

No 2 I have directed this to mother & tell her that I would have put on J. H. F. but, was afraid that Gardner Jeffs folks would think it was for them,

Now,

Sister Ann,

A few lines to you & Sam done for this time & I think you will say, you think it is time I stopped when you read such a lot of scribbling as there will be in one envelope. He said he was going to write you so I thought if he did I would not this time, but Nelson & Lucinda was here yesterday & today he is out does helping Sam. Nelson loads up some wheat to carry down to Jesse's & so he says he can't write to send this time. By the way I will say to John that I think he has lost Helen for I saw Mr. Thomas going that way yes, after him. But tell him Lucinda says that he had better not be talking about other girls, for she will not have it; after all the pains she has taken to learn Rhoda to cook & eat. Tell him he kissed his Laguerre & says pretty Johnny. But I will whisper in your ear that she kisses all the D's, but don't tell John, will you? Tell Ann that it is a long time since I got a letter from her, & don't know but she is angry with me because I have not written to her at C. but tell her that I would, if I knew how I ought to direct, but I hope she will not think, I think less of her if I have not written & tell her I will write the other when I know where to direct. By the way I suppose you have sent the letter I enclosed in yours to her & have given her the ring if she has been home. I am going to send the other to you next week week I think; you must think of me when you are dusting your parlor chairs with them. You will see by mother's that I had rather bad luck my birthday, don't you think so? Tell Mary Filds that I was pleased to hear from her & will ans. soon, I want you to write me her P.C. address when you answer this don't forget it will you?. How is Mr. & his lady love getting along? Tell him to stay at home one Sun. eve. & ans. our letters that is Sam. & our's I. says he owes him a letter, I send his respects to you, Mr. J's folks say that it seem as if they were acquainted with my folks, as they hear me talk about them & you write so much that they like to hear about. You must excuse this for I am in haste to finish to get dinner.

Write all the news & odds. Your aged sister
