JACK TRICE STADIUM

THE STORY OF JACK TRICE

Jack Trice Stadium is named in honor of Jack Trice, Iowa State's first African-American student-athlete. Trice died from injuries he sustained in a varsity football game vs. Minnesota in October 1923.

Trice was an excellent student and a stellar performer in the interior line. He played on the freshman team in 1922, and the following year was considered to be all-conference caliber by many contemporaries.

After his untimely death, classes were postponed and a funeral service was held before 4,000 students and faculty on central campus. In 1984, Iowa State officials changed the name to the football stadium complex to Cyclone Stadium/Jack Trice Field. It was permanently dedicated as Jack Trice Stadium during a ceremony honoring the former Cyclone in August of 1997.

A statue in his likeness was moved to the east side of the Jacobson Building in 1997, greeting visitors as they enter the stadium.

GAMEDAY SCOUTING REPORT

Iowa State: Coming off one of its biggest wins in school history, Iowa State (4-4, 2-2) will try to keep its momentum going with a homecoming matchup vs. Kansas this afternoon. Iowa State made history last weekend, defeating No. 22 Texas for the first time in school history in a 28-21 victory in Austin, Texas.

It was the first Cyclone win over a ranked opponent on the road since defeating No. 16 Oklahoma, 33-31 in Norman in 1990. Iowa State never trailed in the game and held a 28-6 fourth-quarter lead before stopping a late Longhorn rally.

The Cyclone offensive line and rushing attack was up to the task, churning out 199 yards on the ground against one of the toughest rush defenses in the nation. Senior running back Alexander Robinson was responsible for 120 yards, eclipsing the 100-yard mark for the 11th time in his career to help him move to No. 5 on Iowa State's career rushing list (2,971 yards).

Senior quarterback Austen Arnaud threw two touchdown passes and ran for 40 yards in the victory and Darius Reynolds caught two passes, including an 18-yard touchdown grab to put the Cyclones on the board first.

Defensive end Jacob Lattimer, the reigning Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week, made the most of his first start, recording two sacks, including one that forced a fumble to set up Iowa State's last score. Rookie punter Kirby Van Der Kamp averaged 46.6 yards on nine punts, pinning UT inside the 10-yard line on four occasions.

Kansas: Kansas (2-5, 0-3) hits the road after dropping consecutive home games to Kansas State (59-7) and Texas A&M (45-10). The Jayhawks kept the game close with the Aggies early, trailing 17-10 in the second quarter before TAMU scored two touchdowns to close out the half.

Quarterback Jordan Webb passed for 90 yards and ran for a team-high 75 yards for a 10.7 ypc average in the Aggie game. Webb has passed for 1,114 yards and thrown seven touchdown passes this season while directing the Jayhawk offense.

James Sims has been KU's top rusher, averaging 4.6 ypc while rushing for a team-high 375 yards this season. Sims' three touchdown runs leads all Jayhawk rushers this season. Wideout Daym Patterson has a team-high 38 catches for 316 yards. Tim Biere, who caught a 16-yard touchdown pass vs. the Aggies, has a team-best three touchdown grabs.

The Jayhawks have a win over a ranked opponent, upsetting No. 15 Georgia Tech, 28-25 in the second game of the season.

On the defensive side of the ball, the Jayhawks are led by senior Justin Springer and junior Steven Johnson, who both have a team-high 55 tackles. Springer had a team-best 12 tackles in the Aggie game and his six tackles for loss is the most on the team.

OUTSTANDING FACILITIES

Indoor Facility

JACK TRICE STADIUM

Without a doubt, the 55,000-seat Jack Trice Stadium is one of the most beautiful football venues nationally. Jack Trice Stadium, which offers an unobstructed view of the playing field as well as remarkably easy access and plentiful parking, was completed in less than two years, from the ground breaking on Oct. 26, 1973, to the first game, a victory over Air Force, on Sept. 20, 1975. A record 56,795 fans watched the Iowa State-UNL game Sept. 8, 2007.

The special football atmosphere at Jack Trice Stadium has been enhanced with a number of additions throughout the years. A natural grass playing field was added in 1996 and a $6.2 million three-level press tower was introduced in 1997. In 2002, a state-of-the-art video/scoreboard, permanent lighting and additional seating in the south endzone improved its gameday experience.

