Hench & Dromgold's

SPRING-TOOTH HARROWS,

Manufactured by HENCH & DROMGOLD, York, Pa.

Rock Glen, Pa., June 17, 1889.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Gentlemen:—It affords me pleasure to state that the Spring-tooth Harrow purchased from you is giving splendid satisfaction. We feel certain it is superior to any Spring-tooth Harrow in the market.

Very truly yours,
E. S. ROBERTS.

Cross Creek Village, Pa., June 1, 1889.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Gentlemen:—The Spring-tooth Harrows which we sold this Spring for you are giving splendid satisfaction. We have sold the "Stephen" as well as other makes of Harrows, but we find your Harrow is taking the lead entirely. Will be able to sell a large number in the future. The ratchet tooth holder is a wonderful improvement, and pleases the farmers very much.

Respectfully,
REED & STEPHENSON

Lock Haven, Pa., April 8, 1889.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Gentlemen:—I have received the sample Harrow and sold it, and it is giving splendid satisfaction. I like it very much. Please ship me six more immediately. I wish to make a special run on them in preference to any other make.

Yours very truly,
J. N. GETZ, JR.

Mifflintown, Pa., May 8, 1889.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Gentlemen:—Your sample Harrow has been received and we are very much pleased with it. Please ship us some more immediately. Up to date I have sold twenty four Harrows, and your's takes the lead of them all. I wish to handle them exclusively.

Very truly yours,
S. C. MYERS.

Ransom, Pa., June 1, 1889.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Gentlemen:—I have sold a number of your Harrows this Spring and they are giving better satisfaction than any other Harrow I have ever sold. You will please find enclosed my order for twelve more Harrows, to be shipped as soon as possible. The season is almost over, but they are nearly all sold.

Respectfully yours,
JOHN SHOOK.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Bedford, Pa. April 30, 1890.

Gentlemen:—Your telegram just received. I am again disappointed, I was hoping you had shipped me more than 15 Harrows which bill calls for. Please ship on receipt of this: 25—18 tooth and 2—14 tooth. I must have this number as they are all sold.

Yours very truly,

ISAAC PIERSON.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Calais, Vt., June 17, 1890.

Gentlemen:—Yours is the best Spring-tooth Harrow ever introduced in this locality, and I think the best manufactured. I shall be very much pleased to continue handling them,

Very truly yours,

J. E. BLISS.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Cobleskill, N. Y., July 1, 1890.

Gentlemen:—Enclosed please find our check for $400.00, which please place to our credit. The Harrows are giving splendid satisfaction, and we look for orders running in the hundred for Fall trade and for Spring.

Respectfully,

C. E. PINELLE, Secretary,
SCHOHARIE COUNTY FARMER'S ASS'N.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Mt. Airy, Md., May 21, 1890

Gentlemen:—Enclosed please find check for Harrow received. This makes nineteen in all. I am very sorry you could not fill my orders; as I lost the sale of 8 or 10 Harrows. I want the exclusive sale of your Harrows for Mt. Airy and vicinity for this Fall.

Yours very truly'

BYRON S. DORSEY.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Adams, Grand Isle Co., Vt., April 7, 1890.

Gentlemen:—Please ship me at once 2 more 18 tooth Harrows. These are the best selling Harrows I ever got hold of, and I feel sure the best that are made. Am sorry you could not fill my orders more promptly. It is a great disappointment to my customers. One of them says he will have no other kind, and will wait until you can ship, so you will please ship as soon as possible.

Yours truly,

S. C. MACOMBER.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Maidencreek, P. O., Berks Co., Pa., Apl. 4th 1890.

Gentlemen:—Please send me 2 more 16 and one 18 tooth Harrows, at once. Your Harrows take the lead of all the Harrows I have ever sold, and I have four different kinds in stock.

Very resp.,

HENRY M. DETURK.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Hydetown, Pa., Apl. 7, 1890.

Gentlemen:—I have the ten Harrows which were shipped me, about sold. You may ship me ten more right away as I do not want to be out. I have the first man yet to find any fault with your Harrow. They talk for themselves.

Remain yours,

JOHN P. NAVY.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Newport, Pa., May 11, 1890.

Gentlemen:—Please ship us more Harrows as quick as possible. They are outselling everything here. We are selling more than all other kinds put together in this section. Our sales will be very large.

Very truly,

RITTER & EBERT.

Messrs. Reed and Stephenson:

Cannonsburg, Pa., June 26, 1889.

Gentlemen:—We the undersigned, take pleasure in recommending the

"Hench and Dromgold" Ratchet Spring Tooth Harrows bought from you to any person or persons. We think it does its work as near complete as any Harrow in this Country. We have given them a trial in different kinds of ground, and have found them worthy of recommendation.

Yours Respectfully,

JOHN P. WELLER & SON.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Dallas, Pa., April 21, 1890.

Gentlemen:—We are selling a great many of your Harrows. Previous to handling yours, we sold the "Stevens" and "Clipper," but we are now closed out of these and will make a specialty of yours. Your Harrow is taking the lead entirely.

Respectfully yours,

HAY & HONEYWELL.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Indiana, Pa., May 5, 1890.

