Asbury Park, N. J. — Police said they fired shotguns over a large Negro crowd to disperse it early Tuesday after some persons in the crowd threw rocks and bottles at officers and two fires of suspicious origin broke out in business places.

Sixteen persons were arrested and a policeman was wounded in the back by shotgun pellets. Officers said they thought the injury occurred when a youth dropped a shotgun as he fled.

In West Chester, Pa., more than 100 policemen used tear gas early Tuesday to quell a disturbance by about 100 black youths who demanded the arrest of a person they charged threw a rock at a girl.

In New Bedford, Mass., a score of persons were arrested late Monday night and early Tuesday as sporadic incidents of rock throwing developed in the city's racially mixed south end.

In Bridgeport, Conn., police used dogs and mace Monday night to disperse a crowd of about 400 persons who gathered after the arrest of a tenant at a mostly black housing project.

Air Force Moves To Halt Bias at Goose Bay Base

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Several changes in policy and practice at the Goose Bay Air Base in Labrador were affirmed by the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Public Affairs following a conference that NAACP General Counsel Nathaniel R. Jones and NAACP Attorneys Frank Pohlhaus and Robert Reinsteins had with James P. Goode, Assistant Secretary of the Air Force.

Responding to demands made by the NAACP spokesmen on behalf of black servicemen at the base, the Air Force appointed a new base commander replacing Col. Benton Fielder, Jr., whom Negro airmen accused of bias; named a new chairman of the Goose Bay Human Relations Council; overhauled the personnel management and services system; and ordered the stocking of certain items requested by black personnel at the base. In addition, the new base commander has been instructed to keep discipline consistent and fair.

Promotions
Mr. Jones and his associates had placed before Assistant Secretary Goode complaints of the airmen covering these and other discriminatory practices at Goose Bay. Particularly, Mr. Jones said, "we condemned one aspect of the promotional procedure which we characterized as 'subjective evaluation.' This permits biased superior officers to inject their personal prejudices and dislikes in the promotional process, thereby denying upgrading to Negro servicemen. We suggested that a monitoring system be introduced to ensure opportunities to advance to airmen relegated to the lowest ranks because of racial bias."

Entertainment
The Air Force indicated that it was taking steps to improve entertainment for lower ranking airmen and to develop a process of random assignment of airmen to quarters.

The NAACP lawyers met with Assistant Secretary Goode on July 15. Results of that conference were made known, July 22, to the Associated Press, in response to an AP inquiry.

NAACP State Board Meeting
The executive board meeting of the State Conference was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Harry D. Harper, of Ft. Madison, Saturday, July 25, 1970.

Tom Kelly, president of the State Conference, reported on the National convention held in Cincinnati. He felt that the organization had made some move toward a more aggressive position. The youth group, he said, had much to do in shaping this course.

Present at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Toomes of Keokuk, Mr. and Mrs. White of Burlington, the Harpers and the Johnsons of Ft. Madison, Tom Kelly of Davenport, and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Hogan, Maude White and Marjorie Smith of Des Moines, Iowa.

Dept. of Justice To Probe Police Actions
DARLINGTON, S. C. — The Department of Justice has been called upon by 225 Negro citizens of Darlington County "for relief from unnecessary and unwarranted brutal force . . . by law enforcement officers."

The petition, addressed to Jervis Leonard, Assistant Attorney General for Civil Rights, charges that it is "not safe for black people to walk the streets after dark in this town. The white police patrol the black neighborhoods by the carfull nightly as if to antagonize the blacks."

MILWAUKEE, WIS. — A police program to build understanding between police and residents of a Chicago public housing project was called a "dismal failure," by Renault Robinson head of the Chicago Afro-American Patrolmen's League. Robinson's comments came as a benediction after two white cops were shot and killed near the Cabrini-Green project on Chicago's near north-side last Friday night.

NEW YORK, N. Y. — Nathan I. Huggins, a black man, and an authority on the history of American attitudes toward the poor, has been appointed a full professor of history at Columbia University.

CLEVELAND, OHIO — A Mayor General B. O. Davis Jr. who, after leaving the Military Service, became Public Safety Director of Cleveland, has resigned over likes of Law enforcement policies and differences with Mayor Stokes.

Ottumwa, Ia. — Christopher Robinson, 6-year-old son of Mrs. Judy Robinson of 629 Grant Street drowned Monday evening while taking an unauthorized dip in a private swimming pool at 713 N. Ash.

The pool is in the yard of Miss Ruby Holton who was not home at the time. Miss Holton is director of nursing at Iowa Tech.

A. L. Lushbaugh of 717 N. Ash said two small boys came to his back door shortly before 7 p.m. and asked if it was his pool. He said he told them no. They then asked Lushbaugh if they could cut through his garden.

Lushbaugh told police he watched the boys go to the Holton house and knocked on the door and when no one answered they left. Lushbaugh said a few minutes later his dog started barking and when he went to the back door he heard splashing in the pool.

After going to the gate near the pool he saw bubbles coming up from the water. Due to the locked gate he had to go to his house to get a key. He went into the water but could not reach the boy. He asked that the Fire Department be called.

of 619 Norris, told officers he and Christopher climbed over the gate when they found it locked.