Another makeover occurred in 2008, as the stadium went through its $19.5 million first-phase remodeling project. The overhaul included the renovation/construction of suites and the addition of restroom and concession buildings on the west concourse. The club section on the east side of the stadium was also entirely renovated. Renovation included the addition of a brand new 100 percent bluegrass sod playing surface.

Richard O. Jacobson
Athletic Building

In 2009, the second phase of the Jack Trice Stadium renovation began. The $11.5 million project includes the addition of restrooms, concessions stands and merchandise posts as well as widening the concourse to double its previous width on the east side of the stadium. The latest phase also includes the creation of the Jacobson Plaza, which is a large patio/entertainment space at mid-field on the stadium's east side exterior, and replacing the exterior fencing with a decorative iron fence.

STEVE AND DEBBIE BERGSTROM INDOOR FACILITY

The $9.6 million Steve and Debbie Bergstrom Indoor Training Facility opened for football practice in March 2004. The 92,000-square-foot building was constructed over the existing turf practice field as a part of the Johnny Majors Practice Complex west of Jack Trice Stadium. Funding for this project was from private gifts to the athletics department and the ISU Foundation.

JACOBSON BUILDING/OLSEN BUILDING

The stadium complex was transformed in 1995-96 with the construction of the state-of-the-art Richard O. Jacobson Athletic Building, which was significantly remodeled in 2008. The home of Iowa State's football program includes football offices, team meeting rooms, locker rooms and auditorium. The renovated Ralph A. Olsen Building is adjacent to the north end of the Jacobson Athletic Building. The Olsen Building houses the strength, equipment and athletic training facilities.

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR JAMIE POLLARD

Some of the additional highlights of his tenure include:

- Record annual donations (twice surpassing $6 million);
- More than $53 million in facility upgrades and construction (including the beautiful Sukup Basketball Complex);
- Five consecutive years of improvement in the Directors' Cup standings;
- Strong performance in the classroom with athletes registering higher GPAs than undergrads most years.

His arrival at Iowa State was preceded by three years as Deputy A.D. at Wisconsin, where he worked with Barry Alvarez, who was serving in the dual role of A.D. and football coach.

A former national champion long-distance runner, Pollard's competitive drive was channeled into an athletics administration career by his mentor, former Maryland A.D. Debbie Yow. Pollard received a 2003 Street & Smith's "Top Forty Under 40" award, which goes to the most influential individuals in athletics under the age of 40.

Jamie and his wife, Ellen, have four children and reside in Ames.

Jamie Pollard is in his fifth year as the Director of Athletics at Iowa State University and his impact in all areas of the department has been dramatic.

Hired in the fall of 2005, Pollard has re-shaped the department, improved its facilities dramatically, re-energized the fan base and set the Cyclones up for success on the field and in the classroom.

The hard work is starting to pay off and the 2009-10 Cyclones just registered the best student-athlete graduation rate (79%) and best finish in the Directors' Cup all-sports rankings (34th) in their history. Three of his recent coaching hires - Paul Rhoads, Kevin Jackson and Fred Hoiberg - have strong ISU ties or are alums and each has sparked great interest and support.

HEAD COACH PAUL RHOADS

Minnesota in the Insight Bowl played in sunny Tempe, Ariz. on New Year's Eve.

The historical significance of Rhoads' success in his first Iowa State season is underscored by his place as the first Cyclone football coach to win seven games in his initial campaign since 1907. He is the first coach in ISU history to post a winning record in his initial Cyclone season since 1931. Each win in his first Iowa State grid campaign vanquished another streak of recent futility. The win at Kent State was ISU's first road victory since 2005 and the Cyclones' victory at Nebraska was the program's first conference road win since the same season and the first in Lincoln since 1977.

Rhoads is a former defensive coordinator and the 2009 Cyclones made remarkable strides on that side of the ball. Iowa State held three conference opponents to 10 points or less for the first time since 1965. ISU was 68th nationally in the red zone in 2008. In 2009, the Cyclones ranked second-best among 120 FBS teams in that category. Iowa State's defenders were ninth nationally in turnovers forced. The defense's anchor, linebacker Jesse Smith, earned first-team all-conference honors. Strong safety David Sims was named by the league's coaches as the Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year.

Born in Nevada, Iowa, just 10 minutes from Jack Trice Stadium, Rhoads came back to Iowa State after most recently serving as defensive coordinator at Auburn. Rhoads coordinated the Pittsburgh defense for eight seasons (2000-07) before moving to Auburn in the same role in 2008.