Gentlemen:—We received some of your Harrows to-day but not enough to fill orders. Please ship quick, at least twelve 18 tooth, and three or four 16 tooth Harrows, and advise us if you can fill orders promptly, as we can sell a large number of your Harrows. We find we made a mistake in not ordering a car-load early in the season. By another year we will give you orders for car-load lots early in the season.

Truly yours,

UTTON BROS. & BELL.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Charm, Ohio, May 23, 1890.

Gentlemen:—Please ship us at once 3—18 and 3—22 teeth Harrows to Millersburg, Ohio. We will want 25 for fall trade. They are taking the lead entirely.

Yours very truly,

HERSHBERGER & MILLER.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Corsica, Pa., May 5, 1889.

Gentlemen:—Please find enclosed check for Harrows shipped. Ship at once six more. I can sell your Harrows from $3.00 to $5.00 more than any other Harrows on the market.

Yours Respectfully,

G. S. AARON.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Harveys, Green Co., Pa., May 13, 1890.

Gentlemen:—Enclosed please find check for $150.00 on Harrow account please credit. Your Harrows are taking the lead. I can sell 50 Harrows for fall trade and 100 next spring, without much effort.

Respectfully,

W. L. SMITH.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Turbotville, Pa., May 10, 1890.

Gentlemen:—Your Harrows arrived to-day and we are very much pleased with them. We now recognize the superiority of your goods, and will want more for fall trade.

Respectfully yours,

KRUMM & DERR.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Mettacahonts, N. Y. May 12, 1890.

Gentlemen:—The Harrows have arrived. Enclosed find check for six more, ship at once. I am selling your Harrow ahead of all others in this section, it is no trouble to sell them as your Ratchet tooth holder takes the lead.

Yours truly,

JEROME DANN.

Messrs. Hench & Dromgold:

Katan, Pa., May 21, 1891.

Gentlemen:—The Harrows arrived all right and I sold it before I got home from the railroad. They are giving splendid satisfaction, and you will please ship me 2 more immediately.

Yours truly,

R. J. CROWELL.

Taneytown, Md., May 6, 1889.

Messrs. Hensch & Dromgold:

Gentlemen:—Please find enclosed my check for sample Harrow I received. I have sold it and it works splendidly. Have received orders for a lot more; please ship me some as soon as possible, reserve as much territory as you can for me. You have the "boss" Harrow in the market. I will handle yours exclusively, although I have handled been others.

Very truly,

WILLIAM J. FINK.

Annville, Pa., May 2, 1889.

Messrs. Hensch & Dromgold:

Gentlemen:—We have put out a few of your Harrows and they are giving splendid satisfaction. Please ship us six more Harrows immediately and reserve as much territory for us as possible. You have the "boss" Harrow and we wish to handle it exclusively. We like the ratchet tooth-holder much better than any other means of holding or fastening the tooth. You can get four times as much wear out of the tooth with it as any other.

Yours very truly,

DEAN & BEHM.

Hanover, Pa., June 1, 1889.

Messrs. Hensch & Dromgold:

Gentlemen:—Although it was very late in the season when I received your first Harrow, yet I have sold 20 of them. I formerly sold "UTK," and "Stephens," but your Harrow takes the lead entirely of them all, and I can sell it at a better price than any other.

Yours truly,

A. R. BRODBECK.

East Berlin, Pa., June 2, 1889.

Messrs. Hensch & Dromgold:

Gentlemen:—I sold 20 or 22 of your Spring-tooth Harrows this Spring, all of which are giving splendid satisfaction. I had a few of the "UTK," and some "Perry's" on hand when I received your first Harrow, but had to sell them a couple of dollars less in order to get rid of them; some parties even returning them and taking yours at a higher price. It outsells anything in the Harrow line I have ever handled.

Resp. yours,

ANDREW M. BECKER.

Bests, Pa., May 22, 1889.

Messrs. Hensch & Dromgold:

Gentlemen:—The Harrows I purchased and sold for you this season are giving splendid satisfaction, and they are very highly appreciated by their owners and many of their friends. I expect a very large trade on them in the future.

Respectfully,

D. E. BEST.

West Middle town, Pa., June 13, 1889.

Messrs. Reed and Stephenson:

Gentlemen:—The Hensch and Dromgold, ratchet spring-tooth Harrow that I bought from you has given entire satisfaction in every particular.

Yours very truly,

JOHN S. PATTERSON.

Burgettstown, Pa., June 13, 1889.

Messrs. Reed and Stephenson:

Gentlemen:—The Hensch and Dromgold, ratchet spring-tooth Harrow I bought from you, gives entire satisfaction, does its work much better, and runs lighter than any we have ever used.

Respectfully yours,

W. O. STEPHENSON.

South Burgettstown, Pa., June 14, 1889.

Messrs. Reed and Stephenson:

Gentlemen:—The Hensch and Dromgold, ratchet spring-tooth Harrow I purchased from you last Spring, I am well pleased with. I would not take twice what I paid for it, if I could not get another like it. I think it is worth from five to ten dollars more than any other Harrow in the market.

Yours very truly

D. W. STUDA.

Dinsmore, Pa., June 1889.

Messrs. Reed and Stephenson:

Gentlemen:—The Hensch and Dromgold, ratchet spring-tooth Harrow I bought from you last Spring, gives good satisfaction, I think it is the best spring-tooth Harrow on the market.

Yours truly,

J. F. Mc DONALD.