Police said the pool is enclosed by a six-foot fence. The Nichols boy said he entered the water at the shallow end while the other boy went into the deep water. The youngster said he ran when Lushbaugh came through the gate.

The Fire Department rescue unit answered the call at 7:08 p.m. but the Robinson boy failed to respond to oxygen or the resuscitator.

Christopher, Todd Robinson was born June 19, 1964. Survivors include his mother and his grandparents.

Funeral services were held Thursday, July 23 at 1:30 P.M. at Jay Funeral Home with the Rev. Marshall Smith, Jr., pastor of the A.M.E. Church, officiating. Burial was in Ottumwa Cemetery.

Ia Students To Stress Graduation

IOWA CITY — "Graduation is the theme of this program."

So says Phillip E. Jones, director of The University of Iowa's Student Support Services, which supervises the Educational Opportunities Program (EOP) and Afro-American Cultural Center.

EOP is the office charged with enrolling and counseling young people from minority groups and low-income backgrounds who might not otherwise be trying higher education.

When the fall semester begins in September, Jones expects to see some 120 students returning from the first two years of EOP, which opened in the summer of 1968. Jones says this represents a retention rate of 82 per cent, which is considered respectable on a national scale, though it does not satisfy him.

No Standards Needed

Since the goal of college, enrollment is graduation, not just retention, the program cannot relax until its students achieve that, he said. Its aim is to graduate students whose potential will help them become effective forces for economic, political and social change within their communities, he said.

Graduation requirements are the same for EOP students as for the others enrolled at the U of I, Jones stressed. In addition, EOP students are all admissible according to the standards published annually in the University catalog, he said.

100 New Student

More than 100 students new to EOP will join the program in the fall, bringing the program's enrollment to about 225. Jones said 50 will be freshmen, 15 will be undergraduate transfer students, 15 to 20 will be graduate students and 21 will be professional students (15 law, 4 medical and 2 dental).

Half of all EOP students will be Iowans, and half from out of state; two-thirds will be Afro-Americans, and the others will be Mexican-American, Indian and white.

NAACP Launched Drive for Members

NEW YORK — In the wake of its widely acclaimed 61st annual convention in Cincinnati earlier this month, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has launched a stepped-up nationwide membership campaign in the hope of exceeding its 1969 total of 461,957 despite a 100 per cent increase in the minimum annual membership fee from $2.00 to $4.00.

In a memorandum to local units throughout the nation, Gloster B. Current, director of branches and field administration, and Miss Lucille Black, secretary for membership, called for an intensive drive to enable the Association "to end 1970 with the largest membership in the history of the organization." The local units were urged to "reorganize your membership campaign and go out for new and old memberships."

Black Cosmetics $1-Million Plant

ATLANTA — The ability of black businessmen to succeed in the national marketplace has been demonstrated anew by the Cannolene Company, manufacturer of cosmetics, with the opening of a new $1-million plant here that incorporates the most modern production technologies.

Although the Cannolene Company is 46 years old, its current substantial growth began only three years ago when it expanded into the national market, explains Robert O. Cannon, president, who is the son of the founder, W. S. Cannon.

Sales topped $1 million in 1969 and company officials are projecting annual sales of $6 million to $8 million in the near future.

Ask Probe of Police Abuse Reign of Terror In La.

Homer, La. — Black people plan to ask the U. S. courts to help stop a reign of terror against them here and in nearby cities. They have about exhausted possible remedies in the state courts. Twenty-seven of them have been jailed this month and 14 are still in jail under bonds ranging up to $40,000. Charges are aggravated assault on property and in some cases, battery.

The victims have been placed in jails in Homer, Arcadia, Minden, Farmer-ville, Bolger City and Rustin. Metal sheets have been placed over the doors and windows of the Homer jail, so that very little air enters. The building is so old that it was condemned some time ago.

Buildings
Last month a group of whites from Minden attacked some black people, shooting David Mozeke so badly he lost the use of a leg. Police accused Walker Harris, a black youth, of stealing a gun from the car from which the shot was fired. Soon after this incident, the white country club and several old and unoccupied buildings in Homer burned down. Authorities claim these buildings were set afire by blacks in retaliation for the shooting of Mozeke and other incidents. Police began invading black homes and arresting people wholesale.

Like War
"It's been almost like war since March 25," said Paul Kidd, white attorney from Monroe, who is defending those arrested. "Black veterans back from Vietnam say they are not going to take any more of this."

Black Panther Leader Killed In Houston, Tex.

HOUSTON, TEX.— Carl Hampton, 21, said to be chairman of the Black Panther Party, was killed by two police officers as they shot at alleged snipers from atop of a Baptist Church. Two other Negroes and a white man were wounded.

Another person, a bystander, was hit by a militant's bullet, authorities charged later.

Police said that in all about 100 shots were fired and that the exchange of gunfire ended quickly.

Blacks Roam Streets
They said that after the shooting, about 30 armed blacks walked the streets in the area brandishing shotguns and rifles and warning police to stay away.

Before order was restored, police said, a battery of helmeted officers charged a crowd of 150 to 200 blacks, striking them with rifle butts and making about 75 arrests.