His resume includes a 2004 Big East Conference championship with the Panthers. Five of the defenses he coordinated ranked in the nation's Top 30 for scoring and three in the NCAA's Top 12 for fewest yards allowed. His aggressive philosophy allowed Pitt to score 10 defensive touchdowns from 2004-06.

Rhoads earned a bachelor's degree in economics in 1989 at Missouri Western and was the recipient of the Chris Faros Scholarship, which honors the football team's top senior student-athlete. Rhoads added a master's degree from Utah State in 1991.

Rhoads' father, Cecil, was a high school coach for more than three decades and has been inducted into the Iowa High School Football Coaches Hall of Fame. His mother, Mary, was a teacher and homemaker. Rhoads is the youngest of five children. Paul and his wife, Vickie, a former basketball player at Missouri Western, have two boys, Jake and Wyatt.

When Iowa State head football coach Paul Rhoads held his first team meeting, he told his Cyclone team that "I am proud to be your coach and that we will prepare diligently to win a bowl game."

Win a bowl game? In 2009? The Cyclones had been 8-27 over their three previous seasons.

"I'm sure a lot of us thought he was just trying to motivate us with inspirational talk like that," cornerback Leonard Johnson said. "He was stressing winning a bowl game, but we'd just lost 10 games in a row. That seemed a little out there."

Indeed. The New York Times rated Iowa State 112th among 120 NCAA FBS teams nationally to start the season. The Big 12 media ranked the Cyclones dead last in the league's pre-season poll.

At the December 2008 press conference introducing him as Iowa State's new head football coach, Rhoads compared his return to Ames and his native state to a Hollywood script. On the last day of 2009, his team wrote the best possible sequel. Inspired by its coach, an Iowa State squad that didn't win a conference game and lost its final 10 contests in 2008 bought into Rhoads' vision of immediate success. Iowa State's 2009 season ended with a Cyclone bowl game victory. The reward for keeping that faith was a seven-win season and a victory over

Winning Takes Teamwork

Cyclone Club members are a valuable part of the team.

Member donations fund student-athlete scholarships, improve facilities and generate an incredible gameday atmosphere.

"My athletic scholarship has allowed me to pursue my goals both in the classroom and on the court. Our fans make all of that possible through their support and passion."

KELSEY BOLTE
Sr., Ida Grove, Iowa

Cyclone Club members played a key role in last season's unforgettable memories: Craig Brackins and Allison Lacey on draft night. Lisa Koll crossing the finish line with yet another first-place finish. Jake Varner and David Zabriskie becoming national champions. Jesse Smith's final interception of the Nebraska football game. Plus, student-athletes achieved a school-record breaking graduation rate that was highest in the Big 12 and in the Top 10 nationwide.

While Iowa State Athletics had a breakthrough year in 2009-2010, the Cyclones still need your support. Help us reach the next level as a team by taking it to the next level as a fan. Be a part of the Cyclone Club today! Visit www.cyclones.com to join online or call 515-294-5022.

"Our fans are always there. We are grateful."

CYCLONE MARCHING BAND

Composed of over 300 student members, the Iowa State University Cyclone Football "Varsity" Marching Band is a vital part of the action of Big 12 football. Known for its polished and energetic style, the Cyclone Marching Band performs a wide variety of dynamic shows throughout the season. Students in the band come from all over the nation and represent over 70 academic majors.

Each year our athletic bands perform for over a half-million people, including the fans that regularly pack Jack Trice Stadium. Recent performances have included the EV1.net Houston Bowl, the Independence Bowl in Shreveport (twice), the Humanitarian Bowl in Boise, the Eddie Robinson Classic in Kansas City, and the Insight Bowl in Tempe (twice).

Through rehearsals, travel, and the excitement of marching in front of thousands of cheering fans, the members of our Cyclone Marching Band share rich experiences that create lasting social as well as musical bonds. Members of the marching band also comprise the pep bands that play for women's volleyball and men's and women's basketball at Hilton Coliseum.

The band performs at all home football games and at several local and regional exhibitions. This fall the band will also travel to Iowa City for the Iowa game on September 11 and to Kansas City for the game with Kansas State at Arrowhead Stadium on September 18.

