Judge Carswell Loses Battle, 51-45 Met Scholarship to Waterloo Singer

Lyric Soprano Won Admiration in NY Audition

A woman from Waterloo, Ia., reached for the stars and came away with at least one of them for her very own.

She is Barbara Western, lyric soprano, whose performance in January won the unqualified admiration of judges and audience at the Iowa district auditions of the Metropolitan. The results? She has been offered a scholarship by the New York-based opera company.

Mrs. Western, 29, a vocal music teacher at McKinstry Junior High School in Waterloo, was asked to come to New York City by the management of the "Met" and was auditioned Mar. 30 by assistant manager John Gutman. The following day she got word of the scholarship offer.

The Scholarship
Based on what the "Met" has been doing right along with singers in whom they are interested, the scholarship will mean one of two things.

Mrs. Western will either be asked to enroll at the Katherine Turney Long School, a voice studio for aspiring singers supported by "Met" or she will be given funds to take private voice lessons.

Recognition
The fact that the famous opera company is interested in developing her voice is a form of recognition that can't but help Mrs. Western's future musical pursuits no matter what she decides to do.

She said she is talking it over with her husband and will reach a decision when all the facts are known.

Of the audition itself Mrs. Western said that "I was very excited and scared, but I guess I came through."

tion wagon occupied by eight members of the James Dampier family of this city and a semi-trailer truck on Interstate 94 near Menomone, Wis. on Mar. 29, left five people dead and three injured.

DON'T BECOME A "MISSING" BLACK AMERICAN!

THIS CENSUS IS IMPORTANT TO US. BLACK FAMILIES SHOULD MAKE AN EFFORT TO COMPLETE THE CENSUS FORMS AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AND SEE THAT OTHER FAMILIES DO THE SAME. THIS WILL HELP US TO KNOW HOW MANY BLACK PEOPLE WE HAVE IN THIS COUNTRY. THEN BLACK PEOPLE WILL KNOW THEIR STRENGTH. WE'RE TOLD THAT THE GOVERNMENT MISSED TWO MILLION BLACK PEOPLE IN THE 1960 CENSUS.

Brig. Gen. Daniel James Sworn in New Post

Washington, D.C.—Brigadier General Daniel (Chappie) James, U.S. Air Force, takes office as Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense (Public Affairs) as the oath is administered by Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird. Mrs. James and son, Claude look on. In a brief ceremony which preceded this, Gen. James was promoted to his present rank. Both ceremonies were witnessed by distinguished guests, including members of Congress, representatives of the national news media, Department of Defense officials and others.

In opening comments Laird said, The James family is truly a magnificent American family. Normally at a swearing-in ceremony such as this I refrain from making any extended remarks because this ceremony truly belongs to the persons that we're swearing in and the person that we're elevating as far as rank is concerned today, but I would like to make a few brief observations that are of great importance not only to the Department of Defense but to our nation.

"The brilliant record of service of Chappie James is known to many of you in this room. He has compiled this record with a professional expertise that will be of great help now as he assumes the new duties and new responsibilities which he will have here in the Department of Defense as Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense.

"Finally, because of my deep concern on this matter, I want to mention especially, that Chappie will be assigned additional duties and responsibilities here in the Department of Defense and these will be related to the plight of our prisoners of war. Some of these men were flying comrades of General James in Vietnam," he concluded.

Avalanche of Protests Marks Second Defeat For President Nixon

Washington, D.C. — In a vote that took the nation by surprise Wednesday, the U.S. Senate turned thumbs down on the nomination of Judge G. Harrold Carswell as the new U.S. Supreme Court justice by a resounding vote of 54 to 46.

The defeat, marked that the second time that President Nixon has seen his preference to fill the vacancy on the highest court of the land defeated. The final move by the U.S. Senate came only two days after a motion to return the nomination to the Judiciary Committee had been defeated by a vote of 52 to 44. The recommittal motion by Senator Birch Bayh (Dem., Ind.) was designed to kill the nomination of the 50-year-old Tallahassee, Fla. jurist.

Judge Carswell was the second southerner nominated by President Nixon for the Supreme Court vacancy created nearly a year ago by the resignation of Justice Abe Fortas.

Mr. Nixon's first choice, Judge Clement F. Haynsworth, Jr., of Greenville, S.C., was rejected by the Senate last November, by a 55 to 45 vote.

During the past months there has been an outpouring of protests from hundreds of members of the bar, and citizens in general as well as various civil rights leaders and workers.

G. Harrold Carswell

It had been speculated earlier that possibly Vice President Agnew would have to cast the deciding vote.