No policemen were reported injured.

Impromptu Rally
The rally in Houston, Texas, was an impromptu affair to protest the arrest of two Negro youths earlier in the day.

After the trouble was put down, police raided the three-story brick building housing headquarters of People's Party II and confiscated what they called a large quantity of rifles, shotguns, pistols and ammunition. Officers did not immediately give a count of the weapons.

Two officers encountered Herbert Joseph Gerac, 19, armed with a pistol, and a 15-year-old carrying a shotgun in the middle of the street in front of People's Party II headquarters about 6 P.M. Sunday. People's Party Last Wednesday, black militant Ovid Duncantell told the City Council that People's Party II had "secured" an area around its headquarters about 6 P.M. Sunday.

Racial disturbances occurred in a number of cities during the past few days in which several people were wounded.

Foundation Presents Adm. Scholarship

Princeton, N. J., July 22, 1970 — Responding to the critical shortage of professional administrators at black and other "developing" colleges, the Woodrow Wilson Administrative Internship Program will double its number of participants in 1970-71. Director of the program, Wyndham Anderson, announced this week that grants from six foundations and corporations will make it possible to send 15 men who have received degrees from leading graduate schools of business and public administration to work at 13 small colleges, three of them predominantly white.

The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation initiated the Administrative Internship Program in 1967 with a grant from the Esso Education Foundation. This year additional grants have come from Jessie Smith Noyes Foundation, Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation, Burlington Industries Foundation, International Business Machines Corporation, International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation and Prudential Insurance Company.

Social Security

Health, Education Welfare

The IOWA BYSTANDER has made arrangements with the Des Moines office of the Social Security Administration to answer questions for our readers about social security and medicare. Send your questions to Field Representative, Room 293 Federal Building, 210 Walnut Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50309.

QUESTION: I will be 65 next year and have always worked under social security. Will I get hospital and medical insurance under Medicare or will I have to buy private health insurance?

ANSWER: First, you will have the hospital insurance part of Medicare upon application at 65. This is protection you have already paid for. It helps pay for inpatient care in a participating hospital and for post-hospital care in an approved "extended care facility" or in your home, if the doctor decided you need skilled health care after you leave the hospital. Second, you'll also be able to sign up, if you wish, for Medicare medical insurance, which helps pay doctor bills and other medical costs. You may not be able to buy private health insurance that equals the coverage of Medicare. Many companies have

"after 65" clauses in their policies, which mean they pay only the expenses that Medicare does not cover. These may cover deductibles and other Medicare payments you're responsible for. If you now have health insurance, your agent can tell you what your policy will cover after 65.

QUESTION: How is Medicare financed?

ANSWER: Separate trust funds have been set up, one to finance the hospital insurance part of the Medicare program and the other to finance the medical insurance part. Contributions to the hospital insurance fund are made during a worker's career and are deducted from his paycheck at the same time and in the same way as the deductions for general social security benefits. His employer pays an equal amount. The trust fund for medical insurance is maintained through monthly premium payments, with half the cost of the insurance coming from the people who sign up for it and the other half paid by the Federal Government.

QUESTION: I'm Lions Club program chairman for the month and would like to arrange for a program on social security. How would I arrange it?

ANSWER: Your local social security office will be glad to arrange for a speaker to talk to your club. They can furnish a film if you like and will be glad to answer questions from your members after the talk

What electric appliance in your kitchen is used more than your frypan? Probably none. It's the portable fifth burner for today's busy homemaker.

Here are a couple of ideas to prolong the life of this versatile tool:

1. Clean it thoroughly every time you use it, including the underside, to prevent build-up of burned-on-fat.
2. Remember to disconnect and clean the heat control unit with a damp cloth.
3. Never immerse a hot frypan in water. Cool it to room temperature first. Why? To prevent warping. Warped pans don't cook foods evenly.

VETERANS

EDITOR'S NOTE: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q - I am 68 years old, and have been unemployed for the past four years because I am totally disabled. I have just learned that my $10,000 NSLI policy carries a waiver of premium clause for total disability prior to age 65. Can this waiver be granted on my policy now?

A - Yes. However, you must present evidence that your total disability began prior to your 65th birthday, and has existed continuously since then. Refund of premiums cannot be made for the entire period, but only for the period beginning one year prior to your application.

Q - I am a student in a flight school, and would like to assign my VA educational assistance payments to the school to guarantee payment of tuition. Can this be done?

A - No. VA educational assistance payments may not be assigned.

Q - I served three years on active duty from 1958 to 1961, and have become totally disabled since discharge. Am I eligible for a pension?

A - No. In order to qualify, you need 90 days of active duty, some part of which must be during war-time. The dates you served are classified as peacetime service. (The ending date for the Korean Conflict was Jan. 31, 1955; the Vietnam Era began Aug. 5, 1964.)

Q - My father was killed in service. Am I eligible for a guaranteed or insured G.I. loan?

A - No. The law does not extend this benefit to the child of a veteran.

Policyholder Questions Answered by The Institute of Life Insurance, 277 Park Ave., N. Y., N. Y., 10017

Q. I've been thinking that "double indemnity" insurance is for me. After all, I'm young and in perfect health - I'm sure the only way I'd go right now would be in an accident. Can you tell me more about double indemnity?