The Cyclone Marching Band will perform in the annual ISU Band Extravaganza concert, which also features the Wind Ensemble and Jazz Ensemble I. This year's concert will be held in C.Y. Stephens Auditorium on Sunday, November 14 at 4:00 p.m.

For more information about the ISU bands, please visit www.music.iastate.edu/org/marching.

2010 CY'S FAVORITE ALUM: DICK AND MARIJO MARSHALL

Marijo and Dick Marshall

Dedication, unwavering loyalty and a genuine spirit of giving defines Dick & Marijo Marshall's relationship with Cyclone athletics.

For the past 46 years, the couple has logged over 70,000 miles from Griswold, Iowa, to Ames to cheer on the Cyclone football team. This doesn't include travel for football away-games, bowl games or the thousands of miles traveled to support the men's basketball and wrestling teams.

"I know when I attend an Iowa State Athletics event, I can always count on seeing Marijo and Dick in attendance," said Iowa State Athletics Director Jamie Pollard.

This year, the Iowa State University Athletics Department presents the Marshalls with the 2010 Cy's Favorite Alum award. Since 1955, the Iowa State University Athletics Department has recognized the loyalty and accomplishments of a graduate or friend of Cyclone athletics. Dick received his DVM degree from the ISU College of Veterinary Medicine in 1961 and a MS degree in 1967. Marijo is a 1962 graduate of the University of Northern Iowa in vocational home economics.

"Marijo and Dick Marshall represent the perfect fit in what we look for in Cy's Favorite Alum - their love, passion and support for Iowa State Athletics transcend the outcome of the game," said Pollard. "They tirelessly and consistently give their time and resources to help support our student-athletes."

Dick and Marijo are invaluable supporters of all facets of university life from academics to athletics. The Marshalls are collaborators of the recognition program leading to the endowed chair in the College of Veterinary Medicine, long-time season-ticket holders for football, men's basketball and wrestling and members of the Cyclone Club. They have supported numerous projects such as the Iowa State University Alumni Association Center Building Fund, Iowa State University Fund for Excellence, Sukup Basketball Complex, Pete Taylor Memorial Scholarship, Gridiron Football Fund, Marching Band Support Fund, Ramsey Lecture Series, the Veterinary Medicine Development Fund and ISU Wrestling Support Fund.

Prior to retirement, Dick was a member of the American and Iowa Veterinary Medical Association and the Internal Society of Toxicology. Marijo taught before becoming a full-time mother and homemaker. The couple remains active in the community with civic and church affairs.

The Marshalls are the parents of Lee Ann (Bill) Berigan of Blaine, Minn.; John Marshall of Lewis; Michael (Tracy) Marshall of Lewis and Richard (Connie) Marshall of Pleasant Hill. Dick and Marijo have seven grandchildren Lisa Berigan, Laura (Steve) Leary, Casey Marshall, Danny Marshall, Jessica Marshall, Kayla Marshall and Kristin Marshall.

In 2009-10, the Cyclone Club recorded $6.2M in annual gifts, an all-time record, because of the generosity and support of the individuals listed below. The investment made by Cyclone Club members is impactful – from phenomenal graduation rates to significant athletic achievements – club members make a difference. Club members fund student-athlete scholarships, supplement the operating budgets of our sports and are truly the backbone for funding the future of the athletics program. If you are not currently a member, please consider how your gift can help make a difference.

The Cyclone Club membership listing includes those making payments on a 2010 pledge as of Aug. 1, 2010 and who wish to be part of the donor listing. The ISU Athletics Development staff made every effort to ensure accuracy of this list. Please notify cyclub@iastate.edu regarding corrections to your membership account; however, printing timelines prevent changes appearing in future program listings.

