed by the number of American Negroes living in Liberia. Many of them wondered why more tourists do not come to Africa, a land of great wealth and opportunity, instead of going to Europe and other countries. They also noted that property can only be bought by the darker races there.

Three Airforce Brothers Spend Thanksgiving With Parents, Relatives in Sedalia, Mo.

Three Iowa brothers, with a total of 28 years in the Air Force, made a pre-Thanksgiving visit to see their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Curd of rural Sedalia, Missouri. They are Tech. Sgt. Charles Curd, Sgt. Herbert Curd of Des Moines and Allan Curd of Cedar Rapids.

Enroute to Texas

Tech Sgt. Curd - 17 years of service - accompanied by his wife and family is home on leave between a tour of duty in Formosa and enroute to Bergstrom AFB, Texas. He is married to the former Miss Jocelyn Humphrey of Des Moines.

Sgt. Curd - 7 years of service - is home on leave between a tour of duty at Lackland AFB, Texas and enroute to Viet Nam. He formerly was married to Miss Toni Burrell of Des Moines.

Discharged

Allan Curd recently received his discharge after completing a four year tour of duty with the Air Force. Presently he is employed by Firestone stores of Cedar Rapids. All three are graduates of C. C. Hubbard High School of Sedalia.

Other Relatives

Also visiting their parents were 3 sisters and another brother who resides in Iowa. They are Mrs. Henry (Minnie) Jackson, Mrs. Wm. (Mary) Jackson, and Jerry Curd of Cedar Rapids and Mrs. George (Leona) Lester of Des Moines. A sister and two brothers are residents of the Sedalia area.

A highlight of the visit to Missouri was a family reunion at which some 45 persons were in attendance. This included the complete family of Mr. and Mrs. Curd except the eldest son who lives in Ontario, Calif. and was unable to attend.

Brightest Christmas Party Is Mobile

THE march of the "light brigade" can brighten your holidays and lighten the decorating load of your neighbors. If exterior decorations characterize your neighborhood during the Christmas season, you might organize an early-December party for stringing exterior lights at each guest's house—then celebrate the completion of the task at yours.

On a regular party cart, prepare a "Christmas caisson" filled with holiday goodies and beverages. Decorate shallow cardboard boxes in Christmas colors and secure boxes to each cart shelf. This will prevent foodstuffs and drinks from tipping over—for this caisson will go rolling along a more ambitious path than the usual party cart.

Fill another cart or wheel barrow with decoration supplies: extra light bulbs, U-nails, strands of wire, electrician's tape, pliers, two hammers, and other tool chest items to satisfy all contingencies. And there's no reason why the utility cart can't show its Christmas colors, too.

At each house scheduled for the "light brigade," wives can help test bulbs and run supplies to the troops on the roof, while the hostess does curbside "K.P."

John F. Kennedy Club to Meet Mon.

The John F. Kennedy Democratic club will meet on Monday, Dec. 8 at 7:30 p.m. at Willkie House, 900 17th street. Glenn Buhr, president of the Polk County Democratic conference, will be guest speaker.

John Spencers Spend Late Summer Vacation In Orient, Seeing Japanese Temples, Gardens

Mr. and Mrs. John Spencer of 1152 17th Street, spent the late summer in the Orient, via San Francisco and Seattle arriving in Tokyo 13 hours later.

Home base in Tokyo was the Hotel New Otani, one of the worlds largest hotels. They visited the Imperial Place, Kodakan Judo Hall and many-many gardens and temples.

We were introduced to Japanese culture through a private Geisha Party at a Japanese Tea-House. Side trips were taken to Hakone, Kamakura and Mt. Fuji, and Nikko by the "Bullet Train."

The Spencers celebrated their wedding anniversary in Tokyo and Mrs. Spencer chose a blue-cultured Japanese pearl ring for a gift.

To Taipei

Saying Sayonara to Japan they flew to Taipei, visiting the Confucius Shrine, Presidential Square and Lung Shan Temple. They drove to the Chung Shan National Palace Museum where they enjoyed the exhibition of the Chinese ancient art treasures and saw Jades in all colors and designs. They stayed at the Mandarin Hotel in Taipei, which boast of the largest lobby in the world.

To Hong Kong

The next flight stop was to the crown Colony of Hong Kong, staying at the Hong Kong Hilton. We all fell in love with this "pearl of the Orient." The tour began with a section of Hong Kong that Suzie Wong made famous, Tiger Balm Gardens, a fantastic display of statues illustrating legends from China's history and religion and a breath-taking view of the island on the Peak Tram.