A. "Double indemnity" means that your beneficiary would receive twice the face amount of your life insurance - if you are killed in an accident. Many life insurance companies even offer "triple indemnity" and a few offer up to four or five times the basic face amount of a policy. This is usually available for a small additional premium.

There are, however, differing opinions as to the need for this type of accidental death coverage. A person is far more likely to die from natural causes than from an accident. Some advisors believe it is better to use the additional premium to increase the basic insurance.

You don't mention if you have a family or what their needs might be in case something happens to you. The need for money might be greater if you were to suffer a lingering illness with heavy expenses.

On the other hand, accidents are the fourth most frequent cause of death - and among younger people they are the leading cause. Particularly among young families with limited funds, an accidental death provision to their policy can provide useful extra protection at little added cost.

The terms for such coverage are quite specific. Before deciding what you are going to do, why not discuss your particular situation with your life insurance man?

SCIENCE IN THE HOME

The Comfort Forum

With Gloria Walker

Gloria Walker is Homeowner Consultant at the Weil-McLain School of Better Heating

Dear Miss Walker: My husband and I have had it. We've just been through a very rough winter and, frankly, our warm air heating system just didn't give us the consistent heating comfort we expected. Our furnace was installed about four years ago and we've been thinking about changing to another system. What do you suggest? D.S.

DEAR D.S.: Now that summer is here, it's an ideal time to get ready for next winter. If you're not getting the heating comfort you want, my advice is to consult your local heating contractor about the benefits of modern hydronic (hot water) heating.

Hydronic heating is the oldest and still the most comfortable heating system your money can buy. This system delivers uniform heat that literally surrounds you with comfort. The hot water in a hydronic system is constantly adjusted to changing outdoor conditions so your body doesn't feel any change indoors. Hydronic heating balances your body heat loss by filling the room with two kinds of heat—radiant and convected. Radiant heat warms surfaces in the room. Convected heat circulates throughout the room in a gentle upward flow. You stay comfortable at all times without ever being conscious of or bothered by your heating system.

Dear Miss Walker: For several years, we've wanted to take advantage of special sales on carpeting. We'd like to install wall-to-wall carpeting in our home, but have held back because of the bulky old radiators in each room. Can you tell us some way to "get around" this problem? C.W.

DEAR C.W.: The best way to "get around" your problem is to replace your old radiators with modern hydronic baseboard radiation.

Trim, compact hydronic baseboard panels fit snugly and unobtrusively against your walls. Not only will you be able to put in wall-to-wall carpeting, but you will have a lot for males and 73 for females!

Frequently, babies are named after historic or famous people without any awareness of what the names actually stand for. Adam, for instance, means "human being." Clark stands for "priest" and Sophia means "wise."

New Toll Rates By N. W. Bell

Iowa telephone users now have an extra six and one-half hours each day to place long distance calls within Iowa at the lowest rates, according to R. A. Reed, Northwestern Bell. The change, filed with the Iowa State Commerce Commission last month, also includes elimination of the $4.50 charge for telephones in color.

Reed said the change in long distance calling times is being made to bring rate periods for calls within Iowa more nearly in line with those for out-of-state calls.

"Lowest rates will begin at 5 p.m. instead of 8 p.m. on weekdays and continue to 8 a.m. instead of 4:30 a.m.," he said. "Formerly, slightly higher evening rates were in effect between 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. weekdays. Also, the lowest rates will apply all day Saturday and Sunday and on two additional holidays, July 4th and Labor Day."

Reed said the biggest reduction in rates under the new schedule comes between 5 and 6 p.m. and between 4:30 and 8 a.m. Depending on the distance, customers will save up to 45 cents on a three-minute station call within Iowa. Altogether, changes in long distance rates and elimination of the color charge will save Iowa telephone customers approximately $935,000 a year.

"MISS IOWA", Cheryl Allen has risen from floor maid to the supervisory position of assigning tasks of Robert Ray and Bob Feller at the South Dallas County town for Van Meter's Centennial Thursday.

This is one of the early appearances of her reign as Miss Iowa. We are pleased to have her grace our column and to extend best wishes and love, Cheryl!

MAUDE ESTHER WHITE'S SUMMARIZATION OF DES MOINES'S ACTIVITIES LAST WEEK was a skilled accomplishment! It is a week to be remembered! Monday night's City Council meeting was the occasion on which Councilmen Vanderlinden, Ohlsen and Grothe displayed the integrity and stature so necessary in those at the helm of government! Completing the united front was our Mayor Urban and Chief of Police Nichols.

IOWA METHODIST HOSPITAL IS LOADED WITH STORIES! Once launched on my hospital routines, I had only to keep my legs elevated, watch the parade of personnel shift changes brought into view!

