Be Happy- Go Lucky!

EILEEN WILSON, Lucky Star of TV and Radio, says:

At football games I love to cheer
"Go team!" and "Hip Hooray!"
But for a better taste I shout,
"Go Lucky Strike today!"

(Luckies taste better than any other cigarette!)

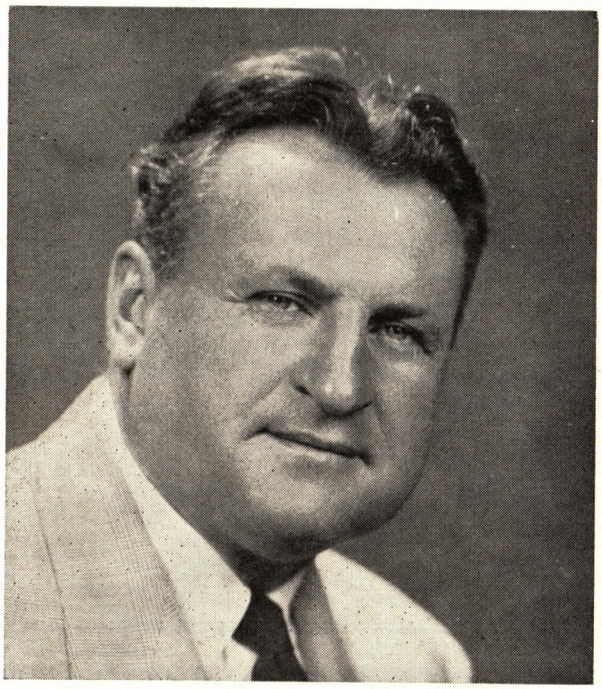

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER THAN ANY OTHER CIGARETTE!

WAYNE OPENING FOE

LOU ZARZA
Tartar Mentor

The biggest municipal university outside New York City will help the Iowa State Cyclones open their sixty-first football season here today. Wayne University of Detroit—enrollment, 20,250—is making its first appearance on the Iowa State football schedule although the Tartar swimmers have often met Cyclone teams.

Coached by Lou Zarza, former Michigan State star, Wayne is growing in a football sense as it has educationally. Ambitious and young, the Tartars have big plans for a gridiron future. The school itself is 83 years old and has grown up through such stages as a private medical school and teacher training institution. Later it became a teachers college, a junior college, and the "Colleges of the City of Detroit." Sixteen years ago it became Wayne University.

Today both teams will rely heavily upon relatively inexperienced teams. Iowa State, for instance, has only 10 seniors on its squad, Wayne has only three!

Today's game will give Cyclone fans their first chance to see what Iowa State will do without its brilliant passing combine of Bill Weeks-Jim Doran-Sy Wilhelmi. Iowa State will still pass but the word is out that running will produce more of the team yardage this year.

Partly this is true because few men can step into the shoes of the departed pitch and catch trio mentioned above. Another reason is that better all-around running backs are present. There is a bit more speed—a great weakness of past Cyclone elevens. Blocking is better. Spirit is great.

To temper any Bowl hopes fans may have it is only necessary to look at the 1951 schedule. Opening with dangerous Wayne, the Cyclones then swing into the following foes: Kansas, Marquette, Kansas State, Missouri, Drake, Colorado, Nebraska, and Oklahoma. That is enough to quickly bring to earth such high-flown plans as post season games would entail.

Iowa State will be an aggressive, willing, eager young team. It will be typical of all Stuber teams—dangerous all the way, hard to beat no matter what the competition.

☆ ☆

Today is High School Band day and a total of 40 bands will perform here during the afternoon. Frank Piersol, director of the Iowa State Marching Band, will conduct the mass bands in the national anthem. Alvin R. Edgar, director of music and former director of the band, will conduct the entire group in Sousa's "Washington Post March." At the half the Iowa State freshman band and the East Sioux City band, under the direction of Dale Caris, will provide the half-time program.

Here are the bands who'll join with the Iowa Staters today: Adel, Albion, Alden, Ames, Boone, Carroll, Cedar Falls, Cedar Rapids McKinley, Clarion, Danbury, Eagle Grove, Emmetsburg, Goldfield, Grand Junction, Graettinger, Greenfield, Grinnell, Guthrie Center, Humboldt, Jefferson, Laurens, Lenox, Lohrville, Madrid, Manning, Manson, Mapleton, Marengo, Nevada, Ogden, Pella, Perry, Pocahontas, Rolfe, Sioux City East, Story City, Stuart, Van Meter, Webster City.

IOWA STATE MARCHING BAND

One of the four best in the nation — that's the rating of the crack Iowa State Marching Band. Directed by Frank Piersol, the Cyclone music makers continue to follow the high musical and marching standards set by Alvin Edgar, now head of the music department at the college. From the first day of school when in less than 72 hours a freshman band is whipped into shape, until the peak road trip, the band ably compliments the performances of the footballers on the field.

DALE WILLIAMS

Here in the stands watching the game today little thought is given to the many fans who must stay at home and depend upon the radio for knowledge of the contest. But up there in Booth No. 4 in the West Stadium is one man who thinks a great deal about it. He is Dale Williams, sports and farm editor of the WOI stations. Every game, home or away, he's on the job bringing every thrill and every bit of action to his many thousands of listening fans. He plays a big part in the football picture each year with his calm, accurate description of the games.