Romantic Evening

The most romantic evening was spent on a private Junk Sunset Harbor Cocktail Cruise with Dinner at Aberdeen, where one boarded a Floating Restaurant for a unique Chinese dinner that is world famous. On one tour they went up to the Bamboo Curtain where one can see the Red Guards.

Next stop was to Honolulu, with accomodations at the Royal Hawaiian on Waikiki Beach. A Luau was given at our hotel.

Next stop was back to San Francisco where we spent two days with Mrs. Spencers aunts and picked up their car. Enroute they visited Calico City, a city of the past brought back to life of the west for tourist, which is a must for children.

They stopped at Grand Canyon, the Painted desert, Petrified forest, Grand crater. In Diamond, Mo., we stopped at the George Washington Carver National Monument. Traveling on to Indianapolis, Ind., they visited with her mother, daughter-in-law and grandchildren, as well as, with Mrs. Gaynell Gray and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Gray and family.

The James Shells Return to Chicago

Mr. and Mrs. James Shell and nephew, Timothy, from Chicago, Ill., were Nov. 21 weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson of 1219 11th street. Mr. Shell is a cousin of Mr. Johnson and Mrs. Claude Davidson, 1208 Mondamin.

FIX-IT TIP

When painting small pieces such as tables and chairs, you might find your basement workbench is an invaluable aid. Place these pieces upside down on the bench and do the underneath surfaces first. Then turn them right side up and finish painting. A bench makes it easier to cover each piece evenly with paint and you'll be able to spot drips and missed areas quickly.

VIETNAM MASSACRES HURT AMERICAN PRESTIGE

War produces all kinds of surprises, some exceedingly unfortunate such as the My Lai massacre in Vietnam; smaller ones have been reported. Men, women and children are alleged to have been shot down and for what, it is not easy to find out.

To speculate on just what happened or what provoked the killings, if any, should not be done but left to the courts to decide. It is easy to go off half-cocked in these matters. Some do so deliberately to make political or popularity hay for themselves.

This country played a large part in the prosecution of war crime criminals after World War II. We have been a leader in the movement to assure humane treatment to war criminals and have frowned on those countries which have mistreated racial and religious groups within their borders simply because they had the power to do so.

America must tarnish its representation among nations. It cannot undo what has been done. But it can see that the parties charged if any, are brought to trial and proper reparations given to the victims and their families.

TOO MANY COOKS SPOIL THE MEAL

Today, we are swamped with numerous organizations formed "to help the poor". Many of these have merit. Many don't. But they have set about, in most instances, to do good.

True, poor people are poor for many reasons. Some have had no opportunity; some have, as a result of which, some fine Negroes have come out of the poor ranks and raised themselves up to high places.

Most of the organizations today are prone to believe that money alone can solve the poor man's predicament. And in view of the liberal use of funds in the poverty programs, the government seems committed to the idea.

Of course, all kinds of programs are going on designed to teach the poor how to get a better job; how to improve their education, etc. But in spite of all these new programs, the relief rolls have not decreased materially. The effect has been much of a holding action.

Thus, it is apparent that much needs to be done to teach people how to live; how to make good use of the money they get; how to live in better housing, how to keep up the appearance of the neighborhoods; how to get along with the neighbors; what it means to ba a responsible citizen.

All these attributes are needed to produce a well rounded family, a well rounded community. And unless given more attention these. anti-poverty programs will continue to be holding action.

SOME THINK EVERYTHING IS WRONG

It appears that about everything we have done in the past is under fire. None of the things that have made America great, in some people's eyes, are relevant. A total change is needed, they say.

The system used by Iowa to select Supreme Court justices and judges has not escaped criticism.

At one time, judges names appeared in the election ballot with executive office candidates following their nomination by country, district and state conventions. Some finally thought the system was too steeped in politics and should be scrapped.

Under the present system, committees select candidates (in keeping with the views of political organizations), the selections are forwarded to the governor who makes the appointment from this list. They run on their record thereafter.

The system is not perfect. In fact, somehow, too many mediocre men are nominated because many lawyers generally take judges for profit; some can do so for prestige and honor.

No matter what system is used will satisfy everybody. Certainly, none has been devised which eliminates politics entirely. But by and large, the Iowa judges have made reasonably good records and the system, while some improvements can be made, is working pretty well so far.

Ken Whitney Is Cage Starter at Northwest Missouri

MARYVILLE, MO. — Ken Whitney and Don Sears, former high school standouts at Roosevelt of Des Moines, will start for Northwest Missouri State's basketball team Monday night against Peru, Neb.

Whitney, a guard, is a transfer from Robert Morris Junior College. Sears, a 6-foot 4-inch forward was one of Northwest Missouri's top rebounders last season.

Whitney scored 19 points for top honors in Northwest's intrasquad game.