MET MRS. VIDA ALLEN (Mrs. Wilbert (Tom)), a check-out maid. She is in her 26th year! Vida has led a varied and interesting life in public service which began with employment at the old Boyl Harness Company, a well-known firm whose business was at one time, based on wartime productions. Here she was a stock girl and stencil operator. She was next employed at the Ordnance Plant where she was "hopper feeder" -- fed bullets into inspection machines. Like say, the "flat fifties?" And others! Mrs. cleaning out the vacated rooms and checking thereafter as to the completion of the job. She and her husband have one son, Steven Robinson, a Marine stationed at Camp Pendleton, California. Vida has been responsible in steering two nieces in Iowa Methodist's employee ranks. They are Mrs. Wilma Morrow (Mrs. Wayne), ward clerk; and Edith Garden (Mrs. Earl) a licensed, practical nurse. A charming story evolves around Wilma. At the time of the birth of twins to Vida's sister-in-law, Bernice Bragg (Mrs. James), Vida was detailed to Iowa Methodist's "OB" ward. Nightly, Vida searched among the new mothers trying to find names to her liking! Hence, we have "Wilma Jean" and "William James"! Vida's prizes for Bernice!

LE ROY BIRD COLLECTS HONORS SO CASUALLY! His life events simply come out "honors." He wears a Masonic Prince Hall Grand Lodge pin. Wears a 50 year American Legion pin; is a life member of the Consistory of Shrine. Bird is on his annual return visit to his world of friends here. We anticipate and welcome this outstanding personality and backbone of our organizational life. He maintains an enviable standard!

ACCORDING TO BIRD, Lloyd Adams, former city garage employee fell and splintered a hip. Am sure he'd welcome lines from here. Isabel Dacus still resides at 2320 Court Place; Tassie Woods and Sister Eva are fine and still reside together! Thelma and Loyatus Clark commute to Denver and so can keep us up to date on others! More about this!

Nonskid Tapes Reduce Chances of Dangerous Household Falls

MOUNT VERNON, N.Y.—A slippery bathtub, an uncarpeted stairway—two common household hazards which can result in disastrous falls. About 12,000 people die annually from household falls, says Consumer Reports. Countless others are seriously injured.

But a small investment in nonskid tapes—available in rolls, strips or patches—could lessen the chances of your slipping.

The consumer magazine says that strips of tape protect effectively, especially when applied at right angles to the probable direction of the fall. For example, place strips on stairways from side to side.

Use of Drain Cleaners Should Be Last Resort

MOUNT VERNON, N.Y.—Chemical drain cleaners are among the most dangerous products in your household and their use should be avoided whenever possible. A good way to prevent clogged drains is a weekly application of a kettleful of boiling water followed by a hot tap-water flush for about a minute, says Consumer Reports.

It also advises that you never pour fatty liquids down the drain, and that you use a drain basket to trap solid scraps.

The consumer magazine says chemical drain cleaners are a potential threat to your eyes and flesh, and should be used only as a last resort.

To clear a clogged drain, try using a plunger in a sink containing a couple of inches of hot water before resorting to the chemical cleaners.

What's keeping you from looking good?

Dry, brittle, breaking hair?

It's something to get upset about. No girl likes to see her crowning glory breaking off. Scientists tell us that over-using hot combs and over-processing hair with chemicals are often the major causes of brittleness. But even curly "natural" hair tangles and frequently breaks...just in everyday combing.

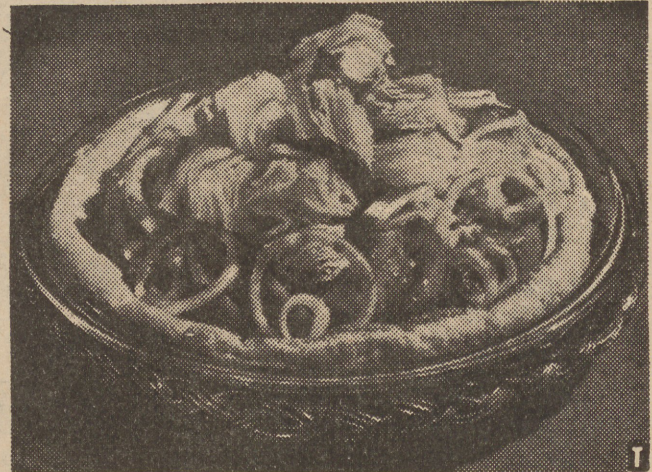

Professional hairdressers, too, know curly hair tangles easily...so it must be softened before combing to avoid breaking. This way you'll avoid irritation to the scalp and damage to the hair and roots. Many, many hairdressers rely on spray-on Clairol Hair So New® the no-rinse cream rinse. It instantly softens and relaxes all human hair (even wigs) and prevents breakage during everyday combing. Your hair stays soft and tangle-free.

When you have questions about your hair, it's smart to go to a professional hairdresser...the one who's trained to use the whole family of fine Clairol products the way you need them...to keep your hair at its most beautiful.

So don't get upset. Get a lift from a quick visit to the expert...your hairdresser. And keep on looking good!

OMELET-SALAD TO STAR AT DINNER

If members of your family relish Mexican foods and flavors, they just may adopt "Mexican Sundial Omelet" as a favorite supper main dish. Add cheese-sprinkled French bread or crisp corn chips and a favorite dessert to complete your menu.