Alarmed by the growing support for recommittal, the Nixon administration swung into action last week, lining up several leading Republican moderates to speak out for the embattled judge.

President Nixon laid his personal prestige on the line declaring that rejection of his nominee would deprive him of his constitutional power to select justices of the Supreme Court.

Gazes at "Half Million Dollar Award"

Three insurance agents look on as Donald Burrell (left) points at his "Half Million Dollar" award he received for writings in 1969 which also qualified him for an expense royal trip to the company's annual convention this year being held in Miami Beach, Fla.

Burrell and Brown have consistently led the Des Moines district since 1968. Brown has made the company's quarter-million dollar two years in a row. Warren and Humphrey have been with the company less than a year. However, Warren raised his quarter-million dollar award after only six months. Humphrey has over $92,000 in writings even though he has only four months on the job.

Right on, Brothers!

TV, Film Industry Sign Agreements for Minority Jobs

The first agreement was also signed by the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees and four of its craft locals, the U. S. Government, the American Broadcasting Company, and the National Broadcasting Company, Inc. This agreement, primarily involving the Networks' live and tape television operations in Hollywood union areas establishes a program for the recruitment, referral and training of minorities in the fields of employment covered by Local 33, stage technicians; Local 659, cameramen; Local 685, soundmen and Local 776, film editors.

The second agreement was also signed by the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees and nine of its Hollywood locals, the U. S. Government, the Association of Motion Picture and Television Producers and its members.

These two agreements respecting the network television and motion picture industries mark the first time management and labor have joined to bring about industrywide programs of this kind.

Dinner With V. Pres. Agnew Monday

Vice-President Spiro Agnew's popularity as a Republican fund raiser is being demonstrated in Iowa. Fifty-dollar-a-plate tickets for the traditional "Lincoln Day Dinner" he will address on April 13 are running "ahead of normal," say party leaders.

Iowa Republicans also have noticed that people paid $500-a-plate to hear him in Texas, and $1,000-a-plate in Washington, D.C., McDonald added. "Getting to seem him for $50-a-plate is a good deal."

Iowa Republicans have dolled up the traditional dinner to be held at Veterans Memorial Auditorium here, by naming it "Dinner With The Vice President." Ticket purchasers and their guests will have their names inscribed in a commemorative volume to be presented to Mr. Agnew as a "memento of grassroots support out here in Iowa."

In addition to Mr. Agnew, Iowa Republicans will host their own array of state leadership — Gov. Robert Ray, U. S. Senator Jack Miller, their five-man majority among Iowa's seven congressmen.

Halt Strike After Demands Met

ANN ARBOR, MICH. — The Black Action Movement (BAM) at the University of Michigan voted overwhelmingly Apr. 1 to end its two-week-old classroom strike following a report by negotiators that the school's regents and administration had accepted almost all BAM demands.

Following a lengthy meeting with university President Robben W. Fleming, the regents expressed their agreement with BAM's central demand of a commitment to increasing — with financial aid funding — Michigan's black enrollment to 10 per cent by the 1973-74 school year.

The strike, which began after the regents agreed Mar. 19 to fund a black enrollment of only seven per cent by fall 1973 at times cut class attendance at the 35,000 student school by 50 per cent.

About three per cent of the school's current students are black.

Take Your Medicine

After a trip to New York City, my uncle reports that what the man in the street is thinking about these days is how to get across it in one piece.

There's no point in knowing all the answers if you can't get anyone to ask the questions.

Old postmen never die. They just lose their zip.

Inflation has one point in its favor. It's impossible for the kids to get sick on a five-cent candy bar.

There is some medical evidence that wrinkles are hereditary, and it may be that parents inherit them from their children.

And you get your drugs from Williams Pharmacy, 1103 University Avenue, Phone 243-1253 with complete satisfaction.

Shiloh Court No. 4, R.E.O.A., of Fort Madison, Burlington and Keokuk met Sunday, Apr. 5 at St. John's A.M.E. Church.

Following the meeting Mrs. Dessie Burt was honored for her many kindnesses to the members of Shiloh Court.

Mrs. Marjorie Lewis and Mrs. Mary J. Majors, past Royal Grand Matrons, making appropriate speeches.

Mrs. Burt was presented a money tree and at the top of the tree was inscribed "Dessie's Day."

Mrs. Burt was speechless and so appreciative and asking the members to wait until the next meeting and she would have written what she would like to say. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairle Parson and Mrs. A.V. Robbins of Quincy, Ill., pleasantly surprised Leon Bland on Sunday, Apr. 5. Mrs. Parson had prepared a lovely chicken dinner with all the trimmings for the family. Those present were Mr. Bland, Mrs. Mary J. Majors, Mr. and Mrs. B.H. Toomes including the Quincy guests.