3 Football Stars Named by Look

New York, -- Three black defensive stars have been named to the Look Magazine All America football team.

The 23-man team, which includes a kicking specialist for the first time, was chosen by the Football Writers Association of America and announced today in the current issue of Look Magazine.

Ohio State's John Tatum, one of four juniors on the team, is versatile enough to play any position on either defense or offense, according to Buckeye coach Woody Hayes. His versatility prompted the Writers to list him as a deep back in the 4-4-3 defense they decided was most popular in colleges this year.

Mike "Cat" Ballou, a 230-pound linebacker, was UCLA's ironman. As a sophomore, he racked up 210 minutes of playing time; added 196 minutes last year and was the most durable of the Bruins' defenders again this season.

Jim Gunn, Southern California's comparatively small defensive end, is 6'1" and 210 pounds. He was selected by the Writers for his speed and mobility.

Ed Beechum Just Misses Perfect Game

Ed Beechum had the crowd on their feet at Air Lanes last Tuesday night, Nov. 23 in the 10th frame, of the Builders League.

He had had nine strikes in a row. All bowlers stopped to witness a possible perfect 300 game. His first ball in the 10th frame left the five pin so he spared out for a 275 game and a 648 series.

Charles Phillips is league president.

Award For '69

Atlanta, Ga. (Reuters) --A federal court judge Thursday ordered the U.S. Army to postpone the induction of a Negro college student who sought deferral on the grounds his draft board had no Negro members.

The case would set a constitutional precedent if Gee won on grounds Negroes are excluded from southern draft boards because of race. In the past, federal courts, including the U.S. Supreme Court, have rejected such arguments.

With Allen Ashby

The fellow was sounding off about Iowa's football season. He said he didn't think we would have nerve enough to repeat what he said when we wrote our column. Well, we couldn't repeat all of what he said because the editor doesn't approve of swearing. But we can repeat some of it. He disagreed with the story in a daily paper that the Hawks missed Sullivan's blocking and leadership. That might be true to an extent, but what was really missed was those fellows who "did not pass the squad vote". Among them were a couple of good offensive linemen, a good linebacker. Then there was Wallace, sub fullback. Our lecturer pointed out that Sullivan hadn't been exactly a ball of fire in his sophomore year. So he argued that Wallace who was supposed to be one of the better blockers on the team, might have developed into as good a back as Sullivan.

He had studied these black dissensions among the various teams, and the Iowa coach was the only coach who didn't handle the situation himself. That said my friend, was rank hypocracy. Then he had it from a reliable source that the supposed apology was given in a sort of a spirit, OK, if you want an apology, I'm sorry. The gang wouldn't buy that, according to the fellow. This was the gist of what my friend had to say, and he was surprised at the quality of the black freshmen gridders at the school. We thought that Gilliam had quite a lot to do with that. Then, it just could be that Nagel really doesn't have horns and a tail. Just doesn't know how to get along with young blacks. Maybe he has learned now.

Then there was the matter of bowl games. And ratings. Well, now here we have the unbeaten team of the year being upset by a team rated about eighth. Where should these teams rate? Southern Calif. was one place ahead of UCLA. So the Trojans beat the Uclans by two points in the last ninty seconds. Now how can the Uclans drop four places and the Trojans move up one. And suppose Notre Dame which hasn't been in the top five all year, beats the number one team New Year's day. How will they rate? You figure it out and let me know.

Basketball

And this is the week college basketball opens. People are already counting UCLA out of the national picture because Lew Alcindor is gone. Well, those guys won national championships before they ever heard of Alcindor. They had fast, quick-moving teams and literally ran the other teams off the floor. There is no reason to believe that they wont have another one of those teams.

But one would have to give South Carolina and Davidson a good chance. Both teams have one of the best players in college basketball. And both players are black. How did they get down there? You tell me. Drake isn't given a very high rating now.

My vociferious friend says that Maury John just happened to have about six fellows who could really play the game, and he smart enough to let them play their game. And they nearly gathered all the marbles for him. This year he will really have to build. Still, the Bulldogs might have a pretty good ball club. Iowa is tabbed as title contenders in the Big Ten race. They have an all veteran club and some pretty good help from junior colleges so they might make a run for it.

Iowa State is rated way down. But the Cyclones won a whole flock of overtime and one point victories. They just can't be expected to do that again this year. They need a big man in the middle, and they will be surprisingly tough.

Here at home we think the high school battle in Des Moines will be between North and Hoover. Now if there were no Hoover, who do you suppose would have all that basketball talent? But don't sell East short. The Lee Township fellows may get their short game going, and they could be rough. The best player in the city? Norths Bob Florence.