- MEXICAN SUNDIAL OMELET
- 1 head western iceberg lettuce
 - 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 - 4 eggs, separated
 - 1/2 cup milk
 - 1/2 cup pancake mix
 - 1/4 teaspoon salt
 - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 - 1 tablespoon olive or salad oil
 - 1 tablespoon wine vinegar
 - 3 tablespoons chili sauce
 - 1/2 onion, cut into rings
 - 1 large tomato, cut into wedges

Core, rinse and drain lettuce; chill in plastic bag. Cut enough lettuce into bite-size chunks to make 2 cups. Heat butter in pie plate until bubbling hot but not browned. Meanwhile, beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Beat egg yolks with milk, pancake mix, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper until smooth; fold into egg whites. Turn mixture into buttered pie plate. Bake at 425 degrees for 12 to 15 minutes or until set and golden brown. Heat oil, vinegar, chili sauce and remaining salt and pepper in skillet over low heat. Just before omelet is ready, add onion rings and tomato to sauce; heat through. Quickly mound lettuce in center of omelet. Spoon tomato-onion mixture around lettuce. Serve at once. Makes 3 or 4 servings.

QUIT MAKING EXCUSES
FOR THOSE WHO DON'T TRY

There are dozens of agencies, federal, state, county, and city, working in the field of minority improvement. All kinds of appeals and defenses are made in their behalf, sometimes with too much apology for the earlier disadvantages and lack of opportunities they have suffered.

In earlier days, while Negroes have had an opportunity to get an education - at least in Iowa - many of them did, there was little incentive for youngsters to make the sacrifice and push on to fit themselves for opportunities which many thought would never come.

But that was yesterday. The incentive and greater opportunities are present and hundreds of youngsters in Des Moines and elsewhere are taking advantage of them. In fact, there is little excuse for any Negro youngster to not fully prepare himself for business, for education pursuits, in the professions and for mechanical employment both in and out-of-doors. By and large, they can make it if they will.

The promotional material used in these facilities often make a person, particularly a foreigner who might not know better, believe that all Negroes in the ghetto, are poor, or have no work or little or no employment, live in squalid homes or are not getting the opportunity to build and to compete for better jobs than were enjoyed in past years.

The average Negro no longer wishes for or needs excuses. Neither does he wish his plight measured by those who have not taken advantage of the opportunities or the criminal who, while entitled to his rights, to be dealt with fairly under the law, uses it as an excuse to embarrass and hurt those Negroes who are trying to make the grade and at the same time encourage them to commit other crimes one after another.

LITTLE SUPPORT

The Gallup Poll has released the results of sampling of people with a view of determining the extent of support some of the either ultra conservative or ultra militant enjoy. (NAACP was included which does not fall into either class).

The results show that 3 were favorable, 16 unfavorable to the Ku Klux Klan; 3 favorable and 75 unfavorable to the Black Panther Society, 4 favorable and 28 unfavorable to the John Birch Society, 7 favorable and 42 unfavorable to the Students for Democratic Society.

While there is little surprise about the disfavor in which these organizations are held, it only points out the old saying that one rotten apple can spoil the barrel. It further emphasizes that the decent people in America must not stand idly by and permit a few people to destroy and discommode the majority of the people of the country.

STATE REPUBLICAN
PLATFORM SUPPORTS
PRESIDENT NIXON

The Iowa Republican convention met in Des Moines last week, and, as is true with all parties, adopted a long platform dealing with a multitude of subjects. Much of it was forward looking and met the approval of an overwhelming number of the delegates.

Naturally, there were those who banted a plank in the platform seeking to "stop the war now". Everybody wants this done but the practical delegates know that this cannot be done without a mutual agreement of both parties concerned.

A plank endorses the program which President Nixon is pursuing to withdraw our men from the war zones according to the best military judgment. We brought the first world war to an abrupt conclusion because the Kaiser abdicated and his people quit; the second world war because Hitler and his forces were beaten soundly in Europe and the southwest pacific because the atom bomb destroyed the great cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki and would eventually have destroyed the whole country.

In Viet Nam, the situation is entirely different. A total war, which would knock out North Vietnam is unthinkable and surely would spread to other countries.

We all want out; the war hurts us all, but we can only remove our forces as the people in South Viet Nam are able to take over the responsibility of defending their country and we can safely withdraw our men without a disastrous military debacle.

City Olympic Track Meet

The Des Moines, Iowa YMCA and Greater Opportunities are sponsoring a City Olympic track meet, August 8 at 9:30 A.M. The meet, which will be held at the Drake University stadium, is open to all boys between the ages of 8 and 19.

Bill Spyskma, YMCA Youth — Physical Director said that "this meet lets any Des Moines boy run on Drake's tartan track, which hosted the NCAA finals this year and is the home of the famous Drake Relays Four Divisions."

Competition will be held in four divisions: Prep (grades 3 and 4); Cadet (grades 5 and 6); Junior (grades 7, 8 and 9); and Senior (high school). The Prep, Cadet, and Junior divisions will be open to all boys. Competitors in the Senior division will represent Des Moines' Opportunity Centers.

All divisions will compete in the 100 yd. dash; the 220, 440, and mile races; the 440 yard relay; and the field events: shot-put, discus, and high-jump. Seniors will also compete in the mile and 880 yard relays. Preps, Cadets, and Juniors will compete in the 50 yard dash and the 880 yard race.

