WHITE HOUSE TASK FORCE ON EDUCATION

May 25, 1965

The Vice President
United States Senate

Dear Mr. Vice President:

Following the breakfast this morning, a number of the African Ambassadors commented in very glowing terms about your moving talk. They seemed to feel that the whole meeting was of a very different character from that in which the Diplomatic Corps usually participates. They apparently found it a very refreshing change in pace from the usual rounds of cocktail parties, which become a burden after a time.

As I told you, Dr. Lloyd Short is retiring at the end of June and will become a Professor Emeritus. Enclosed is a citation signed by the three members of the Civil Service Commission, which will be presented tomorrow, May 26. If you should find the time to send him a brief note, it would mean a great deal to him.

Sincerely yours,

Dwight A. Ink
Chairman