THE MAYOR IS BACK

I STATE

MEN'S BASKETBALL

HELP BRING THE MAGIC BACK

2010-11 Cyclone Men's Basketball

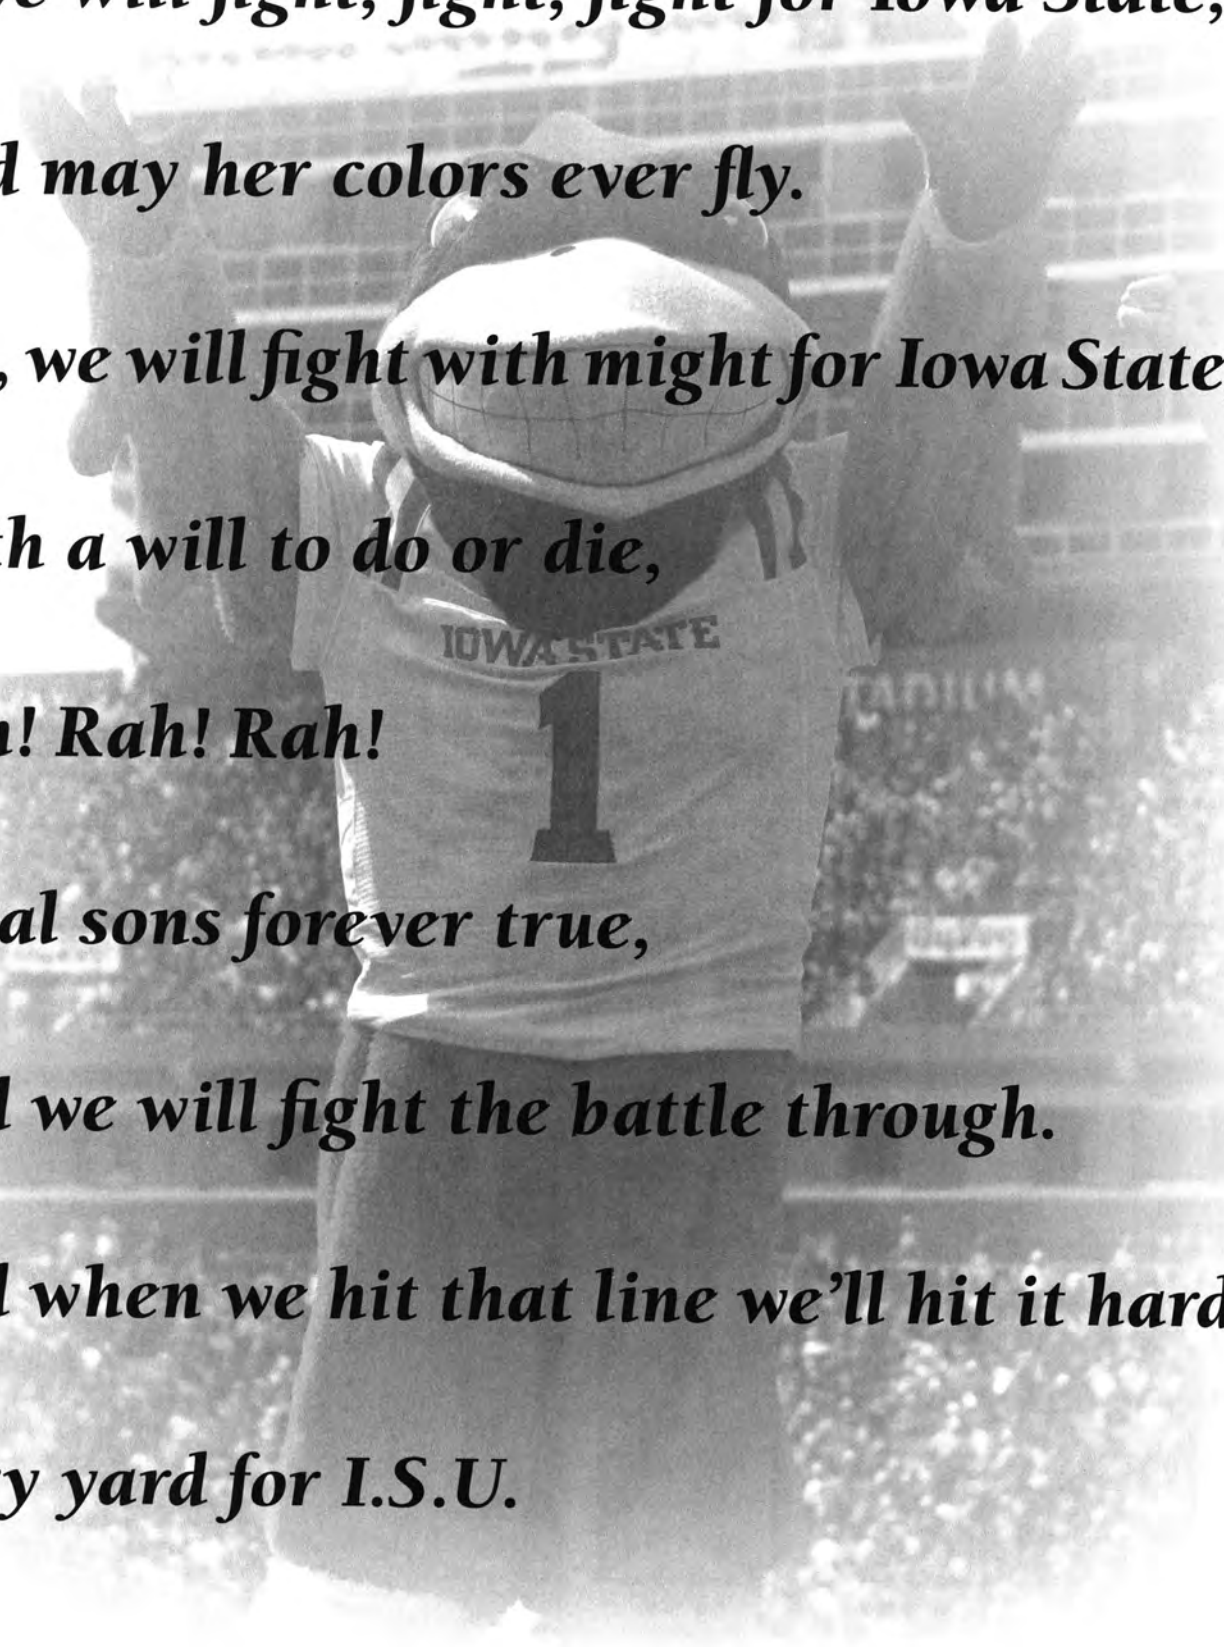

Iowa State fans, you won't want to miss out on the inaugural season of Fred Hoiberg's coaching career with the Cyclones! "The Mayor" has returned to Ames and he's made it his goal to bring the 'Magic' back to Hilton Coliseum!

Hoiberg, a native of Ames, Cyclone All-American and 10-year NBA veteran, is back in his hometown to help lead a Cyclone team which returns two starters in Diante Garrett and Scott Christopherson. Garrett, who has started 64 consecutive games at point guard, is back as one of the Big 12's best playmakers. Garrett already ranks eighth on the school's all-time assist chart with 416 career dimes. Christopherson is an outstanding shooter who led the team in free-throw percentage (84.6 pct.) and 3-point percentage (42.9 percent), the ninth-most accurate single-season clip in school history, a year ago.

The 2010-11 schedule will yet again be quite a challenge. The Cyclones will play 14 teams which advanced to the postseason in 2010, including challenging non-conference home games vs. California, Drake and Northern Illinois. In Big 12 action, Iowa State will play host to 2010 NCAA participants Baylor, Kansas, Kansas State and Missouri.

To order season tickets, call 1-888-ISU-CYCLONE or visit cyclones.com.

IOWA STATE FIGHT SONG

*O we will fight, fight, fight for Iowa State,
And may her colors ever fly.