Need Entry Forms
Entry forms are necessary for competition and can be obtained from the YMCA Youth Department, 101 Locust. There is no charge for entering the meet. For more information, call 288-0131 Ext. 23 or 24.

Consumer Groups
Picket Ted's Auto

Beginning at 5:00 p.m. Tuesday, July 29, 1970 the Consumers Organization for Protection and Education (COPE) will conduct an educational picket of Ted's Auto Parts at West First & University in an effort to create public pressure on Ted's. Actions and efforts on this case are of public interest and hope they will receive your full consideration.

The picket is being held by COPE, and not CEPO, the affiliate of the Accounting Aid Society. COPE is an incorporated, separate non-profit consumers organization with its own By-Laws and Articles of Incorporation. The CEPO staff now merely assists the organization in its efforts and are individual members of COPE. However, any delegations and pickets are the actions of COPE, the independent consumers group, and should be appropriately identified as such.

With Allen Ashby

As we write this, entries are coming in for our Hill-top Open tennis meet. Because of the lateness of getting our entry blanks out, we don't expect to have one of our usual big entry lists. But, however, we expect to have more than a handful. This will be number twenty two, and by the time you read this, we will either be up to our necks in tennis players or be wondering where in heck they are. This will be one of the few times when we have had to run our deadline for entering up so close to the starting line, but it was about the only thing to do.

How About Ashe

And while we are on the subject of tennis, people have been asking us what has happened to Arthur Ashe. We reply that nothing has happened to the guy. There are too many good tennis players around for anyone to dominate the game as a few players have done in the past. Of course, we will have to admit that as one gets past twenty five, he thinks about a lot of other things than tennis, and thus, isn't able to give all of his energy to the game as he did when he was struggling for a place in the sun. But we would guess the fellow makes a pretty good deal of cash from the game now that everyone can be in on the dough in the bigger meets. We wouldn't be surprised to read about his retirement from the game or something else just any time now.

Golfers

There are so many things that he has wanted to get into that he might just do that. And who will step into his shoes? There may be, but we haven't heard of any rising black racket swingers who can fill the gap. There are any number of young golfers who are ready to replace some of the older fellows like Charley Sifford on the pro tour, but no tennis players that we have heard.

As we looked over the list of matches in the national senior tennis tournament, we saw the name of Dr. Reggie Wier. Reggie, as he was in his heyday, was one of the foremost black players for a number of years. He was the first blacks to play in some of the bigger New York State meets in the thirties and forties. And he won a few of them, too. As we got it, he was a member of one of the fine all white clubs in New York because he was such an outstanding man off the court. We will never forget Wier because he taught people who like to slug the ball that it was not really necessary then. We often wondered how a player who used to rely on ball spin and control would fare in today's big game. He just might surprise a few good men. And you must have noticed that Althea Gibson, former tennis champ, is picking up a few checks on the women's pro golf tour now. It was said of her that she could play just about any game well, and those who said it may have been proved right. There is one other tennis player who has made this change from tennis to golf and that was Ellsworth Vines.

Football

Now, what do you think of the professional football players' strike and the owners' lock out against them? If there weren't so much money involved, it would be funny. We would guess that both sides will get together before they will give up a whole year of football as they are talking. The fact that they agreed to let the college all-star game be played makes one think that there must be a way to get around all the shadow boxing that both sides are doing.

Health for All

A slight cough, a few colds over the winter, congested throat, a feeling of breathlessness -- who hasn't experienced these symptoms and passed them off as something trivial?

But these may be the early warning signs of chronic bronchitis or emphysema, diseases of the lung that have risen almost 200 per cent as a cause of death in the past ten years.

Chronic bronchitis isn't considered a "killer" and is too often ignored until the lungs are severely damaged. It can be cured, but if untreated can possibly lead to emphysema—the fastest growing cause of death in the United States. Doctor Richard Overholt, a member of the American Thoracic Society, the medical section of the National Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, describes a lingering ordeal of the emphysema victim in vivid terms:

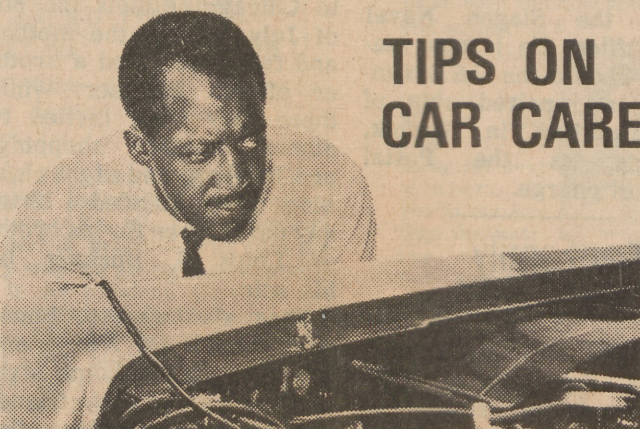

"Lung cancer victims die relatively quickly, or they recover through treatment.

The emphysema sufferer is punished through months and years of suffocation... His air hunger is so constant he must think several times about the simplest act—walking up a few steps or going out-of-doors -- and decide whether it is worth the price in shortwindness."