Mr. Bland was downstairs and able to stay down until all guests had left and pronounced it a wonderful gathering.

At writing Mr. Bland is progressing wonderfully.

THE DES MOINES HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION Humanitarian Award Dinner held Monday night at Hotel Fort Des Moines will be an affair long cherished in the memories of the small family groups interspersed among the gathering.

THE J. B. MORRISSES YOUNGER GRANDSONS of Des Moines, William and Robert sat quietly with their uncle, Clyde Morris. What pride these young people must have felt seeing their grandfather so honored!

ROBERT A. WRIGHT, JR. AND HIS SISTER, CHARMAYNE WRIGHT, students from the State University of Iowa, seated side by side, rarely spoke, were deeply engrossed in the program. They were highly representative of their generation—both wear beautiful naturals! The two are great friends and it does seem to me that in the face of being on campus today have done themselves, their parents and their home community proud!

AND THEN THERE WAS THE LAWRENCE AND EVELYN DAVIS CLAN! (If they go into politics, better you join them. We could never beat them!) Let's check them off! Present were the four sons: Bobby, Larry, Eddie and Jimmy. Beverly (Bobby's wife) the Davis daughter, Donna Jean Moore, and their youngest daughter, 2 year old Sherry, and granddaughter, Evelyn! Then there's Evelyn's sisters, Berta Hicks, Clara Wade and Madelyn Kipper. Then as Evelyn said, "That was all!" A merry throng, they are also determined and ambitious.

IT'S SOOO UNUSUAL, as the song goes! But these are real life situations: Elementary School Teacher Bernice Wright is immeasurably pleased that her Co-ed Daughter, Bernice, is an AKA making mother and daughter sorors! And Atty. Robert A. Wright is equally pleased that SUI Senior Robert, Jr. is a Kappa making him and his father fraternity brothers!

Sesame Street: Tee Collins Is Animation-Designer for Program

Sesame Street continues to hustle the letters of the alphabet, thanks to such creative people as TEE COLLINS, animation-designer.

Tee, as he is known by friends, in and out of the industry, was instrumental in encouraging and developing the idea that the TV commercial technique would best serve Sesame Street's pitch for the letters of the alphabet.

"Wanda the Witch," his first production for Sesame, sells the letter "W". "Wanda" continues to receive raves and much viewing. Tee wrote this wicked story, developed the storyboard (graphics), and produced a 60-second winner. April 15-30, "Wanda the Witch" will be viewed as part of an International Exchange of Animated Films at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art. She will then travel with the show to San Francisco's Museum of Art and finally, the University of Berkeley.

"The Seal" is a groove. This clever commercial for the letter "S," uses Tee's

FOUND BERNICE AND CHARMAYNE aboard a plane for Wichita, Kansas, where the AKA's held their Fortieth Regional Convention. Bernice was a delegate from the Des Moines Beta Gamma Chapter and Charmayne a delegate from the newly chartered Epsilon Theta Chapter of Iowa City. Needless to say this event was a memorable one for both mother and daughter.

VISITED WITH JUANITA SLAUGHTER THIS WEEK. Come June she will graduate as an inhalation therapist! How very fine and especially so when we think of Juanita as a widow and mother of three! She wore a lovely white wool suit. Her hair was worn in a beautiful natural short hair style.

REVA HENRY'S RECENT PARTY establishes her as an excellent hostess, according to one young guest. Miss Henry is a member of Mercy Hospital's Inhalation Department staff.

A LOCAL ATTORNEY AND HIS WIFE, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wine were the additional guests of Nobel and Mrs. Lawrence Graves on the occasion of the Potentate Ball as were Howard Hart, Principal of Nash Elementary School, and his company, Miss Patsy Sullivan. And may we add that Mildred Graves is Grand Worthy Matron of Electa Grand Chapter Order of the Eastern Star over the District of Iowa.

REMEMBER CAESAR GREEN? Someone tells me that he was seen modeling his life belt!!! You see when the weather permits, Caesar and the Greens (Thomas and Helen) will be floating a 21 foot cabin cruiser. It has a two-burner stove, refrigerator, table, sink, and bath; sleeps 6; has a tape recorder, ship-to-shore communications, etc., etc.

EVER THINK ABOUT THIS FACT? Des Moines is the insurance capitol of the world? And ever think about what this means to you individually? (More later).

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Is peroxide needed to color unwanted gray hair?