Yes, we will fight with might for Iowa State,
With a will to do or die,
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Loyal sons forever true,
And we will fight the battle through.
And when we hit that line we'll hit it hard ev'ry yard for I.S.U.*

FIVE NCAA SWEET 16 &
TWO NCAA ELITE EIGHT
APPEARANCES UNDER FENNELLY

2010-11 Cyclone Women's Basketball

The Cyclone women's basketball team is fresh off its second consecutive NCAA Sweet 16 appearance and a second-place finish in the Big 12 Conference. Head coach Bill Fennelly and senior Kelsey Bolte will lead the 2010-11 Iowa State team and they need your help making Hilton Coliseum the most difficult place to play in all of college women's basketball once again.

Bolte, a two-time All-Big 12 honoree and Iowa State's leading returning scorer with 12.3 points per game, is the lone senior on a team made predominantly up of underclassmen. The Cyclones also return starters in sophomores Chelsea Poppens and Anna Prins, who combined for nearly 20 points a game in their inaugural collegiate campaigns. A group of talented newcomers will join the squad and attempt to forge their own legacy in the distinguished history of Iowa State women's basketball.

Fennelly will try to guide his young squad to its fifth straight NCAA Tournament appearance and in the process will seek his 500th career victory. The 2010-11 schedule provides another stern test as the Cyclones are set to face 15 teams that advanced to postseason play last season.
