My dear Dr. Pammel:

After so long a time, I am getting off to you a few pecans. It seems as though my work has crowded upon me so severely that it has made it impossible for me to get them off sooner.

I shall also put up the paint products just as soon as I can get to it.

I trust that Mrs. Pammel and the family are all quite well.

With sincere good wishes, and pleasant memories of your visit here, I am

Very truly yours,