Hair care and beauty experts know that the first traces of gray hair—and even slight fading of natural color after chemical relaxing—can dull a woman's appearance and make her look older than she feels. While most women hate these premature aging effects, many are hesitant about using permanent peroxide haircoloring which may change the natural hair color while coloring gray.

Professionally-trained hairdressers know the importance of their customers' preferences when unwanted gray becomes a problem. These experts also know that Clairol created semi-permanent Loving Care® hair color lotion without peroxide... to color only the gray without changing the natural shade. They also find Loving Care blends back color faded by chemical processing. Because of its mildness, Loving Care maintains healthy looking hair and lasts through a month of shampoos.

Whatever a woman's reason for wanting Loving Care for her hair, she is always wise to consult a professional beautician. Hairdressers are equipped with a family of fine Clairol products and the training to promise each patron the loveliest and most personalized haircoloring effects every time she visits her salon. If you dislike gray, and want no peroxide, why not ask your beautician to glamorize it with Loving Care?

A JIM CROW DRUG CENTER FINALLY

Des Moines has finally opened its Jim Crow Drug Cure Center at 1127 13th Street. Another center is at 1148 22nd Street. They are eight blocks apart. One is for the hard drug addicts and in the Negro neighborhood and one for the light drug users outside the Negro area; none is east of 13th street to the city limits.

As a matter of fact, one is for Negroes, because the sponsor concluded earlier they are the heroine users while white people are the light drug users and require a separate center.

After the matter began to take form the Des Moines Sunday Register carried a headline article concerning the excessive drug problem in Iowa City. In a telephone interview by the Bystander with Dr. Riddle, head of the drug clinic in Iowa City and the Municipal Court judge they stated that heroine use is growing faster among the upper middle class white people than any other group; that there was no more drug abuse among Negroes than whites.

It seems ridiculous and financially simple to have two drug centers, no more than that Mercy Hospital would treat one disease only, Iowa Methodist one, Iowa Lutheran another, Northwest another and Des Moines General another.

They say that both centers are open to all but we doubt if any white addicts will be showing up at 1127 13th street.

So that seemingly all this bosh about heroine in one center and marijuana in another (there are other harmful drugs that are dangerous) has no merit.

Certainly we are interested in helping those who have fallen victims to the drug habit. But we oppose setting up Jim Crow centers to do the job. We did not have it with alcoholic addicts, although some benevolent people wanted to set up one on Center Street when the center was first opened, neither do we need it to treat drug addicts.

EARLY BIDS FOR SUMMER JOBS

Now that the Easter Holidays are over and the students are back to school for the last half of the year, it is time for them and their parents to think of summer plans which include vacations, work and some in summer school.

In the past two years, business men in Des Moines have taken a forward step by providing funds to employ youngsters for the summer. It has provided them an opportunity to work, keep busy and earn some money. It has helped to teach some how to work so that they may apply that knowledge toward preparing themselves for higher paying jobs.

High school and College students should not wait for school to close to make bids for summer jobs. And while every youngster who wants to work can get a job, they become scarce as the summer comes on.

While children need recreation, some parents don't impress upon them that recreation is not enough, and that a portion of their time should be used in work and reading material which tend to help in becoming better students and learn about Negro history.

POST OFFICE SET UP NEEDS NO CHANGE

A movement is on foot to make the post office department a separate corporation like the Tennessee Valley authority which operates Muesel Schools, a generating and transmission power in Tennessee. This was a brainchild of President Franklin Roosevelt.

The post office has been a liberal place for Negroes to secure better employment for years. They hold some excellent positions in the present set up.

Naturally, Negroes will

Robert Oakley Pleads Innocent In Irving Case

Robert Jewell Oakley, one of two men charged with beating two Washington Irving Junior High school faculty members Mar. 5, has pleaded innocent in Polk County District Court to two charges of assault with intent to do great bodily injury.

Charged in connection with the school incident also are pending against George Woods, Jr., 23, of 1441 Buchanan street, who was one of four prisoners who escaped from the Polk County Jail Mar. 31. With Allen Ashby

Our column of the other week struck a responsive cord in one J.O. Howard. He said he would await our column on the old Ma-rooms football team which we promised to write. Now we have to do it. He also called to our memory one George Collins of Coe College. Collins played at Coe in the years just before or during World War I around 1916 or may 17. As we looked over some of the stories of his day, the fellow was often referred to as the great halfback. And in those days when you were black, and got called great, you were great. We never saw the guy, even though we did see some of the players of that era when we were kids. But Howard says he was the whole Shenadoah High school's football team for three years. Now that we are back in ancient history, there was a fullback who played for Des Moines College who was also referred to as great. His name was Maceo Richmond. And we understand he was just about all the Des Moines school had to offer in the way of an offense. Also he was one heluva linebacker. Maybe some of the fellows who saw these fellows play can tell us some more about them. Why do we go way back about these fellows when we have so many good players now? Well, lots of youngsters seem to think that these games weren't invented until they came along. Then we figure some people might get a little charge out of hearing about them. Who knows, some young fellow just might see this story, and suddenly think, "Well, I didn't know great grandpa was such an athlete." Then maybe he may go out and try to emulate or beat great granddad's marks.