Smoking is the major cause of chronic bronchitis, and strongly suspected -- along with air pollution -- of contributing to emphysema. Americans are paying with their lives because they are unable to "kick the habit" or stop fouling their environment.

The progress of these insidious cripplers can be stopped. For more information on how to combat them, contact your local tuberculosis and respiratory disease association. It's a matter of life and breath.

TIPS ON CAR CARE

When Your Car Speaks, Listen

Most costly automobile breakdowns could be avoided if drivers would heed the warnings their cars give them. George, for example, wishes he had paid attention when his car began to speak. He heard it, but the car's voice wasn't very loud or emphatic, so he ignored it.

The first grumblings were in the form of little extra noises and vibration that seemed to come from under the frame. It was especially noticeable on bumpy roads. Sometimes the car would suddenly shift to a lower gear after hitting a particularly hard bump.

When George would shift into reverse, the car would complain rather loudly. For several seconds the engine would shake the whole car. He knew something was wrong, but he decided it would have to get worse before he would spend money getting it fixed. That decision cost him some big money.

About three weeks after the first warning noises, George had to hit the brakes hard to avoid hitting a car ahead. The brakes worked fine and he missed the car. But a roar of metal clanging against metal came from the hood as his car screeched to a stop.

He jumped out as a loud hissing and a cloud of steam came from under the hood.

Raising the hood, he found twisted fan blades gouged into the steaming, leaking radiator core.

A broken engine mount had let the engine slip forward sending the whirling fan into the radiator. It cost George more than $100 for towing, a new radiator and repair of the engine mount.

If he had listened when his car spoke, he could have had the engine mount repaired for less than $10. B.F. Goodrich automobile experts estimate that about two thirds of expensive major repairs could be handled as low-cost, minor repair jobs if motorists would seek expert mechanical help as soon as their cars begin showing symptoms of trouble.

At least half the breakdowns that require towing or highway service could be prevented by proper maintenance, the B.F. Goodrich technicians believe.

The first time your car complains, pay attention. It may be telling you how to save money.

Greek and Roman physicians used the first sweet taste treatment in history. They induced their patients to down a bitter draught by smearing the rim of the cup with honey. Today millions of persons don't blink an eye—but they savor the taste—as they nurse minor throat irritations with a variety of Luden's cough drops. Flavored with wild cherry, honeylicorice, menthol, honey-lemon and menthol-eucalyptus, they're all made by Luden's, Inc. of Reading Pa.

JOY AND TEARS

When summer is gone and leaves begin to fall, we gather and chat at the outside wall.

You mingle with your friends in the city park, but when you come home it is lonely and dark.

Your mother is exhausted from her daily work, all there is left to eat is a cold piece of pork. Some are standing and some are drooping, some with desires laughing and whooping,

A mother is screaming where have you been: for you're going to be a mother at the age of fourteen.

Some of you have tried the fortune of dice, some of you have made the mistake and paid the price.

Oh, some of you are nice and some of you are bums, as you follow the Soul Stepper with their drums.

But you may not hear my whisper or the distant call, for my spirit shall always be at the Village Wall.

When the sound of music has died and all are gone, I always think of you and cry when I am alone.

We dribble under the basket and look for the ball, and listen to the rhythm from the Village Soul.

Jerry Burrell has a lot of talent and his portrait on the wall.

with pictures of sad faces large and small.

Perhaps there's a Rembrandt or Michaelangelo's soul, created inside upon the Village Wall.

HAPPY BLINKING!

Are you a blinker? If you're not, you're a most unusual person, indeed.

Eye specialists say that all of us spend a good portion of our waking hours in temporary darkness because we are prone to unconscious blinking. If we didn't blink we'd be in real trouble, officials of the Barnes-Hind Ophthalmic Products Company insist.

Blinking is Mother Nature's own prescription for keeping the eyes moist and healthy. If you don't keep your contact lens clean and clear from particles or foreign matter, serious eye infection may result. Barnes-Hinds specializes in lotions and accessories to maintain the health of contacts and the eyes of about 120,000,000 Americans who now use them.

Eye experts reports that blinking and tears also play an important part in the use of contacts. The eyelids are natural "window wipers" as each blink sweeps over the lens.

Tiny contacts would not stay put without tears. The reason is capillary attraction, the same as causes a nickel to stick to a wet table top. These lens

"float" on a film of tears.

In the beginning contact users may experience many "teary" sessions due to the novelty of the eye intrusion. But Nature "adapts" and normal blinking is restored in a short time.

The Barnes-Hind people stress the economy of size in contact lenses and the ease with which they can be maintained. Most are no more than aspirin tablet size.

They cover the cornea, the seeing part of the eye. Years ago special fluids were required for the glass shells used to cover the entire eye. Over the years scientists have learned to utilize our natural supply of tears—and blinks—resulting in the present miniature vision aids.

Wearing a baby in ancient Greece meant goat's milk, but mare's milk is fed infants in Mongolia. In Victorian days, physicians frequently advised mothers not to feed milk, but to "lightly boil stale bread in water, wine or beer, add butter or sugar to taste."