If you really want to make a good guess as to a fellow's real age, no matter what he may tell you, just start recalling some of the old

Activities of the Iowa Civil Rights Commission

Ever wonder why the Iowa Civil Rights Commission has a weekly article in the Bystander? Well, one of the duties of the Commission, as defined in the Iowa Civil Rights Act, is to attempt the elimination of discrimination by EDUCATION. By including education in the Act, the legislature clearly indicated the importance it felt this vital area has in the elimination of discrimination. Specifically mentioned in the Act is the responsibility of the Commission to issue such publications and research reports as will tend to promote good will among the various racial and ethnic groups of the State and minimize or eliminate discrimination.

Therefore, the Commission has designed a program of education and research to fulfill these obligations. The Bystander article is part of the program. It attempts to inform the people of the State of what the Iowa Civil Rights Commission is doing and what it can do to help eliminate discrimination.

The Bystander, with its wide circulation and broad spectrum of readers, provides a medium by which to report progress and current happenings.

Another important forum for education and information is a monthly newsletter, "The Iowa Civil Rights Reporter." This newsletter, sent to persons and organizations interested in Civil Rights, provides a more detailed summary of Commission activities and other civil rights topics.

An annual report is prepared at the year's end to summarize accomplishments and define goals for the coming year. It is prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Civil Rights Act specifically for the Governor and the Legislature. This in depth analysis is distributed widely in the state, (churches, schools, libraries, city councils and other interested parties) being an important part of the education program.

The fourth annual report entitled "Discrimination in Iowa" is free upon request. Other publications which are part of the educational program of the Commission and which are free upon request are:

"Come Teach in Iowa" brochure (for recruiting black teachers)

Commission's general brochure (on structure, jurisdiction, procedures, programs)

"Model" municipal hu-

Officers en route to the school stopped three boys and two girls walking north on 31st street near MacVicar Freeway, questioned them about the vandalism and then released them, police said.

Monetary damage to the school was still being determined.

DO SOMETHING WORTHWHILE EVERY DAY

Do something worth while every day
Don't dream all your moments away;
First dare and then do--it will help you all thru
To do some worthwhile thing every day.

Do something worth while every day
If it is only smiling away;
Each wee little smile helps many a mile
So give us your smiles every day

Do something worth while every day--
'Tis only worth while things that pay;
For labor well done, sweet reward sure will come,
So get something done every day.

Do something worth while every day
Don't let one waste day slip away;
Each daily kind deed helps someone in need
So do kindly acts every day.

Do something worth while every day
'Till the end of life's brief little stay;
Then neighbors will say as they brush tears away,
"He did so much good every day."

Why? Because they care about their fellow man ... and are willing to do something about it. Each was recently honored for his contribution to human relations by the Des Moines Human Rights Commission.

We made the college of his choice the college of our choice.

What do you do when you've got everything it takes to be a good college student except money? Put your dreams in your pocket and settle for something else? That was the question facing Bobby Hicks.

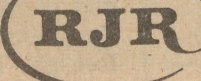

His case came to our attention and we looked into it. He had all the qualifications: good grades, desire, and ambition. So we supplied the one thing he lacked. Money. Through a grant to Winston-Salem State University from the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Bobby was able to hold onto his dreams and make them a reality.

The R. J. Reynolds grant provides scholarships each year to deserving students like Bobby. It also supplies funds to attract highly qualified faculty members to Winston-

Salem State University and broaden the school's curriculum.

This educational grant to aid the cause of Black students and teachers is only one example of our commitment to equal opportunities for all Americans. But it's one of which we're especially proud. Because we believe that, ultimately, education is the key to unlocking the shackles of poverty and bringing Black people into the picture of American prosperity.

People have helped R. J. Reynolds by buying Winston, Salem and Doral cigarettes, My-T-Fine Desserts, Chun King Oriental Foods, Vermont Maid Syrups, College Inn Chicken and Tomato Products, Davis Baking Powder and our many other fine products. We're just returning the favor.
